Originally, Maxwell Dillon was an electrical engineer and lineman, who (while repairing a power line) was struck by lightning. Instead of dying, Dillion found that he had been turned into a living electrical capacitor, and began stealing equipment from Stark Industries to further his electrical powers (which were initially weak). During this time, he was approached by Magneto and offered membership into the Brotherhood of Evil Mutants, Magneto claiming Dillion's powers rivaled even his own, but he refused. Later, Dillon killed a thug who he had been borrowing money from after the latter pulled a gun on him, committing murder for the first time.

After this incident, Dillon took up the name "Electro" and decided to become a professional criminal, robbing the Daily Bugle by stealing J. Jonah Jameson's safe right in front of him. Because of this, Jameson proclaimed that Electro was merely an alternate identity of Spider-Man's, prompting the latter to prove him wrong, although he nearly died from touching Electro's body in their first confrontation. After this, Spider-Man defeated Electro with a fire hose, while wearing rubber gloves to protect himself.

Other Appearances

Electro has appeared in several Spider-Man TV shows and video games.

Spider-Man 2: Enter Electro

Electro wants to get his hands on a powerful invention called the Bio-Nexus device which can amplify one's bio-energy to power a city block, but in his hands it would make him invincible.

He is helped out by many other villains to obtain the pieces of the device: Shocker, Sandman, Hammerhead and the Beetle.

Electro is able to assemble all the pieces, but is still unable to make it work so he takes the inventor of the device Dr. Watts hostage to give him more information about the device.

He then sees a picture in a newspaper passed onto him by one of his henchmen that shows the missing componant, a large fist sized gem called the Zeus' Tear which is the main power source and is on display at the museum.

Spider-Man who also knew about the gem follows him to the museum and after a fierce battle, Spidey is able to grab the jewel, but Electro threatens to kill the doctor if the webslinger won't give it to him. So Spidey does but he misses grabbing the gem back with his web when he has Dr. Watts tossed at him.

Electro catches the jewel inserts it into the device and a massive surge of energy flows over him. With the Bio-Nexus device now complete, Electro makes his escape, but Spidey follows him to a massive enery conductor at a tower where the supervillain charges himself and transforms into a being of pure energy called Hyper Electro.

He proves to be unstoppable against Spider-Man, firing strong bursts of electricity and even flourishing a lightning staff. Unable to directly attack him the webslinger uses the tower's generators to overload and destroy the Bio-Nexus device ending Electro's scheme for good.

Electro is then arrested and imprisoned along with Shocker and Hammerhead. He moans about his defeat and is told to shut up by Hammerhead.

The Spectacular Spider-Man

In The Spectacular Spider-Man TV series, Electro is a supporting antagonist (along with the Vulture, Chameleon, Sandman, Mysterio, Tinkerer and the Enforcers) and was voiced by Crispin Freeman.

Spider-Man Web of Shadows

When the Symbiote invasion was happening, Electro was one of the characters that was infected with a Symbiote. Spider-Man encounters Max, scared. He tries to ask Max what was wrong with him, but Electro electrocuted Spidey and ran away. Spider-Man then chases and fights a scared Electro to get some answers. After he was defeated, a young girl that appeared to be Electro's sister came up to him and infected Max with the symbiote.

Spider-Man encounters Electro again, but this time, he wears a symbiote suit. He used his electric powers to increase the power of the Symbiotes and take over New York. After Spider-Man defeated Electro, You are given the choice to A). Convince Electro to fight Symbiote, or B). Convince Electro to keep the symbiote on him. After that He becomes an ally to the Black Suit Spider-Man.

Spider-Man: Shattered Dimensions

Electro is one of the bosses in Spider-Man: Shattered Dimensions. He appears in the Ultimate Universe and is one of the enemies that acquired a shard of the Tablet of Order and Chaos.

The Amazing Spider-Man 2

Electro appears as one of the two main antagonists in The Amazing Spider-Man 2. He was promoted as the main antagonist of the film, but this position is later shared with the Green Goblin.

Marvel's Spider-Man

Electro appears as a minor villain in Marvel's Spider-Man. Prior to the events of the game, Electro was defeated by Spider-Man after he murdered police officers through convoluted means and was imprisoned inside the Raft. He was freed by Doctor Octopus and he joined his Sinister Six. Electro was tasked with destroying Oscorp power plants and would be rewarded with an upgrade to his suit that would make his as close to pure energy as possible. He worked with the Inner Demons to hold a police station hostage, but Spider-Man managed to liberate it. After Doc Ock's trap failed, he and Vulture attempted to work together to kill Spider-Man, but both were defeated.

Powers and Abilities

Electrostatic Energy Generation: Electro possesses the ability to bodily generate electrostatic energy which he can release or harness for a number of effects. He is powered by the micro-fine rhythmic muscle contractions that normally regulate body temperature. His body can generate electricity at a rate of about 10,000 volts per minute, up to his maximum storage capacity of 10,000,000 volts. At that point, his body automatically stops producing electricity. As he expends his electrostatic energy, his body automatically begins to recharge the stores. Electro can mentally control the amount of electricity he discharges, anywhere from a single volt to his full 10,000,000 volt charge at once. At ten to thirty feet, his maximum charge is more than enough to kill a man. Electro can also use his body as a transformer, touching an outside power source (such as a generator) and channeling it through his body for use. The amount of electricity he can transform above his body's maximum storage capacity is unknown.

Electro can employ his electrostatic energy in a number of ways:

Lighting Bolt Projection: The simplest manifestation is the emission of a lightning-like electric arc from his fingertips, which can propagate through air or other conducting mediums. This discharge, whose total voltage can be regulated within certain limits, travels at the speed of lightning, about 150,000 feet per second. The course of the electrostatic bolt, like lightning, does not always follow a straight line since it may be influenced by conducting substances like metal or other electrical fields. If his target is not grounded, his electrostatic bolt will have little effect. The maximum effective range of his bolts is about 100 feet.

Electromagnetic Propulsion via Electrical Lines and Bridges: Electro can propel himself along the accompanying magnetic lines of force in objects that have great electrical potential, such as high-tension electrical lines. He generates light, eddying electrical fields around his legs, which develops an intense, opposing magnetic field that can support him above the electric cable's magnetic field. By creating imbalances in his field, he can ride along on magnetic ripples at speeds of up to 140 miles per hour, the maximum speed at which he can still breathe unaided. He can sometimes create electrostatic bridges to traverse upon, although the expenditure of energy is enormous.

Electrical Detection: Electro's electrical powers also grant him certain sensory and manipulative abilities. By "feeling" the course of electricity through the circuitry of any electrically-powered device, Electro can override the system and make the device obey his mental commands. Electro can disconnect alarm systems, control computers in a limited way, or overload any electrically controlled system that is insufficiently shielded.

Electrocution: The electric flux of Electro's skin is such that when his electric charge is at a maximum, a person touching him is in danger of being electrocuted.

Recharging: By using an external electrical power source to recharge his body's energy reserves, he could expend electrical energy indefinitely without diminishing his personal reserves.

Electrical Conversion into Enhanced Physical Attributions: The electricity coursing through his altered body augments his strength, speed, and recuperative powers. When fully charged, Electro is able to lift (press) about 500 pounds.

Metal Ionization: Electro was taught by Doctor Octopus during a stint in prison that he could ionize metals.

Disruption of Wall-Crawling Abilities: Electro's powers also can disrupt Spider-Man's electrostatic ability to cling to walls.

Localized Electromagnetic Storms: Electro once defeated the Invisible Woman when he created a localized Electromagnetic Storm. This allowed him to carbonize the air around her and it imprisoned her in a sheath of rock hard electro carbon atoms. Effectively making a statue out of her.

Electromagnetic Manipulation: An experimental procedure temporarily heightened his powers, allowing Electro to store and absorb a seemingly limitless amount of electricity. He could fly by generating a massive field of electricity which could propel him through the air. He also seemed to gain the power of magnetokinesis to a certain degree, allowing him to manipulate magnetic fields and move objects in a manner similar to that of Magneto, and could overcome his old weakness to water by using the electromagnetic fields around him to vaporize water before it could touch him. He was able to defeat Nate Grey by manipulating the bio-electric currents in the human brain to turn Nate's own psionic powers against him, and do the same to make Spider-Man beg. Presumably, had he further explored the implications of this power, he would have been able to control people's entire bodies this way as well, and might have been able to control machines in a similar way. He was also able to painfully paralyze anyone by overcharging their synapses' bio-electrical transmissions. However, Electro somehow seems to have lost these new abilities after he threw himself into the Hudson River, resulting in an explosion.

Immunity to Electricity: Electro's body is immune to the effects of its electricity and that of other sources as well. Hence, Electro cannot be electrocuted no matter how great the voltage.

Charging: Electro can charge himself up to reach high maximum voltage. Here he can grow in height to an enormous humanoid looking creature made up of nothing but electricity.

Me: Max Dillon A.K.A. Electro!

Qin: I thought you were still in the Moon Prison!

Electro: The Masters of Evil recruited me. I honestly did like that rant fest at Icky Vicky.

Nico: I know you did. But she got herself moved to another prison because of her assaulting your fellow prisoners in the cafeteria.

Me: If she wasn't that screwed up in the head, we would've kept her in the Moon prison.

?: I also have come.

We then saw another figure come out and it was the GENERATION 16 HYPER BOT from episodes 25 and 26 of R.P.M.!

This dinosaur, gorilla-like Attack Bot was originally intended to be the next body for Venjix. However, after Tenaya 7 managed to sabotage the bot, when General Shifter activated it to show its power, the monster attacked Venjix. The evil master then banished General Shifter. As he left, Shifter took the Hyper Bot with him. In the Wastelands, Shifter vowed revenge on both the Rangers and Venjix. After the Rangers defeated the Heat Bot, Shifter made his Hyper Bot grow and attack the Megazords, but then, he quickly retreat.

The Rangers later learned that his first attack was to sample wavelengths and matrix data of the Bio Field, so that when he returned, he could gain control of any of the Rangers' technologies. The only way to stop him would be to get the Base Codes that were used to program the bot. Tenaya, now knowing that she was Dillon's sister and wanting to help, offered to get the codes. When the Hyper Bot returned, the Red Ranger battled it with the PaleoMax Megazord. However, Shifter quickly upgraded the bot's power with a key of his. The key not only made the Hyper Bot more powerful, but he allowed it to take control of the PaleoMax Megazord, forcing the Red Ranger out. The ValveMax & Mach Megazords soon arrived and tried to stop the now-evil PaleoMax and Hyper Bot, but they weren't strong enough. The Red Ranger rejoined the fight. He along with Blue & Yellow fought with the High Octane Megazord, but were still defeated. Luckily Tenaya came through with the Base Codes, and Dr. K was able to return the PaleoMax to normal. Dr. K then discovered the capabilities of all 12 Zords to combine together to form the RPM Ultrazord. The Rangers brought their Zords together to form the RPM Ultrazord, which towered over the Hyper Bot. During the battle, the bot threw everything it had at the Ultrazord, but it was no use. The Rangers used the Road Attack Zord's Burn Out finishing attack, and then finished the Hyper Bot with the RPM

Ultrazord's own finisher move. With the bot destroyed, the upgrade key from Shifter fell back to the ground. General Shifter then used the key on himself to make himself more powerful.

Dillon: The Generation 16 Hyper Bot!

Generation 16 Hyper Bot: Long time no see rangers.

Scott Truman: I thought you were destroyed!

Me: I remember this guy! He was sent to gain control of the Rangers technologies.

Flynn McAllister: (Scottish Accent) That's right.

Generation 16 Hyper Bot: (to Dillon) You seem to have gone against your programming, Black Ranger. After your teammates are dead, I'm taking you to Vypra and Venjix to get reeducated.

Me: Venjix is dead. I also blew up the whole factory that he operated in on the planet Earth the R.P.M. rangers came from. There's nothing left of it.

Lana: That's right you tin freak.

Me: But lets dance you freaks.

Emma: Let's ground this lizard!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Sun Flare Squad!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Solar Squadron Sun Vulcan Rangers from 1982.

Laney: I'll take Bane.

Lincoln: I'll face Electro.

Me: Lets get them.

We went at them.

---

Battle 1: Bane

---

Venom, Rhino and Laney were facing Bane.

Bane: So you will face me Laney. I can't wait to break you.

Laney: I'm not the same as I was when we faced you the last time Bane. I have gotten stronger since then.

Bane: Then show me.

Laney: With pleasure.

Laney then was enveloped in a powerful vortex of flower petals and her power increased tremendously at an accelerated rate. When the vortex of petals faded Laney looked like she was 17 years old and she had her brown hair in a braided ponytail and she had a red rose hair bow and she had red cherry blossom earrings on and her eyes showed the pink beauty of 1 million cherry blossoms and she had her scarf wrapped around her waist and she had bracelets that had flower dragons on them and she had a beautiful skirt with flowers and leaves on it and she had black combat boots on and she had her scythe ready. On the back of her shirt was the kanji for The Graceful Assassin of Flowers and Nature. 花と自然の優雅な暗殺者。Laney was now a Super Angel 20,000 Graceful Rose!

Laney: (Older Voice) This is how much I've changed.

Bane: Then lets see how you face me at my maximum.

Bane pressed a button and it had a device on his left arm pump the Venom drug into him and it increased his muscle mass 100-fold.

Laney: Now I will break you.

Venom: We all will.

Laney went at him and teleported and kicked him in the back of the head and she teleported and kicked him in the stomach with devastating force and she punched him in the face and kicked him in the chest and sent him crashing into a wall and Bane got up and went at her. She punched him in the stomach and kicked him in the side of the face and sent him crashing into the wall again. He got up and Laney slashed him in the back and cut him good with her scythe. Laney formed a powerful whip of rose thorns and she lashed Bane all over. Rhino smashed into Bane and knocked him into a bunch of barrels and Venom formed a lasso and threw him into the wall. Laney grabbed him and threw him into another wall.

Bane: Very impressive señorita Laney. You have indeed gotten stronger since our last encounter.

Laney: Training can do that for you.

Venom: It sure can.

Laney kicked him in the face with incredible force and knocked him out.

Laney: You are still a very formidable adversary Bane. You could've gone into business as a bounty hunter. More profitable that way.

Battle 2: Electro

---

Lincoln, Shocker and Elena were facing Electro.

Lincoln: I like your new suit Matt. It really brings out the living lightning bolt in you.

Electro: I appreciate the compliment Lincoln.

Shocker fired a blast of lightning from his gauntlets and it hit Electro and made him flinch.

Electro: Never thought I would be fighting you as well, Herman. And how come your gauntlets shoot electricity?

Shocker: I made some upgrades to my gauntlets before the Sinister Six's last mission back in Australia.

Lincoln: And I too have gotten stronger myself. Watch.

Lincoln was enveloped in a massive vortex of lightning and then when it faded Lincoln turned into his Super Angel 20,000 Supercell Lightning Thunderbird form!

Lincoln: (Older Voice) How's this?

Electro: (to Lincoln) Very impressive. You got a new form. And I've got a new suit. Looks like we're both upgraded!

Lincoln: Lets see whose Lightning is Stronger.

THUNDERCLAP!

Lincoln took off faster than a bolt of lightning and punched him in the face with incredible force and fired a massive blast of lightning that measured at 900 Yottawatts and it electrocuted Electro all over with incredible power and Shocker and Elena fired a massive barrage of lightning blasts at Electro and electrocuted him all over and Lincoln kicked him in the face and punched him all over and then he knocked him out.

---

Battle 3: Generation 16 Hyper Bot

---

The Megaforce Rangers were facing the Hyper Bot and they fired energy blasts and lasers and blew him all over the place.

Troy Burrows: You will never win Hyper Bot!

Noah Carver: That's right!

They continued blasting him.

They then fired a massive energy blast and it slammed into him and exploded.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!

The Hyper Bot fell to the ground and exploded in a massive explosion of fire.

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Troy Burrows: That did it.

---

Battle 4: Repton

---

We were now facing Repton.

Beast Wars Dinobot: I find it absolutely appalling that you sound like me!

Repton: And you do sound like me huh? But that little brat is as ugly as you.

Lola: WHAT!?

Me: Uh oh?

Lola: What did you call me!?

Repton: (to Lola) I called you ugly and you're still not getting pissed off at me?

Lola: (counts to 10) I'm trying to keep my anger in check right now.

Repton: (smirks) That's too bad. For you! (punches her in the stomach)

Finn: (winces) That's gotta hurt!

Me: Not as much as this will.

I punched Repton in the face and knocked out some of his teeth and Nico punched him in the stomach and kicked him in the face and Nico punched him in the back of the head.

Nico: Repton, you have failed this world.

Me: And he has failed the entire universe.

Hunter: (German Accent) Ja! Lets see how he likes this. METAL STYLE NINJA ART: VORWÄRTS MARSCH!

When Johnny comes marching home again,

Hurrah! Hurrah!

We'll give him a hearty welcome then

Hurrah! Hurrah!

The men will cheer and the boys will shout

The ladies they will all turn out

And we'll all feel gay when Johnny comes marching home.

The old church bell will peal with joy

Hurrah! Hurrah!

To welcome home our darling boy,

Hurrah! Hurrah!

The village lads and lassies say

With roses they will strew the way,

And we'll all feel gay when Johnny comes marching home.

Get ready for the Jubilee,

Hurrah! Hurrah!

We'll give the hero three times three,

Hurrah! Hurrah!

The laurel wreath is ready now

To place upon his loyal brow

And we'll all feel gay when Johnny comes marching home.

Let love and friendship on that day,

Hurrah, hurrah!

Their choicest pleasures then display,

Hurrah, hurrah!

And let each one perform some part,

To fill with joy the warrior's heart,

And we'll all feel gay when Johnny comes marching home

Naruto fired a massive wave of wind that turned into the Confederate Armies of the American Civil War and they slashed and blasted Repton and his freaks all over the place.

Me: Whoa! That was awesome bro!

Jessie K.: That was amazing! That was the Confederate army of the American Civil War. That was a very famous song from back then.

Me: That one was over 110 feet long. This one was at 50 feet long.

Heidi: That's right. Architeuthis dux ; the Giant Squid can grow up to 66 feet long and that giant squid that grandpa and everyone faced was almost double that length.

Syd Chang: Whoa! That is amazing!

Ronnie Anne: It's amazing that there are that many amazing creatures in the ocean.

Bane and Electro appeared.

Maria: Before you two retreat, did Vexen tell Vypra about J.D.'s request?

Electro: He did. But Vypra's still thinking about it. She doesn't want to piss you guys off any further by reviving the rest of Organization XIII after everything that you did to defeat them and Xehanort.

Me: I'm not surprised. Organization XIII and Xehanort have caused a lot of problems for all of us.

Bane: She will, however, revive the Sombodies of Xaldin, Zexion, and Saix for all of you.

Maria: Well, at least that's still good.

Me: Yeah.

Electro: (to Spiderman) You might have Vanitas as a nemesis now, Web Head. But I'll still find time to fight you now and then.

Bane: (to Batman) Same goes for you and me, Batman!

With that, Electro and Bane teleport out.

Me: But at least we have new enemies for Laney and Lincoln.

Nico: Yep.

Maria: As for you three, (Hoerk, Spitz, and Leugey fear the worse) we're sending you to the Blizzarian's for community service. You still owe them for that Blizzard Crystal incident.

Me: Yep.

Stork: (To the viewers) Never underestimate the power of Team Loud Phoenix Storm and with them helping us, we can be rid of the Cyclonians once and for all.

We added the planet Atmos to our Solar System and we formed a new branch of the team called the Storm Hawks Coalition.

THE END

---

Another Fanfiction and awesome chapter done.

Storm Hawks was an awesome show and it is absolutely darn shame that it was cancelled and left in a blasted cliffhanger! What a rip! NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks man. ArchangelOfJustice12 gave me the ideas for the techniques. Thanks man. Next up is Scooby Doo Frankencreepy and we're going to deal with a monster created by some of the enemies of the Scooby Doo gang and we're going to make sure that they are sent back to prison.

See you all tomorrow.

Revenge of Scooby's Enemies

In the estate, in the backyard I was meditating under a peach tree and I was in a huge state of concentration as I was keeping my emotions in check.

Everyone else was having fun in the backyard playing.

Me: Oooooooooommmm…

With us was another one of Hunter's friends from Germany. His name was Matthias Feuchtwanger. He has blonde hair, crystalline blue eyes, roman nose, a small goatee, straight eyebrows, almost the same age as Mandee. Wearing green shirt with grey jacket, brown trench winter coat, dark grey pants, Bavarian boots, Bavarian belt, touchscreen leather gloves, and has a small Federal Republic of Germany flag on his jacket.

Lincoln: It's a true honor to have you here Matthias.

Matthias: (German Accent) Danke Lincoln. Hunter told me so much about you all.

Axel Adell: (Swedish Accent) Welcome to the team Matthias.

Matthias: Danke Axel. It's an honor.

Hunter: (German Accent) It's great to have you here.

Lynn: It sure is.

Junko: Hey guys.

Laney: Hey Junko. How are you and the Storm Hawks liking it here on Earth?

Junko: It's really awesome! And the food is amazing.

Kevin Levin: Junko, what the Hell is that?

Junko: This is Tynki, my nephew. My second nephew's third uncle's first cousin was so impressed by how you guys helped us kill Repton that he wanted you guys to watch Tynki for the day.

Lincoln: He's adorable.

Laney: He sure is.

Junko: He's quite a troublemaker though. He can cause a ruckus.

Lana: How bad can he be?

---

French Narrator: (French Accent) 20 minutes later.

---

Tynki was causing a lot of problems in the house. He was getting into trouble a lot.

Stork: I'm just glad Tynki's not in the Condor this time.

Meta Knight: Well, now the estate will suffer Tynki's wrath this time.

Lincoln: He has a really big amount of mischief on him.

Swindle: Guys, this is serious. What if Tynki ends up with us on a mission? He'll be in grave danger!

Nico: I know. But he's so cute and we can't stay mad at a little cute guy like him.

Sunstreaker: (to the Loud Kids) Please tell me you guys can get Tynki to sit still!

Lori: We sure can. We literally have experiences in this thing.

Leni: Totes. Lets us handle it.

Lori and the Loud Kids were taking care of Tynki and more and they had a great time.

Nico: Amazing.

Later Tynki was asleep and I came in.

Me: Hey guys. I see you got Tynki to fall asleep.

Laney: We sure did.

Nico: He was a wily little tyke but he is a cute one.

Me: I can see that.

Junko: Thanks for watching him for me guys.

Nico: Anytime Junko.

Matthias: He is a great kid.

Me: I can see.

Shaggy, Crystal, Amber and Scooby then came in frantic.

Me: Shaggy, Scooby, Crystal, Amber what's wrong?

Shaggy: We, like, have a terrible problem guys!

Scooby Doo: Reah! Mystery Inc. broke up!

Me: What!?

Maria: You're kidding me! Mystery Inc. split up?!

Shaggy: Yeah! And we need you guys to help bring them back together so we can save Velma!

William: And you two aren't being cowardly about this?

Me: Tell us what is going on.

Shaggy told us that someone destroyed the Mystery Machine and Velma inherited a castle over in Romania and Shaggy is afraid that something is up.

Crystal: Like yeah. It's awful. I have a feeling it's bad.

Me: We better find them and see what's up. Lets go guys.

We went to Fred's house and we saw that Fred was sitting on the couch in a slump.

Me: Hey Fred. We heard what happened. Are you okay?

Fred: Yeah.

Riku: Hey, Fred. Hope you don't mind visitors right now. Because it's mystery time!

Fred: (sighs) Leave me alone.

Kingdom Hearts Terra: C'mon, you need to hear this. You used to be fearless. You would have given your life to save Daphne whenever she was the damsel in distress. And you led Mystery Inc to victory all the time.

Me: That's right.

Goofy: Yeah, Fred. Don't you know what that meant to us? You gave us all courage. Even Shaggy and Scooby.

Laney: And Crystal and Amber.

Lea: (scoffs as Fred remains silent) Hmph. Well, maybe you should've kept some for yourself. I mean, are you really gonna throw all those good times with the Gang away?

Xion: I get it. The Mystery Machine is precious to you. But you know what else is precious in your heart? Daphne, Shaggy, Scooby, and Velma.

Me: And me, Crystal and Amber as well as Miyumi and everyone else we all helped all over the world.

Kairi: And we have a chance to get Daphne and Velma back. But only if you help us.

Mickey: So don't throw away this chance. Do you really want to throw in the towel over something that can easily be fixed?

Fred realized that we were right.

Fred: You're right! I am the leader of Mystery Inc and a great mystery solver. Lets go help Daphne and Velma!

Miyumi: (Japanese Accent) That's the Fred Jones I know.

Matthias: That's the spirit!

Axel Adell: Yeah!

Me: Lets head to Romania.

We were on our way to Romania.

TRANSYLVANIA, ROMANIA

We arrived in Transylvania in Romania.

Me: Transylvania.

Brittney: Vampire Capital of The World. It's also the birth place of Vlad III The Impaler who Bram Stoker got the inspiration for Count Dracula.

Lucy Loud: I've always wanted to come here to Transylvania.

Haiku: Me too.

Silas: It's so amazing.

Wednesday Addams: It's a perfect Gothic Paradise.

Me: Boy it sure is a terrifying place. It's hard to imagine that for centuries, Transylvania has been known as one of the great horror capitals of the world.

Juleka: It's so cool being here.

Laney: It sure is a creepy place.

Fred: But where is Daphne and Velma?

Me: We'll find them Fred.

Lincoln: I think we found Daphne.

We saw that Daphne was bloated and really overweight and she was about to drink a bottle of Bleach!

Me: (Gasp) She's trying to take her life!

Lori: Is she literally crazy!?

We went over and May stopped her by taking the bleach!

Nico: Daphne are you crazy!?

May: Daphne, why the Hell did you try to eat a whole bottle of bleach?!

Daphne Blake: I DON'T WANT TO LIVE ANYMORE! I'M FAT AND UGLY AND NO ONE WILL EVER LOVE ME!

Me: Daphne wait.

I poked the dress.

Me: Just as I thought.

I pulled the dress off and we saw that Daphne was swelled because she was allergic to something.

Laney: Daphne is allergic to something. I know these symptoms anywhere.

Daphne Blake: I'm allergic to shellfish.

Laney: Luckily I came prepared.

Laney pulled out an epinephrine pen for Shellfish allergies and injected it into Daphne. She was back to normal.

Daphne Blake: Thanks Laney.

Laney: You're welcome Daphne.

Me: Where's Velma?

Daphne Blake: She's in the castle.

Me: We got to get over there. Come on!

We went over to the old Von Dinkelstein Castle.

We went in and we saw Velma, who was working on something.

Me: Velma?

Velma: (Insane Laughter)

Me: I sense energy imbalances. She has been hypnotized.

I snapped my fingers and broke her free of the hypnosis.

Velma: Huh?

She was back to normal.

Me: Velma, are you all right?

Velma: Yes thanks to you J.D. What happened?

Me: You were hypnotized. You were doing some kind of crazy project.

A monster roar was heard and we saw an ugly and disgusting monstrosity! It had the body of a gorilla, the right arm of an octopus, the left arm of a crab, an unclear beastly head with bolts sticking out like antennae, huge teeth, the right leg of a dragon, the left leg of an elephant and the tail of a sea monster. It was FRANKENCREEP!

Shaggy: ZOINKS! What is that!?

Me: What the fuck is that!? That is an ugly monstrosity!

Hunter: Ja!

Me: Whoever made a monstrosity like that has to have one seriously fucked up and deranged mind with absolutely no respect for anything!

Velma: That was the work of my ancestor Baron Von Dinkelstein. He was an insane mad scientist.

Me: Your ancestor was one seriously fucked up piece of shit Velma. But lets destroy this ugly freak.

Nico: Right!

Laney: Lets get him!

We went at the monster and I punched it in the face and fired a powerful blast of energy and it slammed into it and exploded.

Du gamla du fria du fjällhöga nord,

Du tysta du glädjerika sköna,

Jag hälsar dig värnaste land uppå jord,

Din sol din himmel dina ängder gröna

Din sol din himmel dina ängder gröna

Du tronar på minnen från fornstora dar,

Då ärat ditt namn flög över jorden,

Jag vet att du är och du blir vad du var, Ja jag vill leva jag vill dö i norden

Ja jag vill leva jag vill dö i norden

Jag städes vill tjäna mitt älskade land,

Dig trohet till döden vill jag svära

Din rätt skall jag värna med håg och med hand,

Din fana högt din bragderika bära

Din fana högt din bragderika bära

Med Gud skall jag kämpa för hem och för härd

För sverige den kära fosterjorden,

Jag byter dig ej mot allt i en värld,

Nej jag vill leva jag vill dö i norden

Nej jag vill leva jag vill dö i norden

On kauniina muistona Karjalan maa,
Mutta vieläkin syömmestä soinnahtaa,
Kun soittajan sormista kuulla saa,
Säkkijärven polkkaa!
Se polkka taas menneitä mieleen tuo
Ja se outoa kaipuuta rintaan luo.
Hei, soittaja, haitarin soida suo
Säkkijärven polkkaa!
Nuoren ja vanhan se tanssiin vie,
Ei sille polkalle vertaa lie!
Sen kanssa on vaikka mierontie
Säkkijärven polkkaa!
Siinä on liplatus laineitten,
Siinд on huojunta honkien.
Karjala soi - kaikki tietää sen -
Säkkijärven polkkaa!
Tule, tule tyttö, nyt kanssani tanssiin,
Kun polkka niin herkästi helkähtää.
Hoi! Hepo surkoon ja hammasta purkoon,
Kun sillä on ihmeesti suurempi pää!
Tule, tule, tyttö, nyt kanssani tanssiin

Kun meillä on riemu ja suvinen sää!
Säkkijärvi se meiltä on pois,
Mutta jäi toki sentään polkka!
Kun rakkaimmat rannat on jääneet taa,
Niin vieraissa kulkija lohdun saa, kun
Kuuntelee soittoa kaihoisaa:
Säkkijärven polkkaa!
Se polkka on vain, mutta sellainen,
Että tielle se johtavi muistojen.
On sointuna Karjalan kaunoisen:
Säkkijärven polkka!

Sunstreaker fired a beam blast and it merged with Meta Knights sword and he slashed the Frankencreep all over the place.

Fuse Man: This will be electrifying.

Rhino: Lets do it!

Fuse Man fired a blast of lightning and Rhino went at the Frankencreep.

Fuse Man and Rhino: LIGHTNING RAMMING SHOCK!

The lightning merged into Rhino's horn and he rammed into Frankencreep and electrocuted him all over and knocked him down.

Aerrow: This is gonna be awesome!

Lori: Literally is.

Aerrow fired a blast of energy and Lori fired a wind blast.

Aerrow and Lori: SKYSTORM WIND BURST!

The blasts hit the Frankencreep and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Zarya: This is gonna hurt.

Luan: It will Hurt you more than anything! (Laughs) Get it? But seriously it will hurt.

Zarya fired a blast of energy and it turned into a wolf and Luan fired a powerful blast of light.

Zarya and Luan: AURORA WOLF HYPER BURST!

The blasts combined and turned into a wolf made of pure aurora energy and it slammed into the Frankencreep and exploded.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Lynn: Time for some pain!

Sophie: (British Accent) With pleasure Lynn! ATTACK! SABRIEL!

Sophie summoned Sabriel.

Lynn fired a blast of lava and Sophie and Sabriel fired blasts of lightning and energy.

Lynn and Sophie with Sabriel: VOLCANIC LIGHTNING FIRESTORM!

The blasts combined and they hit the Frankencreep and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Velma: And now it's time to destroy what I made!

Sam S.L.: With pleasure!

Velma and Sam fired blasts of fire.

Velma and Sam S.L.: QUANTUM FIRESTORM BURST!

The blasts combined and turned into an equation made of pure fire and it slammed into the Frankencreep and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMM

Me: Time to finish this monster for good!

Sydney Burlington: With pleasure. STARBLADE SLASHSTORM!

Sydney slashed the Frankencreep all over with a powerful barrage of slashes.

Roy Fitzgerald: No one kills our friends and gets away with it! LIGHTNING CLAWFIST STRIKE!

Roy slashed the Frankencreep all over with Razorfist's claws and it really hurt.

Stacy Bolton: Try this on! LIGHTNING SHARK CHOMP AND SLASH!

Stacy fired a blast of lightning and it turned into a Sawshark made of pure lightning and it chomped and slashed the Frankencreep.

Lincoln: Bring down the lightning! LIGHTNING DRAGON ELECTROCUTION!

Lincoln fired a blast of lightning that turned into a powerful dragon and it slammed into the Frankencreep and electrocuted him.

Lana: Freeze will you? SUBZERO ICE PUNCH!

Lana punched the Frankencreep and froze it in a block of ice.

Nico: That looked like it was based on Frigimon's attack.

Lana: It was.

Nico: Really cold.

Warren: Lets see how he likes the power of us. Ready girls?

Brittany: You bet bro.

Betty (Loud House Rabbits): Lets do it!

The Loud Rabbits got into formation.

Loud Rabbits: LOUD RABBITS FOREST LEAFSTORM!

The Loud Rabbits fired a wave of leaves and it slammed into the Frankencreep and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Fred: No one hurts us!

Mystery Inc: MYSTERY ELEMENTAL FIRESTORM!

Mystery Inc. fired a massive blast of elemental energy and it hit the Frankencreep and exploded.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The Frankencreep was dead as we saw a huge hole blown into its chest and I pulled on its head and saw that it was real!

Me: It's all real! I think this is the work of the Masters of Evil. But something tells me that this is not over.

Then I smelled a weird odor in the air. But I knew the smell.

Me: (Sniffs) Uh oh. I know. That smell.

Lisa Loud: I too know this odor. It's natural gas!

Me: And this castle is lit by torches! We got to get out of here!

We got out of the castle and we got out of there just in time as the whole castle exploded in a massive fiery explosion of incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The whole castle was completely destroyed in a massive fiery explosion. We landed back in the town.

Me: That was a close one.

Velma: It sure was.

Nico: But the Frankencreep is dead.

Lily: Good riddance.

?: That's not the only thing you have to worry about.

We saw a figure come out and it was KING LEONARD MUDBEARD!

---

King Leonard Mudbeard (also simply known as Leonard Mudbeard) is the main antagonist of Sonny Pictures Animation's 15th feature film The Angry Birds Movie, and one of the tritagonists in Sonny Pictures Animation's 24th feature film The Angry Birds Movie 2. He is a greedy tyrant, and the dimwitted king of the Bad Piggies, replacing the King Pig and Red's former arch-nemesis.

He was voiced by Bill Hader, who also played Agent Haggard in Paul, Hansel in Hoodwinked Too!: Hood vs. Evil, and Guy Gagné in DreamWorks' Turbo.

Leonard first appears when he and his gang of pigs arrive to Bird Island by boat, crashing onto Red's house by the shore, much to Red's distraught. Leonard then introduces himself to the birds, claiming himself and his gang to be peaceful explorers offering friendship. Red openly suspects of the pigs' motives, but the the other birds don't listen to him due to his anger issues, much to Red's dismay. As such, Leonard starts throwing out celebrations for the pigs and birds, even introducing the latter to a giant slingshot and helium balloons for fun.

Stealing the Eggs and Preparing the Feast

While Leonard hosts up a disco party for the birds, Red, along with his friends Chuck and Bomb, soon learn that the pigs have implanted explosives around the island and realized that they plan to steal the eggs for food (even the disco party was nothing more than a distraction to keep the birds busy). While Chuck attempts to warn the others, Red and Bomb attempt to retrieve the stolen eggs, but Leonard and the pigs escape in their ship and set their explosives off to destroy the village. Declaring that he has finally got the eggs in his possession, Leonard happily orders his pigs to sail back to their home at Piggy Island. The other birds apologize to Red for not listening to him, but they feel hopeless until Red motivates them to let out their anger on the pigs in order to retrieve their eggs back.

As Red and the birds construct a raft to head over to Piggy Island, Leonard returns back home to his castle and declares a feast as he plans to have the eggs cooked into omelets for his entire kingdom to eat. As the birds finally reach Piggy Island, Red uses the giant slingshot to launch a series of attacks on the castle, deducing that the eggs are stored inside and wanting to get even with Leonard for wrecking his house. Spotting the birds, Leonard orders his fellow pigs to stop them while he prepares his feast for his kingdom. Eventually, Red, Chuck, and Bomb manage to infiltrate the castle and retrieve the eggs from being cooked (with the help from an arriving Mighty Eagle). However, one of the eggs gets loose and Red remains behind while letting Mighty Eagle, Chuck, and Bomb escape with the eggs.

Final Battle and Defeat

With his patience finally worn out, Leonard angrily tries to take the egg from Red, resulting both of them to fall into the castle's reserve of explosives. Though Leonard manages to catch the egg and is about to fry it with a candle while standing on a pile of dynamite, Red (in a rare moment of calmness) manages to trick Leonard into letting his guard down by complimenting him of his plan of stealing the eggs. As Leonard fell for it by thanking Red for it, Red pulls out a box full of dynamites, causing Leonard to slide down and allowing Red to retrieve the egg while the candle lights up a few dynamite. Red then shields himself and the egg by hiding inside a falling giant pot while Leonard screams as the explosives go off, destroying the castle and the rest of Piggy Island. Red and the birds then make off with the eggs unscathed while Leonard and the pigs seemingly perish in the explosion.

With the pigs finally defeated, the birds head back to Bird Island with their eggs in peace. During the end credits, it turns out that the pigs have survived the destruction of Piggy Island, including Leonard, who is last seen sitting on the remains of his castle fuming over the destruction of his kingdom. As the birds and pigs dance to "I Will Survive", a vengeful Leonard swears to 'hatch up' a new plan for revenge before joining in to dance with the other pigs.

Truce

The birds and pigs are in constant war against each other after Piggy Island, which was destroyed in a prior battle with the birds, is rebuilt. After an ice ball from a nearby isle called Eagle Island hits the sea near Piggy Island, forcing pigs to have a truce with the birds, Leonard comes to Red's house to negotiate. Red reluctantly agrees to build an alliance with the pigs and they recruit Chuck, Bomb, Silver and Mighty Eagle.

Me: King Leonard!

Shanan: But you were in prison!

Lori: So you escaped!

Leonard: That's right and you Louds don't have the Angry Birds to help you this time!

Shanan: Don't be so sure. HIYOOO HAAAAAAAAAAAAAA!

Shanan summoned the Angry Birds!

Red Bird: What's up Shanan?

Me: Him.

They saw Leonard.

Angry Birds: LEONARD MUDBEARD!?

Stella (Angry Birds): But I thought he was in prison!

Me: He was broken out by the Masters of Evil.

?: He'sss not the only one.

We saw another figure and it was KING HISS!

---

King Hiss is the supreme ruler of the sinister and cruel race known as the Snake Men and arch-nemesis to Zodak, the Cosmic Enforcer. In ancient times, the Snake Men nearly conquered Eternia. King Hiss confronted King Grayskull before the Evil Horde, led by Hordak would attack. During the "Great Wars" Shiela, the brother of Zodak was eaten by King Hiss. The Snake Men were defeated by the Elders and mystic Zodak, but ions later would return from their prison. King Hiss was the original inhabitant of Snake Mountain.

History

Not much is known about King Hiss' past. Once in ancient times he was named Hiss of the Viper House and was a servant to the mysterious evil entity "The Unnamed One". He was the most sinister and ruthless of Snake Men and would become their King. He - just like all other Snake Men - was a humanoid snake but unlike them could transform into a human-like facade. King Hiss would become able to wield dark magic as ancient as that of the Elders. With his armies of vicious Snake Men, he marched to King Grayskull's castle to conquer Eternia.

As the "Great Wars" unfolded, King Grayskull and King Hiss were locked in mortal combat. When they were on the brink of victory, the Evil Horde led by Hordak appeared and defeated the Snake Men. King Grayskull battled Hordak and died in the battle. The mystic Elders were born. The Snake Men returned to Snake Mountain which once was their living God Serpos. In a battle at Snake Mountain, King Hiss and the Snake Men faced off against Tiera and Zodak,the mystic Enforcers. Tiera was brutally killed and consumed by King Hiss' snake form. The Snake Men general,Rattlor, beat Zodak and threw him in a stream. From that day forth, Zodak promised he would avange his brothers deaths and destroy King Hiss. And so he did, and eventually the Snake Men were beaten by the combined strength of the Elders and Zodak. The Elders locked the Snake Men up in a deep dimensonal void deep within the hidden corridors of Snake Mountain. Only the staff of Zodak could re-open the void and free the snakes from their captivity.

Centuries passed. The Council of Elders was no more, the evil Skeletor and his warriors had taken shelter in Snake Mountain, and a new heroic warrior He-Man had risen to protect Eternia. A descendant of the old Snake Men, the viperous Kobra Khan was locked in the Eternian prison. Kobra Khan had all his life planned to somehow free his ancestors so they could rule Eternia once again. Khan escaped from his prison and left to Snake Mountain confronting Skeletor and his warriors.

Me: King Hiss!

Leni: What are you doing here?!

King Hiss: I'm here to kill you.

Xion: So, what's the deal with the Frankencreep? Is he a guy in a costume?

King Hiss: Of course not. The old enemies of Mystery Inc. were going to use Frankencreep for their revenge conspiracy before they got life in prison. We couldn't let it go to waste. So, Mistress Vypra made Frankencreep into a real monster!

Me: I knew something was up.

?: Yes indeed.

We saw another figure come out and it was GOLD DIGGER from episode 14 of Dino Charge!

---

Gold Digger is summoned by Sledge in order to destroy the Rangers under the threat he will be molten into jewelry in case he fails or does not comply. He is accompanied by Wrench, Curio and Poisandra. While the former two battle, the latter two become pestered and decides to leave to see Glitz World on TV, leaving the outlaw to battle the Rangers along with Wrench. He nearly squashes the heroes, but the newly-found Armor X proves enough to break through his defenses and defeat him. Once enlarged, he is destroyed by the Dino Charge Megazord's Tri-Stego-Ptera Formation.

Gold Digger is seen when Kendall Morgan infiltrates Sledge's ship and was destroyed offscreen when Sledge's ship crashes on Earth.

---

Tyler Navarro: Gold Digger!

Gold Digger: Long time no see rangers.

Me: I remember you! You were sent to destroy the rangers!

Gold Digger: Yes I was. I also remember how you Rangers defeated me when I was fused to Spellbinder!

Teresa: Does that mean Vypra can fuse monsters together into one combination?

Gold Digger: No. That was beause of Wrench's reanimator machine. Vypra thinks fusing monsters together would be too gross.

Me: I don't blame her.

Then out came Jimbo, Kearney and Dolph.

Jimbo: We're gonna kill you morons this time!

Orion: That's not gonna happen!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Lightmask Squad!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Light Squadron Maskman rangers from 1988.

Lori: Lets dance Mudbeard and for the record, I'm literally not the same I was before.

Mudbeard: How so?

Lori powered up and she was in a massive vortex of wind and her power was getting stronger at an accelerated rate. When it faded she had transformed into a new form. She was now a SUPER ANGEL 20,000 HURRICANE EAGLE!

Leonard: (to Lori) You may have a new form. But let's see how you and your two friends fare against 1000 green pigs!

Lori: I will eat all of you for breakfast.

Teresa: Save some for me.

Arpeggio: (British Accent) And me.

Lori, Teresa and Arpeggio fired blasts of wind and sonic energy and blew all of King Mudbeard's pigs apart in a massive vortex of wind that turned them into ham, bacon and sausage and Lana wrapped them up in plastic.

King Hiss: (to Karai) I think you remember our previous battle in Eternia.

Karai: (Japanese Accent) How can I forget.

Xion: You're going down King Hiss.

Leni, Karai and Xion slashed him all over with their swords and Keyblade and blasted him all over the place and they knocked him down.

Sam and Bart were facing Jimbo, Dolph and Kearney.

Jimbo: Say your prayers you fucking bitch!

Sam S.L.: You should say your prayers first baldy.

Sam punched Jimbo in the face and kicked Dolph in the chest and Bart kicked Kearney in the crotch and kneed him in the face and grabbed him by his shirt and flipped him and crushed Jimbo and Dolph with his huge girth.

Bart: You fuckwads make me sick!

The Megaforce Rangers blasted Gold Digger all over the place and he fell down in a massive fiery explosion.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!

King Hiss: You may have defeated us. But we'll be back!

Leonard: And I'd like you all to give Red and those other birds a message.

Arpeggio: And that would be?

Leonard: I'm back and so are the green pigs! (he and King Hiss teleport out)

Me: And we'll be ready.

Nico: I managed to gather all the perps responsible.

Velma: Awesome! This is one mystery that doesn't have a culprit. It has a conspiracy.

Me: A conspiracy?

With Nico was Agent Shimidlap of the United States Department Of Defense.

Agent Shimidlap: That's right. I'm Federal Agent Shimidlap from the United States Department of Defense. It's an honor to meet you all Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: Same to you sir.

Cars pulled up and they were all federal agents. They grabbed the people Nico caught.

Agent Shimidlap: Three weeks ago, one of our prototype experimental exoskeletons designed to increase the strength of the infantry men of the future was stolen from our research labs. I traced it to this town and went undercover in hopes of ferreting it out.

Nico: And here's the exoskeleton right here.

Vince came with the exoskeleton.

Velma: As I said. This was all a conspiracy.

Agent Shimidlap: Right. That's why they hypnotized you Velma.

Fred: Hypnotized? Who hypnotized you and why?

Shaggy: And why did Scooby and I become brave, not to mention full? Like, that was the weirdest feeling in the world.

Daphne Blake: Wait wait. Most importantly, how on earth did I end up in an inflatable suit? Okay maybe not most importantly. But I would sure like to know.

Velma: First of all I didn't solve this mystery. Fred had it figured out right away.

Me: Wow.

Velma: He did. He said it when the Mystery Machine exploded. This time it's personal. And it was. A personal attack on the Scooby Gang.

Nico pulled off the mustache and hat of a man and it was COTHWORD CRAWLY!?

Daphne Blake: Why would your family lawyer want to destroy us?

Me: He's not Velma's lawyer. He's someone I remember. He's really Cuthbert Crawls, the partner of Cosgood Creeps.

Qin: So he is Cuthbert Crawls, one of the Green Ghosts that haunted the Beauregard Sanders Mansion.

Me: Yep. And in the end it was all for nothing because of the entire fortune being only of Confederate Money. Totally worthless.

Velma: What kind of ghosts would travel hundreds of miles to haunt a lawyers office anyway? He wasn't there to scare us off. He was there to draw us in. Everyone knows we can't resist a mystery.

Me: True to that.

Velma: The so-called Baron's Curse was supposed to take away the things we cared about most. The first victim: The Mystery Machine. The next victim was Daphne, who started puffing up thanks to her shellfish allergy. She had no way of knowing that she was also slipping into its built in inflatable suit. And next up were Scooby and Shaggy, whose suits were also rigged. But with acupuncture needles concealed carefully inside. The pressure points not only suppressed hunger, they also created a false sense of courage. Giving them the confidence to chase after the monster. As for me, I was hypnotized by Mrs. Vanders into believing I could recreate my uncles experiment. Which I did. At least enough to create a diversion. A diversion for one of the conspirators dressed as the Frankencreep to switch places with the lifeless dummy.

Fred: They sure went to a lot of trouble to scare us off. But what was the treasure they were trying to scare us off from?

Me: Like King Hiss said. It was not about treasure this time.

Velma: That's right. This time it wasn't about money.

Me: It was about killing all of you.

Fred and the entire gang minus Velma gasped.

Daphne Blake: But why? Who would do such a thing? We don't even know these people.

Me: I wouldn't be so sure Daphne.

Nico revealed another man and it was one we know.

Mystery Inc.: C.L. MAGNUS!?

Qin: Who was he?

Me: He was a shipping magnate that was about to lose his shipping line unless he came up with a lot of money. He was also the Ghost of Captain Redbeard. He was gonna steal his own cargo from his ships and sell them for a fortune. We busted him and he got 30 to 50 years in prison for fraud and theft.

Nico: And our Gypsy is…

He pulled off her bandana and it was LILA!

Mystery Inc.: LILA!?

Me: Disgraced Pop Star Lila. She was a co-conspirator in the Mumba Wumba scheme. Knowing it would be a success, she and the mastermind Roger planned to cheat the entire band she was with out of their money and trick the lead singer into signing a contract to release them. She got 25 to 50 years for fraud and theft.

Qin: What a heartless bitch!

Nico: And this is no housekeeper.

He pulled off the mask and it was MAMA MIONE!

Mystery Inc.: MAMA MIONE!?

Qin: So she is Mama Mione.

Me: Yep. The champion water-skiier. She was the Ghost of Old Ironface and her costume become real and hurt Lori really badly.

Qin: Whoa!

Nico: And our bartender is…

Nico took off his mask and it was LARRY B. ACME!

Mystery Inc: LARRY B. ACME!

Me: The disgraced owner of Acme Dog Biscuits.

Qin: So he is Larry B. Acme.

Me: Yep.

Lana: Me and Volcana ate your costume.

Fred: Who would've thought there would be a conspiracy of people determined to destroy us.

Mama Mione: Uch! Are you kidding? Everyone you've ever busted wants revenge! We were turning people away in troves.

Lila: We fiended each other on the Scooby Gang Revenge Social Networking page. You wouldn't believe the number of yikes it got on a daily basis.

Me: Until I shut it down you bitch.

C.L. Magnus: It took us months and once we found out about Dinkley's family, we pooled our resources and bought the castle. We escaped from Federal Prison while you all were fighting Voldemort.

Cuthbert Crawls: And we slowly insinuated ourselves into the town with our chosen identities.

C.L. Magnus: Imagine our joy when we discovered the natural gas pockets under the estate. The castle became one enormous death trap!

Cuthbert Crawls: And we would've gotten our revenge on you fucking meddling kids!

Mama Mione: If it weren't for you MEDDLING KIDS!

Larry B. Acme: You kids make me sick!

Me: Meddling can be too much of a fucking good thing.

Roy: You guys are headed back to prison. And this time, your cells will have security installed!

Me: Well this time we'll have you transferred to the space prisons and we're gonna make sure you all never escape.

Nico: You all have failed this world.

They were taken away.

We cheered wildly.

Velma: (To the viewers) It was good to stop our villains again. But never mess with natural gas or else.

Me: Yep.

We left Transylvania and went back home. Mystery Inc was reunited and they promised to never split up again. All the villains that Mystery Inc. and us busted were sentenced to spend eternity in the Uranus Prison.

THE END

Gotham Royal York's War On Crime

Part 1: The Legendary Willow Maiden

---

In the middle of the forest, me and Xerneas were riding through the forest on my Rapidash. We saw the beautiful serenity of the forest with the trees, birds, animals and plants. It was so beautiful.

We were enjoying the beauty of life. We stopped and saw everything in the forest.

Me: (Inhales) Ahh. It's so beautiful out here.

Xerneas: It sure is J.D. It's so glorious and majestic and full of life.

Me: It sure is. Just like you Xenia.

Xerneas: Thank you.

Then I heard something. It sounded like singing.

Me: Wait. Hear that?

Xerneas: I sure do. It sounds like singing.

Me: Could it be?

We saw a beautiful Willow Tree and it was a magnificent tree. We went up to the Willow Tree and we saw a beautiful girl with red hair and emerald green eyes and she was singing beautifully. We stood in front of a ring of red toadstools.

Me: Wow. Are you the Willow Maiden?

Willow Maiden: I sure am. It's an honor to meet you J.D. Knudson and you too Lady Xerneas.

Me: Same to you. What is your name?

Willow Maiden: My name is Nerri.

Me: That is a beautiful name. My friend Laney sang a song about you.

Nerri: Wow. I'm honored she would sing about me.

Me: Would you like to come with me to live at the estate and be with us on Team Loud Phoenix Storm?

Nerri: I wish I could come with you but I cannot leave this place. I am forever bound to this tree. I cannot leave this tree.

Me: I see. But maybe there is a possibility that we can move your tree to our backyard.

Nerri: How can you do that?

Me: I have the power to do that without damaging your tree.

Nerri: I would like that.

Xerneas: It just might work.

Me: Okay. Here we go.

I snapped my fingers and beamed the whole tree with Nerri and us to the estate backyard. It was perfect for her and it was the perfect place for Nerri to call home.

Me: Here we are.

Nerri: Wow! It's beautiful. It's amazing that you all have a city made of plants and everyone is amazing.

Me: Thank you Nerri.

Xerneas: Our city is a wonderful place to call home as long as Team Loud Phoenix Storm is there to protect it.

Me: I think you will love calling our backyard home.

Nerri: I know I will.

Me: I'm gonna meditate now Xenia.

Xerneas: Okay J.D.

Xerneas went back inside and I sat in front of the tree in a lotus position and meditated. It was a beautiful sight to see me meditate in front of a Willow Tree.

Me: Oooooooommmm…

Nerri: Wow.

I had my aura flare up and it was overflowing with beautiful life energy and getting stronger by the second. All of nature was reacting to it with incredible power.

Me: Oooooooommmm…

Part 2: A Wedding of Hearts

In our backyard it was time for the awesome wedding of Sora and Kairi. We were all dressed up in really nice clothes and Sora was dressed in an all white version of his KH3 clothes and it was a beautiful sight. We had all of our friends that Sora knows from all of the worlds that we visited and Sora's mom and friends from his island and Twilight Town were with us. We also had the Masters of Evil with us because they were all invited. They had a soft spot for weddings. It was gonna be an awesome wedding. With us was another one of Hunter's friends from the United Arab Emirates, Lateefa al-Dada, she has tan skin, long dark black hair with a red headband, roman nose, straight eyebrows, same age as Leni, wears a red Abaya, wears black Tamashee. Her powers are Fire, Scorch, Wind, and Magnet Release.

Lola: Wow. You are really pretty Lateefa.

Lateefa: (Arabic Accent) Thank you Lola. It's an honor to be part of Team Loud Phoenix Storm. Hunter told me so much about all of you.

Hunter: (German Accent) It's great to have you here as well.

Axel Adell: (Swedish Accent) Same here.

Matthias: (German Accent) Ja.

Me: Sora, I am so happy for both you and Kairi.

Sora: Me too J.D. But I'm really nervous.

Me: Don't be man. You can do it.

Magnet Man: We seem to be on a roll with weddings lately.

Nico: I know.

Luigi: (Italian Accent) Sora, I think-a you've pretty much earned this.

Cana: It's so beautiful seeing a person get married.

Varie: It sure is Cana.

Lucy Heartfilia: I love weddings. They are so beautiful.

Juvia Lockser: I am so excited.

Tsuki: Me too. My boy looks so amazing.

Aqua: He sure does and I am so happy for my bro.

The wedding march was on and we saw Kairi come out and she was dressed in a beautiful wedding dress. She had a white tube top with flowers on it and her bridal veil had flowers and she had a beautiful white wedding skirt. She looked like a true angel from heaven.

Sora: Wow.

Me: Kairi is so beautiful in that dress.

Sora: She sure is.

Lady Tsunade came out and she was the priest for this.

Lady Tsunade: Good afternoon everyone. Dearly beloved, we are gathered here today in the sight of God to join this man, and this woman in holy matrimony. Not to be entered into lightly, holy matrimony should be entered into solemnly and with reverence and honor. Into this holy agreement these two persons come together to be joined. If any person here can show cause why these two people should not be joined in holy matrimony, speak now or forever hold your peace. Marriage is a sacred union between husband and wife and shall remain unbroken. It is the basis of a stable and loving relationship and is a joining of two hearts, bodies and souls. The husband and wife are there to support one another and provide love and care in times of joy and times of adversity. We are all here today to witness the joining in wedded bliss of Sora Kiyo Raiga and Kairi Hikari Lincoln. This joyous day celebrates the commitment and love with which Sora and Kairi start their lives together. Through God, you are joined together in the most holy of bonds. Who gives this woman in holy matrimony to this man?

Tsuki and Aqua: We do.

Me: Aqua is representing Sora's dad because he is not here. She is Sora's big sister now.

Lady Tsunade: I understand. Do you, Sora Kiyo Raiga take Kairi Hikari Lincoln to be your lawfully wedded wife and live together forever in the estate of holy matrimony? Do you love, comfort, honor and keep her, in sickness and in health, for richer or for poorer, for better or for worse for as long as you both shall live?

Sora: I do.

Lady Tsunade: Do you, Kairi Hikari Lincoln take Sora Kiyo Raiga to be your lawfully wedded wife and live together forever in the estate of holy matrimony? Do you love, comfort, honor and keep her, in sickness and in health, for richer or for poorer, for better or for worse for as long as you both shall live?

Kairi: I do.

We exchanged the Wedding Rings.

Lady Tsunade: The wedding ring is an unbroken symbol of the everlasting love and commitment between man and wife. (Hands ring to groom.) Repeat after me: With this ring, I thee wed.

Sora: With this ring, I thee wed. (Sora placed the ring on Kairi's finger)

Kairi With this ring, I thee wed. (Kairi placed ring on Sora's finger)

Lady Tsunade: What God has joined together, let no man put asunder. With the power vested in me by the grace of God and the state of Michigan and the city of Gotham Royal York, I now hereby pronounce you man and wife. You may kiss the bride.

Sora and Kairi kissed and we cheered wildly for them.

Offroad: I can't believe this is actually happening!

Later we had the reception.

Me: Congratulations Sora and you too Kairi.

Nico: We're so happy for the both of you.

Kairi: Thanks guys.

Aqua had tears of joy.

Aqua: (Crying) My little bro is now an amazing husband.

Tsuki: (Crying) My little boy is all grown up! (Crying!)

Me: I'm so proud of him. We've been through so much.

Vypra: I'm happy for him though.

Me: We are too Vypra.

Sideswipe: (to Vypra) Don't suppose you'd like to tell us who you're sending to fight us on our next mission.

Vypra: Now, you know I don't want to spoil the surprise.

Me: Even villains like to have surprises in store.

Sideswipe: I see.

Nico: I'm just so happy for Sora and Kairi.

Me: We all are buddy.

Qin: It is so beautiful seeing Kairi and Sora together. They have been through so much on their adventures.

Lincoln: They all have. It's so amazing.

Aerrow: I am so happy for them.

Piper (Storm Hawks): Me too.

Cat: We all are Piper.

Dog: You said it Cat.

We had a wonderful reception and Nerri got to join the fun. She may be bound to the willow tree, but that doesn't mean that she can't join in on some fun.

Part 3: Crime is Afoot at Gotham Royal York Middle School.

IN GOTHAM ROYAL YORK MIDDLE SCHOOL'S WAR ON CRIME, THE WORST CRIMINAL OFFENDERS ARE PURSUED BY THE DETECTIVES OF THE MAJOR CASE SQUAD. THESE ARE THEIR STORIES. DUN DUN!

We were over at Gotham Royal York Middle School and it's also now merged with X Middle School. With us was lead detective of the School Safety Patrol Cornelius Fillmore and his best friend and fellow Goth Girl, Ingrid Third.

Me: It's a pleasure to meet you Officer Fillmore.

Fillmore: You can just call me Fillmore. But thank you J.D.

Me: You're welcome.

Fillmore: Also congratulations to both you and Kairi, Sora.

Sora: Thank you.

Fillmore: While you guys do your job in fighting bad guys, I do mine by keeping X Middle School clean of any criminal activity.

Ingrid: We all do.

Lucy Loud: I think that is really cool.

Brittney: I think so too.

Ingrid: Maybe you guys can help us with this case. Somebody's been shredding important projects.

Me: Looks like we got a case of Serial Shredding. Usually we go after serial killers but this is an unusual form of murder.

Nico: We'd like to help. (to me and the Loud Kids) That means certain individuals have to keep their cool. If they have a problem, I'll pummel them with my club!

Me: Don't worry Nico. We are doing what we can.

Ingrid: What does he mean by that?

Me: We have anger problems. Clyde's therapist recommended us going to a Buddhist temple to help keep our anger in check through meditation.

Hunter: Ja. Und its been really helpful for them.

Lateefa: I heard about that.

Fillmore: I see. I'm glad it's working for you.

Me: Thanks Fillmore. Also Nico is now our Chief Enforcer. Whenever we show signs of anger, he will whack us with his club.

Erza Scarlett: Kind of like how I enforce Fairy Tail.

Me: And you do a great job at it Erza.

Erza Scarlett: Thanks.

Lincoln then saw something coming!

Lincoln: Fillmore! Look out!

He grabbed Fillmore and dodged him out of the way as I was hit by a mess of chocolate.

Me: (Slurps) Mmm. Chocolate.

Maria: You ok?

Fillmore: Aside from nearly getting squished by chocolate, I'm fine. Thanks Lincoln. I owe you one.

Lincoln: You're welcome.

I washed myself off.

Me: What clues do we have so far that can lead us to the Serial Shredder?

Fillmore: Our fellow officer, Profiler Frank Bishop is looking into it.

Frank Bishop: I found something.

Frank came up to us.

William: Frank, do you have any clues that indicate if the shredder is being helped by two of our enemies?

Frank Bishop: As a matter of fact I do. The Shredder is my sister Francine and she is not alone. She has 8 people with her.

Maria: Okay. So we know the culprit. But we still don't know who's helping her!

Frank Bishop: One has a hoodie and has strange light blades for hands.

Me: That's Shiv!

Qin: Who is Shiv?

Maria: He's one of my former comrades in the Meta-Breed.

Maria went over his history.

---

Shiv was a metahuman who could create weapons of energy from his hands. Getting his 'nom-de-crime' from a shiv (a kind of bladed weapon), Shiv is the immature jokester in the Meta-Breed; in fact, when he encountered the Joker, he tells the villain "Big fan, big fan…". He has been described as insane by both fans and creators of the show and comics. Shiv may be one of the many Bang Babies whose mental health was affected by the Big Bang, but this is never confirmed; he may simply just be an eccentric, childish jokester. Shiv's powers enable him to generate "light energy", which he could blast at opponents, and fashion into weapons which he could hold, throw, or fashion around his arms and hands-giving rise to his new alias; 'Shiv'. Shiv is assumed to have either returned to normal, or is now among the re-infected Dakota's Bang-Baby population at the end of the series

---

Qin gesped.

Qin: Whoa! That is crazy!

Me: So Vypra recruited Shiv into her forces. Anyone else?

Frank Bishop: Yeah. I saw that he had this weird Spider freak.

Me: That's Webstor. He was one of Skeletor's minions.

I went over his history.

Webstor is reused in the 2002 relaunch of the Masters of the Universe cartoon series by Mike Young Productions. He was also intended for the new toy line, but the line was cancelled before his figure could be released. In 2007 NECA with The Four Horsemen released a "stacion figure", an action figure without movable limbs, of Webstor. The writers of the new show showcased him as more of a freelance villain rather than another member of Skeletor's evil team.

Webstor's design was modified quite considerably from the old, to appear more spider-like, with a thinner frame, six equally-sized eyes (the original Webstor had multiple eyes, but they were smaller than his "normal" eyes), and additional spider-limbs. He receives a subtle introduction in the episode "Snake Pit", in which we see only a close-up of his eyes as he is awakened by Kobra Khan entering the cavern beneath Snake Mountain. A nod to old-school fans, this appearance immediately stirred intense debate among fans over whether the 'spider' was Webstor or just a regular giant spider. He went on to receive a full introduction in the episode "Council of Evil, Part 1", in which he is a hired member of Skeletor's council of evil, composed of independent evildoers from across Eternia. The episode does not show us how exactly he met Skeletor, leaving us to assume that Skeletor just encountered him in the caverns beneath Snake Mountain and adding an aura of mystery to his character. Portrayed as a silent and subtle villain who spends most of his time lurking in the shadows, he is seen to capture Stratos by entrapping him in his web, spun in the hollow of the Eye of Zarcane within the Mystic Mountains. In the second part of the 3-part epic, he uses his webbing to steal the Sword of Power itself from Prince Adam, leaving him with no way to become He-Man and capturing Teela.

In the concluding episode of the 3-parter, "The Last Stand" which begins season 2, Webstor declares that he will remain allied with Skeletor upon the defeat of the Council of Evil, when other members desert Skeletor. He is only seen in one episode thereafter.

In "Web of Evil" he is the main villain, stealing the substance Ambrosia from Buzz-Off's people, the Andreenids, to provide him with extra power and thus allowing him to spawn hundreds of deadly spiders, which he sets upon the Masters. The name of his species is given by Buzz-off in this episode calling him an Arachna, whose physiology is very similar to the Andreenids. After his Ambroisa-enriched eggs are subsequently stolen by the Snake Men, Webstor is brutally beaten by them and collapses dead on the ground, the only member of the regular cast ever to be killed off in a He-Man episode. However, his death is depicted in an ambiguous manner so that fans are led to debate over whether he is dead or unconscious, and it was only when Ian Richter of Mattel answered the fans' questions on the that it was confirmed that Webstor did indeed meet his end. It is possible that his death may have been deliberately shown in this uncertain manner, so that the writers could be left free to bring Webstor back if they chose to include him in future episodes. The series was canceled three episodes later, so Webstor remained dead.

Qin: Whoa!

Me: Anyone else?

Frank Bishop: Yeah. He had 5 more people with him. They looked a lot like Mystery Inc. except they had Glowing Red Eyes and they lifted up a whole science fair project like it was a piece of paper.

Me: (Gasp) The Mystery Inc. Evil Clones!

Qin: Who are they?

Me: They were lead by an old friend of ours named J.C. Chasez. He was a friend of ours in school. Until he got jealous.

---

He began a long-term relationship with Rachel, an old girlfriend of Shaggy Rogers, after she had won an online dating competition, Win a Date with J.C. However, after a year of hearing Rachel talk about Shaggy's feats, he planned to discredit him.

He formed the gang's evil impersonators (Chasez dressed up in an "evil" Scooby-Doo mask and costume) and went around Coolsville framing them. Later, after the police and the Mystery Gang went to his cabin to find the missing teenagers, J.C was quickly attacked by the mob of teens who recognized him, with Rachel in vain trying to protect him. One of the teens ripped off a piece of his shirt and hair, much to his discomfort, to which the police got him into a police car for protection.

Me: When his ex-girlfriend Rachel started to discredit Shaggy, he was jealous and he swore to get revenge. He and 4 extras from Hollywood dressed up as Mystery Inc. to frame them for crimes they didn't commit so that the real Mystery Inc. would rot in prison. Luckily their plan didn't succeed and we busted them. J.C. wanted to ruin Mystery Inc. forever. They got 20 to 40 years in prison for their crimes.

Qin: Geez! And I'll bet they got life because of the conspiracy and are now in the Uranus Prison.

Me: Bingo. After the conspiracy was thwarted, we had all of Mystery Inc.'s enemies all moved to a prison of higher security. We chose the Uranus prison for it. They will never see the light of day again.

Rachel S.D.: Good riddance.

Aylene C.: Serves them right.

Me: Yep.

Nico: J.C. Chasez, you have failed this world.

Me: Yep.

Frank Bishop: Also there was a man with brown hair and he looked like a Principal.

Me: That's Principal Seymour Skinner.

Bart Simpson: He's the disgraced principal of my former school Springfield Elementary.

Me: And one of the co-conspirators of a major national corruption conspiracy that destroyed Springfield, Oregon.

Fillmore: Whoa! I saw that on the news. You had a press conference for that.

Me: Yep. Springfield, Oregon was now forever labelled as the Most Hated Town in the world. Everyone is grateful that we destroyed it and reduced it to a radioactive crater.

Ingrid: I would not want to live there.

Me: No one ever wants to ever again.

Vallejo: I'm gonna go face them.

We gasped.

Hay Lin: Vallejo, you're going to Frank's house by yourself? Are you crazy?!

Me: That's right. You can't handle this by yourself. We're going with you.

Vallejo: No. I'll handle this.

He left.

Me: We got to go with him.

Fillmore: I agree. He won't handle this by himself.

Me: Lets do it.

We followed Vallejo from the shadows.

---

At Frank Bishop's house we were watching from the shadows.

Frank Bishop had a portable paper shredder in his hands.

Frank Bishop: You're the Shredder aren't you!?

He threw the shredder onto the ground.

Vallejo: Frank? What the?

Frank Bishop: You got your friends to do your dirty work. You had them shred their own stuff. They weren't traumatized. They were acting.

Francine: Frank, I think you've been drinking a little too much fake fruit juice.

Frank Bishop: Bernice was right-handed. So her shreds tilted to the right! And Lorenzo was left-handed. So his shreds tilted to the left.

Francine: So what!? I had nothing to do with it!

Frank Bishop: What about your little distraction at the science fair? You did a great job of botching the stakeout.

Francine: Frank, I really don't…

Frank Bishop: Alphabetically you were next on the list. That's when it hit me. The actors are your friends. You're female, and your motive was revenge. And finding that shredder in your room confirmed everything!

Vallejo: But where does the revenge fit in?

Francine: I hated you for what you did to my brother! He was rotting away!

We were listening in.

Me: That little brat.

Lola: How could she do such a terrible thing?

Me: She's a true psychopath.

Nico: Shh.

Francine: I couldn't just sit back and watch that happen! I created the Shredder to give Frank purpose and to take yours away.

Frank Bishop: Francine, I can't let you just…

She pushed them into a dungeon cell in an ice tower and locked the door.

Francine: You'll thank me later Frank! As for you Vallejo, your hearing starts in 20 minutes. Kiss your 2nd term as junior commissioner goodbye!

Fillmore: Your Phoenix Cry generates heat, right?

Lola: Of course. Why?

Nico: (sighs) I can't believe I'm saying this but charging in with a Phoenix Cry right now could melt the ice prison Frank and Vallejo are in.

Me: Lets do it.

A massive explosion of fire blasted in the sky and melted all the ice as a Phoenix Cry was heard and we landed in front of Francine. I put a force field around the area of Francine's backyard to make sure she doesn't escape.

Fillmore: That's cold baby! Real cold!

Ingrid: Hand over the key Francine.

Francine: NEVER! Kill them!

Me: It's over Francine.

Sheila: Francine Bishop, you're under arrest!

Sheila grabbed her and cuffed her and we saw SHIV, WEBSTOR and the EVIL MYSTERY INC.!

Me: Long time no see Shiv, Webstor and evil Mystery Inc.

Webstor: (to He Man) Who knew that the Mighty He Man is actually a scrawny teenager?

Me: Looks like the secret is out.

Bart: You are looking really well Skinflint.

Skinner: It's Skinner, Bart. And you are going back to school in Springfield where you belong!

Bart: I don't think so!

Shiv: (Points light blade at Vallejo's neck) Uh uh uh. Take one more step and the kid loses his head. You think we're gonna play fair?

Maria: You always did have a knack for being the biggest fuckpot of them all Shiv. That's why I hated your guts.

Ingrid: Guys, you really think it's smart to piss off the meta with light blades and the walking spider in front of us?

Shiv: She really pissed us off!

He let go of Vallejo and Lynn punched Shiv in the face and kicked him in the mouth!

Me: We'll handle this. Sheila, make sure that Francine doesn't get away. She's gonna answer for her crimes by the time we're done here with these clods.

Sheila: Okay.

Webstor just webbed Lucy up.

Webstor: Get yourself out of that, Loud!

Lucy Loud was enveloped in an aura of black lightning and burned her way out.

Lucy Loud: Usually Leni would hit you all over right now.

Webstor: Yeah she would.

Troy: Since you guys aren't the real Mystery Inc, we won't feel bad about hurting you!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Samurai!

The Megaforce Rangers transformed into the Samurai Rangers.

Me: Lets get them!

We went at them.

---

Battle 1: Shiv.

---

Lynn, Sandman and Clayface were facing Shiv.

Lynn: I'm gonna pulverize your face in until there is nothing left.

Shiv: Ooh I'm so scared!

Lynn: You should be. Because I have a new transformation.

Lynn then was enveloped in a massive vortex of fire and lava and we felt her power increase at an astronomical rate and it was incredible! When the vortex faded, Lynn was forever changed. She looked like she was Lori's age and she had longer hair in a ponytail, volcano earrings, wings made of pure lava and and rock and she had a red jersey with a volcano on it and she had the Number 1 on it and she had red sports pants and black boots. She also had a sword of pure lava and she had the kanji for Lynn Loud, Volcanic Olympic Athlete on her pant leg. リン・ラウド、火山オリンピック選手 She was now a SUPER ANGEL 20,000 VOLCANO FORCE DRAGON!

Lynn: (Older Voice) Now you will see how dangerous I can be not just in sports but in fighting as well.

Shiv: Bring it you bitch.

Lynn: If you were my dark self, you wouldn't last even 10 seconds.

Lynn unsheathed her sword and she charged at him and they clashed and the power of Lynn's sword blew him back with the force of a volcanic eruption sent him crashing into the Force Field and it electrocuted him.

Shiv came at Lynn and she punched him in the face and knocked out one of his teeth and she slashed him and burned his chest open. He screamed in pain from being cut and badly burned. Lynn kicked him in the face and punched him in the stomach with deadly force and he belched up a huge amount of blood.

Sandman: Whoa! That was amazing!

Clayface: Lynn has really changed into an amazing fighter.

Sandman: Lets help her.

Clayface: Right!

They did so. Sandman formed his hand into a hammer and smashed it onto Shiv's head and Clayface formed his hand into a mace ball and smashed it into Shiv's stomach and Lynn smashed her fist into his head and knocked him out.

Lynn: Whoa!

Sandman: Lynn you look awesome like this.

Lynn: Thanks Flint. I wonder what Lightning would think?

Lightning: I would say "SHA-BLAM! You look incredible Lynn!"

Lynn: Thanks Lightning.

---

Battle 2: Webstor

---

Lucy, Demona and Riku were facing Webstor.

Lucy Loud: You are not going to wrap us up in web ever again.

Webstor: This time I will kill you.

Lucy was enveloped in a vortex of darkness and her power was increasing dramatically. Lucy then transformed into her Super Angel 20,000 Darkness Vampire Raven and this time she had a pitch black sleeveless trench coat on and it had the kanji for Lucy Loud, Dark Vampire Empress of the Netherworld on the back. 冥界のダークヴァンパイアエンプレス、ルーシーラウド

Lucy Loud: (Older Voice) I'm not the same as I was when we fought the last time on Eternia.

Webstor: So you have a new form. Won't save you though.

Without warning, Lucy kicked him in the face and slashed his spider legs off and she fired blasts of black lightning and electrocuted him all over.

Demona punched him all over and blasted him with dark energy and Riku slashed him with his keyblade and cut him and burned him all over.

Rocky (Loud House): Whoa! Lucy you look amazing!

Lucy Loud: Thanks Rocky. It brings out the darkness inside me and makes me one with the darkness.

Demona: You do look amazing Lucy. A true warrior of the night.

Riku: Indeed you do.

Battle 3: Principal Skinner

---

Bart and Dana were facing Principal Skinner.

Dana (LH): You make me sick Skinner. You have no love for any one of the kids of Springfield at all! It's one of the reasons why Springfield was completely destroyed in the first place!

Skinner: The kids of Springfield had no future to begin with!

Bart: All you ever cared about was money.

Dana (LH): And for that you will pay.

Dana was then enveloped in a massive vortex of ice and snow and we felt her power increase exponentially and then when the vortex faded, Dana was forever changed. She had longer hair in a ponytail and she had snowflake earrings and she had blue, purple and sky blue snowflake bracelets and she had a snowflake t-shirt with lightning on it and she had blue pants and she had a sleeveless trench coat that had ice and a raging blizzard all over it and it had the kanji for Dana - the Subzero Freezing Hurricane on the back. ダナ-氷点下の氷点下のハリケーン Dana also had a sword with a blade made of pure ice. She also had angel wings made of pure ice and snow.

Bart: WHOA! Dana you look incredible!

Dana (LH): (Older Voice) I sure do Bart. Now it's time for this disgraced Vietnam War Veteran to hit the curb.

Dana punched him in the face and kicked him in the stomach and she punched him in the nose and broke it and she slashed his chest and froze him with her ice sword and he screamed in pain as he was being freezer burned with ice and Bart kicked him in the face and threw a spiked dodgeball into his face and it slammed into him.

SMASH!

It hurt him really bad and more.

He was knocked down.

Dana: That felt really good.

Bart: It was awesome putting Weiner Skinner in his place.

Dana laughed.

Bart: I have an idea.

Bart held up Principal Skinner.

Bart: Carve into his forehead with your sword "I am A Fucking Weiner."

Dana (LH): I like how you think Bart.

Dana carved what Bart said into his forehead with her sword and she also carved a hot dog with Skinner's face on it into it as well.

Bart and Dana laughed at it. That carving will be with Skinner forever.

Axel Adell: Oh that is so funny! Nice job you two!

Dana (LH): Thanks Axel.

Battle 4: Evil Mystery Inc.

The rest of us were facing the Evil Mystery Inc.

Me: You 5 give my friends a really bad name!

I punched the evil Fred in the face and threw him down and Nico grabbed the evil Shaggy and threw him into a tree and the Megaforce Rangers blasted the evil Daphne and Velma all over the place and blew them into another tree. Naruto slammed a Rasengan into the evil Scooby Doo and sent him crashing into a melted ice sculpture.

Ben: Lets see how they like this predator!

Ben turned into a new predator. It was called VERSTARKER! It looked like a zombie crocodile with its skin and bones exposed and it had fur that looked like it was coming off.

Ben: VERSTARKER!

Me: Whoa! That is a terrifying predator!

Shanan: Wow! That is a Dinuchus from the planet Luna Lobo. It's Blitzwolfer's natural predator.

Nico: Wow! It looks like a zombie crocodile!

Shanan: It sure does look like it huh?

Riley: It's a scary one.

Verstarker: Watch this.

He fired a massive sonic blast that was more powerful than that of a Loboan and it slammed into the Evil Mystery Inc and knocked them down.

Me: Whoa! Its sonic blasts are more powerful than Loboans.

Varie: No kidding.

Aylene C.: That was awesome!

Nico: It sure packs a massive wallop.

Jackie: It sure does. Lets see how they like this. EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: BABYLON!

Jackie floated into the air and the song of Mesopotamian Lore, Babylon played and she fired a massive wave of earth that turned into the ancient wonder of the world: The Hanging Gardens of Babylon and it slammed into the evil Mystery Inc and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: Whoa! That was amazing!

Jessie K.: Wow! That was the Hanging Gardens of Babylon, one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World. They were built by King Nebuchadnezzar II back in 6th century B.C. and it was a very famous monument that brought fame to Babylon.

Laney: That is amazing!

Lana: Really cool!

Me: That is amazing! I didn't know about that.

Jaime Knudson: Me neither. That is amazing!

Me: Lets show some teamwork!

Offroad: Right! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into his back and enhanced his SMG Blaster 100-fold.

Magnet Man: This will attract you. GIGANTION CYBER KEY POWER!

The Gigantion Cyber Planet Key went into his right arm and enhanced his Magnet Launcher 100-fold.

Offroad and Magnet Man: MAGNETIC BULLET FIRESTORM!

They fired bullets and a magnet and they slammed into the Evil Scooby Doo and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMMM!

Sideswipe: Lets get him! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Autobot Cyber Planet Key went into his back and enhanced his pile-driver arms 100-fold.

Luigi: This is-a gonna be fun! NINTENDO CYBER KEY POWER!

The Nintendo Cyber Planet Key went into his right arm device and enhanced his abilities 100-fold.

Sideswipe and Luigi: FLAMETHROWER PILE-DRIVING BURST!

Luigi fired a blast of fire and it merged with Sideswipe's pile-driving arms and he punched the Evil Scooby and smashed him into dust. Killing him.

Me: One down 4 to go.

Demona: We go this.

Demona fired a blast of darkness and Cheetah ran at incredible speed.

Demona and Cheetah: DARK SPEED STORMSLASH!

The darkness merged with Cheetah's claws and she slashed Evil Shaggy all over the place with incredible speed.

Finn (Storm Hawks): Try this one!

Finn of the Storm Hawks fired an arrow and Finn of Ooo fired a blast of fire from his hands.

Finn (Storm Hawks) and Finn (Adventure Time): FLAMING ARROW FIRESTORM!

The blasts combined and they slammed into the Evil Shaggy and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMM

The explosion killed him.

Lincoln: Lets do it!

Piper (Storm Hawks): With pleasure Lincoln!

Lincoln fired a massive blast of lightning and Piper fired a powerful blast of fire with a Phoenix Crystal.

Lincoln and Piper (Storm Hawks): LIGHTNING PHOENIX ELECTROSTORM!

The blasts combined and turned into a Lightning Phoenix and it slammed into the evil Velma and exploded.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The evil Velma was dead.

Piper (Mysticons): Lets see how you like this one!

Zhalia: Lets get her!

Piper (Mysticons) fired a massive blast of fire and Zhalia fired a powerful Augerfrost blast.

Piper (Mysticons) and Zhalia Moon: MOONLIGHT PHOENIX BURST!

The blasts combined and turned into a Phoenix made of moonlight and it slammed into the evil Daphne and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Nico: This will burn you up. INCINERATE! IGNATIUS!

A wall of lava exploded out and out of the lava came the lava titan Ignatius!

Lok: This is gonna hurt really bad!

Nico and Ignatius fired a massive blast of fire and Lok fired a powerful blast of his Boltflare.

Nico with Ignatius and Lok: VOLCANIC FLARE INCINERATION!

The blasts combined and they slammed into the Evil Daphne and incinerated her in an instant.

Me: Time to finish you for good Evil Fred. Lets hit him all at once with our Final Smashes.

Bart: Lets do it!

Lynn: Yeah!

Lucy Loud: Lets do it!

Cana Alberona: Lets get him! This guy has tormented the good name of Mystery Inc for the last time.

Lucy Heartfilia: Lets do it!

She then summoned Aquarius!

Lucy Heartfilia: Lets get him Aquarius!

Aquarius: (Enraged) YOU ARE DEAD!

I grabbed Aquarius by the arm.

Me: Leave her alone Aquarius!

Aquarius: Let me go J.D.! This little bitch brought me here for this!? I will kill her right now!

Qin: What is her problem?

Me: Aquarius has always had a rotten attitude. Its been a major problem for her and everyone in Fairy Tail. She hates Lucy for some reason and Lucy is really terrified of her.

Qin: Geez! I don't think it's you that needs the Anger Management treatments J.D., it's Aquarius.

Me: (Chuckles) Maybe. But I agree with you Qin.

Aquarius: Well she started it.

Me: It doesn't matter who started it.

Nico bashed Aquarius in the head with his club and she had a nasty lump on her head.

Aquarius: OW!

Me: Nice shot Nico.

Nico: Thanks.

Nico then looked at Aquarius with menacing eyes.

Nico: Lets get one thing straight Aquarius! You have no right to hurt your summoner the way you do! Lucy is your friend and you have always been there ever since she was young! You need to get rid of your hatred and rage and work with Lucy from now on.

Cana Alberona: That's right Aquarius! You need to stop being so resentful towards Lucy and work with her instead of terrifying her. Your rotten attitude is not being very helpful to her and all you are doing is terrifying her and making her look bad.

Nico: That's right.

Aquarius: (Growls) Fine.

Me: Good. Lets do it. WOLF FIRE MOONSTORM!

I fired a blast of blue fire.

Bart Simpson: This is gonna be awesome! AY CARAMBA LIGHTBURST!

Bart fired a massive blast of light.

Lynn: Try this! VOLCANIC LAVA MEGAWAVE!

Lynn fired a wave of lava.

Lucy Loud: This will hurt. BLACK LIGHTNING ELECTROCUTION!

Lucy fired a massive blast of black lightning.

Cana Alberona: Lets do it! CARD MAGE FIRESTORM!

Cana fired a massive barrage of fire cards.

Aquarius: AQUARIUS MEGATSUNAMI DELUGE!

Aquarius fired a huge wave of water.

Lucy Heartfilia: CELESTIAL ZODIAC MEGABLAST!

Lucy Heartfilia fired a huge blast of constellation symbols.

Fillmore: CRIME DOESN'T PAY FIRESTORM!

Fillmore fired a wave of light and it turned into a police badge.

Ingrid: This will hurt. DARK CRIMES WILL BE PUNISHED!

Ingrid fired a darkness blast and it turned into a police badge.

Sora & Kairi: LIGHT HEART UNITY STRIKE!

Sora and Kairi fired a blast of light and it formed into a heart of light with wings on it.

The blasts all combined and they slammed into the Evil Fred and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The evil Mystery Inc was destroyed.

Webstor: You all won't get lucky next time!

Bart: Now, how about telling us who else Dark Spicer restored?

Shiv: Sorry. Vypra told the two of us not to tell you guys anything about that. (he and Webstor teleport out)

Skinner: You all have gotten powerful.

Me: Wait Skinner. I have a message for Vypra. Tomorrow is April 1st, April Fools Day and it's gonna be a nasty prankapocalypse. Luan Loud is not gonna be the one that's doing the pranks. It's all gonna be because of Nico's little brother Connor.

Nico: That's right. Connor is in every way like how Luan was when J.D. first moved here in 2016. He does these really deadly and dangerous pranks that are bad enough to land you in the hospital.

Skinner: (Gasp) Oh dear God!

Me: I know. Luan's pranks were really bad enough to get me, Varie, Laney, Lincoln and Clyde seriously hurt. Not fatal hurt but hurt really bad. Last year in 2019, Luan and Connor both fought and Luan was badly hurt even though Connor took the worst of Luan's beating. Connor swore to get even and he's coming for us. And there will be no mercy.

Skinner: Thanks for warning me J.D. I will tell her.

Me: Thank you.

Skinner: Oh Sora, Kairi, congratulations on your wedding.

Sora: Thanks Skinner.

Kairi: It's gonna be so awesome being together.

Skinner: I'm happy for you both.

He teleported back.

Aquarius: (sighs) I'm sorry, Lucy. I completely forgot that J.D. and the others helped me become a better person towards you. But it's just been so long since they had that talk with me!

Lucy Heartfilia: It has been a while. We were just so busy doing stuff all over the universe.

Aquarius: I know. But I'll try to get better. I promise.

Lucy Heartfilia: Thank you.

Me: Well we beat another Scooby Doo monster and Lynn and Lucy have two archenemies.

Lynn: Yep.

Fillmore: Thanks for helping us J.D.

Me: It was our pleasure Fillmore.

Ingrid: You all are amazing.

Me: Thanks Ingrid.

Francine was expelled from school and sentenced to spend 12 months in Juvie.

Bart: (To the viewers) Never mess with the rules of the school or there will be big time trouble.

Dana (LH): You said it Bart.

We formed an alliance with the Safety Patrol should they ever need us.

THE END

---

Another awesome show done.

Fillmore was a great Detective show and it was like a kids version of popular crime show Law & Order. It was awesome! NicoChan11 and ArchangelOfJustice12 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Get ready for Pranking Mayhem in 2020 as we team up with the Masters of Evil to take down Nico's brother Connor and stop his pranks for good.

See you all tomorrow.

April Fools Mayhem 2020

HAPPY APRIL FOOLS DAY 2020 EVERYONE!

---

March 31st, 2020

---

We were over in our briefing room discussing about what is about to happen during April 1st tomorrow. With us was Hunter's friend and teammate Salar Pasdar, he's Persian from Iran. He is the same age as Bobby, has tan skin, broad nose, half of Persian beard in his chin, narrow eyes, wears a green and red Iranic shirt, Old Persian Coat, a Shalvar, leather shoes, black belt, and his hair color is black, and a regular hairstyle. His powers are Earth, Fire, and Firestorm Release.

Me: Now the reason we're here is to talk about what is gonna happen on April 1st tomorrow. As you all know, April Fools day is the most terrifying day for both the Loud House and the Chan family because of everything that happened with Luan and Nico's brother Connor.

Nico: Yep.

Luan: Thank God that I'm not like that anymore.

Me: Yeah.

Salar: (Arabic Accent): That must've been a really bad experience.

Hunter: (German Accent) Ja. The pranks were terrible.

Qin: I'm confused. What is so bad about April Fools Day for you all?

Me: Oh that's right. You weren't with us when it all happened.

Lincoln: Before you came here, Luan was a deadly pranking psychopath. Every year my sister Luan created a prank apocalypse and no one is spared!

Qin: You mean like whoopie cushions, squirting flowers and stuff like that?

Lincoln: Oh no. It's way worse than that. I present to you Luan Loud's April Fools' Highlight Reel. [He begins showing us a montage of Luan's April Fools' Day pranks on the Loud Family. First, the siblings are looking at their furniture, which is tacked upside down to the ceiling.]

Luan: "I'd say this prank's a little over your head!" [laughs] [Now they open the door to find the room full of chickens]

Luan: "Seems to be your clucky day!" [laughs]

[Now the kids are looking at their house all wrapped up in wrapping paper.]

Luan: [rips through a window] "I guess that's a wrap!" [laughs]

[Now the siblings are trapped in a humongous gelatin.]

Luan: "Aww, look at the Loud Family gettin' jiggly with it!" [laughs]

[The pets' fur and Walt's feathers got shaved off.]

Luan: [holding a buzz shaver] "I shaved the best for last!" [laughs]

[The video ends and Qin is shocked!]

Qin: Luan did all that!?

Me: She sure did.

Nico: But here's my pranking experiences with Connor.

Luan: Connor did worse than me.

Nico: That's right Luan and here's a montage of pranks that he has done to all of us. I present to you Connor Chan's April Fools Highlight Reel.

Nico played on a movie projector a montage of pranks Connor did in the past. The first clip showed Nico having breakfast and then his face turned red and a massive blast of fire exploded out of his mouth.

Connor: I would say this prank Spices you up! (Laughs)

Nico: He poured capsaicin extract hot sauce into my cereal.

Me: Yikes! But that prank wouldn't bother me.

Alicia: Here's me.

Alicia opened the fridge and a spring-loaded boxing glove punched her in the stomach and sent her flying straight into a pile of sludge.

SPLAT!

Connor: Something Stinks around here. (Laughs)

Alicia growled.

Alicia: I smelled horrible for a week.

Mindy: Look what happened here with me.

Mindy was playing video games and suddenly she got hit with rotten eggs and they exploded and made her smell really horrible!

Connor: How Eggceptionally funny! (Laughs)

Mindy: I smelled horrible for a month.

Nico: Here's another thing that happened to me.

Nico walked into his closet and then he screamed as he got sprayed by 12 skunks.

Connor: Skunks to be you! (Laughs)

Nico: I had to take a bath in a pool full of tomato juice.

Alicia: This one hurt bad.

Alicia was walking to her room when she stepped on a roller skate and fell onto a bunch of mousetraps and they snapped on her and she was in a lot of pain.

Connor: That makes you snap! (Laughs)

Alicia growled.

Mindy: This one really hurt me.

Mindy was getting a glass of water and as she was about to leave the kitchen a bowling ball dropped from the ceiling onto her foot.

CRUNCH!

Mindy: OW!

She hops holding her foot in pain and she inadvertently steps on a banana peel that causes her to fall into a snare trap and it flings her into a massive pile of rotten garbage.

SPLAT!

Connor: That's a Strike with lots of Ap-Peal to Refuse! (Laughs)

Mindy: I had a nasty broken foot that took 8 weeks to heal.

Nico: But watch this one.

Nico went to the kitchen and he stepped on a tripwire and a watermelon hit him in the face and exploded all over him and completely covered him with chocolate pudding.

KABOOM! SPLAT!

Connor: This is one Fruit that is Sweet! (Laughs)

The montage ended.

Qin was horrified.

Qin: Connor's pranks are worse than Luan's!

Me: Yep. Luan and Connor duked it out real bad and they got seriously hurt as a result. Luan didn't get nearly as hurt as Connor did. He was wrapped head to toe in a full body cast and after that, he vowed to get revenge and he will show no mercy.

Bart: Whoa! But I did some pranks too.

Homer: Same here. But they weren't nearly as bad as Luan and Connor's pranks. One time I put a piece of duct tape over Bart's eyes and gave him rotten milk.

Bart: I shook up a can of beer and dad opened it and it exploded big time and sent him into the hospital.

Me: Whoa! I remember seeing those on TV.

Meg Griffin: That's nothing compared to the prank Quahog did. They joked that a black hole was gonna destroy the planet in a little over 6 hours and we fell for it.

Me: Awful.

Lori: No kidding.

Lily: SpongeBob does all kinds of silly April Fools pranks. One time he told Gary that they were moving out to become Peasants and eat salted mashed up clam shells.

We laughed.

Me: That's funny.

Luan: (Laughs) That is funny.

Me: Anyway back to the situation at hand. I have a strong feeling that Connor is going to be targeting the Loud Kids and the Masters of Evil.

Nico: He's right. My April Fools Day spy bug that I planted in Connor's room confirmed it.

Carol: Oh boy.

Vince: This is gonna be rough.

Me: We have to prepare for the worst though. If this is gonna be like what happened last year, then Connor is gonna be in majorly huge trouble.

Nico: Yeah. The Masters of Evil would kill my brother.

Me: We won't let that happen Nico. But we have to be prepared for anything. It's good we warned the Masters of Evil about this.

Vince: Yep. They may be our enemies but we are considered Frenemies.

Me: Yep.

We had to get ourselves ready for anything. Laney knows all about Connor's pranks because of her experiences with Luan, she is ready for anything that Connor throws at her.

April 1st, 2020 - April Fools Day.

At 6:00 AM, I woke up.

Me: Here we go!

I went to a wall and pressed a red button that said April Fools Battlestations. The Alarm sounded and everyone woke up. But then I heard crazy sounds and the sounds of crazy cartoon pranks and shenanigans.

Me: (Cringes) Oooh!

But we aren't the only ones that Connor hit.

At the headquarters of the Masters of Evil, Dark Spicer got up and he saw everyone pranked and badly hurt!

Dark Spicer: What happened to you guys!?

Vypra: We got hit hard.

Dark Spicer: You guys got pranked too?

Electro: Yep.

Dark Spicer: (growls) J.D. and the others just crossed a line. (turns into Killjet and flies off)

Vypra: Dark, wait! (to the others) We have to go after him.

Vanitas: Agreed.

They went after him.

I came downstairs and saw everyone broken, battered and really hurt.

Me: Geez! Connor really nailed you all.

Lori: No kidding.

Suddenly Dark Spicer busted in!

Me: Dark Spicer? What are…

Dark Spicer: (slams me against a wall) If I had any doubts that you've gone completely nuts, they're gone now, J.D.!

Me: Dark Spicer, you don't understand!

Dark Spicer: Don't lie to me! Today is April Fool's Day! And I know that Luan and Nico's brother Conner love doing pranks on that day. Me and my team just woke up to be pranked this morning! You must've sent Connor after us just so he can badly hurt us with us pranks! Did you all get a good laugh about it? I hope it was worth throwing your honor away!

Lincoln: Dark Spicer, trust me. We didn't send Connor after you..

Dark Spicer: Give me one reason why I should believe you!

Lori: Because we've literally been pranked by Conner as well.

Dark Spicer: (eyes widen) Say what now?

Me: Yeah look.

He saw that Lori was right.

Dark Spicer gasped.

Dark Spicer: Geez! You guys got hit worst than we did.

Vypra: That's an understatement.

Vanitas: Yeah.

Vypra: See, Dark Spicer? I told you that they didn't send Conner to prank us!

Me: Yeah we didn't send Connor. But it's amazing that Connor got to you guys. I wonder how he got passed all of your security.

Number 7: That is a really good question.

Firefly: Shouldn't you guys have stopped Conner by now?

Nico: We would've Garfield but Connor is only 7 years old and he's a very slippery kid.

Alicia: That's right. My little brother is a really sly weasel.

Laney: But I didn't get hit.

Vypra: How did you survive Laney?

Laney: I have prepared for these kinds of attacks ever since Luan was doing those pranks.

Me: Laney is always one step ahead. But right now we have to stop Connor. But knowing how big the city of Gotham Royal York is, he could be anywhere.

Lana: Yeah.

Dark Spicer: I think the reason you guys haven't stopped Conner by now is because you're afraid of hurting him. He's only 7 years old. But we're not. So me, Shiv, Electro, and Firefly will stop Conner.

Me: Okay. Carol and Varie can heal everyone else.

Varie: Yep.

Lincoln: How do we know you guys won't try and kill Conner?

Dark Spicer: I guess you guys are just gonna have to trust us.

Me: Lets let them go.

Jimbo: (to Vypra) Why are we even helping these losers anyway?

Krusty: I agree with the kid on this one. As a comedian, I've seen what Nico's brother is capable of. Let's just leave Team Loud Phoenix Storm to fall to his pranks.

Vypra: That's not an option. After he's done pranking J.D. and his friends, who do you think he'll go after next?

Jimbo and Krusty gulped.

Vypra: I just want to say that I've already revived Ienzo, Dilan, and Isa and sent them back to Radiant Garden.

Lucy Loud: And the other part of J.D.'s request?

Vypra: Not happening. I don't want to revive the rest of the dead Organization XIII members after everything you did to defeat them and Xehanort. I'm evil, not suicidal.

Me: That's true. Be careful.

Dark Spicer: We will.

Me: I'm gonna go meditate.

Bodhi: May I join you J.D.?

Me: Sure.

Me and Bodhi went to the Willow Tree to Meditate.

Dark Spicer, Shiv, Electro and Firefly went out to search for Connor. Firefly had a special heat signature finder that was gonna filter out everyone else's heat signals and leave only Connor's heat signal. He found him on a rooftop in the middle of the city.

Firefly: There he is!

They flew down.

Connor Chan: (Evil Laughter) Soon I will make this whole town feel the wrath of my pranks and it will be painful!

Dark Spicer: I don't think so!

He saw Dark Spicer, Shiv, Firefly and Electro.

Dark Spicer: (to Connor Chan) Here's your warning: Your ass is about to be kicked!

Connor Chan: (Tauntingly) Ooh I'm so scared.

Electro: You should be kid.

They had him cornered and really beat him up. Dark Spicer punched him all over and Shiv and Electro electrocuted him and Firefly burned him. But not badly. They tied him up with rope.

Me and Bodhi were meditating under the Willow Tree.

Me: Oooooooommmm…

Bodhi: Oooooooommmm…

Dark Spicer, Electro, Shiv and Firefly came back and they had him tied up.

Nico: Nice job guys.

Dark Spicer: Thanks Nico. Your brother is one gifted prankster. But he is a really dangerous one.

Nico: I know. But I think we should remove his dark side to make sure that he never hurts anyone ever again with pranks.

Vypra: That's a good idea.

Varie: Let me do it.

Nico: Okay Varie.

Varie placed her hand on Connor's head and she chanted a powerful incantation and a blob of darkness came out and Varie pulled it out and it turned into another Connor. It was a dark Connor! Bobby then sealed the Dark Connor in a huge blue crystal and he sent it to the Pluto Prison.

Nico: Whew.

Varie: That's that.

Vypra: At least we never have to deal with those pranks again.

Nico: Agreed.

Dark Spicer: I've gotta say. This is the first time we've ever spent a Holiday with you guys.

Nico: Glad you had fun Dark Spicer. Next up is Easter if you want to join us.

Dark Spicer: I would like that. I do like ham and Easter Eggs.

Connor was rushed to the infirmary.

Lincoln: (To the viewers) April Fools will now be a very safer place now that we don't have to deal with the deadly pranks of Luan and Connor. It's gonna be really safe from here on out.

Nico: You said it Lincoln. Also if J.D. gets angry, we can have Poromon and Poliwag do a Cute Rush on him.

Laney: That works.

THE END

Another Chapter done and an awesome April Fools Day done.

April Fools day is awesome. It's so funny but not if you do deadly pranks. Next up is the episode Dexter VS Santa Claus. Get ready for an action packed battle of the holidays. HAHAHAHAHAHA! APRIL FOOLS! No it's not Christmas and I'm not gonna do that episode. NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this and ArchangelOfJustice12 gave me the ideas for this too. Thanks guys and Happy April Fools day to you all. Next up is another Are You Afraid of The Dark? Chapter and we're gonna go after the evil clown Zeebo and Luan is gonna hate this clown.

See you all tomorrow.

More Evil Clowns

Over in the Alps, near the Matterhorn we were over in Castelia City in Switzerland and it was a magnificent city.

Me: So this is where N, the former leader of Team Plasma is supposed to be huh?

Varie: Looks like it.

Nico: I hope we find him. With Team Plasma plotting their move, we'll need someone that knows their ways so we can launch an attack.

Me: Are you sure it's gonna be a wise idea to recruit him Nico?

Nico: I know it's a good idea. Ash and Iris told me all about him. He's an honorable anti-hero.

Me: Wow.

?: Look no further.

We then saw a young man and it was N!

---

Natural Harmonia Gropius, better known as N, is the (former) secondary antagonist in the video games Pokemon Black & White. He is the former King of Team Plasma. He appears in Pokemon Black 2 & White 2 as one of the supporting protagonists. He is voiced by Grant George in Pokémon Genesis.

According to his backstory, His adoptive father, Ghetsis forced N to care of abused Pokemon, which made him believe that humans were lowly creatures who harmed Pokemon. Once N was old enough, Ghetsis crowned N as the king of Team Plasma. Ghetsis then assisted N in spreading the word about Team Plasma and their plans.

Gameplay

Hilbert/Hilda meets N at Accumula Town, after watching Ghetsis announce Team Plasma's plans. He challenges the Player to a Pokemon battle using his Purrloin. After being defeated, N wanders off, but expresses interest in the Pokemon's bond with Hilbert/Hilda.

Hilbert/Hilda encounters N multiple times, mostly when Team Plasma is around, and he will challenge the player to a battle. When the player spots N at Nimbasa City, N invites Hilbert/Hilda to ride the ferries wheel with him. N then reveals to him/her that he's both the leader and king of Team Plasma, and that he simply invited the player on the Ferris wheel to give Team Plasma members time to escape. He battles Hilbert/Hilda, then after losing, flees.

He is next spotted at Dragonspiral Tower, where he is summoning Reshiram/Zekrom with the White/Black Orb. He flies away from the tower with the legendary Pokemon. Hilbert/Hilda finds the opposite orb needed to summon Zekrom/Reshiram at a museum.

After Hilbert/Hilda defeats the Elite Four, they go into the Champion Room, where they find Alder defeated by N. N says to Alder that he can keep his "pitiful title" as Champion, and raises a colossal castle from the ground. He climbs up a staircase to the castle, and Hilbert/Hilda follows.

After getting through the castle, they enter a throne room where N sits at the very end. He walks up to Hilbert/Hilda, and summons Reshiram/Zekrom. Believing the player cannot win without Zekrom/Reshiram, he prepares to attack, when suddenly, the orb Hilbert/Hilda found turns into Zekrom/Reshiram. They then fight N alongside the legendary Pokemon, and utterly defeat him. After reminiscing over their victory, he comes to the conclusion that people and Pokemon can come together, and that they fight to learn about each other. Just as he is about to give up the attack on Unova, Ghetsis walks into the room, and reveals his manipulation of N. Ghetsis calls N weak and pathetic, and disowns him. He then challenges Hilbert/Hilda to a battle, but loses, and is arrested. N thanks the player, and flies away on Reshiram/Zekrom through the hole that it created when it came into the room. N, as well as the player, disappear from Unova, with no one knowing where they have gone.

N is a very honorable villain after you beat/capture Zekrom/ Reshiram, he heals all of your Pokemon before the battle between you and N begin, and even ask you if you want to hold onto the legendary dragon or place it in the PC.

Pokemon Black 2 & White 2

N returns in the video game; Pokemon Black 2 and White 2. He's still the leader of the old Team Plasma, and is one of the supporting protagonists in the game. He wants to help the Player help defeat Ghetsis and the New Team Plasma.

Pokémon Adventures manga

In contrast to his good intentions in the game, N is considerably meaner in Pokemon Adventures. N makes his first appearance standing near an Xtransceiver commercial shooting after Black manages to save it from being attacked by a wild Galvantula. He sheds tears over the fact that Pokémon are being used for purposes such as acting.

He later appears in Accumula Town where he confronts and battles Black. He expresses his disgust with the Pokédex to Black and claims that Trainers lock up his "friends" in Poké Balls just so that it can fill the Pokédex, making them nothing more than a source of information to fill the Pokédex with information. Eventually, Black's Tep manages to defeat his Tympole, and N decides to take his leave after learning that there are Pokémon that enjoy the company of Trainers. After leaving, Black reveals that N isn't really a bad person after his Musha ate his dream and revealed it to him.

Later, at Nimbasa City, N knocks White into one of the Ferris wheel cars and climbs into it. After a brief talk, N forces White's Gigi to fight his Servine. After Gigi wins, N concludes that White had been neglecting Gigi's battle skills. When White tries to escape, she is shocked to see Gigi side with N instead of her and falls hard to ground below. As the two watch from the Rondez-View Ferris wheel, N sends his Servine to White's aid.

Later, N and Gigi arrive at the Dragonspiral Tower. As he stares at the building, N muses over the location where Truth and Ideals meet while Gigi watches him. Later, he successfully awakens Zekrom, but initially has trouble connecting with it and convincing it to join his side. After recruiting Zekrom, he is challenged to a battle by Alder to a two-on-two battle.

Soon after, Black, White, and Iris come to scene after hearing the commotion, where they witness N defeating Alder with Gigi and Zorua. Reacting to N's Zekrom, the Light Stone in Black's possession turns into Reshiram, but quickly reverts, signifying that Black doesn't have full control over it. Having defeated the Pokémon League Champion, N believes that more people will listen Team Plasma's ideal. Before he can leave, N is attacked by a Samurott owned by Cedric Juniper who demands to know where the captured Gym Leaders are.

Together, Black, White, and Cedric defeat Gigi and Zorua. There, it is revealed that N had liberated the set of starter Pokémon that Cedric was going to give to new Trainers a year before, leaving Snivy with N, Tepig in an unknown location, and Oshawott to stay with Cedric. N accuses Professor Juniper as the cause of the suffering of Pokémon with her distributing of starters, but is stopped by Black's Pokémon. Before they can do anything, N manages to use his abilities to get them to back off, confusing Black into needing Musha to clear his head so that he can figure out a plan.

Unfortunately, N reveals that Musha doesn't like the taste of Black's dreams anymore, so he leaves Black, causing him to faint from the shock of losing his partner. N leaves on Zekrom, where he reveals that Zekrom wants to battle Black again, this time with Reshiram fully awakened.

Anime

N first appeared briefly at the end of BW109.

He was formally introduced in BW110, where he investigated the ruins of the P2 Laboratory and discovered data related to Genesect. Later, he met with Ash and his friends when they were leaving their ship. While Ash and the others were having some training, Snivy and Pikachu were at point attacked by Jessie's Frillish's Shadow Ball, but N saved them. He immediately befriended with Pikachu, showing his special ability with the Pokémon.

He claimed not to have met Reshiram, although he was shown meeting it as a child in a flashback. He was surprised when he heard that Ash had seen Zekrom, but was visibly disturbed when Ash said that his goal is to become a Pokémon Master. After that, N helped save Ash's Pikachu and Iris's Axew when Team Rocket tried to steal them. When they parted ways, N told Ash that although the worlds they seek are different, he does not hate him.

N appeared again in BW114 where he was rescuing a Braviary from two Team Plasma Grunts, Nero and Bianco. This act attracted the duo's attention and chased him down, but were unsuccessful as N managed to get away. With the help of Ash and his friends, he takes the Braviary to the Pokémon Center. When Nero and Bianco found him, he fought off the Seviper and Zangoose owned by the duo and with the help of Ash and his friends, N managed to free Braviary safely. Afterwards, he joins Ash and his friends on their journey to the White Ruins.

In BW115 he, along with Ash and the others, met up with Hiroto and his team. He helped Hiroto's Watchog to master its moves and rescue abilities.

In BW116 N attended to the Kanto Fair. Upon Ash's Charizard return, he watched the battle between Charizard and Dragonite, which he later called off.

In BW117 he, along with Ash and the others, fought against Colress and Angie. He was trying to rescue a Haxorus from their control, but ended up injuring himself.

Then he was taken to a spring by Anthea and Concordia, where the psychic power of their Pokémon was able to heal him.

Later in BW118, he again met with some Team Plasma grunts. After arriving at his and his sister's secret refuge, he told Ash and his friends that he used to be a Team Plasma member. He talked about the Seven Sages, Ghetsis and his special relation with some wild Pokémon when he was a child. He also spoke about meeting Reshiram. At the end of the episode, he departed from the group with Anthea and Concordia.

In BW119, N examined another of Team Plasma's laboratories and realized that it had been destroyed by the Genesect Army.

N encountered the group again at the White Ruins in BW120. He stole the Light Stone from Cedric Juniper in order to prevent Reshiram from being awakened. While being pursued by Ash, they both fell into a lower chamber within the ruins, where they conversed at length about their differing views on the world. However, up above, Team Plasma arrived and began creating chaos at the ruins by attacking Iris, Cilan, Cedric and the archaeologists present.

In BW121, N realized that he could no longer hear the voices of the Pokémon up above (due to Colress's machine) and with the help of Ash's Charizard, he and Ash escaped. They fell right into Team Plasma's trap, however, and N was forced to surrender the Light Stone to them in exchange for Colress freeing Pikachu from his control. N was imprisoned along with the others and forced to watch as Ghetsis arrived and initiated the Ceremony of Awakening to summon Reshiram. The conflict climaxed in BW122, where Ghetsis took control of Reshiram and set it upon all present. With Pikachu again under Colress's control as well as Anthea and Concordia's Gothitelle and Gardevoir, all seemed lost, but Pikachu was able to fight against the machine's influence and destroy it, freeing Reshiram. N successfully appealed to Reshiram's heart, convincing it that not all humans were evil, and it departed peacefully instead of going on a rampage as he had earlier feared. Later, with Ghetsis, Colress and the members of Team Plasma placed under arrest, he thanked Ash for all his help and happily departed with Anthea and Concordia.

Killer Frost: Are you N?

N: Of course. Why?

Me: It's a pleasure to meet you N.

N: It's an honor to meet you all Team Loud Phoenix Storm. I've heard so many wonderful and amazing things about you all.

Me: We get that all the time.

Killer Frost: We need to talk.

N: Okay.

Me: We have some news regarding your former comrades in Team Plasma.

N: So, Team Plasma's back?

Ben: That's right. It's taken us a long time but we're finally getting on track to finding the factors to stopping them.

Nico: The only way we can find out everything we really should know about them is to find you.

N: Yes I was their leader until I was double-crossed. I'll gladly join all of you. But compared to what you all can do, I don't think I'll be much help.

Drag Strip: Not to worry. Once you hang out with us for a while, you'll get some powers.

Me: Welcome to the Team, N.

N: It's an honor.

Me: Ash, Iris and everyone else might not be willing to trust you right away, but I'm sure that they'll open up to you in no time.

N: Thanks J.D.

Me: You're welcome.

Hound: N, do you know anything else we'll need to take Team Plasma down?

N: I sure do. I will gladly give you everything you need to know about how to take down Team Plasma.

We went back home to Michigan.

* * *

At the estate, I was meditating by the Willow Tree and it was serene as Nerri was watching me.

Me: Oooooommmm…

Nico and everyone were watching me and playing in the backyard.

Nico: J.D. is so peaceful when he does that.

May: He sure is.

Laney: He sure has a lot of inner peace every time he does that.

Lisa Simpson: I taught him really well.

Laney: You are a great teacher Lisa. It's awesome learning the arts of Buddha.

Me: Oooooommmm…

I was done 20 minutes later.

Me: Ahh. Very therapeutic.

Nico: Glad it's working out for you J.D.

Me: Thanks man.

Then the alarm went off.

Me: Uh oh.

We went to the computer and we saw that an evil clown named Zeebo is haunting an abandoned circus on the outskirts of town. It was shut down years ago because of Hauntings that have occurred there over the years.

* * *

The character of Zeebo the Clown who appeared in "The Tale of Laughing in the Dark" is referenced in several other stories, for example, in the episode "The Tale of the Whispering Walls", two children mention seeing him at a fun park, in the episode "The Tale of the Crimson Clown" in the boys room a video game called Zeebo's Big House can be seen on the desk with a picture of Zeebo on it as the title character. The video game was also mentioned in the episode "The Tale of Train Magic". Also in the episode "The Tale of the Mystical Mirror", a girl says she will look like Zeebo if she wears too much lipstick, and finally, in the episode "The Tale of the Night Shift", the teenage janitor is called Zeebo by his supervisor a few times at the beginning of the episode.

---

Me: Whoa. This clown looks like he's really bad news.

William: Another evil clown? At least Joker and Zombozo were more talkative.

Nico: Don't forget Pennywise.

William: True.

Luan: This is a really bad clown. It says that he was a thief that died in a fire in 1924.

Me: And that circus there was shut down because of hauntings that have occurred there. Anyway, we better get over there and check it out.

Nico: Right.

Shaggy and Scooby then backed out!

Shaggy: Like, forget it! No way are we going!

Scooby-Doo: Not on your life!

Me: You two are nothing but a couple of chickens.

Nico: Would you 2 do it for a couple of my brand new Cheddar and Bacon Scooby Snax?

Shaggy: Uh uh!

Scooby Doo: Uh uh! And you can't make us!

Me: Okay then.

I grabbed them and tied them up and we were off.

Me: (Sighs) These two are a couple of cowards that are yellow all over.

Nico: Tell me about it.

Shaggy: But those snacks look good.

They took the Cheddar and Bacon Scooby Snacks.

---

We arrived at the abandoned circus and it was a creepy place. With us was Josh and he was ready to make this ugly clown pay.

Josh: It's gonna be good to put that evil clown in his place.

Me: Yep.

We kept our eyes peeled and looked for a clown. We heard laughter and then we saw ZEEBO!

Me: Zeebo!

Zeebo: That's right! And I will make you laugh while you are dying!

Josh: You're done hurting people, Zeebo!

Me: That's right! We're sending you to the Ghost Zone.

?: We'll kill you first!

Vypra: And take you all with him.

Vypra came out and a wave of water came out and it formed into Morris Bench A.K.A. HYDRO MAN!

---

Morris "Morrie" Bench, also known as Hydro-Man is a supervillain from Marvel Comics. He is a recurring enemy of both Spider-Man and the Fantastic Four.

Cargo ship crewman Morris Bench was accidentally knocked overboard by Spider-Man (who was battling Sub-Mariner) during the testing of a powerful new experimental underwater generator, the energies of which combined with gases from undersea volcanoes to trigger a weird mutation in Bench, who began to transform into living water. Physically and emotionally unstable, Bench dubbed himself Hydro-Man and soon attacked Spider-Man, but he evaporated after Spider-Man scattered his liquid form amidst the hot sunshine of the New York rooftops; however, the particles of Bench's body soon reintegrated, and he embarked on a long criminal career.

When Bench and rival criminal Sandman fought over the affections of barfly Sadie Frickett, the two men accidentally merged into a monstrous "mud-thing" that the police were ultimately forced to dehydrate into seemingly inert rubble. Hydro-Man and Sandman eventually managed to separate back into their original forms, but both were humiliated and traumatized by the experience. Sandman was so shaken that he went straight for years (until the Wizard brainwashed him into returning to crime), while Hydro-Man did most of his criminal work in groups from that point on, perhaps seeking safety in numbers.

Both alone and as a member of teams like the Sinister Syndicate, the Frightful Four and the Assembly of Evil, Bench fought a wide array of foes such as Silver Sable, Sandman, the Fantastic Four, Cloak; Dagger, the Avengers, the New Warriors, Thunderstrike, the Thunderbolts, Gambit and Black Panther, but most often clashed with Spider-Man. Hydro-Man was one of many super-criminals employed by corrupt billionaire Justin Hammer for a time, and later served in the Masters of Evil assembled by Hammer';s daughter Justine, alias the Crimson Cowl; however, after Justine's arrest and the apparent death of Justin, Hammer Industries phased out its criminal enterprises and Bench, along with fellow employee the Shocker, was laid off. The Shocker and Hydro-Man then teamed up for one last crime, seeking enough money to retire, but Hydro-Man's thirst for revenge against Spider-Man led to their defeat. Trying and failing to go straight, Bench was recruited back into the Wizard';s Frightful Four and, more recently, the Sinister Twelve.

Powers and Abilities

Hydro-Man possesses the ability to bodily transform himself, in whole or in part, into a watery liquid substance of unknown composition. While in this state, his consciousness can control every droplet that comprises his body. Thus he can will himself to turn liquid whenever struck. (Presumably if he were to will just his torso liquid, his still solid head and arms would fall to the ground. It is not known if this would cause injury to his solid parts or not. The Hydro-Man can also propel the liquid particles of his body at great pressure in the same style as water shooting through a fire hose. It is not known how he generates the pressure to create this effect. Also he can harden his fist as if it were ice hard. Apparently Hydro-Man's liquid particles each possess some form of attraction for one another so that his disintegrated consciousness can draw all of the particles back into cohesion after total dispersal. It is not known if there is a limit to the particles' ability to attract one another. Nor is it known if there is a limit to how long Hydro-Man can remain in a completely aqueous state. Although he can merge with ordinary water, or use if to increase his mass, he does not gain mental control over this liquid as he does his own. Apparently, he has no difficulty reforming his solid physical state, even while fully immersed in water. Hydro-Man consciousness either resides in each of the billions of droplets that his body becomes, or exists in an intangible perhaps gas-like state. Since Hydro-Man can convert his entire head into water, and his brain is still capable of rational motivated thought, his brain can no longer be organic. It is probably that even in its solid state when it appears to be made of flesh, tissue, and bone; the Hydro-Man's body is no longer truly organic, it is not known if the Hydro-Man needs to eat, sleep, or eliminate waste products anymore

Television

Hydro-Man first appears in the 1990s Spider-Man. This version is portrayed as Mary Jane Watson's ex-boyfriend who has returned to reclaim Mary Jane Watson's love. Morris Bench once dated Mary Jane in high school, but she broke up with him after realizing she had made a big mistake. Soon after, Morrie was expelled from school and his parents enlisted him in the navy, thinking it would keep him out of trouble. While in the special research unit working as a crewman he was knocked overboard into the ocean where his body was covered by a strange chemical which changed his cellular structure, allowing him to control any liquid at will, and turn into water. However, as M.J. repeatedly rejects Bench's advances, Hydro-Man becomes even more desperate in his attempts and incensed against Spider-Man as a competitor. After robbing a museum and stashing untold amounts of riches inside a water filtration plant, Hydro-Man kidnaps Mary Jane and keeps her inside the plant. Upon an eventual discovery of the plant, Spider-Man and Hydro-Man fight it out over Mary Jane, which eventually evolves into a battle on a high-rise rooftop away from the water. He attempts to attack Spider-Man physically only to end up evaporated, due to his being separated from the water that feeds him. Hydro-Man again appears in a two-part Season 5 episode, "The Return of Hydro-Man". However, Hydro-Man was really a clone of the original Hydro-Man created by Professor Miles Warren. He kidnaps Mary Jane again, which leads to the final encounter in the underwater base, where Miles works. After Miles explained his story of how he cloned Hydro-Man and Mary Jane to Spider-Man, the clones dissolve into water and evaporate. Hydro-Man was utilized in place of the Sandman, who was unavailable for use in the show due to being considered as one of the villains in James Cameron's attempted Spider-Man film.

Hydro-Man appears in the Fantastic Four. In this appearance, he is a member of the Wizard's Frightful Four. On a related note, this episode aired one week from Hydro-Man's debut appearance in Spider-Man.

Morris Bench appears in The Spectacular Spider-Man. He appears as a demolition expert for Norman Osborn. When the bomb's countdown is activated by the Master Planner, Bench is unable to fix it. However, Spider-Man arrives and saves Bench, along with Osborn and Donald Menken, from the explosion.

Hydro-Man appeared in the Ultimate Spider-Man. When Spider-Man, Kid Arachnid, Iron Spider, and Scarlet Spider answer a distress signal at an abandoned mall in Queens, they find a vacuum-sealed room where Hydro-Man was being held. Hydro-Man claimed that Nick Fury was keeping him in this hideout for his own protection, and they decide to bring him to the Triskelion. However, when Iron Spider looked up Hydro-Man's criminal record and found out that he is villain, Hydro-Man sheds his charade and attacks the group, causing Iron Spider to do an emergency landing in the Queens neighborhood where Aunt May resides. In order combat Hydro-Man, Spider-Man, Kid Arachnid, Iron Spider, and Scarlet Spider had to use freeze webs until they ran out. As a final plan, Spider-Man had his fellow spiders throw their web cartridges into Hydro-Man, which caused the released webbing to absorb Hydro-Man. Back at the Triskelion, Spider-Man receives word that the jet carrying Hydro-Man back to his prison got intercepted. This causes Spider-Man to suspect that Doctor Octopus was behind it and now has a possible candidate for the Sinister Six. This was confirmed in the episode "The New Sinister 6" Pt. 1 where Hydro-Man appears as a member of Doctor Octopus' Sinister Six. He is shown sporting a new outfit (similar to the second outfit from the comics). During the attack on the Triskelion, Cloak uses his abilities to send Hydro-Man to the middle of the Atlantic Ocean. Hydro-Man returns where he causes a tidal wave on the Triskelion and then forms a waterspout around it. In the episode "The New Sinister 6" Pt. 2, Doctor Octopus has Hydro-Man destroy the Triskelion as he heads out to claim the key to Dr. Curt Connors' latest device. This causes Spider-Man to awaken Sandman in order to fight Hydro-Man. After Doctor Octopus' Octopus Island crashes into the sea, Sandman catches the escape pod that Spider-Man and Aunt May are in and then defeats Hydro-Man.

Videogames

Hydro-Man appears in the Spider-Man Questprobe game, as well as in the Spider-Man Animated Series game for Super NES.

Hydro-Man is featured as a boss in the Facebook game Marvel: Avengers Alliance.

Hydro-Man has been featured as a mid-level boss in the mobile game Spider-Man Unlimited

Me: Hydro Man!? What the hell are you doing back here Morris!?

Hydro Man: Isn't it obvious? I'm here to kill you all. Starting with Web-Head.

Luna: But we killed you!

Spiderman: And I thought we were rid of you forever!

Hydro Man: (to Spiderman) I'm dead for over a year and I find out that you have Vanitas as a nemesis now?

Spiderman: Don't worry, Hydro Man. You'll always have a special place in my heart.

Me: I think I'm gonna be sick.

Hydro Man: I agree! I am not gay!

Nico: He means that you will be forever a bad guy to us.

Hydro Man: Oh. That's better.

Me: So Hydro Man is now Luna or Lily's archenemy right?

Vypra: Just Luna's. I have another Archenemy in store for Lily.

?: Let me come out too.

A figure came out and it was SKARF from episode 8 of Super Samurai!

---

Skarf is found by Octoroo and Master Xandred eating the ship and is sent by Serrator to cause misery by eating humans' possessions. Kevin finds Skarf feasting on different items in the park and ends up eating Kevin's Samurizer while attempting to eat a cyclist. The other Power Rangers show up and start fighting Skarf who retreats after taking a hit from Jayden's sword attack. Skarf later returns and starts eating the City Center. The Rangers fight Skarf again. Mike uses his Samurizer to find Kevin's Samurizer in his left arm. Just then, Deker arrives to fight Jayden while the other Rangers fight Dayu and Skarf starts eating some nearby objects. Dayu and Deker then attack Skarf and destroy him which unleashes Skarf's true power. As his true power is being unleashed, Jayden saves Kevin's Samurizer by cutting off Skarf's right arm. Skarf then turns into a Mega-Monster where his arms are converted into two halves of a nearly impenetrable tiki-faced wall. The eyes on the Tiki Face shoot lazers. With Kevin getting his Samurizer back, the Rangers summon the Claw Armor Megazord where it's attacks have no effect getting through Skarf's shield. Under Kevin's advice, the Rangers call all the Zords to them in order to combine all the Zords into the Samurai Gigazord which uses the Ultimate Samurai Slash to penetrate Skarf's shield. The Samurai Gigazord then uses it's Mega Strike attack to destroy Skarf.

---

Kevin (Samurai): Skarf!

Skarf: Its been a while rangers.

Me: I remember you! You were sent by Serrator to eat peoples possessions.

Skarf: That's right. You watched us on TV huh?

Me: Never missed an episode.

Skarf just ate Udonna's Snow Staff.

Skarf: (burps) Delicious! Tastes like ice cream. (sees Antonio's Barracuda Blades) The Gold Ranger has fish swords? Why didn't I see that the first time you Rangers fought me?

Levi: Just brand new.

Skarf: (sees Levi's morpher): A cheeseburger morpher? I'll eat that instead!

Levi: How about instead of eating my morpher, we take a selfie together?

Skarf: (suspicious) How do I know you're not trying to distract me so your friends can kill me easily?

Levi: I guess you're just going to have to trust us.

Me: I always loved those selfies you did with them Levi.

Levi: Thanks.

Levi and Skarf did a really cool selfie and it showed them doing silly faces.

Me: Good selfie. We should get into that craze with each villain we defeat like in the show.

Nico: Good idea.

Emma: Are you done with the selfie now?

Skarf: Sure am!

Gia: Good. Now we can fight!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Time Force!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Time Force Rangers.

?: Don't forget about me.

?: And me.

Snake: Same with me dude.

We saw two figures come out with Snake Jailbird and they were STANLEY DEGROOT A.K.A. DARK STANLEY and former head of the E.P.A., RUSS CARGILL!

---

Stanley DeGroot.

Years ago, Stanley DeGroot was a chef at Springfield Elementary and he was often ridiculed by the kids because he had failed to graduate from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Stanley bore the tauntings for as long as he could, yet gradually the constant abuse caused him to snap.

In this legend, Stanley went totally psychotic and grabbed a cleaver one day amidst a crowd of his abusers, deciding to add a new item onto the menu: a dish he named "Kids' Head Soup!" Stanley ran round the school butchering and brutally dismembering the children who had mocked him until there were none of them left. While tasting his new soup, Stanley gleefully remarked "Needs more girl!" and threw in a girl's head. Stanley then presented the soup to the staff the next day for lunch, and they were horrified to discover that their lunch contained parts of their students.

Demise

Stanley was immediately arrested for murder and executed by hanging, yet the day after when the officials went back to check out his grave, the whole cemetery was missing!

Haunting of Dark Stanley

Stanley DeGroot was now renamed "Dark Stanley" and returned from the grave, so said the legend, and harvested the brains of the living, regardless of whether they were child or adult, and he took them back to the Netherworld for his "Soup of Sorrow."

Eventually, despite no-one ever having seen him, every single child in Springfield Elementary believed and dreaded this ghost, and when Bart Simpson, who was narrating the story, apparently dropped dead with his skull sliced open and his brain spilling out, the kids believed Dark Stanley had appeared, and all ran screaming out of the school.

Bart, who had just been telling this story to get some lunch (Homer had forgotten to give his own kids proper lunches) out of his mates, had actually disguised his "brains" with spaghetti and tomato sauce, and calmly cleaned himself down and helped himself to his classmates' lunches in the empty cafeteria.

Repercussions

Even though Bart Simpson just invented the story to get some lunch, he had to see a psychiatrist, as Principal Skinner recommended to Homer. Homer went to take Bart to a psychiatrist whom he actually befriended. After many days together, both had grown fond of each other and when Bart had told the psychiatrist all he needed to tell her, he left abruptly, feeling relieved to get all his family problems off his chest. Afterwards, the psychiatrist went to her own psychiatrist, who suggested that she was replacing Bart with her own son, who had been murdered by Dark Stanley, to which she said she wasn't ready to go there yet. Thus, Dark Stanley may have actually existed.

Russ Cargill

Russell "Russ" Cargill is the main antagonist of the 2007 animated film The Simpsons Movie, which is based on the long-running TV series The Simpsons. He later makes a cameo appearance in one of the comics.

He was the head of the EPA (Environmental Protection Agency) and the commander of the Dome operation. He imprisoned all of Springfield inside a glass dome when the lake reached impossible pollution levels. He also purposely plots to destroy all of Springfield to make money for a new Grand Canyon plan.

He was voiced by Albert Brooks, who also played Bernie Rose in Drive.

Before the events of the film, Russ studied at Harvard, attending its business school. While there he noted that they "don't teach you how to cope with loss, and handle a shotgun". He later joined the EPA, working his way up the ranks to its director.

The Simpsons Movie

Russ first appears during his visit to the White House where he presented a mutant squirrel to President Schwarzenegger. Cargill explains that the pollution levels at the lake of Springfield are very high (which caused the mutation) and that they need to be contained. Cargill manages to provide five options on how to deal with the contamination, and President Schwarzenegger randomly chooses one of them, which is to encase Springfield in a huge glass dome (referred to as "Trappuccino" by the citizens) to contain the high pollution levels. Appearing on a giant LCD screen in the dome, Cargill explains about the pollution levels and why the EPA is forced to take action by trapping the city, which obviously enrages the Springfield citizens. Eventually, the townspeople except for Ned Flanders and his kids found out that Homer Simpson was responsible for causing the pollution by dumping his pig silo into the lake in the first place, so they attempt to kill him and his family in revenge. This forces the Simpson family to escape through a sinkhole, which eventually destroys the Simpson residence.

With the news behind the cause of the pollution revealed, Cargill becomes mad with power, vowing to capture the Simpsons and confine them back in the dome, which forces the Simpsons to escape to Alaska. His next scene shows him tricking the President into choosing "Operation: Soaring Eagle", which involves killing everyone in Springfield and creating a "New Grand Canyon" (advertised by actor Tom Hanks). After Marge watches the advertisement in the television, she tries to get Homer to come with her and the kids to save Springfield, but he selfishly refuses to help the townspeople who tried to kill him. This force makes Marge to go alone with Bart, Lisa, and Maggie. Later, Homer watches a tearful message that Marge recorded over their marriage tape. Having a change of heart, he goes to help his family save Springfield.

Meanwhile, the C.I.A. tracks Marge's location through a train conductor robot, revealing her location to Cargill, who captures the remaining Simpsons at a train station and traps them inside the dome again. When the family are brought back after Homer's failed attempt to rescue them, Cargill contacts the town once again via the screen and tells them that the EPA is going to destroy Springfield and kill everybody contained in the dome. A helicopter arrives, lifts a plug off the top of the dome, and lowers a nuclear bomb on a rope in front of the now-destroyed City Hall. Russ impatiently oversees the countdown, and Cletus Spuckler distracts him so the townspeople can escape up the rope.

Homer, who has climbed the outside of the dome, jumps through the hole and knocks everyone off of the rope, accidentally knocking the bomb inside in the process (as well as accidentally cutting the bomb's remaining countdown in half), much to the city's anger, prompting an annoyed Cargill to disappear at this point. However, Homer gets a motorcycle and, with the help of Bart, throws the bomb through the dome's "ceiling," which explodes and destroys the dome, saving Springfield while Homer and Bart land safely after jumping over Springfield Gorge.

Though Springfield is safe, a furious Cargill suddenly appears with a shotgun and confronts Homer and Bart. Cargill admits that he will accept his defeat, but only after he kills Homer as revenge for ruining his plans. Just when Cargill is about to fire, Bart distracts him with a prank name, which allows Maggie to throw a boulder on Cargill's head from behind, instantly knocking him unconscious. It's likely that he was fired from his job as the head of the EPA and arrested after the events of the movie (if he survived).

It is unknown where he is now since he was never shown in Springfield Penitentiary after the movie. He appears in "The Walking Ned" (non-canon to the series) as one of the deceased characters from the show, now a zombie, which could possibly prove that he died from the boulder.

Other Appearances

Russ briefly appears in the opening sequence of the episode of season 19 called "He Loves To Fly And He D'ohs", his only appearance outside the movie so far. He was also seen in The Simpsons Comics on "The Death of Comic Book Guy Part 2", giving President Arnold Schwarzenegger the news that people will not be insulted on the internet anymore. The president then says that he thought that he had fired him and does so after he's finished telling him. Later in the same comic, he is seen working for Mayor Quimby and telling him about the fight between the nerds and geeks. This appearance is non-canon.

Russ also appears as a limited-time character in The Simpsons: Tapped Out. He was only available during the Secret Agents 2017 event.

Bart Simpson: Stanley DeGroot!

Homer: Russ Cargill!

Me: Its been a while Stanley and I remember reading about you Russ. You were the former head of the Environmental Protection Agency.

Russ Cargill: That's right.

Dark Stanley: That's right J.D.

Qin: Who are they?

Me: The man with the chef's hat is Stanley DeGroot. He is also known as Dark Stanley. He's part of an old Springfield, Oregon legend. He used to work at Springfield Elementary School as a chef. He was the victim of constant round the clock teasing from the kids because he never graduated from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He went full psycho and picked up a clever and chopped all the kids heads off and put a new entrée on the menu. It was called Kids Head Soup. He's a fucked up Cannibalistic Serial Killer that killed 117 kids that day. They executed him for Capital Murder and buried him in an unmarked grave. He has been a source for many legends in Springfield Elementary before we destroyed the entire town.

Qin gasped in sheer horror!

Qin: That's insane!

Nico: I know. Years ago, Mr. Grouse was the one that turned him in and got him executed.

Qin: The Loud's next door neighbor?

Me: That's him.

Qin: And who is Russ Cargill?

Russ Cargill: I'm sure you've heard of me. As J.D. said, I am the former head of the United States Environmental Protection Agency. Homer and Bart know this but have you all ever heard of the "Trappuccino Incident"?

Most of us shook our heads.

Me: Trappuccino? (Gasp) You mean that giant glass dome that was put over all of Springfield!?

Russ Cargill: That's right.

Me: I remember reading about that! That was terrible!

Lori: That was literally a travesty! For 93 days, Springfield was completely cut off from the outside world because of it!

Fiona: (to Snake) I thought Cargill trapped Springfield in a dome before. Why are you and the rest of the Springfield Scumbags teaming up with him?

Snake: (scowling) Believe me. I'm just as thrilled as you are about Cargill right now.

Russ Cargill: Let me explain. It was 14 years ago in 2007.

Russ Cargill went over what the Trappuccino Incident was.

---

Trappuccino is the popular term for the crisis where a dome was placed over the city of Springfield by Russ Cargill and the Environmental Protection Agency thanks to Homer Simpson. It was one of the worst moments in the history of Springfield and lasted for 93 days. The crisis was given the name Trappuccino by Channel 6 News.

After cracks started appearing in the dome from the townsfolk's efforts to get out, Cargill launched "Operation Soaring Eagle", the goal of which was to blow up Springfield. However, his plan was thwarted by Homer Simpson, and the dome was destroyed by the same bomb that Cargill had ordered dropped to blow up Springfield. Afterwards, the situation in Springfield slowly returned to normal.

Lake Springfield had become a source of pollution, being the dumping site for everything from empty beer bottles to radioactive waste from the Nuclear Power Plant. It was so polluted that it killed the band Green Day while they were playing a concert on the lake. The barge they were using as a stage dissolved, and the band drowned when they fell into the water.

Lisa Simpson and Colin found out about the extent of the pollution in the lake, and urged the people of Springfield to clean up the lake during a presentation at town hall, named "An Irritating Truth". To convince the audience further, Lisa placed water from the lake into their drinking glasses. The tactic paid off, and Mayor Quimby raised the town's alert level to "Code Black", the town's highest alert level.

The town then proceeded to clean up the lake. Mayor Quimby led the construction of a shoulder-level concrete wall, which was presumably "idiot-proof." Cletus could not dump anything (a rat) in it. The lake was surrounded by "No Dumping" signs and all hazardous waste could only be disposed at a waste disposal plant.

Turn of Events

Sometime after the cleanup, Lard Lad Donuts was being shut down by health inspectors, and the doughnut shop was giving away free donuts. Unfortunately, this proved to be a distraction for resident Homer Simpson, who was waiting behind a long line of cars at the waste disposal plant to dispose of a large silo of "pig crap," filled with the leavings of his newly adopted pig Plopper after Marge insisted Homer to get rid of the disposal plant properly. Unable to wait any longer for a chance at free donuts, Homer went off to dispose of the silo quickly by dumping the waste into the lake. Ignoring the warning signs, he crashed through the concrete barrier and dumped the silo into the water, which instantly dirtied the entire lake, just days after it had been cleaned up.

Homer and Plopper quickly fled the scene, while at the same time, a squirrel fell into the water and was instantly mutated into a multi-eyed creature. The creature was later captured by the Environmental Protection Agency and went into the possession of Russ Cargill, head of the EPA. He showed President Arnold Schwarzenegger the abomination of nature and expressed how high the pollution in Springfield has become. Russ Cargill presented the President five options on how to deal with the town. He picked Option 3 without even reading it.

The Dome

Option 3 was to trap the entire town of Springfield under a thick glass dome in order to prevent the pollution from spreading. (Incidentally, Russ Cargill was also the owner of the company that made the dome.) The dome was carried by over a hundred helicopters, attaching ropes with large suction cups to the dome. The inhabitants of the entire town witnessed the dome casting a shadow over Springfield. The dome was soon lowered, covering the entire perimeter of Springfield and cutting the "Springfield" sign in half. At least one person was flattened and killed when the dome was lowered. As Marge realized that Grampa's prophecy came true and Grampa believed that crazy old guy in Church was right all along, the EPA helicopters tightened the dome and left. Homer then yelled "Doooooooooooooooooome!" in a parody of D'oh.

After the Dome was Lowered

The Springfield Police Department attempted to crack the dome by shooting at it, but instead, the bullets ricocheted back towards them. Professor Frink announced that he had created a drill that could drill through anything, but unfortunately, it was right outside the dome. Soon after, Russ Cargill appeared on a giant screen on the dome, explaining to the Springfieldians that in order to keep pollution from spreading into other areas, the United States government was forced to quarantine the entire town inside a dome. When Lisa Simpson exclaims to him that they just cleaned up the lake, Russ Cargill simply retorted that "someone didn't get the message".

To keep anyone from finding Springfield, Springfield was removed from the official state maps and wiped out from GPS devices.

The town soon faced the beginning of a long range of problems such as the shortage of supplies like botox and gasoline, and there was a grab for supplies. The dome also prevented swallows from returning to Springfield for the springtime (and allowed wild cats to eat them so it predictably never happens).

The Riot

Sometime later, the Springfield Police Department discovered a large silo with the words "pig crap" written on it,

Angry Mob

plus the message "Return to Homer Simpson. No reward." The culprit behind the pollution of Lake Springfield was revealed, and Channel 6 news called for vigilante justice against Homer Simpson as Marge berates Homer for ignoring her after she warned him, but Homer believes that nobody has watched that channel. However, a massive angry mob consisting of literally the entire town's population (except for Ned Flanders and his kids) converged on 742 Evergreen Terrace, home of Homer Simpson and family, bent on killing Homer for polluting the Lake and causing the EPA to contain Springfield within the dome. In the chaos, the house was set on fire and the family were nearly killed by a swarm of arrows and by hanging after Ned tried to save the family. The Simpsons ultimately escaped by jumping into a sinkhole in their backyard that brought them outside the dome, but the sinkhole later expanded, destroying the car, treehouse, doghouse, and finally the Simpson house.

Deteriorating Conditions

As weeks passed, the situation got worse in Springfield. Around Day 37, intermediate power failures plagued the town (the Nuclear Power Plant was presumably shut down due to lack of plutonium and safety concerns) and the residents started looting buildings including Moe's Tavern. Eventually, a power outage blacks out the entire town, with the exception of Burns Manor.

Mr. Burns refused to supply the town with some of his remaining electricity despite the pleas of Dr. Hibbert, Chief Wiggum and Apu Nahasapeemapetilon (Mostly because of Apu foolishly telling Mr. Burns that he should find what's right in his heart, as he was pretty close to allowing them to have some of his power).

By Day 93, the residents of Springfield finally reached the breaking point. After a book thrown by Lindsey Naegle spilled coffee from a coffee machine at an Alcoholics Anonymous meeting, Barney finally cracked, ran out to the dome, and attempted to break it. The rest of the townspeople soon followed after him, trying to crack the dome repeatedly with objects such as Boxing Gloves, Jackhammers, Battering Rams, Bubbles (Ralph Wiggum), Swordfish, Sticks, and Shovels (ironic, since the townspeople could've dug themselves out in the first place). Stampy the elephant struck the dome with his head, and managed to form a small crack on the dome.

Russ Cargill and the president witnessed this from a surveillance camera and realized that the townsfolk will eventually get out. Convincing the president that a breakout from the dome would expose a government conspiracy and start a federal investigation, Russ Cargill once again gave the president five options, but this time, he manipulated the president to pick Option 4: Blow Up Springfield.

Operation Soaring Eagle

The government passed off the upcoming destruction of Springfield as the creation of a "new Grand Canyon," and released a commercial promoting it, featuring Tom Hanks. The commercial described the new Grand Canyon to be located "East of Shelbyville and South of Capital City," the very location of Springfield. They went to describe it as nowhere near where anything is.

The Simpsons family was soon found and captured by the EPA, thanks to a nationwide surveillance program that involved tapping into people's conversations. Homer Simpson wasn't captured, as he was left by the family. The family was placed back into the Dome.

By now, Springfield was in a state of near ruin. Many of its buildings had collapsed or been destroyed, including the Town Hall and excluding Springfield Elementary and the church. Moe Szyslak had become the self-proclaimed "Emperor of Springfield" (by the time Soaring Eagle came into effect, he had at least one follower, Barney Gumble, largely due to Moe deflecting Gumble's Molotov cocktail back at him when the latter tried to protest his rule.).

Burns Manor was looted and Mr. Burns was stripped of his wealth, with Mr. Burns even hinting that he'd watch Smithers try to commit suicide to focus on something other than his current predicament.

Right after the Simpsons family returned to Springfield, Russ Cargill appeared on the television screen on the dome once again, telling the Springfieldians that the United States government's decision to trap the town inside the Dome was a mistake, and the government had commenced "Operation Soaring Eagle," which involved wiping out the entire town. A bomb hoisted onto a rope from a helicopter was lowered from a hole at the top of the Dome, with a timer set to 15 minutes. After several failed attempts at stopping the bomb (namely, using a bomb disposal robot to cut the wire, only for it to panic, grab an officer's gun, and shoot itself in the head). The townspeople decided to climb the rope and escape through the top of the Dome, while Cletus distracted Russ Cargill. In a sick twist of fate, Homer Simpson came down the rope at the same time after climbing up the Dome, knocking everyone off the rope. His act also made the rope break which caused the bomb to drop, making the timer freeze. Unfortunately, Homer kicked the bomb out of frustration after he discovers that he actually ruined it for everyone, which not only reactivated the timer but also decreased the time to four minutes and eleven seconds.

While moping, he bumps into the tree and is implied to be talking to the Medicine Woman, who points out that he could use the Motorcycle and the stunt he used earlier to get the bomb out of the town. Deciding that he had to save the town, Homer "paid" the Boob Lady for her services (by placing it in the Tree Trunk), took the bomb and attempted to ride a motorcycle up the side of the dome (like in a motorcycle stunt cage). He took his son Bart Simpson, who helped him hold the bomb. At the moment they made it to the top, Bart threw the bomb out of the hole, ten seconds before detonation. After nearly falling back into the hole, the bomb safely flipped its end onto the dome and caused a massive explosion on the side of the Dome with a force that stripped the leaves off the nearby pine forests. The explosion caused the dome to shatter into pieces, mostly tiny and harmless except for a large one that crushed Dr. Nick, one of the few casualties of the Trappuccino incident.

Homer and Bart landed safely near Springfield Gorge, only to be confronted by Russ Cargill, who attempted to kill Homer after refusing to admit defeat. Before he could fire, he was knocked out by a boulder thrown at him by Maggie Simpson. Homer then thanked Maggie, and remarked that she turned out to be "a great little accident."

Aftermath

Homer Simpson was hailed as a hero, being the man who was both the direct cause of the "Dome incident" and responsible for its end. The town of Springfield was repaired and rebuilt, and the status quo returned once again and Russ Cargill was deposed as head of the EPA and arrested.

Burns later had his own construction company, Burns Construction greatly aid in the construction efforts, with it being strongly implied that he managed to regain his fortune through this effort.

---

We gasped in horror!

Me: That dome was placed there because of Mr. Burns! He was the one that dumped all that toxic waste into Lake Springfield and he got Homer blamed for it!

Homer: That's right! That fucking scumbag! FUCK YOU BURNS!

Nico: You tell him Homer! It was because of Mr. Burns and all the corruption in all of the town that all of Springfield was completely destroyed. He, Mayor Quimby, The Springfield Mafia and a number of conspirators were behind a major national conspiracy that ruined the whole town. It's the reason why Springfield was destroyed in the first place.

Me: That's right.

Vypra: That's awful.

Me: It was. But not only that, what Russ Cargill did is treason. After we're done here, we're heading to the White House to let him know what happened with Springfield because of you Cargill!

Russ Cargill: Not if I kill you first to prevent that.

Me: Bring it.

Girl Jordan: I'll face Cargill.

Fiona: I'll face Snake.

Luan: I know the drill with Vypra.

Luna: I'll face Hydro Man.

Levi: We'll face Skarf.

Nico: I'll help you guys.

Liam: (Southern Accent) And me and Carmen will face Dark Stanley.

Me: And the rest of us will face Zeebo. Lets get them!

We went at them.

Battle 1: Girl Jordan VS Russ Cargill

---

Girl Jordan was facing Russ Cargill.

Girl Jordan: You will pay for your crimes Cargill.

Russ Cargill: You won't stop me from killing all of Springfield.

Girl Jordan was then enveloped in a massive vortex of water and her power skyrocketed. When it faded Girl Jordan had transformed into her Super Angel 30,000 Maelstrom Ocean Dragon! But now she had a blue dragon made of pure water on her shirt.

Girl Jordan: (Older Voice) You will pay for everything you've done. After we're done here, we're going to make wanted posters to have everyone all over the country take you down for an incredible bounty.

Russ Cargill: We'll see about that.

Girl Jordan punched him in the stomach with incredible force and kicked him in the face with incredible power and knocked out some of his teeth.

Girl Jordan: Try this one! SOLAR STYLE NINJA ART: LISTEN WITH YOUR HEART!

Girl Jordan floated into the air as the bright light of the sun appeared behind her and she sang the famous song Listen To Your Heart from Pocahontas.

The famous deeds of the Powhatan Princess Pocahontas from the early 17th Century showed around the Sun and Girl Jordan fired blasts of flaming plasma and they took the form of spirit animals from Powhatan Lore and they slammed into Russ Cargill and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Jessie K.: Whoa! That was intense!

Girl Jordan: Thanks Jessie.

Jessie K.: Those were all the spirit animals of Powhatan Lore. Really well done.

Girl Jordan: Pocahontas is one of my heroes Jessie. She has been a huge inspiration to me.

Jessie K.: It's good that you look up to her G.J. You have a big role model in her.

Girl Jordan: I sure do.

Battle 2: Fiona VS Snake

Fiona was facing Snake Jailbird.

Fiona: It's pretty cool having my own Archnemesis.

Snake: Glad you think so dudette. Lets see how you fair against me.

Fiona: And that surfer accent you have is awesome on you dude.

Fiona kicked him in the face and she grabbed him by the jacket and threw him to the ground. Suddenly from out of nowhere and without warning, Fiona was struck by two powerful lightning bolts and she was enveloped in a massive vortex of lightning. She underwent a massive change and her energy levels were increasing at an astronomical rate! When the vortex faded, Fiona was forever changed. She had a purple tank top with a yellow skirt and purple leggings and she had angel wings made entirely of pure lightning and the amount of lightning she had surging through her hands was unbelievable!

Fiona: Whoa! That was weird. (Gasp!) I have powers now!

Fiona fired a blast of lightning from her hand and it slammed into Snake and electrocuted him all over with incredible electricity. Knocking him out!

Fiona: (Gasp) I have lightning powers!

Jessie K.: Wow! Fiona that was amazing!

Fighting and burning from turning from

Who we really are

Cannot suppress so let's find the one

We have shaped so far

Flying too close to sun

As if we're invincible

Cannot dictate, dominate the earth

That we're living on

We can't defy the laws

Cut the laws that we consummate

Around the world

We grow weaker as we exterminate

The only thing that gives thing

That brings air and life to us

Wake up one day and find

That what we got is serious

We are the children of the sun

We are the children of the sun

The human creed and our creators

Well that we have to share

Knee deep in tragical

Fabrical issues everywhere

Cannot replace the one

Chase the one that we used to be

It isn't how we were, why we're here

What we're meant to be

Fighting and burning from turning from

Who we really are

Cannot suppress so let's find the one

We have shaped so far

Flying too close to sun

As if we're invincible

Cannot dictate our faith

On this earth that we're living on

We are the children of the sun

The love for everyone

Always on our own

The fire in our eyes

The passion never dies

We're the chosen ones

The children of the sun

We are the children of the sun

The love for everyone

Always on our own

The fire in our eyes

The passion never dies

We're the chosen ones

The children of the sun

We are, we are

We are the children of the sun

We are, we are

We are the children of the sun

We are, we are

We are the children of the sun

Always on our own

Und mit Seiner Hoheit Blitzen

Schalten nur Gerechtigkeit!

|: Gott erhalte Franz, den Kaiser,

Unsern guten Kaiser Franz! :|

Ströme deiner Gaben Fülle

Über ihn, sein Haus und Reich!

Brich der Bosheit Macht, enthülle

Jeden Schelm- und Bubenstreich!

Dieser uns Gesetzen gleich.

Unsern guten Kaiser Franz! :|

Lincoln: What are we looking for in all these?

Me: Evidence for the President to show that Russ Cargill was behind trying to blow up Springfield without the consent of the President. I already have one piece of the puzzle and that's this.

I pulled out a special top secret file. It was for Operation: Soaring Eagle, the plan to blow up the entire town of Springfield.

Vince: Whoa! This is definitely treason in capital letters.

At the White House we went to the Oval Office of the President of the United States and we were being escorted in.

Russ Cargill, Krusty The Clown, Selma & Patty Bouvier, Mayor Joe Quimby, Mr. Burns, Snake Jailbird, Superintendent Chalmers, Principal Skinner, Rich Texan, Springfield Mafia - Fat Tony, Legs and Louie, Jimbo Jones, Dolph Starbeam and Kearney Zzyzwics were now America's worst ever traitors next to Benedict Arnold and the F.B.I. placed them as America's Most Wanted Fugitives and they had huge bounties placed on their heads. Double the bounties if they are brought in alive. We found out that Superintendent Chalmers has been brought back because of Vypra and he is out there now. We now call them the Springfield Scumbag 16. We later went back home and rested.

In the Gotham Royal York High School auditorium was the annual high school talent show. It was for all ages to raise charity. The winner with the best talent receives a trophy for the best talent as well as a check for $900,000,000.00. With us was another one of Hunter's friends Nataša Marečková. Me: Wow! Is that even possible.

Homer: For Barney he can do anything with beer.

He opened all 12 cans of 2 six packs of beer and drank them all down in one sitting.

Barney Gumble: (BELCH!)

We cheered wildly and he got an 8 by Lori, a 9 by Homer and a 10 by Varie.

Me: Very good!

Nico: That was awesome!

Sailor Moon: I didn't know that Barney could chug 12 beer cans all at once.

Me: He can do anything with beer.

Announcer: Our next act is Carmen and Horsea.

We cheered.

Maria: Go get them sis! You too Horsea!

Carmen punched him in the face and kicked him in the crotch and Horsea fired a Bubblebeam blast and the blasts hit him in the face and exploded all over and Carmen kicked him in the stomach and punched him in the face with a powerful uppercut and and sent him crashing to the floor and knocked him down and Horsea squirted Ink.

Horsea: We wouldn't be here today without Team Loud Phoenix Storm and Maria and Liam.

Liam: Aww thanks guys.

Maria: We just wanted to give you all support.

Laney: You're welcome.

Me: No problem girls.

We later went back to home.

Back at the estate, we were watching TV and Nico was looking up the blueprints for the Springfield Nuclear Power Plant. I was outside meditating. Nico discovered that it practically violated every Safety Code in the book. It was a total disaster from the very start.

---

The Springfield Nuclear Power Plant is a two-unit pressurized water reactor nuclear power plant owned by Mr. Burns and is the main source of power in Springfield. This is mainly Homer's work place.

The plant is notorious for being poorly maintained, largely due to owner Charles Montgomery Burns' miserliness and safety director Homer Simpson's incompetence. A surprise inspection found 342 violations with an estimated $56 million required to bring the plant up to code, money which Burns refused to spend. Notable safety violations that have been seen include luminous rats in the bowels of the plant, pipes and drums leaking radioactive waste, the disposal of waste in a children's playground, plutonium used as a paperweight, cracked cooling towers (fixed in one episode using a piece of chewing gum), skeletons in the basement, dangerously high Geiger counter readings around the perimeter of the plant, flashing red alert signs being ignored by the employees, the creation of a mutant subspecies of three-eyed fish and a horrific giant spider. The Emergency Exits are simply painted on.

The Power Plant

The core of the reactor is a Fissionator 1952 Slow-Fission Reactor. The plant has come close to meltdowns multiple times, but has always avoided catastrophe, often due to Homer's blind luck (and in one case, a dog employee briefly waking up to avert the meltdown during a particularly lazy day).

Security is also shown to be lax, as a ten-year-old spy from Albania disguised as a foreign exchange student named Adil took pictures and got information of the plant simply by asking Homer for a tour. Numerous times, the Simpson family has been able to break in easily, on many occasions there have been keys hidden under fake rocks (on one occasion one even being shown inside).

Sector 6-F

This was another sector that was mentioned by Mr. Burns in the episode Take My Life, Please that is a better sector than 7-G with a higher payout. Chip Davis was described as "the life of Sector 6-F" but passed away prior to the episode Four Regrettings and a Funeral.

Sector 7-B

This is a sector that appeared when Homer escaped the plant in the episode "Duffless". It contains a hideously gigantic spider that can only be overcome by quoting the Bible or decking it with a rock.

Sector 7-G

Sector 7-G is the location of Homer Simpson's workplace, used to help prevent a meltdown in the reactor core. Homer works on a T-437 Safety Console, that displays many buttons and features, including a meter that shows the temperature of the core and a button that controls the emergency override circuit (presumably eccs) that must be pressed in the event of a meltdown. It also contains a self-destruct button for the plant that Homer pressed while asleep. Emergency doors lock down Sector 7-G whenever a meltdown is imminent. The doors directly behind the Safety Console lead to the Heavy Water Piping Facility.

Sector 7-G was once referred to by Mr. Burns as a 'testicle-shriveling torture chamber' and the people who work there have at various times been classed as 'drones', 'organ banks', 'schmoles', 'carbon blobs', 'boobs', 'cabbage heads', 'chair moisteners' and 'fork and spoon operators'. The radiation has been shond to sterilize workers, namely Homer. The room also contained extremely high voltage cables that were presumably used to power the room. These cables were infamous for causing the death of former employee Frank Grimes due to his insanity causing him to grab the wires while delusional and mockingly referring to himself as Homer Simpson.

Sector 12

This is a sector that appeared in the episode The Crepes of Wrath where Homer's exchange student son, Adil Hoxha is wanting to see the plant's plutonium isolation model so that he can send photos to the Albanian government. Lenny states that it is located on the third floor, near the candy machines.

Cooling Towers

The plant has two Cooling Towers. They are the same color with the design of an atom with its nucleus and electrons pictured. Coffee mugs, pencil holders and other cylindrical based shapes can be seen around the plant in the style of the cooling towers. In one incident, Homer and Mindy Simmons took an elevator that carried them to the top of one of the cooling towers and sent homer plummeting down a dangerous drop. The only logical reason there might be an elevator in a cooling tower is some sort of punishment used on the employees.

Executive Building

The Executive Building, or Sector 22-F, is a building in the back of the power plant. It features a bowling alley, open bar, and maids. Accountants work there.

Mr. Burns' office

Mr. Burns' office is located at the top floor of the plant. His office contains multiple trap doors that drop unwanted visitors far from the office (at least one of which contains a pool filled with electric eels; another one contains alligators) and suction tubes from the ceiling that can send people to an area in the Middle East, that, according to Smithers, was there even before Burns worked at the plant and that not even Burns realized where it went. When Smithers temporarily taking control of the Nuclear Power plant due to Burns being arrested, accidentally activated the trap door while he was standing on it trying to move his items into the office, only to emerge back in the room shortly afterward. Burns' desk hides several buttons that can trigger the traps in the room, release attack hounds, and also call security. There is a small array of security screens on the wall, and the bookcases conceal an escape pod and a germ-proof vault. Burns' office also contains a stuffed mounted polar bear that conceals a secret access-way, or 'corpse hatch'/'innocence tube' that leads to the sewers. Burns used it to dump the body of Smithers' father after he was killed while preventing a core meltdown many years ago due to wanting to create his own conspiracy theory from their being "all the rage" at the time. There is also a balcony behind the huge window.

Cafeteria

The Plant cafeteria is where the Nuclear Power Plant staff have their lunches. There is a rotating cake tray which is turned by a man pushing a lever on a giant wheel and axle a few meters underneath the Cafeteria.

Decontamination Showers

A shower room where the staff members of the Plant wash themselves at the end of each work day. It was once shown that these showers have a tendency to spout fire.

Auditorium

The Nuclear Power Plant has a large auditorium where awards to staff members are given and company-wide meetings are held.

Employee Break Room

A break room is where most staff spend their coffee breaks. The room is usually stocked with coffee and donuts. There is a bulletin board on the wall that has a poster showing how to perform the Heimlich Maneuver.

Plant Operations Center

Homer uses a deformed fish to gain entry to the room (the security machine mistook to the fish for Mr. Burns). Homer attempts to release a mixture of "spoiled milk and utility-grade chicken" into the air-conditioning system. He is stopped by FBI Agent Annie Crawford, but Lisa manages to trigger the machine anyway. It is to no avail even though as revealed that the air-conditioning system is broken.

History

Apparently, the plant was built and opened in 1968 by Mr. Burns and Waylon Smithers, Sr. Funding for construction of the plant came from a child's fundraiser that Homer attended with his dog Bongo in 1966. Twelve-year-old Homer, a young Moe, Lenny, and Carl camped out near the plant as it suffered a nuclear meltdown and almost burned down. However, Smithers Sr. had sacrificed himself to prevent the destruction of the plant and essentially saved the city, only for Homer later on to find his corpse down the Springfield River, which is the outlet for nuclear waste.

Apparently, in 1974, the plant opened again and advertised employee pamphlets to Springfield High School, one that Homer took. However, he disregarded the idea and threw the pamphlet out. In 1980, six years later, he considered getting a job at the plant after hearing they payed well, to support his new wife Marge. However, he failed the job interview as a young Smithers tested the employee tryouts. Then Homer applied again, only more objectively and dramatically, something that impressed the plant's owner, Mr. Burns. He got the job asa nuclear technician, but ten years later, he was fired and rehired asa safety inspector (a decision that doomed the plant in itself).

In 1991, due to safety inspector Homer Simpson's neglect, the plant almost suffered a meltdown. However, after some guessing, Homer saved the plant using a manual override button. Later that year, Burns briefly lost control of the power plant when he sold it to the representatives of an unnamed German conglomerate. However, he purchased it from the Germans because it was his ownership over the plant that gave him power over ordinary men.

In 1995, the plant once became bankrupt after the shooting of Mr. Burns. However, when Burns revived, he payed the mortgages and taxes on the plant, effectively saving it from becoming government property.

Ideas to Improve The Plant

When the Plant held a competition for children to come up with ideas for the power plant, Frank Grimes tricked Homer into entering it. Some competitors who entered were Ralph Wiggum, who entered a dream house, and Martin Prince, who entered a futuristic power plant. Homer added flaps to lower wind, and red and green stripes (that he and Mr. Burns felt were pretty "sharp"). He eventually won, leading Frank Grimes to have an outburst over the stupidity of the plant's employees.

Non Canon

Ssi 5 The contents of this article or section are considered to be non-canon and therefore may not have actually happened/existed.

Video Games

Bart vs. the Space Mutants

The Nuclear Power Plant acted as the final level for the game, with it factoring into the titular aliens' plans of creating their ultimate weapon. They were to steal several carbon rods from the nuclear power plant, with Bart and his family trying to retrieve the carbon rods. Ultimately they succeeded in thwarting the aliens' plans, with the aliens, gaining some respect for Bart's prowess, rewarding him by carving an image of Bart on Mt. Rushmore.

The Simpsons Arcade

The Nuclear Power Plant, or more specifically, Mr. Burns' office, was the final level in the game, where the Simpsons Family fought against Smithers and Mr. Burns (the latter via a mech).

The Simpsons Bowling

The Nuclear Power Plant, or more specifically, Sector 7G, made a brief appearance where it had alarms blaring warning of a core breach, while Homer's chair was unoccupied save for a sign saying "Gone Bowling".

Virtual Bart

The Power Plant appears in the beginning of the level "Post-Apocalypse", where it was the reason why the level appeared as a post-apocalyptic wasteland due to a meltdown.

The Simpsons Road Rage

The power plant acted as a stop on the map of the same name, or rather, the entrance and cooling towers did. In addition, one of the missions had Bart drive Homer back to the power plant to sneak him back in without getting caught by Mr. Burns due to Homer skipping out to watch a baseball game, while another mission had Snake Jailbird smash 20 containers of nuclear waste while on parole as part of his "community service."

The Simpsons Hit and Run

The power plant was first mentioned in the first level with the mission S-M-R-T, where Marge assured Homer he can go to work after he delivers Lisa's school project to her, much to his chagrin, as he didn't even want to leave the house. It was also mentioned at the ending of the aforementioned mission, where Lisa told Homer that Marge called and wanted to talk to him about something important before he heads off to work, with Homer reacting in the usual manner. In the leadup to the mission "Office Spaced" as well as the mission itself, Homer has to destroy Smithers' limo via the Plow King (whom he borrowed from an inebriated Barney) to prevent him from discovering his scorpion farm (as not only was Homer late for work, but the day also happened to be his work evaluation day by Smithers). After blowing up his convertible, Homer then headed over to work, though he was paranoid over the security camera due to thinking sexy girls will watch him while he sleeps, and decided to destroy the power source for the cameras. After doing so, he then tried to take a nap, although Mr. Burns announced that it was time to go home before he could get the chance, much to Homer's chagrin. Homer later passed through the plant to tail a mysterious black van. He later returned to the plant to try and persuade a drunk Carl Carlson to help him spy on and expose Mr. Burns, although he ultimately had to race Smithers due to his possibly overhearing him.

Although no missions occurred at the plant directly in level 4, Marge does pass through the plant a few times in some of the missions.

It also appeared in Level 7, playing a vital role for the final levels: First, Homer went there to meet with Professor Frink after tailing an alien probe car, where he learned of the Rigellians' weakness: Nuclear Waste, with his proceeding to use various nuclear waste and various cars to take out the mothership over Springfield Elementary School. He also briefly visited the plant to ask Mr. Burns for the locations of Nuclear Waste buried around Springfield.

The Future

It is revealed that the plant is going to eventually upgrade the number of cooling towers (and possibly reactors) from two to at least five, perhaps as a response to the future growth of Springfield or its energy demand.

A Dec in the future, Lenny and Carl have been promoted to the executive board, while Milhouse Van Houten has become a supervisor. The plant is operated mainly by robots, but Homer still retains his familiar position at Sector 7G.

It is also known that it will have many lawsuits, as written in the billboard at the entrance ("Still operating, despite lawsuits").

Treehouse of Horror series

In the final segment of "Treehouse of Horror II", Homer is fired from nuclear plant after sleeping on the job.

Behind the Laughter

The design and folly of Springfield Nuclear Power Plant is often rumored to be based on the real life Trojan Nuclear Power Plant near Matt Groening's home town of Portland, Oregon, or the Hanford Site in southeastern Washington. However, Antonia Coffman, Groening's publicist, has said that the Springfield plant's design is generic and that "the Springfield Nuclear Power plant was not based on the Trojan Plant or any other power plant in the country." Trojan Nuclear Power Plant opened in 1976 and was infamous for its poor construction and maintenance, resulting in steam generator leaks which ultimately caused the plant to close in 1993 (although other plants replaced theirs). The cooling tower of the Trojan nuclear power plant was finally demolished on May 21, 2006.

* * *

Nico: Holy shit! This nuclear power plant they had was an abomination! It violated every safety code in the book.

Lincoln: They use Plutonium rods as paperweights!? That's crazy!

Lana: And they had luminous rats because of the radiation!? That is an abomination! Pipes and drums leaking radioactive waste? That is terrible mechanics.

Laney: The disposal of waste in a children's playground? That is barbaric!

Lisa Loud: Cracked cooling towers fixed with chewing gum? That is an absolute abomination of safety.

Lucy Loud: Skeletons in the basement? That is a waste of good corpses.

Lisa Loud: Dangerously high Geiger counter readings around the perimeter of the plant? That is absolute madness!

Lana: Flashing red alert signs being ignored by the employees? That is a really bad operation.

Lincoln: The creation of a mutant subspecies of three-eyed fish and a horrific giant spider? That is sick!

Nico: No kidding. That plant may have been the center of the Town, but it violated every safety code in the book.

Bart: Ay Caramba!

Greta Wolfcastle: No kidding.

Nataša: It got what it deserved.

Hunter: (German Accent) Ja.

Girl Jordan: Hey guys. I just finished making the wanted posters for the Springfield Scumbag 16.

Nico: Cool!

Girl Jordan showed everyone and it was a Wanted By The FBI Poster with the faces of The Springfield Scumbag 16 on it and there was a huge bounty on it for $200 Vigintillion. That's 200 with 63 zeroes. THAT'S A LOT OF MONEY!

Nico: (Whistles!) That is a massive bounty. It's perfect. Great job G.J.

Earth: Yeah. Good work. Now the people are gonna hunt down each of the Springfield Scumbags and bring them to justice.

Jessie K.: By the way Nataša, me and Lily like the band Sabaton too.

Nataša: Wow! I'm glad you do.

Jessie K.: Yep. It's a really awesome band that does songs all about all of the battles and events of German History.

Lily: Really educational and interesting.

Nico: That's right. It taught us a lot about the history of Germany.

Vince: It's really amazing.

Hunter: Danke und yes. Germany is an amazing place.

Matthias: (German Accent) Ja. It sure is.

Carol: We actually went to Germany on our worldwide adventure and we learned so much there.

Lincoln: We sure did. And we loved eating all the sausage.

Lori: And the clocks made in Bavaria are literally beautiful.

Leni: They are totes amazing.

I came in after getting done with meditating.

Me: Hey guys.

Nico: Hey J.D. How was meditation?

Me: Peaceful.

Laney: Awesome.

Qin: Cool. It's really cool learning a lot about the world and how a lot of events in history went down.

Nico: It sure is Qin.

Me: We learned so much from many places.

Naruto: We sure did.

Nico: Hey I think I have an idea on who the next target of the Goosebumps Monster Busters shall be.

Nico went over to his Goosebumps books and pulled out a book. It was Piano Lessons Can Be Murder.

William: Piano Lessons Can Be Murder?

Nico: Well, that's not accurate. Piano lessons can't kill someone. But the piano itself can.

Me: That's true. I've seen a lot of crazy cartoons where they get the piano dropped onto them.

Vince: Like in Roger Rabbit.

Courage: And like with what happened when I was dreaming about the Old West.

Francesca: I remember that.

Me: And in all kinds of cartoons that we know. But a piano can kill someone if it's thrown.

Me: It sure can. Grand pianos weigh 1,200 pounds.

Lori: Wow! That is really heavy!

Luna: No kidding dude!

Sam S.L.: That is really heavy.

Me: No kidding. But that story is a creepy one. It's about a ghost that haunts a piano.

Shaggy: A GHOST!?

Scooby lept into Shaggy's arms and whimpered.

Nico: Yep.

Me: We have our next target. Lets head to New Goshen, Connecticut.

Shaggy: Like, no way! Uh uh! Forget it!

Scooby Doo: Not on your life.

Me: You two are a couple of big fat chickens.

Shaggy: Like, you got that right.

Scooby and Shaggy started clucking like chickens.

Me: What a pair of wusses.

Nico: Would you two go for a couple of my brand new Peanut Butter & Chocolate Scooby Snax?

Shaggy: Like oh boy!

Scooby: Reah!

Nico handed them two Scooby Snax and they loved them and spun around and turned into rockets and flew into the air and exploded into a dazzling display of fireworks and they landed in my hands.

Me: Wow! You two really like Nico's Scooby Snax.

Nico: It's a good paying job.

Shaggy: Like yeah. Lets go.

We were off.

---

NEW GOSHEN, CONNECTICUT

We were over in New Goshen, Connecticut.

Me: New Goshen, Connecticut.

Lana: It sure is cool here.

Me: You should see what it looks like during the Fall Turn. It's beautiful here during that time.

Nico: We got to look for Jerry Hawkins. He's the one that knows about the piano.

Me: Got it.

We went to the Hawkins mansion. It was a nice mansion that was just as nice as Nico's mansion.

Me: Wow. Jerry Hawkins has a nice mansion.

Nico: It's just as nice as my house back home.

Me: Yeah.

Jerry Hawkins came out.

Jerry Hawkins: Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Me: Are you Jerry Hawkins?

Jerry Hawkins: I sure am. It's an honor. It's very nice to meet you all.

Me: Same to you Jerry. We came here to help you deal with a ghost.

Jerry Hawkins: It's in my piano. Follow me.

We went into the Hawkins mansion and it was a beautiful house.

Me: Your house is really nice Jerry.

Jerry Hawkins: Thanks J.D. It's not nearly as nice as your house though.

Me: Well we don't like to brag but you're welcome.

We then saw the piano.

Me: Is this it?

Jerry Hawkins: Yep.

Me: Really nice piano.

Nico: Still in really good shape.

Vince: And really authentic.

Carol: It sure is.

Sakura Avalon: (Whimpers) If it's haunted lets go.

Marinette: It's gonna be all right Sakura. I know you're scared of ghosts, but they usually are people like us that need help.

Me: That's right. If this piano is haunted then we have to figure out what the ghost wants and how to help whoever it is.

Lucy Loud: Let me work my magic.

Me: Lets do a seance.

Lucy Loud got some candles and contacted the spirit inside the piano.

Lucy Loud: Spirit of the Piano, come forth so that we may know what is troubling you.

We saw that it was the ghost of a woman and she had a beautiful look but her hands are missing.

Spirit: I have heard your call. The reason I'm haunting this house Jerry is because years ago, I used to live here and the person responsible took my hands when I died.

We gasped.

Me: They took your hands? That's weird.

Jerry Hawkins: Why would they do that?

Spirit: I don't have any idea.

Brittney: And you won't be at rest until the person that did this is brought to justice.

Spirit: Exactly.

Jerry Hawkins: I think I know who would do something like this. Mr. Toggle. He's our school janitor and he had a really unhealthy obsession with hands.

Me: Hmm. Let me see here.

I pulled up his information.

---

Mr. Toggle is first introduced as the janitor of The Shreek School. He is described by Dr. Shreek as a mechanical genius. When Jerry Hawkins first encounters him, Mr. Toggle offers to show him his workshop. Jerry accepts, and is shown the various incredible inventions he's been developing. When Jerry sees him next, Mr,. Toggle rescues him from Dr. Shreek, shutting him down, and revealing him to be another one of his robotic creations.

Mr. Toggle quickly turns on Jerry, and tells him he needs his hands. Toggle reveals he wants to make beautiful music without human error, but hands are too complex to build, so he takes them from living specimens. Before he can get Jerry, Toggle is dragged away by the ghosts of the former Shreek School students.

We gasped!

Me: That is just sick! He takes human hands and uses them on robots that he makes for perfect music? This guy is seriously fucked up to the core.

Nico: Really sick in the head.

Naruto: This guy belongs in a nuthouse like Arkham Asylum.

Me: I agree with you there bro. Lets see here.

I looked up his history even more and found out that 38 years ago, he escaped from a maximum security insane asylum in West Virginia that was shut down in 1994. His real name is John Mahoney Keystar and he was known as a notorious cannibalistic serial killer called the Hand-ibal Lector Killer. He kills his victims by strangling them to death and chops their hands off as a calling card. He took the hands for robots he was making to make the perfect music. He was diagnosed with Homicidal Schizophrenia and Schizo-affective personality disorder and he was found guilty of the murders and found to be criminally insane. He was found incompetent to face the death penalty and he was committed to the Trans-Alleghany Lunatic Asylum for life without parole for killing 20 people. But in 1982, he escaped and went into hiding under an assumed identity. No one has seen him ever since. The Lunatic Asylum was shut down in 1994 due to patient abuse and reopened as a tourist attraction.

We gasped in shock!

Nico: Mr. Toggle is an escaped nutcase!

Jerry Hawkins: So Mr. Toggle is an escaped lunatic from a nuthouse!? That explains why he had a nasty obsession with my hands.

Me: So he killed all those people just for their hands for the perfect music. This guy is seriously fucked up to the core.

Nico: No kidding.

Lincoln: We should kill this guy.

Me: Normally we would kill him because he's a danger to himself and to others but he escaped almost 40 years ago. We need to send him to the Saturn Insane Asylum.

Jerry Hawkins: He goes to my school as a janitor.

Bart: So he's like Groundskeeper Willie. He was an escaped Mental Patient and he was a janitor.

Homer: Geez.

Me: Yeah. Lets get him guys. You want to help us Jerry?

Jerry Hawkins: I would be honored.

Me: Awesome. Lets get him.

We went out to face him.

---

We went to the school and we saw that it was a nice place.

Me: Your school is nice Jerry.

Jerry Hawkins: Thanks.

We were looking for our target.

?: Jerry?

We saw a beautiful woman come out. It was Angelique.

Jerry Hawkins: Oh Ms. Angelique. I didn't expect to see you here.

Angelique: It's all right. Wow. Team Loud Phoenix Storm. It's an honor to meet you all.

Me: Pleasure to meet you too. We're looking for Mr. Toggle. The whole school is in danger. He's an escaped Insane Asylum patient that busted out of the Trans-Allegheny Lunatic Asylum 38 years ago.

Angelique: (Gasp) Oh no!

But then a Green flash of light happened and I saw Ben turn into RATH and he, Sora and Spiderman were fighting!

Rath: (to Spidey and Sora) LEMME TELL YOU SOMETHIN, SORA KIYO RAIGA AND PETER PARKER, OTHERWISE KNOWN AS

SPIDERMAN! YOU TWO AREN'T GETTING CONTEMPTRA AS LONG AS RATH IS HERE!

Spiderman: Bring it on, Kitty Cat!

Sora: We'll fight you any day of the week!

Gwen Tennyson encased Rath in a sphere of mana and Venom restrained Spiderman and Riku and Kairi restrained Sora.

Nico: What's gotten into you guys!?

Me: Contemptra? (Realizes something)

I looked at Angelique and she changed! She was really CONTEMPTRA from episode 22 of Time Force!

---

Like all other mutants, Contemptra was created in the result of a chemical accident. She is a mutant with the unique power of mesmerize men and make them fall in love with her. A flashback showed that Contemptra attended one of Ransik's speeches. Before the events, she was captured by Time Force rangers and frozen in the Cryo-Prison.

In the twenty-minute episode, she was released and hired by Ransik to mesmerize the male rangers, while Ransik destroyed the city. Contemptra disguised herself as a human woman named Angelique. At first, she disguised herself as a damsel in distress, who cannot get her convertible started. Lucas at the time of washing cars, helps Angelique to activate her engine. But when he kisses her hand, she puts him under her love spell, promising to have a date. Then she disguised herself as nerdy techno freak and drives her remote control car into Trip, while he washed windows. She made Trip think she is crazy about technology and then hypnotized him with her bracelet and he agrees to go on a date. Later, she tries to hypnotize Wes, but her magic didn't work on him, because he has romantic feelings for Jen. But she hits him with her beam and puts her spell on him too and he agrees to go on a date. When the date begins, she makes the guys fight for her. Only Jen and Katie are left to protect the city. After the fight, Jen scolded Wes, Lucas and Trip and made them promise not seeing her again. But Wes broke his promise and secretly walked on the beach to date her. Lucas and Trip became furious and then started to fight to death for her. When Jen and Katie arrived, the villainess revealed her true form. Contemptra easily defeated Jen and Katie with her tentacles and energy blasts. Pink and Yellow rangers finally destroyed her bracelet and broke her spell, freeing the guys. Contemptra was defeated by a blast from Vortex blaster. Her chain of DNA was removed and she enlarged. In the giant battle Contemptra used her tentacles against the Megazord, but she was eventually defeated and frozen by Shadow Force Megazord.

Contemptra: Surprise!

Jen Scotts: Contemptra!

Contemptra: Its been a while rangers.

Me: I remember you! You seduced Lucas and Trip and made them fight over you!

Jerry Hawkins: Whoa! That is cool!

Contemptra: Thanks Jerry.

Me: But your magic didn't work on Wes because he was immune to it somehow.

Contemptra: You watched us on TV huh?

Me: Never missed an episode on TV or Netflix.

Contemptra just kissed me on the lips.

Contemptra: Now, J.D. Are you starting to love me?

Steam came out of my ears.

Me: Hubba hubba. But if you were human I would make you as one of my wives. I could get used to getting kissed by female villains.

Nico: (Snickering)

Me: But I can still make you human again Contemptra.

I fired a blast of energy and made Angelique a human again and separated Contemptra from her.

Angelique was unconscious and Varie went over to her and brought her to us.

Jen Scotts: Lets do it guys!

Time Force Rangers: TIME FOR TIME FORCE!

Eric Myers: QUANTUM POWER!

The Time Force Rangers and Eric Myers transformed and the Time Force Rangers were ready.

Jerry Hawkins: WHOA! The Time Force Power Rangers!

Me: Yep. They are from the year 3000. Eric Myers is one of the Silver Guardians and he is the Quantum Ranger.

Jerry Hawkins: COOL!

Laney: It sure is awesome.

Me: We have all the ranger teams from over the course of 26+ years with us.

Jerry Hawkins: Whoa! That is awesome! But what about the Beast Morphers?

Me: We haven't met them yet. And the series for Beast Morphers hasn't finished yet.

Jerry Hawkins: Oh.

Me: Watch this.

We formed the Vortex Cannon.

Jerry Hawkins: Cool!

Me: VORTEX CANNON!

Me, Lori, Nico, Laney, Lily and the Time Force Rangers: FIRE!

We fired and the Vortex Cannon and the blast slammed into Contemptra and she exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Contemptra was reduced to an action figure and Notacon removed the growth patch from Contemptra.

Notacon: You have caused enough trouble Contemptra.

Me: Well said Notacon.

I grabbed her and put her in a capsule that Katie got out.

Me: Good riddance to that mutant.

Then we heard clapping and we saw Professor Calamitous.

Me: Professor Calamitous.

Professor Calamitous: Yes it is I. Congratulations are in order for defeating Contemptra.

Me: Thanks.

Jerry Hawkins: Who is he?

Me: That's one of the Masters of Evil. His name is Professor Calamitous. He's the arch nemesis of Lisa Loud and Jimmy Neutron. Before Lisa Loud, he was the number 1 enemy of Jimmy Neutron in Retroville.

Jerry Hawkins: Whoa!

Me: Obviously you aren't here alone right?

Jimmy Neutron: That's right. You couldn't have come here alone, Calamitous, Who else is with you?

Calamitous: (chuckles) Why don't you look at the shadows?

Me: Huh?

We looked at our shadows and they moved and we saw a shape appeared and we saw Ivan Evans A.K.A. EBON!

---

Ebon, real name Ivan Evans, was a juvenile delinquent and gang banger from Dakota. He was affected by the Quantum Vapor, gaining a silhouette appearance and shadow-based powers. Ebon was one of Static's arch-enemies in his years as a young superhero. Desiring control, Ebon continually tried to recruit Bang Babies to join his Metahuman gang, the Meta-Breed.

Ivan Evans spent time in juvenile hall in his teens, and after getting out, he went straight back to his old life. He was a nobody, desperately trying to become big in crime. This led to arguments with his younger brother, Adam, and their father.

As any gang banger in Dakota, Ivan was at the docks at the night of the Big Bang. The gas changed him into a living shadow, and he named himself Ebon to reflect his inner darkness. Now that he had power, he started to build a gang around himself, the Meta-Breed, from which he became the leader. He "collected" those Bang Babies that were so horribly misshapen and deformed by the gas that they could not return to their old lives. His first clash with Static occurred when he tried to recruit track star Derek Barnett into the breed. He tried to get Static to join as well, but was rebuffed, and after Static persuaded Derek (now D-Struct) that being a criminal would only destroy what little chance of a future he had, suffered his first defeat at Static's hands.

Ebon was a bitter opponent of both Static and his brother, who had also been exposed to the gas and was now Rubberband Man. He first tried to frame Rubberband Man, giving him no option but to turn to crime, but was thwarted when Static exposed the scheme. He was also a staunch enemy of all attempts to revert the effects of the Big Bang, and tried to recreate the explosion twice. At first, he used Timezone to travel back to the Dakota riots, a gang bang even larger than the Docks fight, and stole a tanker full of the mutagen to start the Big Bang five years early.

With the cure sprayed into the atmosphere, Ebon lost his powers. Desperate not to be nothing again like he was before the Big Bang and enraged in the abandonment of his oldest ally, Talon, he teamed up with Hotstreak and several other Bang Babies to recreate the Big Bang once more. Unfortunately, the plan backfired, and Hotstreak stole the gas for himself. Ebon pursued him and the two fought, setting off the gas. Ebon and Hotstreak absorbed too much gas, fusing together into an abominable two-headed monster, which possessed both of their powers. They were defeated by Static and Gear, and were later lost at the bottom of the harbor. Their ultimate fate is unknown.

Powers and abilities

Ebon was a self-proclaimed master of shadow and darkness. After being affected by the Big Bang, Ebon became a living shadow, able to flatten against any surface and move silently and speedily wherever he wanted. He could glide along walls, slip under doors and through cracks, create portals to a location of his choosing, and travel from one shadow to another, as well as absorb other people or objects, carrying them with him. He also possessed inter-dimensional powers, allowing him to disappear in one spot and reappear in another, using this power to kidnap his victims. Ebon also had the ability to shape-shift his physical body, capable of shaping himself anyway he wants, much like his brother Rubberband Man, although Adam preferred to use his powers for good unlike Ebon.

Ebon's primary weakness was intense bright light, especially Static's intense electric powers, which could paralyze and temporarily obliterate Ebon's shadow form.

Me: Ebon!?

Ebon: Long time no see J.D.

Me: You got your shadow powers back. I take it Vypra brought you back as Ebon so you can be Lily's arch nemesis?

Ebon: That's right J.D. You did your homework.

Qin: Who is he?

Me: That's Ivan Evans A.K.A. Ebon. He was one of Static Shock's recurring enemies. He was also the leader of the Meta-Breed.

Rubberband Man: And he is also my brother.

Francis: Me, Teresa and Maria used to work for him.

Teresa: That's right. We were exposed to the same gas that gave us our powers. I was Talon and I had the appearance of a bird and sonic powers.

Francis: I was Hotstreak and I had fire powers.

Maria: And I was Aquamaria and I was made of pure water.

Rubberband Man: And I have super elasticity.

Qin: Wow!

Maria: Look, Ebon. If you're planning to get me, Francis, and Teresa to join you again…

Ebon: Actually, I'm not planning on doing that.

Teresa: You're not.

Ebon: (sighs) Believe it or not, I actually am impressed on how the three of you became stronger without me being there. I may have fought alongside you guys in the beginning. But I can see that you've all outgrown me.

Francis: Well, thanks.

Static: If that's the case, then you are you still in Vypra's gang?

Ebon: (chuckles) Because I really liked the good old days when you and I beat each other up!

Me: That's very mature of you Ivan. Now all the Loud Siblings have an Arch Nemesis in the Masters of Evil. Vypra did say that she was doing a special project where she would get each of the remaining Loud Kids an arch nemesis.

Ebon: Indeed.

Me: But there is one thing still unanswered. How did you get your powers back? We destroyed all of the Quantum Vapor gas by throwing it into the sun.

Ebon: Vypra had a barrel of it left and she used it to get my powers back.

Me: I see. Is she gonna bring back the rest of the Meta-Breed like Puff, Kangor and all the others?

Ebon: She will for some of your friends.

Me: I see. We'll see who is perfect for them later.

Then we heard Insane laughter and out came MR. TOGGLE!

Me: You must be Mr. Toggle. Or should I say John Mahoney Keystar?

Mr. Toggle: So you figured me out. I figured you would. Now I will kill you.

Me: You're under arrest Keystar. Now you come with us quietly or we'll kill you.

Mr. Toggle: NEVER!

Me: You're just a really fucked up lunatic!

Troy: Piano Lessons don't kill you, Toggle. But we will!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Secret 5 Force!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Secret Squadron Five Force from 1975.

Me: Lets dance.

Lily: I'll take Ebon.

Me: I'll take Toggle.

The Awesome Voyage of Sinbad

In the living room I was looking up some more information on the corrupt mayor of Springfield, Joe Quimby. With us was Suwailim el-Noor, an Egyptian Arab. He has a roman nose, broad eyebrows, hazel brown eyes, black hair, tan skin, white Daffah thobe, black sandals, same age as Lori, and has powers of Magnet, Wind, Fire, and Scorch Release. What the information on the corrupt mayor revealed was shocking. The first part of Mr. Quimby's lies is when he rose to power as Mayor of Springfield. He used lies to get practically anything he wanted. The second part was all the embezzlement and fraud he did in Springfield. He conned the entire country out of billions of dollars in money. And then the third part was where he hits a bottle of champagne at the ship called the U.S.S. Float and Shoot, as a tiny drop of champagne went into Marge's mouth, which hit the fetus of Bart Simpson and made him into the mischievous troublemaker we all know and love. And there was the part where he did so many unspeakable crimes all over the country and had many extramarital affairs. Also another part was that he bribed the Springfield Mafia with money and conned the country out of billions. He also bribed Chief Wiggum to arrest anyone opposing his law and so much more. Then, there was a time when Quimby sabotaged the educational system inside the Springfield Elementary School. Ruining the education of everyone and turning them into brainless idiots. Then, he had hired the Ukrainian Mafia to hunt down a man named Wayne Slater without anyone noticing, since he's the one who showed the Ukrainian Mafia the footage of Wayne Slater at the Nuclear Power Plant, but instead captured Homer Simpson. As Quimby doesn't care that anyone get's killed or kidnapped by the Ukrainian Mafia. So many crimes he has committed. Also, he bribed Chief Wiggums to arrest anyone immigrating or visiting from Royal Woods, Dimmsdale, etc.

Everyone gasped in shock!

But what's even more shocking is that Quimby is a big time hypocrite by inviting both the Turner parents in their vacation in Springfield. Then, Quimby had rockets built for the nuclear waste by sending them to other planets. Then, Quimby had a man visiting from Royal Woods executed in secret from the public, just to get his money and lollipops.

We gasped in total shock and horror of what he did to that innocent man from Royal Woods before it became Gotham Royal York!

It was horrible and he did it without a single shred of remorse or guilt. Yet, Lori knew who that man was. He was named Christian Landry, a well known babysitter from when Lori was 3 years old before he mysteriously disappeared after traveling to Springfield.

And Quimby was also responsible for hiring Glenn Quagmire to take money from Quahog without anyone noticing.

Me: So Quimby made Quagmire a thief!

Joe Swanson: Good thing we put Quagmire in prison. He's not our friend anymore after what we found out.

Me: There's more.

Quimby hired Bobby Briggs to go into Quahog and shoot Joe Swanson's legs in order to cripple him, and unlike Quagmire, Quimby actually honored and payed Bobby Briggs money.

Joe Swanson: HE MADE BOBBY BRIGGS CRIPPLE ME!?

Leni: My god. That's horrible!

Me: So Quimby was the one who crippled you Joe!

Lincoln: That's awful!

It showed another of Quimby's crimes. He had the daughter of Christian Landry made into a weapon, by giving her to Mr. Burns when she was three years old. Unfortunately, Mr. Burns said she died. Then, it shows that Quimby sabotaged Peter Griffin's job at the toy factory, by placing dangerous and unsafe toys there from the Family Guy Season 1 Episode 1, which resulted in Peter getting fired.

Me: Peter Griffin I could care less about because he got what was coming to him.

Then, it shows that Quimby was also responsible for sabotaging Chris Griffin's education in his first day in school. Then it shows that he's also responsible for poisoning Homer's mother with sleeping medicine, which made her die in her sleep.

We gasped in shock!

Homer: Mayor Quimby killed my mother!?

Homer broke down crying!

Next Quimby started sending false news that Amity Park is the worst town of all of America. Then, Quimby started sending hired thugs to attack Dimmsdale 17 years ago. Then, he celebrates the bankruptcy of Quahog.

Lois Griffin: Oh my god! He drained Quahog of its money!

Me: What a heartless monster! And we destroyed Quahog because of its crime rate and corruption because of Meg Griffin's abuse.

Then, Quimby bribed Denzel Crocker to kidnap a person from Royal Woods who happens to be Girl Jordan's dad.

Girl Jordan gasped in shock!

Me: No wonder we didn't meet your dad G.J.!

Girl Jordan: My own father!

Mayor Quimby and Mr. Burns have injected mutant genes into Girl Jordan's father in a attempt to weaponize him. Unfortunately for them, Girl Jordan's father escaped, but not without a price after becoming a mutant. He went in hiding from Quimby's men, yet doesn't return home to Royal Woods.

Girl Jordan started crying, it's been nine years since she last saw her father.

Girl Jordan: (Crying) My dad!

Varie comforted her.

Me: Now it's really good that we blew up Springfield. Quimby is the worst monster ever!

Nico: No kidding.

Keith Parkinson: I had no idea that Mayor Quimby was that evil!

Olivia Parkinson: He is worse than pure evil!

Timmy Turner: So Quimby is the one that sent those thugs on Dimmsdale.

Danny Phantom: And Quimby spread lies about Amity Park being a terrible town!? How evil is this guy!?

Me: He's the devil in human form. Now everyone is gonna want to know about the kind of monster that Joe Quimby really is.

Lana: He's like Lex Luthor.

Lola: No kidding.

Lila Loud: He makes me sick!

Me: No kidding. And I saw how many wives and affairs he had on T.V. and I call him the King of Assholes and Dicks.

Nico: Good term for him.

Homer was crying hard.

Homer: (Crying) That monster! He ruined my life.

Bart: Dad I'm so sorry. Grandma didn't do anything to deserve this.

Me: But if we ever see Mayor Quimby again, you can kill him. But first we need to reunite you with your mother.

Homer: (Sniffles) You can do that?

Me: I sure can Homer.

Breach: Well, Homer. Ready to get your mother back?

Homer: I sure am.

I snapped my fingers and a figure came out from the shadows in the hallway and we saw that it was Mona Simpson - Homer's mom.

Mona Simpson: Hello Homer.

Homer: Mom!

Lisa and Bart: Grandma!

They hugged.

Homer: I've missed you so much mom!

Mona Simpson: I've missed you too Homer. And you too kids.

Bart Simpson: We missed you too.

Hulk: Hulk glad Simpson Lady is ok.

Me: We all are.

Mona Simpson: Where's Marge?

Kickback: You're gonna have to sit down for this one.

Me: It's very complicated but we found out some terrible things about Springfield and they are not pretty.

We revealed everything and Mona was shocked!

Mona Simpson: So Marge was in on the corruption of Springfield and Mayor Quimby was behind it all!?

Me: Yeah. He destroyed so many lives. Not just in Springfield, but all over the country. And we blew up Springfield for its crimes. Marge was only collateral damage to Mayor Quimby's plans.

Mona Simpson: Oh Homer.

Homer: It's all right mom. You're not gonna run away again are you?

Me: No she isn't Homer. We revealed everything about what happened when Mr. Burns was doing Biological Warfare during that time and the President gave Mona Simpson a pardon for her crimes. She did the right thing albeit being extreme. So the President wanted me to give you this Mona.

I handed her the Presidential Medal of Freedom for her deeds.

Me: You are a true hero to the country.

Mona Simpson: Thank you so much J.D.

Me: You're welcome.

Cliffjumper: We actually have Burns as one of our archenemies.

Me: And we have 15 more people of Springfield as archenemies too. We call them the Springfield Scumbag 16.

I went over what they are.

Mona Simpson: Whoa.

Me: Yeah.

Homer and his mom had so much to catch up on.

---

Later I was meditating and Homer and Mona were in the kitchen making one of Mona's delicious apple pies from one of her recipe cards.

They were making a really good pie.

Homer: I missed this so much and I missed doing this with you mom.

Mona Simpson: Me too son.

Qin: That looks like a really good pie.

Homer: Moms pies are heaven on Earth.

Nico: Boy I can see that.

May: Wow.

Nico: J.D. and Xenia found your recipes, clothes and car all thrown down a cliff and brought them back here for Homer.

Lana: I fixed the car and Leni mended the clothes.

May: Yep.

Mona Simpson: Wow. I'm so happy.

Nico: What Abraham Simpson did makes him a scumbag too.

Mona Simpson: I agree Nico.

Homer: (Laughs) That is true.

Suwailim: (Egyptian Accent) It's awful that Abraham would do that to you and Mona, Homer.

Nico: Yeah. And I'm glad that Homer has his mom back. He now has a family again.

Suwailim: Indeed he does.

Under the Willow Tree, I was meditating.

Me: Oooooooommm…

Nerri: I'm so happy for Homer.

Me: Me too Nerri.

I was focused in meditating. I was really keeping myself in check.

After 1 hour I was done.

Me: All done.

I then smelled the Apple Pie that Mona made.

Me: (Sniffs) Oh boy I smell apple pie.

Nerri: It smells really good.

Me: It sure does.

I went back into the house.

Me: Hey guys. That pie smells awesome.

Nico: It has to cool for a while.

Lynn Sr.: But boy does it smell awesome.

Fiona: I'll say. I haven't had Apple Pie in a long time.

Me: I can tell. How does it feel having the powers of the Twin Lightning Goddesses Astrape and Bronte?

Fiona: It feels amazing. But like you said J.D., "With Great Power Comes Great Responsibility."

Me: That's right Fiona.

* * *

Later we were having movie night. We were watching the 2003 movie Sinbad: Legend of The Seven Seas. One of Nicole's favorite awesome adventure movies.

* * *

Sinbad and his pirate crew attempt to steal the magical "Book of Peace" and hold it for ransom as one last job before retiring to Fiji. Sinbad is surprised to see it is being protected while on board to Syracuse, Sicily by Prince Proteus of Syracuse. Proteus was once Sinbad's best friend as a child and he tells him if it ever meant anything he can prove it. Sinbad tries to steal the book anyway, but is prevented when Cetus attacks the ship. The two work together to fight off Cetus and for a moment reaffirm their bond. Just when it seems the beast is defeated, Sinbad is dragged off the ship. Proteus goes to save Sinbad, but he is stopped by his crew.

Drawn underwater by Cetus, Sinbad is saved by the beautiful Goddess of Discord, Eris, who offers him any boon he desires in exchange for the Book of Peace. Sinbad and his crew go to Syracuse to steal the Book, but leave without doing so. Anticipating this, Eris impersonates Sinbad and steals the Book. Sinbad is sentenced to death, whereupon Proteus sends Sinbad to retrieve the Book instead, placing himself as a hostage, and Proteus' fiancée Lady Marina goes to make sure that Sinbad succeeds. To prevent them from succeeding, Eris sends a group of mythical sirens, who entrance and seduce the men aboard Sinbad's ship with their hypnotic singing voices, but do not affect Marina, who pilots the ship to safety. Eris later sends a Roc which captures Marina. Sinbad tries to rescue her, but hampers Marina's escape. They are able to flee the Roc by change, sliding down the snowy mountain in which they found themselves.

After these and other incidents, Sinbad and Marina talk in a brief moment of peace - Marina reveals that she's always dreamed of a life on the sea, and Sinbad reveals that he distanced himself from Proteus 10 years earlier because he loved Marina. They suddenly then reach and enter Eris' realm where she reveals that her plan was to maneuver Proteus into Sinbad's place, leaving Syracuse without an heir, and agrees to surrender the Book of Peace only if Sinbad truthfully tells whether he will return to Syracuse to accept blame and be executed if he does not get the Book. She gives him her word that she will honour the deal, making it unbreakable even for a god. When he answers that he will return, Eris calls him a liar, and returns him and Marina to the mortal world. Ashamed, Sinbad admits that Eris is right, truly believing deep down that he is a selfish, black-hearted liar. Marina pleads for Sinbad to leave, admitting her feelings for him.

In Syracuse, the time allotted to Sinbad has elapsed. Proteus readies himself to be beheaded, but at the last minute, Sinbad appears and takes his place. An enraged Eris appears suddenly and saves Sinbad by shattering the executioner's sword to pieces.

Sinbad, shocked, realizes that this was still part of her test and that he has beaten her by proving his answer to be true after all. Eris is furious but cannot go back on her word and gives the book to Sinbad. Eris then leaves to cause chaos elsewhere. With the true culprit revealed, Sinbad is pardoned for the crime of stealing the book and is now well-respected.

With the Book restored to Syracuse, Sinbad and his crew prepare to leave on another voyage, leaving Marina in Syracuse. Unbeknownst to him, Proteus sees that Marina has fallen deeply in love with Sinbad and life on the sea and releases her from their engagement, sending her to join Sinbad's ship. Marina surprises Sinbad by revealing her presence on the ship just as it begins to sail, and the two share a kiss. Now together, they and the crew set out on another long voyage as the ship sails into the sunset.

We were appalled that Eris, Goddess of Chaos could do such evil to Sinbad and all that. When the movie was done, we cheered wildly.

Me: That was awesome!

Nicole: It sure was. Sinbad has always been one of my favorite adventure movies. Its so awesome that Sinbad can do all that.

Me: It sure is.

Lincoln: It's so amazing that Sinbad got the book back and became a hero for it.

Nico: It sure is. I love how they stopped Eris like that.

Me: I know. And they don't call her the Goddess of Discord and Chaos for nothing. She is the ultimate personification of Malevolence and Deviance in its entirety.

I pulled up Eris's history.

---

Eris is the main antagonist in DreamWorks' 7th full-length animated feature film Sinbad: Legend of the Seven Seas.

She was voiced by Michelle Pfeiffer, who also played Catwoman in Batman Returns, Velma Von Tussle in Hairspray, Lamia in Stardust, and Queen Ingrith in Maleficent: Mistress of Evil.

Eris is the archaic Greek goddess of chaos, and as such, she tries her best to make the world chaotic. She controls a savage army of huge monsters, including Cetus, Scorpio, Musca, Leo, Lacerta, and the Roc. Since she is a goddess, Eris has almost omnipotent-level powers (though by no means without limits).

Eris is first seen watching Prince Proteus sailing towards Syracuse with the Book of Peace aboard his ship, with the thief Sinbad, who has seen her image on the walls of her temples before during his travels, in hot pursuit.

Finding the chase fun for her purpose in glorious chaos, she sends Cetus to attack the ship, so that she can acquire the Book. However, Proteus and Sinbad work together to defeat the beast. However, Cetus drags Sinbad into the depths of the sea where he meets Eris, who quietly breathes a huge underwater bubble to allow him to breathe. Eris promises to give Sinbad anything he wants in exchange for stealing the Book of Peace for her, which he agrees to.

Sinbad and his crew travel to Syracuse to take the Book but he discards the idea after meeting Proteus' fiancée, Marina. However, Eris later disguises herself as Sinbad and knocks out and kill a guard before stealing the book herself. Syracuse is immediately plunges into darkness and Sinbad is arrested. When he states that he does not have the Book, he is sentenced to death until Proteus interferes, having believed Sinbad's earlier claim of Eris framing him. Sinbad is sent to steal the Book back from her and return it to Syracuse in ten days' time, or else Proteus will be executed in Sinbad's place.

Though initially reluctant, Sinbad agrees to confront Eris after Marina sneaks on board his ship and convinces him to save his friend. Meanwhile, Eris watches over him and sends many minions to intercept him, such as sirens and the Roc, but Sinbad manages to evade these threats with Marina's aid. Eventually, Sinbad and Marina enter Eris' realm of chaos where Eris reveals her plan to them. She had known that Proteus would take Sinbad's place and that Sinbad, being a selfish thief, would sail away to paradise once he was free and leave his friend to die; this would then leave Syracuse without the next rightful king and gradually crumble into chaos. Eris hadn't counted on Marina convincing Sinbad to actually confront her, but she again plays on his supposedly manipulative and selfish nature by asking him a question and promising to give him the Book of Peace if he answers it truthfully. The question is whether Sinbad would actually go back to Syracuse to die instead of Proteus if he did not obtain the Book, to which he says yes. Sensing he is lying, Eris sends Sinbad and Marina out of her realm with an evil laugh, keeping the Book of Peace for herself.

Knowing that he tried his best, Sinbad has a change of heart and decides to sail back to Syracuse to be executed. As the sword is about to fall, it shatters into hundreds of fragments and an enlarged and livid Eris appears before him. Sinbad realizes that he has now told the truth, and thus he has fulfilled his side of the deal with Eris. At first, Eris is about to retaliate in anger, but she eventually hands over the Book of Peace over to him as promised. Despite having been outwitted by a mere human thief, Eris quickly shrugs off her anger and tells Sinbad that she is off to create more chaos elsewhere, bidding farewell before vanishing in a puff of purple smoke.

We gasped in shock!

Nico: Whoa! She's like how Loki was before we took away his powers.

Naruto: No kidding.

Me: But Eris is pure evil in its entirety. All reason for us to kill her. Wait. Billy, Mandy, you face Eris a lot on a daily basis right?

Mandy (GAOBAM): Yes we do. But she is a more funnier and comical version of the Eris we're about to face.

Me: Ah. That's a big difference. Well we're gonna make that witch pay for ruining Sinbad's reputation.

Nico: Agreed.

?: Let me come and help you all.

We turned and we saw the famous Captain Falcon of the Video Game Series F-Zero from 1990!

Me: Wow! Captain Falcon!

Nico: Wow!

Nicole: Captain Falcon! Wow!

Captain Falcon: It's a true honor to meet all of you. Master Hand has told me so much about you all.

Samus: It's great to see you again Captain.

Kirby: How have you been?

Captain Falcon: Been doing really well.

Donkey Kong: Glad you came Cap.

Diddy Kong: It's gonna be awesome having you help us.

Inkling: It sure is.

Lincoln: It's an honor to meet you Captain.

Captain Falcon: Same to you Lincoln. We heard so many awesome things about you in the Super Smash Bros. world. You are an amazing force.

Lincoln: That still has me reeling after we found out about it.

Me: We still can't get over the shock that gave us when we found out about it from that trailer for it.

Lori: It was literally a major surprise for us.

Laney: No kidding.

Me: I take it you heard about what happened to Bowser.

Captain Falcon: I sure did. We all were very sad over his loss during the battle with Thanos.

Me: That was a very devastating battle.

Captain Falcon: It's funny. During the Super Smash Bros tournaments that me and Bowser were in together, I always knew him as a villain. And now, I know that with his sacrifice, he's become one of the universe's greatest heroes.

Maria: Ridley's dead as well.

Me: Same with Dark Samus.

Captain Falcon: Really? Well, I'm not crying about their death. Especially after how Ridley tried to destroy my Falcon Flyer during the Subspace Emissary incident.

Me: I remember that. That was awful.

Captain Falcon: Yeah.

Me: But it's an honor to have you help us Captain.

Captain Falcon: Thank you J.D.

Me: Lets head to the simulator and get ready. We're gonna take the T.L.P.S. Phoenix Maelstrom, The Megaforce Rangers Skyship and Sora's ship the Leviathan..

Troy Burrows: Awesome!

Sora: This is gonna be awesome!

We did so.

* * *

We got onto the ships and we were ready. A portal opened up and we went into it and we found ourselves in the Adriatic Sea in the year 802 AD.

Me: Here we are guys. Adriatic Sea, 802 A.D.

Nico: Wow! We're in the past over 1200 years ago.

Me: Yep.

We were sailing and we saw Sinbad's ship the Chimera.

Laney: Captain, Sinbad's ship, the Chimera off the Starboard Bow!

Me: I see it.

We got up alongside it.

Me: Ahoy there!

Sinbad: Team Loud Phoenix Storm! It's an honor to meet all of you.

Me: Same to you Sinbad. Captain J.D. Knudson. Pleasure to meet you.

Sinbad: Same to you.

Sinbad came aboard and we were introduced to Marina, Kale, Leo, Rat, and Prince Proteus.

Me: It's an honor to meet you all.

Kale: Same to all of you. We're on a quest to get the Book of Peace back.

Sinbad: It was stolen by Eris.

Me: The Goddess of Discord and Chaos.

Sinbad: Yes. It's gonna take a while to reach Eris' lair. So, you guys can rest in the meantime.

Me: Don't worry, we have all the time in the world.

We got to sailing on our journey. We were sailing over the sea and it was beautiful.

Maria: Sinbad, can you tell us what the Book of Peace is?

Sinbad: It's the Book that balances peace and order.

Me: So that's what the Book of Peace is.

Sinbad: Yes.

Nico: We have to bring that book back at all costs.

Vince: And we will.

Verbina: We have to. It's a big part of this worlds history.

Aster: That's right.

Lincoln: And we have to kill Eris.

Sinbad: But you can't kill a god.

Varie: Actually believe it or not, we can kill a god.

Marina: How can you do that?

Me: My blood is the key. It's a powerful superpoison that can kill the mightiest of immortal beings.

Sinbad: Wow!

Laney: It's true. We saw it in action.

Verbina: J.D. and everyone are true heroes. They have saved many people from evil forces all over the universe and it's incredible.

Marina: Amazing! That is a big achievement.

Me: We don't like to brag. But it's all true.

Axel Adell: (Swedish Accent) It sure is.

Nataša: (Czech Accent) It is. It's amazing that they have done so much.

Me: We don't like to brag. But then we saw a purple light appear and we saw the lair of ERIS!

Me: Lair of Eris at 5:00.

We were heading on and we arrived at the lair.

Me: Here we are guys.

Sinbad: This is gonna be fun.

Sly Cooper: Indeed it is.

We went into the lair and it was a dark and really foreboding place. It was like something out of a horror flick.

Me: Scary place.

Varie: Yeah.

Aylene C.: No kidding.

Marina: I'm not scared.

We arrived at the throne room doors.

Me: This is it.

* * *

In the throne room, Eris was watching the world.

Eris: So Sinbad is here.

Then a massive fiery explosion blasted through the doors and a Phoenix Cry was heard and we jumped through and entered and we were standing before ERIS - GODDESS OF DISCORD AND CHAOS.

Me: Eris, Goddess of Chaos and Discord. So we meet at last.

Eris: Ah the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm. It's an honor to meet you all and Sinbad, I see that you have accompanied them.

Sinbad: It's over Eris.

Nico: Your reign of evil ends now!

Vince: You will pay for your crimes.

Eris: Fine. I admit it. I did turn into Sinbad and frame him for taking the Book of Peace.

William: Well, that was easy. But why are you telling us this?

Zs'Skayr: Because you all aren't going to be leaving here alive to tell anyone!

Me: Oh great.

We saw Zs'Skayr and Lord Drakkon come out.

Me: Lord Drakkon. You're looking good.

Lord Drakkon: So I see. Also I believe you know my friend here.

We saw a figure come out and it was WHIRLIN from episode 4 of Lightspeed Rescue!

---

As an idea given to him by Vypra, Diabolico had Jinxer create a tornado-themed monster named Whirlin. Whirlin first attacked Mariner Bay in a form of a tornado, then disappeared to let Diabolico introduce himself to Carter, Chad, Joel, Kelsey and Dana, the Rangers, and later appeared to attack the city again after Diabolico's introduction. Carter managed to scan the tornado and blasted Whirlin with his Rescue Blaster, forcing him to transform back to his original form and summon an army of Batlings. As the other Rangers fought the Batlings, Carter fought Whirling, but was outmatched. The other Rangers came in, but they too got blasted by Whirlin's Mouth Fire Burst Balls. The Rangers used their Rescue Blasters, forcing Whirlin to retreat. He then attacked a space shuttle which Kelsey's friend Nancy was piloting, but was destroyed inside of his tornado by the Lightspeed Rangers' with the Unilaser after they rescued Nancy and the shuttle. Jinxer used his cards to enlarge Whirlin so he can attack Mariner Bay, forcing the Rangers to form the Lightspeed Megazord to take on Whirlin. He attempted to use his Wind Spin ability on the Megazord, but that did very little harm on it. The Megazord then used its Lightspeed Ladder Arms Power Punch to attack the monster before throwing him with great force. Even then Whirlin was not down yet. So the Lightspeed Rangers then used the Lightspeed Megazord's Sabre to destroy Whirlin once and for all.

---

Kelsey Winslow: Whirlin!

Whirlin: Long time no see Rangers.

Dana Mitchell: But we destroyed you!

Whirlin: You did but I'm back.

Me: I remember you and I know you all too well! You created a powerful tornado that damaged the shuttle Kelsey's friend Nancy was piloting and the rangers used the Rescue Zords to save her as she was trying to land.

Whirlin: That's right. You all watched us on TV huh?

Me: Never missed an episode. But that was a really genius plan that Kelsey came up with.

Kelsey Winslow: Thanks J.D.

Whirlin: It was a genius plan yes.

Lord Drakkon: Whirlin, you know what to do. Blow Team Loud Phoenix Storm away!

Whirlin: Yes, Lord Drakkon!

Me: First you served Queen Bansheera and now Lord Drakkon.

Quite a twist huh?

Whirlin: Indeed.

Troy Burrows: Time to get the Book of Peace back!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Mighty Morphin!

Carter Grayson: Lets back them up guys!

Lord Drakkon: Quimby did all this!?

Me: He sure did. No doubt about it.

Lord Drakkon: I appreciate you telling me all this. I will let Vypra know.

Back home we were having some pie and it was really tasty and delicious!

THE END

Another fanfiction complete and another awesome adventure in the books.

Sinbad: Legend of The Seven Seas from 2003 was one awesome movie! NicoChan11 and ArchangelOfJustice12 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is the 2nd Secret Saturdays chapter and we're going to find the Legendary bird of storms - The Thunderbird! And we're going to kill the ugly insane Italian Chef Piecemeal.

See you all tomorrow.

Storm of The Thunderbird

(THUNDERCLAP!)

At the Masters of Evil headquarters in an unknown Location, things were getting tense. After Vypra was told everything about the treachery of Mayor Quimby, she ordered for him to be handed over to us on Team Loud Phoenix Storm. Lord Drakkon was knocking on his room door.

Drakkon: (knocks on Quimby's door) Quimby! I know you're in there! Come out quietly and- (opens the door to find the room empty) Well, fuck!

(THUNDERCLAP!)

Mayor Quimby knew that we were onto him and he fled.

Vypra: Quimby's gone?

Drakkon: His room's been cleared out. And I think he took one of the Dark Orbs that we have.

Vypra: (growls) That fucking turncoat! He knew J.D. gave you that info so he ran. (to Shiv, Firefly, and Leonard) Firefly, take Shiv and Leonard and find Quimby.

Firefly: Right!

Vypra: (to the rest of the Springfield Scumbags) As for the rest of you, you better not have any plans of betraying me!

They shook in fear and wet their pants.

Vypra: Good.

(THUNDERCLAP!)

Later with us we were over in the mountains of Croatia and we were looking for the legendary Pokemon Zekrom and Reshiram - the Vast

White and the Deep Black Pokemon. We were told that the two legendary Pokemon were spotted in Croatia.

Sideshow Bob: Are you sure Zekrom and Reshiram were spotted here?

Me: This is where they said they were spotted.

With us was more of Hunter's friends and they were from the awesome Cherokee Indians of Wyoming. They were Leyati and Woya of the Cherokee tribe in Wyoming. They are Native American traditionalists. Both Woya and Leyati looked identical, roman noses, heart shaped faces, each have raven black hair, while Leyati has a long hair, and Woya has a ponytail, they each have Soft, Rounded Arch, and are wearing Wraparound Skirts and Poncho style blouses, Moccasins for their feet, and each have bird feathers in their Native American Headband, while Leyati has a red tip on her feather, and Woya has a blue tip on her feather. While Woya has green eyes and Leyati has blue eyes.

Laney: It's an honor to have you both with us Leyati and you too Woya.

Woya: Thank you Laney. We are honored to be with you all.

Leyati: We heard so many wonderful things about all of you from Hunter.

Laney: It's so amazing learning all about the Native American Indians of our country. They are so fascinating to learn from.

Me: They sure are. When I lived in Colorado, I used to study a lot about the Navajo, Pueblo, Comanche, Apache and the Cherokee Indians.

Lana: That is so cool!

Lola: Indians are so amazing!

Me: They sure are. Ben from what I remember, your friend Kai Green is from the Navajo right?

Ben: That's right. We met when we were facing the Loboan that was attacking her land and stealing satellite equipment.

Stella (Loud House): Wow! That is amazing! I like learning so much about Indians too. I am actually descended from the Chilula Tribe in California.

Me: Wow! They are from Northwestern California near Redwood Creek.

Stella (Loud House): Yep.

Clyde: That's really cool Stella.

Syd Chang: I think Indians are so amazing and they have amazing symbols that look like really awesome animals.

Isabelle: Its been part of their culture for centuries. Animal symbols have very powerful spiritual meanings in their culture and tradition.

Leyati: That's right. Our people are very knowledgeable in knowing about the powers of each animal in the land.

Woya: Its a very strong part of our people.

Me: That is amazing.

Riley: It's just really freaky that he was mistaken for the legendary Yenaldooshi from Navajo Legend.

Nico: No kidding.

Shanan: Loboans do have those kinds of characteristics.

Me: They sure do.

Suddenly we heard a roar and out of a storm cloud we saw the legendary Pokemon RESHIRAM & ZEKROM!

Me: Wow! Zekrom and Reshiram.

Nico: So amazing!

Lincoln: They are incredible.

Zekrom: It's an honor to meet you all Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Reshiram: We heard so many wonderful and amazing things about you all.

Swamp Thing: It is an honor to meet you and Reshiram, Zekrom.

Zekrom: Same to you Swamp Thing, Guardian of all Life.

Scrapper: I bet you two know about Team Plasma being back.

Reshiram: We do know about that.

Zekrom: But we will gladly help you all destroy them. No one is gonna separate humans and Pokemon on our watch.

Me: I couldn't agree more. Team Plasma is gonna pay for that.

Bluestreak: N was the one who said you two could help us.

Me: The former leader of Team Plasma is now part of our team and is helping us get ready to take them down.

Nico: Yep. We won't let Team Plasma divide our world.

Vince: That's right!

We had the awesome power of the Light and Dark Pokemon - Zekrom and Reshiram with us now.

---

Later we were with the Secret Saturday's and we were on a mission to find the legendary Thunderbird. The Thunderbird of Algonquin Mythology is one of the most prominent creatures of legend. It is said to be the powerful guardian of the upper underworld and its wings crack out thunder and lightning is the flash in its eyes. We were flying in the special flying fortress of the Secret Saturdays.

Me: This is gonna be awesome! I've heard so many legends and stories about the Thunderbird.

Laney: I know. The Thunderbird is said to be the legendary guardian of the upper underworld in Algonquin Myth and it is said to be the living embodiment of all thunderstorms.

Laney was reading a book on The Thunderbird.

Drew: The Thunderbird is an amazing creature guys. It's one of the most elusive and most difficult Cryptids to find.

Doc Saturday: That's right.

Zak: While we're on our way to the Thunderbird, let me tell you all about my powers.

Me: Okay.

Zak told us that he has amazing powers. He has the awesome ability to control Cryptids and that was really awesome! He also had Above average strength, Speed and reflexes, Increased intelligence, Energy blasts and Longevity.

Me: Wow! That is amazing!

Zak: It sure is. It's how I became friends with Komodo, Fisk and Zon.

Me: That is amazing Zak. You are really gifted.

Zak: Thanks.

We landed in Monument Valley in Utah and we saw a storm coming over us.

Me: Monument Valley, Utah.

Nico: Yep. Beautiful place. Used in a lot of western movies.

Vince: It's beautiful.

We saw a storm.

Me: There's a storm.

Suddenly we heard what sounded like an Eagle screech.

Me: Whoa! Hear that?

Nico: Yep.

We then saw in the storm that was crackling with thunder and lightning, a huge Eagle made of storm clouds. It had thunder crackling out of its wings as it flapped them and lightning was flashing in its eyes. It was THE THUNDERBIRD!

Me: WHOA! There it is!

Maria: That's the Thunderbird?!

Nico: Amazing!

Lana: Unbelievable!

Lily: It's a magnificent bird!

Syd Chang: This is so cool!

Stella (Loud House): What an amazing creature! It's amazing!

Laney took a photo of it.

Lori: What a magnificent sight.

Carol: This has to be the coolest creature in all of cryptozoology.

Zak: It sure is Carol. The Thunderbird is an amazing creature of Native American legend.

Leyati: Indeed it is.

Woya: It sure is.

Me: And there were said to be many sightings of the legendary Thunderbird dating back to 1850.

Nico: Yep.

Number 7: And it is a most interesting creature indeed.

We saw Number 7 and Waffle Woman appear.

Me: Number 7 and Waffle Woman. I take it Vypra got all the info I gave her on Mayor Quimby?

Number 7: She did and she is really pissed off about it.

?: It was thanks to her that I was brought back.

Me, Shanan, Tara and Robin and all of the Teen Titans recognized that voice!

Me: Uh oh. I haven't heard that voice in ages.

Out came SLADE WILSON A.K.A. DEATHSTROKE back from the dead!

---

Slade Joseph Wilson, known simply by his first name Slade, is the overall main antagonist of the 2003 animated action series Teen Titans. He is a ruthless criminal mastermind bent on taking over Jump City and destroying the Teen Titans. He is the series/Earth-Teen Titans' version of Deathstroke the Terminator.

He serves as the main antagonist of Seasons 1 and 2, a posthumous antagonist in Season 3, the secondary antagonist of Season 4 and the final antagonist of Season 5.

He was voiced by Ron Perlman, who also voiced the character in Justice League: The Flashpoint Paradox, Xibalba in The Book of Life, the High Mage in the 2003 Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles cartoon series, the Lich in Adventure Time, Kago in Disney's Tarzan II, Warhok in Kim Possible, the Stabbington Brothers in Tangled, Fire Lord Sozin in Avatar: The Last Airbender, and Clayface in Batman: The Animated Series.

Teen Titans

For reasons not clearly stated, Slade had a personal interest in destroying the Teen Titans. Throughout season one, Slade sent minions and agents to fight the Titans. He was also interested in their powers, abilities and weaknesses by how he would continuously watch videos of the Titans in action. In season one, Slade wanted Robin to be his apprentice, but promised to spare the other Titans if Robin never made any contact with them and followed all of his orders. However, when the Titans tried to save Robin, he nearly killed them with the nano-bot technology in their bodies. In season two, Slade was completely interested in annihilating the Teen Titans with his new apprentice, Terra. However, when she failed to do so, Slade took his rage out on Terra. In season four, Slade did not show any interest in destroying the Teen Titans, but was concerned with carrying out Trigon's plans.

Robin

Slade considered Robin his rival as the leader of the Teen Titans. Slade was impressed by Robin's abilities, powers, and personality, and wanted him to be his apprentice. Slade admits that he tried to get Robin's attention by leaving clues and messages for him to investigate. From time to time, Slade would tell Robin that they were similar to which Robin would angrily deny. When Slade got Robin to be his apprentice, he liked his progress and thought that if he kept him as an apprentice long enough, he would become stronger. When Slade's plans for Robin as his apprentice failed, Slade brought his attention to Terra. Despite his changes, Slade still kept an eye on Robin. After his revival in season four, Slade took interest in Raven, but when his relationship with Trigon deteriorated, he looked to Robin for his assistance in helping him regain his flesh.

Robin hated Slade and saw him as a major enemy. Robin would take it upon himself to go after Slade, which would often lead him to do dubious things such as acting like his alter-ego, Red X, or lash out at his teammates. As an apprentice to Slade, Robin hated being coerced into being his pawn and would take his opportunities to oppose and fight Slade whenever he can. In season four, Robin wanted to know about Slade's revival and powers, which the latter often withheld from telling. After their brief partnership, Robin told Slade that their momentary allegiance meant nothing and that if they met again, Robin would try to stop him.

In the episode "Haunted", Robin was obsessed with Slade and when an agent laced in dust made Robin perceive Slade, Robin tried to fight him as much as possible. Unbeknownst to Robin, the more he tried to fight Slade, the more violent and hostile Slade acted towards him. Much like how Slade was, the perception of Slade in Robin's mind often taunted Robin and mocked him.

Raven

In earlier seasons, Slade wanted Raven, along with the rest of the Titans, to be destroyed and used measures at his disposal to try and kill her. However, in season four, Slade was revived by Trigon and given powers that rival those of Raven. Slade took a unique interest in Raven, since he found out from Raven's father, Trigon, that she was the portal for the demon's arrival on Earth. In the episode "Birthmark", Slade took pleasure in trying to tell Raven about her destiny, despite knowing how much she wanted to run away from it due to her fears. In this episode, his persistent attempts at trying to tell Raven Trigon's message resulted in psychologically breaking Raven, which Slade enjoyed. Throughout the season, Slade would try to prey on Raven's weaknesses and fears, by telling her about her destiny of allowing Trigon to appear on Earth to destroy it. He would even take this further by trying to make Raven feel bad for not telling her friends about her destiny and bringing them into her personal problems. Slade cared little about the psychological abuse he put her through and only saw her as a means to finally reclaiming his flesh for completing Trigon's deal.

Raven was afraid of Slade and tried to escape from him. Raven did not want to listen to Slade and tried to ignore him as much as she can. In "Prophecy", Raven confronted Slade and fought him, admitting that she was no longer afraid of him. When Slade told her about the completion of the plan in "The End", Raven called him a fool for making a deal with Trigon. However, as a child who was stripped of her powers and memories by Trigon, she did express concern for Slade when Trigon attacked him. Overall, Raven, like the other Titans, detests Slade.

Beast Boy

Slade wanted to destroy Beast Boy along with the other Titans for his personal reasons. In Season two, Slade and Beast Boy's relationship becomes personal when Beast Boy found out that Terra (the girl Beast Boy adored) was working for Slade. When Beast Boy wanted to know why she betrayed the Titans, Slade told him that he could not help her have control over her destructive powers. This resulted in a heated fight between the two. In "Things Change", Slade's android and Beast Boy fought in the same mirror room after Slade told him coldly that Terra did not want to remember Beast Boy and the Titans. Like the rest of the Titans, Beast Boy hated Slade for the amount of suffering he caused and despite Slade's attempts at telling Beast Boy the possibility that she doesn't want to remember the Titans, it resulted in a fight.

Terra

After Robin's apprenticeship failed, Slade took interest in recruiting Terra instead. Spending time watching her, Slade saw an opportunity in helping her control her destructive powers. At first, she resisted his offer, but when Beast Boy told the Titans about her lack of control, she left the team. When she returned to the Titans, she was conflicted about betraying them but went through with it anyways. Unlike Robin, Terra was more obedient to Slade. After fighting and defeating the Titans, Slade was impressed by her and said that they both can rule over the city together. However, when Terra disobeyed Slade's command in fighting off the Titans, he viciously beat her. After the beatings and the abuse, Terra tried to leave, but because the suit Slade gave her was hooked up to her nervous system, Slade instead used her, knowing that she did not have too much self-control.

Slade knew that Terra's lack of control and self-control was a weakness he could prey on. He took advantage of this weakness to try and find a more obedient apprentice. However, when Terra realized Slade did not care about her, she eventually regained control of herself and saved the Titans from him at the cost of her life.

Trigon

After Slade's death, Trigon allowed him to work for him under the condition that Trigon's deal of making Raven submit to him and become the portal is fulfilled. If this deal is fulfilled, Slade would reclaim his flesh and blood and live again. Throughout season four, Slade acted as Trigon's messenger and would often tell Raven about her destiny. Slade upheld his part of the deal, but when Trigon convinced Raven to submit into becoming the portal, he no longer acknowledges Slade's efforts, telling him that he will not have his life back. Frustrated at Trigon's betrayal, Slade opted to join the Titans in a temporary alliance and decides to get vengeance against Trigon by fighting him.

Cinderblock

Cinderblock is probably Slade's loyal minion. Slade sent Cinderblock to free Plasmus. He later sent him, Plasmus, and Overload to weaken the Teen Titans and to merge them together to form Ternion.

Plasmus

Slade freed him from prison to destroy the Teen Titans after Cyborg left them. He later recruited him with Overload and Cinderblock to weaken the Titans and then merge them together to form Ternion.

Overload

Slade sent Terra to free Overload along with Plasmus and Cinderblock to weaken the Teen Titans. He then merged them together to form Ternion.

Ternion

Slade's creation of Plasmus, Overload, and Cinderblock. He used it to fight the Teen Titans when Terra could not fight them any longer.

Gizmo, Mammoth and Jinx

Slade recruited Gizmo, Mammoth, and Jinx to destroy the Teen Titans. However, in the end, he turned on them after they failed him.

Thunder and Lightning

Slade (disguised as an old man with fire powers) used Thunder and Lightning to cause mayhem in Jump City. He encouraged their chaotic behavior and used them to create a fire creature that can destroy the city. Much like other people Slade has interacted with, he used them (especially to catch Robin's attention).

Powers and Abilities

Slade has no superhuman powers, but is still extremely dangerous. He is a ruthless martial artist of the highest caliber and knows a wide range of martial art forms; combined with his heightened speed, strength, reflexes and agility, he is even able to put all five Titans united in combat to shame. He seems to possess some knowledge of ceremonial magic (as seen in the episode Forces of Nature) which could possibly imply that he was working with/for Trigon all along, or he merely has extensive knowledge of the occult. He appears to have access to extremely advanced technology and various secret hideouts, nearly unlimited resources, and a vast army of robot minions. However, his most dangerous attribute is his genius-level intelligence; rather than get his own hands dirty, Slade is adept at laying traps, utilizing high level technology, orchestrating numerous schemes and attacks, and even manipulating others to do his bidding. He is a master of manipulation and psychology, allowing him to get his foes to do almost anything he wants through threats, bribes, or simple fear. Like Robin and his mentor Batman, Slade also uses many gadgets during his fights, including explosives. He was said to have a healing factor.

Following his demise and resurrection as Trigon's herald, he commands a wide range of psychokinetic abilities used to rival those of Raven, particularly his pyromancing (i.e., fire-controlling powers). When serving as Trigon's agent, he is empowered with vast pyrokinetic abilities, superhuman strength and durability, flight, regeneration, phasing, electricity generation, teleportation, and other supernatural powers making him far stronger than the Teen Titans (except for Raven). Moreover, as he was only a skeleton without a body at the time, he was able to sustain heavy damage and was near immortal.

Biography

Slade plays a main role as one of the biggest villains in the animated series. His first appearance is "Divide And Conquer" and/or "Final Exam" where he first appears as a silhouetted figure hidden in shadow. In "Divide And Conquer", Slade sends Cinderblock to free Plasmus from jail, as well as other criminals. After Cinderblock and Plasmus were defeated and sent back to jail, Slade then hired Gizmo, Jinx, and Mammoth to defeat the Teen Titans, who were then defeated.

In "Forces of Nature", Slade disguised himself as an old man and convinced Thunder and Lightning to work for him until the two brothers realized that their "fun" was harmful and wrong (thanks to Beast Boy teaching them a lesson). Robin fought the disguised Slade while the other Titans took out the flame monster. After Robin kicked Slade's face, his real face was revealed. Slade then vanished into thin air.

In the episode "Masks", Robin searches obsessively for Slade's identity, going so far as to create a new villain persona known as "Red X" to propose a partnership with Slade. Slade, however, was aware that Robin was Red X all along and the two do battle, with Slade escaping yet again.

In the episodes "Apprentice: Parts 1 and 2", he tricks and forces Robin into being his apprentice. When Robin refuses to work for him, Slade threatens to destroy Robin's friends with nanobots of his own design hidden within their bodies. Robin defeated Slade by placing the same nanobots into his system, telling Slade that if he killed his friends he would also lose his current apprentice, Robin. Rather than wipe out the Titans in one blow and have nothing left standing in his way, Slade chose to shut down the nanobots and in doing so allowed Robin to attack him and break half his mask off. Slade brought his entire lair down and escaped once again.

Slade returns in Season 2, where he discovered a girl named Terra, blessed and cursed with tremendous power. Despite the Titans' initial warnings to Terra about Slade's evil, Slade helped Terra learn to control her powers and convinced her to be his apprentice. In the end, after helping Slade conquer Jump City and "destroy" the Titans, Slade's abuse allowed her conscience to win out, and Terra betrayed Slade, sending him to his doom in a pool of lava.

Sometime after the final battle with Slade, Robin (still obsessed with Slade) inhaled a hallucinogen drug (in dust form) released from Slade's cracked mask. After Robin was knocked out by Cinderblock, he notices Slade approaching, but every time Robin attacked him, Slade didn't have a scratch on him (because actually he was a figment of Robin's imagination), and Robin couldn't even touch him. Robin's friends couldn't see Slade, because only Robin could; Slade was a hallucination. Robin gets beaten up by Slade, receiving a lot of bruises. Robin's friends try to explain to Robin that Slade is not there, but Robin (who was still angry) threatened to take down his friends if he got in his way, but Starfire knocks him out. Back at the tower, Slade continues to haunt Robin's mind, and Robin continued to fight a losing battle. Just as all hope is lost, the flickering lights made Slade disappear. Robin believed in his friends that Slade is not real, and switched on the lights, and the Slade hallucination vanished completely.

In the fourth season of the Teen Titans animated series, Slade surprisingly returned, now sporting the S-shaped Mark of Scath on his forehead. Slade had gained new, demonic pyrokinetic powers, flight and invincibility. It is later revealed that, after Terra killed him, he met Trigon the Terrible, Raven's demonic father, in Hell and was resurrected by him.

After Raven sacrificed herself to release Trigon, Robin had no choice but to join forces with Slade to look for Raven. The two traveled to Hell, where it was revealed that Slade was existing only as a reanimated corpse. After Slade delivered Raven to him, Trigon reneged on their deal and refused to give Slade his mortal body back. After parting ways with Robin, Slade then came face-to-face with a demonic guard and stole his weapon after destroying him and regaining his mortal body. Slade then aided the Titans in their final battle against Trigon, only for the demon to blast Slade away. He was never seen again after this, though Robin vowed that if he ever showed up again, they would be ready.

Although he does not make an appearance in the final battle between the Brotherhood of Evil and the Teen Titans (likely due to refusing the offer of being a member of the Brotherhood of Evil), Slade does appear again in the last episode of the series, taunting Beast Boy about how the seemingly revived Terra no longer wants anything to do with him. After an intense battle, this Slade is revealed to be a robot duplicate, though its existence heavily implies that the real Slade is still alive and active.

Me: Slade Wilson A.K.A. Deathstroke!?

Shanan: I thought we were rid of you forever!

Slade: I just got back.

Robin: How'd you come back to life, Slade?

Slade: I was resurrected on Vypra's orders.

Number 7: (confused) What are you talking about? Vypra never planned for you to get revived.

Me: Not after all the trouble he caused to us.

Slade: Well, that's not what Quimby said. He stated that Vypra told him to bring me back to life with a Dark Orb.

Waffle Woman: (growls) Quimby's a liar. Even more then us!

Me: Now do you see what we mean?

Qin: Who is he?

Me: That's Slade Wilson. He's the most dangerous and most formidable enemy of the Teen Titans.

Robin: And my most dangerous arch nemesis.

Me: He has done so many unspeakable crimes against the world and the Teen Titans. So many people have died by his hands and so many people have suffered.

Tara: And he's also the monster that turned me against my friends and in the end I accidentally triggered a volcano and I had no other choice but to sacrifice myself to save my friends, the city and the world.

Shanan: And I will never forgive him for any of his crimes.

Starfire: He's a true coward!

I noticed that he had the Mark of Scath on his forehead again.

Me: I see you have your fire powers that Trigon gave you again.

Slade: I sure do.

?: (Italian Accent) And you all will make a good-a meal for me!

We saw a huge man come out and he had ugly mechanical jaws and he had a mouth that looked so much like a Yautja's! It was PIECEMEAL!

---

Pietro "Piecemeal" Maltese is a criminally insane Italian chef with surgically altered mechanical jaws that are known to rip through anything. He made his first appearance in Guess Who's Going To Be Dinner. He was voiced by Jess Harnell.

Biography

He has shown superhuman toughness and endurance as he was attacked numerous times with apparently no lasting effect. He has an obsession for eating exotic creatures, according to his criminal records, and has a checklist of animals he would like to sample. Pietro infiltrated the Saturdays home to eat Fiskerton while Doc and Drew are away celebrating their anniversary. Zak, Fiskerton, Komodo, and Zon managed to repel him. He later returns with Van Rook in the episode Target: Fiskerton. He nearly eats Fiskerton, but Argost stops him with a neural parasite. He also bears obvious resemblance to the character of Jaws from the movies Moonraker and The Spy Who Loved Me.

In The Secret Saturdays Beasts of the 5th Sun, Pietro "Piecemeal" Maltese appears as one of the main bosses in the level Volcanic Caverns. In Nintendo DS he appears in world 3 as the boss.

---

Drew: Piecemeal!

Me: Whoa! He looks so much like Jaws from James Bond!

Qin: Who is Jaws? I know the shark but not him.

Me: Jaws was a huge tall muscular guy that had ugly metal teeth and his strength was powerful enough to rip through metal with ease.

Nico: I remember him! He was big and ugly.

Me: Yeah.

Drew: That's Pietro Maltese. He likes to go by Piecemeal. He's a criminally insane Italian Chef that was given those jaws to rip through metal with ease.

We gasped.

Me: This guy is really fucked up!

?: He's really screwed up huh?

Out came a figure and it was WEAVEWORM from episode 32 of Mighty Morphin Power Rangers!

---

Weaveworm is a worm monster created by Finster. Weaveworm was Scorpina's pet and a deadly adversary. He serve as one of two main antagonists of the episode "A Star is Born".

Weaveworm was created by Finster. He could weave a stand of gooey web-like substance. Scorpina arrived with him to Earth and encountered the Rangers. Weaveworm shoot his web from his mouth and trapped Rangers in the cocoon, where they couldn't teleport and contact Zordon. The Putties then threw cocoon into the sea, where heroes could die without air, but they freed themselves with Power Blaster. Then rangers arrived to Angel Grove, where they fought enlarged Goldar, Scorpina and monster Babe Ruthless. After defeating Babe, Goldar left and Scorpina returned to human size and Weaveworm came to battle. Weaveworm was enlarged. The rangers formed Megazord, but monster put Megazord in his cocoon. However, Tommy arrived to help his friends. He summoned Dragonzord and freed the Rangers, by destroying the cocoon with it's tail. Then the Rangers destroyed Weaveworm by the Mega Dragonzord's Z-Sphere in the flash of bright light.

---

Jason Lee Scott: Weaveworm!

Weaveworm: Its been a long time rangers.

Me: I remember you! You trapped the rangers in a cocoon and threw them into the ocean to drown!

Weaveworm: That's right. You watched us on TV huh?

Me: Never missed an episode. But on TV you couldn't talk. Has Vypra been giving you lessons on how to talk?

Weaveworm: She has.

He fired his webbing at us.

We just avoided Weaveworm's webbing.

Nico: HA! You missed!

Weaveworm: (grins) Wasn't aiming for you.

We then saw that Weaveworm trapped the Thunderbird in his webbing. But the Thunderbird escaped from the web by destroying it with its lightning.

Tara: You guys handle everyone else. I will handle Slade. I have an old score to settle with him.

Me: Show no mercy Tara.

Slade: Since I'm already here, Waffle Woman, you might as well help me fight Terra.

Waffle Woman: (growls) Just don't get in my way, got it?!

Shanan: I'll face Waffle Woman, Tara. We'll call this a temporary switch.

Tara: Got it.

Drew: Unlike Van Rook, Piecemeal is someone I don't mind you guys sending to Hell.

Zak: To make it more poetic, how about you guys kill him by eating him?

Me: No way Zak! We may like killing bad guys but we are not cannibals. Humans we never eat. Cannibalism is one of the grossest and most barbaric things anyone can do. Unless they are made of food.

Nico: I agree.

Jake Holling: You hungry? How about a knuckle sandwich?!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Ninja Storm!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Ninja Storm Rangers!

Me: Lets get them!

We powered up and went at them.

Battle 1: TARA VS SLADE - EARTH VS FIRE!

Tara was looking at Slade with so much hatred and burning rage. She was never gonna forgive him for everything he did and for everything he made her do against her will.

Tara: I will never forgive you for everything you did to me Slade!

(THUNDERCLAP!)

Slade: You were my prized apprentice Terra. I gave you everything you could've ever wanted.

Tara: You did teach me how to control my powers. But I was never your apprentice and I will never forgive you for teaching me how to use them for evil! You ruined my life and drove me to commit the ultimate sacrifice! I atoned for my deeds by sacrificing myself to save my friends from your evil!

Suddenly a massive earthquake shook the area and a vortex of yellow fire and light swirled around Tara's feet. Then she was enveloped in a massive vortex of light and the skies cleared up and the sun shined down as crystal clusters and more rock formations grew all over the place with incredible power. We felt Tara's power rising at an exponentially incredible rate! When the vortex faded, Tara was enveloped in a ball of yellow light.

(IMPERATRIX MUNDI BY JO BLANKENBURG plays at 1:50)

When the ball of light faded, Tara was forever changed. She had golden yellow angel wings and an Amethyst Jewel imbedded in the middle of her forehead, earrings in the shape of the kanji for Earth 土, her Butterfly Beret now had the Earth in a crystal on it, she had a beautiful yellow skirt on and blue leggings with butterflies on them and she had a sleeveless trench coat on that had the beautiful amber sunset shining on the Grand Canyon and it had the kanji for Tara Markov, Angel of The Shining Earth on the back. 輝く地球の天使、タラ・マルコフ She was now a SUPER ANGEL 20,000 CRYSTAL EARTH ANGEL!

Slade couldn't believe what he is now seeing! He saw Tara transform right in front of his eyes! Er… eye.

Slade: What has happened to you Terra?

Tara: I've changed. You ruthless bastard! I will make sure that you suffer for your crimes Slade. You've pissed off the wrong angel!

Tara then teleported and punched Slade in the stomach and face multiple times with devastating force at incredible speed and she kicked him in the face and sent him crashing into a rock with incredible power!

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMM!

Slade exploded out of the rock with incredible power and fire and he fired a massive blast of fire at Tara and she fired a massive blast of earth energy at the blast of fire and the blasts collided and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Slade and Tara fired blasts of rock, energy and fire at each other and they exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMM!
KRAAABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO
KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMM!
KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!

The explosions were so massive and so powerful and so devastating that they were setting all of Monument Valley completely on fire! The whole valley was completely engulfed in flames and turned into a massive raging epic conflagration of epic proportions!

Tara kicked Slade in the stomach and face and kicked him in the back and kicked and punched him in the face and back and fired blasts of earth and energy at him all over and the explosions were so powerful that they shook much of the planet to the core! Tara kicked him in the crotch and punched his mask off and kicked him in the face and kicked him in the back of the head and she fired blasts of earth at him and the rocks smashed into him all over. Slade fired blasts of fire at Tara and she formed shields of rock and diamond and deflected them back and they hit Slade and exploded and Tara smashed her fist into his head and kicked him in his arm and broke it. She punched him in the face with devastating force and kicked him in the back of the head and he belched up a huge amount of blood! Tara then punched him in the stomach with incredible force and he belched up even more blood and Tara punched him in the face and sent him crashing into a rock.

Tara: I'VE HAD IT WITH YOU SLADE!

She fired a massive volley of powerful energy blasts all at Slade and they rained down on him with merciless fury! She fired a massive onslaught of energy blasts 75 at a time with incredible fury! They were exploding all over Slade with devastating power! Then Slade was pinned down by a dome of energy ready to explode at any minute and Tara charged up a massive energy blast of incredible power!

Tara: This is for everything you've done to me, my friends and the world Slade! SHINING EARTH VENGEANCE!

She fired the massive blast and it went into the dome and it glowed red with incredible power! Then it exploded with devastating power!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion was so massive, so powerful and so devastating that it shook the whole of the planet with incredible force. The explosion was so powerful that it blew Piecebite and Weaveworm into the rocks with incredible power! They smashed into them and were buried under a lot of rubble and Ed and Shanan protected Number 7 and Waffle Woman from the blast. When the smoke cleared, Tara's power had ultimately done the trick and completely obliterated Slade and reduced him to nothing but a disembodied head!

Miles away, Master Roshi and the whole Z-Fighter crew were flying in Bulma's plane when they felt the turbulence from the explosion that Tara made.

Yamcha: Hang on guys!

The plane was shaking wildly! When it stopped 30 seconds later, they got back in their seats.

Yamcha: Sorry guys. I guess I should've had the fasten seatbelts sign turned on.

Master Roshi: That was no mere turbulence. That was the aftershock of an incredible explosion.

Goku: Yeah. I sensed it too.

Oceanus Shenron: It's weird but whoever it belonged to was as strong as J.D. at full power.

Krillin: What do you think caused it?

Gohan: I don't know Krillin. But whoever it was that made it, it was really strong.

Android 21: That was Tara's energy. I could tell it was her.

Lazuli: What!? Tara possessed that kind of power!?

Chiaotzu: How is that possible!?

Tien: She must've transformed and ascended in power.

Piccolo: Tien is right. Tara's power! It's enormous!

Goku: I can feel it. Her power is incredible!

Vegeta: How can she get such power?

Master Roshi: I think I know how. It was Mayor Quimby. He resurrected Slade Wilson behind Vypra's back and it enraged Tara and unleashed her ultimate power.

Bulma: Slade!? But he's dead and in the River of Fire!

Master Roshi: That's what we all thought too Bulma. Mayor Quimby must've somehow gotten a dark orb and used it to resurrect Slade Wilson behind Vypra's back. This time with the powers he had when Trigon was gonna destroy the Earth.

Trunks: That's terrible!

Piccolo: No kidding. But Tara has gotten stronger than ever before.

Chi Chi: She sure has.

Yamcha: We better go help out just in case.

Goku: Good idea.

They flew toward us.

In Utah, Tara saw Slade's disembodied head.

She picked it up and she took all of Slade's powers that he got from Trigon and made them her own.

Slade: You may have won Terra, but I will be back and I won't be alone.

Tara: Don't count on it.

She threw him into the air and fired an energy blast at the head and destroyed it in an instant.

Slade's evil spirit then appeared.

Tara then had tears coming down her face and she had her hand pointed at him.

Tara: You've tormented my life and my friends lives for the last time Slade and I will never allow you to torment anyone else ever again! HAKAI!

Slade's spirit glowed purple and he screamed in pain as he was being completely obliterated. He was erased from existence for all eternity as if he was never born at all.

Tara: Goodbye forever Slade.

Shanan walked up to her.

Shanan: Tara you were incredible.

Tara then broke down crying and she hugged Shanan and cried hard. Slade Wilson, the most dangerous arch nemesis of Tara, Shanan and the Teen Titans was destroyed and erased from existence forever. Shanan comforted Tara as she was crying hard.

Shanan: Let it all out Tara. Let it all out. It's okay it's okay.

Waffle Woman: Poor Tara. It's hard to imagine that she went through everything that Slade did like that.

Shanan: I know.

Waffle Woman: I'll call our fight off until next time to give Tara some time to get together.

Shanan: Thank you Waffle Woman.

Waffle Woman: You're welcome Shanan.

Number 7: Same here Shanan. That fight with Slade really was a powerful one. Tara had a lot of pent up rage over her whole ordeal she went through. We'll fight again next time.

Shanan: I appreciate that Number 7.

Nico: But it's just incredible that Tara defeated Trigon-Powered Slade like that. She has gotten so much stronger.

Laney: No kidding.

William: Did Quimby really go rogue?

Waffle Woman: He did. And him reviving Slade is further proof of his treachery. We're sending out patrols to hunt him down.

Maria: If you want, we can help you guys.

Number 7: No. Quimby is our responsibility. But not to worry. We will still be available to fight you on a daily basis.

Nico: Okay. But if you ever do find Quimby, send him to us so that we can have him be brought to trial for all the crimes that he has done against the country.

Number 7: We'll make no promises but okay.(she and Waffle Woman teleport out)

Nico: We're not done yet.

---

Battle 2: Weaveworm

---

Nico and the Megaforce Rangers were facing Weaveworm.

Nico fired blasts of lightning and electrocuted him all over and the Megaforce Rangers blasted him all over the place with their weapons.

Nico: Weaveworm, you have failed this universe!

Nico and the Megaforce Rangers blasted him all over the place and he fell down and exploded in a huge fiery explosion.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Nico: Nice! Now we have to face Piecemeal.

---

Battle 3: Piecemeal.

---

We were now facing Piecemeal.

Me: You are a terrible chef you monster!

Luigi: (Italian Accent) You're a disgrace to Italians like me!

Mario: (Italian Accent) Si!

We went at him and I punched him in the stomach multiple times and kicked him in the face and Nico punched him in the face and Lola bit him in the leg and fired a massive blast of fire at him and burned him!

Carol: Lets see how you like this! ATOMIC STYLE NINJA ART: ELEPHANT'S FOOT OF CHERNOBYL!

Carol fired a blast of atomic energy and it hit Piecemeal's feet and melted them into the ground and he screamed in excruciating pain as he was fused into the ground!

Me: Whoa! That must've hurt!

Jessie K.: No kidding! But that was the Elephant's Foot of Chernobyl. It's a mass of melted matter that formed during the 1986 Chernobyl Nuclear Power Plant disaster. It was formed from the melted corium around the nuclear reactor.

Vince: Wow! That was awful!

Lisa Loud: Very accurately put Vincent.

Vince: Thanks.

Jackie: This is gonna be big. EXPLOSION STYLE NINJA ART: TNT APOCALYPSE!

Jackie sent a massive wave of TNT Crates from Minecraft at Piecemeal on carts and they slammed into him and exploded all with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMM
KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOMMMM! KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOMMM!

Me: Whoa! That was intense!

Jackie: Thanks. That was from VanossGaming's Minecraft video called Doom's Day.

Me: I saw that video on YouTube and it was intense!

Lincoln: And very well done.

Mandee: How about this? FUNGUS STYLE NINJA ART: FUNGOID CREATURES OF TETREST'LA!

Mandee fired waves of spores and they turned into creatures that are living mushrooms and they hit Piecemeal and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Dana: And how about this? ICE STYLE NINJA ART: ICE AGE GLACIER EMPIRE RASENSHURIKEN!

Dana formed a subzero cold freezing Rasenshuriken and it had smaller Rasengan orbiting around it that took the shapes of the creatures of the Ice Age and she threw it and it slammed into Piecemeal and it exploded and entrapped him in a massive wall of ice.

Me: Whoa! That was cold!

Axel Adell: (Swedish Accent) But very well done Dana.

Dana: Thanks Axel.

Ben: Time for some Predator power! Maria, I'm gonna need a lot of water.

Maria: Right.

Ben jumped into the air and turned into a new predator! It was called BLOODSQUALO! He looked like a shark that had a Basking Shark mouth lined with Great White Shark teeth and he had a light in his mouth that was very similar to an anglerfish bioluminescent lure.

Ben: BLOODSQUALO!

Maria formed a ball of water for him.

Me: Whoa! That is a scary shark!

Shanan: Wow! That's Cetormus from the planet Pisciss! They are Ripjaw's natural predator.

Nico: Wow! That is a really scary shark and I thought Jaws was a scary shark.

Qin: Me too. But this is a cool predator.

Riley: It sure is.

Maria: Go get him Ben!

Bloodsqualo: Lets do it!

Maria fired the water at Piecemeal and Bloodsqualo chomped on him and bit his arms off.

Ben then turned into another new predator. It was called ANTLERBACK! It looked a lot like an elk but with razor sharp antlers and it was a scary kind of deer.

Ben: ANTLERBACK!

Me: Whoa! That is a wicked cool deer!

Shanan: Wow! That's a Diabiervo from the planet Flors Verdance. They are one of Wildvine's natural predators.

Riley: That is a really scary looking deer though.

Qin: Deer are really cool creatures. But this is the scariest deer ever.

Shanan: It's name is Spanish for Devil Deer. It looks like a deer from Hell.

Antlerback: Watch.

He fired a ball of plasma at Piecemeal and it slammed into him and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMM!

Me: Nice! Lets use some teamwork!

Sideshow Bob: With pleasure! ANTI-SPRINGFIELD CYBER KEY POWER!

The Anti-Springfield Cyber Planet Key went into his right arm device and enhanced his powers 100-fold.

Scrapper: Time for action! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into his back and enhanced his strength 100-fold.

Sideshow Bob and Scrapper: LASER BOULDER SUPERSMASH!

Scrapper threw a boulder and Sideshow Bob fired a laser blast and it merged with the Boulder and it slammed into Piecemeal and exploded.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Swamp Thing: Lets see him take this! EARTH CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into his right arm device and enhanced his powers 100-fold.

Bluestreak: This is gonna be good. CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into his back and enhanced his lightning particle beam 100-fold.

Swamp Thing and Bluestreak: LIGHTNING VINE ELECTROCUTION!

Swamp Thing entangled Piecemeal in vines and Bluestreak fired a lightning particle blast and it went through the vines and electrocuted Piecemeal all over.

Me: Lets do it Xenia!

Xerneas: You got it J.D.!

I fired a blast of Lightning and Xerneas fired an arrow of life energy.

Me and Xerneas: LIGHTNING LIFE ARROWSTORM!

The blasts hit Piecemeal all over and skewered and electrocuted him.

Nico: This is gonna be awesome!

Yveltal: You said it Nico.

Nico fired a massive blast of fire and Yveltal fired his Oblivion Wing blast.

Nico and Yveltal: FIRESTORM OBLIVION BURST!

The blasts combined and they hit Piecemeal and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Wood Man: This is gonna hurt.

Killer Frost: And you will freeze.

Wood Man fired a storm of leaves and Killer Frost fired a wave of ice.

Wood Man and Killer Frost: ICE LEAF SHREDSTORM!

The ice combined with the leaves and they cut Piecemeal all over.

Sophie Casterwill: (British Accent) I've always wanted to try a combo with a Pokemon.

Me: You, Zarya and Aerrow can do one with the Legendary Birds.

I called out Articuno, Zapdos and Moltres!

Sophie Casterwill: Yeah! Lets do it! AUGERFROST!

Articuno: This is gonna be a frozen fight!

Sophie fired a powerful blast of energy and Articuno fired her Ice Beam.

Sophie Casterwill and Articuno: SUBZERO FREEZE BLAST!

The blasts combined and they slammed into Piecemeal and froze him in a powerful block of ice.

Zarya: This will burn you!

Moltres: I agree Zarya.

Zarya: LETS HOWL! (HOWLS!)

She fired a blast of energy that turned into an energy wolf and Moltres fired a massive blast of fire.

Zarya and Moltres: WOLF FIRESTORM HYPER BLAZE!

The blasts both hit Piecemeal and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Aerrow: Lets get him!

Zapdos: With pleasure Aerrow!

Aerrow fired a massive blast of sky energy and Zapdos fired a powerful blast of lightning.

Aerrow and Zapdos: SKY LIGHTNING FIRESTORM BURST!

The blasts combined and they hit Piecemeal and it electrocuted him and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: You give all our friends in Italy a really bad name! You are just a big fat douchebag!

Poromon and Poliwag: CUTE RUSH!

Poromon and Poliwag knocked me down with a cute rush and pat my head.

Me: Sorry sorry.

Nico: Good works. Lets finish him with a final smash!

Lincoln: With pleasure! LIGHTNING DRAGON FIRESTORM!

Lincoln fired a blast of lightning and it turned into a dragon and it slammed into Piecemeal and electrocuted him all over.

Mario: Lets-a go! MARIO FINALE!

Mario Finale consists of Mario launching a powerful two-streamed blast of fire, which hits many times. It expands vertically as it moves away from Mario. As the blast moves away from him, opponents that come in contact with the vortex are knocked slightly to the side, and are thus forced to travel with it. Opponents that are in the center of the vortex are more easily trapped by it.

Mario burned Piecemeal all over.

Luigi: Lets-a Do it! POLTERGUST G-00!

In Super Smash Bros. Ultimate, it is renamed as it now uses the design of the Poltergust with the same name from Luigi's Mansion 3. It remains functionally identical except that there is a much longer time between the opponents being shot out.

Luigi smashed him into the ground all over the place.

Janeen Aran: This will blow you away! PHAZON LASER!

Janeen fired a powerful dark blue energy blast and it slammed into Piecemeal and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Zak: You will never torment us or Cryptids again! KUR CRYPTID THUNDERBIRD FIRESTORM!

Zak used his staff to call the Thunderbird and he fired an energy blast and the Thunderbird fired a blast of lightning and the blasts hit Piecemeal and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Drew: And now you burn. TIBETAN FIRESTORM SLASH!

Drew had her Tibetan Fire Sword ready and ignited and she fired a blast of fire and incinerated Piecemeal into ash in an instant.

Me: See you in Hell Piecemeal.

Nico: Piecemeal, you have failed this universe.

Laney: Yes he has.

Tara was still crying.

Me: Poor Tara.

Beast Boy: But she did destroy Slade for good.

Me: I know but the scars she has because of him will forever be with her.

Nico: Yeah.

Then the plane Master Goku and everyone landed by us.

Master Goku: Whoa! What happened here?

Me: One massive fight that shook the planet.

Nico: Yeah. Tara ascended and killed Slade.

Master Roshi: Looks like my sensing paid off.

Me: Ir sure did Master Roshi.

We later went back home.

Back at the estate, we were watching TV when we got a call on the phone.

Me: Oh. Phone.

I answered the Holophone.

Me: Hello.

It was Vypra.

Vypra: J.D. It's Vypra.

Me: Surprised to see you calling us Vypra. I take it you want to tell us about what happened?

Vypra: Yes. Quimby escaped and we're hunting him down. But we will bring him to you so he can face trial for his crimes.

Me: Good. But if you want, you can attend the trial of Quimby.

Vypra: We would like that and also give Girl Jordan my condolences on what happened to her father. No kid should ever be without their father. I saw him in the forests of Minnesota in Riley's old Neighborhood.

Me: We appreciate you telling us where to find him Vypra. Thank you.

Vypra: You're welcome.

The call ended.

Zak: (To the viewers) Never mess with the rights of all Cryptids or else me and Team Loud Phoenix Storm will come for you.

Nico: You said it.

THE END

Another Fanfiction and awesome Secret Saturdays chapter done.

The Thunderbird has been one of my favorite legends for a while and it is very symbolic in a lot of cultures. The next Secret Saturday's cryptid we're going to see is The legendary Jersey Devil and we're going to see the mysterious demon of the Pine Barrens forest. NicoChan11 and ArchangelOfJustice12 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is the Terror of MechaGodzilla from 1975 and it's gonna be an explosive battle with the dangerous mechanical version of Godzilla from 1974.

See you all tomorrow.

Rampage of Mechagodzilla

In the middle of the city, Shiv, Firefly and Leonard were searching for Mayor Quimby. It was a big search.

Shiv: Guys, we've been chasing Quimby for days! Can't we get something to eat?

Firefly: Yeah you're right. I am getting hungry.

Leonard: Good idea. Lets get some grub.

They went to the Burpin Burger and ordered a good lunch. Firefly ordered a Fire In Your Belly Burger, Leonard ordered an egg burger and Shiv ordered a triple belcher deluxe.

They finished eating and they were stuffed.

Shiv: Boy that is good food. Lynn wasn't kidding about the Burpin Burger having good burgers.

Firefly: They are good. I think the Fire in Your Belly Burger with extra dragon sauce is delicious and spicy.

Leonard: I really liked the egg burger. It's better than the Angry Birds eggs.

Then they heard a man talk in a familiar voice. They saw that it was Joe Quimby!

Leonard: There he is!

They jumped on him and tied him up from head to toe in rope.

Firefly: You guys wanna do combo attacks on him or Final Smashes?

Shiv: We were told to bring him in so that Vypra and everyone else can deal with him. Also we're gonna beat him up and hand him over to Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Firefly: Okay.

Joe Quimby gulped in fear as they took him away.

In the forests of Minnesota, near Riley's old neighborhood that she used to live in we were searching for Girl Jordan's dad. With us was Hunter's friend from Ireland named Edwayl Mauroriane, a Breton Girl same age as Sam and she is from the Brittany Region of France. The Bretons are a Celtic People, she has fair blonde hair, crystalline blue eyes, broad eyebrows, roman nose, wears a brown shirt with a green jacket with a Celtic symbol on the back of her jacket, blue jeans, has Celtic style boots. Her powers are Wood, Forest, Water, and Celtic Release.

Me: Wow. This forest is amazing.

Edwayl: (Breton Accent) It sure is lads. I have heard so many wonderful things about you from Hunter.

Natilee: Hunter has really been a great friend and it is amazing that he knows so much about history of Germany and so much more.

Edwayl: That's what I heard. He is quite an inspirational force to the world and to us.

Natilee: He sure is.

Laney: I recognize the symbol on your jacket too Edwayl. It's the Irish Eternal Love knot. It's a very beautiful symbol meaning eternal happiness in love.

Edwayl: That's right lass. That's very impressive that you know so much about the Celtic history and culture.

Me: We went to Ireland on our Worldwide Adventure and during the Celtic Saint Patrick's Day Festival last year and we saw a lot of things from Irish History dating back to over 7,000 years ago.

Laney: It's amazing and Ireland has so many amazing castles.

Me: Yeah. Most of them are hundreds of years old.

Laney: Yep.

Hunter: (German Accent) Ja. Ireland is so pretty.

Nico: It sure is. They don't call it the Emerald Isle for nothing.

Me: Girl Jordan, what's your father's name?

Girl Jordan: Dustin. He is a great father and he wanted me to grow up to be a factory worker.

Me: Wow. But after everything that happened with him because of Mr. Burns and Quimby, he may be paranoid about us looking at him.

Mewtwo: If Girl Jordan's father is suffering from trauma, perhaps my powers can help him.

Me: Good idea Mewtwo.

Bart Simpson: I just can't believe that Mayor Quimby is that evil. He ruined and destroyed so many lives.

Me: I know Bart. It's absolutely despicable that Mayor Quimby is that dangerous.

I then saw on Bart's left hand a strange scar.

Me: Where'd you get that scar Bart?

Bart: I've had this since I was little.

He showed it to me and it looked like a little sword.

Me: Hmm. It looks like one of the little cocktail swords that they serve in fancy drinks.

Bart: That's right. I got burned by a cocktail sword during an accident in a Fourth of July festival in Springfield when I was young.

Me: Ouch.

Nico: That must've hurt.

Bart: It did.

Lisa Simpson: Hey look there.

We saw a beautiful woman walk through the forest. It was Lisa's music teacher Calliope Juniper. Calliope has dark orange hair that has a single purple streak on the right side and a pink streak on the left side and pink lipstick. She wears a a light green tank-top, a dark brown skirt, brown boots, silver hoop earrings and a necklace with a moon on it.

Lisa Simpson: It's my music teacher Ms. Juniper.

Calliope Juniper: Wow. Didn't expect to see you all here.

Me: It's a pleasure to meet you Ms. Juniper.

Calliope Juniper: Same to you J.D. But you can call me Calliope.

Me: That's a beautiful name. The calliope is such a beautiful instrument to play.

Calliope Juniper: Thank you J.D. and yes it is.

Lisa Simpson: It's great to see you again Ms. Juniper. What brings you out to the forest of Minnesota?

Calliope Juniper: I'm helping a man that was mutated by Mr. Burns here.

Me: That man is Girl Jordan's father Dustin. He was mutated because of that old skinflint freak of nature Mr. Burns because of Mayor Quimby.

Calliope Juniper: Why was Mayor Quimby responsible?

Me: It's a terrible story and it's one that affected the entire country.

I went over everything that Mayor Quimby did and Calliope Juniper was shocked and horrified.

Calliope Juniper: That monster!

Me: I know. And we vowed to bring him to justice. Turns out we didn't kill him when we blew up Springfield. Mayor Quimby was out of the state when the war broke out.

Mixmaster: Don't worry about Quimby. Our archenemies are hunting him down.

Me: Yep. And they agreed to turn him over to us so that he can be brought to trial for his crimes against the country.

Calliope Juniper: Good.

Me: We're also going to cure Dustin and help reunite him with Girl Jordan.

Calliope Juniper: Awesome. Follow me.

We followed her and we saw a mutant. It was a man that looked so much like the Creature from The Black Lagoon. It was Dustin Jordan.

Me: Are you Dustin Jordan?

Dustin Jordan: Yes that's me.

Manaphy: Hi, Dustin! I'm Manaphy! Do you want a hug?

May: Manaphy not now.

Me: I can't believe that Mr. Burns would do this to you. And Mayor Quimby ordered Crocker to kidnap you and turn you into this.

Dustin Jordan: I know. They all ruined my life and took away my humanity.

Girl Jordan: Daddy? Is that you?

Dustin Jordan: Girl Jordan? My gosh. You've grown so much since I saw you last. How long has it been?

Girl Jordan: Its been nine years dad. I've missed you so much.

Dustin Jordan: I've missed you too sweetie. But you have become a beautiful young girl.

Me: She's also a member of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Girl Jordan: I was blessed by the Water Dragon of Ler.

Edwayl: That's the Celtic God of the Sea.

Girl Jordan: That's right. I got water powers as a result. I have been helping Team Loud Phoenix Storm and my friends for a while now.

Dustin Jordan: Wow. I'm so proud of you. My little girl is a force of nature.

Girl Jordan: Thanks daddy.

Me: I can cure you Dustin. I can change you back.

Dustin Jordan: You can J.D.?

Me: I sure can.

Nico: J.D. has cured many people of what happened to them.

Dustin Jordan: Okay.

Me: And don't worry about Quimby. Our archenemies are hunting him down and they promised to bring him to us so that he can be brought to trial for the crimes he has committed against the entire country.

Dustin Jordan: I see. But do you really think that your enemies can be relied on to bring Quimby to justice?

Trailbreaker: I admit that they do try to kill us on a daily basis. But we trust them on certain things. And this is one of them.

Me: They are what we call our Frenemies. Half friends, half enemies.

Calliope Juniper: Good term.

Edwayl: Very good term lad.

Me: Are you ready to turn human again?

Dustin Jordan: I sure am.

Me: Okay.

I snapped my fingers and Dustin Jordan was reverting back. He got his human form back.

He looked at himself and I formed a mirror of water and he saw that he had his humanity back!

Dustin Jordan: I have my humanity back!

Girl Jordan: DADDY!

She went over and hugged him for the first time in 9 years.

Girl Jordan: I've missed you so much.

Dustin Jordan: I've missed you too sweetie. I have so much catching up to do.

Calliope Juniper: And I can come with you all to help teach music at Gotham Royal York Elementary.

Me: Awesome! Lincoln's music teacher is retiring tomorrow and they couldn't find a replacement.

Calliope Juniper: Great!

We all went back to Michigan. Later I went to go talk to the severed disembodied brain of Mr. Denzel Crocker. I told him that we found Girl Jordan's father and cured him and soon we will bring Quimby to justice and kill him for his crimes. Crocker vehemently denied this, but I told him to cut the fucking bullshit and I told him that soon Quimby will pay.

---

Back at the estate, we were watching TV.

Me: Soon you will die Quimby. We're going to seek the gunfire.

Nico: Seek the gunfire?

Me: It's my way of saying have him executed by firing squad in front of the whole country.

Nico: Oh I get it.

Edwayl: Good way to describe it lad.

Me: And we have enough evidence to show how evil he is.

Maria: Yep.

Then the alarm went off.

Computer: Incoming transmission from General Aso of G-Force.

Me: Uh oh. We have a Kaiju attack. Computer, answer call. Voice I.D. James Dean Knudson, United States of America, ID# 413421623513 Alpha.

Computer: Voice Code Acknowledged and accepted.

General Aso called on the hologram phone.

Me: Hello General. Its been a while.

General Aso: That it has J.D. We have an urgent situation. Mechagodzilla is attacking Japan.

Me: That mechanized version of Godzilla that was built by those aliens almost 50 years ago?

General Aso: That's it. We need you all to destroy Mechagodzilla and destroy the cyborgs responsible. Along with the aliens that are controlling him as well as the mad scientist Shinzô Mafune.

Me: Affirmative General. We're on our way.

We got ready.

Qin: Who is Mechagodzilla?

Me: A mechanized version of Godzilla.

I went over what he was.

---

Mechagodzilla, also spelled Mecha Godzilla, Mecha-Godzilla, and MechaGodzilla (in Japanese: メカゴジラ, Mekagojira), is a robotic monster created by the Black Hole Planet 3 Aliens, the secondary antagonist of the Godzilla series behind King Ghidorah, and the main antagonist of the last two Showa Godzilla films, Godzilla vs. Mechagodzilla and Terror of Mechagodzilla.

Mechagodzilla launched an assault on the Earth in a Godzilla disguise of pseudo flesh covering. Anguirus was not fooled by this masquerade and attacked Mechagodzilla. However, the kaiju was defeated and forced to flee after having his lower jaw snapped. But the fight did tip off the humans to Mechagodzilla's farce after Anguirus scraped off part of his disguise and exposed the metal underneath. Eventually Godzilla arrived to challenge his doppelganger and blasted off the rest of Mechagodzilla's disguise with his atomic fire breath. The bionic monster then unleashed his full abilities on Godzilla, easily overwhelming his organic counterpart, but was called back for repairs due to damage the King of the Monsters had inflicted on him. Mechagodzilla was sent back into action after its creators found the location of the guardian kaiju, King Caesar. They hoped to destroy him before he could awaken and stop their plans, but Mechagodzilla failed to do so. The bionic monster engaged King Caesar and initially had trouble fighting him, due to the guardian kaiju's ability to reflect the robot's eye beams, but was eventually beaten senseless by Mechagodzilla. Godzilla joined the fight to try and turn the tide, only for the robotic terror to let loose its whole arsenal on its two opponents. However the King of the Monsters generated a magnetic field around himself (it isn't explained how this was possible, but it may have been due to the lightning bolts that struck him earlier in the movie). Mechagodzilla tried to fly away from Godzilla, but the field was too strong and pulled in the bionic monster. The King of the Monsters managed to take hold of the robotic terror and twisted off his head (which is strange considering the fact that it demonstrated the ability to easily spin its head around earlier). Mechagodzilla exploded, scattering its remains into the ocean.

Terror of Mechagodzilla

While Mechagodzilla was defeated in the previous film, the Simians weren't finished yet. The Simians rebuilt their machine titan and, after seeing the power of teamwork, called in an old debt to team Mechagodzilla with Titanosaurus. The aquatic dinosaur first tried to fight Godzilla alone, but was defeated while Mafune, a mad scientist, began rebuilding Mechagodzilla. He believed that the bionic monster would allow him to bring about his revenge on his own species, man, for all the other biologists thinking he was crazy. Mafune believed that he wouldn't have to obey the aliens since he thought that Titanosaurus would fight Mechagodzilla and emerge victorious due to the dinosaur having an organic brain, thus giving it an advantage over the machine. The aliens promised Mafune that they would build a new home for him and his daughter, Katsura, from the ruins of Tokyo with highly advanced technology. However she was rebuilt as a cyborg in control of the two monsters by the aliens and Mechagodzilla and Titanosaurus engaged Godzilla. The King of the Monsters attempted to tear off the robotic terror's head to defeat it again, but the bionic monster was able to continue to fight. However Katsura let herself die so as to stop Mechagodzilla and with her gone, the robotic terror was unable to move. Godzilla destroyed the bionic monster with his atomic breath and Titanosaurus was soon defeated as well.

Qin gasped in shock!

Qin: That's awful! We have to stop them!

Nico: We'll need Omega Supreme, Devestator, Bruticus, Defensor, Superion, G1 Menasor, Abominus, Computron, Predaking, and Sky Lynx if we're gonna take down Mechagodzilla.

Me: Right. Lets go!

We were off to Japan.

JAPAN

We arrived in the mountains of Japan and we saw Mechagodzilla destroying everything! He was firing missiles from his fingers as well as rainbow lasers from his eyes and a plasma energy laser from his chest. He was blowing up the entire land and turning it into a sea of fire.

Me: Whoa!

Nico: What power!

Carol: J.D., me and Nico and everyone else will face Mechagodzilla. You, Danny Phantom, Lincoln and Lily will face the aliens and the mad scientist.

Me: Are you sure Carol?

Carol: I'm positive J.D.

Me: Okay.

Vypra and Bane then appeared.

Me: Vypra and Bane.

Vypra: So we arrive on a big battle with a Kaiju.

Me: Yeah and one of Godzilla's most dangerous enemies next to King Ghidorah.

Bane: (Spanish Accent) So we see.

?: And me too.

A figure came out and we saw that it was MOTODRONE from episode 25 of Ninja Storm!

Motodrone was a mutant mechanical entity and was one of the major villains of Power Rangers Ninja Storm, he was once Perry, a kind and friendly motorcycle expert who was conducting an experiment to create a new generation of motorcycle. Unfortunately, he was caught in the accident that changed him into Motodrone.

In battle Motodrone wielded a sword, rode on a motorcycle, and wore a brown cloak when he was revived.

First appearing in the episode "Brothers In Arms", Motordrone was the result of an accident caused by Perry when he accident got into an accident, transforming him into Motordrone. Motodron then kidnapped Hunter and tryed to use his Crimson powers for his motocycle, but his plans were foiled by the Ninja Rangers and the Crimson Ranger destroys Motodrone and freed Perry with his newly acquired Ninja Glider Cycle. His remains were salvage by Zurgane and brought back to Lothor's ship for repairs.

In the two-part episode "Shimazu Returns", Motodrone was later rebuilt and revived by Lothor by transferring the soul of a Kelzak into his reassembled pieces. Motodrone then fought the Power Rangers under the commands of Lothor, of the Rangers, Motodrone has show more interest in destroying Hunter, more so then the other Rangers, leading him and Hunter to be archenemies.

In the episode " A Gem of a Day", Lothor requested him to spy on Vexacus, due to his distrust of him. He was later destroyed by Vexacus when he threatened to disclose Vexacus' treacherous agenda to Lothor.

In the second and final part of the two-part series finale episode "Storm Before the Calm", He came back once more from the Abyss, but was quickly destroyed one final time by Shane in his Tri-Battlized Flight Mode (although like the other generals, it was not revealed if Motodrone was completely destroyed, since he was only seen falling down after being blasted).

Shane Clarke (to Vypra): You even brought back Motodrone?!

Vypra: Why not? Even high ranking generals like him deserve a chance to shine.

Motodrone: I'm not like those other monsters you faced. I won't go down with one hit. And don't try and rip off anything from Dragon Ball Z in this battle. Because I'll know!

Me: I remember you! But you weren't shown to be destroyed at the end of Ninja Storm and Lothor was sent to hell.

Motodrone: That's right. This time you all will die.

Carol: We'll hold them off.

Me: Okay. Lets go!

Me, Danny Phantom, Lincoln and Lily went to face the aliens.

Carol: This is gonna be a big battle.

Carol snapped her fingers and grew to Mechagodzilla's height and she was ready. The Transformers were ready too fight as well.

Orion: This is the first time Power Rangers are fighting a Kaiju!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Animal Supersquad!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Liveman rangers.

Luan: Vypra, we'll face you, Motodrone and Bane later. Mechagodzilla is our primary concern.

Nico: So just sit back and watch the fireworks.

Vypra: Ah why not. It will be cool watching you all face a Kaiju.

Everyone went at them.

Battle 1: MECHAGODZILLA!

---

The first battle was with Mechagodzilla!

Carol: This is gonna get ugly.

Carol fired a blast of Atomic energy with Godzilla's atomic ray and it hit Mechagodzilla and exploded all over him.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM! KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOMMM! KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM! KRABBBBOOOOOOMM! KRABBBOOOOOOMMM!

Carol: That's as far as you go!

Mechagodzilla got up and roared and he was mad. Then as Carol went at him, Mechagodzilla fired a massive and relentless full scale assault at Carol. He was firing rainbow eye lasers, finger missiles and his plasma chest laser at Carol with incredible fury and massive fiery explosions were blasting the area around Carol apart with incredible power!

KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM! KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM! KRABBBOOOOOMMMM! KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM! KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM! KRABBBBOOOOOOOMMM! KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM! KRABBBBOOOOMMM! KRABBBOOOOOOOOOMMMM! KRABBBBOOOOMMMM! KRABBBOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMMMM!

Missiles were hitting Carol all over and blasting holes in her clothes and wounding her all over and she was crying out in pain as she was getting hit. Explosions were blowing the area apart around her and an explosion blasted behind her and set her back on fire and a Rainbow Eye laser hit arm and blasted a huge wound in it and blood was pouring out.

THE END

Another Fanfiction complete and another Godzilla monster destroyed.

Terror of Mechagodzilla from 1975 was an awesome movie and it was really explosive! NicoChan11 and ArchangelOfJustice12 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is a land episode of the SpongeBob episode Fear of A Krabby Patty! Get ready to see Lincoln become afraid of Lynn-sagna.

See you all tomorrow.

Fear of A Lynn-Sagna

At the Krusty Krab in Bikini Bottom, Lily was working at the grill very hard. She was humming Nautical Songs to herself as she was cooking Krabby Patties.

Lily: (Humming Drunken Sailor)

SpongeBob came in taking the trash out.

Lily: Ahoy SpongeBob.

SpongeBob: Hey Lily. Just taking out the trash.

Lily: Okay.

SpongeBob went outside and took out the trash and he saw Squidward.

Spongebob: Squidward! What are you doing here?

Squidward (smirks): Oh, I was enjoying some time off from the Insane Asylum when I just happened upon this embarassing photo of you from the Christmas party. (shows Spongebob the picture)

It showed that during a Christmas Party from long ago that SpongeBob kissed Gary full on the mouth while in a drunken stupor caused by Egg Nog.

Spongebob: What?! Squidward, you can't-

Squidward: Don't worry. I won't tell anyone. After all, you have been saying that you and I are friends. So, what are friends for, right?

Spongebob: Thanks, Squidward!

Squidward: You know what else friends do for each other? Help each other out whaen they need it. Unless, you'd rather have me show the world this picture.

SpongeBob gulped.

Later Maria and the Neptune Crusaders were eating Krabby Patties.

Varie: Mmm. Love Krabby Patties.

Squidward came in humming the theme from House Fancy.

Maria: Squidward, what the Hell are you doing back here?

Squidward: Well, I may not work here anymore. But I can still eat here as a customer. (to Spongebob) Spongebob, tell Lily that I'd like one Krabby Patty with just cheese on it. No vegetables.

Spongebob: (Squidward's about to reach into his pocket) Right away! (to Lily) Lily, can you please make one Krabby Patty with just cheese and no vegetables for Squidward?

Lily: (suspicious) Sure thing, Spongebob.

Lily got to making it.

Maria and everyone weren't falling for it and they saw through his ruse.

Maria: Alright, Stupid Squidward! The jig's up!

Squidward: (annoyed) Didn't I tell you to get better insults for me?

Nico: How about you shut the fuck up and hand over that mind control picture?

Squidward: (amused) Mind control picture?

Cleo: Yeah! Every time you touch it, Spongebob seems to do whatever you tell him to do.

Spongebob: (nervously) What are you talking about, Cleo? I'm simply helping Squidward out because he's the greatest.

Squidward: What he said.

Bai Tza: What have you done to Spongebob? He would never admit that you're the greatest!

Nico: Yeah you talentless loser!

Lana grabbed the photo!

Lana: Got it!

They saw the photo!

Nico: What the!?

Sandy: (Southern Accent) Is that SpongeBob kissing Gary?

Spongebob: (cries) It's true! I did kiss Gary on the mouth! But I couldn't help it! I was drunk on Egg Nog! I'll understand if you guys want to stop being my friends and never talk to me again.

Lily: No SpongeBob. We're not gonna think that.

Maria: SpongeBob, we're not going to stop being your friends.

Mr. Krabs: Yeah, lad! We all have embarassing moments. Remember when I molted when I was supposed to hang out with me Navy Buddies?

Sandy: Or when everyone saw me without my fur coat?

Lily: Really Sandy?

Sandy: Yeah Plankton stole my pelt.

Lily: Stupid microbe.

Nico: But SpongeBob you aren't the only one that did crazy things while being drunk. J.D. drank a lot of beer on Saint Patrick's day and Poromon and Poliwag were drunk and it was crazy.

SpongeBob: Wow.

Ebon, Vexen and Hydro Man came in.

Ebon: (glares at Squidward) What you did was low. Even for you.

Lily: Ebon!?

Lana: Vexen!?

Luna: Hydro man!? What are you three doing here?

Ebon: We heard about what Squidward did. Maria probably already told you about what I don't like in the Meta-Breed right?

Lily: Yeah we heard about that.

Maria: I told them all that.

Ebon: Good.

Squidward: Oh, c'mon! You three have done things just as bad!

Vexen: (disgusted) It's true that we have. But we've never blackmailed anyone!

Harold: LETS RUN STUPID SQUIDWARD OUT OF TOWN!

The people held up torches and pitchforks and Squidward ran for his life as an angry mob chased him.

Hydro Man: Just let Squidward go, guys. Like I said before, he can go on the run for the rest of his life for all I care.

Mr. Krabs: Fair point. Now, how about we forget all this happened have some free Krabby Patties?

Hydro Man: (amused) You're even inviting me, Vexen, and Ebon?

Mr. Krabs: Sure. You guys are frenemies and you are welcome regardless.

Ebon: Thanks Mr. Krabs.

Lily got to cooking.

Maria: By the way, how did Squidward get a picture like this?

Patrick: Oh uh I had it in my Secret Box.

Lana: Secret Box?

Patrick: Yeah. I didn't know Squidward had it. He must've taken it when I wasn't looking.

Nico: That is strange.

SpongeBob: I can't believe I was like that.

Lana: Lots of people drink all the time and it's not pleasant.

Cleo: Yeah.

Nico: Yeah it's not pretty.

Luna: But what Squidward did was low.

Rikki: Yeah.

Lily came out with a big pile of Krabby Patties and they got to eating.

Ebon: (Eats one) Mmm. Lily you are a good chef.

Lily: Thanks Ebon.

Hydro Man: Delicious.

Vexen: They are delicious.

Maria: Lily is a great fry cook like SpongeBob.

They had a good lunch.

Later at Lynn's Table on land in Gotham Royal York, the restaurant was doing really well and Lincoln was doing a good job as always. Lynn Sr. was out on a business trip and he hired a substitute boss for him to take over while he was away. It was Flip's younger brother Flop. He was the total antipode of his brother Flip.

[The customers are eating food, Flop is painting a picture and Lori is manning the cash register.]

Flop: Finished! At last. [Shows the picture to everyone and Lincoln, who is now at the chef's window] What do you guys think of my masterpiece?

Lincoln: [reading the sign] New business hours: 6 a.m. to 11 p.m.

Lori: What?! That is literally totally unfair!

Lincoln: Lori's right. That's totally unfair! Couldn't we get to work earlier than 6:00 a.m.? Like 5:30 a.m.? Or 5:00 a.m.? Or 4:00 a.m.? Or- [Lori zips up the chef's window]

Lori: Zip it! [Flop places the sign on the front window. He stares out of the window and notices something surprising from across the street]

Flop: What the…?! [The Pasta Bowl now displays a sign in front saying that it is "now open 23 hours"] The Pasta Bowl open 23 hours?!

Me: Looks like Ophelia is raising the stakes.

Flop: So, that little piece of rotten meat Ophelia Shroud thinks she can stay open longer than me, does she? [A customer walks up to him, tray in hand]

Fred: Sure. I don't know. Why not?

Flop: Well, she's wrong!

Fred: Oh, okay. Sure.

Flop: As of now, Lynn's Table is open 24 hours! [Lincoln's head bursts through the wall, in the place where the chef's window used to be]

Lincoln: Did you hear that, Lori? We get to keep working and working and working without ever having to go home! I've got to pinch myself, because I must be dreaming. [Lincoln exits the punctured hole in the wall and stands flat on the floor. He starts pinching himself twice, then yells in pain. He pinches himself again and yells again, then does it four more times. After a brief pause, he pinches himself yet again] Well, I'm not dreaming.

Me: I've got a really bad feeling about this.

[Switch to a telescope view of the front window of Lynn's Table. Flop walks up to the sign and amends it to read, Open 24 hours!]

Ophelia Shroud was watching.

Ophelia Shroud: [behind the telescope] Open 24 hours, eh? I knew former employee of mine couldn't resist staying open later than me. [She starts walking into the Pasta Bowl] My evil plan is working perfectly. He'll run his employees into the ground, and when Lincoln's mind finally cracks from exhaustion, I'll get him to tell me the all of Lynn Sr.'s recipes and all of Lisa's inventions! [Laughs evilly. She notices after a while that her computer, Selena is not laughing with her] Why aren't you laughing?

Selena: I've heard this joke before. [Scene switches to Lynn's Table. Flop is standing near the cash register with a cowbell and beater in his hands]

Flop: All right, everybody. Lynn's is entering day 3 of non-stop service! Let's give it up for day 3! [The camera shows the customers of Lynn's Table eating their food and not being swayed by Flop's excitement] Yee haw! Day 3!

Lincoln: [inside the kitchen, holding a plate of Lynn-Sagna] Lynn-Sagna, I don't care if we have to stay open until the day after the end of time. As long as I am with you, I am complete. [Fire fills the screen as the episode transitions to the outside of Lynn's Table. It then cuts to the inside, where Flop still is holding the cowbell]

Flop: Day 10 of non-stop service!

Lori: [exhausted] Flop, can I go home yet?

Flop: No one goes home!

Lori: [points to the bags under her eyes] Look at these bags under my eyes; even my bags literally have bags! [The camera shows a closely detailed picture of Lori's drowsy eyes, and a man screams.]

Flop: Quit your bellyaching, Lori; you don't hear Lincoln complaining, do you?

Lincoln: [cooking different foods in the kitchen] L-Y-N-N S-A-G-N-A, says I.

Flop: You could learn a few things from that boy.

Lori: My brother is so adorable when he does that. [Lincoln starts kissing some of the food with love]

Flop: He is a good brother. All right, you can sit down for five minutes. Then it's back to work. [Lori drops over and starts snoring. Shroud, tiny and wearing a tight black suit, descends from a rope on the wall and monitors at Lincoln]

Shroud: Drats! He's not collapsing from exhaustion! But with a little more pressure, the sponge will crack like an egg [clenches fist], and I'll be there to feast on the goo of his shattered psyche. [Slurps and then does an evil laugh. Flop notices Shroud, but since she is tiny, black and suspending from a coil, he believes Shroud is a small insect]

Flop: Eww! A spider bug. [Flop squishes her and the scene changes to the Pasta Bowl a while later. Shroud is on the phone, ordering an item from Lynn's Table]

Shroud: Oh come on! [Flop finally picks up on the other line]

Flop: Lynn's Table! The restaurant that never closes. Would you like to place an order? [We hear a muffled sound from Flop's phone] 10,000 Lynn-Sagna's?! We'll start your order right away, Ms… uh, uh… What was that name again? [Muffles coming from the phone. Flop writes his information on a piece of paper] Uh huh… Selena Hroud. Wait a minute, this isn't some kind of prank, is it?

Shroud: Eh… no.

Flop: Good! We'll call you when it's ready, Ms. Hroud. [Flop bursts through the kitchen door, and starts yelling orders at Lincoln] Kick it into high gear Lincoln! We've got a big order! [Clutches Lincoln, who is staring into space] I'm counting on you, boy! I need you to raise that spatular! [Lincoln does so, enthusiastically] Yeah! And I need you to say, "Team Lynn's Table!"

Lincoln: Team Lynn's Table!

Flop: That's me boy! Now, make me 10,000 Lynn-Sagna's. [Lincoln's eyes swell up as Flop walks away] And no breaks!

Lincoln: [Ecstatic, giggles] Did you hear that, spatula? You, me and 10,000 Lynn-Sagna's. And the best part? No breaks! [Pinches himself] Wow! [Cut to a view of the the city]

Flop: Day 15! Give it up for day 15! [floats by as he hits the bell]

Lincoln: L-Y-N-N-S-A-G-N-A… [floats by, making six Lynn-Sagna's on the table, as the setting transforms into the nighttime. Shroud floats by as the setting transforms into the daytime. Shroud laughs menacingly. Lincoln floats by, putting sauce on one of four unfinished Lynn-Sagna's]

Lincoln: 1,322…

Flop: Day 23! Give it up for day 23! [floats by as the setting transforms into the nighttime. Flop and Lincoln continue floating by as the setting changes from day to night and vice versa]

Lincoln: 6,654…

Flop: Day 30!

Lincoln: 7,121… [Shroud floats by now. She laughs menacingly. Lynn-Sagna items float by]

Flop: Day… 35… ! [floating by as the setting transforms into the nighttime. Flop and Lincoln continue floating by as the setting changes from day to night and vice versa]

Lincoln: 8,659… [floats by]

Old Man Walker: Wait, what's going on? Whoa, whoa! [floats by, confusedly. The scene switches back to Lynn's Table. Flop appears extremely tired]

Flop: Day… [record scratch] anyone know how many days it's been? I've lost track.

Lori: [Breathing heavily next to a pile of Lynn-Sagna's] 43… ! [Gasps, as the top of her head expands and shrinks. Lincoln places a tray of food items on the chef's window and then shoves them off. He does the same again for a smelly boot]

Me: What the?

Flop: What the flimflam?! [Enters the kitchen and notices Lincoln looking like a wreck] What are you doing in here, kiddo? You're wasting all me food.

Me and Flop come in.

Me: Lincoln you don't look very good.

Flop: [Lincoln does not answer him] Boy? [Lincoln starts fighting the air with his spatula. Flip hits him on the back of his head]

Lincoln: [Drowsily] Oh, hey, Flop, hey J.D. When did you get here?

Me: Just a couple of seconds ago. Are you all right?

Lincoln: I think so.

Flop: Boy, I'm worried that… [Flop turns into a giant talking Lynn-Sagna] Got it?

Lincoln: [wiping his eyes] I'm sorry, Flop. Could you run that by me again?

Flop: Sure, I said I'm worried that… [He turns into a Lynn-Sagna again. He turns back into himself after he stops talking]

Lincoln: That's what I thought you said. Now, let me offer this as a rebuttal: [he starts screaming and throwing his hands in the air. He hides in the corner, waving his spatula at Flop] Stay back! I'm warning you!

Me: Lincoln's what's wrong!?

Flop: [Starts walking towards Flop] All right. Now you're just acting silly. I want you to… [Flop turns into Lynn-Sagna again]

Lincoln: No, don't eat me! I'm too chewy! [Screams and runs outside the kitchen, where his eyes bulge as he notices the customers are now Lynn-sagnas!] Holy Shit! They're everywhere! [Runs screaming and knocks into a Lynn-Sagna, falling]

Lynn-Sagna: [looking at him] What?

Lincoln: [Running and screaming. He starts screaming at two Lynn-Sagna's sitting at a table, then one going to the bathroom and then screaming and pointing at Tom.]

Sally: I told you that shirt was hideous. [Lincoln screams again as Flop grabs him and pulls him into the kitchen, while Lincoln is digging his nails into the floor]

Lincoln: No, no! I want to live! [He enters the kitchen, but bursts the door open] I want to live [He's dragged back inside. The camera shows Lori, exhausted. Camera then goes inside the kitchen] Flop, what's going on? Everywhere I look, I see killer Lynn-Sagna's.

Flop: [patting Lincoln's head] There, there. I'm sure it's nothing that getting back to work won't solve. Here's your Spatular. [Hands Lincoln his spatula]

Lincoln: [repeating] Spatular.

Flop: [showing SpongeBob his grill and table] and here's the grill and table.

Lincoln: [repeating] Grill and table.

Flop: [Showing Lincoln some lasagna noodles in his hands] and here are some fresh lasagna… [Lincoln starts screaming again. When Flop pulls the patties away, Lincoln's scream lessens. He pulls the noodles out in front of him and continues pushing and pulling them forward]

Flop: Hmm, there may be a problem after all.

Lincoln: What does this mean?

Flop: It means there's something wrong with your head.

Me: I already have everyone coming.

Lincoln: Okay.

Nico and everyone else came in.

Nico: We got here as fast as we could. What's wrong with Lincoln?

Me: I don't know. He's saying that he sees giant killer Lynn-Sagna's out to kill him.

Laney: Whoa! That's crazy!

Sandman: That sure is crazy.

Electro: What's going on here?

Sandman: Hey, Max. What're you doing here?

Electro: Oh, I was just taking a walk through Gotham Royal York trying to find out what else has changed since I was last here. (frowns) And then I find out Lincoln's scared out his mind because of his dad's lasagna. The fuck is up with that?

Me: We don't really know.

Lisa Loud: This is bad. Lincoln is suffering from Sleep-Deprivation Induced Lasagnaphobia.

Me: What!? Lincoln how long have you gone without sleep!?

Lincoln: 43 days.

Nico: 43 days!? That's insane!

Electro: That's it! Someone has to knock some sense into Lincoln. And that someone's gonna be me! (to us) You guys try and stop me and I'm gonna electrocute all of you!

Lincoln: Go away, Electro! I'm hiding from my dad's lasagna.

Electro: Oh no! I'm not leaving this room until I can manage to snap you out of this lasagna fear!

Me: Max wait! Lincoln just needs some sleep. Let him get some sleep for a while.

Laney: And from the looks of things, Lori needs it too.

Lola: Yeah she looks like she's gonna die from exhaustion!

Me: I can't believe Flop was doing this to them!

Lily: This is exactly what Mr. Krabs did to SpongeBob and Squidward. They went 43 days without sleep because of Plankton's plan to get the Krabby Patty Secret Formula.

Lisa Loud: So that's it! This is Ophelia Shroud's doing.

Nico: What do you mean Lisa?

Lisa: Ophelia Shroud is using Sleep Deprivation on Lincoln and our firstborn elder sister by having Flop make them work tirelessly without a break so that she can get Lincoln to crack and reveal father's recipes and my inventions.

Me: That little brat!

Nico: But it won't work!

Me: Lets get Lincoln and Lori home so they can get some sleep. Also we've got a trial to get to. Joe Quimby goes on Federal Court.

I picked up Lincoln and Bobby picked up Lori.

Electro: Hey there, Flop. I'd like a word with you!

The next 5 minutes were filled with blasts of electricity and Flop's screams of pain.

Flop was later arrested by the police. Luckily Lynn Sr. got back just as Flop was arrested and he abolished the 24 hour work length. What Flop did violated many forms of labor laws.

Next Electro went to the Pasta Bowl.

Electro: (to Ophelia) Normally, Team Loud Phoenix Storm would be dealing with you right now. But today. I get to be the hero!

Electro zapped her all over the place for 10 minutes.

(The Peoples Court Theme plays.)

The trial of Joseph Quimby was on.

Bailiff: Calling the courtroom to attention in case number 72545827823-J People of the United States of America VS Mayor Joseph Quimby. Honorable Judge Katherine A. Rockell presiding.

Judge Katie Rockell came in.

Judge Katie: You may be seated.

We did so.

Katie Rockell: (to Ebon and Shiv) Aren't you my daughter's former teammates?

Shiv: Why, yes we are!

Ebon: Shiv, please don't say anything to push our luck in here.

Me: We invited the Masters of Evil to watch the trial your honor.

Katie Rockell: Ah. I see.

The trial was on and the Prosecution called many witnesses affected by Joe Quimby and his evil activities and the most damning testimony came from Girl Jordan's dad Dustin, Homer Simpson and the children of Springfield, Lori and many more. We've had a total of 20,000,000 witnesses come forward from all over the country and they were all impacted by Quimby's lies and deceit. This was the most witnesses in any trial ever known.

Me: Boy this has to be the most number of witnesses we've ever had in one trial your honor.

Katie Rockell: (Chuckles) I agree with you on that J.D.

Later the case went to the jury. It didn't take them long to reach a verdict.

Mr. Quimby: This is all a misunderstanding. I did not commit those crimes.

Me: Bullshit.

Judge Katie Rockell: Has the jury reached the verdict?

Jury: GUILTY!

Judge Katie Rockell: Very well. Any last words before I sentence you?

Mr. Quimby: I keep telling you I'm innocent I tell you.

Judge Katie Rockell: Like we'll believe that. As punishment for your actions you are hereby sentenced to death and you are hereby ordered to pay a restitution of $198,897,826,783,674,893,588,937,897,365,846,897,483,836,836,872 to the entire country!

Quimby widens his eyes in shock and horror! That was the amount of all the money he stole from the entire country.

Mr. Quimby: You can't do this to me! Think of the children! Think of the children!

Judge Katie Rockell: May God have mercy on your worthless soul.

She bangs her gavel three times.

---

In Washington D.C. we had Mayor Joe Quimby ready to die. Everyone had all kinds of protest signs shouting out various things and for Joe Quimby to die.

Me: Any last words, Joe Quimby?

Joe Quimby: I'm innocent!

Me: I think not.

Nico: Also here's what we think of your campaign.

Nico and Bart had shotguns ready and they were pointed at a car that had all kinds of Explosives and everything that said Vote Quimby on it. The car was full of Mayor Quimby's advertising stuff for electing him and it was be surrounded by tanks full of kerosene, propane, nitroglycerin, C4, napalm and all kinds of explosive stuff except for nukes.

Nico: This is what we think of you and your campaign.

BANG BANG!

Nico and Bart fired and the explosives ignited and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The whole car and all the explosives exploded in a massive fireball of fire and it blew the whole car apart and incinerated it.

Me: Nice. Got that from Thelma and Louise didn't you?

Nico: Yep. Awesome scene.

Lana: It sure was.

Joe Quimby: Shoot me then!

That's when Dark Spicer got up from his seat.

Dark Spicer: (to Quimby) Here's your warning: Your ass is about to be kicked!

Nico: (To Quimby) Trust me, I would really like Quimby to be executed by a firing squad. But I think Dark Spicer should be the one to kill him.

Dark Spicer: That's a wise choice.

Dark Spicer then turned into Stompasaurus Rex.

Stompasaurus Rex: (grabs Quimby by the throat) After all, the Masters of Evil take care of their own!

He smashed Quimby and splattered his blood and guts all over the place in a vicious manner and killed him.

Quimby was dead. He was sent to the River of Fire to burn for all eternity in Oblivion.

Me: Enjoy the River of Fire.

Vypra: Very amusing for us J.D. Thank you.

Me: Anytime Vypra.

The Masters of Evil teleported out.

Nico: Joe Quimby, you have failed this universe.

Me: Yep he sure has.

Nico: (To the viewers) Never go back on the country or there will be terrible consequences with us.

Me: Yep.

THE END

Another awesome SpongeBob chapter done.

Fear of A Krabby Patty was the first episode of Season 4 that aired on May 6th, 2005 and it was really funny! But what Mr. Krabs did was a bad thing. NicoChan11 and ArchangelOfJustice12 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is a second Storm Hawks chapter and we're going after the Murkraiders in that one.

See you all on Thursday

Attack of The Murk Raiders

At the estate, Tara was crying in her room. She has been crying in her room for three whole days. She stopped eating and sleeping, her hair was a mess and her eyes were red and puffy from crying really hard.

Me and Beast Boy were really worried about her.

Me: Garfield, I don't know how much longer I can stand to see Tara act like this. Ever since she destroyed Slade, she feels like she is about to come apart.

Beast Boy: I know.

Me: We got to at least talk to her.

Beast Boy: Right.

Poromon: Let us help too.

Poliwag: Yeah.

Me: Okay.

We went into her room.

Me: Tara?

Tara: (Crying) Hey guys.

Me: Good golly look at you Tara. You're a mess.

Tara was still crying.

Me: Tara you got to stop crying. You're only going to feel worse.

We sat down beside her on her bed.

Me: Tara, I know Slade coming back reopened some old wounds but you don't have to worry about him ever again. He's gone forever.

Beast Boy: Yeah and thank goodness he is gone.

Tara: (Crying) But him coming back hurts! He ruined my life and turned me against my friends!

Me: I know Tara. I know. What Slade did makes him worse than the Devil and he ruined so many lives.

Beast Boy: But he's gone forever now. You erased him from existence forever. He will never come back to terrorize the world ever again.

Me: That's right. Slade was a monster and he will never be welcome here.

Poromon: That's right.!

Poliwag: Your friends are worried about you as well Tara. They are here for you.

Me: Just like us.

Tara then smiled and she was better.

Tara: You're right! I have my friends with me no matter what. I shouldn't dwell on the events of the past.

Me: That's the spirit!

Tara's stomach growled.

Tara: I'm starving.

Me: Lets get you some grub.

We went over to Lynn's Table and Tara ordered a huge buffet and she was really hungry. As she was eating, I was thinking about what I said to Master Cyclonis.

Master Cyclonis was hiding deep underground in a cave on the outlands of the planet. She was enraged that the Storm Hawks had ruined all of her plans.

Master Cyclonis: Those wretched Storm Hawks! THEY RUINED EVERYTHING FOR ME!

Me: Your end will be soon.

Master Cyclonis saw me as a projection.

Master Cyclonis: The famous J.D. Knudson of Team Loud Phoenix Storm. How nice of you to pay me a visit.

Me: Don't even bother attacking me Cyclonis. I'm not really here. I'm a projection.

Master Cyclonis: So why are you here?

Me: I have a message for you. In the future, me and Team Loud Phoenix Storm and the Storm Hawks are going to come for you and rid all of Atmos of your evil forever.

Master Cyclonis looked at me with a sinister smirk.

Me: You aren't the first person to try to rule the universe with a Sword of Injustice. They all failed and so will you.

Master Cyclonis: We shall see about that.

Me: Yes we will. You won't get away with everything you've done to Atmos. When we face each other in the future, you had better be ready to face me with everything you've got.

Master Cyclonis: (Smirks in amusement) Oh I will.

Me: I give you this one chance to disband your armies and stop this pointless crusade to rule Atmos with an iron fist.

Master Cyclonis: I will never stop until all of Atmos is mine.

Me: Then you brought all this on yourself. I will help the Storm

Hawks destroy you and all of your empire will crumble as we rain down so much death and destruction to all of you and Cyclonia.

(IMPERATRIX MUNDI BY JO BLANKENBURG PLAYS AT 1:55)

Master Cyclonis: We shall see about that.

Me: You will pay for your crimes. Team Loud Phoenix Storm and the Storm Hawks are coming for you and you had better be ready for the ultimate fight that will destroy you. The Winds of Vengeance are Coming for you and the Fire of Justice will silence you and send you to Hell.

I vanished.

FLASHBACK ENDS

Me: It's hard to imagine that Cyclonis is that evil. She makes even the most evil of bad guys that we've faced look like a joke.

Nico: I know. She's a monster.

Poromon: It's hard to imagine.

Poliwag: Yeah.

Nico: And I was told that she deceived Piper.

Me: That bitch! I will destroy her for her crimes!

Poromon: Calm down J.D. I know she is that evil, but getting angry won't solve anything.

Me: I know but just thinking about it makes my blood boil. So many people have suffered all because of her. So many lives were destroyed. She's as bad as the devil.

Nico: I know J.D. I know. But I promise you that when the time comes, she will pay for her crimes. Cyclonis will pay for everything she has done to Atmos.

Me: I hope so.

Later back at the Estate, we were watching TV and playing card games and having fun. With us was Hunter's friend from Russia, Andropov Zigfrids Yevgenievich. He is a male Russian from Russia, he is almost the same age as Hunter, has a broad nose, shorter Russian style mustache, a small goatee, purple eyes, black hair, wears a red shirt with red Cossack coat with yellow lines and trimmings, black pants, brown Ear Flap Winter Hat, Black Russian boots, and red Russian style socks, a black and brown belt. And has powers of Ice, Russian, Absolute Zero, and Earth Release.

Me: It's so awesome having you with us Andropov.

Andropov: (Russian Accent) Thank you comrade J.D. Comrade Hunter has told me so much about you.

Me: I'm sure he did. Also Russia is amazing. We've been there several times and it's a breathtaking country.

Anastasia: It sure is. Russia is very beautiful.

Andropov: Indeed it is. Also you have my sincerest of condolences for what happened to your family. The Romanov family was a very good family back 100 years ago.

Anastasia: Thank you Andropov.

Edwayl: (Breton Accent) I've read about what happened to the Tsarhood in Russia lads. It's not a pleasant sight what happened to them.

Me: No it wasn't.

Ben: Hey guys. Me, Leslie and Ashley are heading out to have some sibling bonding time.

Me: Okay. Have fun guys.

Sinestro: (to Ben and Leslie) I hope your sibling morning together is just as fun as Sora and Aqua's.

Leslie: We all will have fun.

Samus: Can we come with you guys?

Leslie: Sure.

We went with them.

We saw Leslie, Ben and Ashley having awesome sibling fun. First they went to the mall and they were shopping at so many different stores and they bought clothes, shoes, jewelry and so much more. It was a great shopping spree for them. Later they went to a really good restaurant. It was one of our favorite restaurants: Mario Bros. Spaghetti Bowl. Nintendo's Mario and Luigi are really good cooks as well as heroes of Nintendo that has smashed up Koopas for over 35 years and counting. He and Luigi make the best spaghetti in the city. They make all kinds of spaghetti dishes.

Me: (Slurps up noodles) Mmm. Good spaghetti.

Nico: I didn't know that Mario and Luigi are good pasta chefs as well as good game heroes.

Laney: They make really good spaghetti though.

Edwayl: It's delicious.

Andropov: Vkusno.

Me: Indeed.

Soundwave: So, are you three enjoying yourselves so far?

Leslie: We sure are.

Ashley: It's awesome.

Ben: We're having a lot of fun. Biologically I was an only child.

Gwen Tennyson: Same with me. But I think it's really cool that Leslie and Ashley are now members of our family.

Me: I agree Gwen.

Blaster: Leslie, do you have any ideas for a love interest?

Leslie: I haven't thought that far yet. But I will find someone.

Bart: It's a shame I can't have a brother.

Me: I know Bart. But you still have Sam.

Sam S.L.: I'll be your big sister Bart. I did save you from Jimbo, Dolph and Kearney.

Bart: You would be my big sister Sam?

Sam S.L.: I sure would and Simon can be your brother as well.

Simon: Sure Bart.

Bart was so touched.

He hugged them and started crying.

Everyone: Aww.

Me: That is so adorable.

Nico: It sure is. I'm so happy for them.

Luna: Me too.

Naruto: Yeah.

We later went to the arcade and Ben, Leslie and Ashley had a lot of fun on the Dance Dance Revolution game, Skeeball, Shooter games and so much more.

Later we went back to the estate and we had so much fun.

---

Later on the U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix we were flying over the lands of Atmos.

Me: Captain's Log, Stardate 2815.2: We are flying over the lands of Atmos to help the Storm Hawks on another adventure. We don't know what we're up against, but it will be big.

Stork: Remember, the deeper we go, the denser they get. Until finally… crunch!

Lily: You don't have to be so paranoid all the time Stork.

Laney: That's right.

Junko then sneezed.

Me: Bless you Junko.

Junko: Uh oh.

Maria: Wait. Junko, aren't you allergic to Murk Raiders?

Junko: I sure am. They are terrible people!

Junko told us about what they are.

The Murk Raiders are an infamous and murderous band of sky pirates who haunt the rocky, fog-filled reaches of Terra Deep. They eke out a living attacking and looting airships unlucky enough to run aground on the treacherous rock formations, and stalking any ships that manage to avoid them. The Murk Raiders answer to no one. The loot they steal is normally the crystals from the ships they capture and they will even steal crews and sell them for slavery which seems to be the main reason they are feared throughout the Atmos.

The Murk Raiders are lead by the infamous Captain Scabulous, patrolling the skies around Terra Deep for the unwitting ships that may stray there. The Raiders themselves use Energy Cutlasses fulled by purple Yarr Crystals. Amongst the crew is Eyeball, Captain Scabulous' first mate.

Unlike Cyclonians and the Raptors which choose one target and will keep pursuing that target until they win or they are forced away. Murk Raiders are oppurtunists who will change targets on a moments notice especially if another target is perceived to be more valuable.

(Para)Military Forces

The Murk Raiders own the sky ship "The Blood Crow", a highly modified craft that boasts a powerful sonic finder for hunting down other ships. The Blood Crow can run almost silently in it's "Stealth mode", simultaneously masking most of its own energy trail, while searching out prey with its sonic finder. Deep in the bowels of the ship are trapdoors for releasing highly explosive floating energy mines. These giant mines studded with explosive crystals are doom from above when discharged from the bowels of the Blood Crow. The large "teeth" at the front of the ship are used for holding trapped prey, when grappling hooks that can be fired from it's front have been attached to the prey.

Terra Deep home of the Murk Raider's

Oddly, but the "Blood Crow", despite being a flagship, isn't a biggest or most powerfull ship in Murk Raider's "navy". Under the leadership (or in alliance with) of the Captain Scabulous there were at least two truly humongous battleships, each dwarfing even the Cyclonian Destroyer. Those two ships had the same fundamental design as the "Blood Crow" (despite being at least twice as large) but lack the "teeth" and "jaws" at the front for the additional firepower.

Murk raiders also posses at least the small number of skimmers, but they use them only for reconnaissance and for attacks on objects that are not worth the engagement by the large ships, not for aerial battles.

---

Me: Whoa! These guys sound like they are really dangerous!

Aerrow: They are. Not nearly as dangerous as Cyclonians.

Varie: J.D. scans show that the Murk Raiders are not alone. I'm picking up over 400,000 more signals on radar.

Nico: I had to knock some sense into J.D.

Vanitas: Last time I checked, you guys are supposed to be fighting bad guys like us. Not each other!

Nico: J.D. made me his chief enforcer and I was told to clobber him should his anger get out of hand.

Vexen: I see.

Vanitas: That's understandable.

?: Then his anger is needed for me.

We then saw a new robot appeared. It was FLAME MAMMOTH from Mega Man X!

---

Flame Mammoth, known in Japan as Burnin' Noumander (バーニン・ナウマンダー Bānin Naumandā), is a boss in Mega Man X, a Reploid based on the Palaeoloxodon naumanni. Flame Mammoth was the leader of the Maverick Hunter's 4th Land Unit, and spent years fighting in the deserts of the Middle East. He had an arrogant and cocky attitude, and was extremely proud of his large size and strength. His tendency to look down on those smaller and weaker than him put him on bad terms with his subordinates, as well as highlighting the potential cause for the tension with Chill Penguin, one of the few higher-ranked members of the Maverick Hunters who refused to team up with him due to their tumultuous relationship. When Sigma became a Maverick, Flame Mammoth joined his uprising, seeing it as an opportunity to use his large size and power to go on full scale rampages of destruction. Sigma has him guarding captured factories, which he is planning to convert to produce weaponry.

Leader of the 4th Land Battalion, Flame Mammoth used to be stationed in the Middle East. Hearing of Sigma's rebellion, he dreamt of getting an even tighter grasp on his own potential power and of going on violent rampages, and decided to join the rebellion. He enjoys crushing and humiliating anyone weaker than himself and was hated by the Reploids who served under him. This is why none of his battalion followed him to join in the rebellion. He plans on letting his firepower do the talking, taking over an industrial area, and turning it all into weapons manufacturing.

Fire Wave

With an arm converted into a powerful flamethrower, it deals continuous damage to enemies. The only thing is, it can't be used underwater.

---

Flame Man: You're not like me and my fellow Robot Masters. Who are you? And where did you come from?

Flame Mammoth: I'm from the None of Your Damn Business Land! (shoots a stream of flames from his flamethrower at Flame Man)

Lola and Sam S.L. absorbed all the fire.

Nico: And I thought J.D. was the only one who said that.

Nicole: Flame Mammoth!

Flame Mammoth: That's right. I'm impressed that you know about me Nicole Knudson.

Nicole: Doesn't take a rocket scientist to know about you.

Laney: Lets get them!

They went at them.

Lana: Mind explaining where Flame Mammoth came from, Vexen?

Vexen: Look, I'm not going to spoil things for you. If you're that curious, go look up Flame Mammoth's history.

Lana kicked Vexen in the face and fired blasts of ice lightning at him and froze him solid and kicked him in the stomach and punched him in the face.

Spiderman kicked and punched Vanitas all over.

Spiderman: You sure have picked some new friends huh Vanny.

Vanitas: I get around.

Spiderman wrapped him in webbing.

Spidey: Seriously, you're not telling us where Flame Mammoth's from?

Vanitas: Why should we? You all can just look it up on your Supercomputer.

Vexen: But you can expect to face more like him in the future.

With that, Vanitas and Vexen walk through a Dark Corridor before it closed.

Ben: Lets see how he likes this!

Ben turned into a new predator called MUGHANCERO! It looked a lot like a big rhinoceros and he was blue and had 4 eyes.

Ben: MUGHANCERO!

Nico: Whoa! This is an awesome predator!

Shanan: Wow! That's a Ceratokero. They are Upgrade's natural predator.

Bella (Ben 10): Whoa! That is an amazing predator!

Riley: I didn't think that Galvanic Mechamorph's had predators.

Nico: Me neither.

Mughancero: Watch.

He fired a wave of lightning at Flame Mammoth and it immobilized him.

Nicole and the Megaforce Rangers fired blasts of energy and fire at Flame Mammoth and the blasts hit him and he exploded!

KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Nicole and all of us and me got Flame Mammoth's Fire Wave in our left arm devices.

Aerrow: That was amazing! (To the viewers) There's no stopping these guys. They are going to make Cyclonia pay for their crimes.

Nico: Not to brag but yes.

---

Back on Earth, I went to the Infirmary and I had an ice bag on my head and I was there to check on Carol.

Carol: Hey J.D.

Me: How are you feeling Carol?

Carol: Really sore. Nurse Maria says I'll be like this for about 3 weeks.

Me: Mechagodzilla really did a number on you. But the good news is you beat him.

Carol: But what happened to you? You have a huge lump on your head.

Me: Nico bashed me in the head with his club because my anger got the better of me. I told him to do that should that happen.

Carol: I see. That's right you made him our chief enforcer.

Me: Yep. But I just wanted to check on you and see how you were doing.

Carol: Doing good. I'll be back in action soon. Vince and my kids are checking on me and taking care of me.

Me: Good. Get some rest.

Carol: Will do.

I left the infirmary.

Carol was watching TV.

THE END

Another Awesome fanfic done.

The Murk Raiders from Storm Hawks were really fierce and ruthless and they were awesome! NicoChan11 and ArchangelOfJustice12 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is one of my favorite movies as we go after the bad celebrity Darla Dimple in the movie Cats Don't Dance. We're going to make that little pageant star pay with hard labor for hurting the animals.

See you all tomorrow.

Cats in Hollywood

In the neighborhood we were walking Rebecca as a Golden Retriever. She was really cute as a golden retriever. With us was another one of Hunter's friends from Scotland, Fletcher Connor, one year older than Bobby, has blonde hair, a small goatee, green eyes, broad nose, white shirt and blue and red Scottish Skirt or Kilt, blue scarf, black boots, carries a Bagpipe, wears a Scottish hat, grey cotton gloves, and has powers of Celtic, Earth, Water, Wind, and Scotland Release.

Shadow the Hedgehog: Well, Rebecca. We got to walk your daughter in her dog form. Now it's your turn.

Rebecca: Yep.

Me: It's really cool having you with us Fletcher.

Fletcher: (Scottish Accent) Aye. It sure is. Hunter told me so much about you lad.

Me: I had a feeling he did.

Merida: (Scottish Accent) Always a pleasure to have a fellow Scotsman with us.

Fletcher: Aye. Thanks lass. It's gonna be an honor working with you now.

Avril (Skylanders): (Scottish Accent) Aye. We're gonna be a great team.

Nico: Carol is all better thanks to Sora and his potions.

Vince: She sure is. I'm glad she's back in action.

Laney: Me too.

But then a net grabbed Rebecca and Nico caught the net and let her go. But Nico then recognized the dogcatcher!

Nico: Buster McMuttMauler!

Buster McMuttmauler: Its been a long time Nico. You have been doing well.

Bonecrusher: (to Nico) Boss, do you know this asshole?

Nico: I sure do. He's Buster McMuttmauler. He's the dogcatcher I told you about that nearly got Poromon and Poliwag.

Laney: Whoa!

Me: But I thought you were still in prison!

Buster McMuttmauler: I got out on parole.

Brawn: How about you pick on someone your own size and not someone who's tiny?

Me: Yeah!

Nico: Leave him to me. I got a score to settle with this clod.

Poromon: And me.

Poliwag: Count me in too!

Nico: You have messed with my friends for the last time McMuttmauler.

Fletcher: Show no mercy lad.

Nico: I plan not to.

Nico punched Buster in the face and Poromon pecked him in the crotch with his beak and Buster screamed like a little girl and Poliwag slapped his face with his tail and fired a bubblebeam blast at his stomach and blew him into the van he has.

Lincoln and Laney got the dogs out and they had saw that he had a box full of really expensive dog collars covered in valuable jewels.

Laney: Look at this. He had a lot of expensive dog collars.

Lincoln: So that's it. He took those dogs for their collars covered in jewels.

I came over and saw the collars.

Me: (Whistles) Very expensive collars. So that's it. He wanted to get the dogs just for these collars. He wanted to sell the collars so he could get rich.

Nico punched Buster in the face and kicked him in the crotch.

Laney: That's not all. Look.

We saw a wanted poster of Buster McMuttmauler. He was wanted for escaping from prison and doing the same offenses over and over.

Me: He busted out of prison and did these offenses more than once!? He's a repeat offender and a menace to society.

Laney: No kidding.

We got the dogs out and called the police.

Nico punched Buster in the stomach and Poromon pecked him all over.

Poromon: (Echoing) LIGHTNING JAVELIN!

He fired a blast of lightning from his wing and it hit Buster and electrocuted him all over with 5 billion volts of electricity. Nico punched Buster in the face and knocked him out.

Nico: Buster McMuttmauler, you have failed this city.

Me: Nice job Nico.

Fletcher: Well done lad.

Nico: Thanks guys.

Hay Lin: If a dog catcher is gonna show up whenever we walk a dog, then we shouldn't do it anymore.

Me: Good idea.

The police arrived and they arrested McMuttmauler. But this time they had him transferred to the Space Prisons. Because he was a repeat offender, he was sentenced to life in the Uranus Prison in Solitary Confinement.

Back at the estate we were watching one of my all time favorite movies: Cats Don't Dance. It was the last movie made with Gene Kelly.

---

In 1939, Danny, an optimistic young cat, dreams of Hollywood stardom, so he travels from his hometown of Kokomo, Indiana, to Hollywood in hopes of starting a career there. After meeting a new friend Pudge, Danny is selected by agent Farley Wink to feature in a film that is in production at Mammoth Pictures called Li'l Ark Angel, alongside Wink's secretary: A white cat named Sawyer. Upon joining fellow animals; Tilly, Cranston, Frances, and T.W., Danny is dismayed on learning how minor his role is and tries to weasel his way into more time in the spotlight. Danny winds up angering Darla Dimple, a popular, extremely spoiled child actress and star of the film, so she assigns her butler Max to intimidate Danny into no longer trying to enlarge his part.

Danny learns from the studio's mascot Woolly, that human actors are normally given more important roles than animals. He longs for the spotlight and tries to make a plan that will encourage humans to provide animal actors with better scenarios, such as by assembling a massive cluster of animals and putting on a musical performance for the humans.

Later, Danny is given advice by Darla through song on how to interest and satisfy audiences. He takes this information to heart and groups the animals for an audition on the Ark in hopes of attracting the humans' attention. However, Darla, fearing that the animals will jeopardize her spotlight, has Max help her flood the stage, while L.B. Mammoth, the head of Mammoth Pictures, and Flanagan, the film's director, are giving an interview, getting the animals blamed and fired for the collateral damage. The animals are depressed at being barred from acting in Mammoth Pictures (especially Danny, who was convinced by Darla that she was trying to help the animals). Woolly tells Danny to return to Kokomo. Later that night, everyone was at a diner, upset with Danny for ruining everything for them, while Sawyer sings a song about Danny trying to keep their dreams alive. Tilly overhears Sawyer singing and suggests Sawyer to follow Danny. Sawyer arrives to the bus stop, just seconds after Danny left, finding his hat and his to-do list behind.

However, after a comment from the bus driver and seeing Pudge wander the streets, Danny stops the bus and comes up with another plan. He secretly invites Sawyer and the others to the premiere of Lil' Ark Angel. After the screening and a battle with Max that sends him flying away on a Darla Dimple balloon, Danny calls the audience's attention. Upon bringing Sawyer, Woolly, Tilly, Cranston, Pudge, Frances and T.W. backstage to help Danny, the 8 animals put on a musical performance that entertains and impresses the viewers. Meanwhile, Darla tries to sabotage the show by tampering with the set and special effects equipment, but her attempts instead cause her to inadvertently enhance the performance.

Furious and fuming at the animals, Darla berates Danny, accidentally confessing to flooding Mammoth Studios when her voice is amplified over the theater's sound system thanks to a boom mic she had been tangled up with, revealing the truth about the incident to the audience, including L.B. and Flanagan. Darla tries to hide her true colors by smiling, hugging, and kissing Danny, but Pudge pulls a lever, sending Darla down a trapdoor. At last, the animals' demand for larger roles are met and their dreams are fulfilled after so long, Danny and Sawyer admit their feelings for each other.

We were watching the movie and it was so awesome! When it was done we saw a final message that said Dedicated to Gene Kelly, August 23, 1912 - February 2, 1996. It was a great movie.

Me: That was awesome!

Nico: It's amazing that those animals can do it all in this movie.

Me: No kidding. Gene Kelly made the Choreography for this movie. This was his last project he did before he died in 1996.

Vince: A really great project. It's too bad this movie was a flop though.

Me: I know. But it wasn't because of bad criticism. It was because of poor advertising and marketing. But this movie is what we call a cult classic.

Leni: OM Gosh! Is this movie from Satan!?

Lisa Loud: Leni no. It means that it has a big fan club despite being a box office bomb.

Nico: Right.

Lori: But it's literally amazing that this movie was that good.

Me: I know.

Carol: Gene Kelly was a really good dancer and a great singer.

Me: He sure was. Gene Kelly was widely known for singing the 2nd Greatest song of the 20th century: Singing In The Rain.

Nico: Nice.

Lynn Sr.: Oh! I love that song. Really a good song.

Lily: Very awesome.

Me: That's one of my dad's favorite songs from his past.

Lana: It's a really cool song.

Becca Chang: It sure is. Singing in The Rain was a great song back then.

Me: It was made in 1952.

Nico: Wow. Long ago.

Syd Chang: It sure is cool though.

Me: It sure is.

Aylene C.: But what that Darla Dimple did was absolutely terrible.

Rachel S.D.: No kidding. She is one of my favorite characters. But she is really a disgrace to child movie stars everywhere.

Lola: No kidding. She's a Shirley Temple gone bad.

Me: I know and Shirley Temple was an iconic legend in Child Movie stars back in the 1930's.

Vince: She sure was.

Me: Lets see what it says about her.

I pulled up Darla Dimple's info.

---

Darleen "Darla" Dimple, also publicly known to her fans as Darla Dimple, is the main antagonist of Warner Bros' 1997 animated film Cats Don't Dance. She is a child star who takes delight in animal bashing. She also has a colossal butler named Max, serving as her enforcer. She is Danny's main arch-nemesis.

She was voiced by Ashley Peldon, and her singing voice was provided by Lindsay Ridgeway.

A young orange tomcat by the name of Danny (the protagonist of the film), accidentally offends Darla by attempting to sing onstage during a production Darla is starring in. She becomes jealous and infuriated and throws an ugly temper tantrum in front of the entire film crew without any regret. She then calls in Max, who grabs Danny and intimidates him as a warning for what will happen the next time he crosses Darla's path. Later, Darla has seemingly forgotten her anger and even offers Danny advice on how to succeed in show business; this is meant to get him to drop his guard, as after this Danny is convinced that Darla wants to help all animals.

However, Darla's plan has unforeseen consequences, as her advice only results in him inspiring other animals to try to perform. Darla becomes worried that the animals will be successful, and hatches a plot: she has Max flood Mammoth Studios while the head of Mammoth Studios, L.B. Mammoth, and the film's director Flanagan are giving an interview, then frames the animals for the incident in the hopes of getting them all fired.

The animals get barred from acting at Mammoth Studios again, but end up putting on an impressive production anyway. During this show, Darla goes backstage in an attempt at sabotage, but her meddling only enhances the show and makes it more impressive while injuring herself in different ways; this ends with her pulling a large switch, which causes a fabulous fireworks display to end the show.

Now covered in wires, props, and bruises, she yells at Danny that she should have drowned him and the rest of the animals when she flooded the stage, unaware that a microphone has become attached to her head in the commotion and her confession has been broadcasted to the entire audience, as well as Flanagan and L.B. Mammoth.

Darla tries to save face by hugging Danny as she did earlier in the film, but Danny's friend named Pudge pulls a trapdoor lever and Darla falls through the stage. With her reputation now tarnished, Darla lost her job and is unable to get hired for any more acting roles. She is last seen serving as a janitor putting up posters for films with animals in the starring roles.

---

We gasped.

Me: Whoa!

Nico: I can't believe she is that dangerous! Darla needs a huge attitude adjustment.

Lola: No kidding. Darla is one of my heroes and she gives child movie stars everywhere a really bad name.

Naruto: She sure does.

Syd Chang: What she was doing was incomprehensible.

Lisa Loud: Affirmative.

Me: Lets head to the Simulator!

Everyone cheered.

We headed to the Simulator.

* * *

We got ready and went into the Simulator. The Simulator activated and we found ourselves in Hollywood in Los Angeles, California in 1939.

Me: Wow! Hollywood in 1939.

Nico: So this is what Hollywood was like back in the end of the 1930's.

Me: It sure is cool though.

Maria: Are we in a movie theater?

Me: We sure are. We're in the Entertainment Capital of The World and home to the biggest stars in Tinseltown.

Varie: It's amazing.

Lola: It's so cool!

Me: Lets find Danny and help him.

We walked around Hollywood.

We saw the greatest in the world. We also saw the famous Hollywood Sign. In 1923 it was built.

Jessie K.: Wow! There's the Hollywood Sign.

Me: Yep.

Bart: Springfield once had a sign like that. It was the Springfield Sign.

Nico: That's right. Springfield ripped off the Hollywood Sign.

Lynn: What do you think it would be like to be a star?

Me: Well as superheroes we already are stars. The newspapers, tabloids, news stories and people all over the universe talking about us, they are always talking about us.

Luna: But being a star in the movies is rockin'! But once you get the taste of fame, it's not gonna let you go dudes.

Me: That's right. Lots of big stars were affected by the price of fame and fortune. The tolls it puts on your mind is terrible. The news crews, the paparazzi and so much harassing from sponsors and endorsements and all that.

Syd Chang: That is really big.

Nico: That's the price you get when you enter the world of fame and fortune.

Me: Yep.

We went into a stage and we saw Danny Cat.

Me: Are you Danny Cat?

Danny Cat: Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm! It's such an honor to meet all of you.

Lola: Same to you Danny.

Danny Cat: What do you think of Hollywood so far?

Me: Really amazing place. Home of a lot of really amazing stars.

Lana: It sure is awesome!

Rachel S.D.: Really cool place.

?: HEY!

We then saw DARLA DIMPLE!

Me: Darla Dimple, I presume?

Darla Dimple: That's right. It's a pleasure to meet you all Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: What is your deal with animals not being in acting? They have rights too you know.

Darla Dimple: They don't deserve to be in acting! Only people deserve to act!

Cat: Hey! We are all stars! Me and Dog come from a world of Anthropomorphic animals and no one complained about us!

Sly Cooper: Same here.

Me: You are a mockery to the world of entertainment.

Then we heard huge footfalls and we saw Darla's big butler Max! We looked up and we saw that he was huge!

Me: Wow! You are a big and tall guy!

Max the Butler: (stares down at us menacingly) You've got a problem with Ms. Dimple?

Nico: (nervously) Umm… maybe?

The next thing we knew, we got thrown back out into the hallway.

Lynn: Ok. We need to fall back and think of a plan. One that doesn't involve us getting thrown back out here.

Me: Agreed.

Danny Cat: Yeah.

Me: Hmm.

I thought for a second.

Me: I have an idea.

I gathered everyone around and told them an awesome plan. First we had to get Max the Butler out of the way and we're going to tie him to lots of balloons and send him flying. Luan gathered all the balloons in the area and it was a lot of balloons. For a big guy like Max we were gonna need a lot of balloons.

Me: Awesome! That's perfect.

Luan: These will make him Float. (Laughs to rimshot) Get it.

Most of us laughed while everyone else sighed.

Me: (Laughs) That was a good one!

Eddy: (Laughs) Good one!

We got the balloons ready and we were going to attach them to a bind launcher.

Me: Lets do it.

We went up to the stage and got Max and Luan fired the balloons and tied them around him and he was floating in the air and he was off into the sky.

Piper: Have fun on the balloons, Max!

Me: Now we can get Darla.

Danny Cat: Yeah!

We went into the stage and I fired a wave of light and it separated the dark side of Darla Dimple and out came DARK DIMPLE!

Me: You are free of your dark side Darla.

Darla: Thank you thank you thank you!

Shiv and Waffle Woman then appeared.

Lynn: Shiv!

Tara: Waffle Woman!

Lynn: Are you eating popcorn right now?

Shiv: (eating popcorn) Got it from the snack bar. You should really check it out.

Me: Hollywood does have a lot of good snack bars.

Shaggy: Like oh boy!

Shaggy and Scooby went to the snack bar.

Waffle Woman: Tara, if you're still traumatized about Slade, then instead of powers, you and I can fight each other with our fists.

Tara: I'm much better now. Thanks for your concern though.

Waffle Woman: You're welcome.

?: And don't forget me.

We then saw a figure come out and it was TURTLECON from episode 18 of Time Force!

---

Turtlecon, like all other mutants, was created as a result of chemical accidents at genetic enhancement facilties. Before the events of the season, he was captured by Time Force and frozen in the Cryo-Prison. Turtlecon was later released by Ransik to help him defeat the rangers. An intelligent mutant, he had the ability to teleport things wherever he wants. He teleported Nadira to Hawaii to test his powers and then went to attack the city, taking some people as hostages. When the Rangers arrived, Turtlecon teleported them to his dimension and created evil duplicates of the Rangers. The Rangers had to fight their evil twins, but the evil rangers were even stronger than them. The Rangers used their Vector Weapons to fight the duplicates, making a hole to their dimension. Turtlecon patched up the hole, but not before Wes and Jen could escape. Trip, Lucas and Katie were left behind and continued to fight the evil rangers. Circuit created a plan to free their friends and defeat Turtlecon. Jen came back to the pocket dimension while Wes remained in the original world. Wes and Jen shoot from their blasters from different sides to one place of the dimension's wall. Trip, Lucas and Katie were freed from the pocket dimension, the evil rangers were destroyed and Turtlecon was brought out of his dimension, prompting him to enlarge himself and the Time Force Megazord Mode Red. He even made a duplicate of the Megazord and made it fight against the Rangers. The Evil Time Force Megazord was eventually destroyed by the Time Force Megazord Mode Blue and Turtlecon was finally defeated and frozen by the Shadow Force Megazord Mode Blue. Trust and Triumph

---

Jen Scotts: Turtlecon!

Turtlecon: Long time no see Rangers.

Me: I remember you! You sent the rangers to your dimension inside you and battled their evil selves inside you.

Turtlecon: That's right. You watched me and everyone on TV huh?

Me: Never missed an episode. But out of all the mutants that Ransik sent, you were the smartest one of them all.

Turtlecon: I appreciate that vote of confidence.

Me: Don't get used to it.

Turtlecon: Oh, don't worry about teleporting to another planet, J.D. Because you and the Quantum Ranger are going to take a one way trip to my pocket dimension. And my duplicate Rangers will keep you company!

With that, Turtlecon teleported me and Eric Meyers to his pocket dimension.

Nico: Oh no! We'll get you out of there J.D.! But it is just like on TV.

Taylor Earhart: It sure is.

Nico: Lets get them guys!

Jake Holling: The bigger they are, the harder they fall!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Dino Thunder!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Dino Thunder Rangers.

They went at them.

---

Battle 1: TURTLECON!

---

Me and Eric Myers were inside the pocket dimension of Turtlecon. It was a dark and really foreboding place.

Me: Wow! We're inside Turtlecon. Just like on TV.

Eric Myers: So this is what the Time Force Rangers saw inside him.

Me: It's amazing though.

Then we saw the evil counterparts of the Time Force Rangers.

Me: Whoa! The Evil Time Force Rangers.

Eric Myers: Not good.

Me: Lets get them Eric.

I powered up and went Super Angel-Ebonwu 100,000 Elemental Moonlight Phoenix.

Me: This is so awesome! It's like I'm living an episode of Time Force.

Eric Myers: It sure does feel that way huh?

The Evil Time Force Rangers fired laser blasts at us and I deflected all the blasts back with my sword and sent them back at them and they hit them and the ground exploded.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBBBBOOOOOOMMMM! KRABBBBBOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!

Eric Myers: Okay.

We blasted all the sides of the dimension and it hit the walls and exploded.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMM!

Turtlecon got a nasty case of indigestion and he belched us up and we were back on the outside again.

Me: That was so awesome!

Eric Myers: It sure was.

Nico: J.D. are you and Eric all right?

Me: We're fine buddy. But it was like we were living episode 18 of Time Force. It was a really awesome experience.

Nico: Boy it must've been amazing.

Eric Myers: It was.

Taylor Earhart: Eric!

Eric Myers: I'm all right Taylor.

Me: Lets finish this creep.

Taylor Earhart: With pleasure! WILD ACCESS!

She turned into the Yellow Wild Force Ranger!

Me: Lets do it!

Eric fired his Quantum Blaster and Taylor fired a blast of energy from her Crystal Saber and I fired a blast of moonlight fire.

Me, Eric Myers and Taylor Earhart: QUANTUM MOONLIGHT EAGLE BLAST!

The blasts combined and turned into an eagle of pure moonlight fire and energy and it slammed into Turtlecon and he fell down and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

He was reduced to the size of an action figure and Notacon removed his seal patch that enables him to grow.

Notacon: You're not growing on our watch.

Me: Great job Notacon. I'll handle this one.

Notacon: Okay.

I pulled out a capsule and put Turtlecon inside it.

Me: Plenty of stuff to do where you're going.

Nico: Turtlecon, you have failed this world.

Taylor Earhart: He sure has.

Eric Myers: But that was a great job guys.

Me: Thanks Eric. We're not done yet. Lets help the others.

Nico: Right.

Lynn was facing Shiv.

Lynn: You really like the food here in Hollywood huh?

Shiv: I sure do Lynn. It's some of the best.

Lynn: They don't call Hollywood the home of the biggest stars in Tinseltown for nothing. Have you always wanted to be a movie star before the Big Bang happened?

Shiv: Not really. I don't think I would be able to handle the stress of the fame and fortune.

Lynn: I don't blame you. But we know a lot of famous people. Shall we dance?

Shiv: Lets shall. By the way, thank you all for letting us know about Quimby. I just can't believe he was that dangerous.

And bed beneath the birken tree
The bush that hid him on the plain
There's none on earth can claim but he
And whene'er i hear the blackbird sing
Unto the e'ening sinking down
Or merl that maks the woods to ring
To me they hae nae ither soun'
And will ye no' come back again?
Will ye no' come back again?
Better lo'ed ye canna be
Will ye no' come back again?
And mony's a gallant sodger fought

And mony's a gallant chief did fa'

And death itself were dearly bought

A' for scotland's king and law

Sweet the lav'rock's note and lang

Lilting wildly up the glen

In the Ceres Prison, we were walking through the halls and we were there to visit the Quahog pervert Glenn Quagmire. With us was another one of Hunter's friends. Her name is Atchara Paireerak, a Girl almost older than Dana from Thailand. She has emerald green eyes, roman nose, straight eyebrows, black hair tied in a ponytail, white tank top with a red jacket with yellow stripes, blue jeans with a black belt, wears Thai handmade shoes, and has powers of Fire, Lava, Magma, Water, and Thailand Release and is an excellent expert of Taijutsu, Karate, Kung Fu, and other Martial Arts.

Atchara: (Thai Accent) It's an honor to be with you all J.D.

Me: Same to you Atchara.

Atchara: Hunter has told me so many wonderful things about you all. He is a true friend to you all as well as a great teacher.

Nico: He sure is. Hunter has taught us so much about Germany and all of the world.

Edwayl: (Breton Accent) That's right lads.

Fletcher: (Scottish Accent) Aye. He has. So what is the reason we're here at the Ceres Prison?

Me: We're here to have Joe and Cleveland confront Quagmire after everything that happened with Joe Quimby.

Qin: I just can't believe that Quagmire is that perverse. He is a disgrace and monster and a mortal enemy to all women everywhere.

Me: That's what we call him Qin. He's the enemy of all women everywhere.

Nico: Yep.

Joe Swanson: I just can't believe that the man we know was once our best friend.

Cleveland: I know. It's really shocking.

Nico: Yeah.

Karai: (Japanese Accent) It's awful that Quagmire is like that. He has no honor when it comes to women.

Laney: No he doesn't.

We arrived at Quagmire's cell.

Karai: Hello, Quagmire. We have some things we would like to discuss with you.

Quagmire: Great! What are you here to yell at me for this time?

Rikki Chadwick: Oh, this one we found out recently.

Joe and Cleveland came up to him.

Joe Swanson: We need to have a talk Quagmire!

They went over everything that happened with him.

Glenn Quagmire (born Glenn Quagglechek) is a major character on Family Guy. He is characterized primarily by his extreme sexual deviancy. He is a major character from Season 1 to Season 7, an anti-hero/anti-villain from Season 8 to Season 9, and a major character again from Season 10 onwards.

He is voiced by Seth MacFarlane.

Quagmire has an extremely perverted and provocative nature, is a user of women, a probable rapist, possible pedophile, necrophile, and zoophile. Throughout the series, Quagmire has been shown to be madly in lust with Lois Griffin. However, all of his attempts to get her attention have failed, usually foiled by Peter and/or Brian. Quagmire is also an antagonist in Seasons 8 and 9 and at the same time he is also a supporting character of those seasons. In those said seasons, he has a deep hatred towards Brian. Since Season 10 onwards his hatred towards Brian has lessened and almost every time they interacted together, they remained neutral to each other.

During the series, Quagmire had sex with Cleveland's wife, Loretta Brown. When the truth was eventually revealed, Cleveland wanted revenge on Quagmire. In the end, the two made amends and remained close pals, despite the fact that this led to Cleveland and Loretta's divorce.

In "Blind Ambition", Quagmire was arrested for trying to watch Lois Griffin use the restroom.

In "Jerome is the New Black" Quagmire unintentionally revealed that he had a starving woman tied up in his basement. This is one of the many examples of his horrible character. Strangely, despite all of this, Joe Swanson has done nothing to stop him even though he is a cop.

In "Movin' Out (Brian's Song)", he killed the entire Simpson family after trying to have off-screen sexual intercourse with Marge. This was a deleted scene.

Claims he has "complied with Megan's Law", suggesting he has a record of statutory rape.

Possibly engages in necrophilia. In "I Take Thee Quagmire" he asked Death to leave Joan's body with him "for another 5 minutes", and in a DVD-only scene in "Airport '07", he is shown jumping half-naked out of a coffin.

Although Quagmire normally has a soft side for animals (cats in particular), he harbors a seething hatred of Brian Griffin. Quagmire despises everything about him, but has told Brian that he could forgive him for everything if he wasn't "such a bore."

Quagmire has even physically assaulted Brian for unintentionally sleeping with his sex-changed father. His hatred for Brian is pure hypocrisy, due to the fact that two of the reasons he hates Brian is that he constantly hits on Lois and ignores his son, but the fact is that Quagmire stalks Lois and he has ignored many more children than Brian.

It was eventually revealed that the reason for Quagmire's vicious actions toward women is because of a heartbreak from his one true love - Cheryl Tiegs. Ever since she dumped him, Quagmire has been dating women in an attempt to fill the void she made. Quagmire also noted that famous actor James Woods stole Tiegs from him, causing Quagmire to develop a hatred for Woods. Brian then went on a date with Tiegs in order to spite Quagmire after his education in Quagmire's class caused a woman named Denise to dump him. In retaliation, Quagmire tries to go out on a date with Brian's ex-girlfriend Jillian Wilcox, but this leads to a fight between Quagmire and Brian, prompting both Jillian and Tiegs to dump them, believing that both Quagmire and Brian have no respect for either of them or any other women, later Quagmire nods to Brian to tell him he can get into the car for a passage to home, but after leaving he leaves him alone, but returns to invest him with the car.

Quagmire also has sexual interest in Meg Griffin. The most notable case is in "Meg and Quagmire", where Quagmire attempts to "move in for the kill" now that Meg has reached her 18th birthday. He slowly gains Meg's affection, and then eventually drives her to his cabin in the woods, where he attempted to have sex with her. Peter and Lois managed to stop him in the nick of time.

While on The Bachelorette, Quagmire notably attempted to commit date rape by drugging his date Brooke's drink and attempting to drag her body to another location, only to take off with one of her shoes when he realized their date was being filmed. Later, when Brooke chooses him to progress further during the elimination round, a surprised Glenn makes a confession about the attempted date rape, though he denies it when Brooke asks him to confirm what he said.

In "Hannah Banana", when Chris was trying to prove that the Evil Monkey exists, he set up a camera to see what happened that night.

One of the events he captured was both Peter and Quagmire placing his hand in a bowl of water, causing Chris too piss his pants. Quagmire then proceeded to punch Chris in the eye before they left his room.

In "Valentine's Day in Quahog", he kicks a woman out of his house after a night of sex, and she swears he will get what he deserves. Quagmire is then shocked by the woman's hair straightener (which he called her "electric tampon warmer"), which makes everyone see him as a woman. Then he decides to taken advantage of this to manipulate women who have been hurt by men to take solace in him.

In "Brian's a Bad Father", he shoots Peter in the head (after Peter had shot him) so that they can return being friends again.

And now just recently, he was hired by Joe Quimby to steal all of Quahog's money, rendering the town totally bankrupt.

---

Everyone in the prison was shocked, including us!

Scavenger: You had sex with Loretta Brown's corpse?! What the fuck's wrong with you?!

Quagmire: I was promised 1,000 women!

Me: You are a fucked up pervert!

Bart: Wait a minute! I didn't know he had sex with mom!

Lisa Simpson: He made mom cheat on dad!?

Homer: YOU MONSTER!

He went up to Quagmire!

Homer: WHY YOU LITTLE!?

He was strangling Quagmire.

I broke them up.

Me: Homer let us handle this.

Quagmire: I don't know why you're even defending Brian anyway. He had sex with my dad!

Huffer: He didn't know that it was him! Or her! Whatever gender your dad is right now!

Me: Also everything Brian said was completely justified.

Qin: What did Quagmire say to him that would cause him to hate Brian?

Me: Really hurtful things.

Brian: I have it all right here.

Brian played a tape and it had his conversation he had with Quagmire at a restaurant.

Quagmire: (On a tape) "You are the worst person I know. You constantly hit on your best friend's wife, the man pays for your food and rescued you from certain death, and this is how you repay him? And to add insult to injury, you defecate all over his yard. And you're such a sponge. You pay for nothing, you always say "Oh, I'll get you later," but later never comes. And what really bothers me, is you pretend you're this deep guy who loves women for their souls when all you do is date bimbos. Yeah, I date women for their bodies, but at least I'm honest about it. I don't buy them a copy of "Catcher in the Rye" and then lecture them with some seventh grade interpretation of how Holden Caulfield is some profound intellectual. He wasn't! He was a spoiled brat! And that's why you like him so much, he's you! God, you're pretentious! And you delude yourself by thinking you're some great writer even though you're terrible. You know, I should've known Cheryl Tiegs didn't write me that note. She would've known there's no "a" in the word "definite." And I think what I hate most about you is your textbook liberal agenda, how we should "legalize pot, man," how big business is crushing the underclass, how homelessness is the biggest tragedy in America.

Well, what have you done to help? I work down at the soup kitchen, Brian. Never seen you down there! You wanna help? Grab a ladle! And by the way, driving a Prius doesn't make you Jesus Christ! Oh, wait! You don't believe in Jesus Christ or any religion for that matter, because "religion is for idiots!" Well, who the hell are you to talk down to anyone? You failed college twice, which isn't nearly as bad as your failure as a father! How's that son of yours you never see? But you know what? I could forgive all of that, all of it, if you weren't such a bore! That's the worst of it, Brian. You're just a big, sad, alcoholic bore!"

Joe Swanson: He said all that to you Brian!?

Cleveland: Man that is really low.

Me: It sure was.

Atchara: No kidding.

Hunter: (German Accent) Ja. Und even I am not like that.

Nico: Yeah.

Me: Brian said the exact same thing to him the last time we were here and he put him in his place.

I walked up to Quagmire and glared at him and I had a look of pure hatred directed right at him. My eyes were red like blood and slit and they had fire burn in the sclera.

Me: I don't know how many women you have fucked around with but you are by far the worst human being that has ever walked the face of the planet. You make me sick.

Joe Swanson: As far as I can tell Glenn Quagmire, you are dead to us.

Cleveland: Our friendship is over.

Nico: Kiss my ass, pedophile!

Me: And suck my fucking ass dickchewer.

We left the prison and I flipped the bird at Quagmire.

---

Later we were over in a small suburb near Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

Me: Wow! We're in Pittsburgh.

Nico: Amazing place.

Nick F.: You guys will love this place. The food is really good. The Phillie Cheesesteak Sandwiches are so good.

Me: And Pittsburgh has a lot of history that dates back to the 1700s. It's a Revolutionary War city.

Lisa Simpson: I've always wanted to come to one of America's historical cities.

Me: Who wouldn't?

Varie: I have no idea.

Edwayl: Me neither lads.

Fletcher: Aye.

Nico: So what is the reason why we are here?

Me: My scans have shown strange abnormalities in the Moon's orbital position and a huge energy spike has been coming from the school here. So we're here to investigate.

Nico: Okay.

?: Psst.

Me: Huh?

We looked around and we saw a kid with a red cap in a treehouse and he had his friends with him and he signaled for us to come to him.

We went there and went in.

T.J.: Nice to meet you, J.D. But keep your voice down. My parents don't know about what we're doing right now.

Me: Right.

T.J.: Sorry I'm T.J. Detwiler.

Vince LeSalle: I'm Vince LeSalle.

Spinelli: Ashley Spinelli. But you can call me Spinelli.

Gretchen: I'm Gretchen Grundler. It's an honor to make your acquaintance.

Mikey: Mikey Blumberg. It's an honor.

Gus: And I'm Gus Griswald. It's an honor.

Me: Pleasure to meet you all. So what is going on?

T.J. told me that something was going on at the school. Their Principal Pete Prickley somehow got dematerialized and they have a huge laser in the school auditorium and the school is also heavily guarded by a lot of guards and people.

Me: Boy it's a good thing we got here. Something really big is going on.

Gretchen: Look, I know you guys like to bust into bad guys recklessly. But just this once, can you please help us sneak into the school without anyone seeing us?

Me: Don't worry. We don't even know what's going on yet. But we'll find out soon. Here's what we do.

We went over the plan and it was to sneak into the school by going in through the air vents on the roof and see what they are planning. If we are caught, T.J. will show us what is going on with a special camera button linked with my arm device and if the guards try and catch us, I will kill them.

T.J.: That's a good plan J.D.

Me: We will find out. But whatever is going on in the school it can't be anything good.

I cocked my gun and we were ready.

Me: Lets do it.

We went to Third Street School and got onto the roof. It was like a mission from Mission Impossible. Nico and everyone else were told to wait until I give further instructions. We crawled through the vents and stayed quiet.

Me: (Whispering) Follow me guys.

We crawled through the vents until we got to the auditorium. In the main room we saw a bunch of high tech computer devices and consoles and screens and we saw the laser.

Me: Wow. Look at all that stuff. Very advanced.

T.J.: (Whispering) What do you think it's all for?

Me: Lets listen.

We saw a man talking and it was former Secretary of Education DR. PHILLIUM BENEDICT!

---

Dr. Phillium Benedict is the main antagonist of the 2001 Disney animated film Recess: School's Out!, and arguably the overall main antagonist of the entire Recess series, despite not appearing in it.

He is the former principal of Third Street Elementary School and former Secretary of Education. He is also the former best friend of current principal Peter Prickly, the ex-boyfriend of current groundskeeper Muriel Finster, and the founder and head of the Anti-Recess Legion.

He was voiced by James Woods, who also played Hades in Hercules, Falcon in Stuart Little 2, Gloomius Maximus in Rolie Polie Olie: The Great Defender of Fun, Captain Ahab in The Adventures of Moby Dick, and Martin Walker in White House Down, and Ned Trent in The Specialist.

Prickly, Finster, and Benedict went through teacher training when they were young and were close to each other, even Finster entered into a love relationship with Benedict. Starting up in his first year as principal of Third Street Elementary during the spring of 1968, Benedict plotted to abolish recess in order to keep students in their classes to raise test scores and further his career. However, the plan did not seem to work well to anyone in campus (including Prickly and Finster), and all of the students felt miserable after Benedict put his no-recess policy into action.

As a result, many of the parents laid down a protest against the school, demanding that recess be reinstated. Despite the protests, Benedict refused to give up his anti-recess policy, which forced Prickly to report to the Superintendent about the situation. Though the Superintendent assured the parents and teachers that Benedict's policy will never be carried out in the district, Benedict still refused to back down, leading the Superintendent to demote Benedict and promote Prickly as the new principal.

Benedict then assumed that Prickly turned his back against him to get the job as principal, despite Prickly's insistence that he never intended anything of the sort. Benedict refused to listen and broke up his friendship with Prickly, leading a disgusted Finster to finally end her relationship with Benedict for his rude and obnoxious behavior towards Prickly and his hatred of recess.

Upset over this loss, Benedict angrily swore revenge against Prickly and quitted teaching. During the next 30 years, Benedict went into politics, and was eventually appointed U.S. Secretary of Education. 2 years prior to the film's events, Benedict exploited his position in an attempt to abolish recess on a nationwide scale, but this was foiled by the President, who saw through the plan and dismissed Benedict for it.

Having failed at his latest attempt to get rid of recess after being sacked from his job, Benedict founded the Anti-Recess Legion and plans to get rid of the biggest recess of them all: summer vacation.

Taking Over Third Street Elementary

After stealing a tractor beam from a U.S. military base, Benedict, his chief of security and second-in-command Kojak, his head scientist Professor Fenwick, and his henchmen (composed of agents, ninjas and scientists) took over Third Street Elementary School and used it as their home-base, since it was closed for the summer and was the last place on Earth that the authorities would look for the equipment. He also rigged the lock of the school to shock and teleport anyone carrying the keys into the school in case someone did actually attempt to investigate, and he also ordered Kojak to pose as Prickly just to ensure no one got suspicious after the real Prickly was taken hostage. He also had Fenwick and the scientists conduct frequent tests at the school involving miniature tractor beams in the auditorium, one of which T.J. Detweiler (the protagonist of the film) accidentally witnessed while fuming about how his summer was going (since all his friends were at separate summer camps). He also had the auditorium altered to be the main control room for the tractor beam.

Benedict later claimed Prickly's office as his main office, which was fitting due to being a former principal. As the plan progresses, Benedict eventually had Dr. Rosenthal detained after the latter's attempt at moving the moon shut down unexpectedly due to bugs in the system and promoted his assistant to that position. Shortly afterwards, T.J. and his gang ended up being forced to expose themselves due to Mikey having an unexpected and uncontrollable urge to belch, as well as the vents giving way to their weight. Benedict angrily orders his henchmen to seize the children, and though the gang manage to escape, T.J. was captured and imprisoned along with Prickly in the stock room. There, Benedict introduces himself and explains to both Prickly and T.J. that he was running a "night school", though they're not convinced. He eventually learned that T.J. and Prickly had managed to sneak into his office and found his walkie talkie, although not before T.J. alerted them that Benedict's plan was to get rid of summer vacation after stumbling on a mural (presumably painted by Benedict himself and/or his men) depicting the end of summer vacation.

The next day, Benedict summoned Prickly and T.J. back into his office as their detention, where he explained how he planned to accomplish his goal: on Lunar Perigee (the time when the Moon's closest to the Earth on orbit), he will fire the tractor beam at the Moon to alter its orbit with the intention of causing the entire Earth to freeze over into a new ice age and eliminate summer, thus eliminating summer vacation. Disgusted with what Benedict was planning, T.J. told him that he won't get away with it, but Benedict is confident that he can't be stopped even if anyone else knew about this before having both T.J. and Prickly locked up in a cage to prevent them from interfering. They soon manage to escape since Prickly swiped Benedict's keys while he wasn't looking and he and T.J. start their mission to save summer vacation.

Fighting Against the Students and Staff

Meanwhile, Vince, Gus, Spinelli, Gretchen and Mikey gathered up all of the students from the various camps to help rescue T.J. and Prickly and reclaim the school. Evidently under pressure of time as well as the kids' resistance, Benedict slowly lost his cool and started barking orders at his remaining henchmen to make the necessary preparations, including getting a back up generator after Gretchen sabotaged the fuse box. Even when Prickly and the students managed to enter the auditorium to stop him, Benedict confidently had more guards arrive. He then explained to the students that his main motivation for this was because the top three highest countries in the world with test scores - Canada, Iceland, and Norway all had cold climate, which meant that they could not play ball, so the only other method in his mind was for the students to stay inside and study (and also implied that he may potentially be elected President of the United States and be hailed as a hero should he succeed) so that they do not have summer vacation (which, in truth, they most certainly do). However, T.J. counters this by stating that the kids can do lots of fun on a cold climate, such as a snowball fight or camping in igloos. Despite this, Benedict still planned to eliminate summer vacation once and for all, much to everyone's horror

However, before he could fully activate the tractor beam, Finster arrived to the rescue, much to both Prickly and the students' delight. Witnessing this, Benedict was pleased to see her and begged

Finster to return to him, but she refused by saying that she rather eat playground dirt instead of letting him destroy summer vacation. Angered by Finster's rejection, Benedict swore to make her eat her words, only to see that Finster brought all of the teachers and staff to help Prickly and the students stop Benedict and his men for good. Being at the end of his wits, Benedict furiously orders his men out to kill the students and teachers. Everyone fights Benedict's henchmen for justice.

As the moon was about to enter Lunar Perigee, in a last-minute attempt, Benedict pushed his second-in-command scientist away as he personally attempted to fire up the tractor beam. Prickly attempts to stop him, but Benedict holds out his taser and teased him to fall asleep and be late for celebrations. Prickly tricks Benedict and say there's a spot on his necktie. Benedict looks down to inspect as a distraction, only for Prickly to punch him in the face. Despite this, Benedict still managed to activate the tractor beam after slumped by Prickly's punch, and Prickly was unable to reverse the process because it stuck. Benedict gloated on the imminent success. Fortunately, T.J. tosses his lucky baseball to Vince and had him aim it at the reactor core, destroying the tractor beam and the machine, much to Benedict's distraught. Gazing of what's left of the destroyed machine, Benedict yells out in agony over the failure of his plans. The students, teachers and staff all cheer in victory for defeating Benedict and saving summer vacation.

Defeat and Arrest

With his plot exposed and foiled by the students and teachers, Benedict and his henchmen ended up being arrested by the police. As Benedict is being hauled into a police car, he furiously tried to protest that he was a former Secretary of Education, only for the policeman to silence him by sarcastically responding that he was the "former Princess of Morocco". It can be implied that Benedict and his cohorts will be sent to prison and serve a long sentence or a lifetime sentence for their crimes while the students and teachers of Third Street Elementary are declared heroes by the public for saving summer vacation.

---

Me: I know that man. That's former Secretary of Education Dr. Phillium Benedict.

Gretchen: (Whispering) What is he doing here?

Me: Shh. Lets listen.

Dr. Phillium Benedict: We have a thing called the 'window of opportunity'. If we miss the window of opportunity, then the project fails! And if the project fails, then I get very… very… ANGRY!

Fenwick: But they may have a point, sir. It seems the logistical problems are a bit more complicated than Dr. Steinheimer thought!

Dr. Steinheimer: Yes, it would be a lot easier if we could move the laser to a more appropriate location.

Dr. Phillium Benedict: This operation will be executed as planned from RIGHT HERE! Have I made myself clear?!

Dr. Lazenby: But, sir-

Dr. Phillium Benedict: NO BUTS! It started at Third Street, it is going to END at Third Street!

Gus: (Whispering) Wonder what he's gonna do.

Me: Lets find out.

We also saw that Firefly and Hydro Man were with them.

Me: There's Firefly and Hydro Man. Wonder what they are doing here.

Firefly: So, Benedict. How do we know this machine won't end up destroying the planet and us with it?

Dr. Phillium Benedict: I've already discussed that with Dark Spicer. If the machine gets close to causing the Earth's destruction, he'll just have Alien Ξ fix it. Simple.

Hydro Man: (sighs) Well, if you say so.

We saw them activate the laser and it went up and fired at the Moon and we saw them move it somehow.

But then the laser was malfunctioning and it clicked off and stopped.

Dr. Phillium Benedict: Dr. Rosenthal, why did the beam suddenly… oh, what's the technical word for it… stop?!

Dr. Rosenthal: Well… as I believe you were told before-

Dr. Phillium Benedict: Told before? Do you think I care what I was told before?

Dr. Rosenthal: Please, sir! I-I-I'll do better next time.

Dr. Phillium Benedict: "Next time"? Isn't that cute? Rosenthal, let me ask you something. Say you were a teacher-or even better say… the principal of a school, and you had to deal with a delinquent student, a naughty child who didn't know his place, who kept telling you over and over that he'd do better next time… but he never did. What would you do?

Dr. Rosenthal: Oh, no… not detention! Not DETENTION!

Dr. Phillium Benedict: TAKE HIM AWAY!

Dr. Rosenthal: No, please! I can fix it! DON'T DO THIS TO ME!

They took him away.

Dr. Phillium Benedict: Alright, who's second in command? (all the other scientists take a step back, pointing to Rosenthal's assistant)

Thick Glasses Scientist: Uh, I am, sir.

Dr. Phillium Benedict: Well, good, now you're in charge. And if I were you, I'd make sure I had this machine working at full power by tomorrow morning. DO I MAKE MYSELF CLEAR?!

Thick Glasses Scientist: Y-Y-Yes, sir!

Dr. Phillium Benedict: Awww dear, I got spittle on my lapel.

Me: Whatever they are gonna do with that ray is not good.

Mikey: Uh oh.

T.J.: What is it?

Mikey: I've got that feeling T.J.

Spinelli: Hold it in big guy! Hold it in!

Mikey: I can't!

I covered his mouth and he belched into my hand.

Me: Close one.

But then the vent buckled and fell and we rolled down.

Me: Ow! Uh oh.

Dr. Phillium Benedict: Fenwick, who let children into the school?

Fenwick: Uh not me sir.

Dr. Phillium Benedict: WELL GET THEM!

The alarm sounded!

Me: RUN!

We ran fast and I pulled out my gun and I was shooting guards left and right. Blowing their heads off and killing them.

---

Me: Okay T.J. remember the plan.

T.J.: Right!

---

We saw ninjas with them!

Me: Ninjas! Feudal Japan was over 300 years ago assholes! LIGHTNING STYLE NINJA ART: THUNDER FUNERAL!

I fired three blasts of lightning and incinerated the ninjas into ash.

We went out through a door and they grabbed T.J. as the door closed.

Gus: T.J.! T.J.!

Me: We'll worry about him later! Lets get out of here!

We ran fast.

* * *

Later in a closet, T.J. was thrown in and he found Principal Prickly tied up and gagged.

T.J.: Principal Prickly! You're alive!

He pulled the tape off his mouth.

Prickly: OW! Will you be careful?!

T.J.: Boy am I glad to see you sir! You won't believe what these guys are doing in the auditorium. They've got this big laser gun and… (Sees that Prickly doesn't have his pants.) Whoa. Who took your pants?

Prickly: Never mind Detwiler. Just untie me.

He tried to untie him.

Later Dr. Phillium Benedict came in.

Dr. Phillium Benedict: Hello, Pete. Remember me?

Prickly: Well, well. If it isn't Phillium Benedict. I should've known you'd be the one behind all this!

T.J.: Principal Prickly, you know this guy?

Dr. Phillium Benedict: Pete and I are old pals. Although the last time we saw each other, Pete was the one ruining my life. By the way, Pete, you like this suit? It's Italian. Raw silk. Nice, huh?

Prickly: Yeah, you always were more concerned about appearances than people, Phil.

Dr. Phillium Benedict: Oh, Pete, come on. There's no need to be rude. Not after I instructed my men to take such special care of you.

Prickly: Special care? That's what you call gagging me, tying me up and taking away my pants?

Dr. Phillium Benedict: Had to, Pete. Otherwise, you might run off and betray me, like you did the last time. But, hey, look at the bright side. At least you've got company now.

Prickly: Let the boy go, Phil. He can't do anything to you.

Dr. Phillium Benedict: Same old noble Pete, always standing up for the rights of children. But, unfortunately, I can't let anybody go right now. You see, this experimental night school that I'm running is kind of a secret. I'm trying to show that my adult students can be trained to be capable and productive members of society.

T.J.: Oh, yeah?! Well, if you're just running a night school, then what's that giant laser gun doing in the auditorium?!

Dr. Phillium Benedict: What a rude and badly dressed little boy you are. You know, you should teach your pupils a little respect for their superiors, Pete. But that would mean that you'd have to know how to teach them anything at all, wouldn't it?!

He left.

T.J.: Geez how do you know that jerk?

Principal Prickly: How do I know him? We went through teacher training together.

T.J.: You mean?

Principal Prickly: That's right Detwiler. That man is a rogue teacher.

We was listening in on my device through the Camera.

Me: So he's a rogue teacher.

FLASHBACK - 1968

The flashback takes us back to the end of the Woodstock 1969 era. It was a groovy time back then.

Principal Prickly: (Narrating) It was back in the spring of 1968. A different time, a different age. We were all young, idealistic and ready to change the world.

The 3rd Street School Bus came and it was full of Tie-Dye designs, flowers and peace signs. The kids came off and so did young Muriel Finster.

Young Muriel: Peace Peter!

Young Prickly: Hey Muriel. Had a groovy time at the dead concert last night.

Young Muriel: Say you gonna be in at the teach in Saturday? We're gonna paint my Volkswagen.

Young Prickly: Wouldn't miss it for the world!

Young Muriel: Groovy!

Prickly: Yes we all thought we were pretty cool. But one guy was the coolest of us all.

Young Phillium Benedict drove up in a nice motorcycle.

Prickly: Phillium Benedict was my best friend. He was smart, he was handsome and he had just been named Principal of Third Street School.

Young Phillium was quite the babe magnet back then.

Young Prickly: So Phillium old pal, how does it feel being the youngest principal in the history of the state?

Young Phillium: Coopasthetic baby. I mean you know what they say "Young is in man and old is out." Way out. By the way do you like the American Flag helmet Pete? I mean it does go with the leather jacket am I right?

Young Prickly: You are one Groovy educator Phil.

Young Phillium: Cool. Follow me my man. I want to show you my new principal's pad.

They went into the principals office and it was decked out with stuff from the 60's.

Young Prickly: Whoa! Psychedelic Pricipalia.

Young Phillium: Pull up a bag bro. I want to rap.

Young Prickly sat in a bean bag.

Young Prickly: Lay it on me man.

Young Phillium: You see Pete, I'm been thinking. We're a new generation of teachers right? It's time we kinda shook things up a little.

Young Prickly: I hear ya brother. In fact, dig this. I was meditating to that new Robbin Sean Carra album last night when I got this righteous motion. What if we hold all our classes outside on the playground? Imagine. School, Recess, no boundaries.

Young Phillium: Hey baby that's a hip idea but Pete, I got a better thought here. As my first official act as principal I've decided to get rid of recess.

Young Prickly was shocked by this!

Young Prickly: What!? No recess!? But Phil for a kid, recess is like a major playin. It's the one time of day they have any freedom.

Young Phillium: Look, Pete, the 60s are over. All that peace and love and freedom stuff… sure, yeah, it was great for picking up chicks, but it's not gonna help my career! To do that, I gotta make test scores go up, and to make test scores go up, I gotta keep kids in class where they belong. That's why, starting tomorrow, I'm tuning out recess… once and for all.

Prickly: Needless to say Phillium's plan didn't go over all that well.

The teachers later were on strike because of Phillium's decision to cancel recess.

Young Phillium: Be cool, people. Be cool. You're bumming my mellowness here.

Female protestor: We'll be cool when you give our kids their recess back!

Young Phillium: Hey, baby, I'll do what I want, 'cause I'm the principal of the school, and there's nothing anyone can do about it. Dig?

The teachers were outraged. But little did Phillium know that Prickly went to the district superintendent to try and convince Phillium to reconsider.

The Superintendent came.

Superintendent: People, people! Please calm down. Mr. Prickly here has informed me of this No Recess proposal. Let me assure you that as long as I'm superintendent, this radical plan will never be carried out in this district.

The protestors cheered.

Young Phillium: Hey man you just don't get it!

Superintendent: Of course I do Benedict. That's why I'm replacing you.

Young Phillium: What!?

Benedict was demoted.

Superintendent: Prickly from now on you will be principal.

Young Prickly: Who me!?

Young Phillium: Oh I see what's going down here, you tricked me! Went around my back to the man to get my job!

Young Prickly: No Phil, it's not like that at all!

Young Phillium: Yeah right! Come on Muriel baby, lets blow this scene.

Young Muriel: No Phil! It's over. I can never be with a man who doesn't love recess.

Young Phillium: So you're against me too. Well fine. (ENRAGED) I DON'T NEED YOU! I DON'T NEED ANYONE!

He fell down.

Young Prickly: Phil, you okay man!?

Young Phillium: DON'T TOUCH ME! You took my chick… you took my job! Well enjoy it while you can, Petey boy, 'cause you're gonna pay! Somehow, someway, you're gonna pay!

Phillium had sworn revenge.

FLASHBACK ENDS

Prickly: I never saw Phillium again. He quit teaching and went into politics. Eventually he became Secretary of Education. Until the president fired him for trying to get rid of recess again. Only this time it was nationwide.

Me: Now I remember why that happened.

Later we went and checked a box of documents and stuff T.J.'s friends found earlier.

Me: Lets see what we got here.

Gretchen: Lets see. Weather maps, some stuff in Norwegian, a Farmer's almanac. There must be something in here that'll explain what that Dr. Benedict is doing.

Me: Whatever it is it's not good and it involves that laser and the moon.

Nico: Yeah.

Spinelli: Well I'll tell you one thing he's not doing: He's not have lunch tomorrow at 12:22 with his little girlfriend. (Laughs)

Bart: (Laughs) I like it.

Mikey: Spinelli, that's the man's personal date book!

Spinelli: Well it's mine now. And I guess Ms. Luna Pergum is gonna be waiting at the restaurant all by herself.

Gretchen: Who did you say?

Spinelli: The girl whose name is in here, Luna Pergum. Must be some Italian chick.

Gretchen then realized what was happening!

Gretchen: Lunae Perigeum! Of course!

Me: The Supermoon Paradox?

Vince LeSalle: What are you talking about Gretchen?

Gretchen: Don't you understand? Lunae Perigeum is no lady. It's an event. Look.

She pulled out a device and showed us the orbit of the moon.

Gretchen: Once a month, the Moon reaches the point where it's closest to the Earth, Lunar Perigee. Which in this case happens to be 12:22 tomorrow afternoon.

Me: That's 14 hours from now.

Gus: Hey maybe that's when that doctor guy is gonna shoot his laser beam at the moon and blow it up.

Gretchen: Close Gus. But I have another theory. See when I was up at Space Camp, I observed strange abnormalities in the Moon's position. I couldn't figure out what was causing it. But now it all makes sense. Dr. Benedict's device is not a laser beam at all. It's a tractor beam!

Me: Like the beams you see in Science Fiction Films?

Gretchen: Exactly. You see, theoretically if a powerful tractor beam were shot at the moon exactly at Lunar Perigee, it could move the Moon into another orbit.

Vince LeSalle: Move the Moon? But why would anyone want to do that?

Me: And the ecological ramifications from such a diabolical action will have tremendously devastating effects on the entire planet.

Nico: No kidding. But what are they planning to do with a tractor beam like that?

Me: We'll have to find out later.

Later the next day, Principal Prickly and T.J. got caught and we were listening on him.

Dr. Phillium Benedict: A confiscated walkie-talkie. Why do you do those things to me, Pete? Do you enjoy tormenting me? Do you hate me?

Principal Prickly: I don't hate you, Phil. I just think you're insane!

Dr. Phillium Benedict: (chuckles) Insane. Well, there you go again, Pete. Insulting me, hurting my feelings, just like 50 years ago. Only this time, Petey, I'm ready. You see, all those years, no matter how big I got, no matter how successful… I always thought about you… HOW YOU EMBARRASSED ME! HOW YOU HUMILIATED ME! HOW YOU DESTROYED MY RELATIONSHIP WITH MURIEL FINSTER, THE ONLY WOMAN I EVER LOVED!

T.J.: That part still grosses me out sir.

Principal Prickly shushed him.

Dr. Phillium Benedict: This time, Pete, I'm gonna humiliate you! This time, I'm gonna prove to the world that you were wrong and I was right!

Prickly: About what?

Dr. Phillium Benedict: About RECESS! About freedom, about test scores! I found a way to prove my theory. I'm gonna get rid of the biggest recess of them all: I AM GONNA GET RID… OF SUMMER VACATION!

We gasped!

T.J.: YOU FIEND!

Dr. Phillium Benedict: Fiend. Well you try to help people, that's the thanks you get.

Prickly: It will never work Phil.

Dr. Phillium Benedict: Well actually Pete, that's where you're wrong. (Benedict presses a button and a holographic globe and moon rise up from the floor) You see, all I have to do is modify the moon's orbit ever so slightly… and tide levels on the Eastern Seaboard rise eight feet! Move the moon over here, and the currents that warm California suddenly become ice cold! Summer, as we know it, will become a thing of the past. And without summer… (The globe diagram grows icicles. T.J., us and Prickly gasp in horror.) no summer vacation.

T.J.: You'll never get away with this, Benedict!

Dr. Philium Benedict: Oh, yeah? Well, who's gonna stop me?

Me: This is bad guys! This is REALLY bad!

Nico: He's going to plunge the world into Eternal Winter!

Vince Pusateri: He's going to destroy the entire planet!

Varie: Millions of innocent people will die!

Laney: We'll all freeze to death!

Me: It will be the end of the world as we know it!

Lisa Loud: And all this just to keep children inside and studying!? We have to stop him at all costs!

Me: We're gonna need a lot of help for this one! (To Vince LeSalle) Vince, you and everyone else go get all of your friends and everyone that attends this school. We're gonna need all the help we can get.

Vince LeSalle: Right! Lets go.

They were off.

We got all of our forces ready and we were ready. We all were on the roof.

Mikey: (stops us from charging in) Wait. What's Firefly doing?

T.J.: It looks like he's doing something to the machine.

Maria: Let's wait a few minutes. We'll bust in after he finishes his work.

Me: Okay.

We saw that he was placing charges on the devices around the Tractor Beam.

Muriel Finster smashed through the window of the roof and landed in front of them.

Muriel Finster: Hey! Teacher! Leave them kids alone!

T.J.: Ms. Finster!

Dr. Phillium Benedict: Muriel… it's you… you're still a vision of loveliness.

Finster: Yeah? And you're still a two-bit recess-hating pretty boy!

Dr. Phillium Benedict: That hurt, Muriel, but I'll forgive you if you just come back to me.

Finster: HA! I rather eat playground dirt!

Dr. Phillium Benedict: THAT can be arranged, my dear!

Finster: Not before I take you down.

Dr. Phillium Benedict: Take me down?! Yeah, right! You and what army?!

Finster: Me and THIS ARMY!

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMM

A massive fiery explosion blasted through the roof and a phoenix cry was heard and we landed in the Auditorium ready to fight!

Me: Someone call?

Dr. Phillium Benedict: Team Loud Phoenix Storm!? Why are you here?

Me: What else? To stop you from destroying the planet. You are not making the world a better place. You are gonna kill millions of innocent people by having them freeze to death!

Nico: That's right! You and your extremist views end here Benedict!

Benedict: Where the Hell are my guards?!

Gretchen: They're taking a nap.

Me: Some of them are dead because we killed them!

Firefly: I knew that was you J.D. I didn't expect to see you here.

Hydro Man: Yeah.

Me: So we have seen.

?: Don't forget me.

A figure came out and it was MAD MACKEREL from episode 20 of Dino Thunder!

---

Marty Mackerel was an actor in the famous children TV show Funky Fisherman show. The show was favorite show of Ethan when he was a kid. Marty had difficult relationships with Funky Fisherman, the quarrelsome host of the show. Marty practiced Happy Fish dance and met Kira and Devin, who were taken as interns to the show. He greeted them and told them not to worry about problems in their work. He was then called by his angry boss, who wanted herb bath. Marty wished luck to young people and left. Marty, Funky Fisherman and other members of the show started TV program and program was watched on TV sets. People sang their song and Marty danced his Happy Fish dance. Elsa, Trent and Zeltrax also watched the program and Elsa decided to capture Marty and turn him into the new monster. Elsa attacked the studio with Tyrannodrones and battled Kira. The Yellow Ranger tried to stop the villains, but she didn't manage to do so. Elsa mistakenly zapped Funky Fisherman into the TV set and kidnapped Marty. Villains brought Marty to the lair of Mesogog. Marty tried to talk with them, saying that he was impressed by their costumes. Tyrannodrones placed him into Geno-Randomizer and transformed him into the new monster Mad Mackerel, who is a bonito/olive/fishing rod monster. Marty's personality extremely changed in the new form. Mad Mackerel was a cunning and sneaky monster. Mad Mackerel then attacked Reefside and used his fishing rod to turn citizens into bait balls and put them into his bag to lure the Power Rangers. Rangers arrived and battled Mackerel. Mad Mackerel could fire projectiles in the form of fishes. He also used his fishing rod in battle, by capturing heroes, but rangers broke it. Then he left. Then Mackerel returned and again started capturing people, by using new fishing rod. Ranfers arrived and again battled Mackerel. Kira tried to talk to Marty, but Mackerel said that he is no longer Marty. Tommy used a special device, created by Hayley to deflect Mackerel's beam at the TV set, freeing Funky Fisherman. Kira then took away Mackerel's bag, freeing his captives. Rangers then used Z-Rex Blaster and defeated the monster, who tried to escape. Elsa used Hydro-Regenerator and enlarged Mackerel. Rangers formed Thundersaurus Megazord and fought Mackerel. Mackerel striked Megazord with his hooks, but rangers used Thundersaurus Megazord's Ankylo Drill and Parasaur Final Cut to finally defeat Mackerel and destroy Geno-Randomizer's configuration. Marty returned to normal and became friends with Funky Fisherman.

---

Kira Ford: Mad Mackerel!

Mad Mackerel: Its been a while rangers.

Me: I remember you! You were originally an actor of famous kids TV Show Funky Fisherman until Mesogog mutated you into this freak!

Mad Mackerel: That's right. Watched us on TV huh?

Me: Never missed an episode.

Mad Mackerel: Then you know about what I can do.

Mad Mackerel just turned Lana and Luan into bait balls.

Eddy: Luan!

Mad Mackerel: (picks the two of them up) This is almost too easy!

But then the Bait Balls exploded and they reverted back in an explosion and blew Mad Mackerel down.

Hydro Man: Sorry, Maria! But you're not absorbing me again! Vypra made some improvements to my powers so I won't fall victim to the same trick twice.

Maria: I figured that.

Gia: Sorry, buddy! But this time, School's Out!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Ranger J Platoon!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Battle Field J rangers from 1979 and they blasted Mad Mackerel and he fell down and exploded in a huge fiery explosion.

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Mad Mackerel was dead.

Me: We have much bigger fish to fry.

(SCHOOL'S OUT BY ALICE COOPER PLAYS)

Me: Lets get them!

We went at Firefly, Hydro Man and Benedict.

---

Battle 1: Firefly

---

Lola was facing Firefly. His helmet appeared like Iron Man's did.

Lola: How'd you get your helmet to appear like that?

Firefly: I made some adjustments after Vypra recruited me. Think of it like how Iron Man makes his helmet appear.

Lola: That's really genius. Lets dance.

They went at each other an Lola fired blasts of fire and Firefly did the same and the blasts exploded.

KRABBOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!

Lola kicked him in the face and knocked him down.

---

Battle 2: Hydro Man

Luna was facing Hydro Man.

Luna: You have some really big issues dude.

Hydro Man: I know. But lets do this.

Luna: With pleasure.

Luna powered up and punched him and fired a blast of water and it slammed into Hydro Man and knocked him down and she kicked him in the stomach and punched him in the face and punched him in the stomach and knocked him out.

Battle 3: Dr. Phillium Benedict

Next we were facing Dr. Phillium Benedict.

Me: We won't let you destroy the world Benedict!

Dr. Phillium Benedict: I'm saving our kids by making them become better people!

Me: By freezing the planet and killing millions of innocent people!? That's total genocide!

Nico: That's right! Plunging the planet into an eternal ice age will render Earth completely uninhabitable! You're going to kill the entire human race!

Vince: That's right!

Earth: We won't let you do that!

Dr. Phillium Benedict: I will go through with it and you won't stop me!

Me: Yes we will!

I punched him in the face and kicked him in the stomach!

Nico punched him in the back of the head and kicked him in the face and Laney tangled him up in vines and slammed him into some tables. He got up and pulled the lever for the Tractor Beam. But just as it was about to fire, Firefly pulled out a remote detonator.

Firefly: Yippee-Ki-Yay motherfucker.

He pressed a button on it and the consoles all exploded into fiery explosions.

KRABBBBOOOOOOMMM! KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOMMMM! KRABBBOOOOOMM! KRABBBOOOOOOMMM! KRABBBBBOOOOOOOMMMM!

The consoles were completely destroyed and reduced to burning rubble and the tractor beam collapsed and was destroyed and turned into scrap metal!

Me: It's over for you Benedict!

The guards came at us!

Girl Jordan: This is from me to you! SOLAR STYLE: ANGEL OF SOLARIS!

Girl Jordan formed wings of pure solar plasma and she flew at the guards and incinerated some of them in an instant.

Me: Whoa! That was awesome!

Girl Jordan: Watch this one! SOLAR STYLE: SOLAR FLARE RASENGAN MISSILE BARRAGE!

Girl Jordan fired blasts of solar plasma and they turned into Rasengan blasts and they slammed into more guards and exploded with incredible power and incinerated them in powerful explosions.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOMM!

Nico: Wow! That was powerful!

Girl Jordan: Watch this. SOLAR STYLE NINJA ART: SUN RAYS OF RA!

Girl Jordan fired beams of concentrated sunlight and they cut a bunch of guards and bisected them in half and killed them.

Me: Whoa! That was lethal!

Lana: Really awesome!

Girl Jordan: Try this one. SOLAR STYLE NINJA ART: TURKISH WAR OF INDEPENDENCE!

Girl Jordan fired a wave of solar fire and it turned into the soldiers of the Turkish War of Independence from 1919 to 1922 and they slashed and blasted the guards all over and incinerated them in an instant.

Me: Whoa! That was the army of the Turkish War of Independence!

Jessie K.: That was the war that turned Constantinople into Istanbul. It was a very big war that brought Turkey its freedom.

Hunter: Ja. Big war back then.

Me: Yep.

Girl Jordan: Watch this one. SOLAR STYLE NINJA ART: SPEAR OF SOLARIS!

Girl Jordan formed a spear made entirely out of Solar Plasma and she threw it and it skewered a bunch of guards and incinerated them in an instant.

Me: Whoa! That is so awesome!

Luan: That really Burns you up! (Laughs) Get it?

Me: (Laughs) That is a good one Luan!

Eddy: (laughs) Good one!

Girl Jordan: Watch this one! SOLAR STYLE: SOLAR ARROW BARRAGE!

Girl Jordan formed a bow of pure fire and she had lots of arrows made of solar fire ready and she fired them all over the place at the guards and skewered many of them and incinerated them all over.

Me: Nice shooting G.J.!

Girl Jordan: Thanks J.D. Here's the biggest one. SOLAR STYLE NINJA ART: MEGA-CANNON OF THE SUN!

Girl Jordan had a ball of energy in her hands made of solar fire and she fired a massive blast of Solar fire and it obliterated many guards in an instant.

Me: Whoa! What power!

Nico: That was intense!

Lily: No kidding! Awesome!

Atchara: Watch what I can do. THAILAND STYLE NINJA ART: KINGDOM OF THAILAND!

Atchara formed a blade of energy that turned into the Flag of Thailand and it fired a blast of energy that turned into the beautiful landmarks of Thailand and they slammed into many guards and killed them in powerful explosions.

Me: Whoa! That was awesome!

Nico: So cool! I've seen all those places in Thailand. Those are so awesome.

Atchara: Watch this one. THAILAND STYLE NINJA ART: ANGKOR

WAT!

Atchara formed a ball of energy that turned into the famous temple of Cambodia, Angkor Wat and it fired three powerful laser blasts of Red, Blue and White light and they hit many guards and exploded and blew them away.

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!

Me: Whoa! That was the famous temple Angkor Wat.

Jessie K.: That was a beautiful temple in Cambodia. It was built back in the 12th century by the Khmer empire. Very beautiful temple.

Lisa Simpson: That temple is said to be the most beautiful temple in all of Southeast Asia.

Me: Yep.

Atchara: Watch this one. THAILAND WOOD STYLE NINJA ART: SANCTUARY OF TRUTH!

Atchara stompled the ground and it rumbled and then the entire school transformed into the beautiful Thailand Sanctuary of Truth.

Me: Whoa! This is amazing!

Lisa Loud: What amazing architecture and beautiful craftsmanship.

Me: Atchara transformed the whole school into a replica of the Sanctuary of Truth from Thailand. It's a breathtaking work.

Hunter: Ja! Vunderbar.

Edwayl: This is amazing lads.

Laney: This is so breathtaking!

Atchara: Try this one. MAGMA STYLE NINJA ART: BLOBS OF MAGMA KICK!

Atchara had volcanic magma form around her feet and she kicked numerous guards and incinerated them in blasts of fire.

Ben: SLIVEBOMB!

Me: Whoa! That one looks like a pterodactyl.

Shanan: Wow! That's another one of Wildvine's predators. It's called a Skull Crested Ayunghasphern. They rip their prey apart with those talons and have incredible speed.

Dr. Phillium Benedict: All my plans, my hopes and dreams… ruined… RUINED!

Sam Manson: You're going to the big house for a long time.

Me: For eternity.

Then the FBI bursted in and arrested all of Benedict's men and Scientists and Benedict himself for Attempted Terrorism. The world was saved thanks to us and T.J. and all of his friends.

Dr. Phillium Benedict: Get your hands off the suit, you CLASSLESS FEEB! I am the former SECRETARY OF EDUCATION!

F.B.I. Agent: Yeah, yeah, and I'm the former Princess of Morocco. Get in the car!

William: (to Firefly and Hydro Man) Did you two have something to do with the machine shutting down by itself?

Firefly: (innocently) We don't know what you're talking about.

Maria: (laughs) You sly dogs! You actually did sabotage it, didn't you?

Firefly: (chuckles) Okay. You got us. But despite Benedict saying that he talked to Dark Spicer, we couldn't take the chance.

T.J.: Thanks. We really owe you guys one.

Hydro Man: Don't mention it. (he and Firefly teleport out)

Me: That was really crafty of them. T.J. everyone, I'm very proud of all of you for everything you did.

T.J.: Thanks J.D. It was so awesome helping you.

Vince LeSalle: It was an awesome experience.

Nico: You all did a great job. The entire school did a great job.

Gretchen: Thanks Nico.

Me: How about we all go out and get some Cheesesteaks? My treat.

Everyone cheered.

We went to an awesome Philly Cheesesteak Sandwich restaurant. Everyone in Third Street School now views T.J. and his friends as awesome heroes.

Sam Manson: (To the viewers) Never mess with equipment that rightfully belongs to the government and never be like Benedict.

Phillium Benedict and his men were found Guilty of attempted Terrorism, Theft of Government Property, Kidnapping, Conspiracy, Breaking and Entering and trespassing. They were all sentenced to 9,982 life sentences in the Neptune Prison for Traitors without any hope of release.

THE END

Another Awesome fanfiction complete!

I have known the movie Recess School's Out ever since I saw it in the movie theaters in the year 2001 and it was so awesome! It was just absolutely awful at what Phillium Benedict was gonna do to the world. But we stopped him. James Woods did a great job voicing him though. This chapter was made as a tribute to Jason Davis, the Voice actor of Mikey Blumberg who died 2 months ago from a drug overdose. Really sad.

R.I.P. Jason Davis - October 14th, 1984 to February 16th, 2020. You will always be remembered.

NicoChan11 and ArchangelOfJustice12 gave me the ideas for this one. Thanks guys. Awesome ideas. Next up is another awesome sea adventure in the world of Pirates of The Caribbean as we journey to kill the ruthless Blackbeard and stop him from getting immortality in Pirates Of The Caribbean: On Stranger Tides and we're going to take on the dark side of the legend of the mermaid as well as take down the evil Blackbeard - Scourge of The Seven Seas.

See you all tomorrow.

Easter & Pirates

HAPPY EASTER 2020 EVERYONE

---

At the estate, we were all celebrating Easter. Today was April 12th, 2020 and it was also Easter Sunday.

Poromon, Manaphy, Poliwag, and Horsea: HAPPY EASTER, EVERYBODY!

Me: And Happy Easter to all of you.

We were getting ready to celebrate Easter. With us was another one of Hunter's awesome friends. His name is Maverick Wiseman, a man of from Canada, almost younger than Lynn Jr. He has brunette hair, sky blue eyes, roman nose, unibrow, wears a red and white shirt with a red maple leaf symbol on it, brown leather jacket, blue jeans with a black belt, red Baxter's state winter coat, brown boots, and has powers of Ice, Water, Wind, Wood, and Plant Release.

Me: It's a pleasure to have you with us Maverick.

Maverick: (Canadian Accent) It's always wonderful eh. Everyone up in Canada can't stop talking about you for bringing that bastard Billy McLean to justice.

Me: Yeah that was a big day for us.

Gwen (Total Drama): It's always a pleasure to have a fellow Canada man with us.

Maverick: Same here Gwen.

Laney: Easter is such an amazing holiday.

Lincoln: It's so amazing Laney. I like Easter because of the food and the Easter Egg hunts.

Lori: Literally so adorable.

The doorbell rang.

Me: I'll get that.

I went to the door and answered it and it was all of the Masters of Evil.

Dark Spicer: Hey guys.

We saw all of the Masters of Evil.

Me: Uh oh.

Vypra: We're not here to fight. We're here to celebrate the holidays with you.

Lana: Really?

Vypra: That's right. We have new rules. We're not gonna fight you all on the 8 major holidays.

Me: Ah. Want to join in on the festivities.

Vypra: Yep. Alright. There's going to be a new rule regarding the Holidays. All members of the Masters of Evil are not to commit any crimes on New Years', Valentine's Day, St. Patrick's Day, Easter, Independence Day, Halloween, Thanksgiving, and Christmas.

Dark Spicer: Anyone who does commit a crime on those days will be punished by death.

Me: Wow. Good rules.

Bright Man: (to the Springfield Scumbags) That probably includes you guys as well.

Skinner: Yes it does.

Comic Book Guy: Worst… Rules… Ever.

We saw a new member of the Springfield Scumbags. It was Chief

Wiggum.

Me: Chief Clancy Wiggum?

Chief Wiggum: That's right. I'm now part of the Springfield Scumbags.

Me: But chief, Mayor Quimby fabricated all those laws to make Springfield a dangerous place.

Chief Wiggum: I know.

Danny: The rule that was just made reminds me of the Ghost Zone truce.

Katara: Is that even still applied every Christmas?

Danny: Yes it is.

Vortex: Now that things have been established for every holiday, what Easter activity should we do first?

Me: Lets have breakfast and then an Easter Egg hunt.

Gears: This time, we get to focus on celebrating Easter.

Qin: Boy this is my first ever Easter with you guys.

Nico: It sure is Qin. You never celebrated Easter with us because you weren't with us back then.

Me: That's right. Back then you were uh… You know.

Qin: Yeah I was still Scalebreath and roaming the streets. But it's cool now.

Me: We were doing our Earth Day charity week back then and it was so awesome.

Nico: We sure were. That was a big week for us.

Principal Skinner: That is a very amazing deed. I can see why the Power Plants are all covered in domes and the city is all plants.

Me: Yep. Also I take it you heard about what Quimby was doing to the entire Springfield school system right Principal Skinner?

Principal Skinner: I sure did. It's awful what he was doing. No wonder our school system had such a bad budget and minimal supplies and all that.

Bart: I know. And Seymour I'm sorry for all the pranks I was pulling. The reason I was doing all of that was because I was venting out my anger from all the abuse and overprotection from mom.

Principal Skinner: Aw it's all right Bart. But to tell you the truth, I've missed your pranks. They were really funny.

Bart: Thanks Seymour.

Later we were having a delicious breakfast. We were having Spiral Ham and lamb and eggs. Jared and Lisa Simpson were having salads and fruit.

Me: Delicious spiral ham Mr. Lynn.

Lynn Sr.: Thanks J.D.

Nico: It's really delicious.

Mr. Burns: Exquisite.

Qin was watching Mr. Burns like a hawk to make sure he doesn't try anything funny. Knowing Mr. Burns he would've tried something.

Maria: Vypra, how were you able to find archenemies for the Loud Kids?

Vypra: Well, when I found out about how you all fought the Revenge Squad in that Scooby Doo computer game, it inspired me to have Dark Spicer restore Ebon, Leonard, Firefly, Vexen, Electro, Bane, Shiv, and Hydro Man.

William: And what inspired you to have Dark Spicer restore Webstor and King Hiss?

Vypra: The fight against Hawk Moth and those Sentimonsters. Meta Knight and Sideshow Bob did say that the Sentimonsters were like a new version of the Revenge Squad. Nico's fight against the Digimon Emperor also helped for inspiration of my secret project.

Me: Wow. So you watched many of our battles long before.

Vypra: Exactly.

Edna Krabappel: Seymour, Bart has been the closest thing to a son and I love him like a great mother.

Seymour: I can see that. I'm happy for you.

Krusty the Clown: So J.D. I heard you made some changes to all my sandwiches and food.

Me: I sure did Krusty. Turns out I found out that they were made with all kinds of dangerous chemicals and stuff. So I made them better by using all natural ingredients.

Krusty the Clown: I'm happy kid.

Sophie Krustovsky: I'm glad I get to enjoy Easter with you daddy.

Krusty the Clown: Aww I'm happy for you sweetie.

Me: Aww. Selma & Patty, why do you hate Homer?

Selma: Because he is a bad influence on Marge.

Patty: That's right.

Lana: How come your voices are so raspy?

Selma: We smoke a lot and it is what causes it.

Bart: Wow.

Lisa Simpson: How is cousin Ling doing, Aunt Selma?

Selma: She's doing good Lisa. She's with Maggie right now.

Maggie had Ling with her.

Maggie Simpson: Oh Ling you are so cute.

Ling cooed.

Me: She is so cute. I remember you adopted her in China.

Laney: China has a lot of Orphans over there.

Homer: But it was really cool seeing China.

Me: China has over 12,000 years worth of history. It's an amazing place.

Qin: It sure is.

Nataša: (Czech Accent) It sure is an amazing place.

Lincoln: Yep. We all went on an awesome Worldwide Adventure and saw every part of the planet.

Edwayl: (Breton Accent) That is amazing lad.

Atchara: (Thai Accent) Really amazing.

Fletcher: (Scottish Accent) Aye. That is amazing wee laddie.

Lincoln: Thanks.

Later after breakfast we had an awesome Easter Egg Hunt and then we were watching one of the most gut-wrenching movies of all time: The Passion of The Christ.

---

In the late hours of the night at the forested garden of Gethsemane, at the height of his cause, Jesus prays while his disciples Saint Peter, James, son of Zebedee James, and John the Evangelist sleep. While he prays in seclusion, Satan appears to Jesus in an androgynous form, and tempts him, stating that no one can bear the burden that God asks of him: to suffer and die for humanity's sins. Jesus' sweat turns into blood and drips to the ground while a serpent emerges from Satan's guise. Jesus hears his disciples call for him, and rebukes Satan by crushing the snake's head.

Judas Iscariot, another of Jesus' disciples, having received a bribe of 30 pieces of silver, leads a group of temple guards to the forest and betrays Jesus' identity. As the guards arrest Jesus, a fight erupts wherein Peter draws his dagger and slashes the ear of Malchus, one of the guards and a servant of the high priest Caiaphas. Jesus heals Malchus' injury while reprimanding Peter. As the disciples flee, the guards secure Jesus, and beat him during the journey to the Sanhedrin.

John informs Mary, mother of Jesus and Mary Magdalene of the arrest, while Peter follows Jesus and his captors. Magdalene begs a passing Roman patrol to intervene, but a temple guard assures them that she is insane. Caiaphas holds trial over the objection of some of the other priests, who are expelled from the court. False accusations and witnesses are brought against him. When asked by Caiaphas whether he is the Son of God, Jesus answers "I am". Caiaphas tears his robes in outrage and Jesus is condemned to death for blasphemy. Peter is confronted by the surrounding mob for being a follower of Jesus. After cursing at the mob during the third denial, Peter flees when he recalls Jesus's forewarning of his defense. A guilt-ridden Judas attempts to return the money he was paid in order to have Jesus freed, but is refused by the priests. Tormented by ghosts and demons, he flees the city and hangs himself.

Caiaphas brings Jesus before Pontius Pilate to be condemned to death, but at the urging of his wife Claudia, who knows of Jesus' status as a man of God, and after questioning Jesus and finding no fault, Pilate transfers him to the court of Herod Antipas, as Jesus is from Antipas' ruling town of Nazareth. After Jesus is found not guilty and returned, Pilate offers the crowd the choice of chastising Jesus or releasing him. He attempts to have Jesus freed by the peoples' choice between Jesus and violent criminal Barabbas. The crowd demands Barabbas be freed and Jesus crucified. Attempting to appease the crowd, Pilate orders that Jesus be severely flogged. Jesus is then scourged, abused, and mocked by the Roman guards. They take him to a barn where they place a crown of thorns on his head and tease him saying "Hail, king of the Jews". A bleeding Jesus is presented before Pilate, but Caiaphas, with the crowds' encouragement, continues demanding that Jesus be crucified. Pilate washes his hands of the affair, and reluctantly orders Jesus' crucifixion. Satan observes Jesus' suffering with sadistic pleasure.

As Jesus carries a heavy wooden cross along the Via Dolorosa to Calvary, Saint Veronica a woman avoids the escort of soldiers and requests that Jesus wipe his face with her cloth, to which he consents. She offers Jesus a pot of water to drink but the guard hurls it away and dispels her. During the journey to Golgotha, Jesus is beaten by the guards until the unwilling Simon of Cyrene is forced into carrying the cross with him. At the end of their journey, with his mother Mary, Mary Magdalene, and others witnessing, Jesus is crucified.

Hanging from the cross, Jesus prays to God the Father God asking forgiveness for the people who tormented him, and provides salvation to a penitent thief crucified beside him. Jesus surrenders his spirit to the Father and dies. A single droplet of rain falls from the sky to the ground, triggering an earthquake which destroys the temple and rips the veil covering the Holy of Holies in two. Satan screams in defeat from the depths of Hell. Jesus' body is taken down from the cross and entombed. Jesus rises from the dead and exits the tomb resurrected, with wound holes visible on his palms.

We were crying while watching the whole thing and it was all awful seeing Jesus Christ suffer throughout the whole ordeal that he went through when they crucified him.

(PIE JESU BY CHARLOTTE CHURCH PLAYS)

What Jesus went through was completely awful.

Me: (Crying) It's awful that he suffered like this!

Varie, Celica and Rachel S.D. were comforting me.

Laney: (Crying) I know!

Joey was comforting her.

Qin: (Crying) Why!? Why did they have to kill him! It's not fair!

Nico was comforting Qin and May as they were crying.

Lincoln was comforting Lilly, Ronnie Anne, Paige, Earth, Ariel's sisters and Sam, Clover & Alex as they were crying.

Bobby was comforting Lori as she was crying.

Clyde was comforting Syd Chang.

Maria was comforting Carmen as she was crying. It was really sad and Vince was comforting Carol as she was crying. Liam was comforting Carmen too.

Lola: (Crying) IT'S NOT FAIR!

Winston was comforting Lola.

Same with Skippy to Lana.

Carlitos was comforting Lily as she was crying and Naruto was comforting Sakura, Fu, Hinata, Ino and Yugito.

Edd was comforting Linka and everyone was comforting everyone.

Some of us had mascara dripping from our faces.

Vypra had tears drip from her face and they were tears of acid. Very surprising.

Samus and Janeen were crying as well.

It was truly a gut-wrenching movie.

Later we were all watching one of my favorite movies: Pirates of The Caribbean 4: On Stranger Tides.

---

A pair of fishermen on their boat of the coast of Spain pull an old man out of the ocean who became entangled in their fishing net. He gasps "Ponce de Leon" and the men quickly sail to shore and bring him to the Spanish monarch. The young monarch learns of the Fountain of Youth, and demands that his men set sail at once to find the ship.

In England, a pair of guards escort a masked prisoner into a loud courtroom which is holding the trail of Captain Jack Sparrow. The prisoner is brought in and mask is removed to reveal that the prisoner is none other than Joshamee Gibbs (Kevin McNally), Sparrow's first mate. He tries to convince the people he's not Jack Sparrow, but the crowd demands blood and calls for a hanging. The court allows the judge to enter the proceedings and Gibbs is surprised to see that it's Jack dressed like the judge. Jack commutes Gibb's sentence to life in prison, bribes the carriage driver and gets into the prisoner carriage with Gibbs.

Jack explains that he returned to London as soon as he heard about Gibbs' capture. Gibbs tells Jack that someone claiming to be Jack Sparrow is looking for people to join his crew and that he was mistakenly captured when he arrived at the bar. Jack is confused and tells Gibbs that he isn't looking for a crew. He shows Gibbs the map to the Fountain and tells him that he hit a bit of a snag trying to locate it. As the two finish talking, the carriage stops and the door opens to reveal several soldiers pointing their guns at the pair; it would seem that Jack has been betrayed.

Jack is escorted to the chambers of King George. The King does not want the Spanish monarchs to have control over the Fountain of Youth and wants Jack to guide a ship to the Fountain. The king's peg-legged privateer captain enters the room and is revealed to be none other than Hector Barbossa. Jack is angry to learn that Barbossa lost the Black Pearl at sea with his leg and angrily insists that Barbossa should join it. The King asks Jack if he has the map and Jack realizes that Gibbs took it while they were in the carriage. He organizes a complex escape from the room and the building. The guards pursue him through London by carriage, until Jack final gives most of them the slip by jumping off of his carriage. He turns around to find a guard pointing a gun at him but the guard is quickly shot by Captain Teague (Keith Richards), Jack's father. Teague takes Jack to the bar, where the imposter Jack is organizing a crew. Teague asks Jack if he knows anything about the ritual of the Fountain and warns Jack of the tests that will lie in his path. He points out the men who have joined the crew and have a ship and disappears, leaving Jack to his own devices.

Jack confronts the men who, in turn, believe the actual Jack to be an imposter. He sees the imposter by an adjacent door and follows him. The two duel for a bit before Jack recognizes the fighting style of the imposter, and going straight for a kiss. He pulls the fake beard off of his opponent's face and asks Angelica (Penelope Cruz), his former love, what she thinks she's doing. Angelica explains that she's after the Fountain and needs a crew to get it. She asks Jack if he still has the map and he tells her that he memorized it. Jack apologizes for ruining her life by preventing her from taking her vows and says that he honestly mistook her convent for a brothel, a mistake "anyone could have made". Before they can go at it again, British soldiers arrive hunting for Jack. Jack and Angelica fight them all and eventually dive down a cellar, which leads out into the Thames. They climb out and get back to shore, but Jack is knocked out by a tainted dart while asking Angelica about the ritual of Fountain.

When Jack comes to, he finds himself aboard the Queen Anne's Revenge, the ship of the feared pirate Edward Teach (popularly referred to by his nickname, Blackbeard). Jack is furious to have been conscripted into helping Blackbeard, a ruthless killer. Angelica explains that Blackbeard believes her to be his daughter and that she is desperate to find the Fountain and that Jack will be their compass. Jack sees a man strapped to the top of the mast and is told by a fellow crewman that the man is part of the clergy, allowed to live only by Blackbeard's grace.

That night, Jack organizes a mutiny against Blackbeard by convincing the crew that, since they haven't seen Blackbeard, he is not really on the ship or even captaining it. The men rise up and Jack frees the missionary, a young man named Phillip, from the mast. The commotion awakens Blackbeard (Ian McShane), who uses his magic sword to bring his ship to life, using the ropes on the sails to capture the mutineers. He makes an example out of a young man by throwing him off the ship in a lifeboat and using the ship's flamethrower to ignite the little boat, a warning to the crew that anyone who stands against him will be killed. Back in England, Gibbs is brought before Barbossa to be hung. Barbossa tells Gibbs to give him the map he stole from Jack. Gibbs takes out the map and throws it into a nearby fire pit, telling Barbossa that the only way Barbossa will find the Fountain of Youth is if Barbossa agrees to keep Gibbs alive and use him as the ship's navigator. Barbossa begrudgingly agrees and welcomes Gibbs back into the Royal Navy.

On Blackbeard's ship, Jack tries to convince him that Angelica is lying about being Blackbeard's daughter but Blackbeard confirms that she actually is his child. Blackbeard tells Jack about a prophecy which foretold Blackbeard's death at the hands of a one-legged man. Jack is tortured for a bit using a voodoo doll, but Blackbeard relents when Angelica intercedes on Jack's behalf. She tells him in private that the ritual to use the Fountain involves a mermaid's tear and two silver chalices from the ship of Ponce de Leon, which contain the key to finding the Fountain. She explains that the Fountain takes life from one drinker and gives it to the one who drinks from the cup with the mermaid tear. Angelica takes him into Blackbeard's treasure room and shows Jack that Blackbeard captures enemy ships and places them in magic bottles. She shows him what became of his beloved ship, the Black Pearl.

The Queen Anne's Revenge pulls into White Cap Bay and the crew is put into lifeboats to begin hunting for mermaids. Blackbeard lands on shore with Jack and Angelica and they ignite a lighthouse in order to attract the mermaids with the light. Phillip is out at sea on the lifeboat when the mermaids start to arrive and enchant the sailors. A mermaid drags one of the sailors under and soon all of the mermaids are attacking the boats. Blackbeard uses the Queen Anne's Revenge to begin driving the mermaids to shore and Phillip uses the distraction to dive into the water and desperately begin swimming to shore.

Meanwhile, the mermaids have begun using their hair to drag people on shore in to the water to kill them. Angelica is grabbed by the leg, but Jack jumps over her and cuts the hair with his sword. Realizing that Blackbeard's plan will get them all killed, he races to the lighthouse and damages the support beams enough to cause it to implode. He dives into the water just as debris falls all around him. Phillip reaches the shore around this time and is about to be crushed by falling debris when he is knocked aside by a mermaid. The mermaid's tail gets crushed, pinning her to the ground. Phillip releases it, but when she tries to escape, he stabs her in the fin in time for Blackbeard to come and capture her.

The mermaid is placed in a glass coffin and the men journey into the heart of the island looking for the lost ship of Ponce de Leon. Phillip sees that the mermaid is suffocating because she can't get any air in the sealed coffin. He resists Blackbeard's orders and pries the coffin open with his sword, wedging his bible in enough to keep the coffin from closing. His concern for her touches the young mermaid, who is unsure of what to make of Phillip.

The group reaches a giant gap in the land, which means that someone has to go on ahead without the others and find the ship. Blackbeard tells Jack that if Jack doesn't go, Blackbeard will kill Angelica. Jack laughs at the idea, but Blackbeard tells his men "to bring 6 pistols, two of which have bullets", but insists "not to say which are loaded". Jack takes one and fires it at Angelica, but its empty. Blackbeard makes Jack choose again and Jack takes one, sure that it isn't loaded and fires it into the sky, blowing off a branch off a tree. Jack is mortified and Angelica is slightly disturbed but Jack agrees to go on alone. He asks Blackbeard's Voodoo servant if he will survive the jump. The Voodoo Priest tosses an effigy of Jack off the cliff and says "Now you will survive." Jack dives in and goes it alone.

Meanwhile, back at White Cap Bay, Barbossa and his men arrive at the shore in lifeboats and see the remnants of the mermaids who were killed on shore. Their main ship is soon overrun by mermaids and Barbossa tells the remaining men that they are going on, ignoring the screams of the men being ripped apart on the ship.

Phillip and Blackbeard's men get into an argument and Blackbeard's men drop the mermaid's coffin. They are surprised to see that upon touching land, the mermaid's tail dissolves and she is left with normal legs. Phillip takes off his shirt and covers her with it, then carries her. He names her Syrena so that the group will have a name for her. Blackbeard takes Syrena to a special pool, where mermaids are tortured and left for dead. He demands that she cry, but she does not shed a tear. Realizing that Syrena probably has feelings for Phillip, Blackbeard has his men stab him in front of her and toss his body in the woods. Phillip comes to hours later and removes a knock out dart from his neck, groggily stumbling back to the pit. He tries to free Syrena, who begins crying tears of joy, but Blackbeard appears and knocks Phillip out, bottling the tear. He has his men drag Phillip away and leaves Syrena to die.

Jack arrives at the ship of Ponce de Leon, which is delicately balanced on the point of a mountain. The slightest shift in weight will send the ship hurtling to the bottom of a crevice and kill whoever is inside. Jack tries to find the silver cups, but is surprised by Barbossa, who was lying in wait. Barbossa explains that the Black Pearl came alive because of Blackbeard's sword and that he was forced to cut his own leg off to escape the ship. Jack is surprised, but agrees to help Barbossa kill Blackbeard. They find the chalice box, but see that it is empty- The Spaniards have beaten them to it. Using the map of Ponce de Leon, they deduce the only area for the Spaniards to make camp and head out.

The duo steals the cups and Jack realizes that Barbossa's sword has a distinct smell to it. Barbossa calmly explains that he has been killing poisonous frogs with his sword and plans to use the toxin to kill Blackbeard. They fail to retrieve the cup and are instead captured and tied to posts. Jack escapes and leads the Spaniards on a chase while Gibbs and Barbossa's men rescue Barbossa and steal the cups. Jack tells Barbossa how to follow them to the Fountain and they part ways, Gibbs joining Jack for the final leg of the journey.

Jack and Gibbs find Blackbeard's group and they look for the location of the Fountain: The cave where water falls up. Jack finds it and leads the men through, knocking the cups together. Blackbeard grows impatient and threatens to shoot Jack, but Jack realizes that the inscription on the cup is the password to the pool. He says the magic words and a pool forms on the ceiling of the cavern. Jack jumps up and climbs through and looks around the Fountain room. Blackbeard and his men follow, but are soon ambushed by Barbossa's men and a full-scale battle erupts. Phillip uses the distraction to cut his bonds and escape, but gets stabbed in the stomach on his way out of the Fountain.

Jack and Angelica fight over the chalices and tear because Jack doesn't want her to give it to Blackbeard. Meanwhile, Blackbeard gets the upper hand on Barbossa and is about to kill him when the Spaniards arrive and begin destroying the Fountain, not wanting a "pagan monument standing the way of God". They throw the chalices into the pool and Barbossa takes the opportunity to stab Blackbeard in the back with the poisoned sword. Angelica freaks out and pulls the blade out, cutting her hand in the process. Barbossa takes Blackbeard's sword as payment for his leg and tells Blackbeard's men that they are now his. Phillip arrives at the pit where Syrena has been chained and he begs God to save her life, even at the cost of his own. He cuts her bonds and she immediately swims away, heading straight for the pool room.

Jack realizes that Angelica only has moments to live. He desperately seeks the chalices in the water, but they are out of reach. Syrena arrives carrying the chalices and tells him not to waste her tear before she leaves. Jack grabs the chalices and puts water from the Fountain into them and places the tear in one of the cups. He goes to Blackbeard and tells him that he needs to save Angelica's life "as a good father would". Blackbeard takes the wrong cup, determined to survive, and drinks. Angelica is both disappointed and happy, but Jack interrupts Blackbeard's celebration by pointing out that he gave Blackbeard the wrong cup. The pool surrounds Blackbeard and rips him apart into dust particles, transferring his life to Angelica's.

Phillip lies dying by the pool and Syrena returns to him. She tells him that she can save him, but Phillip only wants her forgiveness. They kiss and Syrena drags Phillip to the bottom of the sea. Angelica is angry with Jack for killing her father, but Jack is unrepentant. He ties her up and brings her to the same island he was marooned on years before and he tosses her a pistol with a single shot. She fires it at him and misses as Jack prepares to leave her. He suggests that he loves her before rowing away.

Barbossa takes the Queen Anne's Revenge and sails off with his new crew. Gibbs, on the shore of the island, awaits Jack's return.

The two meet and Gibbs hands Jack a big prize: Gibbs went to the Queen Anne's Revenge stole Blackbeard's collection of ships trapped in bottles; thus, Jack is now free to have the Black Pearl and a fleet of pirate ships at his disposal. Later (post-credits), alone on the island, Angelica finds Jack's voodoo doll, as it has washed up ashore.

We watched the whole movie and it was so awesome. It was really scary seeing mermaids from the Dark Side of The Legend and it was awful that they were that bloodthirsty.

But it was awful that they would hurt so many of them because of getting a Mermaid's Tear for the fountain of youth. But in the end, Blackbeard paid the ultimate price because of his greed and insane lust for Immortality. When the movie was done, we cheered wildly.

Me: That is so awesome!

Nico: Always an awesome movie!

Dark Spicer: Really great movie.

Lana: It sure is. But it was just really awful that Blackbeard was after Immortality.

Varie: It sure was awful.

Ariel: It sure was. But those mermaids that were on this movie were really scary.

Melody: They sure were mom. I just can't believe that there is a dark side to mermaids.

Andrina: No kidding.

Arista: J.D. from what I remember, you killed numerous mermaids from the dark side right?

Me: We sure did Arista. That was one of our most bloodiest and most gory adventures. We had to fight over 1 billion mermaids from the dark side of the legend in the Mediterranean Sea.

Nico: I remember hearing about that. That was an epic battle.

Me: It was. The entire Mediterranean was red from mermaid blood.

Laney: Yeah and we were covered in it.

Nico: Yuck.

Qin: Wow. Also from what I heard you guys actually went to the world of Pirates of The Caribbean right?

Me: We sure did Qin. But we helped Jack Sparrow kill the ruthless Davy Jones.

I pulled up the history of Davy Jones.

---

Davy Jones is a recurring antagonist in the Pirates of the Caribbean film series. He is a monster pirate who is loosely based on the old seaman's legend of Davy Jones's Locker. He is the main antagonist of the second film Dead Man's Chest, the secondary antagonist of the third film At World's End, and a cameo antagonist in the fifth film Dead Men Tell No Tales.

He is portrayed by the legendary actor Bill Nighy, who also played Viktor in the Underworld film series, Rattlesnake Jake in Rango (which also starred Johnny Depp), Whitey in Flushed Away, General Fallon in Jack the Giant Slayer and The Network from The World's End.

Past

Davy Jones is the captain of the Flying Dutchman (based on the feared ghost ship of the same name featured in nautical lore), and roams the seas in search of souls to serve upon his vessel for a century. He was previously the lover of Calypso, a "heathen goddess" from which a bad relationship turned him antagonistic. Jones is the legend behind the fictitious Dead Man's Chest, a major aspect of the second film.

The Curse of The Black Pearl

Davy Jones doesn't appear in the first film The Curse of The Black Pearl, but he is mentioned by Will Turner when he says "Or I will pull this trigger and go down to Davy Jones' Locker!" and we can assume from this line that the feared pirate was currently killing and enslaving numerous pirates even at this time. Knowing that Captain Jack Sparrow knew of Davy Jones from his childhood, this is most probable.

Dead Man's Chest

Davy Jones first appears in the second film Dead Man's Chest, where he attempts to collect on his bargain with Jack Sparrow. Sparrow argues that he was only captain for two years before one of his crew members Hector Barbossa committed mutiny, but Jones rejects this explanation. Sparrow then attempts to escape the deal by providing Will Turner as a substitute for himself (the true plan of Sparrow was tricking Davy Jones for killing him and later free Will). Jack strikes a new "deal" with Jones; Jack will be spared enslavement on the Dutchman if he brings Jones one hundred souls to replace his own within the next three days. Jones accepts, removes the black spot from Jack's hand, and retains Will, keeping him as a "good faith payment" but will free him if Sparrow gives to him one hundred souls.

While on the Dutchman, Will challenges Jones at a game of Liar's Dice. They wager Will's soul for an eternity of service against the key to the Dead Man's Chest. Bootstrap Bill joins the game and purposefully loses to save Will. During the game, Will learns where Jones keeps the key. The next morning, Jones realizes the key is gone and summons the Kraken to destroy the ship carrying Turner, who actually survives. The Dutchman then sails to Isla Cruces to stop Sparrow from getting the Chest.

Arriving, Jones sends his crew to retrieve the Chest; they return to him with it. The Dutchman then chases after the Black Pearl, but is outrun. Jones summons the Kraken, which drags Jack Sparrow and the Pearl to Davy Jones's Locker. He afterwards opens the Chest only to find his heart missing; Despite the fact that Sparrow was supposedly dead, Jones felt a summons from his heart and set sail for the source of the summons, Port Royal. Upon arriving, he found the very man who had inadvertently spawned Sparrow's debt with Jones, Lord Cutler Beckett of the East India Trading Company. Beckett had Jones' heart, presented to him by a former member of Jack Sparrow's crew, James Norrington. Jones took off his hat in respect for his new master.

At World's End

In the third film, At World's End, Jones became Beckett's servant, since he possessed the heart and could destroy it and kill Jones if he didn't obey his orders. Eventually he and his crew fought alongside the East India Trading Company against Will, Elizabeth, Barbossa, Gibbs, and other pirates in Jack's crew as the Black Pearl and Flying Dutchman faced off at a maelstrom created by Calypso. During which, Jones dueled Jack, who eventually unlocked the Dead Man's Chest and threatened to stab Jones's heart with his broken sword (earlier snapped in two by Jones with his claw). He stabbed Will in the heart with his sword, twisting the blade. After seeing this, Bootstrap, previously driven insane from his imprisonment in the wall of the ship, returned to his senses and tackled Jones for what he had done to his son. However Davy quickly overpowered Bootstrap. Before Jones could stab Bootstrap, Jack helped a dying Will stab the heart and Jones fell to his death into the maelstrom. As he fell, he whispered his final word: "Calypso". After years of sailing the sea spreading terror, Davy Jones was finally defeated and rejoined with Calypso. Bootstrap was able to bring Will back to life so Cutler would later be destroyed along with Jones.

Dead Man Tell No Tales

In the post-credits scene of the fifth film Dead Man Tell No Tales, Will and Elizabeth are sleeping in their bed together when suddenly there are footsteps outside their bedroom door. The person making the footsteps slowly creaks the door open and walks into the room. His silhouette reveals that it is Jones, still in his cursed form, back from the dead. Will awakens to see Jones raise his claw, ready for an attack. Suddenly Will wakes up then assumes that he was simply dreaming, and goes back to sleep. However the camera then pans to the floor, revealing a puddle of water and barnacles, revealing that Jones has returned from the grave and will appear in the 6th film of the franchise. It is unknown how this happened, but it probably happened when Jack destroyed the Trident of Poseidon in the film in order to defeat an undead ghost captain named Armando Salazar. It's possible that even if Davy Jones is still trapped in his cursed form, he is now able to walk on land and might be more dangerous now than ever.

Qin gasped in horror.

Qin: He's a total monster!

Lincoln: Davy Jones was a ruthless fishface.

Nico: He sure was. He was one of the most ruthless pirates we've ever met.

Laney: He sure was.

Vypra: Wow. That is really amazing.

Luan: He sure was a Swashbuckling Octopus. (Laughs to Rimshot) Get it?

We all laughed at Luan's Joke.

Me: (Laughs) Good one!

Eddy: (Laughs) That was a good one!

Leni: (Laughs) That was so funny!

Nico: (Laughs) Good one! Really funny!

Lynn Sr.: (Laughs) Good one!

Vypra: (Laughs) That was a funny one.

Me: That was a good one though. But we haven't faced Blackbeard yet.

Nicole: Me, Lincoln and Laney faced Blackbeard in Magic Island.

Qin: Wow! What was that one about?

Nicole: It's a really great book. It takes place at the end of the 18th Century in 1796 and we helped a bunch of Buccaneers take down Blackbeard to get the legendary treasure of the evil Sea Sorcerer Carbassas.

Lincoln: That's where I met Lilly the Mermaid and we became very close as future husband and wife.

Me: Boy I remember that. That took place 224 years ago. That was so cool.

Lilly: It sure was. It was an awesome adventure.

Nico: I remember hearing about that. That was so cool!

Qin: Sounds like it.

Me: Lets head to the T.L.P.S. Phoenix Maelstrom and go on an awesome swashbuckling adventure against the ruthless Blackbeard!

We cheered.

We headed to the ship and we got ready.

* * *

We got the ship ready and we also had the Megaforce Rangers Skyship as well as Sora's ship the Leviathan ready.

We set sail and a portal opened and we were back in the world of Pirates of The Caribbean and we were going after the ruthless Captain Edward Teach, A.K.A. BLACKBEARD!

* * *

Captain Edward Teach, or better known as Blackbeard, is the main antagonist of Pirates of the Caribbean: On Stranger Tides. He is an infamous pirate, based on the real-life pirate of the same name, who wishes to claim the Fountain of Youth for himself. He is also a pirate that every pirate in the world is afraid of (presumably and arguably apart from Hector Barbossa and Davy Jones), due to his powers and ruthlessness.

He was portrayed by Ian McShane, who also played Tai Lung in Kung Fu Panda, Leigh Emerson in American Horror Story: Asylum, Judas Iscariot in Jesus of Nazareth, Winston in the John Wick film series, Dr. Brinkman in Agent Cody Banks, and Iofur Raknison in The Golden Compass.

Between At World's End and On Stranger TidesEdit

Blackbeard attacked the Black Pearl without being provoked, capturing the crew in the ship's own riggings. However, Hector Barbossa escaped by chopping off his foot. Blackbeard shrunk the ship down with his voodoo magic and placed it in a bottle.

On Stranger Tides

Having received a prophecy that a one-legged man would end his life from the quartermaster, Blackbeard began seeking Jack Sparrow, who was said to have been to the Fountain of Youth, which could save his life. He sent his daughter, Angelica to pose as Jack and recruit more crew-members with the possibility of capturing Jack. His plan was successful; he forced Jack to lead them to the Fountain with the threat of a voodoo doll. He captured a mermaid for her tear as part of the ritual to gain the years of life from another, and badly wounded the missionary she was in love with to get it. Succeeding in getting to the Fountain of Youth, he once more met Barbossa, the one-legged man in the prophecy and fell victim to a poison sword stab. Jack then tricked him into drinking from a chalice without the mermaid's tear in it to save the life of his daughter, who had also been poisoned by the sword. Blackbeard was subsequently stripped of his flesh and reduced to nothing more than a skeleton, which then crumbled to dust.

Me: Here we are guys. The Caribbean sea, 18th Century.

Laney: Wow! It's beautiful as it was when we were here the last time.

Aqua: It sure is.

Maverick: It sure is beautiful eh.

Sora: It sure is. I'm the captain of the Leviathan. Did you know that?

Maverick: No I didn't Sora.

Qin: That is so cool Sora!

Edwayl: It sure is lad.

Fletcher: I'm proud of ya wee laddie.

Laney: Captain, Queen Anne's Revenge off the port bow!

Me: I see it. Prepare for battle!

We got ready for the fight.

Me: We're gonna need some help with this.

I pulled out my flute and played a tune and out came LUXORD and the Flying Dutchman!

Luxord: Ahoy J.D.!

Me: Ahoy Luxord!

Nico: Good to see you again.

Luxord: You too Nico. Sora you are looking well.

Sora: Thanks Luxord.

Me: We're going after Blackbeard. He's trying to get immortality.

Luxord: I see. Glad you called me. I see you have Vexen and Vanitas with you in the Masters of Evil.

Vexen: That's right. Vypra brought us back to be archenemies to Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Luxord: I see. In case you're wondering, after my Heartless was defeated, I regained my powers. But I still remain the Captain of the Flying Dutchman because of Davy Jones' death.

Vanitas: That's strange.

Me: We'll find a way to break your bindings to the Flying Dutchman so you can help us when we need you Luxord.

Luxord: I would like that.

Qin: Who is he?

Me: That's Luxord. He was once a member of the ruthless Organization XIII. But out of all the members in that entire organization, he is the one that is most honorable.

I went over his history.

---

Luxord, the Gambler of Fate (in Japanese: 運命を賭す者, Unmei o Tosumono?), is the tenth member of Organization XIII and a supporting antagonist in Kingdom Hearts II and Kingdom Hearts III.

A skilled gambler, he possesses the ability to manipulate time, which he uses to force his opponents to play timed games, with unfortunate consequences if they cannot learn the rules and lose. He commands the Gambler Nobodies, who force their opponents to participate in games similar to the one Luxord uses in fights.

He harasses Sora and his friends in Port Royal, playing a game with them involving the cursed Aztec treasure there. He later battles Sora alone in the World That Never Was, and is the third-to-last member of Organization XIII to fall.

He is voiced by Robin Atkin Downes in the English version, and by Joji Nakata in the Japanese version.

Luxord's original self was a Keyblade wielder from the Age of Fairy Tales. At some point, he succumbed to darkness, but his will was so strong his body became a Nobody and was recruited into the Organization.

Kingdom Hearts 358/2 Days

Luxord plays a minor role in Kingdom Hearts 358/2 Days. He is present when Xion joined the Organization, and would often team up with Roxas in missions in Wonderland. This association with this world is more than likely thanks to the Queen of Hearts's card army. Luxord joins Roxas on other missions and stays in the Grey Area as well. Luxord took all of his missions as a game, and would tend to comment on them as such to Roxas. He was shocked when Xemnas called the meeting to announce the truth about Xion being a Replica, and simply said, "If only the whispers from the top of the ladder carried to the bottom rung," before vanishing from Where Nothing Gathers.

Kingdom Hearts II

Luxord appears with all of the other Organization members in the confrontation with Sora and stands behind and to the left of Saïx. He makes no contact with Sora. In fact, he isn't even seen again until Port Royal the second time through.

Port Royal

Upon making second rounds to the worlds in search of the Organization's stronghold, Sora once again allies with Jack Sparrow in Port Royal, where he learns that Will Turner has gone missing while investigating the theft of cursed pirate gold by a man in a black hood. They seek out Will on the Black Pearl and find him on the Interceptor.

Luxord appears on the Black Pearl after they have recovered Will, with the cursed gold beside him, greeting Jack Sparrow. He reveals that he is at Port Royal to assess the value of the cursed gold to the Organization and calls up Grim Reaper, a Heartless. After the Heartless is thrown overboard, Luxord invokes the right of parley before Jack can get off a shot with his pistol. He agrees to hand over the chest, but takes four medallions from it when he does so, sending them off to his Gambler Nobodies, who escape with them. This has the effect of returning the curse on Jack and tying his curse to Grim Reaper, who becomes cursed, as well.

The Grim Reaper then knocks Sora, Donald, Goofy, and Jack onto the Interceptor, and has the cannons of the Black Pearl destroy the ship. Sora and the others survive, and track down the medallions, and defeated the Grim Reaper back at Port Royal, lifting the curse on Jack. Even with Luxord's experiments having failed, he manages to bring the heart that the Grim Reaper was holding to Kingdom Hearts, and promptly flees.

Where Nothing Gathers

During several additional scenes in Kingdom Hearts II Final Mix, Luxord is featured with a prominent speaking role. Immediately after taunting Sora, the Organization returns to their meeting chamber. In response to talk about making plans, Luxord says that he'll "Pass out some cards.", meaning he intends to dabble around here and there, stirring things up to see what he can do. This inadvertently instigates a small argument between Xigbar and Demyx, and after Xaldin breaks it up, Luxord disappointedly remarks "There goes my entertainment."

He is again seen just before Sora enters The World That Never Was, discussing Axel with the remaining members. He notes that Axel may have gained something by putting his existence on the line to help Sora. When Xigbar reacts that, as Nobodies, they have no existence to put on the line, Luxord replies: "Then, perhaps he bet his NON-existence. Either way, he came out a winner.". He then adds with a smile: "Oh, Axel. A grifter till the end.".

The World that Never Was

Luxord appears once more in the Organization's fortress in The World that Never Was. When Sora, Kairi, Riku, Donald and Goofy enter the area where Luxord waits, Sora walks ahead of the rest. Materializing between Sora and his friends, Luxord uses his cards to remove Sora's allies from the area, and challenges Sora to a game involving time. Luxord fights against Sora, using a variety of tricks and games of luck with his playing cards, but in the end, Sora is able to wear Luxord's time down and defeat him. As Sora readies a finishing blow, Luxord raises his cards to shield himself, but Sora slices through the cards and finishes Luxord off. Before fading into darkness, Luxord exclaims, "How could you… Roxas?".

Kingdom Hearts III

Luxord returns in Kingdom Hearts III as a member of the real Organization XIII and noticeably sports golden eyes like the other members. After being briefed by Vexen, Luxord goes about finding the black box in The Caribbean upon learning of a being that can exist without having a heart inside. He challenges the heroes to a race and somehow manages to trick Captain Jack Sparrow (unaware that the real one is elsewhere) into revealing the box as the Dead Man's Chest that contains the heart of Davy Jones. Luxord then goes to find the box on the Flying Dutchman and uses an entire fleet of Heartless to keep the heroes at bay. He then later arrives in the Maelstrom battle and summons the Kraken for the heroes to handle as he pursues the Flying Dutchman. He then confronts Captain Jack Sparrow in an attempt to take the box and use the right of parley. But Jack outsmarts him by interrupting him and uses his bad breath to send Luxord into the ocean just as Vexen confirms that this isn't the box they are after.

At the Keyblade Graveyard, Luxord participates in the clash between darkness and light and joins Marluxia and Larxene in fighting King Mickey. He manages to trap Mickey in a card and has Sora find his real self in a game of sorts before eventually being defeated by him. Upon defeat, Luxord hands Sora a "wild card" that could turn the tables. Sora asks if he would play again when they are both normal human beings to which Luxord accepts before fading away but not before leaving King Mickey's card for the king to be freed from.

Powers, skills & weapons

Luxord uses his attribute, time, and weapon cards, in unorthodoxly formidable ways that make him not one of the most powerful members of the Organization but the trickiest to defeat. In Kingdom Hearts II, he uses his power of time manipulation to force Sora to play timed games where both of them have time bars but Luxord doesn't have a health bar of his own, giving him an advantage as Sora has to watch both his time bar and HP while Luxord has no such needs. He is able to restore his time bar by winning a game with Sora when at the last of it while greatly reducing Sora's time. He uses his very flexible card weapons, called Fair Game, that vary in size, as his main means of attack, able to turn himself into a giant card and hide among similar cards as well as seamlessly shift between them for quick evasion, turn his enemies into cards or trap them inside one, throw flurries of razor-sharp cards at an enemy or surround himself with them and then spin around, create defensive barriers, and at times by will can warp reality. The Reaction Command "Flip" causes the cards to vanish, but some of them have a booby trap (represented by a symbol on the one side of the card) that "Flip" triggers. He can also use them as sleight of hand cover, or to disorient his enemies.

In Kingdom Hearts III, Luxord displays a fair amount of skill in captaining a ship and the power to summon Heartless ships at will, using these abilities to challenge the Leviathan. When fighting at the Keyblade Graveyard, upon being empowered by Xemnas, Luxord traps Mickey inside a card and surrounds Sora in the center of many cards and could teleport Marluxia and Larxene if attacked.

---

Qin: Wow! That's amazing.

Luxord: Indeed it is.

Clyde: J.D. gave me his cards so that I can use his powers for whenever needed.

Me: Yep. And he's a great card player. They don't call him the Gambler of Fate for nothing.

Troy: Let's make Blackbeard see red!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Red Ranger Mode!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Red Rangers. Troy Burrows was the Red Mystic Force Ranger, Noah Carver was the Red S.P.D. Ranger, Gia Moran was the Red Samurai Ranger, Jake Holling was the red Lightspeed Rescue Ranger, Emma Goodall was the red Wild Force Ranger and Orion was the Red Time Force Ranger.

We pulled up to the side of the Queen Anne's Revenge and fired a grappling anchor and it skewered the ship and we flew and jumped on board and slashed some of the crew apart. We also saw Captain Jack Sparrow.

Me: Ahoy Captain Jack.

Jack Sparrow: Hail J.D. and Company.

Qin: Wow! Captain Jack Sparrow!

Nico: It's great to see you again Captain Jack. We have a bunch of new members of the team since the last time we saw each other.

Captain Jack Sparrow: I can see that mate.

We slashed more men of the crew of the ship.

We slashed them all over the place.

Jack Sparrow: [after leading a mutiny on Queen Anne Revenge] The ship is ours!

But then out came CAPTAIN BLACKBEARD!

Me: Captain Blackbeard!

Blackbeard: [enters upon deck] The famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm. I've heard so many big things about ye all. Ladies and Gentlemen. [takes a shot from a bottle and throws it in front of Jack] I be placed in a bewilderment. There I were… resting. And upon I sudden I hear an ungodly row on deck. Sailors abandon their posts without orders, without leave. Men before the mast… and taking the ship for themselves. What be that, First Mate?

Angelica: Mutiny, Captain.

Blackbeard: Again?

Angelica: Mutiny!

Blackbeard: Aye… mutiny. And what fate befalls mutineers; now, we know that answer to that, do we not? Mutineers… HANG!

Responding to Blackbeard's sword, the Queen Anne's Revenge comes to life and ties up the crew as well as us.

Jack Sparrow: (hung upside down) Captain, I wish to report a mutiny. I can name fingers and point names.

Dark Spicer: Hydro Man, think you can get us out of this?

Hydro Man: On it!

He sent waves of water and it slammed into Captain Blackbeard and knocked him down and the Sword of Triton was knocked out of his hands and Kairi took it.

A flash of green light happened and out came a huge dragon sea-serpent creature! It was Ben as a huge new predator called DRAGONBANE! He was really a creature called a Scarcharosuchus! Scarcharosuchus is enormous sea-serpent which wanders the depths of Piscciss II. His jaws are possesed with 50 teeth and have enough bite force to break the Rust Bucket Mark III in two pieces. He has one large dorsal fin and he is blue and light blue striped. His back is made out large scales, similar to crocodiles. He moves through the water with his fins.

Ben: DRAGONBANE!

He ate a bunch of members of Blackbeard's crew and chomped them up good and swallowed them.

Me: Whoa! That is a wicked awesome and scary predator!

Shanan: Oh my god! That's one of the Deadliest Predators in the Universe! It's called a Scarcharosuchus and they come from the planet Piscciss II. They are one of the Deadliest Predators in the universe and they eat Piscciss Volanns, Ripjaw's Species. They are said to be known as the very dragon from the God of The Sea, Poseidon.

We gasped.

Nico: Whoa!

Riley: That is incredible!

Laney: Really scary!

Xion: Unbelievable! How can there be such a creature of such incredible terror?

Me: It's really cool though.

Blackbeard: (to Luxord) To think that a promising Organization XIII member like yourself is now reduced to being the captain of of the Flying Dutchman.

Luxord: What can I say? Team Loud Phoenix Storm defeated me fair and square. Commanding the Flying Dutchman was so J.D. didn't have to take Davy Jones' place.

Me: And it was a great act of honor on his part. He saved me from having to endure a fate worse than death.

Nico: He sure did.

Dark Spicer: (to Blackbeard) Here's your warning: Your ass is about to be kicked!

Me: Big time. Lets power up and take him down!

We powered up. I was a Super Angel-Ebonwu 100,000 Elemental Moonlight Phoenix and we went at Blackbeard and all of his crew. I slashed one of his crew and disemboweled him and chopped his head off and killed him and Laney fired poison barbs and poisoned a bunch of crew members with Strychnine Ω and killed them and Laney fired blasts of fire and burned them all over and Lincoln fired blasts of lightning and electrocuted them all over and then we set our sights on Blackbeard!

Edzilla: ED SMASH PIRATE! (punches Blackbeard)

He sent him off the ship and into he ocean and we used our magic to stand on the surface of the water and we used our Chakra for that as well.

Blackbeard got up and he was standing on the water surface as well.

I punched him in the face and he unsheathed a regular sword and we clashed. We were clashing viciously as sparks were flying all over the place and setting some of the water on fire.

Me: (Divine Voice) You make me sick Blackbeard! So many people have suffered because of you!

Blackbeard: All I want is immortality so that I can live forever and no one is gonna stop me!

Me: Not if I kill you first!

Nico: Blackbeard, You have failed this universe!

I punched Blackbeard in the face and kicked him in the stomach and punched him in the back.

Ben then turned into another new predator. It was called THE BLOBBER! He looked like a living blob of purple slime.

Ben: THE BLOBBER!

Me: Whoa! That's a new one.

Shanan: Wow! That's a Psychroyeaworth from the planet Peptos XI and they are Upchuck's natural predator.

Lana: It looks a blob of slime!

Laney: It sure does.

Nico: Really cool!

The Blobber: Watch this.

He threw globs of his slime body and they hit Blackbeard and burned him all over. His body was made entirely of acid slime.

Me: His body is made of acidic slime!

Nico: Wow! That is lethal!

Dark Spicer: Watch this one!

Dark Spicer then turned into Ultimate Deathbite! He looked like a viperfish-body Piscciss Volans and he was scary.

Dark Spicer: Say Hello to Ultimate Deathbite!

Shanan: Whoa! An Evolved Mutant Piscciss Volanns.

Laney: Really cool!

He went into the water and fired blasts of water at Blackbeard and they slammed into him all over with incredible force and he fired a beam of light from his lure and it hit Blackbeard and burned him all over.

Dark Spicer then turned into a new Ultimate Mutant. It was Ultimate Trojanware! He looked like a pitch black version of Upgrade with spikes and rings around his arms.

Dark Spicer: Say Hello to Ultimate Trojanware!

Me: Whoa! That one is neat!

Shanan: An Evolved Mutant Galvanic Mechamorph! Really cool.

Dark Spicer fired waves of energy at Blackbeard and the blasts exploded.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMMMM!

The Megaforce Rangers fired blasts of energy and fire at Blackbeard and they hit him all over and exploded.

KRABBBOOOOOOMMM! KRABBBOOOOOOOOMMM! KRABBBOOOOOOMMMM! KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOMMMM! KRABBBOOOOOMMM!

Atchara: Lets see you survive this one! THAILAND STYLE NINJA ART: THREE-HEADED ELEPHANT!

Atchara fired a wave of red, blue and white energy and it turned into the Three-Headed Elephant of Laos and it slammed into Blackbeard and trampled him.

Me: Whoa! That was awesome!

Jessie K.: Wow! That was the Three-Headed Elephant of The Kingdom of Laos. It was the symbol of Laos until the 1975 Laos Revolution that made it an independent country.

Laney: That is so cool!

Atchara: Watch this one. THAILAND STYLE NINJA ART: THAI RASENSHURIKEN!

Monster Tamer Protectors

In the middle of the Robot City District, we were taking a tour of Robot City. It was the coolest part of the city and humans and robots were getting along really great. We saw humans and robots working together and it is a breathtaking sight.

Piper (Storm Hawks): It's breathtaking!

Nico: Yep. We have so much to learn from robots.

Rodney: It is a great achievement that you guys have done to bring us all together with you guys.

Me: Thanks Rodney. In my opinion, robots are in every way like people too and they have rights like everyone else does.

Rodney: I agree with you J.D.

Vixen: No one seems to be afraid of us this time.

Me: Yep.

Onslaught: Rodney, how did you first invent Wonderbot?

Rodney: It just came to me as my first idea. I wanted to be a great inventor like Bigweld and its always been my dream to be an inventor.

Me: I can see that.

Jack Hammer: I want you to know that I never bought Gasket and Ratchet's lies for a second. Even though that footage of you guys really wasn't tampered with.

Skids: That's nice to hear.

Me: That's awesome!

?: (Techno voice) And you are a true inspiration to the world.

We recognized that voice and we saw world famous quantum theorist and cosmologist Stephen Hawking!

---

Stephen William Hawking CH CBE FRS FRSA (8 January 1942 - 14 March 2018) was an English theoretical physicist, cosmologist, and author who was director of research at the Centre for Theoretical Cosmology at the University of Cambridge at the time of his death. He was the Lucasian Professor of Mathematics at the University of Cambridge between 1979 and 2009.

Hawking's scientific works included a collaboration with Roger Penrose on gravitational singularity theorems in the framework of general relativity and the theoretical prediction that black holes emit radiation, often called Hawking radiation. Hawking was the first to set out a theory of cosmology explained by a union of the general theory of relativity and quantum mechanics. He was a vigorous supporter of the many-worlds interpretation of quantum mechanics.

Hawking achieved commercial success with several works of popular science in which he discusses his theories and cosmology in general. His book A Brief History of Time appeared on the Sunday Times bestseller list for a record-breaking 237 weeks. Hawking was a Fellow of the Royal Society, a lifetime member of the Pontifical Academy of Sciences, and a recipient of the Presidential Medal of Freedom, the highest civilian award in the United States. In 2002, Hawking was ranked number 25 in the BBC's poll of the 100 Greatest Britons.

In 1963, Hawking was diagnosed with an early-onset slow-progressing form of motor neuron disease (also known as amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (ALS) or Lou Gehrig's disease) that gradually paralysed him over the decades. After the loss of his speech, he was able to communicate through a speech-generating device - initially through use of a handheld switch, and eventually by using a single cheek muscle. He died on 14 March 2018 at the age of 76, after living with the disease for more than 50 years.

Hawking was born on 8 January 1942 in Oxford to Frank (1905-1986) and Isobel Eileen Hawking (née Walker; 1915-2013). Hawking's mother was born into a family of doctors in Glasgow, Scotland. His wealthy paternal great-grandfather, from Yorkshire, over-extended himself buying farm land and then went bankrupt in the great agricultural depression during the early 20th century. His paternal great-grandmother saved the family from financial ruin by opening a school in their home. Despite their families' financial constraints, both parents attended the University of Oxford, where Frank read medicine and Isobel read Philosophy, Politics and Economics. Isobel worked as a secretary for a medical research institute, and Frank was a medical researcher. Hawking had two younger sisters, Philippa and Mary, and an adopted brother, Edward Frank David (1955-2003).

In 1950, when Hawking's father became head of the division of parasitology at the National Institute for Medical Research, the family moved to St Albans, Hertfordshire. In St Albans, the family was considered highly intelligent and somewhat eccentric; meals were often spent with each person silently reading a book. They lived a frugal existence in a large, cluttered, and poorly maintained house and travelled in a converted London taxicab. During one of Hawking's father's frequent absences working in Africa, the rest of the family spent four months in Majorca visiting his mother's friend Beryl and her husband, the poet Robert Graves.

Primary and secondary school years

Hawking began his schooling at the Byron House School in Highgate, London. He later blamed its "progressive methods" for his failure to learn to read while at the school. In St Albans, the eight-year-old Hawking attended St Albans High School for Girls for a few months. At that time, younger boys could attend one of the houses.

Hawking attended two independent (i.e. fee-paying) schools, first Radlett School and from September 1952, St Albans School, after passing the eleven-plus a year early. The family placed a high value on education. Hawking's father wanted his son to attend the well-regarded Westminster School, but the 13-year-old Hawking was ill on the day of the scholarship examination. His family could not afford the school fees without the financial aid of a scholarship, so Hawking remained at St Albans. A positive consequence was that Hawking remained close to a group of friends with whom he enjoyed board games, the manufacture of fireworks, model aeroplanes and boats, and long discussions about Christianity and extrasensory perception. From 1958 on, with the help of the mathematics teacher Dikran Tahta, they built a computer from clock parts, an old telephone switchboard and other recycled components.

Although known at school as "Einstein", Hawking was not initially successful academically. With time, he began to show considerable aptitude for scientific subjects and, inspired by Tahta, decided to read mathematics at university. Hawking's father advised him to study medicine, concerned that there were few jobs for mathematics graduates. He also wanted his son to attend University College, Oxford, his own alma mater. As it was not possible to read mathematics there at the time, Hawking decided to study physics and chemistry. Despite his headmaster's advice to wait until the next year, Hawking was awarded a scholarship after taking the examinations in March 1959.

Undergraduate years

Hawking began his university education at University College, Oxford, in October 1959 at the age of 17. For the first 18 months, he was bored and lonely - he found the academic work "ridiculously easy". His physics tutor, Robert Berman, later said, "It was only necessary for him to know that something could be done, and he could do it without looking to see how other people did it." A change occurred during his second and third year when, according to Berman, Hawking made more of an effort "to be one of the boys". He developed into a popular, lively and witty college member, interested in classical music and science fiction. Part of the transformation resulted from his decision to join the college boat club, the University College Boat Club, where he coxed a rowing crew. The rowing coach at the time noted that Hawking cultivated a daredevil image, steering his crew on risky courses that led to damaged boats. Hawking estimated that he studied about 1,000 hours during his three years at Oxford. These unimpressive study habits made sitting his finals a challenge, and he decided to answer only theoretical physics questions rather than those requiring factual knowledge. A first-class honours degree was a condition of acceptance for his planned graduate study in cosmology at the University of Cambridge. Anxious, he slept poorly the night before the examinations, and the final result was on the borderline between first- and second-class honours, making a viva (oral examination) with the Oxford examiners necessary.

Hawking was concerned that he was viewed as a lazy and difficult student. So, when asked at the viva to describe his plans, he said, "If you award me a First, I will go to Cambridge. If I receive a Second, I shall stay in Oxford, so I expect you will give me a First." He was held in higher regard than he believed; as Berman commented, the examiners "were intelligent enough to realise they were talking to someone far cleverer than most of themselves". After receiving a first-class BA (Hons.) degree in physics and completing a trip to Iran with a friend, he began his graduate work at Trinity Hall, Cambridge, in October 1962.

Graduate years

Hawking's first year as a doctoral student was difficult. He was initially disappointed to find that he had been assigned Dennis William Sciama, one of the founders of modern cosmology, as a supervisor rather than noted Yorkshire astronomer Fred Hoyle, and he found his training in mathematics inadequate for work in general relativity and cosmology. After being diagnosed with motor neurone disease, Hawking fell into a depression - though his doctors advised that he continue with his studies, he felt there was little point. His disease progressed more slowly than doctors had predicted. Although Hawking had difficulty walking unsupported, and his speech was almost unintelligible, an initial diagnosis that he had only two years to live proved unfounded. With Sciama's encouragement, he returned to his work. Hawking started developing a reputation for brilliance and brashness when he publicly challenged the work of Fred Hoyle and his student Jayant Narlikar at a lecture in June 1964.

When Hawking began his graduate studies, there was much debate in the physics community about the prevailing theories of the creation of the universe: the Big Bang and Steady State theories. Inspired by Roger Penrose's theorem of a spacetime singularity in the centre of black holes, Hawking applied the same thinking to the entire universe; and, during 1965, he wrote his thesis on this topic. Hawking's thesis was approved in 1966. There were other positive developments: Hawking received a research fellowship at Gonville and Caius College at Cambridge; he obtained his PhD degree in applied mathematics and theoretical physics, specialising in general relativity and cosmology, in March 1966; and his essay "Singularities and the Geometry of Space-Time" shared top honours with one by Penrose to win that year's prestigious Adams Prize.

1966-1975

In his work, and in collaboration with Penrose, Hawking extended the singularity theorem concepts first explored in his doctoral thesis. This included not only the existence of singularities but also the theory that the universe might have started as a singularity. Their joint essay was the runner-up in the 1968 Gravity Research Foundation competition. In 1970, they published a proof that if the universe obeys the general theory of relativity and fits any of the models of physical cosmology developed by Alexander Friedmann, then it must have begun as a singularity. In 1969, Hawking accepted a specially created Fellowship for Distinction in Science to remain at Caius.

In 1970, Hawking postulated what became known as the second law of black hole dynamics, that the event horizon of a black hole can never get smaller. With James M. Bardeen and Brandon Carter, he proposed the four laws of black hole mechanics, drawing an analogy with thermodynamics. To Hawking's irritation, Jacob Bekenstein, a graduate student of John Wheeler, went further-and ultimately correctly-to apply thermodynamic concepts literally.

In the early 1970s, Hawking's work with Carter, Werner Israel, and David C. Robinson strongly supported Wheeler's no-hair theorem, one that states that no matter what the original material from which a black hole is created, it can be completely described by the properties of mass, electrical charge and rotation. His essay titled "Black Holes" won the Gravity Research Foundation Award in January 1971. Hawking's first book, The Large Scale Structure of Space-Time, written with George Ellis, was published in 1973.

Beginning in 1973, Hawking moved into the study of quantum gravity and quantum mechanics. His work in this area was spurred by a visit to Moscow and discussions with Yakov Borisovich Zel'dovich and Alexei Starobinsky, whose work showed that according to the uncertainty principle, rotating black holes emit particles. To Hawking's annoyance, his much-checked calculations produced findings that contradicted his second law, which claimed black holes could never get smaller, and supported Bekenstein's reasoning about their entropy.

His results, which Hawking presented from 1974, showed that black holes emit radiation, known today as Hawking radiation, which may continue until they exhaust their energy and evaporate. Initially, Hawking radiation was controversial. By the late 1970s and following the publication of further research, the discovery was widely accepted as a significant breakthrough in theoretical physics. Hawking was elected a Fellow of the Royal Society (FRS) in 1974, a few weeks after the announcement of Hawking radiation. At the time, he was one of the youngest scientists to become a Fellow.

Hawking was appointed to the Sherman Fairchild Distinguished visiting professorship at the California Institute of Technology (Caltech) in 1974. He worked with a friend on the faculty, Kip Thorne, and engaged him in a scientific wager about whether the X-ray source Cygnus X-1 was a black hole. The wager was an "insurance policy" against the proposition that black holes did not exist. Hawking acknowledged that he had lost the bet in 1990, a bet that was the first of several he was to make with Thorne and others. Hawking had maintained ties to Caltech, spending a month there almost every year since this first visit.

1975-1990

Hawking returned to Cambridge in 1975 to a more academically senior post, as reader in gravitational physics. The mid to late 1970s were a period of growing public interest in black holes and the physicists who were studying them. Hawking was regularly interviewed for print and television. He also received increasing academic recognition of his work. In 1975, he was awarded both the Eddington Medal and the Pius XI Gold Medal, and in 1976 the Dannie Heineman Prize, the Maxwell Medal and Prize and the Hughes Medal. He was appointed a professor with a chair in gravitational physics in 1977. The following year he received the Albert Einstein Medal and an honorary doctorate from the University of Oxford.

In 1979, Hawking was elected Lucasian Professor of Mathematics at the University of Cambridge. His inaugural lecture in this role was titled: "Is the End in Sight for Theoretical Physics?" and proposed N=8 Supergravity as the leading theory to solve many of the outstanding problems physicists were studying. His promotion coincided with a health crisis which led to his accepting, albeit reluctantly, some nursing services at home. At the same time, he was also making a transition in his approach to physics, becoming more intuitive and speculative rather than insisting on mathematical proofs. "I would rather be right than rigorous", he told Kip Thorne. In 1981, he proposed that information in a black hole is irretrievably lost when a black hole evaporates. This information paradox violates the fundamental tenet of quantum mechanics, and led to years of debate, including "the Black Hole War" with Leonard Susskind and Gerard 't Hooft.

Cosmological inflation - a theory proposing that following the Big Bang, the universe initially expanded incredibly rapidly before settling down to a slower expansion - was proposed by Alan Guth and also developed by Andrei Linde. Following a conference in Moscow in October 1981, Hawking and Gary Gibbons organized a three-week Nuffield Workshop in the summer of 1982 on "The Very Early Universe" at Cambridge University, a workshop that focused mainly on inflation theory. Hawking also began a new line of quantum theory research into the origin of the universe. In 1981 at a Vatican conference, he presented work suggesting that there might be no boundary - or beginning or ending - to the universe.

Hawking subsequently developed the research in collaboration with Jim Hartle, and in 1983 they published a model, known as the Hartle-Hawking state. It proposed that prior to the Planck epoch, the universe had no boundary in space-time; before the Big Bang, time did not exist and the concept of the beginning of the universe is meaningless. The initial singularity of the classical Big Bang models was replaced with a region akin to the North Pole. One cannot travel north of the North Pole, but there is no boundary there - it is simply the point where all north-running lines meet and end. Initially, the no-boundary proposal predicted a closed universe, which had implications about the existence of God. As Hawking explained, "If the universe has no boundaries but is self-contained… then God would not have had any freedom to choose how the universe began."

Hawking did not rule out the existence of a Creator, asking in A Brief History of Time "Is the unified theory so compelling that it brings about its own existence?" In his early work, Hawking spoke of God in a metaphorical sense. In A Brief History of Time he wrote: "If we discover a complete theory, it would be the ultimate triumph of human reason - for then we should know the mind of God." In the same book he suggested that the existence of God was not necessary to explain the origin of the universe. Later discussions with Neil Turok led to the realisation that the existence of God was also compatible with an open universe.

Further work by Hawking in the area of arrows of time led to the 1985 publication of a paper theorising that if the no-boundary proposition were correct, then when the universe stopped expanding and eventually collapsed, time would run backwards. A paper by Don Page and independent calculations by Raymond Laflamme led Hawking to withdraw this concept. Honours continued to be awarded: in 1981 he was awarded the American Franklin Medal, and in the 1982 New Year Honours appointed a Commander of the Order of the British Empire (CBE). These awards did not significantly change Hawking's financial status, and motivated by the need to finance his children's education and home expenses, he decided in 1982 to write a popular book about the universe that would be accessible to the general public. Instead of publishing with an academic press, he signed a contract with Bantam Books, a mass market publisher, and received a large advance for his book. A first draft of the book, called A Brief History of Time, was completed in 1984.

One of the first messages Hawking produced with his speech-generating device was a request for his assistant to help him finish writing A Brief History of Time. Peter Guzzardi, his editor at Bantam, pushed him to explain his ideas clearly in non-technical language, a process that required many revisions from an increasingly irritated Hawking. The book was published in April 1988 in the US and in June in the UK, and it proved to be an extraordinary success, rising quickly to the top of best-seller lists in both countries and remaining there for months. The book was translated into many languages, and ultimately sold an estimated 9 million copies.

Media attention was intense, and a Newsweek magazine cover and a television special both described him as "Master of the Universe". Success led to significant financial rewards, but also the challenges of celebrity status. Hawking travelled extensively to promote his work, and enjoyed partying and dancing into the small hours. A difficulty refusing the invitations and visitors left him limited time for work and his students. Some colleagues were resentful of the attention Hawking received, feeling it was due to his disability.

He received further academic recognition, including five more honorary degrees, the Gold Medal of the Royal Astronomical Society (1985), the Paul Dirac Medal (1987) and, jointly with Penrose, the prestigious Wolf Prize (1988). In the 1989 Birthday Honours, he was appointed a Companion of Honour (CH). He reportedly declined a knighthood in the late 1990s in objection to the UK's science funding policy.

1990-2000

Hawking pursued his work in physics: in 1993 he co-edited a book on Euclidean quantum gravity with Gary Gibbons and published a collected edition of his own articles on black holes and the Big Bang. In 1994, at Cambridge's Newton Institute, Hawking and Penrose delivered a series of six lectures that were published in 1996 as "The Nature of Space and Time". In 1997, he conceded a 1991 public scientific wager made with Kip Thorne and John Preskill of Caltech. Hawking had bet that Penrose's proposal of a "cosmic censorship conjecture" - that there could be no "naked singularities" unclothed within a horizon - was correct.

After discovering his concession might have been premature, a new and more refined wager was made. This one specified that such singularities would occur without extra conditions. The same year, Thorne, Hawking and Preskill made another bet, this time concerning the black hole information paradox. Thorne and Hawking argued that since general relativity made it impossible for black holes to radiate and lose information, the mass-energy and information carried by Hawking radiation must be "new", and not from inside the black hole event horizon. Since this contradicted the quantum mechanics of microcausality, quantum mechanics theory would need to be rewritten. Preskill argued the opposite, that since quantum mechanics suggests that the information emitted by a black hole relates to information that fell in at an earlier time, the concept of black holes given by general relativity must be modified in some way.

Hawking also maintained his public profile, including bringing science to a wider audience. A film version of A Brief History of Time, directed by Errol Morris and produced by Steven Spielberg, premiered in 1992. Hawking had wanted the film to be scientific rather than biographical, but he was persuaded otherwise. The film, while a critical success, was not widely released. A popular-level collection of essays, interviews, and talks titled Black Holes and Baby Universes and Other Essays was published in 1993, and a six-part television series Stephen Hawking's Universe and a companion book appeared in 1997. As Hawking insisted, this time the focus was entirely on science.

Hawking continued his writings for a popular audience, publishing The Universe in a Nutshell in 2001, and A Briefer History of Time, which he wrote in 2005 with Leonard Mlodinow to update his earlier works with the aim of making them accessible to a wider audience, and God Created the Integers, which appeared in 2006. Along with Thomas Hertog at CERN and Jim Hartle, from 2006 on Hawking developed a theory of "top-down cosmology", which says that the universe had not one unique initial state but many different ones, and therefore that it is inappropriate to formulate a theory that predicts the universe's current configuration from one particular initial state. Top-down cosmology posits that the present "selects" the past from a superposition of many possible histories. In doing so, the theory suggests a possible resolution of the fine-tuning question.

Hawking continued to travel widely, including trips to Chile, Easter Island, South Africa, Spain (to receive the Fonseca Prize in 2008), Canada, and numerous trips to the United States. For practical reasons related to his disability, Hawking increasingly travelled by private jet, and by 2011 that had become his only mode of international travel.

By 2003, consensus among physicists was growing that Hawking was wrong about the loss of information in a black hole. In a 2004 lecture in Dublin, he conceded his 1997 bet with Preskill, but described his own, somewhat controversial solution to the information paradox problem, involving the possibility that black holes have more than one topology. In the 2005 paper he published on the subject, he argued that the information paradox was explained by examining all the alternative histories of universes, with the information loss in those with black holes being cancelled out by those without such loss. In January 2014, he called the alleged loss of information in black holes his "biggest blunder".

As part of another longstanding scientific dispute, Hawking had emphatically argued, and bet, that the Higgs boson would never be found. The particle was proposed to exist as part of the Higgs field theory by Peter Higgs in 1964. Hawking and Higgs engaged in a heated and public debate over the matter in 2002 and again in 2008, with Higgs criticizing Hawking's work and complaining that Hawking's "celebrity status gives him instant credibility that others do not have." The particle was discovered in July 2012 at CERN following construction of the Large Hadron Collider. Hawking quickly conceded that he had lost his bet and said that Higgs should win the Nobel Prize for Physics, which he did in 2013.

In 2007, Hawking and his daughter Lucy published George's Secret Key to the Universe, a children's book designed to explain theoretical physics in an accessible fashion and featuring characters similar to those in the Hawking family. The book was followed by sequels in 2009, 2011, 2014 and 2016.

In 2002, following a UK-wide vote, the BBC included Hawking in their list of the 100 Greatest Britons. He was awarded the Copley Medal from the Royal Society (2006), the Presidential Medal of Freedom, which is America's highest civilian honour (2009), and the Russian Special Fundamental Physics Prize (2013).

Several buildings have been named after him, including the Stephen W. Hawking Science Museum in San Salvador, El Salvador, the Stephen Hawking Building in Cambridge,[209] and the Stephen Hawking Centre at the Perimeter Institute in Canada. Appropriately, given Hawking's association with time, he unveiled the mechanical "Chronophage" (or time-eating) Corpus Clock at Corpus Christi College, Cambridge in September 2008.

During his career, Hawking supervised 39 successful PhD students. One doctoral student did not successfully complete the PhD. As required by Cambridge University regulations, Hawking retired as Lucasian Professor of Mathematics in 2009. Despite suggestions that he might leave the United Kingdom as a protest against public funding cuts to basic scientific research, Hawking worked as director of research at the Cambridge University Department of Applied Mathematics and Theoretical Physics.

On 28 June 2009, as a tongue-in-cheek test of his 1992 conjecture that travel into the past is effectively impossible, Hawking held a party open to all, complete with hors d'oeuvres and iced champagne, but publicized the party only after it was over so that only time-travelers would know to attend; as expected, nobody showed up to the party.

On 20 July 2015, Hawking helped launch Breakthrough Initiatives, an effort to search for extraterrestrial life. Hawking created Stephen Hawking: Expedition New Earth, a documentary on space colonization, as a 2017 episode of Tomorrow's World.

In August 2015, Hawking said that not all information is lost when something enters a black hole and there might be a possibility to retrieve information from a black hole according to his theory. In July 2017, Hawking was awarded an Honorary Doctorate from Imperial College London.

Hawking's final paper - A smooth exit from eternal inflation? - was posthumously published in the Journal of High Energy Physics on 27 April 2018.

Marriages

Hawking met his future wife, Jane Wilde, at a party in 1962. The following year, Hawking was diagnosed with motor neuron disease. In October 1964, the couple became engaged to marry, aware of the potential challenges that lay ahead due to Hawking's shortened life expectancy and physical limitations. Hawking later said that the engagement gave him "something to live for". The two were married on 14 July 1965 in their shared hometown of St Albans.

The couple resided in Cambridge, within Hawking's walking distance to the Department of Applied Mathematics and Theoretical Physics (DAMTP). During their first years of marriage, Jane lived in London during the week as she completed her degree at Westfield College. They travelled to the United States several times for conferences and physics-related visits. Jane began a PhD programme through Westfield College in medieval Spanish poetry (completed in 1981). The couple had three children: Robert, born May 1967, Lucy, born November 1969, and Timothy, born April 1979.

Hawking rarely discussed his illness and physical challenges, even - in a precedent set during their courtship - with Jane. His disabilities meant that the responsibilities of home and family rested firmly on his wife's increasingly overwhelmed shoulders, leaving him more time to think about physics. Upon his appointment in 1974 to a year-long position at the California Institute of Technology in Pasadena, California, Jane proposed that a graduate or post-doctoral student live with them and help with his care. Hawking accepted, and Bernard Carr travelled with them as the first of many students who fulfilled this role. The family spent a generally happy and stimulating year in Pasadena.

Hawking returned to Cambridge in 1975 to a new home and a new job, as reader. Don Page, with whom Hawking had begun a close friendship at Caltech, arrived to work as the live-in graduate student assistant. With Page's help and that of a secretary, Jane's responsibilities were reduced so she could return to her doctoral thesis and her new interest in singing.

Around December 1977, Jane met organist Jonathan Hellyer Jones when singing in a church choir. Hellyer Jones became close to the Hawking family, and by the mid-1980s, he and Jane had developed romantic feelings for each other. According to Jane, her husband was accepting of the situation, stating "he would not object so long as I continued to love him". Jane and Hellyer Jones determined not to break up the family, and their relationship remained platonic for a long period.

By the 1980s, Hawking's marriage had been strained for many years. Jane felt overwhelmed by the intrusion into their family life of the required nurses and assistants. The impact of his celebrity was challenging for colleagues and family members, while the prospect of living up to a worldwide fairytale image was daunting for the couple. Hawking's views of religion also contrasted with her strong Christian faith and resulted in tension. After a tracheotomy in 1985, Hawking required a nurse 24/7 and nursing care was split across 3 shifts daily. In the late 1980s, Hawking grew close to one of his nurses, Elaine Mason, to the dismay of some colleagues, caregivers, and family members, who were disturbed by her strength of personality and protectiveness. In February 1990, Hawking told Jane that he was leaving her for Mason, and departed the family home. After his divorce from Jane in 1995, Hawking married Mason in September, declaring, "It's wonderful - I have married the woman I love."

In 1999, Jane Hawking published a memoir, Music to Move the Stars, describing her marriage to Hawking and its breakdown. Its revelations caused a sensation in the media but, as was his usual practice regarding his personal life, Hawking made no public comment except to say that he did not read biographies about himself. After his second marriage, Hawking's family felt excluded and marginalized from his life. For a period of about five years in the early 2000s, his family and staff became increasingly worried that he was being physically abused. Police investigations took place, but were closed as Hawking refused to make a complaint.

In 2006, Hawking and Mason quietly divorced, and Hawking resumed closer relationships with Jane, his children, and his grandchildren. Reflecting on this happier period, a revised version of Jane's book, re-titled Traveling to Infinity: My Life with Stephen, appeared in 2007, and was made into a film, The Theory of Everything, in 2014.

Disability

Hawking had a rare early-onset slow-progressing form of motor neuron disease (MND; also known as amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (ALS), or Lou Gehrig's disease), a fatal neurodegenerative disease that results in the death of motor neurones in the brain and spinal cord, which gradually paralysed him over decades.

Hawking had experienced increasing clumsiness during his final year at Oxford, including a fall on some stairs and difficulties when rowing. The problems worsened, and his speech became slightly slurred and his family noticed the changes when he returned home for Christmas, and medical investigations were begun. The MND diagnosis came when Hawking was 21, in 1963. At the time, doctors gave him a life expectancy of two years.

In the late 1960s, Hawking's physical abilities declined: he began to use crutches and could no longer give lectures regularly. As he slowly lost the ability to write, he developed compensatory visual methods, including seeing equations in terms of geometry. The physicist Werner Israel later compared the achievements to Mozart composing an entire symphony in his head. Hawking was fiercely independent and unwilling to accept help or make concessions for his disabilities. He preferred to be regarded as "a scientist first, popular science writer second, and, in all the ways that matter, a normal human being with the same desires, drives, dreams, and ambitions as the next person." His wife, Jane Hawking, later noted: "Some people would call it determination, some obstinacy. I've called it both at one time or another." He required much persuasion to accept the use of a wheelchair at the end of the 1960s, but ultimately became notorious for the wildness of his wheelchair driving. Hawking was a popular and witty colleague, but his illness, as well as his reputation for brashness, distanced him from some.

When Hawking first began using a wheelchair in the late 1970s he was using standard motorised models. The earliest surviving example of these chairs was made by BEC Mobility and sold by Christie's in November 2018 for £296,750. Hawking continued to use this type of chair until the early 1990s, at which time his ability to use his hands to drive a wheelchair deteriorated. Hawking used a variety of different chairs from that time, including a DragonMobility Dragon elevating powerchair from 2007, as shown in the April 2008 photo of Hawking attending NASA's 50th anniversary; a Permobil C350 from 2014; and then a Permobil F3 from 2016.

Hawking's speech deteriorated, and by the late 1970s he could be understood by only his family and closest friends. To communicate with others, someone who knew him well would interpret his speech into intelligible speech. Spurred by a dispute with the university over who would pay for the ramp needed for him to enter his workplace, Hawking and his wife campaigned for improved access and support for those with disabilities in Cambridge, including adapted student housing at the university. In general, Hawking had ambivalent feelings about his role as a disability rights champion: while wanting to help others, he also sought to detach himself from his illness and its challenges. His lack of engagement in this area led to some criticism.

During a visit to CERN on the border of France and Switzerland in mid-1985, Hawking contracted pneumonia, which in his condition was life-threatening; he was so ill that Jane was asked if life support should be terminated. She refused, but the consequence was a tracheotomy, which required round-the-clock nursing care and the removal of what remained of his speech. The National Health Service was ready to pay for a nursing home, but Jane was determined that he would live at home. The cost of the care was funded by an American foundation. Nurses were hired for the three shifts required to provide the round-the-clock support he required.

One of those employed was Elaine Mason, who was to become Hawking's second wife.

For his communication, Hawking initially raised his eyebrows to choose letters on a spelling card, but in 1986 he received a computer program called the "Equalizer" from Walter Woltosz, CEO of Words Plus, who had developed an earlier version of the software to help his mother-in-law, who also suffered from ALS and had lost her ability to speak and write. In a method he used for the rest of his life, Hawking could now simply press a switch to select phrases, words or letters from a bank of about 2,500-3,000 that were scanned. The program was originally run on a desktop computer. Elaine Mason's husband, David, a computer engineer, adapted a small computer and attached it to his wheelchair.

Released from the need to use somebody to interpret his speech, Hawking commented that "I can communicate better now than before I lost my voice." The voice he used had an American accent and is no longer produced. Despite the later availability of other voices, Hawking retained this original voice, saying that he preferred it and identified with it. Originally, Hawking activated a switch using his hand and could produce up to 15 words a minute. Lectures were prepared in advance and were sent to the speech synthesizer in short sections to be delivered.

Hawking gradually lost the use of his hand, and in 2005 he began to control his communication device with movements of his cheek muscles, with a rate of about one word per minute. With this decline there was a risk of his developing locked-in syndrome, so Hawking collaborated with Intel researchers on systems that could translate his brain patterns or facial expressions into switch activations. After several prototypes that did not perform as planned, they settled on an adaptive word predictor made by the London-based startup SwiftKey, which used a system similar to his original technology. Hawking had an easier time adapting to the new system, which was further developed after inputting large amounts of Hawking's papers and other written materials and uses predictive software similar to other smartphone keyboards.

By 2009, he could no longer drive his wheelchair independently, but the same people who created his new typing mechanics were working on a method to drive his chair using movements made by his chin. This proved difficult, since Hawking could not move his neck, and trials showed that while he could indeed drive the chair, the movement was sporadic and jumpy. Near the end of his life, Hawking experienced increased breathing difficulties, often resulting in his requiring the usage of a ventilator, and being regularly hospitalized.

Disability outreach

Starting in the 1990s, Hawking accepted the mantle of role model for disabled people, lecturing and participating in fundraising activities. At the turn of the century, he and eleven other luminaries signed the Charter for the Third Millennium on Disability, which called on governments to prevent disability and protect the rights of the disabled. In 1999, Hawking was awarded the Julius Edgar Lilienfeld Prize of the American Physical Society.

In August 2012, Hawking narrated the "Enlightenment" segment of the 2012 Summer Paralympics opening ceremony in London. In 2013, the biographical documentary film Hawking, in which Hawking himself is featured, was released. In September 2013, he expressed support for the legalization of assisted suicide for the terminally ill. In August 2014, Hawking accepted the Ice Bucket Challenge to promote ALS/MND awareness and raise contributions for research. As he had pneumonia in 2013, he was advised not to have ice poured over him, but his children volunteered to accept the challenge on his behalf.

Plans for a trip to space

In late 2006, Hawking revealed in a BBC interview that one of his greatest unfulfilled desires was to travel to space; on hearing this, Richard Branson offered a free flight into space with Virgin Galactic, which Hawking immediately accepted. Besides personal ambition, he was motivated by the desire to increase public interest in spaceflight and to show the potential of people with disabilities. On 26 April 2007, Hawking flew aboard a specially-modified Boeing 727-200 jet operated by Zero-G Corp off the coast of Florida to experience weightlessness. Fears the maneuvers would cause him undue discomfort proved groundless, and the flight was extended to eight parabolic arcs.[307] It was described as a successful test to see if he could withstand the g-forces involved in space flight. At the time, the date of Hawking's trip to space was projected to be as early as 2009, but commercial flights to space did not commence before his death.

Death

Hawking died at his home in Cambridge, England, on 14 March 2018, at the age of 76. His family stated that he "died peacefully". He was eulogized by figures in science, entertainment, politics, and other areas. The Gonville and Caius College flag flew at half-mast and a book of condolences was signed by students and visitors. A tribute was made to Hawking in the closing speech by IPC President Andrew Parsons at the closing ceremony of the 2018 Paralympic Winter Games in Pyeongchang, South Korea.

Hawking was born on the 300th anniversary of Galileo's death and died on the 139th anniversary of Einstein's birth. His private funeral took place at 2 pm on the afternoon of 31 March 2018, at Great St Mary's Church, Cambridge. Guests at the funeral included The Theory of Everything actors Eddie Redmayne and Felicity Jones, Queen guitarist and astrophysicist Brian May, and model Lily Cole. In addition, actor Benedict Cumberbatch, who played Hawking in Hawking, astronaut Tim Peake, Astronomer Royal Martin Rees and physicist Kip Thorne provided readings at the service. Although Hawking was an atheist the funeral took place with a traditional Anglican service. Following the cremation, a service of thanksgiving was held at Westminster Abbey on 15 June 2018, after which his ashes were interred in the Abbey's nave, between the graves of Sir Isaac Newton and Charles Darwin.

Inscribed on his memorial stone are the words "Here lies what was mortal of Stephen Hawking 1942-2018" and his most famed equation. He directed, at least fifteen years before his death, that the Bekenstein-Hawking entropy equation be his epitaph. In June 2018, it was announced that Hawking's words, set to music by Greek composer Vangelis, would be beamed into space from a European space agency satellite dish in Spain with the aim of reaching the nearest black hole, 1A 0620-00.

Hawking's final broadcast interview, about the detection of gravitational waves resulting from the collision of two neutron stars, occurred in October 2017. His final words to the world appeared posthumously, in April 2018, in the form of a Smithsonian TV Channel documentary entitled, Leaving Earth: Or How to Colonize a Planet. One of his final research studies, entitled A smooth exit from eternal inflation?, about the origin of the universe, was published in the Journal of High Energy Physics in May 2018. Later, in October 2018, another of his final research studies, entitled Black Hole Entropy and Soft Hair, was published, and dealt with the "mystery of what happens to the information held by objects once they disappear into a black hole". Also in October 2018, Hawking's last book, Brief Answers to the Big Questions, a popular science book presenting his final comments on the most important questions facing humankind, was published.

On 8 November 2018, an auction of 22 personal possessions of Stephen Hawking, including his doctoral thesis ("Properties of Expanding Universes", PhD thesis, Cambridge University, 1965) and wheelchair, took place, and fetched about £1.8 m (more than $2.3 m). Proceeds from the auction sale of the wheelchair went to two charities, the Motor Neurone Disease Association and the Stephen Hawking Foundation; proceeds from Hawking's other items went to his estate.

In March 2019, it was announced that the Royal Mint issued a commemorative 50 pence coin in honor of Hawking. The same month, it was reported that Hawking's nurse, Patricia Dowdy, had been handed an interim suspension in 2016 for "failures over his care and financial misconduct."

Future of humanity

In 2006, Hawking posed an open question on the Internet: "In a world that is in chaos politically, socially and environmentally, how can the human race sustain another 100 years?", later clarifying: "I don't know the answer. That is why I asked the question, to get people to think about it, and to be aware of the dangers we now face."

Hawking expressed concern that life on Earth is at risk from a sudden nuclear war, a genetically engineered virus, global warming, or other dangers humans have not yet thought of. Hawking stated: "I regard it as almost inevitable that either a nuclear confrontation or environmental catastrophe will cripple the Earth at some point in the next 1,000 years", and considered an "asteroid collision" to be the biggest threat to the planet. Such a planet-wide disaster need not result in human extinction if the human race were to be able to colonize additional planets before the disaster. Hawking viewed spaceflight and the colonization of space as necessary for the future of humanity.

Hawking stated that, given the vastness of the universe, aliens likely exist, but that contact with them should be avoided. He warned that aliens might pillage Earth for resources. In 2010 he said, "If aliens visit us, the outcome would be much as when Columbus landed in America, which didn't turn out well for the Native Americans."

Hawking warned that superintelligent artificial intelligence could be pivotal in steering humanity's fate, stating that "the potential benefits are huge… Success in creating AI would be the biggest event in human history. It might also be the last, unless we learn how to avoid the risks." However, he argued that we should be more frightened of capitalism exacerbating economic inequality than robots.

Hawking was concerned about the future emergence of a race of "superhumans" that would be able to design their own evolution and, as well, argued that computer viruses in today's world should be considered a new form of life, stating that "maybe it says something about human nature, that the only form of life we have created so far is purely destructive. Talk about creating life in our own image."

Science vs. philosophy

At Google's Zeitgeist Conference in 2011, Hawking said that "philosophy is dead". He believed that philosophers "have not kept up with modern developments in science" and that scientists "have become the bearers of the torch of discovery in our quest for knowledge". He said that philosophical problems can be answered by science, particularly new scientific theories which "lead us to a new and very different picture of the universe and our place in it".

Religion and atheism

Hawking was an atheist and believed that "the universe is governed by the laws of science". He stated: "There is a fundamental difference between religion, which is based on authority, [and] science, which is based on observation and reason. Science will win because it works." In an interview published in The Guardian, Hawking regarded "the brain as a computer which will stop working when its components fail", and the concept of an afterlife as a "fairy story for people afraid of the dark". In 2011, narrating the first episode of the American television series Curiosity on the Discovery Channel, Hawking declared:

We are each free to believe what we want and it is my view that the simplest explanation is there is no God. No one created the universe and no one directs our fate. This leads me to a profound realisation. There is probably no heaven, and no afterlife either. We have this one life to appreciate the grand design of the universe, and for that, I am extremely grateful.

Hawking's association with atheism and freethinking was in evidence from his university years onwards, when he had been a member of Oxford University's humanist group. He was later scheduled to appear as the keynote speaker at a 2017 Humanists UK conference. In an interview with El Mundo, he said:

Before we understand science, it is natural to believe that God created the universe. But now science offers a more convincing explanation. What I meant by 'we would know the mind of God' is, we would know everything that God would know, if there were a God, which there isn't. I'm an atheist.

In addition, Hawking stated:

If you like, you can call the laws of science 'God,' but it wouldn't be a personal God that you would meet and put questions to.

Politics

Hawking was a longstanding Labour Party supporter. He recorded a tribute for the 2000 Democratic presidential candidate Al Gore, called the 2003 invasion of Iraq a "war crime", supported the academic boycott of Israel, campaigned for nuclear disarmament, and supported stem cell research, universal health care, and action to prevent climate change. In August 2014, Hawking was one of 200 public figures who were signatories to a letter to The Guardian expressing their hope that Scotland would vote to remain part of the United Kingdom in September's referendum on that issue. Hawking believed a United Kingdom withdrawal from the European Union (Brexit) would damage the UK's contribution to science as modern research needs international collaboration, and that free movement of people in Europe encourages the spread of ideas. Hawking was disappointed by Brexit and warned against envy and isolationism.

Hawking was greatly concerned over health care, and maintained that without the UK National Health Service, he could not have survived into his 70s. He stated, "I have received excellent medical attention in Britain, and I felt it was important to set the record straight. I believe in universal health care. And I am not afraid to say so."

Hawking feared privatisation. He stated, "The more profit is extracted from the system, the more private monopolies grow and the more expensive healthcare becomes. The NHS must be preserved from commercial interests and protected from those who want to privatize it." Hawking alleged ministers damaged the NHS, he blamed the Conservatives for cutting funding, weakening the NHS by privatization, lowering staff morale through holding pay back and reducing social care. Hawking accused Jeremy Hunt of cherry picking evidence which Hawking maintained debased science. Hawking also stated, "There is overwhelming evidence that NHS funding and the numbers of doctors and nurses are inadequate, and it is getting worse."

In June 2017, Hawking endorsed the Labour Party in the 2017 UK general election, citing the Conservatives' proposed cuts to the NHS. But he was also critical of Labour leader Jeremy Corbyn, expressing skepticism over whether the party could win a general election under him.

Hawking feared Donald Trump's policies on global warming could endanger the planet and make global warming irreversible. He said, "Climate change is one of the great dangers we face, and it's one we can prevent if we act now. By denying the evidence for climate change, and pulling out of the Paris Agreement, Donald Trump will cause avoidable environmental damage to our beautiful planet, endangering the natural world, for us and our children." Hawking further stated that this could lead Earth "to become like Venus, with a temperature of two hundred and fifty degrees, and raining sulphuric acid".

Relationships

Zick is likely to have a crush on his best friend Elena at some point in the series, and does care for her. He often refuses her from accompanying him on his "missions" for her safety, but defends her nevertheless when someone hurts or insults her. He allows Elena jump onto him and swings her around in celebration, sometimes letting her hug him. Some of the characters infer that they have feelings for one another since they are always together.

In "Moog's Revenge", after Elena helps him turn back to normal, Zick writes her a letter in which he confesses his love for her, asking Bombolo to deliver it for him. Unknown to Zick, Bombolo ate this letter before Elena got a chance to read it.

In the comics, when Elena finds out that Zick is a hybrid, half human and tamer/Monster, he was scared that she'd hate him and broke down in tears, when Elena not only accepted him but also encourage'd him he wanted to hug her but was stopped by Elena

After he was in a illusion of a fake future created by the Moog Magister and the Anguanes, he was happy to see Elena again and hopes she doesn't get married to Teddy. When Elena ask what did he mumble about, he told her that it wasn't important.

Zick also likes the female Tamer name Lay Mamery. He is shown blushing whenever he sees or waves at her, and is even aware of Elena's jealously regarding this. When another Tamer Bobby Clash kept getting Lay's attention, he was annoyed at first but ended up befriending him.

Powers

As a Tamer, Zick has five Dom powers. These includes the Sight Dom, the Voice Dom, Gesture Dom, Enviro Dom, and the Energy

Dom. His ability also is increased by the Dom Glove. At first, his Dom energy was red (the first and weakest level), later achieving second level with yellow Dom energy, until finally obtaining third level with green Dom energy, and earned his Tele-skates. In the second season to the animated series, he became a fourth level Tamer with blue Dom energy.

Many have stated that he's very powerful even at such a young age, and has defeated and captured different kinds of rare and dangerous monsters that no one has been able to capture for so long. This is attributed to his monster allergies, in addition to his inherently strong powers.

Elena Potato

Elena Potato lives next door to Zick and is his best friend. She recently moved to Old Mill.

Elena is Zick's best friend. She often aids him in their adventures and gets irritated when he goes off on his own. She loves the world of monsters and is the only one to believe Zick when he claims to be able to see monsters. She gains the gift of Sight from Greta Barrymore, Zick's mother, which is rare since she is a regular human and is not the child of Greta. After getting the Sight, she becomes a Keeper.

Comic book series

She likes to read a comic series called 'Ghosto' as seen in issue 1, where she is sitting on a box reading comics. In the comic series, issue 5, she cried and 'showed sympathy to the ghost and made him disappear with her moving words. Elena was overjoyed that she, a human, did this and started to jump with joy. In the comic book series issue 21, Zick was forced to kiss Elena in the cheek to win a game. In issue 22, Elena had awaken a terrible Black Fire and risked losing her keeper rank. Elena was frighten about this as she would miss monsters too much. But proving herself to be a great keeper in issue 23, the tutors decided to let her stay as a keeper.

Relationships

At first, her relationship with Zick was always being friends, but she always gets annoyed when some people think that they have a feeling for each other since they are always together, and denying that Zick is her "boyfriend" when Teddy says it. However, in some point in the series she may have a crush on him. In few occasions, she hugs Zick when leaving, jumps happily to him while grabbing her, and quickly hugs him for not seeing him for a long time. Unbeknownst to her that Zick had wrote a letter for her about his feelings for her when she helps bring him back to normal and brought her home while she was sleeping, but unfortunately Bombolo ate the letter as a food, and not knowing about it.

She is always jealous when Zick is looking at Lay Mamery whom Zick likes, and he was aware of her jealously. She also takes a liking of a new tamer, Bobby Clash upon meeting for being so cute.

Me: Wow! You two have been through so much on an incredible adventure.

Elena Potato: We sure have.

Zeke: Yeah. It has been a really perilous journey for us. But it's awesome that we helped out so many people.

Juniper Lee: You two have almost the same job as me and Ophelia. I am known as the Te Xuan Ze and our job is to maintain the balance of the physical and spiritual worlds. We see all kinds of monsters and demons and we have to make sure that the balance between both our worlds is maintained through brute force.

Ophelia: It's a big job but someone has to do it.

Lincoln: It's true and we are all no strangers to the worlds of the spiritual and the supernatural.

Nico: Yep. We've seen it all and done it all.

Zeke: Wow! That's what we have heard. Let me show you what happened.

They took us to a room and we saw a bunch of jars that were all opened and empty.

Me: These jars are all empty.

Elena Potato: They were the jars used to trap all the monsters we've caught.

Zeke: Before you guys killed Voldemort, one of his Death Eaters managed to bust out all the monsters we ever captured.

Maria: I see. And the Death Eater?

Elena Potato: Zeke killed him.

Me: Whoa!

Zeke: (sheepishly) You guys can arrest me for murder now.

Me: No Zeke we are not going to arrest you. Voldemort was going to kill the entire human race by annihilating all the people that aren't pureblood wizards. You did us a favor by killing him.

Zeke: But I killed someone.

Me: Yes you did. But it was for a good reason. But how did you kill him if I may ask?

Zeke: I fired an Energy Dom blast through his heart and blew his head off with it.

Lori: Whoa! That is literally impressive.

Varie: Very impressive.

Me: You did us a good favor Zeke. You saved us the trouble of having to do so. Thank you.

Zeke: We're gonna go after Hector Sinistro first.

Sinistro: Hector Sinistro?

Zeke: He's one of my most dangerous enemies.

Me: Can you lead us to him? We're gonna help you out.

Zeke: Sure. This time we're going to kill him.

Elena Potato: And he will pay for his crimes.

Me: Cool. Can you tell us all about him first?

Zeke: Sure.

Zeke went over Hector Sinistro's history.

---

Hector Sinistro is a Dark Tamer, and one of the main antagonists in the second season of the Animated series. He literally has two left hands since his right hand is also a left hand.

Animated Series

He tries to get his revenge from Zob attacking his son by tampering with his teleskates, shrinking him with Mr. Uzka's shrink ray and putting him in a snow globe along with other monsters to attack Zick. He vows to get his revenge when he was outsmarted and defeated by Zick. He appears again by kidnapping some monsters in Bibbur-Si to perform in his circus. Zick, Elena and Bombo manage to track down and stop his plans, but was able to escape them. He appears again by controlling Bombo to make him wrestle as the Almighty King and acted as his manager to make a lot of money, but his plans were ruined by Zick and Elena again. In the past, he was a respected tamer until he was discovered by Zob who saw him selling illegal captured monster to the Anguanes. He was turned in by Zob, and had been marked as a renegade Tamer or Dark Tamer as they call them now. He plans to obtain his treasure by creating a shadow army to attack the armory and stole Zick's shadow to lead him to the crypt to where his captured monsters were. However, his plan was foiled by Elena and Zick's Grandparents, Theo and Tessa. They destroy his cane to free the shadow along with Zick's shadow. He manages to escape the Tamers, and left him since he's no longer a threat without his cane. He appears again with a new cane by having a Megarock burrow his way to attack the Armory.

However, his plan was foiled again by Zick and Elena by saving the baby megarock, and defeated again by Zick by being imprisoned in a cave with fallen stalactite.

Comic Series

In the Comic Book Series, First seen in issue 24, Hector is 783 human years old. This Tamer was imprisoned for life for his crimes against monsters. Hector was labeled as the freak in his childhood because he was born with two left hands but was not left-handed. He is sinister by nature, turning his passion for the circus into a nightmare. Sinistro represents one of the darkest moments of the history of Tamers. He was captured by Ezeria Zick but later escaped through cracks in his Dom Box, which, because of his passion for the circus, was in a pattern of a carnival. After his escape, he kidnapped Bombo and the other monsters to show in his horrible circus. Bombo alone, because of his stomach, was forced to give up his invisibility and fight in a wrestling ring as the Great Chumbo, swallowing his opponents and spitting them out. This was a great hit for Hector as Bombo made him a lot of money. Zick and Elena came to rescue Bombo, breaking the other monsters out of prison. They tried to stop Hector but he had escaped. Hector was seen again in the 29th issue where he forced Zick to give up his Dom in order to save Elena, but the Dom energy that was kept in the Dom box was too much to contain and exploded, killing him along with other Dark Tamers.

---

We gasped in shock.

Nico: That Death Eater must've released him from his prison.

Me: Hector is over 783 years old!? That's amazing! And I'm over 150,000 years old.

Elena Potato: Wow! That's incredible!

Talia Al Ghul: It sure is. My father has lived for over 600 years.

Zeke: Whoa!

Naruto: I was shocked myself.

Sakura Haruno: Same here.

Fu: Yeah.

Hunter: (German Accent) Ja. It's really something.

Sinistro: I find it strange that someone has my name as their last name. That's amazing though.

Me: It sure is.

Zeke: But we're gonna find him and make him pay.

Me: Your enemies have now become ours as well Zeke. We can help you destroy them once and for all and make them pay for their crimes.

Zeke: I would like that J.D.

Me: Lets do it.

We went after Hector Sinistro. We found him in an abandoned building and we saw HECTOR SINISTRO!

Zeke: Hector!

Hector Sinistro: I'm surprised you decided to go after me, Zeke. I thought you would've gone after one of your escaped monsters first.

Me: You're our first target Hector. We're going to kill you.

Hector Sinistro: And who are all of you?

Me: Your worst nightmare. We are Team Loud Phoenix Storm and we are the Universe's greatest champions of justice. Your executioners.

Nico: Hector Sinistro, you have failed this world!

Vince: Prepare to die.

Dark Spicer and Zs'Skayr then came out.

Me: Dark Spicer and Zs'Skayr.

Dark Spicer: Nice of you all to make it.

Me: We're glad you had fun with us on Easter yesterday.

Dark Spicer: Thanks. (to Zeke) Here's your warning: Your ass is about to be kicked!

Me: Not if we kick yours first.

Zeke: Who is he?

Me: This is Jack Spicer's dark side. We call him Dark Spicer and he is 2nd in Command for our enemies, The Masters of Evil. Their goal is to kill us. The ghost creature is Zs'Skayr. He is formerly known as Ghostfreak. He is an Ectonurite from the planet Anur Phaetos and he was once one of Ben Tennyson's heroes until he went rogue.

Ben: That's right.

Zs'Skayr: That's correct.

Zeke: Wow!

Me: Yeah.

?: They aren't the only ones.

We saw a figure come out and we saw that it was the Reploid STORM EAGLE!

Storm Eagle: Allow me to introduce myself. You can call me… Storm Eagle! (aims his arm cannon forward and fires a cyclone of air from it at Air Man)

Lori blew it back and it hit Hector and blew him around in a tornado.

Nicole: Now I remember where I saw these robots before! They are from the video game series Mega Man X!

Me: Mega Man X? Then Sigma is behind the Reploids appearing!

Qin: Who is Sigma?

Nicole: An evil leader of indescribable pure evil.

Nicole went over Sigma's history.

---

Sigma is the supreme commander of the Mavericks and the main antagonist in the Mega Man X video game series, serving as the final boss for most games of the series (except for X8 and Command Mission). He is X's arch-nemesis.

He is voiced by Mugihito in Japanese beginning in Mega Man X4, and has different English dubbed voices per appearance: Jim Byrnes in the Mega Man cartoon, Charlie Fontana in X4, Walter Roberts in X7, Dave Pettitt in X8, Gerald Matthews in Mega Man Maverick Hunter X and Chris Tergliafera in Marvel vs. Capcom: Infinite. The latter also voiced Gundham Tanaka from the Danganronpa series and Rasticore from Star vs. the Forces of Evil.

Created by Dr. Cain, Sigma was considered the finest of the Reploids (having been the first made) and was the first leader of the Maverick Hunters - peace-keeping Reploids who defend humans against their renegade robot counterparts. Although he was once honorable, Sigma unexpectedly goes Maverick in the beginning of Mega Man X and rebelled against humankind (the reason for this was that he was infected by the Maverick Virus, which he received from Zero). He defects to the Mavericks and becomes their leader. Under Sigma's command, the Mavericks grow into a legion dedicated to the extermination of the human race. Sigma instigates many of the destructive Maverick Wars, with the Maverick Hunters existing to crush Sigma and his minions.

Sigma appears as a bulky, bald humanoid in most of his forms; his most pronounced feature is a crystal on his forehead, and two parallel scars running through his eyes. He often produces a second form after his initial defeat in a game, which frequently has the head (or the crystal on it) as a weak point. Although he has been destroyed countless times, Sigma's programming always survives and builds himself a new form, ready to menace the world once again. It is implied that he grows more insidious and vengeful with each transformation, with each successive plan becoming more and more desperate and aggressive.

Mega Man X

Sigma starts his revolt, with many former Maverick Hunters joining him out of loyalty. X and Zero are then forced to fight the Maverick forces, with X eventually reaching Sigma at his palace. Sigma laments X's decision to side with humanity, deciding to test him by by sending his pet robot Velguarder. After X destroys Velguarder, Sigma is pleased with X's progress and decides to confront him personally.

On the first phase of the fight, Sigma will attempt to slash X with its sword, defend incoming attacks and jump around the walls. In the remake Maverick Hunter X he will also shoot beams from his eyes. This form is weak to the Electric Spark, but you can also one-shot him with the Hadouken if fast enough. Upon exploding his head will float and attach to a giant body called Wolf Sigma. In this form it will attack by shooting fire and lightning. The best strategy is to jump into one of his hands to reach his head, which is his weak spot, and use his weakness, the Rolling Shield.

After the credits roll, Sigma appears on a monitor and promises to come back in a new body to get his revenge.

Mega Man X2

Sigma returns and orders the X-Hunters to retrieve Zero's parts, which he planned to reprogram to serve him. His plan fails, however, as X is able to retrieve the parts first, which Dr. Cain works on reassembling while X assaults the X-Hunters base. After X defeats the X-Hunters, Sigma confronts him, pitting him against a fake copy of Zero, which the real Zero promptly blasts. Sigma the retreats to a lower floor, where X confronts him.

On his first form, Sigma uses his claws to attack, as well as teleporting around the arena and shooting electric sparks which home onto X. This form is weak to the Sonic Slicer. Upon exploding, Sigma appears in his true virus form, appearing as a transparent wireframe, his attacks involving spitting out minor enemies found throughout the game as well as shooting a beam from his mouth. This form is weak to the Strike Chain.

Again defeated, Sigma promises he will come back, but also tells he does not understand why Zero sided with X, as he points out he is "the last of the doctor's creations".

Mega Man Xtreme

Sigma uses the hacker Techno to hack into the main computer of the Maverick Hunter base, also sending Zain and Geemel to invade it as X entered it to combat Techno's viruses. Sigma's forms in this game are identical to those of the first game, even the weaknesses.

Mega Man X3

When the scientist Dr. Doppler develops a vaccine to counter the Sigma Virus, Sigma immediately takes action and brainwashes Doppler, using him to stage a new revolt on his utopic Doppler Town. After X defeats Doppler, he comes to his senses and reveals than not only Sigma brainwashed him, but also that he made a new powerful battle body for Sigma, urging X to go after him. When X finds Sigma, he tell that it was very easy to corrupt Doppler, and his plan would have succeeded had X not interfered, so he once again challenges X to fight.

On his first form, Sigma uses a shield to protect himself while shooting fireballs, after which he will jump to the other side of the screen, stopping midair to shoot more fireballs. When his energy is halved, he will also throw his shield. His weakness is the Spinning Blade. On his second form, Sigma emerges in a giant body called Kaiser Sigma. He will shoot homing missiles and drones, as well as shooting a huge beam of light. This form is very difficult, due to his small head (his weak point) being very hard to hit, as well as his massive size, which makes it hard to dodge his attacks and maneuver around the room.

Upon being destroyed, Sigma once again appears in his viral form, pursuing X in an attempt to possess his body. He manges to corner X, but Dr. Doppler appears and draws Sigma within his own body, which was full of his antivirus, which makes Sigma's code to start to disappear.

Mega Man Xtreme 2

Sigma will only appear in the Xtreme mode, where he reveals he was behind the Erasure Incident the whole time, though he thanks X for disposing of Berkana, as she went too far. His first form is identical to his first form in X2, but his second form is totally new, appearing in a large body with a lion on his chest. After he is defeated all Reploid souls return to their bodies.

Mega Man X4

Sometime after his last defeat, a new group of Maverick Hunters called Repliforce is created, in order to assist the Hunters. Sigma, knowing they could pose a significant threat, enacts a plan to pit the Maverick Hunters against the Repliforce. He initially appears attempting to convince the General, leader of Repliforce, to wage war against the Hunters, with the pretense that they would soon turn on the Repliforce, but General quickly dismisses him. Sigma then puts his plan B in action, staging the destruction of the floating city of Sky Lagoon, convincing the Maverick Hunter Magma Dragoon to take down the power core of the city while a mechaniloid under Repliforce's control called Eregion attacks the place. Both the Maverick Hunters and Repliforce arrive at the place, but as the city plummets to the ground the Hunters blame Repliforce for the attack, as the prideful Colonel refuse to drop his weapons. As the entire Repliforce is labeled Maverick, General starts a coup for independence, wishing to avoid conflict. Sigma then merely watches as the two groups destroy each other, but to ensure his plans go smoothly, Sigma also sends Double to spy on X. As General goes paranoid and loses his faith in peace, he orders the construction of a satellite laser, the Final Weapon. After General is defeated by X, the weapon suddenly activates, which shocks General, who finally realizes he has been a pawn the whole time. As X goes after the core of the satellite, he finds Sigma, who tells his plan worked perfectly and proceeds to attack X.

On his initial form, Sigma appears in a cloaked, grim-reaper like appearance, which can only be damaged with Rising Fire/Ryuuenjin. On his second form, he uses his large scythe, tossing it around to electrify either the floor or a wall, then sending boomerangs or shooting a laser beam from his eyes. This form is weak to Lightning Web. In the final phase of the fight, Sigma takes on two distinct forms, each with its own lifebar. One of the forms is a big head which appears on the ground and either shoots wind to push the player into a spiked wall or sucks air then spits lots of scrap metal. This form is weak to the Ground Hunter. On the other form, Sigma appears as a large floating torso carrying a big gun, which he uses to either fire a thick beam that sweeps the entire floor or a bigger beam of light. This form is weak to Soul Body. In between the two forms, various robotic heads will appear to attack the player.

Even though Sigma is destroyed, the Final Weapon is still active, so General appears and sacrifices himself to stop it.

Mega Man X5

Somehow, Sigma was able to interact with the consciousness of Dr. Wily within the virus, which revealed Zero's true nature to Sigma. Intending to "awaken" Zero, Sigma orders the bounty hunter Dynamo to hack into the systems of the space colony Eurasia, setting it into a crash course towards Earth, while he himself prepares a trap for X and Zero. Sigma emerges in a statue construction site, where he makes all mechaniloids go Maverick, so X and Zero rush to the place and confront Sigma. Sigma is fought as the very first boss, appearing as a giant floating head.

As Sigma is destroyed, the ensuing explosion scatters the Sigma Virus all around the world, which was Sigma's plan all along, as he lost on purpose. Soon after, the Hunters learn that Eurasia will crash into Earth, so they race against the clock to retrieve the parts necessary to power the Enigma laser. However, the laser merely delays the crashing colony, giving them some more time, which they use to retrieve parts to power up a space shuttle, while Zero notices how his energy has been growing due to influence of the virus. Zero decides to pilot the shuttle by himself to crash against the colony, successfully destroying the colony and escaping from the shuttle at the last minute. Even so, the wreckage of the colony still leaves the planet badly damaged. After Zero is rescued, the Hunters pick on Sigma's readings, so X and Zero go to investigate. X attempts to convince Zero to return to base, worried about the energy growing within him, but Zero refuses, and the two fight each other. As the two end exhausted, Sigma finally appears and attempts to attack X, but Zero wakes up and retaliates, forcing Sigma to retreat. X recovers and goes along with Zero to face Sigma, who reveals his plan to merge the Sigma virus with the virus in the colony to force Zero's original programming to emerge.

On his first form, Sigma attacks by shooting lightning balls, energy waves and rushing around the room, sometimes creating small viruses to shield himself. He is weak to Tri Thunder. On his second form, Sigma appears in a gigantic body in the background with the jewel in his forehead being his weak spot. He attacks by using two floating hands, attempting to smash the player or shooting plasma. After a while he will start shooting electric balls and create purple boxes, again to smash the player. This form is weak to the Spike Ball.

After Sigma is destroyed, both X and Zero end severely damaged, with Zero's left to only his upper torso. Sigma uses the remaining of his power to shoot a beam, which pierces both X and Zero. Before dying, Zero is able to shoot a final blast, which destroys Sigma for good.

Mega Man X6

In Megaman X6, Sigma only appears near the end of the game, after Gate is defeated. Gate reveals he's been attempting to restore Sigma, but Sigma's code was severely damaged due to the stress of the Eurasia Incident, and as such Gate was unable to finish his body. Even so, Sigma, now reduced to a half-conscious, barely functional body, nonchalantly disposes of Gate and challenges X and Zero, only remembering his hatred against them.

On his first form, Sigma shoots various forms of energy, either from his mouth or his hand. His weakness is the Metal Anchor. On his second form, Sigma appears in a giant skeletal body, and can only be harmed when he opens his mouth to attack. He initially sends various green drones to fill the room, which can be destroyed for items. He then shoots a huge beam from his mouth or charges a pillar of energy that covers half of the room, alternating between each of the halves. After losing half oh his health, he will start shooting large purple spheres which are difficult to dodge. This form's weakness is the Ground Dash.

Mega Man X7

Much time after the Nightmare incident, X retired from his Hunter duties, which prompted an increase in Maverick activity, as well as the insurgence of various illegal Maverick Hunter groups, among them the Red Alert Syndicate, led by the charismatic Red. During this time Sigma reappears, and taking the guise of "The Professor" starts manipulating Red and his organization. He intended to use Axl, a mysterious young Reploid from Red Alert capable of copying Reploid DNA, to copy the DNA of X and Zero. However, Axl senses something is strange with the members of Red Alert, so he escapes the group and seeks the help of the Hunters. Seeking to bring Axl back, Sigma turns the members of Red Alert against Red, who is forced to follow Sigma's orders, challenging the Maverick Hunters to attract their attention. After Red is defeated on his palace, Sigma finally shows himself and confronts the Hunters.

On his first form, Sigma uses his two guns to shoot while walking around the room, as well as going to the background to shoot from a distance. His weakness is the Wind Cutter, which can interrupt most of his attacks. On his second form, Sigma appears in a giant body called Colossus Sigma, which floats over a black void with various platforms circling him, which must be used by the player to reach his head. His attacks consist of various energy shots, which can be deflected back at him with the Gaea Shield/Gokumonken.

Though he is defeated, Sigma reemerges in a junk body and punches Axl through a wall, promising X and Zero he will return. Just then Red appears, so Sigma attempts to possess him, but Red reveals to be actually Axl in disguise, who shoots him and makes him fall over a large pit.

Mega Man X8

Due to the advanced technology at the time, the Jakob Project is created to start colonization of the Moon, with the creation of the Jakob Orbital Elevator and the New Generation Reploids, of which Axl was a prototype. Lumine, director of the Jakob Project, reveals that the New Generation Reploids all possessed the DNA of various Reploids, among them that of Sigma, and as such they were immune to all viruses and able to copy even someone as dangerous as Sigma without any ill effects. However, soon a rebellion starts, with Lumine being kidnapped by Vile and various New Generation Reploids becoming Maverick, and soon Sigma himself revealing to be behind everything. When X, Zero and Axl confront Sigma on the Moon, Sigma reveals that he has been manipulating the Jakob Project since its inception, intending to destroy the "old world" and create a new, perfect world in the Moon for him and the New Generation Reploids, which he refers to as his "children", because since they all possessed his DNA they could go Maverick at will and instead of going insane they would think like him, and as such were his equals.

Unlike in the other games, Sigma has only one form. He will teleport around the room and attack with his massive sword, eventually shooting energy rings and a laser beam from his eye. His weakness is the Shining Ray/Tenshouha/Ray Gun.

After Sigma is destroyed, Lumine reveals himself as the true mastermind behind the whole plot, stomping on Sigma's dead body and saying that Sigma has fulfilled his purpose and that he will not be returning anymore.

Maverick Hunter X

In Maverick Hunter X, a reboot of the original game with an original continuity, Sigma reprises his role as the main villain and his new backstory is told in The Day of Sigma short. In this continuity, Sigma is established as revolting against humans of his own will due to a desire to further reploid evolution, as opposed to being possessed by the Maverick virus as in the original game. Sigma's crimes are far worse then the original and overall he is substantially more villainous then his original incarnation.

Starting out as a heroic Maverick Hunter, dedicated to protecting humans and reploid alike from Mavericks, reploids gone rogue. After a talk with his creator, Dr. Cain, Sigma became obsessed with reploids reaching their true potential and hastening that potential, seeing humans as holding reploids back.

To that end, Sigma arranged to create a disaster by hiring criminals to sabotage robot constructs to go berserk and breaking out the dangerous reploid criminal, Vile from prison, endangering humans and reploids alike. Creating a vast army of rebellious reploids, composed of both robots that believe in his cause such as Flame Mammoth, and enslaved maverick hunters such as Storm Eagle, Sigma strives to destroy the human's main sanctuary, Abel city.

Storming a military base loaded with deadly missiles, Sigma is confronted by his old maverick hunter comrades, X and Zero. Ignoring X and Zero's attempt to reason with him to stop his plans, Sigma ignores their pleas and engages them in combat. While Zero manages to scar Sigma, he is ultimately defeated as a body shield by Sigma, who dares X to shoot him. X puts down his weapons and again begs Sigma not to launch the missiles, pointing out that their creator, Dr. Cain will be killed.

Sigma responds only by coldly saying sacrifices must be made for evolution, launching the missiles at Abel city anyhow. The attack kills thousands of humans and reploids. Sigma laughs over the wreckage and publicly announces his campaign to wipe out humanity.

Mega Man (Ruby Spears)

Sigma appeared in the episode "Mega X" of the Mega Man cartoon series, although his name is erroneously spelled "Cigma" on Dr. Light's laboratory computer. In this version, Sigma had sent Vile and Spark Mandrill back in time so they could acquire Dr. Light's supply of Lightanium (which is worth billions in the future) so he could finance his war on the human race. However, X travels back in time as well and foils the two Mavericks with help from Mega Man.

Project X Zone 2

Sigma makes an appearance in his X4 body as a non-playable boss character in the crossover videogame; Project X Zone 2.

Marvel vs. Capcom: Infinite

Sigma (in his original form from Mega Man X) acts as one of the antagonists along with Ultron, both fusing to create a new form called Ultron Sigma which serves as the game's main antagonist. Sigma is available as a DLC character and is voiced by Chris Tergliafera (who also voiced Gundham Tanaka from the Danganronpa series, Muhammad Avdol from JoJo's Bizarre Adventure anime and Rasticore from Star vs. the Forces of Evil).

Sonic and Mega Man: Worlds Unite

Sigma appeared as main antagonist in the Sonic and Mega Man: Worlds Unite comic book crossover. His goal was to install unity engines in alternate realities and unite them together so he can rule them all. His plan was thwarted by Sonic and Mega Man.

Super Smash Bros. Ultimate

Sigma appears as a Primary Attack-type Spirit. His spirit battle is a Stamina battle against Ganondorf on the Midgar stage with boosted power to his melee weapons.

---

We gasped in sheer horror!

Me: So Sigma is sending his robots from the future to help the Masters of Evil!

Nico: I can't believe he's doing this!

Onslaught: That's crazy!

Nicole: I knew I had seen Flame Mammoth from somewhere before. But I couldn't remember where until I saw Storm Eagle.

Laney: That's pure evil! I can't believe that Sigma is out to destroy all humans!

Lana: Why is he helping the Masters of Evil kill us?

Me: Probably because that we killed Dr. Wily and he knows that we can do the same to him and end him too. So he's sending his mavericks to kill us before the Masters of Evil can. But that's my hunch.

Dark Spicer: That is a strong possibility J.D. But I have new aliens to show you all.

Dark Spicer then turned into a new mutant alien. It was a Nanomech Mutant. He had blue metallic skin, butterfly wings, claws on his arms and feet and he also had 9 tentacles on his back.

Tetrabyte: (Tiny voice) I call this form Tetrabyte!

Shanan: A Hive Alien-Mutant. Really strange.

Amorpho: (laughs) You're so tiny that I bet you would only tickle me.

Tetrabyte: I may be small. But I can still deal out some damage! (flies up to Amorpho and fires bioelectrical energy beams at his face)

But Amorpho went intangible and the beams went through him without harming him.

Amorpho: Nice try little one.

He flicked him away.

Dark Spicer then turned into a new mutant. It was a Lodestar-Mutant and he had a glowing face as well as a red body and he had 6 arms and a powerful magnet in his chest and he had orange hover legs.

Negalode: (Techno Voice) Meet Negalode!

Shanan: A Biosovortian Mutant. Really unusual but this is the coolest one I've seen.

Magnet Man: Wait. That form uses magnetism, right?

Negalode: Of course it does! (tosses a car at Magnet Man)

I used the force to send it crashing into the wall and it exploded.

Me: Nice try.

Noah: Time to fight eagle with other animals.

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Animal Supersquad!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Maskman Rangers from 1989.

Me: Lets get them!

We went at them.

---

Battle 1: Dark Spicer

---

Eddy was facing Dark Spicer.

Eddy: My mother hits better than you red boy.

He fired his blaster at Dark Spicer and the blasts hit him and exploded all over.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!

Eddy then kicked him in the face and knocked him down and sent him crashing into a bunch of crates.

Eddy: Nice try.

---

Battle 2: Zs'Skayr

---

Edd turned into Iron Boy and he was ready to face Zs'Skayr!

Iron Boy: Lets dance.

Zs'Skayr: I couldn't agree more.

Iron Boy fired a bunch of Repulsor laser blasts and they hit Zs'Skayr all over and exploded and sent him crashing into a bunch of crates.

CRASH!

Iron Boy: Never mess with my friends.

---

Battle 3: Storm Eagle

---

Next was Storm Eagle.

Storm Eagle: This is gonna blow you all away.

Troy Burrows: We're gonna make you eat those words.

Nico: That's right.

Nico fired an energy blast and it hit Storm Eagle and exploded and the Megaforce Rangers fired powerful lasers and blew him into a million pieces and we got his Storm Tornado blaster.

Nico: Nice!

---

Battle 4: Hector Sinistro

---

We regrouped and we were now facing Hector Sinistro.

Me: You will pay for your crimes Hector.

Zarya: (to Hector) You make Kymraw look good!

Me: Yeah!

Hector Sinistro: I won't stop until I kill Zeke and Zob!

(BATMAN THE DARK KNIGHT THEME BY HANS ZIMMER PLAYS)

Me: Over my dead body. Kibal! LETS HOWL!

I turned into Wolf Moon!

Me: The Wolf of Justice is coming for you Hector Sinistro.

We went at him and I punched him in the face and kicked him in the stomach and he fired powerful energy blasts at me and I fired powerful wolf fire blasts and the blasts collided and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion from the blast set numerous crates all on fire and blew part of the building into fiery rubble!

I fired a powerful blast of blue fire and it hit Hector's chest and exploded all over with incredible power!

Carol then fired a powerful blast of atomic energy and it hit Hector in the chest and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMM!
KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMM!

Me: Time for your worst fear to come to life. NIGHTMARE STYLE NINJA ART: FEAR OF THE NIGHTMARE SHARK!

I fired a wave of darkness and it formed into a super terrifying Nightmare Shark and it roared ferociously as lightning struck it as it roared and it slammed into Hector Sinistro and enveloped him in a dome of darkness and showed him his worst fears coming to life and they attacked him mercilessly and destroyed his mind all over the place.

Nico: Whoa! That was terrifying!

Laney: No kidding. That had to be the scariest shark I've ever seen.

Lucy Loud: No kidding.

Ben: Lets see how it likes this.

Ben turned into a new predator. It was called SPECTERMINATOR! It looked like a scary zombie with huge bone claws on its hands and its chest was hollow and it's ribcage was like bars and it had a scary skull face with wicked red eyes.

Ben: SPECTERMINATOR!

Nico: Whoa! That's a scary predator!

Shanan: Scary is right Nico. That's an Ectodenian from the planet Anur Phaetos. They are the natural predators of the Ectonurites. Ghostfreak's Species.

Riley: Whoa! That is amazing! I didn't even think that Ectonurites had predators like that.

Julie Yamamoto: Me neither. This is a wicked one.

Chione: Really creepy and scary!

Specterminator: Watch this.

He fired extending chain claws and they grabbed Hector and he slammed him into the ground all over the place with incredible power.

Me: Nice job Ben!

Carol: Lets see how Hector handles this! ATOMIC STYLE NINJA ART: ATOMIC SHARK FIRESTORM!

Carol fired a wave of atomic fire and it turned into the radioactive shark from the movie Atomic Shark and it went at Hector. It had a temperature of 25,000˚ Fahrenheit and it slammed into him and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion was so powerful that it blew the whole building apart in a massive fiery explosion and it reduced the whole building into ash and flaming debris. Hector came out of the fiery rubble and he was badly mangled up and burned all over and some of his clothes were on fire.

Me: Whoa! That was powerful!

Nico: It sure was and the radiation coming off of that shark was unbelievable.

Carol: I watched the movie Atomic Shark and it was awesome!

Tara: It sure looked like it. But that was amazing Carol. Not bad.

Carol: Thanks.

Me: Lets finish him with some teamwork and our finals smashes.

Meowth: You got it J.D.! POKEMON CYBER KEY POWER!

The Pokemon Cyber Planet Key went into his right arm device and enhanced his powers 100-fold.

Onslaught: Lets get him! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into his back and enhanced his missiles 100-fold.

Meowth and Onslaught: NIGHT MISSILE BLADESLASH!

Meowth fired blades of darkness with his Night Slash and Onslaught fired his missiles and the blasts both hit Hector and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Vixen: Lets do it! JUSTICE LEAGUE CYBER KEY POWER!

The Justice League Cyber Planet Key went into her right arm device and enhanced her powers 100-fold.

Skids: Lets do it! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into his back and it enhanced his speed 100-fold.

Vixen and Skids: SPEEDING BULLET FIRESTORM PUNCH!

Vixen and Skids went at Hector fast and they smashed into him and sent him skidding and he crashed into another abandoned building and it collapsed right on him and buried him in a pile of rubble.

Me: Whoa! That building was scheduled to be demolished tomorrow.

Hector Sinistro got up.

Bright Man: Watch this one.

Galaxy Man: Lets do it!

Bright Man fired a beam of light from his light bulb and Galaxy Man fired his Black Hole Bomb.

Bright Man and Galaxy Man: WHITE HOLE RADIATION BEAM!

The blasts combined and it formed into a powerful White Hole that fired a powerful radiation beam and it skewered Hector all the way through him.

Me: Time for some awesome power!

I called out Groudon, Kyogre and Rayquaza.

Me: Lets do it Groudon!

Groudon: Ready and all powered up!

I fired a blast of blue fire and Groudon fired a blast of lava.

Me and Groudon: VOLCANIC WOLF FIRE LAVA FOUNTAIN!

The blasts combined and it hit Hector and exploded in a massive explosion of blue fire.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Nico: Lets do it Kyogre!

Juniper and Ophelia: TE XUAN ZE SPIRIT FIRESTORM!

They both fired blasts of fire and it slammed into Hector and completely incinerated him into nothing.

Me: Go to hell Hector.

Nico: Hector Sinistro you have failed this world.

Vince: He sure has.

Hector Sinistro was dead and his evil spirit was sent into the Book of Vile Darkness forever.

Zs'Skayr and Dark Spicer appeared.

Zs'Skayr: Just because Hector Sinistro has been dealt with doesn't mean your troubles are over, Zeke!

Dark Spicer: That's right. You've still got those escaped monsters of yours to deal with. And we're looking forward to seeing them in action! (he and Zs'Skayr teleport out)

Me: And we are looking forward to that too.

Zeke: J.D. this was so awesome!

Me: Glad you liked helping us Zeke. Same to you Elena.

Elena Potato: Thanks J.D.

Nico: Now the enemies of you two are our enemies as well. And we're going to kill all of them.

Me: Yep.

Zeke: (To the viewers) You mess with me and my friends and you mess with everyone on Team Loud Phoenix Storm. Including me and Elena.

Me: You said it Zeke.

We later went back home to the estate.

THE END

Another awesome chapter and show done.

Monster Allergy was a really awesome show and NicoChan11 got me into it. It's based on a comic book series and it is so awesome! Now we have the enemies of the tamers to deal with. Including Sigma and his robots. NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks man. Next up is a chapter for the box office bomb The Road To El Dorado and we're going to find the legendary Lost City of Gold, El Dorado.

See you all tomorrow.

The Legend of El Dorado

At the elementary school, we were doing tests.

Me: So this test is for World War I?

Bart: Boy this is a sense of deja vu. I had to take a test for World War I in Springfield and I couldn't study at all.

Lincoln: Really Bart?

Bart: Yeah but because of Quimby, I couldn't focus at all. Ever.

Me: Wow.

Nico: That's rough. Stupid Quimby ruined all of the kids of Springfield.

Laney: Yeah.

But then suddenly without warning we felt what sounded like an earthquake.

Me: Whoa what's that!?

I went over and I saw Mrs. Johnson hiding under her desk like she was scared.

Mrs. Johnson: It's Tuesday J.D. Cheeseburger Tuesday.

Me: Oh boy!

When it was 12:00 noon, all the kids came rushing out of the classrooms like a stampede of cows and headed to the cafeteria.

Kids: CHEESEBURGER TUESDAY!

Some of the kids came out of the panels in the ceiling!

Kids: CHEESEBURGER TUESDAY!

Some nerds came out of the lockers.

Nerds: CHEESEBURGER TUESDAY!

If that weren't enough, Homer Simpson, Lenny Leonard, Carl Carlson, Shiv, Ebon, Hydro Man and Chief Wiggum snuck into the school through the back door.

Homer, Lenny, Carl, Shiv, Ebon, Hydro Man and Chief Wiggum: (Whispering) Cheeseburger Tuesday, Cheeseburger Tuesday.

We were running to the cafeteria with drooling mouths.

Nico: I can't wait for Cheeseburger Tuesday!

Ultra Humanite: Maybe I should try some burgers as well.

Jayden: Have you guys ever tried burgers on Cheeseburger Tuesday before?

Ultra Humanite: Never.

Me: This is gonna be awesome.

In the cafeteria we had lots of plates full of piles of cheeseburgers.

Me: (Eating) Mmm. So delicious.

Nico: (Eating) Delicious.

Shiv: Can we eat with you guys too?

Crumplezone: Just as long as you guys don't try anything.

Ebon: Awesome.

They got to eating with us.

Lincoln: So delicious.

Laney: I love Cheeseburger Tuesday.

Nico: It's my favorite part of the week.

Me: It sure is.

Ebon was eating.

Ebon: (Eating) Mmm. Delicious.

G1 Inferno: (to Ebon) How can you eat burgers without a mouth?

Ebon: Just because you don't see a mouth on my face doesn't mean I can't eat food. It's a similar case with Optimus.

Me: Mmm. He does have a point.

Lincoln: I can see.

Stella (Loud House): I love Cheeseburger Tuesday.

Bart: Me too Stella. In Springfield we used to have Taco Tuesday.

Me: That's also a really good part of the week next to Burrito Thursday and Pizza Wednesday.

Nico: All my favorite parts of the week.

Shiv: So awesome.

Homer: All my favorites.

Lenny: You said it Homer.

Carl: Really good food.

Luann Van Houten, Milhouse's mom came.

Luann: May I sit with you guys?

Me: Sure Mrs. Van Houten.

Luann: You can just call me Luann.

Me: Sorry.

She sat with us.

Nico: So I heard about your husband Kirk. He was a totally pathetic guy from what I heard.

Luann: I know. He was the worst husband ever.

Homer: I know how that feels Luann. Marge was so overprotective and always nagging.

We laughed.

Then we heard crying.

Me: Uh oh.

We saw Gina Vendetti crying.

Bart: What's wrong with Gina?

Me: Lets find out.

We went over and she was really crying.

Me: Gina what's wrong?

Gina Vendetti: (Crying)

Me: Gina you can tell us.

Bart: Yeah Gina.

Gina Vendetti: (Crying) It's not fair! Why did my family have to abandon me!?

We gasped in shock!

Me: Your family abandoned you!?

Nico: Why would they do that!?

Gina Vendetti: Because they hated me! (Crying) That's why I've always been alone!

What she said made our hearts hurt.

Me: Gina.

Bart: You still have me and all of us.

Me: Hmm.

I looked up Gina Vendetti's family history and what it revealed was shocking and heartbreaking. Gina's mom and dad were both abusive to her and they hated her guts and they were also serial killers wanted by the F.B.I. They abandoned Gina at 5 years old, forcing her to live on the streets and her parents were arrested and executed for Capital Murder. She has had no one else to look after her and she had to look after herself ever since. Her whole life has been hell.

Me: Oh shit. I can't believe that all this happened to her.

Nico: No kidding. Poor girl. She went through hell.

Laney: That would leave a major indelible scar on you.

Ebon: Poor girl.

Hydro Man: No one should ever suffer like that.

Shiv: Yeah.

Bart was comforting her.

Bart: Gina, I'm so sorry.

Gina Vendetti: (Crying) What do you know Bart!? You've never had it like me!

Me: Gina listen. You are wrong. There are others that have had it worst than you. My brother Naruto went through hell like you. Same with Sasuke.

I went over the painful stories of Naruto and Sasuke.

Gina gasped.

Gina Vendetti: I… I had no idea.

Me: It's true.

Gina Vendetti: I'm so sorry.

Me: It's all right. But you don't have to be alone anymore. You can be part of our family and have a lot of friends.

Gina Vendetti: Really?

Me: Really.

Gina sniffled and then she hugged me while smiling.

Everyone: Aww.

Later at home, we were watching one of my favorite movies from 2000: The Road to El Dorado.

---

In 1519 Spain, two con artists, Miguel and Tulio, win a map to the legendary City of Gold, El Dorado, in a rigged dice gamble (though they ironically win the map fairly). After their con is exposed, the two evade the guards and hide inside barrels, which are then loaded into one of the ships to be led by conquistador Hernán Cortés for the New World. During the voyage, they are caught as stowaways and imprisoned, but break free and take a rowboat with the help of Cortés' horse, Altivo.

Their boat reaches land, where Miguel begins to recognize landmarks from the map, leading them to a totem marker near a waterfall that Tulio believes is a dead end. As they prepare to leave, they encounter a native woman, Chel, being chased by guards. When the guards see Tulio and Miguel riding Altivo as depicted on the totem, they escort them and Chel to a secret entrance behind the falls, into El Dorado. They are brought to the city's elders, kindhearted Chief Tannabok and wicked high priest Tzekel-Kan. The pair are mistaken for gods and are given luxurious quarters, along with the charge of Chel. She discovers that the two are conning the people but promises to remain quiet if they take her with them when they leave the city. The two are showered with gifts of gold from Tannabok but disapprove of Tzekel-Kan attempting to sacrifice a civilian as the gods' ritual.

Tulio and Miguel instruct Tannabok to build them a boat so that they can leave the city with all the gifts they have been given. During the three days this will take, Miguel explores the city, and Chel gets romantically close to Tulio. Miguel comes to appreciate the peaceful life embraced by the citizens; by then, he reconsiders leaving, especially after overhearing Tulio telling Chel that he'd like her to come with them to Spain, before adding he'd like her to come with him and to forget Miguel - straining the relationship between the two.

When Tzekel-Kan sees Miguel playing a ball game with children, he insists the "gods" demonstrate their powers against the city's best players in the same game. Tulio and Miguel are outmatched, but Chel is able to substitute the ball with an armadillo named Bibo, allowing them to win. Miguel spares the ritual of sacrificing the losing team and chastises Tzekel-Kan, much to the crowd's approval. Tzekel-Kan notices Miguel received a small cut and realizes the two are not gods, since gods do not bleed. He soon conjures a giant stone jaguar to chase them throughout the city. Tulio and Miguel manage to outwit the jaguar, causing it and Tzekel-Kan to fall into a giant whirlpool, thought by the natives to be the entrance to Xibalba, the spirit world. Tzekel-Kan then surfaces in the jungle, where he encounters Cortés and his men. Thinking Cortés is a god, he offers to lead them to El Dorado.

With the boat completed, Miguel decides to stay in the city. As Tulio and Chel board the boat, they see smoke on the horizon and realize Cortés is close. Knowing what will happen if Cortés discovers the city, Tulio suggests using the boat to ram rock pillars under the waterfall and block the main entrance to the city. The plan succeeds with the citizens pulling over a statue in the boat's wake to give it enough speed. As the statue starts to fall too quickly, Tulio has difficulty in preparing the boat's sail. Giving up on staying in the city, Miguel and Altivo jump onto the boat to unfurl the sails, assuring the boat clears the statue in time. The group successfully crashes against the pillars, causing a cave-in but losing all their gifts in the process. They hide near the totem just as Cortés' men and Tzekel-

Kan arrive. When they find the entrance blocked, Cortés brands Tzekel-Kan a liar and takes him prisoner as they leave.

Tulio and Miguel, though disappointed they lost the gold (unaware that Altivo still wears the golden horseshoes with which he was outfitted in El Dorado), head in a different direction for a new adventure with Chel.

---

We were watching the movie and it was so awesome! It was such an awful shame that it was a box office bomb because of the mixed reviews from those dumb critics.

When the movie was done we cheered wildly!

Me: That is so awesome!

Carol: Boy it sure is. I have loved this movie ever since I was a little girl.

Lori: It's literally awesome.

Lincoln: It sure is. And it would be so cool to find the legendary El Dorado.

Me: It sure would be awesome. El Dorado - the Legendary Lost City of Gold.

Lola: That is a lot of gold.

Nico: It sure is. It would be one of the biggest discoveries in the history of mankind.

Vince: No kidding.

Brittney: It sure is amazing.

Edwayl: (Breton Accent) It sure is lads. For centuries, El Dorado has been an extremely elusive legend.

Fletcher: (Scottish Accent) Aye. That it has.

Laney: No one has ever found it.

Me: No one. It's said to be on the shores of Lake Parima in Venezuela. Hidden.

Naruto: Wow.

Lily: But who was that guy with all those men that took Tzekel-Kan?

Me: That was famous conquistador and governor of Spain, Hernán Cortés.

Jessie K.: That's right. He was the man that caused the fall of the Aztec Empire. The Conquest of the Aztec Empire.

Hunter: (German Accent) Ja. Und it was one of the events that lead to the Genocide of the Mayan's, Incan's and Aztecs.

Nico: That is terrible.

Me: Yeah. It's just absolutely terrible that there aren't any Mayan's, Incan's or Aztecs alive at all.

Lisa Loud: Actually I found out that through a DNA Test that Ronnie Anne and her entire family are indeed descended from the ancient Mayans of Mexico and Guatemala.

We gasped.

Me: Wow! Ronnie Anne that is amazing!

Ronnie Anne: It sure is. I didn't even know I was descended from the Mayans.

Nico: That is so cool!

Laney: It sure is. Ronnie Anne that is amazing.

Varie: No kidding.

Lisa Loud: She is descended from the Mayan's of the ancient city of Tikal.

Me: From Apocalypto. That was a bloody movie.

Nico: No kidding. But it was really interesting. It's hard to imagine that the Mayan civilizations were wiped out by disease and famine and the Spanish Conquistadors.

Me: No kidding.

Qin: But that Tzekel-Kan guy looked pure evil.

Me: He was. Lets see.

I pulled up his information.

---

Tzekel-Kan is the main antagonist of DreamWorks' 3rd full-length animated feature film The Road to El Dorado.

He was voiced by Armand Assante, who also played Rico in Judge Dredd, and Carlo D'Allesandro in Hoffa.

When the Spanish con-men Tulio and Miguel wind-up in the New World with a map that supposedly shows the road to El Dorado, they unknowingly find the hidden entrance to the city: it is hidden behind a large waterfall and marked by a stone tablet with a depiction of the Gods who built El Dorado. They encounter Chel, a native of the city who is trying to escape with a golden pot, only to be apprehended by more natives led by Tzekel-Kan's unnamed servant. The three are brought into the city in boats, amazed that the "Lost City of Gold" really exists. The servant tells Tzekel-Kan - in the middle of a magic ritual - that the "Gods" have arrived, upon which he rushes to announce to El Dorado's people that the "time of judgement is now". He tries to apprehend and punish Chel for running away with the pot, but Tulio and Miguel intervene. Tzekel-Kan is surprised that the gods have denied her being sacrificed.

The pair also meet the kindly and compassionate Chief Tannabok, who is at odds with the High Priest. Tzekel-Kan insist that the God's arrival marks The Year of the Jaguar, when the city will be purged of all wicked and malevolent people. The people are convinced of Tulio and Miguel's "divinity" when Tzekel-Kan asks them to vent their wrath on the city - just as a nearby volcano is erupting. Tulio shouts at Miguel as they argue what to do and it suddenly stops: to celebrate this miracle, both Tzekel-Kan and Tannabok offer celebrations, to which Tulio and Miguel accept both. They are then taken to their temple the chief showers them in golden gifts.

Convinced of Tulio and Miguel being Gods, Tzekel-Kan tries to win their favor, much to Tannabok's resentment. After a wild and rambunctious party on the night of their arrival, Tzekel-Kan offers to please the "Gods" with a sacrifice to Xibalba - a whirlpool which is believed to be the entrance to the spirit world. However, Chel has seen through their ruse and insists that she have a share of their golden riches given to them by Tannabok in return for her silence. She also asks that they take her with them when they depart the city, as she has wanted to leave before due to Tzekel-Kan's tyranny. The pair accept: they also accept the offer of Tannabok and Tzekel-Kan giving them a "tribute". They soon find out however that Tzekel-Kan's "tribute" is to throw a man into the whirlpool, upon which they insist that the alignment of the stars is not right for sacrifice - they were unaware until then that this counted as a "tribute". The High Priest is baffled, but admits he may have made a mistake. Tannbok then offers a new tribute: throwing golden ornaments into Xibalba. A shocked Tulio and Miguel ask to "bask" in their tribute instead, to which Tannabok complies, much to the annoyance of Tzekel-Kan.

Later, Tzekel-Kan witnesses Miguel interacting with the people of the city and is shocked that a God would mix with mortals. He consults Tulio, who is infatuated with Chel, and tries to convince him that all humans are like spiders and must be eradicated. Tulio is disturbed by this and denies his offers of purifying the city through sacrifice. After this, he witnesses Miguel playing a ball game with some children and demands that the "Gods" must face a competitive team of the city's best players in a match of Ollamalitzli. The two are outmatched, but manage to cheat with Chel's assistance, using an armadillo named Bibo as a ball. Tzekel-Kan is vindicated at their victory and demands that the losing side be sacrificed, thus achieving his goal to purify El Dorado. Miguel refuses and "fires" Tzekel-Kan, declaring that the city will no longer have any sacrifice. The High Priest is about to leave when he glimpses a cut on Miguel's forehead: he realizes that they are not Gods as Gods cannot bleed. He bows "as the Gods demand", much to the enthusiastic jubilation of Tannobok and the people.

Tzekel-Kan returns to his temple, where he conducts a ritual that will bring a massive stone jaguar to life - thus fulfilling the prophecy of "The Age of the Jaguar". He sacrifices his acolyte to complete the ritual and gains control of the statue, which comes to life and bursts out of the temple. Tzekel-Kan attempts to crush Tulio and Miguel, but they flee on their horse Altivo, taking Chel with them. The stone jaguar rampages through the city, proving to be immune to the natives' arrows, almost killing Chel when she falls off Altivo's back. But Altivo kicks the jaguar's right eye, which shatters it and allows them to escape. Tulio and Miguel run off on foot to distract the dangerous jaguar while Altivo takes Chel to safety. The pair eventually find themselves in a lava pit and manage to trick the jaguar, which causes it to sink into the lava. Tulio and Miguel believe they are victorious until Tzekel-Kan makes the jaguar burst back out of the lava and pursue them all the way to the plinth that looks over Xibalba. With the pair cornered, Tzekel-Kan deactivates his magic and confronts them himself, stating he knows they are not Gods.

The two con men attempt to fool the High Priest by claiming the other was lying, much to his satisfaction as he sees the argumentative friends. This is actually a ruse, as they get close enough to punch Tzekel-Kan in the face, causing to fall backwards onto the edge overlooking the whirlpool. As they charge and make to tie him up with vines, Tzekel-Kan reactivates his magic and the jaguar attacks them again. Tulio and Miguel manage to jump out of the way, swinging over the edge of the plinth on vines, causing the jaguar to land above Tzekel-Kan. Its weight proves too much for the stone plinth, and Tzekel-Kan tumbles - along with the stone jaguar - into the whirlpool below. His magic spell breaks as he is sucked through an underwater cenote and washes up in a river outside the city. The people celebrate at Tzekel-Kan's defeat and cheer for Tulio and Miguel. Miguel decides to stay in the city, but Tulio decides to leave with Chel and the gold, putting the friends at odds.

As the people prepare a boat to allow Tulio to leave El Dorado with the gold, Tzekel-Kan encounters Hernán Cortés, who followed Tulio and Miguel's trail into the jungle. Looking for gold, Cortés demands to know where Tzekel-Kan obtained his golden ear spools, to which the High Priest offers to lead the conquistadors to the hidden city. He thinks that Cortés is the true God, and that by doing this he will finally bring about "The Age of the Jaguar". However, Tulio spots smoke from the conquistadors' approach on the horizon and warns Tannabok, who realizes that Tzekel-Kan has survived and is leading Cortés to the city. He is ordering his men to prepare to fight, but Tulio says he cannot fight them, as they have muskets and over-advanced weaponry. He devises a plan to drop a massive stone idol over the entrance behind the waterfall, thus blocking access to the city. Miguel looks on as Tulio leaves with Chel and Altivo. However, the boat is unable to sail out of the city and escape being crushed by the falling idol. Tannabok single-handedly manages to hold back the statue with ropes, allowing Miguel to forgo his chance to stay in the city and open the boat's sail, allowing them to escape as the city's entrance is blocked. Tulio and Miguel reconcile as the boat hurtles out of the city.

Meanwhile, Tzekel-Kan has led Cortés and his men to the waterfall, but finds the entrance blocked by an avalanche: Tulio and Miguel crashed the boat against the pillars holding up the entrance tunnel - choosing to sacrifice their gold in the process - in order to ensure the entrance to El Dorado remains sealed. Tzekel-Kan is aghast and tries to explain to Cortés, but the angered and cantankerous conquistador declares that the High Priest is "a lying heathen" and that "there is no El Dorado here". He then arrests Tzekel-Kan, presumably selling him as a slave afterwards. As they are leaving, Tzekel-Kan spots Tulio, Miguel, Chel, and Altivo hiding behind some rocks and tries to gain Cortés' attention. However, they ignore the horrified priest and take him to meet his fate.

---

We gasped in shock and horror.

Me: I can't believe that Tzekel-Kan is that evil!

Ronnie Anne: No kidding. He's pure evil!

Varie: He was gonna whipe out the whole city and destroy everything!

Me: Maybe we can kill him before he does so. He will pay for his crimes. Lets head to the simulator.

We cheered.

We went to the simulator.

---

In the simulator we got ready and we were going to find the legendary Lost City of Gold - El Dorado. The Simulator activated and we found ourselves in the world of The Road to El Dorado. We were in the year 1519 and we were on a ship.

Me: Wow! We're in the year 1519.

Nico: It's amazing.

Varie: Wow.

We saw Tulio, Miguel and the horse Altivo.

Tulio: Did any of the supplies make it?

Miguel: Well, um, yes and no.

Altivo is shown eating the few supplies that made it into the boat.

Tulio: [sarcastically] Ohh, great!

Miguel: Tulio, look on the positive side. At least things can't get-

Thunder claps and rain falls.

Tulio: Excuse me, were-were you about to say "worse"?

Miguel: No.

Tulio: No?

Miguel: No.

Tulio: You sure?

Miguel: Absolutely not. I've revised that whole thing.

Tulio: Yeah. We're at least in a rowboat.

Miguel: We're in a rowboat. Exactly. You miss nothing.

Unnoticed by Miguel and Tulio, Altivo nervously watches the sharks following the boat.

Maria: Guys, you know there are sharks following us, right?

Me: I see them.

I fired blasts of energy and scared them away.

Tulio: Who are all of you?

Me: Oh I'm sorry. We're Team Loud Phoenix Storm. It's a pleasure to meet you both.

Tulio: Same to you.

Miguel: It's an honor. Are you all here to help us find El Dorado?

Me: We sure are.

Tulio: Great!

Me: You all lead the way.

We followed Tulio and Miguel and we were trekking through the jungles of South America and it was beautiful and dense and it was a really thick jungle. We trekked over cliffs, and braved many obstacles. Until we got to a curtain cover and we pulled it back and what we saw was unbelievable! We saw a beautiful city made entirely out of pure 24K Gold! It was the Legendary Lost City of Gold - EL DORADO!

Everyone: EL DORADO!

We had found the Legendary Lost City of Gold!

Me: Unbelievable!

Varie: So this is El Dorado!

Aylene C.: This is incredible!

Jessie K.: Amazing! For centuries El Dorado has been hidden and now we have found it.

Laney: It's beautiful!

Lana: This is amazing!

Carol fired a wave of atomic wind and fire and it slammed into Kan and burned him all over the place.

Lori: That is literally amazing!

Nico: Terrifying!

Laney: It sure was.

Jessie K.: It was terrifying. It was a level 5 accident where as Chernobyl and Fukushima were ranked at level 7.

Ben turned into a new predator. It was called BEELZEAPORK. It looked like a 6 legged rhinoceros pig.

Shanan: Whoa! That is a Rinochoerosus from the planet Khoros. They are the natural predators of the Tetramands. Fourarm's Species.

Drakkon: If you think we're telling you where Sigma is, you guys are just going to have to find him yourself.

Me: That's all right. We know where Sigma is.

Electro: (to Tulio and Miguel) And you know your horse still has some gold, right?

With that, Electro and Drakkon teleport out.

Lola: (To the viewers) It was cool finding the Lost City of Gold, but it was cooler fighting Kan better.

We went back home.

Another Awesome chapter complete.

The Road to El Dorado was an awesome movie from the year 2000. It's an absolute shame that it was a flop because of those dumb critics. But it was still a great movie! The opening scene in this chapter is based on the funny Taco Tuesday stampede scene from Season 25 episode 13 of The Simpsons. That was so funny. NicoChan11 and ArchangelOfJustice12 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is a chapter for Scooby Doo Moon Monster Madness. Get ready for an awesome mystery that is out of this world!

See you all tomorrow.

Moon Monster Madness

In the middle of the city, we were over at an awesome and completely brand new Space Museum that just opened up 3 days ago. It's called the Gotham Royal York Space and Aeronautics Museum. With us was Hunter's friend from India, Khalyaka, she's from India and is of Sanskrit nationality. She has beautiful lone brunette hair with many flowers, a red Sari Dress, wears Khussa shoes, and green shorts. Has two Indian style earrings, two Indian gold bracelets, and has powers of Earth, Mountain, Water, Leaf, and Wood Release.

Laney: This is gonna be so cool!

Lisa Loud: Indeed it is. The Gotham Royal York Space and Aeronautics Museum is said to be an amazing and very educational facility of education about space and astronomy.

Maria: How long has this Space Museum been open?

Me: It just opened up 3 days ago.

Lisa Simpson: It's gonna be really educational experience.

Lana: I do love space.

Lily: Me too.

Me: Khalyaka it is so awesome having you with us.

Khalyaka: (India Accent) Indeed it is J.D. Hunter has told me so many amazing things about you all and it's amazing that he helps you all out.

Nico: Hunter is an amazing friend and he teaches us so many awesome things.

Hunter: (German Accent) Ja it's true. I know so much about the history of Germany and so many other things about world history.

Khalyaka: That's right.

We went into the museum and we saw all kinds of awesome exhibits. We got on board the Atlantis Space Shuttle, saw the inside of a replica of the Apollo XI Landing Capsule and we saw moon rocks and outside we saw the asteroid that slammed into Dallas.

Nico: Whoa! That is a mondo asteroid!

Edwayl: (Breton Accent) Wow! That is an incredibly big asteroid lads!

Fletcher: (Scottish Accent) Aye. Big one laddies.

Me: Believe it or not guys, that is the asteroid that slammed into Dallas, Texas and destroyed it.

Qin: (Gasp) I remember seeing that all over the news!

Laney: That was a terrifying sight.

Lana: It sure was.

Me: Yep. It weighs over 240 million pounds and it was made of solid iron.

Qin: Boy that is awful. 25,000 people dead right?

Me: Yep. Trillions of dollars in damage done to Dallas. But the shockwave from the impact rattled the country.

Lincoln: I remember that.

?: I'll never forget seeing that.

We turned and we saw famous astronaut and last member of the Apollo XI mission Edwin Buzz Aldrin!

Me: Wow! Apollo XI astronaut Edwin Buzz Aldrin!

Lincoln: Awesome! You are one of my heroes!

Me: And one of the first men to ever land on the Moon.

Buzz Aldrin: It's an honor to meet the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm. You are just as famous as me, Michael Collins and Neil Armstrong.

Me: We don't like to brag.

Melody (Pokemon): It's an honor to meet you, Edwin.

Buzz Aldrin: Just call me Buzz. But it's an honor to meet you all as well.

Me: I did a school project on Apollo XI when I was in 5th Grade and it was a difficult one. But it was awesome.

Buzz Aldrin: That's great!

Nico: It sure is. But over 50 years ago, you became one of the 1st men to land on the Moon.

Buzz Aldrin: Feels like forever ago.

Cutthroat: We actually have been to space before. Heck, me and my fellow Cybertronians are from the planet Cybertron.

Buzz Aldrin: That's amazing!

Me: We've been in space many times.

Tracks: Did you know that we have a prison on the Moon?

Buzz Aldrin: I sure did know that. It's great that you have a prison there.

Me: Thanks Buzz. How did it feel for you to become one of the first ever people to land on the Moon?

Buzz Aldrin: It was an incredible experience. We saw many things on the Moon and it was one of the most incredible events we've ever done.

Me: Wow. Space is an amazing place.

Buzz Aldrin: It sure is.

We got to explore around the museum and it was awesome to see everything that was there. We saw the history of Konstantin Tsiolkovsky who invented the Tsiolkovsky Rocket Equation, William Herschel's Observatory, Johannes Kepler's laws of planetary motion, Galileo Galilei's Telescope, Nicolaus Copernicus's Heliograph, Albert Einstein's Theory of Relativity, we even saw pictures of Clyde Tombaugh - who discovered Pluto in 1930, John Bevis who discovered the Crab Nebula in 1731, and we also got to meet the famous Valentina Tereshkova - the first ever woman in space on the Vostok 6 program. We went to the gift shop and we bought many famous space movies like Forbidden Planet, Aliens, Apollo XIII, The Angry Red Planet, 2001 a Space Odyssey, E.T. the Extra Terrestrial, The Thing (1951, 1982 & 2011), The Day the Earth Stood Still from 1951 & 2008, This Island Earth, The Mysterians, The Astounding She-Monster, When World's Collide, 20 Million Miles to Earth, The Blob from 1955 and 1988, Predator, War of The Worlds, Close Encounters of The Third Kind, The Andromeda Strain, Mission to Mars, The Martian, and many more movies. It was an unforgettable trip and an awesome experience.

---

We were on an awesome new lunar colony in the Dark Side of the Moon with all of Mystery Inc. We found out that an alien monster was terrorizing the colony and we found out that Daphne and Velma are not speaking to each other.

Fred: Ever since Daphne scored high on the astronaut training test scores, she and Velma have been at each others' throats. And I was hoping that you guys could help straighten them out before their arguing gets in the way of a mystery.

Me: Sure Fred. We would be more than happy to.

Gia Moran and Emma Goodall went to Velma and Daphne and they grabbed them and put them in chairs.

Me: Okay you two, this has got to stop now.

Gia Moran: You two have been friends for a long time. Are you really going to throw all of that away over some test scores?

Velma: No you're right Gia.

Daphne: Yeah it's not right.

Me: Lets find that monster and solve this mystery. Oh and Shaggy way to go on getting your drivers license.

Shaggy: Like thanks J.D. I had to take my test again and I got it the 2nd time.

Lily: Well thank goodness you didn't fail it like how SpongeBob did. He failed his test over 1,258,056 times.

Lori: Leni literally failed her test over 1.6 million times.

Shaggy: That's like what I heard. but yes you are right.

Scooby Doo: I'm so happy for Shaggy.

Scrappy Doo: Me too Uncle Scooby.

Crystal: Like yeah.

Amber: It's awesome that he can drive now.

Me: It sure is.

We got to searching and we saw that the whole resort was amazing. We searched for the Alien and gathered some clues and found out some things.

We then caught the alien and it was revealed to be Shannan!

Everyone: SHANNAN!?

Shannan states that she wanted to convince people on Earth that space travel isn't safe for amateurs and should be left to professionals. She used her alien costume to make that happen and most of the other characters Scooby and all of us had met during the course of the mystery to unknowingly go along in her plan. She then realized that with Scooby and his friends all abroad, they would prove the alien hoax and foil her scheme and had to make it hard for them to work together. So she reveals that she lied about Daphne getting the highest score, knowing it would put a strain on her and Velma's friendship, and reveals that it was actually Shaggy who got the highest score (much to everyone's-including Velma and Shaggy's-surprise).

Me: So it was all because of you! You nearly destroyed Velma and Daphne's friendship!

Nico: Shannan, you have failed this world!

Vince: You monster!

Isaribi: I can't believe that you would do something this despicable!

Naruto: Yeah!

Me: We should just kill you right here and right now. But we'll let the Criminal Justice System take care of you.

?: Not if I have anything to say about it ya landlubbers.

A figure came out and it was ADMIRAL ABOMINATOR from episode 26 of Zeo!

* * *

Admiral Abominator was a robot admiral monster that was to be the leader of the new armada that King Mondo was building in the forest under the protection of an invisibility shield. When Bulk and Skull stumbled upon one of the medallions that generated the shield, Abominator took them prisoner until the Rangers came to free them. At the same time, Billy and Alpha used the Power Chamber's Disruptive Ray to destroy the source of the medallions' power on the moon, annihilating the invisibility grid and armada. Enraged, Abominator attacked the Rangers with a group of Cogs. The admiral wielded a sword and also had a bed of spikes built in underneath his coat. He tried to impale Katherine with it, but Tommy saved her, and Katherine knocked him out with a combined attack of her shield blast and Tommy's sword blast. Orbus made him grow. After the Admiral started attacking the zords, the Red Battlezord delivered a flurry of punches to the admiral, and then the Zeo Megazord, armed with Zeo 1 Power Helmet, blasted the admiral. When the Rangers saw that both attacks did not weaken him, but only angered him, they knew that he would not go down easily. The Rangers then destroyed him with the Zeo Mega Battlezord.

---

Katherine Hillard: (Australian Accent) Admiral Abominator!

Admiral Abominator: It has been many moons lass since we saw each other the last time.

Me: I remember you! You were the leader of a new armada that was being built in the forest!

Me: Never missed an episode.

Admiral Abominator: Time for you landlubbers to walk the plank!

Several Cogs dressed as pirates then appear.

Number 7 and Leonard the Pig King then appeared and they were dressed as pirates too!

Number 7: What she did was really despicable.

Leonard: That's right.

William: (to Leonard and Number 7) You two are dressed up as pirates as well.

Leonard: Well, me and my pigs have been pirates before in that mobile game starring us.

Me: That's Angry Birds. It's one of the most popular iPad games.

I pulled out my iPad and showed him.

Leonard: Wow! I didn't know there was a game for me and the birds.

Me: Really popular and fun.

Fat Tony and the Springfield Mafia then appeared.

Carol: Fat Tony and the Springfield Mafia.

Fat Tony: After we deal with Knudson, you are next Carol.

Louie: Yeah and we're gonna tear your head off.

Fat Tony: Death by 30 shots, Knudson. You'll be dead on the ground on number 10.

Me: I don't die that easily Tony. I'm immortal and invincible. It'll take more than just guns to kill us.

Legs: Boss, after Knudson's dead, should we dump his body into space.

Me: How about I kick you in the fucking balls Legs?

Legs: That's it!?

He pulled out a pair of brass knuckles.

Me: Brass knuckles. How pathetic.

Ed became Edzilla and he was ready to face Number 7.

Carol: I'll face the Springfield Mafia.

Lori: I'll face Leonard.

Orion: It's time for YOU to walk the plank, Admiral!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Electronic Brigade!

Nintendo's Awesome Angel Kid

KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!

A massive fiery explosion broke out at a local military base and we got word about it. We found out that it was being destroyed by Peace Terrorist Elmo Goniff, Leader of a Terrorist Group called the Goniff Peace Coalition. His goal is to destroy all of the entire military so that peace can be instated. He has killed 520 men at the base and we lost half of the military stationed in the district. We are there to stop him.

Teresa: Goniff doesn't know we're right behind him. That gives us the element of surprise. Let's use that to launch stealth attacks on him and his goons while they don't notice us.

Lola: Or we can charge at him with a Phoenix Cry like we normally do.

Nico: (narrows eyes) I'm sorry. What was that? (takes out club)

Lola: (nervously) Nevermind. What you guys suggested works.

Nico: (smiles) Much better. Thank you.

Me: Good job Nico.

Nico: Thanks man.

Me: I made a really good choice making you chief enforcer.

Laney: Allow me to do this.

Laney tied up all of Goniff's men in plants and vines and we had only Goniff left. Luckily for us, he was in a wheelchair and crippled for life.

Marty: (Madagascar) Only Goniff's left now. And he still doesn't see us!

Me: He's in a wheelchair because he's crippled. Lets go.

We came out and we saw Elmo Goniff giving a speech.

Elmo Goniff: You have been under the lies and protection of the military for far too long! It's time for the fucking military to fuck themselves and disband and let peace come in!

Me: I think not!

He saw us!

Elmo Goniff: How long were you all standing there?!

Divebomb: Just long enough to hear you deliver your terrorist speech and take out your goons at the same time.

Grapple: (to the audience) Hello, folks. Please forget everything Goniff said and enjoy this Itchy and Scratchy cartoon!

Moo Goo Gai Pain played.

Later we had Elmo Gonif and all his followers executed. The people of the country called Elmo Goniff the reincarnation of the Klendathu Bugs and he and all his friends were sentenced to death. He had a total of 700 followers and it was an all time record for executions in a single day. As he was being taken up to be executed, he made a speech.

Elmo Goniff: They may silence us, but they can't silence you! Fuck the military, Team Loud Phoenix Storm and fuck all of you! You will not take away our voice! You will not take away our power! You will not take us! Fuck you all! Fuck you! Fuck you all! Fuck the Military, Team Loud Phoenix Storm and fuck you all!

Me: Let me say something to him.

Johnny Rico: All right.

I went up to him and glared at him and he was seething and fuming and growling.

Me: Let me make something clear to you Goniff. As long as evil exists in this universe, there will never be such a thing as true peace. And here's what I say to you: FUCK YOURSELF!

I spit in his face and they hung him and sent his fucking ass off to hell. We had him and his friends all buried in unmarked graves.

Elsewhere in an awesome realm called Skyworld floating high above the Earth, trouble was going down. It was under attack. The champion of Lady Palutena - Goddess of Light was it's only hope.

Pit: Hang on Lady Palutena. I know who can help us. I'll be back!

Pit jumped and flew down and with him was Dark Pit, Pit's frenemy and anti-hero self in black.

Pit: Pit 2!

Dark Pit: You don't have to keep calling me that every time. But I heard about what's happening and I'll do everything I can to help.

Pit: I appreciate that. We're going to have Team Loud Phoenix Storm help us save Lady Palutena.

Dark Pit: I understand.

They flew down to Earth and went to Michigan.

At the estate I was heading outside to get the mail.

Me: Hmm, lets see.

Then I heard something.

Me: Huh?

I saw two figures coming toward us.

Me: Hmm. Wonder what they are.

They got closer and I saw that they were Pit and Dark Pit.

Me: Oh wow! It's Pit and Dark Pit of Kid Icarus! Wait, if they are here then that must mean there's trouble going on over in Skyworld.

Pit and Dark Pit landed in front of me.

Pit: J.D. Knudson. It's such an honor to meet you.

Me: Same here Pit. We love playing the Kid Icarus games as well as you on Super Smash Bros.

Lincoln then came out.

Lincoln: What's going on?

Lincoln saw Pit and Dark Pit.

Lincoln: Whoa! Pit and Dark Pit!

Pit: So you are the Lincoln Loud we were told so much about.

Dark Pit: It's an honor to meet you.

Lincoln: Same here.

Me: When Lincoln was put into the world of Super Smash Bros. we were absolutely floored and that still has us reeling even after a little over a year has passed.

Dark Pit: That would be a huge shock. We did not expect Lincoln and his sisters being added to the Super Smash Bros. world.

Me: Neither did all of us. I take it you heard about what happened to Bowser.

Dark Pit: We sure did.

Pit: Sorry to hear about Bowser, guys. I know that he was a villain when me, Mario, Link, Kirby, and Yoshi were chasing him during the Subspace Emissary incident. But I'm glad he sacrificed his life to stop Thanos.

Me: He's a true hero Pit. Also Ridley and Dark Samus are dead.

Dark Pit: That's what we heard.

Me: So what's going on over in Skyworld?

Pit: Pandora has taken over and is possessing Lady Palutena.

Me: Pandora, Goddess of Calamity in Greek Myth?

Dark Pit: That's her.

Me: And she's also the girl that opened Pandora's Box.

I went over her history.

---

Pandora (in Japanese: パンドーラ Pandôra), also known as Amazon Pandora (in Japanese: 女戦士パンド - ラ Onna Senshi Pandôra), is the Goddess of Calamity and a villainess in Kid Icarus. For reasons unknown, Pandora lost her physical form and was reduced to a ghostly face made of a fiery vapor. She can create illusions in her palace and also hovers throughout the battlefield, spitting fireballs at Pit during their battle.

She was voiced by Nika Futterman.

Kid Icarus

In the original Kid Icarus game, Pandora was the Gatekeeper to Skyworld's Fortress, assigned to guard a part of the Three Sacred Treasures that Pit uses in his adventures to save Lady Palutena from Medusa. She appears as a bubble-like spirit that barely any appearance of a face to her body, with no irises in her eyes.

Kid Icarus: Uprising

Pandora appears once again as one of Medusa's commanders, though was truly one of Hades' pawns in his plot to take over the world. She now appears as a ghastly being with no evidence of a body, whatsoever.

Now entrusted with the Mirror of Truth, Pandora hid her and her domain with the Mirror as well, in plain sight, thanks to the aid of the Great Reaper, who kept the Labyrinth of Deceit, Pandora's domain, out of both Pit's and Lady Palutena's sight and grasp. After Pit defeated the Great Reaper, as instructed by Palutena, the Labyrinth is now accessible to the angel and he is now able to confront Pandora once again after many years. Upon entering Pandora's domain, Pit becomes confused with all of the illusions and psych-outs that appear in his way of defeating Pandora and destroying the Mirror of Truth. During Chapter 5, Pit and Palutena converse as they usually do, but Pandora also converses with the two and will be insulted once by Pit, who wonders how Pandora even built the Labyrinth without any hands, remarking that it took a lot of hard work and determination to do. In a part of the chapter, Pandora becomes annoyed by Pit's many questions, saying that it wasn't the "Ask Auntie Pandora hour".

Pandora, despite being defeated, lives on within Dark Pit's wings. When Pit and Dark Pit fought near the Spring of Revival, a fountain that reverses time, Pandora separates from Dark Pit and jumps in to retain her ghost form, although now colored red. After being defeated, she bathes in the Spring of Revival again, this time resurrected as her human form named Amazon Pandora. She became very beautiful, sparking jealousy in both Palutena and Viridi. She was defeated again by Dark Pit, who is then able to save Pit.

Super Smash Bros. Ultimate

Pandora appears in the game as a primary grab type spirit. Her Spirit Battle is against Wendy O. Koopa with resistance to explosions, while the player has Dark Pit as an ally. At level 99, Pandora can be enhanced to Amazon Pandora, whose ability increases the invincibility period of the player's dodges and distance of air dodges.

Lincoln: Whoa!

Pit: Yeah.

Everyone came out and they gasped when they saw Pit and Dark

Pit with us.

Lori: Wow! Pit and Dark Pit!

Qin: It's so cool to meet you both.

Lana: We love playing as you on Super Smash Bros.

Laney: It's awesome.

Samus: Pit and Dark Pit it's great to see you.

Kirby: Yeah!

Pit: Samus, Inkling, Donkey Kong, Mario, Banjo, Peach, Luigi, and Kirby it's great to see you all.

Inkling: Same here.

Donkey Kong: Yeah man.

Banjo: It's great to see you too.

Me: We've known a lot of great characters in Super Smash Bros.

Maria: (to Dark Pit) You're helping us?

Dark Pit: Why not? Even if I did join up with Pandora, she'd blast me out of the sky the first chance she got. Oh, and she's rude!

Me: I know how that feels. But we'll gladly help you out.

Pit: Awesome! But I can't fly as long as you can.

Me: I know. 5 minutes is not very long. But I can fix that for you.

I snapped my fingers and now Pit and Dark Pit can stay in the air forever.

Pit: Awesome! Now we can fly forever.

Me: You sure can. You lead the way Pit.

Pit: Right. Lets go!

Pit and Dark Pit flew.

Me: Lets fly!

We were off to Skyworld.

We were flying through the sky and we were following Pit.

Me: So Skyworld is floating right above the planet.

Pit: That's right.

Nico: That is so cool!

Laney: So Pit what is your relationship with Lady Palutena?

Pit: Lady Palutena has always been like a mother to me. She loves me like I am her son.

Me: That is a very powerful bond. And from what I remember she is a mother to all creatures great and small.

Pit: That's right.

We arrived at Skyworld and we saw that it was under siege.

Me: Whoa! Looks like a war is going on.

Pit: Yeah. Pandora has possessed Palutena and is forcing her to destroy everything against her will.

Me: Not on our watch.

We flew and landed in the temple and we saw Lady Palutena and she was under the control of Pandora.

Pit: It's over Pandora!

Me: Let Lady Palutena go!

Pandora: (Through Palutena) Oh I don't think I will be doing that J.D.

Knudson of Team Loud Phoenix Storm. You see, I love this body and I have been in vapor form for far too long.

Nico: I remember you were reduced to a vapor form somehow.

Me: I don't know how that happened but somehow it did.

Vince: No kidding.

Lincoln: I saw what you looked like in your body Pandora, and you are beautiful.

Pandora: Thank you young Lincoln. My body was smoking hot before it was destroyed.

Pandora (GAOBAM): You sound an awful lot like me!

Luna: And me too dudes.

Pandora: Our voices do sound alike don't they?

Pandora (GAOBAM): You know the funny thing? I too am Pandora.

Pandora: How can that be?

Mandy: It's a really funny story.

Pandora (GAOBAM): Unlike you, I was cursed with this box here.

She pulled out her box.

Pandora: That's my box.

Pandora (GAOBAM): I know. I was cursed with it.

Pandora went over her history.

---

Pan-dora (sometimes spelled "Pan-Dora") or Dora is a strange girl with a mysterious lunchbox that holds countless supernatural contents of nightmarish proportions and she is one of the villains from the Grim Adventures of Billy & Mandy.

History

Dora originally known as Pandora, was originally a normal girl during the times of ancient Greece, until one day Zeus, Poseidon and Hades decided to send down a 'mysterious box' down to Pandora. Upon seeing the box, Pandora's curiosity was piqued and she opened it, unwittingly unleashing the previously-imprisoned forces of the plight that had been contained within the box. Turned upon by her fellow humans and driven away, Pandora, now cursed to wander the Earth with no place to call home, had to now keep with her the box of legend.

Pan-dora's Revenge

Pandora sought revenge against both the gods that cursed her, and the people who spurned her, and to do this, she needed to open the box and unleash the contents upon them, but her 'curse' prohibits her from being able to open the very object from which her curse stems from with her own hands and can grant her the revenge she craves. Forced to wander the earth, unable to open her 'lunchbox', Pandora, under the alias of "Dora", sought someone she can trick into opening the box for her.

Her chance finally came when she met Mandy and Billy at Endsville Elementary School. She later met Grim who recognizably suspects her as he seen her before. When both Mandy and Dora were out on the football field, Mandy wanted to destroy Mindy, her arch-nemesis. So she opens the lunchbox, unleashing an evil that happened to be demons shaped like food and all sorts of cataclysmic storms and nightmares. It turns out that Dora is actually Pandora, and she tricked Mandy into unleashing all of the demonic horrors. Mandy, angry that Dora tricked her, stops the end of the world by sucking the demons and Dora into the lunchbox (simply by closing the box and opening it again).

* * *

Pandora: Wow.

Qin: My god. Pandora, I didn't know that all happened to you.

Pandora (GAOBAM): Yeah it was awful.

Me: That was a dark past though.

Pandora: Very dark.

I held out my hand.

Pandora: Careful, Knudson. You try and hurt me and you'll end up harming Palutena instead!

Me: I wasn't trying to hurt Palutena. (Chants an incantation)

Pandora then came out of Palutena's body as black and blue fire.

Pandora was a cloud of black and blue fire.

Me: Hang on Palutena.

I went over to Palutena and got her over to us and she woke up.

Me: Lady Palutena, are you all right?

Lady Palutena: (Groans) J.D. Knudson?

Me: That's right.

Lady Palutena: What happened?

Me: It's a really strange story. But Pandora possessed you.

Lady Palutena: (Gasp) I remember now. We have to stop Pandora!

Me: We all will.

Pit: Lady Palutena.

Lady Palutena: Pit!

They hugged.

Pit: Me and Pit 2 went and got J.D. to help us stop Pandora.

Me: That's right.

Nicole: Look.

We saw Pandora form into a ball of fire with a scary face on it.

Laney: That is scary now like it was in the game.

Nicole: It sure is.

Then we saw Ebon and Webstor come out.

Me: Ebon and Webstor.

Ebon: That's right.

We saw a robot monkey with them.

Pit: Are you one of Mega Man's enemies?

Spark Mandrill: In a way. The name's Spark Mandrill!

Spark Mandrill slams a sparking fist on the ground, sending out two electrical spheres at Spark Man.

Lincoln fired lightning at the spheres and destroyed them.

Spark Mandrill: Very impressive.

Mr. Burns then came out.

Qin: Oh great. Mr. Burns.

Lady Palutena: I thought he was dead!

Me: He was and I got him killed.

Ebon: Before we fight, you should know that Dark Spicer used Alien Ξ to restore Fat Tony's eyesight.

Carol: Really?

Webstor: C'mon! Fat Tony's part of our group. You didn't really expect us to leave him permanently blind, did you?

Carol: Good point.

Me: (In my head) I sense a spark of good inside Pandora. Maybe there's still hope. (Out Loud) We will stop you Pandora!

Pandora: You cannot defeat me! I'm a God!

Troy: We eat gods for breakfast!

Megaforce Rangers (except Orion): Legendary Ranger Mode: Starforce Pentasquad!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the 5-Star Squadron Great Rangers from 1994!

Orion: Legendary Ranger Mode: Mighty Morphin White!

Orion turned into the White Mighty Morphin Ranger!

Lily: I'll face Ebon. I have a new surprise for him.

Qin: I'll face Mr. Burns.

Lucy Loud: I'll take Webstor.

Lincoln: I'll face Spark Mandrill.

Me: And the rest of us will face Pandora.

Pit: (to Mario) Just like old times, huh?

Mario: (Italian Accent) Indeed.

Nico: Lets get them!

We went at them.

---

Battle 1: Ebon

Lily was facing Ebon.

Ebon: So what is the surprise you have Lily?

Lily: I have a new form. Watch.

A vortex of glowing water enveloped Lily and it shot high into the sky and we heard the divine singing of angels grace the sky and the water formed into a powerful mermaid. Her energy levels were skyrocketing at an astronomical rate. When the vortex faded, Lily was forever changed. Lily looked like she was 17 years old and she had an ample chest, a purple shirt with a flower on it, a headband with flowers on it, water earrings, a blue skirt, purple socks, black Mary Jane Shoes, blue bracelets, and a sleeveless trench coat with glowing ocean water and the kanji for Lily Loud - Maelstrom of the Glow of Coventina on the back. リリーラウド-コヴェンティーナの輝きの渦 She was now a SUPER ANGEL 20,000 GLOWING OCEAN MAELSTROM!

Ebon was shocked!

Ebon: Whoa! Went from little girl to teenage goddess!

Lily: (Older Voice) (Giggles) Thank you tall, dark and scary. Shall we dance big boy?

Ebon: Lets shall.

Lily went at Ebon and kicked him in the face and she slashed him in the stomach with a sword made of pure glowing water and she punched him in the face and sent him flying. Lily fired a powerful blast of glowing water and it slammed into his face and smashed him into a wall and knocked him down. Ebon got up and Lily kicked him in the stomach and sent him crashing into a wall and he was knocked down and rocks came down on him.

Lily: Now I am a strong girl.

Lucy Loud: Try me.

Lucy Loud: Ha ha.

Spark Mandrill: Why is your hair white kid?

Lincoln: I was born with white hair you talking monkey. Try this out.

Lincoln fired a massive blast of lightning and it hit Spark Mandrill and it was electrocuting him all over. Lincoln continued electrocuting him until he exploded and was reduced to fiery metal.

We got his Electric Spark attack.

Lincoln: Lightning is a weapon for good.

Battle 4: Mr. Burns.

Qin was facing Mr. Burns.

Qin: You are gonna never terrorize Homer or anyone from Springfield as long as I'm present Burns.

Mr. Burns: We'll see about that! Now, my robot suit has jet boots!

Qin: Big deal. I have a new transformation.

Qin was enveloped in a massive vortex of fire and her energy levels were skyrocketing at an incredible level. When the vortex faded, Qin was forever changed. She had a green bow in her hair, green dragon earrings, a green shirt with a dragon on it, green plaid skirt with blue leggings, blue sneakers and a sleeveless trench coat with green fire and leaves on it and the Kanji for Qin Chen - Firestorm of The Dragon of Justice on the back. 秦陳-正義のドラゴンの火の嵐 She also had green fire angel wings spread. She had become a SUPER ANGEL 20,000 KOMODO FIRESTORM!

Qin: Lets dance.

Qin floated and took off like a laser and kicked Mr. Burns in the face and sent him crashing into a wall and he got up and went at Qin and she dodged him and kicked him in the back and fired massive blasts of fire at him and burned him all over and then she punched him in the face and knocked out some of his teeth.

Qin: You have terrorized the people of the world for far too long Burns. I will make sure that you never get the chance to do so again.

Mr. Burns: I will not stop! I will never stop until this whole world is mine!

Qin: As long as I live, I will never let that happen!

Qin teleported and punched him in the face with devastating force and sent him crashing into a wall and knocked him out!

Qin: What a waste of a life.

---

Battle 5: Pandora

---

We regrouped and we were facing Pandora!

Me: It's over for you Pandora. You will pay for your crimes.

Pit: I agree!

Nico: Lets dance!

I flared up my power and went Super Angel-Ebonwu 100,000 Elemental Moonlight Phoenix!

Me: (Divine Voice) The divine wrath of the gods is coming for you Pandora.

Lori: You literally disgust me! WIND STYLE NINJA ART: GUNFIRE OF THE RED BARON!

Lori fired a massive blast of wind and it turned into the plane of the Red Baron and it blasted Pandora all over the place.

Sam fired a massive barrage of plasma blasts and they slammed into Pandora and exploded all over.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM! KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM! KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM! KRABBBOOOOOOOOOMMM! KRABBBBOOOOOOOOMMM! KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOMMM! KRABBBBOOOOOOOOMMM! KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOMMM!

Sam S.L.: Try this! PLASMA STYLE NINJA ART: MULTI PLASMA BLAST BARRAGE!

Sam fired massive volleys of plasma and they all slammed into Pandora and exploded all over her and set much of Skyworld on fire.

Sam S.L.: This will hurt. PLASMA STYLE NINJA ART: CORONA FLARE RASENSHURIKEN!

Sam formed a powerful Rasenshuriken of Solar Plasma and she threw it and it slammed into Pandora and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Sam S.L.: Here's a deadly one. PLASMA STYLE NINJA ART: CORONA FLARE KAMEHAMEHA!

Ben: FEIRCERAFFE!

Me: Whoa! That's a different one.

Shanan: Wow! That's a Nekrogiraffa from the planet Ekoplekton. They are the natural predators of the Ekoplektoids, Slapback's Species.

Nico: Wow! It looks so much like a giraffe.

Riley: It sure does.

Laney: That is amazing.

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: Time for some Final Smash power!

Pit: Right! LIGHTNING CHARIOT!

Pit calls out "Lightning Chariot!" (光の戦車！, Chariot of Light!) and jumps aboard the Lightning Chariot and flies off-screen. A player-controlled crosshair appears, with Pit saying, "Phos! Lux! Let's go!" (行くぞ！フラッシュ！シルバー！, Let's go! Flash! Silver!); Pit will then swoop in atop the chariot to strike opponents when prompted, similar to the function of the Dragoon item.

The Lightning Chariot slammed into Pandora and knocked her down with a massive explosion!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Dark Pit: My turn! DARK PIT STAFF!

Dark Pit takes out his staff and fires a powerful horizontal shot, quipping "Goodbye!" or "It's time!" (in Japanese, either "貫け!", Penetrate!/Pierce through! or "一撃で決める…", I'll decide with one blow…) as he does so. Getting caught in the beam deals 1% damage, and the main attack deals heavy knockback along with an amount of extra damage which depends on how many opponents were already hit: 39% for the one closest to Dark Pit, 29% and 21% for the further ones.

The blast from his staff hit Pandora and exploded.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Lady Palutena: You are not worthy of being a Goddess! BLACK HOLE LASER!

In this Final Smash, Palutena uses two powers from Kid Icarus: Uprising: Black Hole and Mega Laser. First, the Black Hole draws in opponents to trap them, then the Mega Laser is fired, inflicting damage. The Mega Laser can hit foes even if the Black Hole does not trap them. The move in total deals 40% damage.

Against one opponent, this Final Smash is overall rather weak in terms of knockback. However, its large range makes it extremely proficient at hitting multiple foes at once, and is therefore ideal for free-for-alls and 8-Player Smashes.

The blast of Palutena slammed into Pandora and exploded.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: This is for everything you've done. ELEMENTAL PHOENIX MEGABLAST!

I fired a massive phoenix of different elemental forces and it slammed into Pandora and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Pandora was knocked down and beaten.

Me: This is to save you from yourself Pandora!

I fired a wave of light and it hit her and separated her from her evil and gave her body back and she was hot and beautiful and I sent the evil of Pandora into the River of Fire.

Lincoln: Yeah!

We powered down and Pandora was free from her evil.

Lincoln brought Pandora over and she was unconscious.

Ebon, Webstor and Mr. Burns came.

Ebon: (to Dark Pit) Shame you didn't want to join us. We would've had a lot of fun together.

Dark Pit: Yeah, well, I prefer to be on the winning team.

Webstor: Can't argue with that logic. (he and Ebon teleport out)

And Mr. Burns left as well.

Pandora: (Groans) What happened?

Lincoln: It's a long story Pandora. But J.D. saved you from the monster you became.

Pandora: What? Tell me everything.

We did so and Pandora was shocked and she broke down crying.

Lincoln comforted her.

Lady Palutena: J.D. I can't thank you enough for saving me.

Me: It was what we had to do Lady Palutena.

Then I got a surprise when Lady Palutena kissed me on the lips. It was a beautiful experience.

Everyone: Aww!

Pit: (To the viewers) Not even the evil gods can stop Team Loud Phoenix Storm. They will help us whenever needed.

Lana: Yep.

We later went back home and Lady Palutena and Pandora were now members of the team. Same with Pit and Dark Pit.

THE END

Another Awesome fanfic done.

Kid Icarus is one of my favorite games and it is really popular in the worlds of Nintendo. I got the idea for the opening scene from the propaganda in Starship Troopers 3. That was a mean guy. NicoChan11 and ArchangelOfJustice12 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is the long awaited battle with Team Plasma and we're going to kill them and make sure that they never divide us and Pokemon.

See you all tomorrow.

The Sky Destroys Team Plasma

In the estate, Qin was in the Simulator doing an exercise where she unleashes the full extent of her new transformations power on an Evil Sasuke. The Simulator activated and she found herself at the Final Valley.

Qin: Wow. So this is the world of Shinobi that J.D. and Naruto went to.

Qin looked at the Final Valley and she saw Naruto and Evil Sasuke really going at each other and mercilessly thrashing each other.

Qin: Wow! Look at them go.

Naruto punched the Evil Sasuke in the stomach with incredible force and mercilessly punched him multiple times and she saw the fight unfold.

Qin: Wow. They are really tearing each other apart.

Then she saw Evil Sasuke get the drop on Naruto and he had a Chidori ready to end Naruto for good!

Qin: Oh no you don't!

Qin flared up a forest green aura and flew at Evil Sasuke at incredible speed!

Evil Sasuke: This is as far as you go you fucking loser. NOW DIE AND GO TO HELL YOU FUCKING DEMON!

Qin: (Offscreen) YOU FIRST YOU FUCKING ASSHOLE!

Qin swooped in and kicked him in the face with incredible force and sent him crashing into the cliff.

Naruto fell into the water and he was unconscious.

Evil Sasuke got up and he saw Qin ready to fight.

Evil Sasuke: You wretched girl! This wasn't your fight!

Qin: It is now you fucking asshole!

Qin then was enveloped in a massive vortex of fire and her energy level increased dramatically! She transformed into her Super Angel 20,000 Komodo Firestorm form.

Evil Sasuke saw this and he felt the unbelievable level of power and energy coming from her.

Miles away in the Hidden Leaf, everyone in the village felt the tremendous increase in energy and even Sakura felt the awesome power!

Same with Orochimaru in the Hidden Sound!

Fu in the Hidden Waterfall felt it as well.

Qin: Sasuke Uchiha, your time has come!

Qin then teleported and kicked him in the stomach with incredible force and punched him in the face with incredible speed and strength and she kicked him in the face with a deadly roundhouse kick and sent him crashing into a cliff. He got up and belched up a huge amount of blood.

Evil Sasuke: YOU WRETCHED BITCH! You can never match an Elite like me!

Qin: If you are an Elite then show me what you got.

Evil Sasuke: My pleasure!

Evil Sasuke went at her and punched and kicked at her with incredible speed and strength and she dodged all of his attacks like they were nothing. She then punched him in the stomach with devastating force and kicked him in the face and sent him crashing into a rock.

He got up.

Qin: If this is all that you are made of, then clearly you are no elite.

Evil Sasuke: Shut up!

Qin: Your clan got what they deserved. The Uchiha are nothing but a bunch of evil thieves, traitors and cold-blooded murderers with no love for anyone other than themselves. A bunch of selfish, evil sons of bitches and fuckpots. By all accounts I'm glad your brother killed them all.

Evil Sasuke then snapped!

Evil Sasuke: (ENRAGED SCREAMING!) YOU WRETCH! I WILL KILL YOU! I WILL KILL YYOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOUUUUUUUUUU!

Evil Sasuke then unleashed the full extent of his Curse Mark Level 2 form and he was completely out of his mind with extreme rage and insane fury! He came at Qin with completely out of control fury and massively relentless and insane rage! He was punching at Qin and kicking at her and more. She was dodging all of his attacks like they were nothing. Evil Sasuke was really out of his mind with madness to the 100th power. The arteries and veins in his eyes were showing and this was a sheer sign that he was completely out of his mind. Evil Sasuke kept punching and kicking at Qin. But all he was doing was amusing her. He backed away and went through hand signs.

Evil Sasuke: FIRE STYLE: FIREBALL JUTSU!

He fired a massive fireball blast at Qin.

Qin: Pathetic.

Qin fired a massive blast of fire and the blasts collided and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

She then flew into the air and Evil Sasuke fired numerous massive blasts of fire and they exploded as Qin dodged every one of them.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOMMMM!

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOMMM! KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOMMM! KRABBBBOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBBOOOMMMMMMMMM!

Qin then teleported and grabbed his wings and then she ripped them right off of his back! Evil Sasuke screamed in excruciating pain as they were ripped right off his back!

Qin then punched Evil Sasuke in the back of the head and sent him crashing into the cliff.

Evil Sasuke got up.

Qin: You are hopelessly outclassed in every way Sasuke. My power far surpasses yours in every way and you will never match me.

Evil Sasuke fumed in rage.

Evil Sasuke: How did you get this kind of power!?

Qin: From a place called none of your fucking business. And you call yourself an elite. You're just a low grade amateur.

Evil Sasuke: YOU BITCH! I AM SASUKE UCHIHA! AN ELITE! I AM THE STRONGEST THERE IS!

Qin: You are nothing. And another thing, I'm just warming up.

Evil Sasuke gasped and growled ferociously and Qin then punched him in the stomach with incredibly devastating power and the punch was so strong that it went all the way through him and out through his back!

SQUELCH!

Blood exploded out of his back and Qin pulled out her arm. Evil Sasuke belched up a tremendous amount of blood. In the trees, Kakashi saw the whole fight with Qin and Evil Sasuke and he knew that Evil Sasuke was gonna lose one way or another.

Qin: It's over Sasuke. You've lost.

Evil Sasuke: NO! I WILL NEVER LOSE TO YOU!

He charged up a Chidori to full power and it turned black!

Qin: So that's it. (Cups hands to side) FIRESTORM STYLE NINJA ART: KOMODO VENOMFIRE KAMEHAMEHA!

Qin fired a massive purple Kamehameha Blast made entirely out of pure purple fire right at Evil Sasuke and he jabbed the blast with his Chidori and it exploded right in his face with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion from the blast was so strong and powerful and so devastating that it completely destroyed the entire Final Valley in a massive and incredible explosion. When the smoke cleared, the entire valley was set on fire, crumbled apart and the sky had a storm in it with lightning flowing around it. Evil Sasuke was completely obliterated in the explosion and there was nothing left of him but his charred headband from the Leaf. Evil Sasuke Uchiha was dead.

Qin: Enjoy the darkness and fire of Hell.

Qin picked up his headband and kept it as a trophy. She then picked up Naruto and went to the Leaf. Once she got there, Qin revealed everything about everything that was going on and more. The entire village was in an uproar. Once news got out about Sasuke's death, a massive riot ensued. They thought Naruto was to blame for it and Qin straightened Sakura out by telling her everything about Sasuke and how evil he was and how Naruto is the son of the 4th Hokage and more. Sakura broke down crying and she hugged Naruto and was guilt-ridden for everything she did to him and how she had abused him and didn't know anything. Qin had the entirety of the Leaf 11 come to our dimension and they were now the little siblings of the older Leaf 11 and Sasuke was glad his evil self was gone for good. The exercise was done and Qin powered down and came out of the Simulator and we cheered wildly for her.

Me: That was awesome Qin!

Nico: Well done!

Sasuke: You sure showed that evil version of me what true power is.

Qin: Thanks guys.

Laney: That was awesome.

Lola: It sure was.

We went to the kitchen to get some snacks.

Later we were watching TV and playing card games.

Poison Ivy: Arkayna, what were you, Zarya, Piper, and Emerald's lives like before you became Mysticons?

Arkayna: That's a really amazing story. As you all know I am the princess of Drake City.

Arkayna went over her history.

---

Princess Arkayna Goodfey is the main protagonist in Mysticons. She first appears in Sisters in Arms. She is voiced by Alyson Court.

She lived in the Drake City Tower with her mother Queen Goodfey, her stepfather King Darius (never getting to know her real father, as he had died years ago), and her arrogant lazy and slacker stepbrother Gawayne the Great. Arkayna was chosen to become the new leader of the second generation of the Mysticons after Dreadbane turned her parents into solid bone.

She wields the mystical Dragon Mage Staff that emits powerful light green fireballs, and symbolizes her status as leader.

For fifteen years, she was believed to be the only child of Queen Goodfey and her late first husband and king of the realm, who would one day be future queen of the realm of Gemina. Loving her life as crown princess in the royal palace, she was always taught to be level-headed and train harder until the next generation of heroes were chosen.

As her birth father had tragically perished while she was growing up, she came to know Darius, second husband and king consort consort to her mother, as the only father she ever knew. However, she never got along with his arrogant and self-centered son Gawayne, as he never had to train as hard as she. On occasion, her mother had taken a rest from her queenly duties to read Arkayna fairy tales, and make elfin-berry pancakes, just like any mother would her children.

Eventually she befriended a female teenage dwarf, who had came to work as the royal griffin wrangler: Emerald Goldenbraid, who helped look after her faithful childhood griffin mount Izzie.

---

Me: Wow! That's amazing.

Arkayna: It sure is. Being a princess is a huge responsibility and it's a huge job.

Daniel Korrigan: (to Arkayna) No offense. But your stepbrother sounds immature.

Arkayna: None taken but yes he is REALLY immature.

Emerald: My history is pretty much the same.

Emerald went over her history.

---

Emerald Zirconia Goldenbraid (called "Em" or "Poo-Tinkle" by her parents and starmate) is one of the four main characters of the Mysticons television series, comics and chapter books. She is a teenage female dwarf, as her predecessor was a male dwarf.

She is the second Mysticon Knight and a female teenage dwarf from the mining town of Rudick's Hollow who served as the Royal Griffin Wrangler and a good friend of Princess Arkayna, the "only child" to Queen Goodfey herself, even prior to becoming a Mysticon.

---

Lana: Wow! That is cool!

Lola: It sure is.

Zarya: My story is amazing too.

Zarya went over her history and it was amazing.

---

Zarya Moonwolf (nicknamed "Z-Star" by her best childhood friend-then-girlfriend Kitty) is a main character of Mysticons. Taken from her home and parents at a young age, Zarya lives in the bustling, boisterous streets of the Undercity. A street-smart scoundrel with charm, Zarya lives by her instincts.

Even though Zarya is tough, she has a strong sense of loyalty to her friends. While the elite might look down on where she lives, Zarya loves the Undercity. Zarya never goes anywhere without Choko, her pet Foz, a cute little fur ball with a long tail and huge white-pink, floppy ears. When Zarya transforms, she becomes the second arrow-blasting Mysticon Ranger.

Before being chosen as "Mysticon Ranger" by the Dragon Disc Zarya was an orphan at "Mrs. Sparklebottom's Sanctuary" before being adopted by her parents. At a young age, Zarya was taken from her adopted parents by Captain Kaos (as shown in "Mutiny Most Fowl") and forced to become a Sky Pirate.

After taking over Captain Kaos' ship she leaves her pirating life and becomes the "Robin Hood" of the Undercity, helping young kids like Neeko.

---

Lori: Wow!

Wildrider: (to Zarya) So you were like the Robin Hood of Drake City?

Zarya: Yes I was.

Piper (Mysticons): My story is the same.

Piper went over her history.

---

Piper Willowbrook (birth name Pyperia Ashryn Elvanestri) is a main character of Mysticons. She first appears in the series premiere, "Sisters in Arms", chosen as the second elven Mysticon Striker. Like her female predecessor, she is an elf.

---

Me: Wow.

Nico: That is so cool!

G1 Smokescreen: You know, you girls are very similar to W.I.T.C.H and the Winx Club.

Will Vandom: That is very similar.

Tecna: (British Accent) It sure is.

Bloom: Yeah.

Then the alarm went off.

Me: Uh oh.

We went to the computer and we saw that Team Plasma is on the move.

---

Team Plasma (in Japanese: プラズマ団 Plasma-dan, literally Plasma Gang) is the villainous team from Pokémon Black/White. Their goal is to release all Pokémon from their trainers, as they believe Pokémon are just being used by humans, making all Pokémon to suffer, also believing that Pokémon will only reach their full potential by being separated from humans.

In reality, however, the organization's real goal is to make Ghetsis the only Pokémon owner in the Unova region so that he can conquer the region unopposed. The ideal of releasing Pokémon from human abuse is but a fraudulent propaganda used by Ghetsis so that every other trainer will release their Pokémon. Most members of the organization follow the propaganda spread by Ghetsis unaware that they're being manipulated by him.

To fulfill their goal, they are trying to recreate the myth of the creation of the Unova region by summoning one of the legendary dragons, Reshiram and Zekrom, and making their lord N to be recognized by them as the legendary hero. Their grunts wear knight-like uniforms and use Dark-type Pokémon such as Purrloin and Sandile.

Differing from previous villainous teams such as Team Aqua/Team Magma or Team Galactic, they avoid attracting unwanted attention and actually try to convince people of their ideals instead of forcing people to agree with them by force.

In Pokémon Black 2 and White 2, Team Plasma is broken into two different forces, each with different purposes. One force vows to make the world a better place for both humans and Pokemon to atone for their crimes. The other one, with Ghetsis as the leader of the newer force, intends to take over Unova. Colress serves as the acting leader but is also subservient to Ghetsis.

N: Appointed King of Team Plasma, N grew with only Pokémon by his side, all of which were being overworked by their trainers and thus were suffering. He learned to communicate with Pokémon and made his goal the liberation of Pokémon.

Colress: The acting boss of the new Team Plasma and a Pokemon researching who is researching the strength of Pokemon.

The Seven Sages: The Seven Sages are like-minded people who were all gathered by Ghetsis from all over Unova, becoming the highest ranked members of the team;

Ghetsis: The creator of the team and one of the Seven Sages, his true goal is actually to rule the world by being the only one allowed to use Pokémon. He's also the real leader of the organization, as N is merely a pawn unknowingly being manipulated by Ghetsis.

Zinzolin: currently the only member of the Seven Sages that remain loyal to Ghetsis

Ryoku: One of the Seven Sages

Rood: One of the Seven Sages that is loyal to N

Gorm: one of the Seven Sages

Giallo: One of the Seven Sages

Bronius: One of the Seven Sages

Anthea and Concordia: N's foster's sisters and Ghetsis' foster daughters. They, along with N, turn on the good side and against Ghetsis.

Shadow Triad: A trio of mysterious guys who work as the personal henchmen of Ghetsis, acting as spies.

Dudley: A scientist that was reseaching Genesect for Team Plasma.

Plasma Grunts Team Plasma's workmen and soldiers under the command of their commanders and their boss.

Former Members

Whitley: A young girl who was once a member of Team Plasma, along with her mother, but after the team's defeat in the Black & White chapter, she was forced to move away and quit Team Plasma so that any traces of her past would be left behind. Whitley redeemed in the process, and she and her mother came to hide in Aspertia City. Despite this, she yearns for the return of Team Plasma's king, N.

Whitley's mother: A woman who was once a member of Team Plasma, and the mother of Whitley. She was forced to move away and quit Team Plasma. She redeemed herself in the process, and she and her daughter came to hide in Aspertia City. It is later revealed that she worked in a Pokémon Center, and she decided to join Team Plasma after taking care of many injured Pokémon.

---

Me: Team Plasma is on the move. Their headquarters is in Belarus.

Nico: All the way over in Eastern Europe.

Vince: Then that's where we need to go.

Me: Lets roll!

We were off to the mountains of Belarus.

---

BELARUS MOUNTAINS

---

In the mountains of Belarus we were right in front of the fortress of Team Plasma. It was heavily guarded and there were guards at every post.

Me: This place is heavily guarded.

Katniss: Just like on the Capitol we are gonna need a plan.

Me: Yep.

Jessie (Pokemon): I have an idea. We're gonna put on disguises and pose as Plasma Grunts and go in.

Me: That's brilliant.

May: Maybe we should just charge in with a Phoenix Cry alongside J.D. and the others. What if someone sees through these disguises?

Meowth: Relax. If our disguises can fool you and your friends for so many years, they can fool Team Plasma.

Me: That's right. Lets give it a shot.

James (Pokemon): Great.

Nico: Me, Maria and May can help too.

Manaphy: Same with me, Poromon, Poliwag, and Horsea.

Maria: Awesome.

Me: Go for it.

They put on disguises and they went in.

Me: They're in. Now we wait.

With Nico, May, Maria, Jessie, James, Meowth and their Digimon and Pokemon they were looking around the fortress.

Jessie: Alright. First, we free the captive Pokemon. And then, we'll deactivate the security.

Nico: Okay.

They got to work and looked for the captive Pokemon and they found them in a room and there were thousands of them. They got to freeing them. There were so many of them.

Later they disabled all of the security and the cameras and security was down.

Me: Security is down! CHARGE!

We went at the fortress and starting blasting and blowing members of Team Plasma apart and we were blowing them to pieces.

Nico: Showtime!

They took off their disguises and revealed themselves!

Jessie: Listen, is that a voice I hear?

James: It's speaking to me loud and clear.

Jessie: On the wind!

James: Past the stars!

Meowth: In your ear!

May: Bringing justice at a breakneck pace.

Maria: Dashing evil, putting villains in their place.

Nico: A rose by any other name is just as sweet.

James: When everything's worse, our work is complete.

Jessie: Jessie!

James: James!

Nico: Nico!

May: May!

Maria: Maria!

Meowth: And Meowth, now that's a name!

Jessie: Putting the evil Villains in their place…

James:… we're Team Loud Phoenix Storm…

Nico, May, Maria, Jessie, James, and Meowth:… in your face!

Wobbuffet: Wobbuffet!

Manaphy, Poromon, Poliwag and Horsea: That's right!

Lynn: You know what? There's no need to charge in with a Phoenix Cry now that Nico's group did that motto.

We busted in and we also had some members of Team Plasma tied up and we were gonna deliver them to the cops.

Me: Team Plasma, the Delta Sky will Blow You into The Stratosphere!

The symbol of Team Delta appeared on our trench coats and we were ready and we blasted them all over the place and either tied them up or killed them.

We then went up to the office of Ghetsis - the True Leader of Team Plasma.

---

Ghetsis Harmonia Gropius, or simply known as Ghetsis, is the main antagonist in Pokemon Black and White and the direct sequels, as well as the adoptive father of N, Concordia, and Athea. He is one of the Seven Sages of Team Plasma. All along the story, he pretended to serve N and to fully support Team Plasma's utopy, though he often lets slip that he serves his own interests. In fact, his true goal is to be the only person in Unova to have Pokemon, so that he would be able to take over the entire land. In order to do so, he manipulated his adopted son as a puppet-king of the Team to make him capture Reshiram or Zekrom, so that he would be able to use them.

Ghetsis is one of the Seven Sages of Team Plasma, an organization allegedly devoted to freeing Pokemon from human slavery. Unknown to most of the organization, Ghetsis' real goal is to make everyone abandon their Pokemon while he remains as the only one with Pokemon, allowing him to easily conquer the Unova region unopposed.

Ghetsis learned about the legend of Unova in which two brothers controlled the Legendary Pokemon Reshiram and Zekrom and faced each other in a battle where the winner was declared the king of Unova. Ghetsis aimed to recreate the legend through his adoptive son N, who would be chosen as a hero by either Reshiram or Zekrom, then defeat the Unova champion Alder with the Legendary Pokemon, after which N would be labeled as the king of Unova and declare that all Pokemon must be freed. Ghetsis would then proceed take over the region while N remained as the "king" and Ghetsis' unknowing puppet.

Ghetsis' first on-screen appearance was in Accumula Town, where he is seen talking to the locals that they shouldn't enslave Pokemon by capturing and using them in battles, and to release them. You encounter him several times after that, telling everyone to send their Pokemon to Team Plasma so that they can be released back into the wild.

N would eventually succeed at bonding with Reshiram/Zekrom and defeat the champion, Team Plasma then lifted their castle to enshroud the Elite Four as a symbol of their dominance, however at that point a young trainer had also befriended the other Legendary pokemon of Unova, meaning that N is not the chosen hero yet until he defeats the player, however N is defeated in a final battle between Reshiram and Zekrom. Ghetsis will come up and say that N was a disappointment losing, and it was revealed that Ghetsis was using N for his own evil deeds, calling him a good-for-nothing boy, warped, and defective. After that, he will battle the player in a rage intending to declare himself the king of Unova by force. When defeated, he will be taken away by Cheren and Alder. After the game is completed, it is revealed that he escaped thanks to the help of The Shadow Triad, his most faithful and loyal servants.

Pokémon Black 2 & White 2

In Pokémon Black 2 and White 2, Ghetsis is the leader of a new Team Plasma. This version of Unova's villainous team is more straightforward with their plans to rule Unova by freezing the region rather than freeing Pokemon. He has recruited Colress and Zinzolin to help him.

He first appears at the Giant Chasm where he announces that he will awaken and use Kyurem to freeze the land. Upon being encountered again, he orders Kyurem to freeze the player solid, but N destoys the attack. Ghetsis fuses N's dragon with Kyurem, making it even more powerful and forces the player to battle it. Kyurem escapes, and the player must battle Ghetsis. Upon losing, he suffers a mental breakdown and is escorted away by a member of the Shadow Triad saying he has "lost control".

After the game is completed the Shadow Triad are found Icirrus City. They state that Ghetsis is no longer mentally capable of any further criminal deeds, finally ending his threat to Unova.

Pokémon Ultra Sun & Ultra Moon

An alternate version of Ghetsis from a different dimension appears in Pokémon Ultra Sun and Ultra Moon, as a member of Team Rainbow Rocket, using his Pokémon Black & White design. This Ghetsis, like the other members of Team Rainbow Rocket, was brought from a world where his plans succeeded (successfully separating Pokémon from humans). After arriving in the game's world, he wonders why he was summoned, and concludes that his purpose was to travel between worlds and liberate all Pokémon from people, consolidating power in himself so that he may rule over all of existence. Becuase of this, he intends to use Giovanni as a pawn, reasoning that an evil human will be easier to manipulate than "a freak without a human heart", referring to N. Refusing to allow the player to reach Giovanni and interfere with his plans, Ghetsis challenges the player.

After being beaten, he refuses to accept his loss and attacks Lillie, trying to use her as a hostage to make the player throw down their Poké Balls. Regardless of the player's answer, Colress appears and rescues Lillie, recognizing this isn't the Ghetsis he knows. Ghetsis does recognize him as the Colress of the game's world, but doesn't understand why he is opposing his plans, prompting Colress to declare that he just simply hates Ghetsis regardless of dimensions. Colress then utilizes a newly-developed device to warp Ghetsis back to his original world.

Anime

Ghetsis made his debut in BW112, where he was seen briefly contacting Colress via a hologram communicator. He is the leader of Team Plasma. He is set to make another appearance during the climax of Episode N.

He appeared again, this time in person, in BW117. He was seen contacting Colress for an update on his Pokémon control experiment. Later, he spoke to several Team Plasma Grunts, who were spying on the excavations made at the White Ruins as well as looking for N and conducting the mysterious "Project G" and "Project F."

Ghetsis appeared in BW118 discussing his plans with Colress and Angie. He also was seen in flashbacks to N's past, in which he raised N alongside Anthea and Concordia and wild Pokémon. In a later flashback, a ceremony he led in N's Castle involving N and the Seven Sages was interrupted by Reshiram, infuriating him.

He also had a brief appearance in BW119, meeting with Colress, Angie and Brad via hologram and revealing the existence of the Light Stone to them.

He appeared briefly via a communicator BW120 before arriving at the White Ruins in BW121. With his followers having subdued Team Plasma's enemies, Ghetsis took the Light Stone and placed it on a pedestal in the ruins, then used his staff to initiate the ritual leading to Reshiram's awakening.

Ghetsis appeared in BW122, where, with the help of Colress's machine, he took control of Reshiram. Despite turning it on his enemies, however, he lost control of Reshiram when Colress's machine was destroyed. Ultimately, he was arrested by Looker along with the rest of his followers.

Pokémon Generations

Ghetsis appears in the the episode The King Returns, where he appears in the Giant Chasm, trying to freeze all of Unova. Despite N's efforts, he fuses Kyurem and Reshiram, forcing Hilbert to fight him.

Pokémon Adventures

Ghetsis makes his first appearance in Accumula Town, where he introduces Team Plasma and their campaign to the townspeople. He gives a speech asking the townspeople to free their Pokémon so that they can be truly equal to them. Although some were not swayed by his words, Ghetsis did manage to convince some of the townspeople to release their Pokémon into the wild.

During the attack on Nacrene City for the Dark Stone, Ghetsis had a Plasma Grunt trick Black into revealing where it was kept hidden. After reaching the room, Ghetsis attacked Black and paralyzed him with his Eelektross. With the Dark Stone now in his possession, Ghetsis delivers the stone to N so that he can awaken the legendary Pokémon Zekrom.

When Team Plasma attacks the Pokémon League, Ghetsis uses Hawes as hostage to prevent Brycen from freeing the kidnapped Gym Leaders. He puts Brycen and the other Gym Leaders on crucifixes to taunt Black and others. Black attempts to retaliate, but his entire team is easily defeated by Ghetsis's Hydreigon. When no one is able to stop Team Plasma, several Trainers that Black met on his journey offer to help combat Ghetsis and the other Sages so that Black can move on.

Black, furious from what he learned from Ghetsis, manages to have his Pokémon switch opponents so that he can free Musha from Cofagrigus's grasp. With Musha's help, Black finds out that Ghetsis has a sixth Pokémon assisting him. His Volcarona was found in the Relic Castle, where it was later captured and eventually is the mother of the Shadow Triad's Larvesta. Having uncovered Ghetsis's secret weapon, Black has his entire team defeat Ghetsis's team by exploiting their weaknesses. Afterward, Black traps Ghetsis in a cage of Stone Edge pillars, finally defeating him and ending Team Plasma's goals.

In the Black 2 & White 2 chapter, Colress reveals that Ghetsis is still an active part of Team Plasma, although he has given up his leadership to the scientist. Later, Ghetsis meets with Colress on the Plasma Frigate after Colress finished testing the Colress Machine. After checking the new Grunt uniforms, Colress tells Ghetsis that they should call Zinzolin and get him to rejoin them.

Later, Ghetsis sends Colress to Driftveil CIty to fetch Zinzolin as well as the Kyruem he caught in secret. Colress succeeds with both tasks, but ends up in a battle with Blake, who is a member of the International Police. The battle is interrupted by Ghetsis, who arrives on the Plasma Frigate and has Colress put Kyurem in a special room on the ship. Blake attempts to stop the duo, but the Shadow Triad attacks him. Ghetsis and Colress then flee on the Frigate.

In PS542, Ghetsis sees that N has returned to Unova due to Zekrom being attracted towards where Kyurem is. Ghetsis takes control of Kyurem to battle his foster son, Though Colress warns Ghetsis not to let his paternal feelings get the best of him, Ghetsis assures Colress that he never felt any attachment to N to really begin with.

Ghetsis: Are you just going to stand out there or are you going to come in?

We walk into Ghetsis' office.

Nico: (annoyed) We were going to bust in with a Phoenix Cry. But now, you can forget it!

Me: So you are the true leader of Team Plasma.

Ghetsis: That's right. My name is Ghetsis. It's a privilege to have the world famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm here.

Me: We didn't come for pleasantries Ghetsis. We came here to kill you. We're not gonna let you separate all humans and Pokemon.

Ghetsis: You just don't understand. People are the real monsters to Pokemon and they abuse them like they are slaves!

Me: That's total bullshit!

Nico: What kind of fucked up world do you live in!?

Vince: You are a menace to all Pokemon and humans everywhere.

Ghetsis: That was just a convenient lie that I needed to create Team Plasma. Use your head. What's to be gained from letting go of useful things like Pokémon? Certainly, manipulating Pokémon helps people expand their possibilities. That much I can agree with. So it naturally follows that only I should be able to use Pokémon!

Me: Not on our watch you won't. Pokemon are meant for everyone!

Ghetsis: Then I will kill you to prove that I'm right.

N: I know this has been a very long time coming, Ghetsis. But you're finally getting what's coming to you!

Nico: I really hope you spent your free time from us wisely before today.

Calamitous and King Hiss came out.

Me: Calamitous and King Hiss.

King Hiss: That's right.

William: What exactly did you promise Ghetsis if he kills us?

Calamitous: Complete control of Unova while we rule the rest of the world.

Me: Not gonna happen pipsqueak.

?: Then you can face me too.

A figure came out and it was PHOTOMARE from episodes 99 and 100 of Mighty Morphin!

* * *

Photomare was able to trap the Rangers (who had been transformed into kids) inside a photograph. Photomare and Goldar had cornered Bulk and Skull (who had also been transformed into kids) to retrieve the photograph of the six kids. Alpha 5 was able to temporarily freeze Goldar and Photomare in their tracks. When the Rangers returned to their correct ages, Photomare grew giant, at which point Rocky summoned the Red Dragon Thunderzord. Photomare quickly created a copy of the zord, called Copyzord . After the Thunderzords combined to form the Thunder Megazord, they were able to easily destroy both Photomare and her Copyzord in one quick swipe of the Thunder Saber.

* * *

Trini Kwan: Photomare!

Photomare: Long time no see rangers.

Me: I remember you! You trapped the rangers inside a photograph and Bulk and Skull helped save you.

Photomare: That's right. Good way of keeping track. You've been watching us on TV haven't you?

Me: Never missed an episode. Awesome shows and it was awesome how you managed to copy the Red Dragon Thunderzord.

Photomare: A walk in the park for me.

Billy Cranston: Don't even try to trap us in a photograph again!

Photomare: No. If I want to take you Rangers down, I'll have to step my game up. (to Tommy) It's a good thing you have your Green Ranger powers right now!

Photomare created copies of the Green Ranger from when Tommy Oliver got brainwashed by Rita in episodes 17 thru 21, Ryan Mitchell when he was working for Queen Bansheera, Daggeron, Zhane, Eric Myers when he was an arrogant jerk and Trent Fernandez when he was brainwashed by Mesogog.

Me: Whoa! This is awesome!

Comic Book Guy then appeared.

Whitney: Comic Book Guy.

Comic Book Guy: That's right and now I am here to make sure that you all suffer.

Whitney: We'll see about that.

Troy: Let's take these fakes down! Then we go after Ghetsis and his Pokemon.

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Dragon Blitz Force!

The Megaforce Rangers transformed into the Changeman Rangers from 1986.

Me: Lets split them up and take them down.

We went at them and took them on.

Battle 1: Copy Green Ranger Tommy Oliver.

Me, Sandman, Clayface and Jake Holling were facing the evil Green Ranger Tommy Oliver.

Me: This is gonna get really ugly.

Jake Holling: No kidding.

Evil Green Ranger Tommy: You all are going to die.

Me: The one who's going to die is you.

I powered up and went Super Angel-Ebonwu 100,000 Elemental Moonlight Phoenix.

Me: (Divine Voice) This is the Divine Judgement that befalls all villains.

Me and Jake went at the Evil Green Ranger copy and we clashed violently.

I kicked him in the stomach and sent him crashing into the wall and he pulled out his dark sword and we clashed and sparks flew everywhere and set much of the building on fire. Then he backed away fired blasts of green energy and I deflected them and they hit the floor and exploded.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!

Sandman and Clayface smashed him all over with their fists and mace ball arms.

Me: My turn. MOONLIGHT STYLE NINJA ART: OUR SOLEMN HOUR!

I floated off the ground and the moon shined behind me as I was singing Our Solemn Hour by Within Temptation.

Sanctus Espiritus redeem us from our solemn hour

Sanctus Espiritus insanity is all around us

Sanctus Espiritus! Sanctus Espiritus! Sanctus Espiritus!

In my darkest hours I could not foresee

That the tide could turn so fast to this degree

Can't believe my eyes

How can you be so blind?

Is the heart of stone, no empathy inside?

Time keeps on slipping away and we haven't learned

So in the end now what have we gained?

Sanctus Espiritus, redeem us from our solemn hour

Sanctus Espiritus, insanity is all around us

Sanctus Espiritus, is this what we deserve

Can we break free from chains of never-ending agony?

Are they themselves to blame, the misery, the pain?

Didn't we let go, allowed it, let it grow?

If we can't restrain the beast which dwells inside

It will find it's way somehow, somewhere in time

Will we remember all of the suffering

'Cause if we fail it will be in vain

Sanctus Espiritus, redeem us from our solemn hour

Sanctus Espiritus, insanity is all around us

Sanctus Espiritus, is this what we deserve

Can we break free from chains of never-ending agony

Sanctus Espiritus, redeem us from our solemn hour

Sanctus Espiritus, insanity is all around us

Sanctus Espiritus, is this what we deserve

Can we break free from chains of never-ending agony

Sanctus Espiritus, redeem us from our solemn hour (Solem hour)

Sanctus Espiritus, insanity is all around us (All around us)

Sanctus Espiritus, is this what we deserve

Can we break free from chains of never-ending agony

I fired blasts of moonlight and they turned into the planes from the Blitzkrieg in 1940 and they bombed and hit the Green Ranger Copy all over and exploded.

Jake Holling: Wow! J.D. that was awesome!

Me: Thanks Jake.

Jessie K.: It sure was awesome. That song was based on the famous first speech of England's Prime Minister Winston Churchill.

He gave that speech during World War II.

Me: He sure did. That was his biggest speech during that time.

Jessie K.: It sure was.

Jake Holling: Let me see if I can do it too. AMERICA STYLE NINJA ART: GETTYSBURG ADDRESS!

Jake formed an image in the air and it was the famous speech of Abraham Lincoln when he gave the Gettysburg Address back on November 19th, 1863.

Four score and seven years ago our fathers brought forth on this continent, a new nation, conceived in Liberty, and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal.

Now we are engaged in a great civil war, testing whether that nation, or any nation so conceived and so dedicated, can long endure. We are met on a great battle-field of that war. We have come to dedicate a portion of that field, as a final resting place for those who here gave their lives that that nation might live. It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this.

But, in a larger sense, we can not dedicate-we can not consecrate-we can not hallow-this ground. The brave men, living and dead, who struggled here, have consecrated it, far above our poor power to add or detract. The world will little note, nor long remember what we say here, but it can never forget what they did here. It is for us the living, rather, to be dedicated here to the unfinished work which they who fought here have thus far so nobly advanced. It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us-that from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion-that we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain-that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom-and that government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth.

Jake Holling fired a wave of Red, White and Blue light and it turned into the army that left a devastating blow to the town of Gettysburg in Texas during the American Civil War and it blasted the Evil Green Ranger Copy all over and he fell down and exploded in a powerful explosion of green fire.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: Give my regards to Rita Repulsa asshole.

Jessie K.: Wow! That was the Gettysburg Address. That was Abraham Lincoln's Most Powerful Speech that he did during the American Civil War.

Jake Holling: It sure was. Thats always been one of my favorite subjects in History.

A time of religion and war,

Legends tell the tale of a lion

This beast in the shape of a man,

With a dream to rule sea and land

And all those who stand in his way,

Will die, by God and victorious arms

With the righteous that follows him south,

Once more, set ashore, to war

Legends have taught, battles fought,

This lion has no fear at heart

Lion come forth, come from the north,

Come from the no-o-o-o-orth

Gustavus! Adolphus!

(Gustavus Adolphus go forth, libera, impera)

Libera et impera!

Acerbus et ingens!

(Acerbus et ingens leo, libera, impera)

Augusta per augusta

A storm over Europe unleashed,

Dawn of war, a trail of destruction

The power of Rome won't prevail,

See the catholics shiver and shake

The future of warfare unveiled,

Showed the way, that we still walk today

Der Löwe aus Mitternacht comes,

Once more, he is here, for war

Stories of old, truth unfold,

Control over Europe he holds

Freedom he'll bring,

Lion and king, lion and king

Mighty eagle rule alone

Liberator claim the throne

Lion from the northern land

Take the scepter from its hand

Oh, oh, oh you lion from the north,

Ooooooooh you lion from the north

Seine wilde Rose blüht nicht mehr

Seine wilde Rose blüht nicht mehr

Mein Liebster zog in die Schlacht dahin

Und rief „Solang ich siegreich bin,

Wird diese wilde Rose blühen"

Ich gab der Blume seinen Nam'

Sie blühte stolz und unbeugsam

Bis eines Nachts dann der Winter kam

Weh, weh, mein Herz ist schwer

Gab im Frühling meinen Liebsten her

Seine wilde Rose blüht nicht mehr

Werd' ich sehen ihn bald, mir bangt so sehr

Es kam ein Brief in dem es stand

Er starb als Held im fernen Land

Eine Rose fest in seiner Hand

Weh, Weh, mein Herz ist schwer

Gab für immer meinen Liebsten her

Seine wilde Rose blüht nicht mehr

Weh, Weh, mein Herz ist schwer

Into the Duel Monsters World

In the estate in the backyard, I was meditating in front of the Willow Tree with Lisa Simpson and Bohdi.

Me: Oooooooooommmm…

Lisa Simpson: Oooooooooommmm…

Bodhi: Oooooooooommmm…

Nico was reading a book on Percy Jackson.

Manaphy came out and she had May's Ice Ray gun!? What the!?

She fired the Ice Ray at some training dummies in the yard.

Drill Man: (sees Manaphy using ice gun in the backyard) Oh boy. May's not gonna like this.

Manaphy: Ah what's the worst that can happen?

Manaphy fired the ray at the dummies and froze them in ice.

In her room, May was sleeping and she had an awesome dream about Nico and her getting married. It was a beautiful dream.

May woke up later on and she yawned.

She went outside.

Bloom: (smiles nervously) Hi, May! How was your nap?

May: Good. Is something going on right now?

Me, Bohdi and Lisa finished meditating when suddenly…

May: MANAPHY, WHAT ARE YOU DOING?!

G1 Ravage: (Sarcastically) Told you guys she'd take it well.

Me: What the?!

We saw the training dummies turned into Ice Sculptures and Manaphy was holding May's ice ray gun.

Me: Whoa! Manaphy has been having a cold time. (Rimshot)

Nerri: (Laughs) That was a good one.

Me: Thanks.

We went over and May was mad at Manaphy.

Manaphy: (crying) I'm sorry, Mama! I just wanted to try your ice gun!

Windcharger: C'mon, May! She was just being curious.

Wanda: But curiosity killed the cat.

Cliff: (Meows at Wanda)

He was looking at her with a scowl that said "Hey I resent that!"

Wanda: Er no offense Cliff.

Cliff: (Meows)

Laney: He says None Taken..

May: Oh Manaphy you know I can't stay mad at you. But next time ask before you use my ice ray okay?

Manaphy: (Sniffles) Okay.

Nico: She did a good job on the training dummies though.

Laney: She sure did. But it's good no one got hurt.

May: True.

Lincoln: Or frozen in this case.

Me: Lets head back inside.

Nico: Okay.

We went back inside the estate.

NEO DOMINO CITY

---

We were walking through the streets of an awesome city called Neo Domino City. It was an advanced and highly upgraded version of Domino City. It was located in the Florida Keys.

---

New Domino City, known as Neo Domino City (ネオ童実野シティ Neo Domino Shiti) or City in the Japanese version, is an intended utopia. It is built near the old Domino City, which has now become the rundown Satellite plant. Residents of New Domino live in luxury and feed off the labor of people living in Satellite. In the English dub of Yu-Gi-Oh! ARC-V, the City in the Synchro Dimension is also known as New Domino City. In this version of New Domino, characters such as Jack Atlas, Crow Hogan and Lazar appear as different universe counterparts to their 5D's versions.

New Domino is connected to Satellite by a single pipeline. According to Yu-Gi-Oh! 5D's, Yusei Fudo and Jack Atlas are the only people to ever travel through the garbage pipe to New Domino City.

However according to Rex Goodwin, the connection with Satellite being the pipeline is due to the events concerning the Dark Signers. Yusei tried to convince Goodwin to evacuate the citizens of Satellite, but Goodwin states he can't or the current situation would worsen due to the Dark Signers seeking the residents of New Domino city if he did what Yusei asked, which angers Yusei. However, it partially fails when Misty Tredwell and Carly Carmine become Dark Signers in New Domino, although they go to Satellite after their Duels conclude.

However, before the final battle between them and the Signers can finally commence. Yusei requests to Goodwin that once they are defeated, he will then finally connect the city and Satellite with the help of Satellite's legendary Daedalus Bridge. Goodwin accepts.

After Goodwin dies when he is defeated by Yusei in a final Duel as one of the Dark Signers, a new and enormous bridge is constructed which finally connects the city with Satellite.

Because of this bridge, it is said that the city has changed significantly, as a highway has been able to be constructed which connects the city with other parts. Also because of this same highway, Turbo Duels can now occur freely.

All the highway lanes have been built so that they can elevate when a Turbo Duel is initiated, thus allowing mainstream traffic to pass by without disrupting the Duel. Of course, a Turbo Duel on the highway must first be granted authorization by Sector Security.

A monument has been built in the center of all the bridges connecting Satellite to New Domino City. It symbolises the unification of Satellite and the city and its design makes out an infinity symbol when looking at its reflection in the water. This monument is most likely designed this way by its designers.

According to Lazar, such changes are the ones being celebrated on the upcoming and prestigious tournament, known as the "World Racing Grand Prix".

During the WRGP tournament, the city is severely damaged by the Diablo fiasco, thus halting the tournament for a while for repairs.

During the Duel against Aporia, the city is further damaged and many civilians are harmed as the attacks from "Meklord Astro Mekanikle" are real. Also during Yusei's fight with Z-one, part of the Divine Temple falls on the city, and causes some damage.

The gigantic fortress known as the Divine Temple is revealed to be made out of crumbled buildings and structures that compose the city in the future.

---

Me: Wow! So this is Neo Domino City. It looks like a city from the year 3000.

Nico: Boy no kidding. It's just amazing that it got this advanced.

Lincoln: It sure is amazing.

Lana: Yeah the buildings look incredible.

Alexis Rhodes: I remember reading all about this all over the news over the course of the last 3 years. They were under attack by the evil Dark Signers.

Me: The Dark Signers?

Laney: Who are they?

Alexis Rhodes: I forgot exactly. But I do know some people that do.

Alexis took us to a special building.

We got to a special and very fancy headquarters. It was the base of the Signers. It had a circle with the symbol of the Crimson Dragon on it.

Me: Wow! This is cool.

Alexis Rhodes: Follow me guys.

In a briefing room sat the legendary Signers. They are the defenders of peace and the world that work for the legendary Crimson Dragon, a powerful entity of pure good from ancient Aztec Lore.

---

The Crimson Dragon (赤き竜, Akakiryu) is an almighty cosmic entity made of pure sacred fire. It is the physical embodiment and cosmic manifestation of the mighty Dragon Star in the Yu-Gi-Oh! 5D's anime.

Ten thousand years before the present day events, the mighty Crimson Dragon along with Ancient Fairy Dragon, Black Rose Dragon, Black-Winged Dragon, Red Dragon Archfiend and Stardust

Dragon fought the Crimson Devil, Red Nova.

During the battle, the Legendary Signer came forward from the ashes of a volcano and absorbed the Crimson Dragon's vast and limitless power through Blazing Soul, and used it to defeat and seal the Crimson Devil.

5,000 years before present day events, the People of the Stars, called upon the Dragon Star for aid to save their lands from the Earthbound Immortals that threatened the peace of their civilization. The Dragon Star answered their call and came down from the heavens in the form of the Crimson Dragon.

The Crimson Dragon had fought the Earthbound Immortals, with the help of its Five Servants. However, instead of Black-Winged Dragon, Life Stream Dragon was present. The dragons managed to seal the Earthbound Immortals within the Nazca Lines, but Ancient Fairy Dragon was lost during the battle, as Earthbound Immortal Uru dragged the dragon with it when it was sealed.

Fortune Cup

The Crimson Dragon reappeared during Yusei Fudo and Jack Atlas's Duel when "Stardust Dragon" and "Red Dragon Archfiend" battled.

In their later rematch, the Crimson Dragon appeared again. However, everyone was there to witness it and with the four Signers present at the Fortune Cup, its appearance was more defined than the last time. Each birthmark was clearly represented and the dragon's head also changed. During the Duel, the legendary Dragon God transported Yusei, Jack, Luna and Akiza into an alternate dimension and showed a disturbing vision in which Satellite was being destroyed by an unknown force and in its place, a Dark Mark which resembled the Spider appeared.

Dark Signers

The Red Dragon God showed itself once again to the four Signers at Rex Goodwin's home. Goodwin then revealed to them a secret that concerned the Red Dragon. It was able to influence fate itself, which is what led to the events that brought the Signers together.

After the King of the Netherworld was finally revived and headed toward New Domino City, where the Condor Geoglyph was, the Dragon God appeared in the sky, and took the Signers, along with their companions, to where the ultimate fight would be held.

After Yusei defeated Goodwin in the Shadow Turbo Duel, the Crimson Dragon arrived, and used "Majestic Star Dragon" to gain physical form, and destroyed the King of the Netherworld by flying through it. It disappeared after that.

Pre-World Racing Grand Prix

The Dragon appeared toward the conclusion of the Duel between Leo and Luna against Lester. As Lester's "Meklord Emperor Skiel" attacked Leo and caused him to be blown off the riding lane, the Dragon shot a sphere from its claw that engulfed Leo, saving him from the wall. After this, it disappeared. The Three Pure Nobles were surprised at the Crimson Dragon saving Leo since they knew Leo wasn't a Signer.

World Racing Grand Prix

Towards the end of the Ritual Duel between the Familiar of Red Nova and Jack Atlas, Red Nova appeared, summoned by his servant wanting to take Jack. However, the Crimson Dragon appeared and protected Jack. Greiger and Max identified the dragon as the shrine's protector Quetzalcoatl. Jack used the ability Blazing Soul to capture Red Nova and transfer its power into a card, and created "Red Nova Dragon". After Jack defeated the Familiar, the temple came crumbling down around Jack, Yusei, Greiger and Max. However, the Crimson Dragon protected the four of them and flew away afterward.

In his Duel with Halldor, when Yusei Summoned "Majestic Star Dragon", Halldor looked at it through his Rune Eye and briefly saw the Crimson Dragon. Halldor realized that the "Majestic Star Dragon" was the incarnation of the Crimson Dragon itself.

After Yusei won the Duel, Halldor used his Rune Eye once again and when he looked at Yusei, he saw "Shooting Star Dragon" and the Crimson Dragon. Halldor realized that the "Aesirs" saw the Crimson Dragon and Team 5D's as allies rather than enemies.

Ark Cradle

In the 3-on-1 Duel against Aporia, the Crimson Dragon appeared again and gave Leo his own Mark of the Dragon and released Life Stream Dragon from Power Tool Dragon.

The Crimson Dragon also made an appearance while Yusei was Limit Over Accel Synchro Summoning "Shooting Quasar Dragon".

When Z-one was defeated in his Duel against Yusei, the Divine Temple shut down and began to collapse. As Team 5D's (minus Yusei) and Sherry head to their Duel Runners, the floor broke apart beneath them and everyone started to fall. The Crimson Dragon appeared and saved everyone, and transported them to a nearby highway.

Team 5D's future

The Crimson Dragon made one final appearance at the end of Yusei and Jack's last Duel. With the Signers' mission complete, the Crimson Dragon reabsorbed all of its Marks since the Signers no longer required them.

Yu-Gi-Oh! 3D Bonds Beyond Time

The Crimson Dragon appeared during the film Yu-Gi-Oh! 3D Bonds Beyond Time, to transport Yusei through time to chase after Paradox who was in Europe, where Jaden Yuki was. At that moment, Jaden was being assaulted by Paradox with "Stardust Dragon", however the Crimson Dragon appeared just in time to protect Jaden from the attack, and brought Yusei along with it.

Later, it transported Yusei and Jaden to the past, to Yugi Muto's time, at the moment when Maximillion Pegasus and people, including Solomon Muto, were attacked and killed by Paradox with "Stardust Dragon", "Cyber End Dragon", and "Rainbow Dragon". The Crimson Dragon than grabbed Yugi and took all three of them back thirty minutes prior to the moment when Paradox arrived where they teamed up in order to Duel Paradox.

Yu-Gi-Oh! ARC-V

An alternate version of the Crimson Dragon briefly appears when Jack Atlas Synchro Summons "Tyrant Red Dragon Archfiend" using "Scarlight Red Dragon Archfiend" as Synchro Material, and Jack invokes the Crimson Dragon during the Summon chant.

---

The Signers of The Crimson Dragon were Yusei Fudo the Leader and technogenius and analytical master with the Head Mark of the Crimson Dragon. With him were his friends: Jack Atlas - Yusei's best friend and 2nd in Command and Hand to Hand Combat master with the Wings Mark of the Crimson Dragon, Akiza Izinski - Yusei's love and Psychic Duelist with the ability to bring monsters to life with the Foot Mark of the Crimson Dragon, Luna and her twin brother Leo - the Twins and the Communicators of the Duel Monster Spirit World and they have the Hand and Heart Marks of the Crimson Dragon, and lastly Crow Hogan - Another one of Yusei's Best Friends and the enforcer of the team with the Tail Mark of the Crimson Dragon.

Yusei: Okay so we know that the Dark Signers have made their return somehow.

Akiza: And we have to stop them at all costs.

Crow Hogan: But the question is how?

There was a knock on their door.

Jack Atlas: (Australian Accent) Come in.

The door opened and we all came in.

Alexis Rhodes: Its been a long time guys.

Yusei: Alexis!

Akiza: Its been a while.

We came in.

Crow Hogan: Whoa! No way!

Yusei: Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Luna (YGO 5D's): It's an honor to meet you all.

Leo: We've heard so many awesome things about you all.

Me: It's a pleasure to meet you all.

Jack Atlas: Same to you J.D. We have heard a lot about all of your adventures.

Akiza: We love how you have done so many good things all over the world and the universe.

Nico: Well we don't like to brag.

Me: We were told so much about all your adventures too and how you all have changed the world for the better.

Luna (YGO 5D's): It's true.

We sat down with them and we told them about some of our awesome adventures.

Yusei: Wow. You all have been through so much.

Me: I know. And it's really stressful at times.

Nico: It sure is. But like Crow, J.D. made me his chief enforcer for the team whenever we get out of line.

Yusei: That's good.

Akiza: Are these all your cards J.D.?

Me: Yep. I've been collecting them for a long time. I don't duel, I just like collecting the cards. But we have been using the cards to help us fight in our battles.

Leo: That is so cool!

Qin: It sure is.

Crow: William, I was wondering something?

William: What's that?

Crow: If you and the founding Redemption Squad members were to use the simulator to fight the Suicide Squad, who would win between your two groups?

William: Boy that's a really good question.

Maria: Probably too tough to answer.

Joey Wheeler: Dat is a good one though.

I then noticed a bunch of sadness in Akiza's eyes.

Me: Akiza are you alright? You have a lot of pain in your eyes.

Akiza: How did you know that?

Me: They say the eyes are the window into the soul. I can see it in your eyes. I'm not making you uncomfortable or anything I'm just concerned.

Akiza: Oh right. It's something that has haunted me ever since I was a child and it had something to do with my powers and things like that.

She showed us her Mark of The Dragon.

Me: Wow. The Mark of the Crimson Dragon.

Ronnie Anne: That is amazing.

Akiza: It is. I was born with incredible power and it made me an outcast as a result.

Akiza told us about her history.

Akiza Izinski, known as Aki Izayoi in the Japanese version, is a main character in Yu-Gi-Oh! 5D's, and was one of the Signers. She is also called the Black Rose, or Black Rose Witch in the Japanese version.

Akiza possesses an extremely strong special ability which sets her apart from the rest of humanity, and even the rest of the Signers. This psychic ability enables her to materialize and bring to life monsters and the effects of Duel Monsters cards, allowing her to freely control them similar to Yami Bakura and Jaden Yuki.

Akiza was raised in New Domino City. Her father, Hideo was unable to spend as much time with her as he would have liked, due to his work as senator.

One day, Akiza fell asleep waiting for her father to come home for her birthday. When he got home, Hideo carried her off to bed and left a present next to her. The next day, Akiza opened the Lord of the Storm present and thanked her father. She wanted to Duel Hideo but was unable to as promised, due to the fact he had to leave for work and wouldn't return for a month. This caused Akiza to storm off crying that she hated him (in the dub, she told him to never come back).

Hideo eventually managed to make time for a Duel. After being interrupted by his cellphone, Hideo had to cancel the Duel and leave. Akiza got upset and continued the Duel in a fury, causing her powers and mark to manifest and appear for the first time. Hideo was injured in the process. Confused and scared, Akiza approaches her father asking for help, but is called a monster and told to stay back, causing her to cry. He tries to apologize, but Akiza is already stung by these words.

Akiza became distanced from other children, due to her abilities. She once Summoned a "Gigaplant" using her powers and set it on a group of other children. Hideo slapped her as punishment. Akiza believed to have deserved this, because she is a "monster" (the slap is cut from the dub).

Akiza gained entrance to a Duel Academy. Her parents hoped someone there could teach her to control her powers. On May 15, Akiza harmed one of the boys at the Academy during a Duel, as she attacked him with "Violet Witch". (In the dub, he was Koda.) More incidents followed, causing Akiza to become feared in the Academy and not have any friends.

She ran back home one day, only to find her parents living happily without her. As a response, Akiza used her psychic abilities to destroy her family's home and decided to continue living without them, believing that they never needed her or loved her as their only daughter. Akiza gained entrance in the Dueling underground and quickly made a name for herself. Her powers kept growing unchecked and hurt many on the battlefield. She eventually decided she could not handle the guilt anymore and created the "Black Rose" persona to deal with the rejection and terrorize the Duelists.

Akiza was eventually found by Sayer, the leader of the Arcadia Movement, an organization of Psychic Duelists that claims to have psychic abilities similar to Akiza's. He takes her in, proclaiming her to be the "future" of all psychic Duelists. Sayer hoped to use her to destroy Rex Goodwin and create an army of Psychic Duelists.

Akiza meets another Psychic Duelist, Toby Tredwell at Duel Academy. Toby idolized Akiza and asked what he should do to be like her. She told him that he should listen to Sayer. Sayer, however, kills Toby while testing him and left his body at the Daimon Area( in the dub he was sent to an unknown location). Unbeknownst to Akiza, people came to believe he had been killed by damage caused by the Black Rose's powers, while watching her Dueling.

Fortune Cup

At the Daimon Area one day, Akiza was challenged by Leo and Dexter. During this encounter Akiza sees Yusei Fudo and his own Mark of the Dragon for the first time. She expresses surprise to the fact that another individual also possesses such a mark, and after a brief confrontation, Akiza uses her mighty telepathic and telekinetic abilities to disappear in a powerful explosion and telling Yusei to leave her alone.

Akiza is invited to participate in the Fortune Cup. Iliaster arrange for her opponent, Gill Randsborg to expose her as a Signer and tell him that she is the Black Rose. Akiza proved her psychic powers as she cuts Randsborg on the cheek while Dueling. Akiza is exposed as the Black Rose, after Summoning "Black Rose Dragon", prompting the crowd to cheer for Randsborg. However Akiza defeats Randsborg with her dragon, inflicting serious injury. Iliaster was unable to confirm her to be a Signer, as Zigzix's D-Sensor got no reading.

Prior to Akiza's next Duel, she confesses to Sayer that she is reluctant to Duel, as she knows someone is going get hurt. Sayer assures her that any damage she inflicts is necessary for the Arcadia Movement's success; consequently, he also takes the mask Akiza had been using to Duel as the "Black Rose", claiming that she no longer needs to hide her beautiful face from the world.

Akiza's next opponent in the Fortune Cup is the Duel Profiler, Commander Koda, a mysterious man who attempts to confuse and manipulate Akiza with tragic insights from her dark past. After being pushed to her psychological limits, Akiza loses control and becomes even more unstable than usual. The pin-like object she uses to hold her hair and psionic/physic powers in place falls off, leaving Akiza's long bangs trailing over her face, and an intense pink aura forms around her. Her birthmark activates as well, and Zigzix's D-Sensor finally gets a powerful reading. Ultimately, she claims victory and moves on to the tournament finals against Yusei.

Before the Duel, the audience screams angrily at Akiza and demands that Yusei defeat her, despite their original dislike of him. Several of the spectators closest to the Duel flee after Akiza's ferocious attack on Yusei becomes a reality. After her first crippling attack against Yusei, he angrily exclaims that Akiza enjoys inflicting pain on others. With a mildly insane smile, Akiza gasps for breath and realizes that this was the hidden emotion that had been lying dormant within her; she replies that she is the "Black Rose", a fearful lady who delights in inflicting pain. However, she seems to accept this as her fate after the audience insults her again, screaming for her slaughter. However, Yusei isn't perturbed, and knows that the hidden emotion that he is looking for still remains locked deep inside of Akiza.

As the Duel between the two proceeds, Akiza Summons "Black Rose Dragon" and Yusei Summons "Stardust Dragon". With the two Dragons pitted against each other, both Akiza and Yusei's dragon marks glow, along with those of Luna and Jack Atlas. After being pressured by Yusei, Akiza reveals that she created an entirely new personality - one that loved destruction - that of the "Black Rose". She continues to add that she no longer needs to think, and that Sayer will do all her thinking for her - all she needs to do is live and feel. Akiza's hair pin gets flung off (which is said to hold her psychic powers in check), dawns her mask and resumes attacking Yusei with newfound intensity. Ultimately, Yusei claims victory. Akiza's mask breaks in half and she begins to cry begging for his help. Before Yusei can say anything, Sayer intervenes and gently guides Akiza out of the arena, leaving the enraged spectators screaming their obscenities to Akiza (in the dub, she is heard saying "thank you, Yusei").

She's then taken back to the Arcadia Headquarters mobile and placed in a tank to help her recover from the Duel. When Jack and Yusei battle it out her mark glows and she is transported to a different dimension where she witnesses Satellite be destroyed by a spider geoglyph.

Dark Signers

Akiza's empathic, telepathic and telekinetic abilities began to weaken.

Akiza's mark starts to throb as Yusei Duels Kalin, although she is not present at the Duel. She realizes that this is related to the vision they witnessed during the Fortune Cup. After Yusei nearly loses, her mark stops glowing, causing her to worry for him.

After a practice Duel, Sayer speaks with Akiza, telling her that only he can help her and Yusei will not come and save her. While Sayer tests Leo to see if he possesses Psychic Dueling powers, after abducting him and his companions, Akiza explains to Luna that Sayer wants to determine if Leo possesses any sort of ability like her. After the Duel ends with Sayer's victory, Akiza assures Luna that her brother isn't in danger as the Duel was just a test. She tells Luna that the Arcadia Movement will be her new home, as Akiza doesn't wish for Luna to become feared and abandoned by others because of her powers.

While Akiza is searching for Sayer, Misty Tredwell, the sister of Toby, engages in a Shadow Duel with her. During the Duel, Misty accuses Akiza of being responsible for the death of her brother and reveals she is there seeking revenge and that she is a Dark Signer. Misty manages to Summon her "Earthbound Immortal", who she says sent her to destroy the servant of "Black Rose Dragon". Meanwhile Carly finishes her Duel with Sayer, sending him falling the entire length of the Arcadia Movement building with Akiza looking in horror. Misty postpones the Duel as the building collapses. A piece of debris hits Akiza, knocking her out.

Jack Atlas saves Akiza while looking for Carly and takes her to Domino Hospital. Akiza is left in a coma. Her parents visit her and feel guilty for how they treated her. Jack tells them that Yusei may be able to save their daughter. Yusei is able to wake her up, but with Sayer gone Akiza convinces herself that she doesn't have a "place". She refuses Yusei's help and plans to rid everyone of their "place". Yusei Duels her, believing it to be the only way to reach out to her. As the Duel progresses, Akiza's powers go beyond her control. As Akiza's father stands in front of Yusei to protect him, Akiza manages to gain control of her powers and protect her father from getting hit. Akiza comes to forgive her parents and tells Yusei to end the Duel.

After the Duel, she becomes friends with Yusei and decides to help the Signers. She is shown by Mina Simington the Arcadia Movement acts involving kidnapped children and experimenting upon them. It's then that she suspects that the organization itself might have actually be involved with the death of Misty´s little brother. Finally, Mina reveals to her Sayer´s true motives involving the choosing of some selected psychic individuals with heightened abilities and the planned use of them as soldiers, one of them being Akiza.

Akiza and the other Signers are invited by Rex Goodwin to his house to learn more about the Signers and Dark Signers. Goodwin tells them that the Crimson Dragon influenced the events in the Signers lives so that they would all meet one day and if it weren't for her powers, she would have never met Yusei and the other Signers. He tells the Signers that they are people chosen by the Crimson Dragon and are the reincarnations of the original Signers.

The Signers along with Leo and Mina take a helicopter piloted by Trudge to Satellite to face the Dark Signers. In Satellite they meet up with Martha. Seeing Akiza there, Martha notices that Yusei was able to open her closed heart. Roman interrupts them during dinner, imposing a Duel. Akiza accompanies Yusei as he Duels Roman. She notices some boys at the scene of the Duel and worries that they will be sacrificed to Summon an "Earthbound Immortal". She warns Martha and Trudge about this, prompting them to help save the boys.

After Yusei and Roman's Shadow Duel, Akiza and the Signers are confronted by the Dark Signers. The four Signers split up, each going to one of the four control units of the Original Ener-D Reactor. Knowing that Misty is the one she must defeat, Akiza travels to the Lizard tower by car accompanied by Mina. Akiza and Mina arrive where the Tower is situated, in an old and abandoned carnival. As the two of them split up and go inside to look for the Dark Signer. Misty guides her into a House of Mirrors, where they commence their rematch.

Akiza is unable to see Misty directly and faces her reflection as they Duel. Through the Duel, Misty, who believes Akiza was responsible for her brother Toby's death, tells Akiza what she believes to be the story of how her brother died and how the news of the event, caused Misty to be hospitalized, leading her to be reborn as a Dark Signer.

Tormented by the truth, Akiza loses the will to continue the Duel. However, Sayer appears to save her from landing on a shard of shattered glass. He proceeds to deviously manipulate her into awakening her powers as the Black Rose once again. Now more confident and destructive, Akiza doesn't even flinch, as she takes damage from Misty's attacks. The Black Rose Summons "Black Rose Dragon", who shatters every mirror in the vicinity. With all of the mirrors gone, the two of them now confront each other face-to-face.

Akiza continues to Duel under the influence of Sayer, until Yusei tricks Sayer into telling the truth of what happened to Toby. This causes Misty to have "Earthbound Immortal Ccarayhua" devour Sayer, avenging her brother's death and relinquishing Sayer's influence from Akiza. Before Misty could surrender, the Earthbound Immortal possesses her. While this occurs, Akiza who still appears to be in some kind of trance, finally snaps out of it, as she hears Yusei calling out for her. In the end, Akiza emerges victorious, causing Misty to vanish, knowing she's at peace. The captive souls of the "Ccarayhua" are set free and Misty's locket is left behind. Akiza picks it up and feels sorry for Misty.

Akiza is unable to activate the last control unit before the sun sets, allowing the King of the Netherworld to be revived. As Akiza observes the Condor geoglyph appear in the sky, the King of the Netherworld emerges and makes its way to the condor. The Crimson Dragon appears and takes Akiza and her companions to Rex Goodwin's mansion. Her,e Goodwin reveals himself to be the final Dark Signer and attaches the arm of the fifth Signer to himself. He declares that a Shadow Turbo Duel will be held within Condor geoglyph as a ritual to welcome the King of the Netherworld.

As Yusei, Jack, and Crow Hogan accept the Duel in order to stop the resurrection of the King of the Netherworld, Akiza, Mina, Trudge, Leo, and Luna can at first only watch the Duel while supporting them. However, when "Earthbound Immortal Wiraqocha Rasca" is Summoned, it tries to cheat by Summoning a flock of demonic black birds to attack Yusei, Jack, and Crow. Akiza and Luna are able to provide aid by Summoning "Black Rose Dragon" and "Ancient Fairy Dragon" to fight the horde

After Yusei's victory, she sits at a cafe with Leo, Luna and Mina, they are apparently waiting for Yusei, Jack, and Crow. Here Akiza discusses Misty's last photo shoot in Paris, simultaneously laughing in amusement as Carly is flustered over her forgotten role in the prior events, as well as rejoicing in the number of lives saved.

Pre-World Racing Grand Prix

Akiza returns to Duel Academy and enrolls into the high school division and becomes the best student in her division overall. Hearing that Leo and Luna's class is going to get removed from the school and the students will be expelled, she enters their class and tries to stop the expulsion, arguing in her statement that having low Level monsters doesn't mean that you are weak and foolish, and she would absolutely never forgive any adult for taking advantage of children at all. After Yusei interrupts, she watches and cheers for him in his Duel against Rudolph Heitmann.

Later, Yusei gets kidnapped by a corporation seeking to coerce him into competing in the World Racing Grand Prix for them. Akiza was intent on rescuing him. After receiving a tip off from Elsworth on Yusei's location, she and Mina find him trapped in the back of a remote controlled truck. Using her powers, Akiza Summons "Rose Tentacles" and has it break open the truck and proceeds to leap on herself. Although reluctant at first, she gets on the back of Yusei's Duel Runner and the two of them jump off to escape. A female Turbo Duelist named Sherry LeBlanc appears and forces Yusei into a Turbo Duel with Akiza still on the back of his Runner. Boss and his goons attempt to kill the Duelists by dropping a truck on top of them, but Akiza plays Yusei's "Stardust Dragon" causing it to appear as a real monster and hold up the truck.

Intrigued by Sherry's words about the uniqueness of Turbo Dueling, Akiza became interested in becoming a Turbo Duelist. Her friends construct her a Duel Runner, the Bloody Kiss. As she trains, she is mocked by the male students. Yusei helps her train, including taking her skating to work on her balance. Leo and Luna debate on whether that was a date or not as they watch.

After passing the initial tests, her final test is a Duel against Trudge. In addition to being new to "Speed Spells", Trudge is harsh on the course and easily stops her "Black Rose Dragon" on the first turn. The male students from earlier detonate a trap, causing a frame holding back large pipes to collapse and spill in her direction. Using what she learned from Yusei she dodges the pipes and defeats Trudge. Sherry watched the whole thing and was impressed. Yusei and friends welcome her to the world of Turbo Dueling.

After her exam, she continues practicing with Yusei on her Turbo Dueling. During Luna and Leo's Duel with Lester, her mark begins to glow. Realizing that Luna was Dueling and that something wasn't right, she, Yusei, Crow, and Jack decide to look for her. Once they find her, they all notice that she's Dueling with Leo against someone using a creature similar to the one Yusei Dueled against.

World Racing Grand Prix

Akiza later joins Team 5D's as a substitute, and decides to support her friends throughout the World Racing Grand Prix. When Crow is injured while training for the WRGP and must sit the first round out, Akiza takes his place on the team. Crow is a little upset at first, but eventually warms up to it, to the point that she receives a call from him so that she can practice. On the day of the first round, after Jack had lost against Andre, Akiza becomes nervous before her Duel begins. In response to that, Yusei points out that her parents have come to see her Turbo Duel and that she is not alone like before. Yusei gives her his "Stardust Dragon", and believes that she can use it well. Akiza commences her Duel, but Andre is able to drastically reduce her Life Points. Despite being pushed into a corner, Akiza is able to Summon not only her "Black Rose Dragon", but also Yusei's "Stardust Dragon". Ultimately, Andre succeeded in countering her moves, but before he could claim victory, Akiza used the remainder of her Life Points to bring back "Stardust Dragon" for Yusei to use.

While training for the next round against Team Catastrophe, she found herself in the same situation that Crow, Jean and Andre were before they crashed. Reacting quickly, she tried to use "Rose Tentacles", augmented by her powers, to try to escape the situation, but to her shock, she discovered that she couldn't use her powers at all. Inevitably, as a result, her Duel Runner is damaged and she loses consciousness.

Sometime later, while Yusei is fighting against Primo, Akiza finally awakes due to the severe thunderstorm caused by Primo. She then remembers what happened and concludes that her powers have mysteriously vanished. While there in the hospital, because of her mark, she becomes aware of Yusei fighting, while she helps Haluna, who is afraid of the thunder hitting the city. Later, when the storm is amplified due to a tornado caused by Primo, the intense wind causes the hospital's windows to break and Haluna gets caught up in it. Thinking that she could save her easily if she could use her powers, she eventually reminds herself of her former view of them and decides to help Haluna on her own. After successfully rescuing her, she finally understands that her powers are not necessary to help people. Akiza in the end concludes that she doesn't need that "cursed power" anymore.

After Yusei wins his Duel against Primo, she is with the other members of Team 5D's, discussing the matter of the Three Pure Nobles. She later assists in luring out Lazar to gain information on them. When Lazar shows them a Turbo Duel Puzzle to access a database Akiza completes the first puzzle after Lazar had failed. She is seen as part of the pit crew once Crow has his arm healed, supporting her teammates through their victories against Team Taiyo and Team Ragnarok and appears with Yusei, Jack, and Crow to confront and compliment the teams. Akiza and the twins help Carly in her report about Team 5D's recalling the events that brought them together only to have it ruined when Stephanie accidentally spilt coffee all over Carly's computer.

During Yusei's Duel with Aporia, Akiza, along with the rest of Team 5D's, is transported to the Nobles' visions of the future. She watches as the power of Synchro Summoning and Ener-D become too powerful over years of abuse, creating a second Zero Reverse event that resulting in the Meklord Emperor Genocide. After returning to the present, she is conflicted as to whether what she just saw was the truth or not, but continues to believe in Yusei and the future she and her friends are trying to create.

Ark Cradle

Akiza and the rest of Team 5D's accompany Yusei on his assault on the Divine Temple. When the gang gets split into three groups due to Z-one's trap, she travels with Crow to the center of the structure. When Sherry appears before them, the two of them Duel her. Sherry plays her "Ecole de Zone" Field Spell, separating them. After struggling for a few turns, Akiza sees through Sherry's trick and with Crow's help successfully Summons her "Black Rose Dragon", using its effect to destroy the Field Spell. She is reunited with Crow, but Sherry fights back by using "Z-ONE" to activate "Soul-Binding Gate".

Because of the effect of the new Field Spell all three of them receive damage, with Akiza on the verge of being defeated. Crow saves her from defeat, and Akiza returns the favor by saving him from a direct attack from Sherry's "Sorciere de Fleur" and helping win the Duel. During the Duel, Sherry reveals to them that she wishes to create a world where everyone gets to be with their family, herself included. Crow was hesitant to continue fighting when he saw a few orphans from the Satellite in the vision, but Akiza quickly reminds him that millions of people will die if they let Sherry and Z-one destroy New Domino City. She also tells him that as long as he believes in the future, anything can be done. With his conviction returned, they continue the Duel. Sherry is defeated, however because the cards in the Duel are real her "Soul-Binding Gate" crumbles and is about to fall on her. Both Akiza and Crow try to save her, but Akiza's "Black Rose Dragon" who is still materialized saves them. Akiza had wished to save Crow and Sherry, which "Black Rose Dragon" responded to. "Black Rose Dragon" also heals them before disappearing, leading Crow to speculate that true psychic power heals. Akiza and Crow then convince Sherry to join their cause.

When Yusei begins to Duel Antinomy, Akiza's mark glows and she senses that something is wrong. After Yusei defeats him the door to the Support Gear opens, allowing Akiza, Crow, and Sherry to pass. They reunite with Yusei and the others, and Akiza notices that Vizor was not there with them. When she asks Yusei where he is, Yusei tells them his true identity was Bruno, a friend of Z-one who died to save Yusei. They move to the main support gear, where they find Z-one, and Aporia, who appears a few moments later. When Aporia tries to reason with Z-one, he reveals that Z-one also had hope for the future and hope for Team 5D's, which surprises Akiza greatly.

Later, upon Aporia's loss and realizing the power of Z-one's Deck, she gives Yusei her "Black Rose Dragon" in order to help him in the Duel. Like everyone else, Akiza becomes shocked to see Z-one's true face when it is unveiled by Yusei's attack. After Yusei defeats Z-one and the Divine Temple disappears, Akiza begins to cry over his apparent death, but later rejoices when he reappears over the horizon.

Team 5D's future

Over the few months after Z-one's defeat, Team 5D's began to see less of each other. Akiza visited Haluna in the hospital coming up to her discharge date to congratulate Haluna on her recovery. Haluna thanked her, but Akiza insisted that the doctor deserved more thanks. Coming up to her graduation, Akiza was the number one student at Duel Academy, so her friends thought that she might join a pro league. However, Akiza considered studying medicine abroad but was uncertain if she should do that or stay in New Domino with her friends.

Akiza attended a dinner party for Team 5D's, hosted by Yusei. At the party, she got mad at Crow for assuming that she wanted to join a pro league. Everyone fell into silence when they learned that all of them were considering leaving the city. Jack then arrived at the party and announced that he wanted to become King again, even if it meant breaking Team 5D's bonds. In order to gain insight into what to do in their futures, Yusei challenged Jack to a Duel while everyone else watched.

During the Duel, Akiza reflected on how Yusei had always protected her. Seeing him finally fighting to himself after always fighting for other people, Akiza aspired to become more independent. When the Duel concluded, Akiza told Yusei that she had made up her mind and was going to study abroad. Everyone on the team except Yusei also decided to leave the city.

As Akiza packed to leave for medical school, her parents suggested that she say goodbye properly to Yusei after all the support he had given her. After confirming that nobody else was around, began thanking Yusei, She about to say that she loves him but she stopped herself and instead say that she was glad to have met him. She then admitted to thinking Yusei was a scary person when they first met. Yusei laughed and said he felt the same about her and had worried about what would happen if he had lost to her in the Fortune Cup. Akiza was slightly taken aback, but Yusei reminded her to smile. They held hands and Yusei complimented her smile, which Akiza credited him for putting on her face. The two parted shortly afterwards.

The next day, Akiza met up with the rest of Team 5D's on the highway for a final ride together. Akiza, while looking at Yusei, chooses not to say good-bye and instead promises herself to return someday. As they did so, the Crimson Dragon appeared and relinquished their Marks of the Dragon, as their duties as Signers had been completed. At the end of the run, everyone high-fived Yusei and went down separate paths.

We gasped in shock.

Me: Whoa man!

Nico: That's terrible!

Me: We're gonna have to have a very serious talk with Akiza's parents later on.

Maria: Akiza, do you need a hug?

Akiza: Of course not.

Maria: Really?

Akiza: (starts to cry) Ok, I admit it! I need a hug!

Akiza hugged her as she cried and she felt hands on her shoulders and they were those of Naruto, Sasuke, Fu and Yugito.

Naruto: Akiza, I completely understand how you feel.

Sasuke: As do I.

Fu: Same here.

Yugito: Yeah.

Naruto: Like you, I too was made an outcast for something I had no control over.

Akiza: (Sniffle) Really?

Naruto: Yes. It's an ugly story.

Naruto went over his history.

Naruto Uzumaki (うずまきナルト, Uzumaki Naruto) is a shinobi of Konohagakure's Uzumaki clan. He became the jinchūriki of the Nine-Tails on the day of his birth - a fate that caused him to be shunned by most of Konoha throughout his childhood. After joining Team Kakashi, Naruto worked hard to gain the village's acknowledgement all the while chasing his dream to become Hokage. In the following years, through many hardships and ordeals, he became a capable ninja regarded as a hero both by the villagers, and soon after, the rest of the world, becoming known as the Hero of the Hidden Leaf (木ノ葉隠れの英雄, Konohagakure no Eiyū, Literally meaning: Hero of the Hidden Tree Leaves). He soon proved to be one of the main factors in winning the Fourth Shinobi World War, leading him to achieve his dream and become the village's Seventh Hokage (七代目火影, Nanadaime Hokage, Literally meaning: Seventh Fire Shadow).

Naruto was born on the night of October 10th to Minato Namikaze (the Fourth Hokage) and Kushina Uzumaki (the second jinchūriki of the Nine-Tails). He was named after Naruto Musasabi, the protagonist of Jiraiya's first book, which made the Sannin his godfather. The Third Hokage made special arrangements for Minato to preserve Kushina's seal containing the Nine-Tails while she gave birth to Naruto in a remote location, escorted by midwives and Anbu. A masked man, Tobi, tracked down their location, however, killed the midwives and Anbu, and captured Naruto, forcing Minato to quickly rescue him and teleport him to a safe house.

With Minato gone, Tobi captured Kushina and released the Nine-Tails from her, using it to devastate Konoha. Minato saved Kushina and left Naruto in her care before he went to protect the village, eventually defeating Tobi and freeing the Nine-Tails from Tobi's control. Returning to Naruto and Kushina's location, Minato realised the only way to stop the Nine-Tails was to seal it within Naruto, believing that his son would someday need the fox's power to defeat Tobi when he returned. Since the Nine-Tails' chakra was too immense to seal into an infant, Minato sacrificed his soul to split the fox's chakra in half, sealing the Yin half within himself and the Yang half within Naruto. After telling Naruto how much they loved him, Minato and Kushina succumbed to their wounds from protecting their son from the Nine-Tails and passed away.

Orphaned, not having parents or anyone else to provide for him, Naruto received monthly income from the village in order to afford daily necessities. Naruto grew up not knowing who his parents were, receiving only his mother's surname, as Hiruzen wanted to protect Naruto from his father's enemies. Minato's dying wish that Naruto be regarded as a hero was honored by the very few who could put aside their pain and losses caused by the disaster, while the majority of Konoha, however having no knowledge of the circumstances surrounding his birth, openly ostracised and resented Naruto for containing the beast that devastated the village and took many lives; some even viewed Naruto as the Nine-Tails itself. Soon, the Third Hokage forbade anyone from mentioning the Nine-Tails, hoping that the younger generation would not blindly hate Naruto as their parents did. However, Naruto's peers emulated their parents' hatred of him, despite not knowing why. This social isolation caused Naruto to crave acknowledgement, which he would gain by pulling pranks.

On the day of his enrollment in the Ninja Academy - Naruto first met Hinata Hyūga, who was being picked on by three bullies. Despite not knowing her, Naruto immediately came to her defence, but he was outnumbered and knocked unconscious, and the bullies damaged his red scarf. When Naruto awoke, Hinata thanked him for helping her and returned his scarf to him, but he let her keep it. He was unaware that the girl's growing affections for him began from that moment onwards.

In the Academy, Naruto became a student of Iruka Umino, who acted as a surrogate older brother to keep him in line and help him work harder. Naruto also met his class-mate Sasuke Uchiha and tried to befriend him, since he was alone as well. Jealous of Sasuke's skills and popularity, however, he developed a one-sided rivalry in his pursuit to prove himself just as good as, if not better than, Sasuke, wishing that someday, Sasuke would accept him as an equal. Naruto also grew close with the owner of Ramen Ichiraku, Teuchi and his daughter Ayame, being welcomed as their favourite customer.

Yusei and the Signers were horrified!

Yusei: My god.

Jack Atlas: I can't believe that your village did all that to you Naruto!

Luna (5D's): That's awful.

Leo: No kidding.

Me: But things got better with him when I adopted him as my little brother.

Naruto: That's right. J.D. is the best brother I've ever had.

Sasuke: Just like me. But my story is one full of hatred and evil because of the Village's corruption.

Sasuke went over his history.

Sasuke Uchiha (うちはサスケ, Uchiha Sasuke) is one of the last surviving members of Konohagakure's Uchiha clan. After his older brother, Itachi, slaughtered their clan, Sasuke made it his mission in life to avenge them by killing Itachi. He is added to Team 7 upon becoming a ninja and, through competition with his rival and best friend, Naruto Uzumaki, Sasuke starts developing his skills. Dissatisfied with his progress, he defects from Konoha so that he can acquire the strength needed to exact his revenge. His years of seeking vengeance and his actions that followed become increasingly demanding, irrational and isolates him from others, leading him to be branded as an international criminal. After learning the truth of his brother's sacrifice, later proving instrumental in ending the Fourth Shinobi World War, and being happily redeemed by Naruto, Sasuke decides to return to Konoha and dedicate his life to help protect the village and its inhabitants, becoming referred to as the "Supporting Kage" (支う影, Sasaukage, Literally meaning: Supporting Shadow).

Sasuke is the second and youngest son of Mikoto and Fugaku Uchiha; they named him after Sasuke Sarutobi in the hopes that he would someday be just as strong of a shinobi. Sasuke grew up in the shadow of his older brother, Itachi, a natural prodigy who many in the Uchiha clan and the village would constantly compare Sasuke and any of his accomplishments to. Sasuke himself adored Itachi, never passing up an opportunity to spend time with him. Although Itachi welcomed his company, letting Sasuke watch him train and taking him on adventures into the forests, Itachi in return rarely helped Sasuke himself become a better shinobi; when asked, he would often instead poke Sasuke's forehead and promise to do so some other time. Sasuke found this annoying, but didn't allow it to blemish his high opinion of his brother.

On entering the Konoha Ninja Academy, Sasuke proved to be the standout of his class, consistently getting top grades. However, he could never meet the same milestones Itachi had set, resulting in their father paying Sasuke little attention. Aware of this neglect, Itachi, despite being increasingly busy, tried to stand in for their father by giving Sasuke the recognition he craved, at times even blackmailing Fugaku to spend time with Sasuke. As time went on, Itachi started becoming distant with and cold towards their family, culminating in a falling out with much of the Uchiha clan on their suspicion that he'd killed his best friend, Shisui Uchiha. Sasuke did not understand the reason for this, but he didn't mind the side-effect: his father began taking an interest in his development. Fugaku taught Sasuke how to perform the Great Fireball Technique, which he mastered in a week. Fugaku stated his pride in Sasuke for this accomplishment, but at the same time encouraged him not to follow in Itachi's footsteps.

After a long day of training, Sasuke returned home one night to find the streets littered with the bodies of the Uchiha. He rushed home to notify his family of this Uchiha Clan Massacre, only to find Itachi standing over the bodies of their parents. Sasuke tried to solicit help and comfort from Itachi, who responded by using Tsukuyomi on him to torment him with visions of him murdering their family. Horrified by what Itachi had done, Sasuke pleaded for an explanation, to which Itachi replied that it was to test his own power. Fearful that he would be next, Sasuke tried to run. Itachi cornered him and explained that Sasuke, as he then was, would not be worth killing. Only by becoming stronger, such as by acquiring his own Mangekyō Sharingan, could he prove a worthwhile challenge to Itachi's abilities. Before leaving, Itachi encouraged Sasuke to hate him, to desire revenge, and to gain power from that. Sasuke immediately followed through, pursuing Itachi and using his newly-awakened Sharingan to attack him. The attack failed and Sasuke passed out, but not before glimpsing Itachi crying; Sasuke would forget this had happened for many years.

Sasuke, now one of the last surviving Uchiha, was alone. He spent the first few days after the massacre wandering his family's compound, reflecting on the people who were now gone, killed by Itachi. Sasuke decided to do what Itachi had instructed and dedicated his life to vengeance, having no other interest than bringing about Itachi's death. He threw himself into his studies at the Academy, making no efforts to form friendships and ignoring all of the girls' attempts to gain his affection. One of his classmates, Naruto, disliked Sasuke's cool personality and the attention he received, and developed a one-sided rivalry in his pursuit to prove himself just as good as, if not better than, Sasuke. For his part, Sasuke thought little of Naruto and was usually annoyed by his outbursts, but would, at times, secretly smile at how hard Naruto worked because of him. Ironically, for all the attention he received, Naruto was the only person among his peers who understood Sasuke due to the painful experiences he had.

The Signers were shocked.

Akiza: Your brother was forced to kill your entire clan Sasuke?

Sasuke: Yes. The Leaf Village forced Itachi to wipe out my entire clan.

Me: The Hidden Leaf Village was filled with Corruption from the Elders and the Hidden Leaf Council and most of it was centered around Naruto and Sasuke.

Sasuke: That's right.

Fu: My former village was no better ever since I became the 7-Tails Jinchuriki.

Fu went over her history.

---

At some point, Fū became the jinchūriki of the Seven-Tails, Chōmei. In the anime, growing up in Takigakure as the village's jinchūriki, the village leader Shibuki took great care in keeping Fū protected. He also taught Fū the importance of friendship and loyalty. Fū, wanting to make friends and tired of living a secluded lifestyle, signed up for the joint Chūnin Exams being held in Konohagakure and Sunagakure.

When Shibuki was informed she had signed up, he was against the idea and feared people could learn about Fū's jinchūriki status. He ultimately gave in, hoping to use this event as an opportunity to help restore Takigakure's former glory. While Fū was delighted at this, Shibuki assigned Kegon and Yōrō to protect Fū by posing as her genin teammates. Upon entering the Chūnin Exams, Fū and her teammates are randomly put into different rooms, with Fū being placed in room two. After settling in, Shikamaru Nara, explained that everyone only answer a question each, but their team's combined score must equal exactly 100 points to pass. During this time, Fū uses a technique to communicate with her teammates, allowing them to tell each other which question they were going to pick. After time is up, Shikamaru revealed a bonus question that asked if a situation called for it, what team member you would leave to be a decoy, noting that while the answer had to unanimous, the person picked would be disqualified. She, like her teammates, did not answer, and ultimately her team passed the first round. However, a preliminary round was issued which involved a race to Sunagakure, where only the first 30 teams to arrive at the destination to qualify for second phase to lessen the participants.

Her team was the first to dash off into the race, ultimately arriving at the destination first. Later that night, Fū's bodyguards locked her in her room in fear of her reckless actions drawing too much attention.

Despite this, Fū broke out and met the other fellow genin who were in a brawl. Displaying her hyperactive personality, it settled everyone down, leading them to dismiss to their rooms as dinner was ruined, much to her dismay. Later, when she found out that Team Asuma were being attacked by a giant scorpion outside, Fū quickly ran to see it for herself. While wanting to have fun with it, Fū quickly took down the beast, to save the captured genin. The following day, the second exam began, where each team would be given one of two scrolls. The objective of the exam was to survive in the Demon Desert for three days and take the opposite scroll from an enemy team, and then the team had to make it to the desert area's main building. Some time into the second phase, Fū wanders off, quickly discovering Gaara's Third Eye, but thought nothing of it once it disappeared. Her teammates soon found her, calling her back.

Later, despite gaining both needed scrolls, Fū was determined to not end this exam before making some friends. She was convinced however to complete the exam when reminded she was taking the exams for Shibuki's sake. Soon afterwards, a massive sandstorm rampaged the area. Hearing people shouting for help, Fū quickly rushed out to find them. After saving a Suna-nin genin team, Fū was approached by Gaara himself. When asked why she saved an enemy team, Fū simply said she was doing as she was taught to make friends with people. After the genin team awoke, Fū offered them her scroll, saying she didn't need it anymore. They respectfully however declined, saying that Gaara, who stayed out of sight, taught them to persevere through their struggles. Accepting this, Fū left.

Later, while initially regrouping with her teammates/bodyguards, Fū sensed the distress of Gaara, realising that he was a jinchūriki as well and his tailed beast was being extracted. She quickly rushed off again to help him. Once arriving, Gaara told her to retreat, but Fū insisted that she understand his pain and wanted to help. She attempted to remove the fūinjutsu chain, only to be repelled by it. The caster, Hōichi, decided to test his fūinjutsu on two jinchūriki at once and began extracting Chōmei from Fū.

Desperate to stop the extraction, Fū used her Cocoon to slow down the process. While Gaara found this pointless as many people like Hōichi would prefer for Gaara to die, Fū insisted that he can keep making friends. Ultimately, Team Guy and Fū's teammates arrived. Together, they were able to distract Hōichi while Neji Hyūga got close to the jinchūriki. Using his Gentle Fist, he was able to block the chakra points in their body from where the extraction was taking place. This forced the chakra chains to be removed, which became Hōichi's undoing as they turned on the Suna-nin and bound him. With the crisis averted, Fū quickly approached Neji and asked him to be her friend, to which a flustered Neji agreed if she would let go of him.

Ultimately, the Chūnin Exams were ended early before starting the finals due to controversy happening in the second exam. Sometime later, Akatsuki members Kakuzu and Hidan tracked the team down to capture Fū. Fū was excited to befriend a fellow Taki shinobi, despite knowing the rogue shinobi's history. However, the rogue Kakuzu states their motives aren't to become friends with her. Fū was subsequently captured, and had her tailed beast extracted from her body and sealed within the Demonic Statue of the Outer Path, resulting in her death. Sometime after her death, Kabuto Yakushi acquired some of her DNA, which he used to reincarnate her.

Fu: My entire village hated my guts. Except for the village leader Shibuki. He loved me like I was his sister.

Akiza: Wow.

Lincoln: I remember that.

Me: Me too. But it was horrible that they killed her mother just to turn her into a weapon.

Yusei: No kidding.

Yugito: My story is different however.

Yugito went over her history.

---

Yugito was made the Two-Tails' jinchūriki at the age of two and, at the end of a detestable training that was imposed on her, she was able to control her transformation into her tailed beast at will. At some point in the anime, Yugito agreed to give Nekobaa a paw print of the Two-Tails for the Paw Encyclopedia.

---

Crow Hogan: Whoa that is rough.

Nicole: It was.

Sakura Haruno: Yeah. Some of us come from really dark pasts and lifestyles. It's not pretty.

Sam S.L.: Yeah. It's not pretty. Me and Simon went through a dark lifestyle.

Simon: Yeah.

Me: But we don't have to worry about the terrors of corruption anymore. All of our enemies in the world of Shinobi have been destroyed and erased from existence forever.

Nico: That's good.

Me: Yep. But Akiza you don't have to be alone anymore. We all can be your friends and help you use your powers for a good cause.

Akiza: I would like that.

Me: Awesome. So Yusei, we were told that you guys faced an enemy called the Dark Signers. Who are they?

Yusei: They are our enemies.

Jack Atlas: They are out to kill us.

Jack Atlas went over their history.

---

The Dark Signers were a group of Duelists resurrected and in the service of the Earthbound Immortals, who served as the evil counterparts to the Signers and were the primary antagonists for the second arc of Yu-Gi-Oh! 5D's.

When a person died, he or she was given a chance to live by becoming a Dark Signer at the time of their death. If they displayed a great will to live or a reason for revenge, an Earthbound Immortal may spare them (provided they agree willingly, whether or not they remember doing so after being brought back), turning them into the Dark Signers in the process. As the Dark Signers, those individuals were given a great power and a great lust for revenge. All of the Dark Signers, with the exception of Roman and Rex, held some form of grudge against (or connection to, in the case of Devack and Carly) a Signer, which would provide another answer to why the Earthbound Immortals chose them. Due to this phenomenon which derived from the Netherworld itself, there was no way to revert the transformation or revert to their former selves, and were said to be no longer of the living world. If they turned over a new leaf in a Duel, the Earthbound Immortal would take over them and continue the match (however Akiza noted, their control can potentially be broken if the Earthbound Immortal is destroyed without getting rid of the person's Life Points).

Thus because of this distinctive group of individuals already had died once, it is seen that once they have been defeated in their own Shadow Duel or Shadow Turbo Duel for that matter, their departure from this world would be completely different. As instead of simply dying like a normal human being, they instead would wither until they became dust when they were sent into the Netherworld.

They were capable of using a distinctive type of monsters known as Dark Synchro Monsters which were black lined. Their signature card are the "Earthbound Immortals", along with the use of Field Spell cards in order to maintain the effects of these powerful beasts in a Duel. There were only five Dark Signers at any given time, each one possessed by a different geoglyph. In the anime present altered time-line, a total of seven awakened, due to the fall of others. Devack was 'succeeded' by Greiger and Rex was revived after his Duel with Roman.

Dark Signers are shown to have a red Criminal mark-esque patterns on their face and black sclerae. The only exception is Kalin, whose original Criminal mark became his dark mark; even after his revival, the Criminal mark did not vanish.

The Earthbound Immortals were evil entities that were sealed in the Nazca Lines by the Crimson Dragon and the Five Dragons. Each one bore a dark mark on to five individuals who are known as the Dark Signers.

The Dark Signers possessed an inborn drive to defeat the Signers, whom each had a marking of the Crimson Dragon, over the course of 5,000 years.

The Dark Signers served as gatekeepers to the door to the Netherworld. This door resided within the first Ener-D Reactor, located in Satellite. The Dark Signers plotted to open this gate to release the Earthbound Immortals. Knowing this, Rex Goodwin built the utopia New Domino City away from Satellite and restricted the access between the two cities so that only those left in the Satellite would be harmed when this time came.

Rex's older brother, Roman Goodwin, was placed in charge of the first Ener-D Reactor, developed by Doctor Fudo prior to the Zero Reverse Incident. The same incident which released the sealed Immortals from their 5,000 year imprisonment. Presumably killed by the accident, Roman was reawakened as a Dark Signer.

Kalin became a Dark Signer after starving to death in prison but came back, fueled with revenge against his former best friend Yusei Fudo.

At a certain point, Misty Tredwell was transformed while suffering in the hospital after her car accident. After being spared, she was told by Ccarayhua to kill the servant of the Crimson Dragon, "Black Rose Dragon". Her hatred for the Black Rose Duelist for allegedly killing her brother, easily put Misty on this task.

After the Crimson Dragon appeared during the Fortune Cup, the Dark Signers began preaching in Satellite that the Crimson Dragon was evil and encouraged the people to stand with them for the sake of the Satellite.

Using brainwashed victims, they began targeting the Signers, including Yusei Fudo and Jack Atlas, who were made to Duel Dick Pitt and Trudge respectively. Jack, however, Dueled with Carly's assistance. In both cases, the Signers emerged victorious.

Kalin targeted Yusei in Satellite and faced him in a Shadow Turbo Duel. He Summoned his Earthbound Immortal, "Ccapac Apu", which absorbed the souls of many residents. Yusei was unable to finish the Duel due to an injury caused by his Duel Runner failing.

Carly was thrown off the Arcadia Movement building by Sayer, but was spared from death by Earthbound Immortal Aslla piscu. Misty sensed this and proceeded to the Arcadia Movement in order to face the Black Rose, Akiza Izinski. Carly faced Sayer in a rematch. Both Dark Signers Summoned their Earthbound Immortals, absorbing the souls of bystanders. Meanwhile, Devack was able to free Greiger from a police wagon due to the guards' souls having been absorbed. Carly defeated Sayer with "Aslla piscu", which caused the building to fall apart and Sayer fell, past the inside balconies. Misty and Akiza's Duel was interrupted and postponed due to the collapsing building.

The Signers learned from Rex about the nature of the Dark Signers Dueling powers. Yusei, determined to save Kalin, questioned Rex about returning them to normal. Rex reluctantly tells them that the change cannot be reverted as they were no longer of this world.

After a dark ritual performed by the Dark Signers in the B.A.D. area, a mysterious black fog covered all of Satellite, and absorbed all residents near this zone, seemingly including Crow.

After Roman's Shadow Duel against Yusei concluded, the rest of the Dark Signers showed themselves to their rivals, the Signers, as their final battle was about to begin. Each Signer was to travel to one of the four control units for the Original Enerdy Reactor, where their corresponding rival was awaiting. However, as Luna and Leo were taken by Trudge to the controller where Devack was, she was instead transported back to the Minus World in order to free Ancient Fairy Dragon. This caused Leo to Duel Devack in her place, trying to fulfill his promise of protecting her. After Devack summoned his Cusillu, Luna returned from the Spirit World and took Leo's place. Once Devack sacrificed Ancient Fairy Dragon, in order to activate Cusillu's effect, Luna used Respect Synchron to summon Ancient Fairy Dragon to her side of the field thus releasing her and using her and Power Tool Dragon to destroy Cusillu and defeat Devack.

Despite Devack's defeat and the apparent destruction of Cusillu, the Dark Signers had a contingency plan. Greiger soon became his replacement, using a sixth Earthbound Immortal, Chacu Challhua. Later Greiger Dueled against Crow, whom had managed to escape the fog. Later during the Duel, as the new Dark Signer summons his correspondent God, he ultimately finds out the truth about his village: the ones responsible for the destruction of it are actually the same individuals he now works for. Discovering this Greiger lost his will to continue the Duel, but suddenly a dark and evil voice known only as an "Envoy of the Underworld" intervened. The entity possessed him in order to force the Duel to continue. In the end, the possessed Greiger was defeated by Crow in the Shadow Turbo Duel, during which Chacu Challhua was destroyed as well.

With his detours settled, Yusei finally reached the Giant's control unit, and Kalin. Their Duel was intense as Yusei tried to save him while Kalin just wanted revenge. As more of the Enforcers' past was revealed, including Kalin's final moments before becoming a Dark Signer, he Summoned Ccapac Apu and tried to destroy Yusei with it. However, as he manages to fend off from the Earthbound Immortal's assault, the Nazca God itself begins to trash the ground where the Duel is taking place. As Kalin started experiencing difficulties with this, Yusei tried to save him by summoning "Majestic Star Dragon" and took down Ccapac Apu. Kalin made peace with him before he withered into dust.

After the battle, Roman spoke to Yusei through Trudge as he challenged him. Therefore he, along with Crow, Luna, Leo and Trudge went to the Original Ener-D Reactor. As they met with Roman inside, he detonated the Enerdy Reactor, thus releasing the negative energy inside. As it filled the room, the two of them, who are above it, finally began their rematch. During the Duel he revealed to him some unfortunate events which occurred between the Dark Signer and Professor Fudo. Roman also revealed his identity as the Fifth Signer. After Yusei finally managed to defeat Uru, and thereby Roman, Roman detonated his left arm as he disappeared, and blew up the bridge and sent Yusei falling into the depths of the Ener-D Reactor. But Yusei was able to escape the netherworld by his father Dr. Fudo and return to his friends.

Meanwhile Jack, who has finally reached the Hummingbird tower, was surprised by Carly, who appeared riding her own Duel Runner before engaging in a Shadow Turbo Duel. Carly depleted most of his Life Points, and through the card Enlightenment, showed Jack a vision of the future where he lost the Duel and became a Dark Signer, reigning as King over a dead world. Jack, who was at first caught up in the vision, dropped Carly's glasses and realized that they were still in the present. He was able to turn Carly back briefly into herself, before the "Envoy of the Underworld" possessed her and forced the Duel to continue. Carly summoned Aslla piscu, however Jack turned the Duel around by summoning "Majestic Red Dragon". However, as he attempted to end the Duel in a tie and theoretically destroy them both, Carly informed Jack that he had another destiny as King and broke free of the control of the Envoy of the Netherworld, destroyed Aslla piscu and took damage herself because of it. She lost the Duel and vanished in Jack's arms.

Finally, Misty who was guarding the last Control Tower was waiting for Akiza while mourning for her dead brother, Toby. Eventually Akiza and Mina arrived where the Lizard Tower was situated, in an old and abandoned carnival. Thus Akiza found Misty, and was guided by her into a House of Mirrors where they finally commenced their rematch. As it began, Misty recounted the events that lead up to Toby's death that undoubtedly involved Akiza, through the use of her Sad Story Spells and Bad End Trap. Because of this Akiza who was tormented by the truth, lost the will to continue the Duel. However, Sayer appeared to save her from landing on a large shard of broken glass, but then deviously awakened her powers as the Black Rose once again and controlling her.

However, while Misty in the end summoned her powerful "Dragon Queen of Tragic Endings", Akiza on the other hand not only unleashed her Black Rose Dragon, but also ultimately shattered every mirror in the vicinity and finally confronted her opponent face to face. Akiza and Misty's Duel continued while Misty managed to gain the upper hand by summoning Ccarayhua. While she does that, Yusei tricked Sayer in revealing the truth behind her brother's death. Upon hearing this she commanded her monster to devour him and avenged her brother's death and at the same time freed akiza from Sayer's control. Before she could surrender, the Envoy of the Underworld took control and was about to finish Akiza off with a direct attack. But Akiza pulled through by blocking the attack and summoning Black Rose Dragon again to destroy everything on the field. Misty tried to counter by inflicting damage through a card effect. But Akiza countered the damage and dealt it back to her ending the Duel with Misty feeling at peace. She vanished leaving her music box, containing Toby's and her picture on it.

Later, right after Akiza's Duel against Misty concludes, before the Signers were able to seal the last Tower, the King of the Netherworld appeared from the Original Ener-D Reactor, and was moving toward New Domino City. At that time Rex who had acquired the powers of a Signer with Roman's arm, revealed to be the last of the Dark Signers. As the dark mark of the Condor appeared on his back, it revealed his Dark Signer nature and gave him supernatural powers, he declared that a Shadow Turbo Duel would be held within the Condor geoglyph as a ritual to welcome the King of the Netherworld.

Therefore, Rex faced off against Yusei, Jack, and Crow in one final Shadow Turbo Duel. The Duel raged fiercely upon them and Rex. Though both Jack and Crow were unable to continue due to Wiraqocha Rasca's deadly effect, Yusei managed to win with their help.

After the King of the Netherworld was finally destroyed by the combined power of Yusei, Majestic Star Dragon, and the Crimson Dragon, all of the other Dark Signers were returned to life, leaving only the Goodwin brothers to pass on to the afterlife.

As for the former Dark Signers, it's unknown if the others do or don't have recollection of ever being one, judging by Carly's statement and Kalin's current state. (Although it appears that Kalin and Greiger are the only ones with any recollection of their crimes as Dark Signers).

Order of reappearance:

Misty Tredwell: It is shown that she and Akiza become close friends, and are now pen pals. She reappeared in many advertisements in Season 2, but had yet to make a physical appearance.

Carly Carmine: She appeared by throwing off her old man disguise a short while after Akiza mentions Misty. She continued to be friends with everyone, normally helping Jack out of any tight spots. It is unknown if Carly was still friends with Misty.

Kalin Kessler: He went on a trip and ended up in Crash Town. His "new life" didn't seem to be as successful as the others; he wore a ragged black cape, is physically exhausted, and has lost all emotion, joining a large group of Duelists that Dueled against "Malcolm´s" group, with lifelong slavery as the loser's penalty (Even then, he is still admired by the kids of the town.). He Dueled Yusei one more time, so that he can leave the world of Dueling behind him (It is revealed, that he kept his Dark Signer memories, and wanted to die for those actions). However, after a series of events, Kalin's will to live changed, making sure that the town and its inhabitants live peacefully from now on.

Greiger: He returned to his hometown, where he reunited with Annie and Max. Since then, his family moved to Nazca where they build a shrine to pacify the Earthbound Immortals and spent the rest of the series tending to it. He also kept his memories as a Dark Signer, and wanted to repent for that crime.

In an information file that Z-one reads in Episode 149, in the "original" timeline before he and Iliaster caused the Zero Reverse to split the cities, there were only five Earthbound Immortals that fought the Signers - Uru, Ccapac Apu, Cusillu, Aslla Piscu, and Ccarayhua. This would seem to suggest that Rex and Greiger did not originally become Dark Signers, and that it was Z-one's interference with the timeline that caused them to become such.

Abilities

Brainwashing

Roman had the ability to brainwash other people, by having a black spider latch onto a victim. The victim believed themselves to be a

Dark Signer, gained the spider dark mark and did the bidding of the real Dark Signers. While brainwashed, the victim's Duels became Shadow Duels and their Deck was changed to one more fitting to a Dark Signer. In the English version the brainwashed person was known as a Shadow Drone, while in the Japanese they refered to themselves as actual Dark Signers.

The spell was lifted when the victim lost a Duel. At this point the spider was ejected from their body and erupted into a powder. The victim's Deck was then restored to normal and they had no memory of what happened while they were brainwashed.

People who became real Dark Signers were believed to be brainwashed. Their motives were fueled by revenge. While some accepted it to be their own free will, it appeared that when their hatred motives are no longer pursued, then the Dark Signer will become possessed by their corresponding Earthbound Immortal. This happened in Greiger, Carly and Misty's Duels, forcing them to continue against their will.

Shadow Duels

When a Dark Signer engaged in a Duel, the arena was surrounded by a force field of dark fire, taking the shape of the Dark Signer's respected geoglyph and became a Shadow Duel (However it has been proven that they can choose whether or not to make the geoglyph appear. This is evidenced by Misty in episode 60, whom Duels Akiza, but the flames do not appear until she makes it). When a brainwashed Dark Signer servant engaged in a Duel, the arena was instead surrounded by a purple glow.

During a Shadow Duel, players suffered real damage when attacked by monsters. The blasts from the attacks are fatal and often caused damage to the surroundings. Also, according to Sayer during his Duel with Carly Carmine in episode 39, the effects from a Shadow Duel are more powerful and deadlier than that of Psychic Dueling.

Dark Synchro Summoning

The Dark Synchro and Dark Tuner monsters were exclusive to the Dark Signers and Shadow Drones. Dark Synchro Monsters were

Synchro Summoned by sending to the Graveyard 1 Dark Tuner monster and 1 non-Dark Tuner monster. The non-Dark Tuner monster's Level minus the Dark Tuner monster's Level must be equal to the Dark Synchro Monster's Level, which is negative. Most of the Dark Signers used the following chant: "When dark overlaps with dark, the doors of the underworld will open. To a world without light!" In the dub, the chant is: "When the shadows are devoured by even Darker shadows, the curtain pulls back and reveals, a world without light!"

---

We gasped in shock and horror.

Me: So the Dark Signers are friends turned enemies!?

Nico: And they have marks like yours on their arms too?

Jack Atlas: Their marks are shaped like the legendary Nazca Lines.

Me: The Nazca Lines in Peru? Those have been a baffling mystery for centuries. We saw them in Peru on our Worldwide Adventure and they were really something.

Lincoln: We don't know how they got there or what they even are.

Jack Atlas: They are the marks that imprison the Earthbound Immortals.

Jack went over the history of the Nazca Lines.

---

The Nazca Lines are a series of geoglyphs located in the Nazca Desert in southern Peru. In the Yu-Gi-Oh! 5D's anime, they were formed after the Earthbound Immortals got sealed in the Earth.

The seven lines associated with the Earthbound Immortals also appear on the right arms of the Dark Signers as dark marks, with the exception of Rex Goodwin, who had the condor mark on his back.

The people of the Incan civilization of the Stairway to the Dragon

Star were threatened by wicked disturbances in the earth. In response, the Star Dragon King prayed to the Dragon Star for help. The Dragon Star answered their prayers by sending the Crimson Dragon, who, along with five dragons, battled the evil incarnate Earthbound Immortals.

The Dragons were able to seal the evil beings in the earth, but in the process, "Uru", the spider god managed to capture one of the Crimson Dragon's servants, Ancient Fairy Dragon. After the battle, the evil gods were finally sealed within the earth, forming the Nazca Lines, with each line taking the shape of the Earthbound Immortal sealed within.

Five thousand years later, as the Dark Signers continued their battle with the Signers, the lines began disappearing as the corresponding Earthbound Immortals were summoned. Any time a Dark Signer engages in a Shadow Duel, the corresponding geoglyph materializes around the field.

Whenever the geoglyphs appear, tragedy is sure to follow. For example, when a Dark Signer summons an Earthbound Immortal, casualties have occured not only within Satellite, but within New Domino City as well. This is because the Nazca Gods' summoning requires human sacrifices and those who have been sacrificed have ended up inside the geoglyphs. Because of this, hundreds of residents have disappeared from the city.

After the battle against the Dark Signers ended in their defeat, the Immortals were re-sealed here and with this, the lines themselves once more reappeared.

When Jack fought the Familiar of Red Nova, the Red Nova geoglyph appeared. It then disappeared after the Duel.

---

Me: Whoa!

Varie: That's awful! So we were looking at the very prisons of the Earthbound Immortals.

Akiza: Yes.

Laney: That's terrible!

Me: No kidding. But we can't destroy the Nazca Desert. It's part of Earth.

Lana: Yeah.

Elena: Do you guys have other enemies to take down other than the Dark Signers?

Luna (5D's): As a matter of fact yes. We have to face Zeman the Ape King in the Duel Monster Spirit World.

Me: Whoa.

Luna went over his history.

---

At a time, unknown to the Spirits, Zeman came to the Spirit World. He and his monkey minions used Cursed Needles to cast the Minus Curse throughout the land.

While his true intentions were unclear to the Spirits, Zeman used the Minus Curse to take prisoners, who became trapped in stone tablets, resembling Duel Monsters cards, but with their Levels "minused". He managed to take Ancient Fairy Dragon, but was unable to completely minus her. He tried taking more prisoners in the hopes that this would allow him to minus her.

Luna, Torunka and Regulus infiltrated Zeman's castle under the disguise of a mage and her servant, who have captured Regulus. They make Zeman believe that the only way to minus Ancient Fairy completely is to release it first and then place the Curse on both her and Regulus. Zeman falls for the trick and frees Ancient Fairy Dragon.

After he realizes he has been tricked, Zeman orders his minions to capture Luna, Torunka and Regulus. During the chase, Regulus manages to attack and defeat Zeman, but not before he passes the control of the Minus Curse on to his true master: the Dark Signer Devack.

Greiger: Me too.

Rex Goodwin: And we will send their fucking asses off to hell.

Dogs Can Be Angels

In Oklahoma City, Oklahoma we were at the sight of the memorial for the Oklahoma City Bombing. 25 years ago today on April 19th, 1995 at 9:02 AM Timothy McVeigh had a moving truck loaded with fertilizer and ammonium nitrate and detonated it in front of the Alfred P. Murrah Federal Building and blew apart half of the entire building and killed 168 people. It was a dark time back then for us and President Clinton called it the worst act of Domestic Terrorism ever and the worst act of cowardice. We were at the memorial of the Oklahoma City Bombing to pay our respects to those that were lost to this horrible tragedy.

Me: It's hard to imagine that this happened back then.

Vince: I know. It's absolutely horrible.

Nico: I just can't believe that Timothy McVeigh would kill all those people because of his hatred towards the entire United States Government.

Yusei: It's horrible that he did all that all those years ago.

Lincoln: It's really sick.

Me: And he was executed on June 11th, 2001 for his crimes against the country.

Carmen was holding the containment card of Shawn McVeigh.

Shawn: I can't believe that my father would cause all this destruction back then.

Carmen: Because he hated America.

Shawn McVeigh: Yeah. He's not my father after everything that happened back then.

Maria: He was really screwed up in the head and he wanted to kill us all.

Lincoln: Yeah.

Laney: I'm glad they killed Timothy McVeigh.

Bart Simpson: He deserved to die for all of his crimes.

Lisa Simpson: You said it Bart.

We paid our respects to those lost.

Later on the outskirts of Neo Domino City we were there to pay a little visit to Akiza's mom and dad. Akiza's dad is senator Hideo and her mom is Setsuko.

Me: Akiza are you sure you want to do this?

Akiza: I'm positive. I want to show my parents that they were wrong.

Me: Okay.

We knocked on the door and Setsuko answered.

Concrete Man: Hi. Do you know who we are?

Setsuko: Are you visitors?

Venom: Yes. We are.

Hideo: Are you the people who don't know that the World Racing Grand Prix tournament was years ago?

Elena: Oh, we know about the World Racing Grand Prix tournament. Yusei and his friends told us.

Stewie: Now, it's your turn. Are you the parents of Akiza Izinski?

Riku: Because we've heard that you treated her badly.

Setsuko: Are you… really Team Loud Phoenix Storm?

Maria: C'mon. That's not what you want to ask. Go ahead and spit it out.

Hideo: Are you all going to kill us?

William: That's more like it.

Me: Stand down guys. Hello Senator Hideo and Mrs. Izinski. We just want to talk to you about some things.

Shiv: Maybe we can help too.

We saw Shiv and Snake Jailbird.

Slippy Toad: Shiv? What are you and Snake doing here?

Shiv: We just came here to support you guys.

Yusei: (skeptically) Really?

Snake Jailbird: Believe it or not, we're frenemies to Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: Yeah it's cool.

Akiza: Wow.

Shiv: You two are gonna listen to what your daughter has to say.

Snake: Or this will happen! (throws chair at wall) You guys wanna get in on this?

Rippersnapper: That's actually very tempting.

Akiza talked to her family and told them that she got her powers for a reason and it was for to save the world from the forces of evil. The Dark Signers have returned and they will not stop until they kill us. Akiza was given a major responsibility.

Hideo: My god. Akiza, I didn't know! (Crying)

Setsuko: Akiza we didn't know you were given a big responsibility.

Akiza: It's all right mom. I know you were just looking out for me. I appreciate that. I used to despise my powers but I'm okay with them now.

Naruto: Because Akiza is not the only one that has them.

Fu: That's right. She ostracized herself because of them and we understand her.

Me: Yeah. But we all became her friends when we met her.

Hunter: (German Accent) Ja.

Later we left and Hideo and Setsuko knew that Akiza was in good hands.

Me: That went well.

Then I saw my mark glow.

Me: Uh oh. That can't be a good sign.

The Signers Marks were all glowing.

?: So here you all are.

Out of the bushes came CARLY CARMINE - THE DARK SIGNER OF THE HUMMINGBIRD!

---

Carly Carmine, known as Carly Nagisa in the Japanese version, was an unsuccessful, clumsy reporter, who tended to get pushed around by others (In the dub, Carly was not even a real reporter, but was actually an unpaid intern for a newspaper who posted stories about Street Duels on a blog). She also claimed that she was the number #1 Jack Atlas fan.

Carly later became the Dark Signer with the hummingbird Dark Mark, but was returned to normal after the end of the season.

As a young girl, Carly took photos of other children playing Duel

Monsters. Another girl asked her if she wanted to be a journalist when she grew up. Carly was unsure, but claimed to love watching other people succeed. It made her happy and inspired her to do the same.

Carly later became a reporter and sparked tension with Angela Raines (In the dub, she and Angela met in high school, and went to a school dance together where nobody would dance with her), and was always competing to see who was best out of the two. (In the dub, Carly became a blogger, and mainly wrote about Street Duels and was always failing to get her "scoop", which Angela belittled in comparison to being an actual reporter, which usually made Carly mad).

Yu-Gi-Oh! 5D's

Dark Signers

Carly wasn't seen at the Fortune Cup, but according to her, she watched the whole tournament. After the Fortune Cup, Carly attempted to interview the new King, Yusei Fudo. After he disappeared, she, along with the other reporters, crowded up to interview Rex Goodwin. Carly made her way to the front of the crowd and asked Goodwin about Yusei's arm glowing during his Duel with Jack Atlas. Goodwin was put off by the question, but claimed to have not noticed.

Shortly afterward, Carly was contacted by her chief, Mr. Pitts, who was unhappy that she failed to interview Yusei. He threatened to fire her if she couldn't get the information on this scoop. Carly assured him that she'll get a scoop, while she went in search of answers that regarded Yusei's arm glowing.

Using a Duel Disk radar in her car, Carly was able to locate Yusei Fudo and a Shadow Drone, when they Dueled. Here, she noticed both players' arms were glowing and deduced that Goodwin was playing dumb. She managed to catch the second half of the Shadow Duel on her camera. After the Duel, she recognized Yusei's opponent as Grady. Grady had no recollection of what just happened. She tried to interview both Yusei and Grady, but Sector Security arrived to assess damage caused by the Shadow Duel.

Yusei fled before Sector Security found him, and Carly tried to follow, but she was pulled back by Grady, who didn't want to be left alone to face Sector Security. The Securities took Carly's camera and asked her and Grady if they were both responsible for the damage to the parking garage that had been dealt during the Shadow Duel. The two were held for questioning after the incident. This prevented Carly's scoop from getting printed.

When attending the premiere of the movie Atlas Rising, Carly encountered Misty, and through Angela she found out that Jack Atlas was also from Satellite. Having heard that, Carly went to the hospital to question him. Misty removed Carly's glasses and recognized her from a vision, where she saw Carly's death.

Carly snuck into the hospital in disguise as a nurse. Trudge, who had become a Shadow Drone, challenged Jack to a Duel. With Jack's arm still injured, Carly helped him Duel by drawing his cards as he told her which ones to play. She also saw his Mark of the Dragon. They defeated Trudge, and Carly snuck Jack out of the hospital and into her home.

While in her house, Carly got all excited that he was staying there, and planned to write a story about him, but kept putting it on hold. The next day, Carly was visited by Trudge and Mina Simington, who wanted to take Jack back. Jack dismissed them saying that he was no longer King and he'll be staying here for a while, much to Carly's joy.

Pressured to get a story for her newspaper, Carly considered writing an article about Jack, but could not bring herself to question him. After Jack went on a date with her to repay her for what she had done for him, he left her and disappeared off to a tower that showed the view of the ocean. Carly found him there and Jack told her how he was a fool and was being used while he was "King". Jack said that he wanted to look across the ocean and see Satellite and confessed that he shouldn't have abandoned his friends there. Carly suggested that it was the old Jack who was defeated by Yusei, and now it was time for the real Jack to rise. Jack took her advice and refused to be led astray anymore. He told her she was free to write whatever she liked about him. Carly turned over a new leaf too, as she vowed to never write anything that would hurt a Duelist.

Mina phoned Carly during the night to take Jack and Carly to Satellite via helicopter. During the helicopter ride, she learned the true story concerning the Zero Reverse incident and Yusei's past. Jack told her that she could write about it because Sector Security would have her thrown in jail for the rest of her life, as people of power in the city (such as Goodwin) were trying hard to prevent the truth of the incident from getting out.

As the helicopter approached the Shadow Turbo Duel between Yusei and Kalin, they also spotted Crow, who was watching the Duel as well. While watching this, she heard about The Enforcers, and Jack told her about the other things from his life in the Satellite.

The helicopter returned to New Domino City after witnessing the Duel between Yusei and Kalin end abruptly. Carly was forced to give up a hidden audio clip of her conversation with Jack and was left once again without a scoop. He told her it was too dangerous to stay with him while the Dark Signers were at bay, but promised to tell her everything when it was all over.

She later cried in despair back at her house. She imagined him in her mind but willed them to go away. Afterward, she declared that she must be strong and became determined to find out the truth about the Signers. Not willing to let go of Jack from her life, Carly decided to find out more information regarding the other Signers starting with Akiza Izinski and the Arcadia Movement. While researching, she came across a connection between the movement and Misty.

During an interview, Misty warned Carly to not investigate the Movement, and showed shock as Misty revealed that they were responsible for the death of her younger brother, Toby. Nevertheless, Carly went to the Arcadia Movement and found information that regarded Rex Goodwin, although she didn't get a chance to read it all as she was spotted by Sayer, who challenged her to a Duel. During the Duel, Sayer told Carly that Rex Goodwin was once a resident of Satellite. She lost after her first turn and was blasted out through the high story window by Sayer's monsters, which lead to her death (In the dub, Carly fell into a purple fog; however, the crater created upon her landing was still evident).

After her fall, the hummingbird Mark started to glow on her arm, and revived her as one of the Dark Signers. After her transformation, her personality changed, and soaked her with vengeance. She challenged Sayer to a Shadow Duel for revenge. During this Duel, she knocked him through the wall leading to the stairwell using her "Earthbound Immortal" and made him fall the entire length of the building.

After the Duel, she returned to her normal personality, and did not fully remember what had just happened. She was horrified after she remembered what she did to Sayer. She cried out for Jack to come back and rescue her as she did not want to be a Dark Signer. Misty, revealing herself as a fellow Dark Signer, approached her, and told her that she was saved by her god after he heard her pleas at the moment of her death. They were then picked up via helicopter by Devack. Jack found Carly's glasses inside the building and believed her to have been one of the victims that was used to Summon the two "Earthbound Immortals".

At the residence of the Dark Signers, while Carly was alone, she asked why she became a Dark Signer. She then heard a voice that told her to read her fortune (In the 4Kids English Dub, it was Roman's voice). She drew "Enlightenment" from her Deck. As the Signers ventured into Satellite, Carly stared into the thunderstorm, and awaited Jack's arrival.

After Roman and Yusei's Duel, the Dark Signers appeared before the Signers. With Carly's hood hanging over her face, neither Jack nor Yusei could recognize her. However, Jack chased after her and managed to remove the hood and revealed her face. As Jack asked why she became a Dark Signer, she responded "If you want to hear the answer then come find me, my precious Jack". (In the dub, she responded "If it's answers you want, you'll have to come find me, tomorrow. 'Til then Jack").

Carly waited for Jack at the Hummingbird Control Tower. Upon his arrival, she surprised him by appearing on her own Duel Runner. During the Duel, Carly attacked mercilessly, and after she had degraded most of his Life Points, she explained why she had believed why had become a Dark Signer, through the Trap Card "Enlightenment". Using the card, she trapped Jack's consciousness in her prediction.

In his trance, Jack believed himself to have lost the Duel, after which Carly embraced him as he died. Her kiss transformed him into a Dark Signer. Together, they defeated the Signers and turned the world into a hell, which they ruled as Dark King and Queen. As they were being carried by an army of mummies, Jack saw Carly's glasses on the ground and snapped out of the vision.

Jack disagreed with what Carly believed that they both wanted and told her to write her own destiny, as he played "Changing Destiny". He reminded Carly of how he was once selfish and how she had changed that. Carly returned to her righteous self. Since she got to choose the effect of "Changing Destiny", she chose the option that allowed Jack to live, rather than win the Duel.

As she tried to hand the Duel over to Jack, "Earthbound Immortal Aslla piscu" took control of her body and continued the Duel. She Summoned "Aslla piscu", but as Jack swore to protect Carly, who he realized he truly romantically loved, he gained the ability to Summon "Majestic Red Dragon". Later, the real Carly had a tragic conversation with Jack, and told him to end the match if he truly cared about her.

Before Jack could end the Duel in a tie, Carly's normal self regained control and forced herself to lose the Duel. Just before the Duel ended, she sent Jack and her real self on a tower that showed the view of the ocean, where she said that Jack had another destiny waiting in store, of him becoming king. She then pulled out a card depicting Jack as King, as her Deck then flew out of her hand, and all of the cards were the same, with the ATK and DEF that were blurred out. Jack embraced Carly before she disappeared. After she says she couldn't see, Jack returned her glasses. Carly told Jack that she loved him as well, as she disappeared.

During the battle against Rex Goodwin, Jack briefly mentioned Carly, and said that through her love, she had showed him the light, and that everyone had a second chance in life.

When Goodwin was defeated in the final battle, and the King of the Netherworld was destroyed, Carly was returned to life. However, she had no memories of being a Dark Signer nor of any of the events that lead up to becoming one and resumed her life as a reporter, but her genuine and strong romantic love for Jack still endured. Though the others have made her aware of this interesting past-time, she could only agonize over the details that she couldn't recall. Her flustered and befuddled attitude toward these horrifying occurrences amused Akiza.

Pre-World Racing Grand Prix

Carly met with Jack again, as she was following the news about an evil money trader named Don Piero. After Carly learned that he made people sign false documents to rip them off, Jack challenged him to a Duel for those people's contracts. Jack won and Carly was happy that all the people who got ripped off would get their money back.

She was present during the Premiere event party for the World Racing Grand Prix, and took photos of the competitors for the newspaper. Carly was also seen hanging out with Yusei and the gang.

Carly was also the one who informed Jack about crimes that were being committed all around New Domino City. She told him that crimes had increased ever since the announcement of the WRGP, and that those crimes involved Duel Runners. After Jack went missing when trying to find the Duel Runner thieves' base, Carly informed Yusei and Crow. When they arrived at the docks, the ship that was there was gone. Later, Carly, Yusei, Crow and Trudge arrived on the runaway ship and only found that Jack was already victorious against the thieves' leader, Syd Barlow, after which he single-handely fought and captured the entire gang.

When Jack suddenly got arrested for the crimes done by the impostor Jack Atlas, Carly attempted to stop the press from writing articles about it, but Mr. Pitts refused. Still believing in Jack, she investigated deeper into the matter and discovered that there were two Jacks and that another person was posing as him. Carly found this information out with the help of two hippies who recorded the two Jacks Turbo Dueling. She informed Yusei and Crow, before searching for Jack. She caught up to him and witnessed him defeat the impostor in a Turbo Duel. Afterwards, she took photos to prove Jack's innocence.

World Racing Grand Prix

With the start of the preliminary rounds, Carly, along with Mina and Stephanie, were seen cheering for Jack. Once he lost the Duel against Andre and managed to get back to the pits, Jack was transported to a nearby clinic due to his injuries from his crash. The three snuck into his room to stay by his side and hoped that he would wake up. After Jack woke up, Carly and the others helped Jack get to the pits to encourage Yusei to win.

Before Team 5D's' match with Team Catastrophe, Carly and the gang reviewed their previous matches and tried to figure out how they managed to make their opponents crash. Carly then remembered that she had recorded the match and the gang got angry since she didn't show them the video earlier. With the help from Carly's videotape of the match, the team learned that every time Team Catastrophe's opponents crashed, the same monster was always on the field: "Hook the Hidden Knight". They deduced that every time "Hook the Hidden Knight" activated its effect, the back wheel of the opponent's Duel Runner would lock up.

After finding the connection, they learned that Akiza was in an accident similar to Crow's and Team Unicorn's. The next day, Carly and the gang watched as Team Catastrophe's first Duelist Dueled against Crow, who was out for revenge against them for his arm and for putting Akiza in a coma. They watched the Duel closely as "Hook the Hidden Knight" activated its effect and they noticed that a shadow hook appeared from Crow's Runner's shadow, and realized that was how Team Catastrophe was able to crash their opponents.

During Team 5D's' other matches in the World Racing Grand Prix, Carly was always seen in the crowd cheering on Jack and the others. During the Diablo incident while Yusei was Dueling Primo, she was seen taking photos when both her car and camera exploded. In her head, she said to herself "What is happening to New Domino City?"

Later, after a while, Primo created a tornado which started to destroy

New Domino City and everyone was told to evacuate which a stubborn Carly didn't listen as she wanted to get a story for her newspaper. She was almost blown away, but luckily she hung onto a street lamp pole for dear life. When the winds died down, a frustrated Carly was left wondering what had just happened.

When Team 5D's faced Team Ragnarok, Mina said that when she was young, her parents had told her a story about a Synchro Monster. She then asked if "Thor, Lord of the Aesir" was the same one from the story. After Jack lost, she was quick to run to his aid for medical attention.

Just before Team 5D's' match with Team New World, she called Luna, Leo, and Akiza and later Mina, and asked them for help to write her special feature article on the team, but as usual, she and Mina constantly argued about Jack, so they decided to write the article themselves.

While performing the interview, Akiza and company accidentally reconfirmed their bonds. In addition, when Carly talked to Akiza, they discussed the relation of their new opponents, Team New World, to the organization of Iliaster and the trio's schemes, about their "Synchro Killing" monsters, which caused Carly to gain unthinkable information. When Carly was finished typing out all of the information, Stephanie came in with a teapot full of hot coffee. She tripped on a wire and the coffee spilled all over the computer, and erased all of the files and ruined Carly's report.

After Jack lost, she was disappointed, but quickly got over it and knew that he would be fine. Later, she was seen cheering for them as they beat Team New World though she was seen rushing to his aid when Jack was critically injured during his Duel against Jakob.

Ark Cradle

After the Grand Prix, Carly was then seen being evacuated from New Domino City as the events in Divine Temple took place, only to be knocked over by the female hippie, who had tried squeezing in with the crowd. She was also one of the only people to notice Team 5D's going up to the Divine Temple itself. She hoped that Jack would come out on top, and was later seen cheering on Yusei during his Duel against Z-one and said that everyone would be behind him in his efforts to save the city.

After the defeat of Z-one, Carly was seen among the crowds of people, that were standing alongside Mina and old rival Angela Raines and watched the fall of Sector Security and the rise of New Domino City Hall with Lazar who became its first mayor, though Carly was blocked by the female hippie's afro.

Carly was then seen trying to sneak on board a carriage that was carrying Jack's possessions by disguising herself as a package though her head remained sticking out. This caused her to be noticed by Stephanie and, despite her protests, Mina eventually got her out. Carly was devastated by the fact that Jack, who she had long called her boyfriend, would be leaving without her, though Mina's strong words allowed her to accept this and she wished Jack well on his journey as the World King.

Jack Atlas: (Australian Accent) Carly!

Carly Carmine: Its been a while Jack.

Me: You know her Jack?

Jack Atlas: I do. She's a reporter for Neo Domino City.

Armada Hoist (to Carly): Are you the first Dark Signer we'll fight?

Carly Carmine: Yep. But I'll fight you guys later. As you can see, I'm not in battle mode right now.

Me: Love the outfit. It really looks stylish on you.

Carly Carmine: Thanks. It's part of what happened to me.

Maria: (to Shiv and Snake) What about you two?

Shiv: We're actually not gonna fight you guys later.

Snake: It's not our turn today.

Nico: Oh.

I saw a purple glowing mark on her right arm and I recognized the symbol.

Me: That's the Mark of the Hummingbird Nazca Line.

Carly Carmine: That's right. I have the mark of Aslla Piscu.

Me: That name means Fishermans Hummingbird.

Carly Carmine: Never knew about that.

Me: How did you die if I may ask?

Carly Carmine: I was pushed off the edge of a building.

We gasped in shock.

Me: How can someone be that cold to you!?

Nico: Yeah it's not right!

Carly Carmine: I know. I appreciate your concern.

Me: If it's all right with you Carly, I can find the man that did this to you and bring him to justice.

Carly Carmine: I would like that J.D. But we will fight soon. Be ready.

Me: I have that to look forward to.

Carly vanished in a flash of purple light.

Me: So Carly is one of the Dark Signers.

Jack Atlas: Yep and she has a major crush and love on me.

Me: I can see that Jack. She does have a big support for you.

Jack Atlas: Indeed she does.

Lana: Got to admire her spirit though.

Lola: Yeah.

Lisa Loud: Indeed. She does have a strong sense of competitive support.

Lily: Yeah.

Later we went back home.

Back at the estate we were watching one of my favorite childhood movies from my past: All Dogs Go To Heaven. It was a movie from 1989 and it was an adorable movie about a dog named Charlie and a bond he has with an Orphan girl named Anne-Marie.

---

In 1939 New Orleans, Charlie B. Barkin and his best friend Itchy Itchiford escape from the dog pound and return to their casino riverboat on the bayou, formerly run by Charlie himself and his business partner, Carface Caruthers. Refusing to share the profits with Charlie, Carface had been responsible for Charlie and Itchy getting committed to the pound and persuades Charlie to leave town with half of the casino's earnings. Charlie agrees, but is later intoxicated and killed by a car pushed downhill by Carface and his assistant, Killer. Charlie is sent to Heaven by default despite not having done any good deeds in his life; a whippet angel explains to him that because dogs are inherently good and loyal, all dogs go to Heaven and are entitled to paradise. Charlie cheats death by stealing a gold pocket watch representing his life and winding it back. As Charlie descends back to Earth, the whippet angel tells him that he can never return to Heaven; when the watch stops again, he will be sent to Hell instead. However, as long as the watch continues to run, Charlie will be immortal.

After Charlie reunites with Itchy and plots revenge in the form of a rivaling business, they discover that Carface has kidnapped a young orphaned girl named Anne-Marie for her ability to talk to animals, which proves advantageous when betting on races. Charlie rescues her and promises to feed the poor and help her find a family. The next day at the race track, Charlie steals a wallet from a couple as they talk to Anne-Marie and become alarmed by her ragged appearance. Charlie and Itchy use their winnings to build a successful casino in the junkyard where they live. Anne-Marie, upon realizing that she has been used, threatens to leave. To persuade her to stay, Charlie brings pizza to a family of poor puppies and their mother, Flo, at the old abandoned church. While there, Anne-Marie becomes angry at Charlie for stealing the wallet. As Charlie has a nightmare in which he is condemned to Hell, Anne-Marie returns the wallet to the couple, Kate and Harold. While they privately discuss adopting her, Charlie arrives and tricks her into leaving with him. Charlie and Anne-Marie narrowly escape an ambush by Carface and Killer and hide in an abandoned building, but the ground breaks and they fall into the lair of King Gator, a giant effeminate alligator. He and Charlie bond over a love of music and he lets them go, but Anne-Marie contracts pneumonia.

Carface and his thugs destroy Charlie's casino and attack Itchy. An injured Itchy limps back to the church and confronts Charlie about his relationship with Anne-Marie, who Itchy thinks matters more than him. In his exasperation, Charlie loudly proclaims that he is using her and will eventually "dump her in an orphanage". Anne-Marie overhears the conversation and tearfully runs away before she is kidnapped by Carface. Charlie follows them to Carface's casino, where he is ambushed by Carface and his thugs. They fight with Charlie, inadvertently setting an oil fire that soon engulfs the whole structure. Charlie's pained howls from their bites summon King Gator, who chases down and devours Carface. In the chaos, both Anne-Marie and the watch fall into the water. Unable to rescue both at the same time, Charlie rescues Anne-Marie and places her onto some driftwood and pushes her toward safety; however, the watch stops before he can reach it, ending his life. Sometime later, Kate and Harold adopt Anne-Marie, who has also adopted Itchy. Charlie, having sacrificed himself to save Anne-Marie, has earned back his place in Heaven, and is allowed to return in ghost form to reconcile with Anne-Marie. Leaving Itchy in her care, Charlie returns to Heaven, where Carface finally arrives and takes his own clock, vowing revenge against King Gator. As the whippet angel chases him and warns against using it, Charlie assures the audience that "he'll be back" before winking and retrieving his halo.

We watched the movie and it was so adorable and cute. Next we watched the sequel to the movie: All Dogs Go To Heaven 2. It was funny.

---

Decades after the events of the first movie, Charlie B. Barkin (Charlie Sheen) welcomes his friend, Itchy (Dom DeLuise), to Heaven, but states he is disillusioned by the afterlife. Their old nemesis, Carface Caruthers (Ernest Borgnine), steals Gabriel's Horn, but loses it somewhere over San Francisco in his attempt to escape with it. When the head angel Annabelle (Bebe Neuwirth) announces the horn's theft, Charlie submits his candidacy to retrieve it, reminding Annabelle of his familiarity with street life. Annabelle sends Charlie and Itchy to Earth to retrieve it, and gives them one miracle to use. Upon arrival in San Francisco, Charlie and Itchy attempt to indulge in their old habits, but they discover that they are ghosts, and therefore unable to interact with the physical world. At a tavern where Charlie is enchanted by a beautiful and charming Irish Setter named Sasha La Fleur (Sheena Easton), Carface appears in a corporeal form granted by a red dog collar created by Red (George Hearn), an elderly dog fortune teller who gives Charlie and Itchy equivalent collars effective for a single day. Unbeknownst to the duo, Red is actually a large demonic cat who intends to take the horn for himself with Carface's help.

Charlie and Itchy meet Sasha and an 8-year-old human boy she is looking after named David (Adam Wylie), who ran away from home to become a street magician. Charlie uses his miracle to grant Sasha the ability to converse with David, who comes to believe that Charlie is his guardian angel. Charlie sees the horn being taken into a police station and recovers it, but in his reluctance to return to Heaven, he hides it in a lobster trap. After David's street performance ends in failure, he finally reveals that he believes that his father and stepmother, who are expecting a new baby, will care less for him once it is born. Charlie persuades him otherwise and promises to return him home, but privately expresses to Sasha his doubts on being able to fulfill his promise. Charlie and Itchy's collars vanish, and they once more become ghosts.

Carface kidnaps David and orders Charlie to bring Gabriel's horn to Alcatraz Island and give it to Red in exchange for David's life. Determined to keep his word, Charlie satisfies Red's demand, and Red uses the horn to capture and imprison Heaven's canine angels in Alcatraz while opening a portal to permanently connect the human world to Hell. After a struggle against Red, Charlie regains the horn and plays to free the angels and send Red and Carface - the latter having sold his soul for his collar - back to Hell. Charlie and Itchy are spirited away to Heaven, and Charlie gives the horn back to Anabelle in exchange for a new life. Charlie bids farewell to Itchy, who decides to remain in Heaven, and happily reunites with Sasha and David. David returns home and reconciles with his relieved father and stepmother. Charlie and Sasha, who have become mates, are adopted by David's family as pets.

When both movies were done we cheered wildly.

Me: That was so awesome!

Laney: It sure was.

Lincoln: That Charlie is a funny dog.

Nico: He sure is. I love how he saves Heaven.

Me: Yep.

Yugito: But that demon Red is a monster.

Matatabi: You're telling me Yugito. I just can't believe he is that dangerous and out to destroy all of humanity.

Me: And that cat Carface Carruthers is just as bad.

Nico: No kidding. What did it say about him?

Me: Lets see.

I pulled up his information.

Carface Carruthers is a recurring antagonist of the All Dogs Go to Heaven franchise. He is the main antagonist of the first film, the secondary antagonist of the second film, an anti-hero of the TV series, and the protagonist of the third and final film An All Dogs Christmas Carol. He is a former dangerous psychopath who was Charlie's former business partner.

In All Dogs Go to Heaven, he was voiced by the late Vic Tayback. In the rest of the franchise, starting with All Dogs Go to Heaven 2, he was voiced by the late Ernest Borgnine.

Very little is known about Carface's past apart from the fact that he and Charlie were once old friends as he tells Killer that his way to kill Charlie is "no way to treat an old friend".

He was once friends with Charlie, but his greed as well as personal gain led to him going away from Charlie and wanting to kill him.

In All Dogs Go to Heaven

In the beginning of the film, Carface helps Charlie open up a casino and plans to kill Charlie because he finds him annoying and wants the casino to himself. So one night, they hold a celebration and he gets Charlie drunk, and gives him a golden watch. His henchman, Killer, blindfolds him and tells him to wait for "a big surprise" while Charlie sits at the dock near the sea. Then Carface starts up a car and putting it in drive, causing it to hit Charlie, killing him and knocking his body into the sea along with the car.

Charlie's soul goes to Heaven where he learns Carface murdered him, and he vows revenge. He finds a way to escape from Heaven, but his guardian angel warns him that since he stole the watch he can never return. Charlie reunites with his partner Itchy (who was mourning Charlie and having watched the event) and they decide to first upstage Carface with their own casino. Along the way, they stop at Carface's hideout and rescue a little girl named Anne Marie who can talk to animals. They decide to use her gift to make money and tells her that they will use her until they can find her a family. Meanwhile, Carface finds out that Charlie is alive and he took Anne Marie from him, so he plots revenge.

At one point, he tries to kill Charlie with a machine gun and Charlie survives because as long as he has the watch, nothing can kill him. Later, he attacks Itchy with his thugs and burns down Charlie's casino, but Itchy escapes. Then he captures Anne Marie and Charlie comes to rescue her, fighting his way through the thugs. They eventually beat him up and begin to torture him. His howls of pain attract the attention of the flamboyant giant alligator, whom he and Anne Marie met earlier, who makes Carface's lair collapse. Carface falls into the water where he is eaten by the alligator.

At the end, Carface is seen in Heaven with Charlie, who had sacrificed himself to save Anne Marie and thus, was granted into heaven and Carface tries to escape vowing revenge on King Gator with Annabelle chasing him threatening him to chase him out of heaven.

In All Dogs Go to Heaven 2

In the sequel, Carface is more comic relief. He is now noticeably less evil, less intelligent and very cowardly which is very different than he was in the first one. He escapes from heaven with Gabriel's horn and encounters Red who makes him his partner. He tricks and deceives Charlie and the gang many times. When Charlie asks Carface what he traded to Red for his collar, Carface assumes Red wanted the soles of his shoes, but he goes barefoot. It was then that Red reminds him it was his soul that he wanted, and he is eventually dragged to Hell by Red when he's defeated.

In All Dogs Go to Heaven: The Series

In the TV series, Carface somewhat returns from Hell, but is now a cowardly bumbling fool and he was portrayed more as a thief and antihero than anything. He runs a curio shop in the same building where he and Red ran their shady business in All Dogs Go to Heaven 2. His sidekick Killer also returns in the series.

---

We gasped.

Me: Whoa! He's bad.

Lincoln: No kidding.

Laney: What does it say about Red?

Me: Lets see.

I pulled up the information on Red.

---

Red is the main antagonist of the 1996 animated film All Dogs Go to Heaven 2. He is a demonic feline from hell who desires to gain Gabriel's horn to transport all dogs from Heaven into Hell.

He was voiced by George Hearn, who also played Captain Ahab in 20th Century Fox's The Pagemaster.

Red is a powerful feline demon from hell who recruited Carface Carruthers in his plan to use the magical Horn Of Gabriel to pull all the dogs from Heaven into Hell. To this end, he tricked Carface's old nemesis, Charlie, into aiding him via creating magical collars and forcing him into a deal, under the disguise of an aged dog.

This climaxed in the demon managing to actually get the horn and he began to imprison the inhabitants of Heaven (including Annabelle) inside the Alcatraz prison while growing into a dangerous monster of seemingly apocalyptic proportions, causing the sea itself to start to rise around the island in a massive whirlpool.

However, Charlie and his friends decide to fight back, resulting in a battle that ended with Charlie blowing the horn, reversing the evil spell. Red (who had already been weakened by the battle by being splashed with water and then falling from a great height) was ultimately sucked back into hell for his failure. Before vanishing, however, Red drags Carface down, as this was part of their deal.

---

We gasped in shock!

Me: That cat is a monster!

Matatabi: No kidding. He makes us Tailed Beasts look like a joke.

Yomi the 10-Tailed Wolf: No kidding.

Nico: (Gasp!) Who said that?

Me: Oh that was Yomi the 10-Tailed Wolf. She talks through this seal right here on my arm.

I showed them a seal I have on my arm.

Nicole: Wow! I remember seeing that earlier.

Me: Yep. Naruto made it for me.

Yomi the 10-Tailed Wolf: He sure did. Naruto is an amazing seal master just like his father.

Varie: He sure is.

Me: But lets see if we can go to New Orleans and take down Red and Carface.

Nico: Lets head to the Simulator!

Everyone cheered and we went to the Simulator.

---

We got in the simulator and got ready and we were gonna have an awesome battle with one of the most dangerous demons from Hell. The Simulator activate and we found ourselves in New Orleans in 1939 and it was a beautiful place.

Me: Here we are guys. New Orleans, Louisiana in 1939.

Lincoln: So this is what the city was like in the end of the 1930s.

Laney: It's amazing.

Me: Lets find Anne-Marie.

We looked around and we heard a girl singing.

Me: Hey listen.

We heard Anne-Marie singing and it was coming from an abandoned clock tower in the middle of the city. We saw Anne-Marie singing.

We went up to it.

Anne-Marie: Oh hello there.

Me: You have a great voice.

Anne-Marie: Thank you.

Maria: Do you know that song from your heart?

Anne-Marie: I sure do. It's from my mom and dad. My real mom and dad.

She showed us a picture of them and they were a beautiful couple.

Me: Oh man. What happened to them? Do you remember?

Anne-Marie: No I don't.

Me: I'm sorry. How long have you been out on the streets like this?

Anne-Marie: Since I was 5. I'm 8 now.

Me: Oh man. I'm sorry.

Anne-Marie: It's all right. But thank you.

Me: You're welcome.

Chloe Bourgeois: Oh you poor girl. (Gets an idea) Hey I'm going to adopt you Anne-Marie.

Anne-Marie: (Gasp) You would do that?

Chloe Bourgeois: I sure would. No one should ever be without family.

Anne-Marie then hugged Chloe and she was so excited. It was the best feeling she ever had.

Me: Aww.

We later met Charlie and introduced ourselves.

Charlie: Wow! It's an honor to meet you all.

Me: Same to you Charlie.

May: (to Charlie) Since we're here, how about showing us around?

Charlie: Sure.

Charlie and Itchy showed us around and it was cool seeing his home.

Me: This is amazing Charlie.

Charlie: Thanks.

Itchy: It's a really nice pad.

Laney: It sure is.

Me: Well I suppose we should tell you why we're here Charlie. We're here to kill a demon cat named Red.

Charlie: I know hime. He's a really bad cat.

Me; The worst kind. I know where to find him. He's over in an old abandoned tuna factory.

Varie: Figures.

Akiza: That's simple.

Kin Tsuchi: Yep.

Me: Lets roll.

We went to the old tuna factory and we looked in the window and we saw RED and with him was CARFACE CARRUTHERS!

Me: There they are.

Varie: Shall we do our Phoenix Cry?

Nico: Lets.

Me: Here we go.

We got ready.

Red: I will not tolerate your incompetence any longer Carface!

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion blasted a hole into the side of the factory and a phoenix cry was heard.

When the smoke cleared we appeared.

Me: Your days of causing terror are finished forever Red!

Red: Team Loud Phoenix Storm!? How did you find me!?

Me: None of your business!

Red: Well Charlie is going to Hell!

Troy: (to Red) Charlie's going to Heaven. You're going to Hell!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Techno Bionic Team!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Bioman Rangers from 1985!

Firefly and Dark Spicer then came out.

Me: Dark Spicer and Firefly. I figured you two would be ready.

Dark Spicer: Yep. (to Charlie) Here's your warning: Your ass is about to be kicked!

Me: He's a dog Dark Spicer and you wouldn't kick a dog would you?

Dark Spicer: Hmm yeah you're right. Instead I'll kick your ass J.D.

Dark Spicer then turned into a new alien. It was an Appoplexian Mutant. He looked like a white version of Rath with red stripes and spikes all over his back and he had really vicious claws.

Furi: Time for you all to meet Furi!

Shanan: An Appoplexian Mutant.

Drill Man: This just get more difficult.

Furi: LEMME TELL YA SOMETHIN', DRILL MAN! YOU WANNA PIECE OF FURI?! YOU GOT A PIECE! BUT YOU JUST BIT OFF AN EYE BIGGER THAN YOUR STOMACH CAN CHEW!

Drill Man: That made no sense!

Furi: (Angry)… I know! (lets out a ferocious roar that knocks Drill Man back)

Me: Whoa!

Furi: (picks me up and holds you upside down) Polaris Piledriver! (jumps into the air and crashes down with my head hitting the ground first) Antarian Arm Bar! (grabs my arms and bends them behind my back and runs towards a bunch of crates and slams me into them) Ophiuchus Face-Plant! (grabs me and throws me into the air and jumps after me) Sirius Butt-Kicking!

Furi then kicked me hard and I went flying and I crashed into the wall before I bounced off and crashed into the ground.

SMMAAAAAAAAAAAAAASSSSSSSHHHHHHHHHHHH!

Nico: Whoa! HOLY SHIT!

Zarya: J.D.!

When the dust cleared, I was in a crater.

Me: So was that Sirius like the star or serious like important?

Furi: Both, actually!

Me: Just wondering. (passes out)

Lincoln: Holy mackerel! He matched J.D.!

Dark Spicer then turned into another new alien. It was an Orishan Mutant. He looked like Water Hazard but he was blue and he had 8 arms and he had tubes in his back and he had red eyes.

Death Drench: This form is called Death Drench!

Shanan: A Mutant Orishan!

Bai Tza: That's gonna be a tough one considering that in this form, you're invulnerable to physical attacks.

Death Drench: That's not the only thing you need to worry about! (fires a stream of water from his hands at Bai Tza)

Bai Tza held her hands up and fired a massive more powerful stream of water and the blasts collided and Bai Tza overwhelmed Death Drench and sent him crashing into a bunch of crates.

I got up 2 minutes later and I was brutally mangled up and I had blood dripping from my arm and mouth.

Me: OW! I feel like I got run over by a truck.

Nico: J.D. are you all right?

Me: I think so.

I used Majin Buu's regeneration and my wounds were gone and I was healed.

Me: There.

Carly Carmine then appeared.

Carly Carmine: Dark Spicer really did a number on you huh?

Me: He sure did Carly. But I'll be sure to return the favor for that later.

?: Don't forget us helping them.

2 figures came out and they were MAMAMITE and TERMITUS from episode 13 of In Space!

---

Mamamite was a termite monster and Termitus' Mother. Ecliptor was sent by Astronema to bring Mamamite to Earth. She buried a million of her eggs beneath Angel Grove and Mamamite took her small drill hand to speed things up and woke up the eggs. The combined blasts of the Quadro Blaster and Spiral Saber Booster Mode destroyed Mamamite.

Termitus was a soldier termite monster and Mamamite's son. He was formed when clouds of Mamamite's termites combined, he was struck down by Ashley's grandmother in a stolen police car. Termitus was destroyed by the Astro Delta Megazord.

---

Ashley Hammond: Mamamite and Termitus!

Mamamite: I'm flattered that you remember me Yellow Ranger.

Me: I remember you two! You were the first mother and son monster team. You were sent by Astronema to hatch 1 million of your eggs buried under Angel Grove.

Termitus: That's right J.D. You were watching us on TV huh?

Me: Never missed an episode.

Mamamite: It's good we all have some fans.

She Hulk: (to Mamamite) I'm surprised Termitus has a mother like you.

Mamamite: Are you surprised?

Carmen: Most monsters in Power Rangers don't have parents.

Termitus: I'm probably the only one that does.

Me: Not entirely. Prince Olympius had Queen Bansheera as his mother.

Mamatite: Oh that's right. I remember now.

Chief Wiggum then appeared.

Me: Chief Wiggum. Don't you have a couple of bad guys to arrest?

Chief Wiggum: Well I would but you know that I am that stupid.

?: You are worst than stupid!

We looked and we saw a figure and it was Homer Simpson as PIE MAN from Season 15 Episode 19 of The Simpsons!

Me: Wow! It's Pie Man!

Pie Man: That's right citizen!

He jumped down and he had a pie bomb in his hands.

Pie Man: Chief Wiggum, you shot me and this Pie is for you!

He threw the pie and it splatted in Chief Wiggum's face and exploded.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion sent Chief Wiggum crashing into a bunch of crates full of rotten fish and he then got mauled by numerous angry cats.

We laughed at him.

Carly Carmine: (Laughs) Okay now that was really funny!

Me: That was really funny! Homer that was awesome!

Homer: Thanks J.D. How did you know it was me?

Me: We watched you on TV for a long time Homer and you were awesome as Pie Man.

Homer: Thanks J.D.

Me: Hey this reminds me of something. Bart, Lisa, remember when you got those superpowers and you became Stretch Dude and Clobber Girl in the Treehouse of Horror X?

Bart: Oh that was awesome!

Me: I think you two can still do that. Once you have superpowers they stay with you forever.

Bart: Lets find out.

Lisa Simpson: Yeah!

(Sailor Moon DiC Transformation music plays).

THE END

Another awesome chapter done.

All Dogs Go To Heaven has been one of my favorite childhood movies ever since I was a little boy and it was awesome! NicoChan11 and ArchangelOfJustice12 gave me the ideas for this.

Thanks guys. Next up is the first chapter for the Nickelodeon Show The Wild Thornberry's and it's gonna be so awesome meeting the famous nature documentary stars and we're going to meet them in the jungles of the Amazon. It's gonna be awesome seeing the animals of the Amazon Rainforest and we're gonna bring the ruthless poachers Kip O'Donnell and Neil Biederman to justice.

See you all tomorrow

The Explorations of The Thornberry's

In the middle of the forests of Michigan, I was riding my Rapidash and we were heading to a big beautiful house in the middle of the forest. We arrived.

Me: Wow! What a house. It's beautiful.

Xerneas: It sure is.

Nico: But how come it's out here?

Me: Lets find out.

We went in and we saw that the Mansion is a theater.

Me: Wow. Nice theater.

Ben: It's hero time!

Me: Ben what did you say that for?

Ben: It wasn't me! It came from him!

We turned and we saw ANOTHER BEN!

Me: (Rubs eyes) What the!? Two Ben's!? What the fuck!? Am I starting to lose my marbles!?

Nico: Wow!

Ash: Hey I know this house. This is the House of Imitay. It's Duplica's house. That girl is Duplica.

Duplica: (as Ben) Face it, dude. I'm Ben Tennyson! You're just a copycat!

Ben: (raises eyebrow) Sorry. But I'm the REAL Ben Tennyson. And I've got more experience then you.

Ice Man (Mega Man): I know one way to tell you two apart.

Ben: And that is?

Ice Man: Both of you try to go alien.

Ben: Good idea.

Ben turned into Swampfire!

Ben: SWAMPFIRE!

She took off her disguise and she was a girl with aqua green hair in pigtails and she had a yellow shirt with a star on it and blue sweatpants and sneakers.

Duplica: Hey wow! You're all Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: That's right. You must be Duplica. Ash told us so much about you.

Duplica: I'm sure he did. It's great to see you again Ash.

Ash: Same here.

Pikachu: Pika!

We turned and we saw another Pikachu!

Me: Whoa! Another Pikachu.

Duplica: (Chuckles) Look again.

We saw it change into a Ditto!

Me: Wow! You have a Ditto as well.

Nico: So does me and J.D.

Ash: And now me.

We called out our Ditto.

Duplica: Hey wow! We all have Ditto.

Me: We sure do. But that was a great imitation of Ben like that.

Duplica: Thanks J.D.

Martian Manhunter: It was very risky for you to dress up like Ben. Especially since Zs'Skayr is in the Masters of Evil.

Me: That's right.

Duplica: I saw that. I know it's risky but I wanted to put on a good show for you.

Me: That's all right. But me and Lincoln can do voice impressions as well. Watch. (Imitating Foghorn Leghorn) Now what's the, I say what's the big idea bashing me in the bazooka thataway boy?

Lincoln: (Imitating Nico) You had better stay calm or I will smash your head in with my club!

Nico: (Laughs) Hey that was really good Lincoln!

Duplica: That was really good.

Me: Lincoln got zapped by one of his sister Lisa's inventions and it gave him the awesome ability to imitate voices really perfectly. We now call him the man of 10,000 voices.

Lincoln: And it gave me this ability as a side effect.

Lincoln blew out a blast of fire and it turned into the Celtic Triquetra.

Nico: Whoa! That's awesome!

Edwayl: (Breton Accent) That was amazing lad! I didn't know you had that kind of power now.

Lincoln: You never asked.

Me: Lincoln tried it out by imitating the late Jerry Lewis.

Luan: He's one of my favorite comedians.

Me: And he was really funny.

Laney: It's a really good talent.

Duplica: It sure is.

Runamuck: Duplica, how did you know about Ben's usual attire?

Duplica: I watched all your adventures and added more costumes to my entertainment repertoire.

Me: I see.

Duplica: I see you all have Jessie and James and Meowth with you.

Me: They aren't part of Team Rocket anymore. They got canned from Team Rocket before we killed all of Team Rocket.

Jessie (Pokemon): That's right.

James (Pokemon): We are glad we're good guys now.

Me: Yep.

Duplica: That's awesome!

Then the doors Bursted open and in came JESSEBELLE, JAMES'S CRAZY FIANCÉ!

Jessebelle: I found you at last James!

James (Pokemon): (In fright) JESSEBELLE!

Jessie (Pokemon): Your crazy fiancé!?

Qin: Who is she?

Me: That's James's crazy fiancé Jessebelle. You see Qin, James came from a very wealthy family and they arranged for him to be married to this girl here, Jessebelle.

Qin: That's crazy! Wait a second. Am I starting to go crazy or does Jessebelle look so much like Jessie!?

Me: That was our first reaction too when we saw her. We thought Jessie had a twin sister when we saw her.

Nico: Yeah.

Qin: That's funny.

Me: But James's Parents arranged for him to marry her and she will not rest until she and James have tied the knot. But because James is under our protection and in the Redemption Squad, we warned her that she would have to go through all of us and that's like taking on the entire universe.

Nico: Yep.

Me: Not only that but we haven't faced Jessebelle in a while.

Cybertron Red Alert: Seriously, Jessebelle? I thought you would've given up your obesssion with James by now.

Jessebelle: I will never give up until James is my husband!

Me: And like we said Jessebelle, you want to get to him, you'll have to go through us!

I called out the 3 legendary birds Articuno, Zapdos and Moltres and Me, Nico, Ash and Duplica had our Ditto turn into Gyarados. We fired blasts of lightning, ice, fire and Hyper Beam energy at Jessebelle and it hit her and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Jessebelle was sent flying.

Lynn: And she is OUTTA HERE!

Me: YEAH!

Duplica: That was awesome!

Me: It sure was. But using Pokemon was just a sample of what we do.

Varie: That's right.

Duplica decided to come with us as a helper of our adventures.

---

Later back at home we were watching one of my favorite childhood shows: The Wild Thornberrys. It was an amazing show about a young girl named Eliza Thornberry and she was with her family - Famous Nature documentary host Nigel Thornberry, his wife Marianne films it, and Eliza's big sister Debbie is along for the ride. With them is Darwin a chimpanzee and a feral boy they found in Borneo named Donnie. But Eliza is not just any ordinary girl. She has the awesome power to talk to Animals. It was given to her by a Shaman she rescued in Africa.

Me: This is so amazing! I think it's so cool that Eliza has that kind of power.

Lana: It's so awesome! My favorite power is also talking to animals.

Laney: Mine too.

Crysta: It's amazing.

Lola: How did Eliza get that awesome power?

Me: She rescued a Shaman masquerading as a trapped warthog and he gave her the power to talk to animals.

Nico: That's amazing.

Me: It sure is. Nigel is an amazing nature show host. He shows us all kinds of neat animals from all over the world that we have never seen before.

Shanan: That is amazing.

Heidi: And Lily showed us awesome fish in those techniques she showed us.

Lily: That's right.

Me: That's true and we've seen all kinds of animals all over the world when we were on our adventures.

Nico: Yep and they are so cool.

Anne-Marie: It sure is amazing.

Chloe Bourgeois: It sure is.

Me: And it would be so cool to meet Eliza and her family.

Varie: It sure would. Are we heading out to meet them?

Me: You read my mind Varie. They are over in the Amazon Rainforest.

Vince: In South America.

Me: Yep. Lets head out!

We were off to the Amazon!

AMAZON RAINFOREST, BRAZIL

We arrived in the Amazon Rainforest and it was just as beautiful as it was when we were there on our worldwide adventure.

Me: Wow! The Amazon Rainforest.

Shanan: It's breathtaking. And it makes up for more than 20% of the worlds Oxygen supply.

Laney: What animal are they gonna be filming here in the Amazon?

Me: It says that they are trying to find the Saki Monkey.

Shanan: That's one of the most elusive monkeys in all of the Amazon. It has not been seen in 80 years.

Me: Wow! That is gonna be amazing.

Varie: It sure is.

We heard hooting and we saw the Saki Monkey.

Me: Hey there it is!

Syd Chang, Lisa Loud, Lana and me went up and we saw it.

Me: Wow. What a beautiful monkey.

Lisa Loud: Very amazing creature.

Syd Chang: So amazing! I've never seen a beautiful monkey like this.

We got in close and then a camera lens got in my face.

Me: Ow. Huh?

I then saw Marianne Thornberry.

Marianne: Wow! J.D. Knudson and Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Nigel: Oh smashing! It's such an amazing honor to meet all of you.

Me: Same to you Nigel. We love watching you guys all on TV and it's so cool seeing you going to amazing places all over the world.

Marianne: It's nice that we have some fans.

Nigel: Indeed poppet. We have heard so many amazing things about all of your adventures and you have done so much all over the world.

Me: We don't like to brag. But we have seen so many animals that hardly anyone else has ever seen.

Syd Chang: Some of them are in the sea.

Nigel: Indeed. But some of them are smashing.

Me: They sure are.

We later went to the camp of the Thornberry's. They had a travelling R.V. and it was their home. There we met Eliza, Debbie and Darwin and Donnie.

Me: Your Comvee is amazing.

Eliza: Thanks J.D.

Me: We love how you travel all over the planet. Just as adventurous as all of us.

Debbie: So we have heard J.D.

Lori: We literally love going all over the planet. It's a really educational experience.

Debbie: I would rather be hanging out with my friends. But it's cool.

Eliza: You guys should visit Tommy Pickles and the Rugrats. But fair warning. They're not babies anymore. They're All Grown Up.

Me: So we have seen. Also can we talk to you for a sec in private Eliza?

Eliza: Sure.

We went into the forest and talked.

Eliza: So what is this about?

Me: We know about your gift and power to talk to animals.

Eliza: But it's my big secret!

Me: I know Eliza and I think it's a really amazing power you have.

Eliza: But Shaman Mnyambo will take my powers away!

Maria: I think your gift to talk to animals should stay.

Me: I agree.

Eliza: Well, it's not my choice on whether it stay or not.

Eddy: There's always a choice. (snaps his fingers) Did that do anything?

Me: Hmm.

I looked and spoted an Ocelot.

Me: Try talking to that Ocelot.

Eliza did and she still has her powers.

Ocelot: Another meal and another awesome time here in the jungle.

Eliza: I still have my powers.

Me: Yep. Eddy your powers are evolving.

Eddy: They sure are

Me: Also Eliza, your gift to talk to animals is very special to you and I made sure that it doesn't get taken away from you.

Eliza: Really?

Me: Yep. Just like my powers make me what I am.

Eliza: Wow.

Isabel: I talked to Shaman Mnyambo telepathically and I told him to not take away your powers. Because you can tell anyone who you feel is trustworthy.

Eliza: Thanks guys.

Then we heard a rumbling sound.

Laney: What's that noise?

Lana: No idea.

Me: Look!

We saw some of the forest being torn down.

Me: Something is destroying the forest. We got to find out what it is.

We went over and we saw a giant tree shredder!

Me: It's a tree shredder!

Laney: It's like FernGully all over again!

Me: Wonder why it's doing this.

Nico: Lets find out.

We saw in the pilot room on top the Thornberry's enemies KIP O'DONNELL AND NEIL BEDIERMAN!

---

Kip is often shown to be Nigel's enemy (then more of Eliza's foe). Kip is almost always shown with Neil Bedierman whose stupidity often frustrates him and is shown to be a very tall man in "Matadi or Bust" because he dwarfs Nigel, who, in Happy Campers is revealed to be 6'2. Kip is at least 6'8. Kip is almost always seen dressed in camouflage grab, a matching sun hat, one wooden peg leg, one boot,and round frame sunglasses. He is bald, but has a British style mustache. Kip speaks in a deep, rasping voice with almost an Australian accent. In "Koality and Kuantity", Kip said he grew up in Sydney, Australia. Kip is assumed to be the same age as Nigel, because, in "Matadi or Bust" it is revealed they used to know each other. Beiderman is almost always shown with Kip O' Donnell. Physically, Beiderman is a heavyset, somewhat short man. He bears a slight resemblance to comedian Patton Oswalt. Beiderman appears to be slightly younger than his friend, Kip. Beiderman has styled brown hair, and almost always wears a green military outfit, black boots, and rectangle-framed sunglasses. He speaks in a high-pitched, silly sounding voice. In Vacant Lot, he says he has a cousin in Fresno. Beiderman is shown to be much clumsier and less intelligent than his friend, Kip. He is also not as dastardly as Kip. Kip and Beiderman can be seen as a stereotypical dumb crook-smart crook duo.

Eliza: Kip O'Donnell and Neil Bedierman!

Me: You know them Eliza?

Eliza: Poachers.

Me: If there's one thing I hate more than anything it's poachers.

Nico: I hate them too.

Me: I got this.

I went under the machine.

Kip O'Donnell: Now our production and animal capture will increase 10-fold.

Then they felt a rumble and they saw the machine lift up.

Me: Going up!

I threw the machine into the sky and it fell with Kip and Bedierman screaming and then it crashed into the ground with a huge smash!

CRAAAAAAAAAASSSSSSSSHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHH!

The whole machine was completely smashed to pieces and rubble and there were animals that were in it and they ran away.

Kip and Bedierman came out and they were shredded.

Me: (Cracks Knuckles) You two are through!

Webstor and Number 7 came out.

Me: Webstor and Number 7.

Eliza: Who are they?

Me: Two of our enemies in the Masters of Evil.

William: (to Webstor) What exactly are you two getting out of helping Bedierman and O'Donnell?

Webstor: Well, if this operation's successful, they'll give us some of the animals in their cages. We could use some pets other than Pokemon.

Number 7: (to Eliza) It's a good thing you're keeping your ability to talk to animals. That makes you who you are. Just like J.D.'s powers make him who he is.

Me: I don't use my powers for everything. I am only human you know.

Webstor: That's true.

Nigel: Oh my! A new type of animal.

We saw a new robot come out and we saw that it was BOOMER KUWANGER!

Boomer Kuwanger: Oh, I'm no animal. I'm Boomer Kuwanger!

Kuwanger fires three boomerangs that fly at Cut Man.

Lincoln fired blasts of lightning and destroyed the boomerangs.

Emma Goodall: You're not poaching these animals on our watch!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Science Platoon Dynaman!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Dynaman rangers from 1984.

Me: Lets dance!

Then I saw my Signer Mark glow.

Me: Uh oh. We got Dark Signer company.

But then we saw a woman appear and it was MISTY TREDWELL - THE DARK SIGNER OF THE LIZARD!

Misty Tredwell, known as Misty Lola in the Japanese version, was a character from Yu-Gi-Oh! 5D's. She is a fashion model, who could read someone based on their facial appearance. She was a member of the Dark Signers with the Lizard dark mark, but was returned to life following Goodwin's defeat.

On her birthday, Misty received a red-and-gold circular locket from her brother Toby with a picture of both of them inside.

Having learned of Akiza Izinski's psychic powers just like his, Toby told Misty how he would like to visit the Arcadia Movement. She was then uncertain as he talked to her about wanting to benefit others with his powers (In the dub, having heard bad things about that organization, Misty initially disapproved, which caused an argument).

Unfortunately, Toby was killed during one of Sayer's tests. His body was later found at the Daimon Area, and caused Misty to believe he had been killed by the Black Rose (In the dub, Toby was sent to an unknown facility when he failed to meet Sayer's standards. Also, Misty believed that Akiza was the reason why her brother went missing and disappeared). Upon seeing her brother's body, Misty became so shocked from that incident she lost focus while driving her car and drove it into the ocean. (The English version cut out the latter scene. Here, her car seems to have crashed most likely while it was still on the ground due to her shock).

She was taken to the hospital, where she lingered in a catatonic state. As she was about to die (The English version does not say this, instead it stated that she was unconscious in addition to being in a catatonic state) the Earthbound Immortal Ccarayhua appeared to her to save her from death (in the dub Ccarayuhua offered to help her get revenge on the person who caused her brother's disappearance). This was the beginning of her transformation into a Dark Signer. At the time, Misty did not understand what had happened, but the creature that saved her instructed her to kill the servant of the Crimson Dragon, the Black Rose Dragon.

Misty sought revenge against the Arcadia Movement for Toby's death. Although a police investigation was carried out on the Arcadia Movement, it only consisted of a mere police interview. Misty believed little was done because the Arcadia Movement had information that Sector Security wanted to be kept private and from the public.

At some point after her death and rebirth as a Dark Signer, she met Roman and the other Dark Signers, and joined them. She returned to New Domino under the guise of a regular person.

Dark Signers

Misty was a world famous model who lived in New Domino City. She attended the Atlas Rising premiere, where she was seen walking through the celebrity red carpet. Misty spotted and took interest in Carly Carmine's face. She even talked to her when she was rushing down to the hospital to question Jack Atlas. Her mysterious words only served to creep Carly out, as she predicted the shadow of death upon her in the near future, but when it happened, they would have a deeper understanding of each other.

Carly arrived at the hotel where Misty was residing. Misty encountered her and invited her in. Carly found out about Misty while researching the Arcadia Movement that her younger brother had been killed by the same organization (In the dub, Toby had disappeared). Misty confirmed this and vowed that she would definitely make the Black Rose, Akiza Izinski, pay for what she did to her younger brother, similar to how Alister did the same thing to Seto Kaiba.

Misty's prediction of Carly's death came true, but Carly was spared, as she transformed into a Dark Signer. The ground then shook violently as the transformation took effect, and alerted Misty, who then proceeded to the Arcadia Movement building to face Akiza.

While Akiza was searching for Sayer, she was confronted by Misty. Misty was honored that Akiza knew who she was and told her that she too was familiar with her, the Black Rose. Although Misty told her that she was seeking revenge, Akiza didn't know what she meant. Misty believed her to be in denial. After Akiza asked "Who are you?", Misty identified herself as a Dark Signer and said they were destined to fight.

Misty transformed into her Dark Signer regalia and began the Shadow Duel, and caused the Lizard geoglyph to form around the building. Akiza Summoned "Black Rose Dragon", and proved to Misty that she was a Signer. Shortly after Misty said that she was avenging her brother, who was killed by Akiza, Misty Summoned "Earthbound Immortal Ccarayhua", and sacrificed hundreds of residents inside the geoglyph to do so. The Duel was canceled as the building began to fall apart and Sayer was thrown down the center of the building, due to his and Carly's Shadow Duel in his office on the top floor.

Misty found Carly crying as she prepared to leave the building. Misty told her that she had been chosen by the Earthbound Immortal, and said that her death and subsequent revival as a Dark Signer had already occurred, which proceeded to upset Carly even more to which she said that all of this was hard to take in all at once. Devack then arrived by helicopter to pick up the two Dark Signers.

After Roman's Shadow Duel against Yusei concluded, Misty arrived along with the rest of her comrades, as the final battle between them and the Signers was about to unfold.

Misty waited for Akiza at the Original Enerdy Reactor's Lizard control unit, which was located in an abandoned theme park. She was the last Dark Signer standing, when Akiza arrived. She guided Akiza into a hall of mirrors, where their Duel took place.

During the Duel, Misty's geoglyph did not appear, and Akiza's birthmark didn't react. Misty faced Akiza through the mirrors in the hall. Throughout the Duel, she explained what she believed to be the story of Toby's death, and subsequently her death as a resurrection, and used her "Sad Story" cards to symbolize the events.

Akiza became tormented with the guilt and lost the will to continue the Duel. However, Sayer appeared and saved Akiza from landing into a shard of shattered glass. He manipulated Akiza's mind and reawoke her Black Rose persona. Misty continued to inflict more damage to Akiza, who didn't even flinch. The Black Rose Summoned "Black Rose Dragon", and shattered every mirror in the vicinity. With the mirrors gone, Misty confronted her opponent face-to-face.

Misty continued the Duel against the Black Rose and Summoned "Ccarayhua". Yusei arrived and managed to trick Sayer into confessing that he was the one who was responsible for Toby's death. After Sayer told her that Toby was weak and useless, Misty's heart was filled with anger, which fueled Ccarayhua to approach Sayer, grab him with its tongue and devour him (in the dub, Sayer was absorbed by Ccarayhua after it snatched him with its tongue). With Sayer dead for good, Misty stated that she had finally avenged her little brother (this also marked the only time that a Dark Signer had succeeded in their goal).

Misty apologized to Akiza and tried to surrender the Duel. However Ccarayhua disallowed it and took control of her. Possessed, Misty proceeded to Duel Akiza, who defended herself. Misty's spirit encouraged Akiza to end the Duel and to protect the world as a Signer. Akiza proceeded to win the Duel, and caused Misty to vanish. As she disappeared, Misty left her locket, which contained a picture of herself and Toby, and her final words were "Now, Akiza… protect this world, as a Signer! Please… remember us" (In the dub, Misty told Akiza to tell Toby that his Elder sister loved him if she ever found him).

When Goodwin was defeated in the final battle, and the King of the Netherworld was destroyed, Misty was restored to life, along with the other Dark Signers except for Roman and Goodwin himself as they were the only Dark Signers who had willingly transformed into Dark Signers rather than becoming easy prey for the Earthbound Immortals to prey on to entice into wanting to get revenge on the Signers.

After returning to life, Misty returned to her career as a fashion model and sent a photo postcard from Paris to Akiza, which pleased Akiza as their bitter rivalry had ended and that they had become great friends in the process.

World Racing Grand Prix

Misty's success in the fashion world was evident throughout the series as many billboards and posters of her could be seen throughout New Domino City such as in the New Domino City Mall when Yusei Fudo and his friends were chasing Lazar in order to obtain information about Iliaster.

Ark Cradle

During Yusei Fudo's Duel with Z-one when he is about to perform a Limit Over Accel Synchro in space, she could be seen in the image groups of people that were cheering Yusei on.

---

Eliza (to Misty Tredwell): Miss, you might want to get out of here. This battle's gonna be dangerous!

Anne Maria: Eliza, that's not a civilian!

Misty Tredwell: That's right. My name is Misty Tredwell.

Me: Wow! You're the famous aspiring supermodel!

Misty Tredwell: That's right.

Me: You're a Dark Signer as well?

Misty Tredwell: That's right.

She showed us her mark and it was the Mark of The Lizard.

Me: That's the Lizard Nazca Line.

Misty Tredwell: That's right. I didn't know you were a Signer now J.D.

Me: That's right. Just became one a couple of days ago. But what happened to you? How did you become a Dark Signer?

Misty Tredwell: I was killed in a car crash and died at the hospital. I got revived by the Lizard Earthbound Immortal Ccarayhua.

Me: His name means Lizard in the Quechua language.

Misty Tredwell: That's right.

Me: Misty, I heard that you wanted to kill Akiza because you thought that she was the one that killed your brother Toby right?

Misty Tredwell: That's right. Sayer killed my brother.

We gasped.

Me: That heartless monster!

Nico: I can't believe he would do that to your brother!

Lincoln: Why would he kill your brother like that!?

Misty Tredwell: Experimentation on his Psychic Powers.

Me: That is sick!

Misty Tredwell: Indeed.

Me: We'll have to pay a visit to Sayer and kill him.

Yusei: That won't be necessary J.D. Sayer is now in prison forever for his crimes. He was given life in the Facility.

Me: Good. He can rot there for all I care. What Sayer did is completely unforgiveable and that makes him no better than Orochimaru.

Jack Atlas: (Australian Accent) I agree with you on that J.D.

Me: Yep. Anyway lets split them up and take them on.

We went at them.

---

Battle 1: Webstor

---

Lucy was facing Webstor!

Lucy Loud: So lets see what you got.

Webstor: Happy to. And I have new pokemon.

He called out his Pokemon. They were a Spinarak and an Ariados!

Lucy Loud: A Spinarak and an Ariados.

Leni: SPIDER!

Leni smashed Webstor and his pokemon with a huge hammer.

SMASH SMASH SMASH SMASH SMASH SMASH SMASH SMASH SMASH!

Webstor: OW! OW! OW! OW! OW! LENI! STOP IT! OW OW!

Leni sprayed them with bug spray.

Number 7 came over after she was done and she electrocuted them with her Magnimite and Magniton and pinned her down with her Metagross. Lucy saw Misty shaking in fear over the sight of Spinarak and Ariados. Nico, Ed, Ash and Serena came over and Ash had Misty with him.

Nico: Leni stop!

Number 7: What's gotten into Leni and Misty?

Nico: Leni has a really nasty fear of spiders. She hates spiders. Whenever she sees a spider she really freaks out.

Ash: And Misty hates all Bug Pokemon.

Webstor: (to Misty) Ariados, I get. But I don't know why you and Leni are afraid of Spinarak.

Number 7: Webstor's Spinarak is not that dangerous.

Misty: Bugs just scare me, ok?!

Leni: And I'm afraid of spiders!

Lucy Loud: We can do our battle next time Webstor.

Ed: Same with me Number 7.

Number 7: Okay.

Webstor: (sighs) Look, sooner or later, you two are gonna have to overcome those fears of yours.

Number 7: Just think about it, ok? (she and Webstor teleport out)

Nico: Well that was weird. Leni one of these days we're gonna have to help you get over your fear of spiders.

Leni: Okay.

Battle 2: Boomer Kuwanger

Lynn was facing Boomer Kuwanger.

Lynn: Lets dance!

Boomer Kuwanger: Lets!

Lynn went at Boomer Kuwanger and kicked him and fired a powerful wave of lava at him and burned him all over. And it even melted him into nothing.

We all got his Boomerang Cutter weapon.

Battle 3: Misty Tredwell

Jessie Knudson, Akiza Izinski and Lily Loud were facing Misty Tredwell.

Jessie K.: It's really awesome facing you Misty.

Misty Tredwell: Indeed. You know a lot about history right Jessie?

Jessie K.: That's right. They call me the history master of the team.

Misty Tredwell: I can tell. Then you know all about the cultures of Pre-Colombian lore right?

Jessie K.: I sure do. Pre-Colombian History has always been very fascinating to me. Especially with the origins of the Nazca Lines.

Akiza: But the Nazca Lines are the prisons of the Earthbound Immortals.

Jessie K.: That's right. But I found out that they were actually made in real life in Peru back between 200 BC and 700 AD.

Misty Tredwell: That's interesting.

Lily: Really interesting.

Jessie K.: Lets show you some other unique aspects of Pre-Colombian history. I summon CHRONOMALY GOLDEN JET, NUMBER 36: CHRONOMALY CHATEAU HUYUK, NUMBER 33: CHRONOMALY MACHU MECH, CHRONOMALY SOL MONOLITH, and CHRONOMALY NEBRA DISK!

Jessie summoned said monsters.

Lily: Whoa! Those are cool ones!

Jessie K.: There's a lot of history that these monsters are based off of. Golden Jet here is based on the Golden Jet artifacts found in Colombia.

The Golden Jets were said to have been carved by the Quimbaya culture between 1000 and 1500 AD. Some archaeologists believe that they are simply stylized insects, while some ancient astronaut theorists believe this is a clear depiction of a space craft from extraterrestrial visitors.

Misty Tredwell: Very interesting. I never kew about that.

Jessie K.: Chateau Huyuk is based on the Çatalhöyük archaeology sight in Turkey. That is a very famous dig sight that has a historical record dating back to 7100 to 5700 B.C.

Lily: Whoa! That's over 9000 years ago!

Akiza: Really amazing!

Misty Tredwell: Really amazing indeed.

Jessie K.: Yep. Machu Mech is based on the Incan city Machu Picchu.

Akiza: I remember reading about Machu Picchu. It's an amazing city.

Jessie K.: Yep. History dating to 1450 A.D.

Lily: I remember seeing Machu Picchu on our worldwide trip.

Jessie K.: It was really cool. Grandma Patti's dream is to go to Machu Picchu.

Misty Tredwell: Wow.

Jessie K.: Sol Monolith is based on the Mayan Calendar.

Misty Tredwell: I've read about the Mayan Calendar. It was used to tell the future by the Mayans centuries ago.

Jessie K.: That's right. It was also used as the tool to find out when the world will end. It was supposed to end on December 21st, 2012. But they found out that one of the runes on the calendar had been mistranslated. It is said to be ending in the year 3000.

Lily: (Gasp) The apocalyptic future that J.D. came from when that asteroid smashed into the Earth!

Jessie K.: Yep. And Nebra Disk is based on the Nebra Sky Disk. It's an ancient disk that predicts the orbits of the Sun, The Moon, The Stars and the times of the Seasons.

Akiza: Wow! That's incredible!

Lily: It sure is.

Misty Tredwell: Never knew about that.

Lily: Me neither. Really amazing.

Jessie K.: Yep. I chose cards that are based on artifacts or events in history for me because of my love for history.

Misty Tredwell: That explains your reason for choosing the monsters in the deck.

Jessie K.: Yep.

Akiza: Lets get down to business. I summon BLACK ROSE DRAGON!

She summoned her Black Rose Dragon.

Lily: Watch this one. I summon CURE MERMAID, ENCHANTED MERMAID, ICE WATER, AMAZON OF THE SEA, MERMAID ARCHER, RED ARCHERY GIRL, AQUA SPIRIT and WINGWEAVER!

Misty Tredwell: Very awesome selection. I summon EARTHBOUND IMMORTAL CCARAYHUA and DRAGON QUEEN OF TRAGIC ENDINGS!

Misty summoned said monsters and they were terrifying. Earthbound Immortal Ccarayhua was a scary green lizard and Dragon Queen of Tragic Endings looked like a dragon of plants.

Jessie K.: WHOA! So that's Ccarayhua!

Lily: Really terrifying!

Akiza: I know.

Jessie K.: Lets do it!

They fired energy blasts and fire blasts and more and they slammed into Ccarayhua and the Dragon Queen and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion blew them apart and Misty lost.

Jessie K.: Misty, you will always be a great fashion designer in the eyes of many. You have incredible looks like that many people love and you are still a good person deep down.

Misty Tredwell: I appreciate that Jessie.

Jessie K.: It's never too late for you to join the side of good and use the powers you were given as a Dark Signer to do the right thing. Do it for your brother Toby.

Misty Tredwell: I will consider it Jessie. Thank you.

Misty vanished in a green flash of light.

Akiza: You have a good heart on you Jessie and you have an amazing knowledge of the worlds history.

Jessie K.: Thanks Akiza.

Suddenly Akiza felt an incredibly excruciating pain in her back.

Lily: Akiza!

Akiza: (Groaning) My back!

Jessie K.: What's wrong!?

Suddenly Akiza's clothes transformed into a beautiful red China kimono and she had beautiful black shoes and black gloves and then suddenly red rose flower wings exploded out of her back and they gave off an incredibly beautiful scent of roses. Akiza had gotten her own angel powers!

Jessie K.: Whoa! Akiza you look incredible!

Akiza: (Panting) What happened?

Lily: You transformed. You got amazing Rose Angel Wings.

Jessie K.: Yeah look.

Jessie formed a mirror and Akiza saw that she was right!

Akiza: Whoa! How did this happen!?

Jessie K.: I don't know for certain. But I think it might have something to do with our duel. But again I don't know.

Lily: But you look amazing Akiza.

Akiza: Thanks Lily.

Lily: (Sniffs) And your wings smell incredible.

Akiza: (Sniffs) They sure do.

Jessie K.: It's very fragrant.

Battle 5: Kip and Bedierman

We all regrouped and we were facing Kip and Beiderman. I punched Kip in the face and kicked him in the crotch.

Me: Maybe you should lose an arm to go with that pegleg of yours.

Kip: You wretch!

Me: Don't try to flatter me!

Edwayl: This will hurt you! CELTIC STYLE NINJA ART: WALKING WITH THE ANCESTORS!

Edwayl fired a blast of green energy and it turned into a bunch of Celtic monks and they fired blasts of energy and they hit Kip and Bedierman and exploded.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOM

Laney: Nice one! CELTIC STYLE NINJA ART: MORRIGAN!

In the heart of the city I was walking down the street while humming to myself.

Me: (Humming Rawhide by the Blues Brothers)

But a bunch of figures were following me. It was the remnants of Team Rocket. As I was walking down the street, I sensed the men from Team Rocket.

Me: Huh?

I fired blasts of energy and sent them flying in fiery explosions.

KRABBBOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

They were sent flying until they became a star in the sky.

Me: Those fuckpots just will never learn.

Later I was shopping at the mall and the Team Rocket Remnants were back.

I fired more energy blasts and sent them flying again in fiery explosions.

KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!

Team Rocket Remnants: TEAM ROCKET'S BLASTING OFF AGAIN! (TING!)

They were sent flying out of the mall roof.

Me: (Sighs) Idiots.

Everyone cheered for me.

---

Later at the grocery store, I was picking up some food for Lynn Sr. and the Estate. I had 5 carts with me.

Me: Lets see here Eggs…

I Picked up 8 cartons of 18 eggs.

A Team Rocket man was in the freezer and I punched him in the face.

POW!

I sent him crashing into the wall.

I moved the carts.

Me: Milk…

I picked up 10 jugs of milk that were fat free and put them in the carts.

I moved the carts and went to the cereal.

Me: Everyone's favorite cereals…

I picked 75 different cereals.

I later went to the produce section and picked a bunch of fruit and vegetables.

Me: Oranges, cherries, berries…

I picked a bunch of cartons and bags of said fruit.

I sensed more men from Team Rocket behind me.

Me: You Team Rocket Fucksuckers have no idea who you are dealing with. MOUNTAIN STYLE NINJA ART: THREE SISTERS!

I stomped the ground and the remnants of Team Rocket were launched into the air by huge mounds of earth that sent them through the roof.

Team Rocket Remnants: NOT AGAIN! (TING)

I fixed the store and paid for the food.

I arrived back home and dropped the groceries off.

Me: I'm back.

Nico: How'd the shopping go?

Me: Good man. Team Rocket's Remnants have been following me like a bunch of ravenous fangirls.

Lynn Sr.: (Offscreen) Thanks for the groceries J.D.!

Me: No problem Mr. Lynn.

Lincoln: Those guys just will never learn.

Me: Evil never does.

Laney: Yep. We're getting ready to have Aqua, Kairi, Xion and Namine turn into Street Sharks temporarily.

Me: Cool!

Aqua: We're ready.

Aqua, Kairi, Xion and Namine came down. They were dressed in old shirts and shorts and skirts.

Me: Nice outfits girls.

Aqua: Thanks. Wanted to find something for us to rip out of.

Me: All right. Lets head to the lake.

We headed to the lake.

We did so and we were ready.

Jessie (Pokemon): Are you 4 ready to become Street Sharks temporarily?

Jessie's Seviper: Seviper!

Aqua: We're ready.

Xion: Yep.

Me: Just so you know, this is gonna hurt really bad. The Bolton Siblings went through this and it hurt really bad.

Stacy: It sure did.

John Bolton: Yep.

Namine: We can handle it.

Me: Okay. But it will only last for 15 minutes.

Xion: Okay.

Kairi: Can you hold my ring for me Sora?

Sora: Sure.

Kairi took off her ring and handed it to him.

Me: Ready girls? Here we go.

I snapped my fingers and they were groaning in excruciating pain! Aqua's skin turned dark blue, her muscles grew and her teeth and hair fell out.

Cornelia: (Xion holds her head in pain) You okay, Xion?

Xion: Not really. It feels like my eyes are pushing out of my head!

Xion's skin turned brown and her eyes grew on stalks.

Kairi's skin turned Aqua Blue with purple stripes. They grew shark fins and their heads turned into sharks heads. Aqua was now half Great White Shark, Kairi was half Tiger Shark, Xion was half Hammerhead and Namine was half Whale Shark!

Motormaster: So, how do you girls feel?

Aqua: Amazing!

Kairi: This is so cool!

Me: Take a look.

I formed a mirror and they saw themselves and they looked awesome!

Namine: Whoa! This is amazing!

John Bolton: It's cool seeing what we look like as sharks on the outside.

Clint Bolton: No kidding. I forgot how cool we looked.

Bobby Bolton: Yeah.

Stacy: This is awesome dudes.

Rodimus Prime: At least you 4 still have your shorts and skirts.

Aqua: That's true.

Me: (Senses something) Want to see what you all can do as Street Sharks? We got Remnants of Team Rocket coming in at 5:00.

Leni: 5:00? It's 2:00 now.

Laney: No Leni, it means they are coming from the South Southeast.

That way. (Points to said direction)

Aqua: Lets get them!

Kairi: Yeah!

Girls: SHARK ATTACK!

They went at the Team Rocket Remnants and Aqua punched a mans head off and he splattered blood all over the place and Kairi bit a mans leg off and he screamed in really bad pain.

Me: EWWW!

Nico: Brutal!

Namine: (Echoing) SEISMIC SLAM! 9.5!

Namine punched the ground and we felt a massive tremor and it knocked a bunch of men down and Xion smashed them in half with her head and literally disemboweled them all!

Me: Gruesome and action packed!

Lola fired blasts of fire and incinerated the men.

Me: Awesome job girls!

Bolton Siblings: JAWSOME!

Aqua: Thanks guys. If I was like this forever, I would be called Aquabite.

Kairi: Lightstreak.

Xion: Lightjab.

Namine: Lightslam.

Bolton Siblings: Righteous!

Stacy: Great names!

Me: Those names rock! And perfect timing too. 10 seconds left. Boys cover your eyes.

We did so.

Aqua: It was really fun.

Kairi: Yep.

Xion: It sure was.

Namine: Yeah!

Me: 3… 2… 1…

I covered my eyes and the girls were in excruciating pain as they started reverting back to human. They regained their hair, teeth and skin and shrunk down and they got back to human. Maria, Teresa and Leni gave them towels to cover themselves.

Aqua: Thanks guys.

They put the towels on.

We uncovered our eyes.

Me: So what did you girls think?

Aqua: It was awesome being half shark.

Xion: It sure was.

Kairi: Yep.

Namine: It was cool though.

John Bolton: Glad you girls had so much fun.

Lynn then came out.

Lynn: Guys we got trouble!

Me: Uh oh!

We went to the computer and we found out that Tony Montana A.K.A. Scarface is causing a lot of problems and rival mob boss Alejandro Sosa has ordered his men to kill Tony Montana. It was all happening over in Bogota, Colombia.

---

Antonio "Tony" Raimundo Montana is the titular protagonist villian of the 1983 epic crime drama film Scarface, which is a loose remake of the 1932 film of the same name. Tony Montana was a former Cuban soldier, who was imprisoned in Cuba along with his friends Angel and Manny. However, he later fled and departed to Miami as a Cuban refugee in the Mariel Boatlift in 1980.

He was portrayed by Al Pacino, who also played Michael Corleone in The Godfather trilogy, Big Boy in Dick Tracy, John Milton in The Devil's Advocate, Willy Bank in Ocean's Thirteen, David Fisk in Righteous Kill, and Roy Cohn in Angels in America. In the upcoming remake, he will be portrayed by Diego Luna, who also played Jonah Pincerna in Blood Father.

Antonio "Tony" Raimundo Montana was a Cuban refugee that escaped from Cuba and arrived at Miami to build a criminal career. At first he worked for drug lord Frank Lopez and fell in love with the latter's girlfriend Elvira Hancock. He then forged a relationship with cocaine kingpin Alejandro Sosa in Bolivia. When Frank discovered that Tony was getting out of hand in the business, their business relationship ends. Frank later sent hitmen to murder him but failed, after which Tony killed him in retaliation.

Next, Tony got all of Frank's illegal powers and started his own drug empire, married Elvira and started getting into business with Sosa. While on a mission in New York, Tony was commissioned to kill a senator with a bomb under his car; upon knowing that the senator was accompanied by his wife and children, Tony aborted the mission, thus double-crossing Sosa (much to the latter's fury). Back in Miami, Tony went to the house of his best friend Manny and found him with his sister Gina Montana, not knowing that the two were married. Tony then crossed the Moral Event Horizon after shooting and then killing his faithful friend Manny because of the love he had for his sister, though he quickly regretted this action.

Later, Sosa sent a group of his own men to raid Tony's mansion and kill him; all of Tony's men were taken out, including his sister. After a furious gun battle with Sosa's men, Tony was heavily injured due to his high on cocaine in which he never bothered to take cover. He is ultimately shot in the back by Sosa's chief assassin, The Skull, with a double-barreled shotgun. Tony's corpse then fell into the fountain below, while the camera is in front of a statue reading "The World is Yours".

Scarface: The World Is Yours

The game begins in the film's final scene, with Tony's mansion being raided by Sosa's assassins. In a point of divergence from the film, Tony detects and kills the Skull. With the assistance of some of his surviving employees, Tony manages to escape.

Sosa is then informed that Tony's mansion has been seized and his massive drug empire has been reduced to nothing. Hiding in a safe house located outside of Miami, Tony regrets the decisions he has made, chastises himself for Manny and Gina's death, and never listens to the advice of others because of being a bullhead and makes a vow to stop using cocaine which led to his downfall, he then swears revenge on Sosa and promises to kill anyone who's in league with his nemesis.

Three months after the mansion shootout, Tony returns to Miami. Since everyone assumes he is dead, all of his assets have been seized and the districts of Miami that he used to dominate have been divided between other drug cartels. Tony's first action is to ask George Sheffield to become his lawyer again. Sheffield reluctantly agrees to this, but at a higher cost than before - Tony's influence throughout the city is gone and he has no choice but to accept it.

Starting off again by selling cocaine to personal dealers, Tony manages to pay off the police to get his mansion back and travels to confront Gaspar Gomez at his penthouse. Despite Gomez not being there, Tony kills his head of security and many of his men, steals a satellite phone for his personal use and hijacks an armored van carrying $50,000, enabling him to open a new bank account. He reconnects with his original banker Jerry, who has since been promoted and although he feels unsafe, he has faith in Tony and agrees to work with him again. Tony then proceeds to take over Little Havana, claiming all of its businesses and turfs, severely weakening the Diaz Cartel. While taking a break at the Babylon Club, Tony is attacked by assassins sent by the Diaz Brothers. One assassin informs Tony that his mother has been slain. Tony murders the Diaz Brothers in retaliation and takes their territory.

One of Sheffield's associates, Pablo (Wilmer Valderrama), lures Tony to Freedom Town with the promise of information on his missing ex-wife Elvira. However, this meeting turns out to be an ambush, but Tony survives. After killing Pablo during a speedboat chase, he adds Sheffield to his hit-list. Tony takes Downtown from the Contreras cartel. He allies with the Sandman, a coke producer in a set of Caribbean islands south of Miami. He finds Nacho Contreras there as well, controlling a floating casino. After a chase through said boat, a wounded Nacho is killed by a shark. After this, Tony slaughters what is left of the Contreras Cartel, seizing control of another tanker belonging to Nacho, which he used to smuggle drugs into Miami. Tony uses the new ship and various ex-Nacho workers to establish a supply line.

Tony slowly takes North Beach and South Beach for his own, fulfilling the various business missions and conquering the storehouses. He now controls Miami, however his supply lines are weak. The Sandman says he is going to war with the Colombians. Tony assists and drives the enemy's influence from the Islands. However, before he can celebrate, the Colombians take over Tranqilandia, a small island that is owned by the Sandman, and a crucial drugs base for the Montana Cartel. Tony takes it back, killing the Colombians, rescuing the Sandman's workers, and preventing the Colombians from seizing the cocaine there. Finally, everything is clear on the Islands. The Montana Cartel's power rises and Tony Montana becomes even wealthier and more powerful than ever before. Finally, he has gathered the strength to destroy Sosa, and heads to Bolivia.

Meanwhile, Sosa is hosting a sit-down in his exotic mansion. Sheffield and Gomez are with, discussing the problem of Montana. The man himself crashes the meeting. Tony moves through the grounds, killing Sosa's security detail before going to proceed in executing both Sheffield and Gomez. Tony then confronts Sosa in his living room and they discuss the situation from the movie where Tony refused to kill children. Shortly afterwards, Tony kills Sosa, fulfilling his revenge. On his way out, Tony finds one of Sosa's men still alive. The survivor begs for his life on the basis of his family and Tony offers him a job.

The game ends with that surviving henchman now serving as Tony's butler, Venus as his new wife and Tony's empire restored to full power and wealth. Tony finally has the "world" that he felt was coming to him, and with all competition eliminated, the Montana Cartel is the most powerful drug cartel in 1980's Miami.

Me: Tony Montana!?

Laney: From the 1983 movie Scarface!?

Lincoln: Whoa! I've heard about Tony Montana. He's really bad news!

Clyde: Really bad news. This guy is said to be wanted all over by Interpol.

Me: Yep. He has done it all. Drug trafficking, murder, money laundering, treason, the works. And not only that but he has been messing with some big time badass sons of bitches in the South American Mafia.

Lincoln: Which ones?

Me: He's messing around with infamous drug cartels and mob bosses from Colombia, Brazil, Uruguay and Bolivia.

Varie: Who is he messing with?

Me: This guy.

I pulled up the information for Bolivian Mob Boss Alejandro Sosa.

---

Alejandro Sosa is the main antagonist of the 1983 epic crime drama film Scarface, and the 2006 videogame Scarface: The World is Yours. He is a powerful international drug lord at Bolivia and Tony Montana's former friend up until the latter betrayed him.

In the film, he was portrayed by the late Paul Shenar, who also played Jenner in Don Bluth's The Secret of NIMH. In the video game, he was voiced by Robert Davi, who also played Franz Sanchez in Licence to Kill.

Biography

Not much is known about Sosa's past except that he was educated in England.

Sosa is first seen in Bolivia giving Tony Montana and Omar Suarez a tour of his drug factory. It turns out he could have talked to Frank Lopez in person, but with his trial going on, he sends Tony and Omar to go to Sosa. While having lunch in his mansion, Tony makes a dangerous risk to Sosa, something neither Frank nor Omar would want. The latter and Tony argue about this as Sosa gets a phone call. Afterwards, he offers Omar a ride back to Miami by helicopter. Then, Sosa reveals to Tony that Omar is a police informant responsible for sending gang members to jail. Therefore, a helicopter ride from Sosa is a trap to get him killed. As Omar is hanged by being threw from the helicopter, Sosa reveals his disdain towards Frank and wants Tony to work with him. However, he has one condition: do not betray him.

Later, when Tony (who now has built a multi-million-dollar empire) is sent to jail for tax evasion, Sosa invites him again to Bolivia to help him. He introduces him to more of his friends. It turns out they have a problem and working together will be the solution. Sosa shows Tony a video of a journalist revealing Sosa's shady dealings to the entire world. He needed him to be killed to prevent this action from happening. Tony reluctantly agrees to do the job along Alberto the Shadow, Sosa's bomber who is slated to blow up the car while Tony drives the vehicle. If Tony does the task, Sosa will use his government connections to give him immunity from going to jail.

However, the selected day, when the journalist departed from a hotel in which he had a conference, Tony and his allies discovered that the activist was going to be accompanied by his wife and his children. Neverthless, Alberto was still determinant to kill the journalist anyway. Tony, not wanting to kill the journalist's wife and children, calls off the mission and executes Alberto with a headshot, double-crossing Sosa in the process. Sosa later called Tony after this to inform him that the bomb was discovered under the journalist's car and now he was being protected much more. Furious, Sosa decides to send his henchmen after Tony but not before reminding Tony of the warning he previously gave to him about not betraying him.

Eventually, Sosa send his henchmen in order to get revenge for the sabotage. Although they managed to execute Montana's security and Montana's sister Gina, Tony was able to kill many of them. However, The Skull, one of Sosa's assassins, ultimately and fatally shot Tony in the back, killing him and avenging his betrayal. It's completely unknown what happened to Sosa after this, but it could be possible that the corrupt Bolivian government officials and flag officers ultimately revealed the story which had the possibility to have Sosa executed in the electric chair. If that did not happen, however, Sosa most likely resumed his operations at Bolivia from that point onwards.

---

Me: Alejandro Sosa. One of the richest and most well known Crime Lords in all of Bolivia. He is wanted by Interpol. Same with Tony Montana.

Nico: These guys are really bad news.

Me: Big time.

Batman: Is the Scarface I know inspired from the human version?

Me: Yep. He is. Lets get him guys. But first I got to have someone come with.

Nico: Okay.

I went to my dad's study.

I knocked on the door.

Sumner: Come in.

I came in.

Me: Hey dad.

Sumner: What's up?

Me: Me and everyone are going after Tony Montana. You might know him as Scarface.

Sumner: Scarface is back!?

Me: He is.

Sumner got a look of determination on his face.

Sumner: Let me come with you.

Me: I was just about to ask for if you wanted to come with us. But awesome.

Sumner: Let me get ready.

Sumner get ready by putting on a camouflage army uniform and he was armed with a 12-Gauge Automatic Rifle, a Tavor Machine Gun with a grenade launcher and he had an elephant gun rifle and many cartridges in belts. He also had a knife and many grenades as well as an M-31 Minigun. Dad came out and he was ready. He also had a bullet-proof vest on. He looked like he was ready to go into war.

Me: Whoa! Dad you look awesome!

Sumner: Thanks J.D.

Me: You ready to kill that fucked up son of a fucking bitch?

Sumner: I sure am. Lets send that fucker off to hell.

Me: With pleasure.

We were ready.

Me and dad came.

Nico: Wow! Mr. Knudson you look awesome!

Sumner: Thanks Nico.

Lincoln: So you are coming with us Mr. Knudson?

Sumner: Lets just say that I have an old score to settle with Tony Montana.

Vince: Wicked.

Hunter: (German Accent) Lets make that Lebensverschwendung versaut pay with his life.

Lana: What did he say?

Me: That means Fucked Up Waste of Life in German.

Nico: I like it.

Me: Lets roll!

We were off to Bogota, Colombia. One of the most Lawless Cities in the world.

---

BOGOTA, COLOMBIA

---

At the house of Tony Montana it was erupting into a massacre! It was a massive war with Tony Montana and the men of Alejandro Sosa.

Tony Montana: You think I'm a deadbeat!? You'll need a fucking army if you want to play with me! Come on! I'll take you all to fucking hell! Come on! Come on.

He fired his gun at some men.

Tony Montana: Who do you think you're fucking with man? I'm Tony Montana! You fuck with me, you're fucking with the best!

Sosa's men fired and hit him all over. But he was so wired on Cocaine that he was being kept alive.

All of Sosa's men were hitting him all over. But then…

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion erupted out from underneath Sosa's men and sent them flying all over the place and a phoenix cry was heard. A blast of lightning hit a man behind Tony Montana and killed him.

We came out of the explosion and we were ready to fight.

Me: Tony Montana, we have come for you.

Tony Montana: You have no idea who you are fucking with!

Me: We know exactly who we are fucking with and it's you!

Sumner: You and I have an old score to settle Montana.

Tony Montana: Sumner Knudson! You motherfucking asshole! I will kill you for giving me this scar!

Me: No one talks that way to my dad!

Tony Montana: So you are Sumner's son!

Me: And we are gonna kill you! You all face Tony Montana and Sosa's men. Me and dad will face this fucking shitkicker.

Nico: With pleasure.

Sumner: Lets get him!

Me and dad went up to him and all of Tony Montana's men came and Sosa's men got up.

Ben turned into Diamondhead.

Ben: DIAMONDHEAD!

Sosa's men fired bullets at him.

Diamondhead: (bullets bounce off him) Does the word "diamond" ring a bell at all to you guys?

Nico: Obviously not. Lets get them!

Orion: Let's see how these gangsters deal with this Legendary Mode!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Sixth Ranger Mode!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Sixth Rangers. Troy turned into the Magna Defender from Lost Galaxy, Noah turned into the Titanium Ranger from Lightspeed Rescue, Jake turned into the Quantum Ranger from Time Force, Gia turned into the Lunar Wolf Ranger from Wild Force, Emma turned into the White Mystic Force Ranger from Mystic Force, and Orion turned into the Gold Samurai Ranger from Samurai.

They went at them and Lincoln fired blasts of lightning and electrocuted a bunch of them with 500 billion volts of electricity! He unsheathed the Sword of Tengu and slashed numerous men and cut their heads off as blood splattered everywhere all over the place. Laney fired numerous poison barbs and they hit one man and poisoned him with Strychnine Ω and he died in an instant and dissolved into a pile of green slop that dissolved through the floor of the compound. Lori formed a sword of wind and viciously disemboweled a man and splattered his intestines and entrails all over the place and she slashed his chest open and ripped his beating heart out of his chest and shoved it down another man's throat and Lana stabbed a man in his crotch with a sword and she formed a gun of ice and blew his whole head clean off. Eion fired blasts of fire and incinerated them and reduced them to ash.

Liberty: Try this! ALIEN STYLE NINJA ART: HYSTERIA SWARM!

Liberty touched the ground and a weird orange mass went out of her fingers. It was a swarm of tiny creatures from the planet Aurelia called The Hysteria.

---

The Hysterias are microscopic predators living in big swarms. They look like tadpoles with big teeth, but as a group they appear as a yellow current.

Living in the waters of the big Stingerfan-forests of Aurelia they communicate chemically and act perfectly together. A Hysteria-Swarm is able to kill and eat everything, from a Mudpod to a Stingerfan, even a Gulphog, because the swarm acts like one organism. They kill their prey by injecting them with neurotoxins and consuming the corpse.

In the cases of larger prey such as Gulphogs, they swarm up to land and bite into the prey's foot. After consuming the prey's body and innards, the Hysteria-Swarm builds itself into a mushroom that bursts into eggs that hatch into more Hysterias.

---

The swarm crawled and it touched numerous men and they screamed in excruciating pain and they died in an instant. Then they started to be consumed from the inside out and then they were reduced to nothing more than skeletons in seconds.

Liberty smiled.

Liberty: The Hysteria are satisfied.

Lily formed a sword of water and slashed a leg off of a man!

Nico: Try this on. KLENDATHU STYLE NINJA ART: TANKER BUG FLESH-EATING ACID!

Nico formed a ball of electricity in his fingers and fired a wave of flamable fire acid and it hit a bunch of Sosa's men and they screamed in excruciating pain as they were melted in fiery acid.

Nico: You douchebags have no idea who you all are fucking with!

Lola: No they don't!

Lola fired a massive wave of fire and burned many men. Carol fired blasts of Gravity Lightning and blew the men apart in a gruesome and bloody fashion. Splattering their blood and guts all over the place.

Liberty: Try handling these ugly flyers! ALIEN STYLE NINJA ART: FLYING FEAST OF THE SKEWERS!

Liberty fired a wave of energy into the air and they formed into the fierce aerial predators of Darwin IV: The Skewers!

---

Skewers are monstrous flying animals, possessing a wingspan of approximately 15 meters (49 feet) and when combined with their sleek body structure and wide range of habitat, prove them to have no rivals more potent than they. They are the largest aerial predators on all of Darwin IV, and are both prey and predator to the planet's near-sapient species, the Eosapiens. Even Arrowtongues are not beyond vulnerability to their swooping attacks. Their species generally travel in mated pairs, but can be found less frequently in small, flying pods, using the planet's strong air currents to help migrate them from pole to pole.

Skewers are reminiscently jet-like in shape, and like presumably all other predators on their world, hunt by sonar. They hunt in small packs, and use a huge, curved hollow nasal-lance protruding from their heads, which they use to impale and disembowel their prey. Once prey has been impaled, they go into a steep climb to offset the shift in their center of gravity caused by the impaled prey. They then proceed to inject their sometimes still-living prey with digestive enzymes as any other liquivore would do, and soon begin sucking the corpse's fluids out of its now-lifeless body. Each Skewer will alternate between feeding, and dropping their prey, letting other members of their pod to feed as well. This performance appears to be almost playful, and does not stop until the prey is finally completely drained of all its fluids. Skewers have been known to kill for sport, and even for fun. The shriveled husks of such victims can be found virtually everywhere upon Darwin IV's surface.

Their species maneuver through the air by propelling themselves through the use of internally created methane gas, which is then combusted within the four jet-pods located on its wings, in a way again reminiscent of modern-day jet propelled aircraft of Earth. This is coupled with the movements of their wings. They do not flap but squeeze (similar to accordions), shifting their shape in order to shift flight patterns. With these two adaptations, they are capable of traveling at speeds of up to 322 kilometers per hour (200 miles per hour), making them likely the fastest species on Darwin IV as well as the largest aerial predator.

The two Skewers impaled 3 men with their lances and they killed them in really gruesome manners. They were drained of their fluids in a sporting fashion.

Lucy fired blasts of lightning at some of Sosa's men and they were electrocuted and Luan fired blasts of light into some of Tony Montana's eyes and permanently blinded them and Lensay blasted them with red light blasts and bisected them in half. * * *

Prongheads are a Darwinian species of agile, well-muscled pack hunters filling a similar niche as the Wolf from Earth. They are named for the three hollow prongs which protrude from their face, acting as tubes to siphon liquids from their prey. Digestive fluids are pumped into their victims through a pair of tubes on the sides of their foot spurs. A larger central tube is used to ingest this, now liqueous, food. They exhibit highly developed social behavior, working as a team, stalking their prey from all directions in an attempt to surround it.

Me: Huh? Uh oh. We have company.

?: You have more worries.

We turned and we saw another Dark Signer! It was KALIN KESSLER - THE DARK SIGNER OF THE GIANT!

---

Kalin Kessler, known as Kyosuke Kiryu in the Japanese version, was a former member of the Dark Signers and was a resident of Satisfaction Town. He is the best friend of Yusei Fudo and the closest friends with Jack Atlas and Crow Hogan.

During his time as a Dark Signer, Kalin wore the black robe of the Dark Signers that was accented with blue stripes. His dark mark was the Giant. He had extreme hatred toward Yusei Fudo and his previous team (The Enforcers), but later forgave them after he found out the truth from his loss to Yusei. He was brought back to life after Goodwin's defeat. He was last seen in Crash Town, where Kalin attempted suicide by Dueling in order to atone for his wrongdoing, only to be forgiven for them by his former teammates, Yusei Fudo, Jack Atlas and Crow Hogan. He later stayed behind to help rebuild the town along with West and Nico, which was later renamed Satisfaction Town to cherish his team's honor.

Kalin was once the leader of The Enforcers (Team Satisfaction in the original version), which consisted of himself, Yusei Fudo, Crow Hogan and Jack Atlas. He met with the trio for the first time when he approached them with the idea for the Team. He fought for his own ideals and unique sense of unity and gave his team a true glimpse of hope under the despairing circumstances of the Satellite.

The team managed to conquer all the team areas in the Satellite by beating the other Duel Gangs. During the face-off with the final gang, one of them almost killed Yusei by pushing him off the roof, but Kalin saved him.

After conquering all the zones in Satellite, Kalin got into a fight with a kid from Team Insect, something that prompted Crow and Jack to go against Kalin and leave the team. Later, when Sector Security began arresting Duelists in Satellite, Kalin decided to take action into his own hands and blew up a part of the Security base, and he seemed happy that he did it. At this point, Yusei left as well. The abandonment felt at the Enforcers' dissolution caused Kalin to become obsessed with ruling Satellite forever and reuniting his group for their last Duel against Security. He was eventually pursued by Security until his former teammates came to his rescue. However, neither Crow, Jack or Yusei believed they could defeat Security, so Kalin confronted a Security guard on a Duel Runner and ended up driving through a bunch of crates, which severely injured the guard. Before he could finish him off, Yusei interfered and isolated him in a room. Yusei then decided to call himself the leader of the Enforcers in the hopes that they wouldn't arrest Kalin. But security found Kalin and arrested him for injuring a guard. One of the Security members had already figured out that Kalin was the leader and Yusei tried to convince that he was the Enforcer's leader; Kalin saw Yusei trying to convince Security to let him go, and he mistakenly believed that Yusei had him purposely arrested. Kalin attempted to fight him, but was held back by Security and was arrested.

In the Facility, Kalin was painfully imprinted with a criminal mark, and the prison guards constantly beat him up and intentionally withheld his food rations. Although he claimed that he could survive the abuse, his resistance was weakened when Security took his Deck, which was his most prized possession. After that, Kalin was seen in a cell, near death from starvation, when a voice spoke to him, calling itself a Messenger from beyond the Twilight (the "Envoy of the Underworld" in the Japanese version) who came with a proposition: If Kalin had some sort of unfinished business, he could come back to complete it as a Dark Signer. Because of his grudge against Yusei and his wish to fight the last battle with Team Satisfaction, Kalin accepted, died of starvation and was reborn as a Dark Signer (In the English Dub, it was Roman speaking to him telepathically). At some point after that, he escaped prison and eventually joined up with the other 3 Dark Signers: Roman, Devack, and Misty. They were all under Roman's leadership.

Dark Signers

Kalin was waiting for Yusei who had been accompanied by Crow, and as they both entered the B.A.D. area, Yusei and Crow were both shocked to see him. He jumped on his Duel Runner and created a shadow barrier in the process, which suddenly formed, and separated Crow and Yusei. The barrier began to take the shape of his mark, the Giant. Kalin then exclaimed that he would take down Yusei, as their Shadow Turbo Duel was about to begin.

Before the Duel started, Jack appeared in a helicopter, Kalin exclaimed that the Enforcers were together again. The Duel began with Kalin gaining total control and him telling Yusei to suffer. Throughout the whole Duel, Kalin laughed hysterically when referencing their past together. Yusei pleaded with Kalin to stop, and reminded him how he had saved Yusei's life years ago. Yusei still didn't understand why Kalin hated him. Then after Kalin's direct attack, he remembered. Yusei had stopped Kalin from escaping arrest after he almost killed one of the Sector Security's squad members. Yusei Summoned "Stardust Dragon", but Kalin countered by Summoning his "Earthbound Immortal" "Ccapac Apu", which nearly ended the Duel. However, before he could claim victory, Yusei's Duel Runner malfunctioned, and critically injured Yusei. Upon seeing this, Kalin laughed and ended the Duel without a victory, and told Yusei to suffer the same pain that he had endured.

When he returned to the headquarters of the Dark Signers, Roman asked him why he did not kill Yusei. Kalin replied that he would do so if all Dark Signers were present. He also said that he would let Yusei live in fear after he witnessed the power of his Earthbound Immortal.

He was present along with the rest of the Dark Signers when they all confronted the Signers right after Yusei's and Roman's first Duel concluded. He tried to degrade Yusei by calling him weak, however Yusei's opposite reaction to that comment surprised him.

After Yusei finally arrived at the Giant tower, he and Kalin began their rematch and told him that this would be the Enforcers' last Duel. He continued to use his Handless Combo strategy. He eventually Summoned his Dark Synchro Monster "One Hundred-Eyed Dragon" once again and assaulted Yusei with its effect. After Yusei destroyed it, Kalin revealed to him the horrible incidents that occurred to him while being a prisoner before he became a Dark Signer.

As Kalin said to Yusei that by accepting his fate, he could return to show Yusei the fear that he had felt at the time. Intending to do this through his "Earthbound Immortal" card, he then Summoned "Ccapac Apu" once again, and tried to finally defeat Yusei with it. However, as Yusei managed to fend off the Immortal's assault, the Immortal itself began to trash the ground where the Duel was taking place. As Kalin began to have some difficulties with this, Yusei extended his hand to offer his help, which symbolized the occasion where Kalin risked his life to save Yusei. However, Kalin rejected it, and stated that it was too late and that it was completely pointless. After this, Yusei Summoned "Majestic Star Dragon", and it ultimately took down "Ccapac Apu".

By this, Kalin lost, and in the end, not only did he make peace with Yusei, but also reveals to him that he had another purpose besides revenge when he transformed into a Dark Signer; Kalin also wanted to carry out the Enforcers' Last Duel. Following that, Kalin finally turned to dust.

Kalin was the third Dark Signer to be defeated.

When Rex Goodwin was defeated in the final battle, and the King of the Netherworld was destroyed, Kalin was restored to life, along with the other Dark Signers except for Roman and Goodwin himself.

After these events, he was gone on a trip, according to Luna.

Crash Town

Following the events of the Dark Signers, Kalin resided in a town that was ruled by Dueling. His appearance had gradually changed over the course of time; his hair was much longer than before and he wore a trench coat. He also carried around a harmonica around his neck (which he often played) and his personality showed no emotion; when he did show any emotion, it was of sadness, concern, or pity. He followed the gang leader Radley, and a bunch of Duelists that dominated part of Crash Town. Barbara told Yusei that Kalin had come to this town to die. Kalin said that he had forgotten the meaning of words such as satisfaction. He Dueled one of the members of another gang led by Malcolm and ultimately won against his opponent. After the Duel, Yusei tried to talk to him, but he gave no reply as he rode off with Radley's gang.

After the Duel Kalin was in the gang bar, but left so he could be alone. Kalin still had memories of the time when he was a Dark Signer (how this occurred was unknown; it was possible that he remembered because he became a Dark Signer willingly, like Rex and Roman Goodwin, and that unwilling transformations like Carly's resulted in memory loss). Being left with the guilt from what he had done to hurt his friends, he struggled to end his life through the only thing that once mattered to him: Dueling. The next day Kalin challenged Yusei and revealed his intentions, and pleaded with him to defeat him so that he could die in the mountain. Kalin fought hard, and refused to simply throw the Duel, and even resorted to Summon his "Infernity Doom Dragon". Ultimately, however, he was defeated by "Stardust Dragon" again.

After the Duel, Yusei and Kalin were double-crossed by Barbara, who was secretly a member of Malcolm's gang. They were apprehended by the undertakers and taken to the mountain along with Radley after losing to Lawton, Malcolm's brother. Kalin went to work with no second thought; even Yusei couldn't convince him to escape otherwise. Yusei then punched him in the stomach and left him unconscious. He took Kalin and escaped, and as they did, they ran into Nico and West. Soon after, Lawton and Malcolm's gang members found them, Yusei went and Turbo Dueled Lawton, while Kalin was running away with Nico and West in a miner cart from Malcolm's gang members. Kalin managed to steal a Duel Runner from one of the members of Malcolm's gang, and used it to get to the Duel between Lawton and Yusei. In an attempt to get rid of them, Lawton threw dynamite at them, which caused the mine to collapse and left Kalin and Yusei in a crevice, while West and Nico were taken as hostages by Lawton. After visiting the graves of those who went to the mountain, Kalin vowed to fight for those either still working in the mountain or had lost their lives because of it and to save West and Nico, and called himself a "Death God".

Returning to Crash Town, to the shock of Lawton and the others, he and Yusei engaged in a 2 vs 1 Duel with Lawton, to free the town from his horrid rule. Though their Duel was coming to an end, Lawton's men interrupted and proceeded to stop Yusei and Kalin. But the members had a change of heart and decided to hold back. Lawton and Barbara attempted to make a final getaway but were stopped by Crow and Jack. In one last attempt, Lawton detonated the explosives in the city, which created a diversion. Kalin gave chase on Yusei's Duel Runner and caught him in order to finish his last turn. Lawton, knowing his top card was a spell card that would render Kalin's "Infernity Doom Slinger" useless, agreed to finish the Duel. But Kalin used the effect of "Infernity Climber" to draw this card instead of his spell card, using the effect of "Infernity Doom Slinger", and finished off Lawton (In the dub, Kalin, after catching up to Lawton, restrains him until Sector Security arrived as Kalin believed he didn't deserve to end the Duel properly for being a coward). After that, Kalin stayed in town to watch over its reconstruction, and to watch over the kids, West and Nico. In honor of his team, he renamed Crash Town, Satisfaction Town.

Ark Cradle

In episode 150, he was cheering on Yusei. Two episodes later, Kalin reappeared and was seen being defeated by Jack in Satisfaction Town as Jack was self-training himself to once again regain his crown as the King of Turbo Duels. Kalin told Jack that he had become a lot stronger since the days of the Enforcers but he was still not satisfied, with Jack agreeing.

* * *

Yusei: Kalin!

Kalin: Long time no see Yusei.

Me: You know him Yusei?

Yusei: I sure do. He was one of my friends when we were known as a group called The Enforcers. Kalin was our leader and me, Crow and Jack were part of his team. But we disbanded because of Kalin's questionable tactics.

Me: What was The Enforcers?

Yusei: Think of them as a law and order group.

Yusei went over the history of the Enforcers.

* * *

The Enforcers, known as Team Satisfaction (チームサティスファクション, Chīmu Satisufakushon) in the Japanese version and The Protectors (Die Beschützer) in the German version, was a group which existed in Satellite. It was formed by Kalin Kessler, who was the leader and also consisted of Yusei Fudo, Crow Hogan and Jack Atlas. They all wore brown vests with their outfits that they wear in the present day events of the storyline (except for Jack).

Their Duel Disks are similar to the ones used during Battle City. And currently all of the enforcers except Jack have a criminal mark.

The gang was formed under Kalin's sense of unity which also helped their fellow companions live through Satellite's desperate situations and surroundings. Believing there is no way to get out of Satellite, the only thing they could do was set some sort of satisfaction to their living situation, that being pulling off something big within the city.

Satellite was divided into various zones ruled by dueling starved gangs. Eventually, the group was able to conquer those zones until all of the city was claimed by them. During the face-off with the final gang, one of them almost kills Yusei by pushing him off the roof, but Kalin saves him.

However after that the team quickly disbanded due to Kalin's questionable acts, as his personality soon began to change.

This is seen on that incident where Kalin forces a kid from a remaining duel gang to a duel. After he wins, Kalin inexplainably assaults him, but is stopped by Crow as he disagrees with this act and then Kalin punched him. Yusei and Jack broke them up, but Jack along with Crow left the team, leaving Yusei who chose back then to stay with Kalin. Thus Yusei was the only one left remaining for the time being, as sometime later Sector Security began to show up on Satellite and began arresting duelists.

Because of this Kalin starts talking about causing an explosion in the Security building, to which Yusei not only disagrees completely with but because of this he then finally leaves. Still Kalin went with his schemely plan and blows up a part of the Security base, being happy about it no less.

Consequently to this event, he ends up being pursued by Security, but his former teammates no less came to his rescue. However in what was supposed to be The Enforcers' last duel, Kalin confronts a Security guard on a Duel Runner and ends up driving through a bunch of crates, severely injuring the guard. Before he could finish him off Yusei interfered and isolated him in a room. Yusei then decided to call himself the leader of The Enforcers in hopes they wouldn't arrest Kalin. But security found Kalin and arrest him for murdering a Security. One of the Securities "congratulates" Yusei on "helping" them arrest Kalin; Kalin then sees him trying to convince the Security to let Kalin go, and he mistakenly believes that Yusei had him arrested.

Kalin was presumed dead by Yusei, Jack and Crow until his reappearance as a Dark Signer. He attempts to take revenge against Yusei, but was defeated and later revived after Goodwin's defeat. He was last seen in Crash Town, where the team reunites to liberate it from Lawton's reign. Kalin remains behind to rebuild the town and care for Nico and West while the rest of the team returns to New Domino City.

---

We gasped in shock!

Me: So he's a cold blooded murderer!

Yusei: Yes.

William: You're the only Masters of Evil member that came today?

Kalin: Vypra, Dark Spicer, and the others are back at the hideout training their Pokemon.

Me: We were facing numerous gangsters and Tony Montana here.

Kalin: I can see that. You all have been busy.

I saw the mark on Kalin's arm. It looked like the Giant Nazca Line.

Me: That mark you have is the Giant Nazca Line.

Kalin: That's right. It represents Ccapac Apu.

Me: That's the Giant Earthbound Immortal no doubt and his name means Warlord Apu. Apu is the Incan god of the Mountains in Incan Myth.

Kalin: That's right.

Yusei: But why are you here Kalin?

Kalin: Isn't it obvious Yusei? I'm here to kill you all starting with J.D.

Me: So you want to fight. All right then.

Kalin: I hope you still know how to use your Duel Runner, Yusei.

Yusei: (smirks) Actually, I do!

Me: This is gonna be interesting.

Kalin: I have just the thing for us to duke it out on J.D.

Kalin summoned a new Duel Runner and it looked like a Tournament Arena floor attached to a Duel Runner.

Me: Cool!

The Giant Nazca Line appeared in the sky.

Me: I see how we're gonna do it. We're gonna fight while going along the lines of the Giant Nazca Line.

Kalin: You catch on quick.

Yusei got on his Duel Runner and we went onto the Nazca Line and most of us were flying above it.

Nico: Whoa! This is amazing!

Varie: I didn't know the Dark Signers could do this.

Vince: Me neither.

Me: Lets dance shall we. I summon my strongest monster! NINE-HEADED DRAGON!

I summoned NINE-HEADED DRAGON! It roared ferociously!

Yusei: 10,000 ATK in that card by itself!? That's amazing!

Me: It sure is. And it's a level 13 monster.

Akiza: Incredible!

Me: Yep. Before we fight Kalin, how did you die if I might ask?

Kalin: I died from starvation.

Me: That's one of the most agonizing and excruciatingly painful forms of death.

Kalin: Indeed it is. I summon EARTHBOUND IMMORTAL CCAPAC APU!

He summoned the terrifying Earthbound Immortal of the Giant Nazca Line, Ccapac Apu!

Nico: Whoa! That is a cool one!

Lori: Scary!

May: No kidding.

Me: Lets dance Kalin.

I powered up and went Super Angel-Ebonwu 100,000 Elemental Moonlight Phoenix.

Me: (Divine Voice) This is gonna really hurt you.

Kalin: (Insane laughter) Oh I am not gonna just hurt you! I'm going to kill you! And then I will kill your friends and use Ccapac Apu to kill everyone you know and love!

Me: You're insane! What kind of fucked up world do you live in!?

Kalin: A world that's better than this!

We went at each other screaming in incredible fury and a ferocious fight broke out! I punched him in the face and kicked him in the stomach and he threw punches at me and I dodged them and kicked him in the stomach and punched him in the face and we were really tearing each other apart. But I was dodging all his attacks and blows. Massive thunderous shockwaves were shaking apart all over Bogota and rattling the whole place to an incredible degree!

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOMMM! KRABBBBBOOOOOOOMMM! KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM! KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM! KRABBBBOOOOOOOOMMM! KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM! KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMM! KRABBBBOOOOOOOMMM! KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM! KRABBBBOOOOOOMM! KRABBBOOOOOMMM! KRABBBOOOOOOMM!

KRABBBOOOOOOMMM! KRABBBOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBOOOOOMMM! KRABBBOOOOOMMM!

I teleported and kicked him in the back and punched him in the crotch. We then mercilessly punched each other some more and I matched all his moves. I punched Kalin in the back and kicked him in the face and we jumped back and I fired a massive energy blast and Kalin fired a massive blast of darkness and the blasts collided and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion was so powerful and devastating that it created a massive mushroom cloud of fire that rained down fire and embers all over the city and fiery explosions were blowing apart buildings that belonged to several drug cartel members and setting all kinds of drug factories on fire!

When the smoke cleared we went at each other again and I had a massive punch ready and so did Kalin and then we punched each others fists and a massive explosion of lightning and darkness exploded out and it was so strong and powerful that it blew some of the air of the planet away! Lightning of light and darkness was being emitted from our fists as they were still connected. Nine-Headed Dragon fired blasts of 9 Elemental Energies and they hit Ccapac Apu and exploded. Destroying him.

Nico: Whoa! Look at them go!

Laney: Unreal! J.D. and Kalin are perfectly evenly matched!

Akiza: How can J.D. have that much power?

Nico: He trained his entire life to get to where he's at.

Sumner: That's my son for you.

Kalin was laughing insanely and I punched him in the face and kicked him in the stomach and then I punched him in the stomach with incredible force and the face and I sent Kalin flying and he fell off the arena and crashed into the ground of the city.

CRAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAASSSSSSSSSHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHH!

Aylene C.: Geez! That must've hurt!

Akiza: No kidding.

Nico: He really lost that one.

I powered down.

We landed and had the Duel Runner Arena square beamed to the Estate for future use. Sosa was arrested and sent to the electric chair for his crimes and his reign of terror was over.

Nico: (To the viewers) Not even drug cartels are a match for the awesome power of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: You said it. Dad it was awesome having you help us.

Sumner: Thanks J.D.

Me: You really socked it to him.

Sumner: I made him blow his colon out!

We laughed hysterically.

THE END

Another Fanfic complete and another Gangster done.

Scarface from 1983 was a great and really violent movie. Al Pacino did a great job in that movie and that was his greatest movie he did that gave him his rise to fame. NicoChan11 and ArchangelOfJustice12 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up for Earth Day is a FernGully chapter. I did a FernGully Chapter earlier. But that was just for Laney. Now here comes another FernGully chapter where we all face Hexxus and stop him from destroying the forest and make sure he doesn't succeed.

See you all tomorrow.

Saving FernGully for Earth Day

HAPPY EARTH DAY 2020 EVERYBODY!

---

In Neo Domino City, we were walking over to a huge prison called The Facility. It was a huge prison of Supermaximum Security Level.

---

The Facility, known as the Detention Center (収容所 Shūyōsho) in the Japanese version, is a prison in New Domino City.

The center is governed by the Sector Security. The Director has full control over the staff.

Mr. Armstrong was the chief. He was known for being cruel to the inmates and prejudiced towards Satellite residents. After his Duel with Yusei Fudo, Goodwin told him that he had been watching the match, then said that he was the one who would be leaving. (In the dub, Goodwin said he can't see peace when there exists no trust between the guards and inmates, then says for Armstrong to pack up his things and that he's fired.)

Non-canon

In Yu-Gi-Oh! 5D's World Championship 2009: Stardust Accelerator, Dio and Fudagawa also work at the Facility.

In Yu-Gi-Oh! 5D's World Championship 2011: Over the Nexus, in order to access the Facility, Story Mode must be cleared at least once and the Guard Robot in front of the Facility must be defeated in a Duel. This will allow the player to re-duel any of the six criminals encountered previously in the Story Mode.

Inmates

Alex was held in the Facility for longer than his expected sentence.

After giving up waiting to be released, he began working on an escape tunnel. He was later shown to have been released as he was shown cheering Yusei on from the city during his Duel with Z-one.

Bolt Tanner took part in criminal activity after being ridiculed in the Pro League. He was quickly arrested and sent here. Tanner was highly respected among the inmates and determined how new inmates should be treated by testing their Dueling skills. He was later released before the events of the Fortune Cup and the Dark Signer vs Signer war.

Usui was one of Tanner's followers.

Sakamaki was one of Tanner's followers.

Yusei Fudo was transported here after being caught trespassing in New Domino. He was later released via the orders of Rex Goodwin after defeating Mr. Armstrong who was fired after these events.

Tenzen Yanagi was caught trespassing around the same time as Yusei. In the English dub, Yanagi was frequently detained here. He was later released before the events of the Fortune Cup and the Dark Signer vs Signer war.

Lawton was sent here after he was defeated by Kalin Kessler for his crimes against the civilians of Satisfaction Town who he made work in the Dyne Mine until they die.

Radley was sent here for beginning and partaking in the war between the Malcolm Family and the Ramon Group forcing civilians to work in the Dyne Mine until they died.

Malcolm was sent here for beginning and partaking in the war between the Malcolm Family and the Ramon Group forcing civilians to work in the Dyne Mine until they died. He was captured and taken to The Facility after Kalin Kessler and Yusei Fudo along with the rest of Team Satisfaction revealed the crimes that they were assisting in to Sector Security.

Barbara was sent here due to her assisting both Lawton and Malcolm in sending innocent Duelists to the Dyne Mine after Team Satisfaction revealed their crimes.

Numerous other members of the Malcolm family were sent here after Crow and Jack revealed their crimes to Security.

A purse snatcher was sent here for trying to rob an old lady.

Kalin Kessler was sent here for going against security, killing one and injuring one while attempting to kill him too and cause an explosion and at a station. He escaped when he became a dark signer.

Syd and his henchman have been sent here for stealing Duel Runners, taking them apart and selling the parts.

Bolton was sent here when he turned himself in for killing Robert Pearson.

According to the Yu-Gi-Oh! 10th Anniversary Animation Book, Sayer was sent to The Facility for his crimes after the defeat of the Dark Signers, when everyone absorbed by the Earthbound Immortals was revived.

Non-canon

The player in Yu-Gi-Oh! 5D's World Championship 2009: Stardust Accelerator is sent here after trespassing.

Geruzet is an inmate in Stardust Accelerator. Geruzet has his Deck mocked by Tanner, after which the player uses the same Deck to beat Tanner, similar to how Yusei uses Yanagi's Deck in the anime.

History

Yusei Fudo was sent to the Facility for trespassing in New Domino City. On the way, he met Tenzen Yanagi in the paddy wagon.

Yusei was challenged to a Duel by Bolt Tanner. However, Yusei had his Deck confiscated, so Yanagi who managed to sneak cards in, Dueled Tanner instead. Yanagi quickly lost and had his cards ridiculed by Tanner, who stomped on them and refused to move his foot, despite their value to Yanagi. Yusei tossed Tanner aside and challenged him to a Duel using Yanagi's cards. Yusei won, earning respect for himself and Yanagi.

Rex Goodwin suspected Yusei was a Signer and had Mr. Armstrong perform tests on him. Armstrong develops a dislike for Yusei and sends him to a different part of the center.

In his new cell, Yusei meets Alex who has been planning an escape and invites Yusei. Yusei accepts provided that they can bring Tanner and Yanagi too.

Armstrong planted a knife in Tanner's cell (In the English version, he accused him of smuggling magazines inside). Armstrong beats Tanner badly, extends his and other inmates sentences and forbids them from leaving their cells. Yusei objected to Armstrong calling the inmates worthless. This results in Armstrong challenging Yusei to a Duel. Should Yusei win, Armstrong would forget Tanner's crime and not lengthen Yusei's sentence. Should Armstrong win, Yusei would be at Armstrong's mercy. Yusei agreed despite the time of the Duel, interfering with his escape plans. Yanagi was then brought up to Armstrong where he is beaten and has his cards confiscated in front of the other inmates.

Yusei refused to escape with Alex as Tanner and Yanagi were in no condition to come with them. The other inmates supplied Yusei with cards to use against Armstrong.

Yusei faced Armstrong in an arena, where both players were chained in one place and received electric shocks as their Life Points lowered. However, Armstrong rigged the arena, so that he couldn't get shocks. Armstrong also used security cameras to see the cards in Yusei's hand. Alex abandoned his escape plan and broke into the control room, where he switched on Armstrong's shocks and broke the computers, so the settings couldn't be altered. Yusei managed to win the Duel. Rex Goodwin appeared at the end of the Duel. He granted Yusei freedom.

Tanner and Yanagi were released shortly after Yusei.

Me: Wow! So this is the Facility.

Yusei: Yep. This whole place is a prison reserved for all of Neo Domino City's most dangerous criminals.

Sakura Haruno: It sure looks like a dangerous prison.

Naruto: No kidding.

Me: It looks a whole lot like Alcatraz on Steroids.

Qin: No kidding.

Dark Spicer: It sure does look like it.

Dark Spicer arrived and with him was Carly and Misty.

Plant Man: What are you guys doing here?

Dark Spicer: We're here to pay Sayer a visit as well. No one messes with my crew and gets away with it.

Carly Carmine: That's right. Sayer is the one that killed us. He dueled me and I got sent flying out a window to my death. I fell out of a 500 foot window.

Laney: Whoa! That is a nasty fall!

Lola: No kidding!

Misty Tredwell: Yeah and Sayer killed my brother.

Me: I know.

We went into the Facility and we saw that it was a huge maximum security prison.

Me: Whoa! So this is the Facility on the inside.

Nico: Wow! It sure looks like a dangerous prison.

Carly Carmine: I did a lot of interviews in here a while back. It was a good job.

Me: I heard about that.

Jack Atlas: (Australian Accent) Carly is a great reporter and she is one of my strongest supporters.

Me: I can see that Jack and I sense a huge romance budding between you two. I'm sorry to bring this up but I have a habit of picking up on these things.

Jack Atlas: I can tell and yes you are right. I do have a love for Carly. And Carly does have a love for me.

Everyone: Aww.

Carly Carmine: Oh Jack!

They hugged and kissed.

Laney: That is so adorable!

Lana: You said it!

Lola: Yeah.

Me: I'm happy for you both.

Nico: Even though we are on opposite sides, love always finds a way.

Superman: That's definitely true Nico.

We arrived at Sayer's cell. It was a Solitary Confinement cell.

Me: He's locked up in a solitary confinement cell!

Jack Atlas: Yes. He's the Facility's most dangerous inmate. We have to keep him locked up in here 24/7 because of his violent history and dangerous attitude.

Me: I see. He did kill Carly and Misty's little brother Toby.

Nico: He really is a monster. So many have suffered because of him.

We went up to the guards.

Guard 1: Jack Atlas. What brings you here sir?

Jack Atlas: Just here to talk to Sayer.

Guard 2: Of course. Oh Team Loud Phoenix Storm. We didn't know you were with Jack as well.

Me: We teamed up with the Signers a few days ago.

Guard 1: I see. Wait a minute, (Points to Dark Spicer, Carly and Misty) Aren't they your enemies?

Me: They are with us because they are what we call our Frenemies. Half friends, half enemies.

Guard 1: Ah. I see.

They opened the door and we saw SAYER!

---

Sayer, known as Divine in the Japanese version, is a villain from the Yu-Gi-Oh! franchise. He is a man with psychic abilities similar to Akiza and the true leader and creator of an organization called the Arcadia Movement.

He was voiced by Marc Thompson.

When he finds Akiza for the first time, he welcomes her into the Arcadia Movement, a group of people with powers similar to hers. Sayer is the leader of this group of duelists training to control and harness their psychic abilities. He has plans for her to be a member and a representative figure of the organization.

Sayer finds Toby Tredwell, who also has Psychic Dueling powers and takes him to the Arcadia Movement to test his abilities. Toby was unable to withstand the procedure. Believing him to be weak and useless, Sayer ordered the intensity of the electric shocks to be amplified, which caused the young boy's death (In English version, Toby was taken into a another location under Sayer's orders).

Fortune Cup

Sayer, as he appeared during the Fortune Cup arcSayer watches over Akiza's Duels in the Fortune Cup and encourages her to be proud of her powers. He also does his best to keep Akiza secluded from anyone outside the Arcadia Movement, including Lazar and Yusei - possibly because he does not yet trust In the dub, before her duel with Yusei, however, he reveals his motive. He claims that "He Who Rules The Sky" - possibly ZONE - has given the Arcadia Movement the mission of stopping Yliaster from resurrecting the Crimson Dragon, and stopping it from "bringing the world to its knees".

When she loses to Yusei, he leads her out of the arena to recover from her defeat before Yusei has a chance to speak to her. However, Sayer returns to watch the final match to see if the Crimson Dragon will appear. During this duel, his earlier belief of his God-given mission seems to be forgotten; he merely comments that it will be interesting to watch.

Testing Leo

Later he received a message from Bolt Tanner, who requests that Sayer help the Signers against the Dark Signers. Luna, Leo, Yanagi and Tanner go to the Arcadia Movement to attempt to unite all of the Signers against the Dark Signers, however, even after explaining the current situation to Sayer it appears he already has other plans. As he and other members sedate them with a gas, Sayer wants to make Luna a member of the organization because of her power, having been planning it for some time prior to the meeting.

When the gas wears off, Sayer has chained Leo in his Duel arena to personally test him for any Psychic power while Luna and Akiza watch from the observation room. Before the Duel begins, Sayer explains that the Arcadia Movement has no interest in dealing with the Dark Signers and that he wants to use Luna, along with other psychic duelists, as soldiers to start a war against the world. Since Leo is Luna's twin, he might have special abilities of his own.

To add to the pressure to unlock any potential psychic power in Leo, he threatens Leo's life because he revealed his true intentions before the Duel begins. As the Duel commences, Sayer inflicts some damage on him. Leo fights back by Synchro Summoning "Power Tool Dragon", inflicting major damage to Sayer. However, Sayer emerges victorious as he used an impressive card combo that ended with "Battle Teleportation", allowing him to attack Leo directly with "Thought Ruler Archfiend".

The attack threw Leo hard against the floor and knocks him out. Sayer, accepting that Leo has no special powers, considers him a worthless drag. However after the Duel Sayer assures Akiza that he won't put him through any more harm. Instead he says he plans to use him as a tool to get to Luna.

After his Duel with Leo, he speaks to Akiza about the organization plans of gathering more members from around the world. Also that she will come to represent the Arcadia Movement itself not only as a symbol, but also as a modern "Joan of Arc".

Supposed death

Meanwhile, Carly Carmine sneaks into the Arcadia Movement building and finds Sayer's secret room, which triggers Sayer's psychic sense. He returns to his office and challenges Carly to a Duel with her life on the line. Carly Summons 3 of her "Fortune Fairies" and raises their ATK to 3000. However, Sayer swarms Carly with Psychic monsters and destroys her key card with "Psychokinesis" and pins her to a window with his attacks.

Carly warns Sayer that the Public Security Bureau will investigate her death, but he informs her that her death will be considered an accident by Sector Security. He explains to Carly that he knows Goodwin's weakness, that he was born from Satellite rather than in New Domino City, and because of that he is safe from the Public Safety Bureau. His last attack defeats her, shattering the window she was pinned against and leading her to her apparent death (This was made less obvious in the English version,in which she falls into a purple fog).

Carly revives as a Dark Signer and appears again to Sayer in order to challenge him to a Shadow Duel for revenge. He starts the Duel confident that he'll win again, but Carly is able to destroy his first monster and more than half his Life Points with ease on her first turn. Following this, Sayer attempts to make a comeback on his next turn and thinks of a strategy which would allow him to bring out "Thought Ruler Archfiend", but this is futile as Carly, on her next turn, Summons her Earthbound Immortal, Aslla piscu and uses it to defeat Sayer.

Sayer's "death". The explosion caused by the attack throws Sayer down the building's stairwell. Akiza sees Sayer falling and cries out for him in shock (in the English dub, Sayer fell in the same purple fog that Carly fell in). Afterwards, the Arcadia Movement building begins to collapse after "Aslla piscu's" attack.

Return and "actual" death

Sayer disguised as a security agent. Sayer somehow survived his fall with a scar on the right side of his face hidden by his hair, which also changed to a more rough style. He poses as a security agent from Goodwin and tricks Mina into a water pit, and attacks Yusei, eventually ending up with Mina.

After saving Akiza from landing into a shard of shattered glass, he tells to continue the Duel with Misty. But as Akiza tells him that she can't, Sayer reveals to her that psychic powers were strong even when they were dormant while she was young. He had somehow sealed them without her knowing this.

Sayer releases the seal, unlocking her true powers with the phrase "The entrance to the Underworld is on the witch's island" Akiza's powers awaken and becomes the Black Rose once again. Sayer claims that this power surpasses that of the Dark Signers. While watching the Duel from someplace safe, he states that he and Akiza will resurrect the Arcadia Movement.

Yusei confronts Sayer and asks what he is really here for. Sayer reveals his scar, stating it to be a result of the Dark Signers attack on the Arcadia Movement headquarters. Claiming to have control over Akiza's mind, he says that she only will obey him. Yusei commands him to release Akiza, stating that she has changed. Sayer refuses and attacks Yusei with "Hinotama".

Sayer states that anybody who falls prey to him, will simply follow his orders and nothing more, as he takes full advantage of that individual's weakness, just like he did with Akiza. Although at that time, he acknowledged her incredible psychic powers along with her loneliness.

He explains that Misty became a Dark Signer, because of what happened to Toby. This leads Yusei to figure out that Sayer was involved in Toby's death.

Sayer reveals the truth of Toby's death, prompting Yusei to attack him, but Sayer avoids him and attacks again with "Hinotama". Yusei is left hanging from a balcony, but laughs as he reveals that he had activated his Duel Disk's voice intercom, thus allowing Misty to hear the real story of her brother's death.

Sayer gets eaten by Misty Tredwell's "Earthbound Immortal Ccarayhua". Hearing this, Misty believes Sayer is the real culprit for her brother's death. Sayer unwisely tells her that Toby was too weak and that he had no use for him anyway. Fueled by Misty's anger and intent on revenge, Earthbound Immortal Ccarayhua then steps in, snatches Sayer with its tongue and proceeds to devour him, fulfilling Misty's vengeance for Toby. (In the English version, he simply disappears after Ccarayhua takes him.) At first it was supposed, that he, unlike everyone else, wasn't resurrected after the fall of the Earthbound Immortals. But the in the 'Yu-Gi-Oh! 10th Anniversary Animation Book' it was revealed, that Sayer was actually revived, like everyone else and he seems to be arrested in The Facility.

Me: So you are Sayer.

Sayer: The famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

I saw that he had a nasty scar covering 20% of the right side of his face.

Me: Whoa. What happened to your face there?

Sayer: I got burned in an explosion in a building during my duel with Carly.

Me: Looks like Carly sure left her mark on you.

Carly Carmine: I sure did.

Sayer: You're still alive Carly!? I thought you were dead!

Carly Carmine: I was dead thanks to you.

Misty Tredwell: And you killed my brother Toby.

Me: That's right.

Sayer: (to Dark Spicer) Are you here to get me out?

Arixam: You're kidding yourself if you think Dark Spicer's getting you out!

Dark Spicer: Arixam's right. Me and my friends only came here to rub in your face the fact that you're never getting out of here!

Me: Well said.

Dark Spicer: Also, Furi would like to have a word with you.

Me: Just as long as he doesn't beat me up like he did the last time.

Dark Spicer: Not this time J.D. It's not my turn. Next time I have two new aliens to show you.

Dark Spicer then turned into Furi.

Furi: LEMME TELL YOU SOMETHING, SAYER!

Sayer: (pales) Please don't.

Dead End: This is going to be fun.

POW!

Furi punched him in the face.

KROW!

Kicked him in the face with incredible force!

BLAM!

He screamed in pain as Furi kicked him in the crotch!

Irma: (winces) Furi's really letting him have it!

SMASH!

Me: OOH! No kidding!

KATOW!

He punched Sayer in the face and knocked out some of his teeth!

Nico: Brutal!

For 10 minutes Furi brutally pulverized Sayer to within an inch of his life!

Furi: IF WE EVER SEE YOU OUT OF THIS PRISON I'LL RIP YOUR FUCKING HEAD OFF!

He punched him in the face 5 more times!

Furi: NOW LAY THERE AND DIE YOU FUCKING PIECE OF SHIT!

Me: Brutal!

Brian: Now I know how Quagmire felt when he pulverized me for having sex with his dad. (Shudders)

Joe Swanson: Wait a minute you had sex with Quagmire's dad!?

Brian: I didn't know it was him until Stewie told me.

Stewie: I'm so sorry Brian.

Brian: No worries Stewie.

Kup: You know what? We were planning on moving you to one of our space prisons. But now that we've seen how effective the Facility is, we've decided to leave you in this cell to rot.

Me: Yeah!

We left Sayer there for dead.

Carly Carmine: That was really satisfying.

Misty Tredwell: Yep is sure was. But I'm really happy for you and Jack, Carly.

Carly Carmine: Thanks Misty.

Me: We got to head back. Today is Earth Day and it is a great day for us.

Dark Spicer: That's right. Happy Earth Day guys.

Me: Thanks man.

Carly Carmine: See you around Jack.

Jack Atlas: Will do my love.

We went back to the estate and Carly and Misty vanished in Hummingbird and Lizard lights. Dark Spicer left as well.

---

Later we were in our beautiful garden picking all kinds of awesome fruits and vegetables and growing plants.

Manaphy, Poliwag, Poromon and Horsea: HAPPY EARTH DAY EVERYONE!

Edd: And a good Happy Earth Day to you 4 as well.

I was meditating in front of the willow tree with Neeri watching us.

Me: Oooooooommmm…

Varie was planting all kinds of beautiful flowers and Laney and Crysta were using their beautiful powers to grow all kinds of plants and flowers. Laney and Crysta were showing Joey and Lisa Simpson how to use the Magical Powers of Nature to help nature and everything grow.

Neeri: Wow! Those are beautiful.

Lana: They sure are.

Syd Chang: Thanks Neeri. Planting flowers is one of my favorite things to do.

Razor was watering the plants.

Razor: Trust me guys, no one likes having the smell of sour milk all over the place.

Nico: Yuck. That smell is horrible.

Razor: Yep plants are good for the environment and good for the air.

Cornelia: That's right.

Cornelia grew all kinds of amazing fruit trees with her powers.

Syd Chang grew all kinds of bushes that grew berries and watermelons.

Sam Manson grew many kinds of beautiful flowers with her powers.

We turned our garden into a beautiful garden worthy of 1,000,000 Eden's.

Laney and Crysta successfully taught Joey and Lisa Simpson the powers of nature.

Laney: Way to go Joey!

Joey: (British Accent) Thanks Laney. It was so cool learning how to use the power of nature to help the earth.

When I was done meditating I saw the garden really in beautiful full bloom.

Me: Whoa! So beauitful.

Nerri: It sure is.

We later got done and we went inside and we were watching one of my favorite movies from my past. It was FernGully: The Last Rainforest.

* * *

Crysta is a fairy of curious nature who lives in FernGully, a pristine rainforest free from human interference. The fairies of FernGully once lived in harmony with humans, but believe them to have gone extinct after having been driven away by a dark spirit named Hexxus. Crysta is the apprentice of Magi, a motherly-figure fairy who imprisoned Hexxus in a tree. One day Crysta explores a new part of the forest and meets Batty, a bat who claims to have been experimented on by humans, giving him a cocky and unstable personality. However, fairies refuse to believe him, except for Crysta, who volunteers to investigate the situation. She sees Zak, a young lumberjack whom Crysta accidentally shrinks when she tries to save him from being crushed by a falling tree, though does not know how to restore him to normal size.

The tree that Hexxus is imprisoned in is cut down by Tony and Ralph, Zak's superiors. Hexxus quickly begins to regain his powers by feeding on pollution. He manipulates humans to drive to FernGully. In FernGully, Zak meets Pips, a fairy envious of Zak's relationship with Crysta. Zak begins to fall in love with Crysta, but hides the true reason that the humans had returned. When the signs of Hexxus's resurrection begin to manifest themselves in poisoned trees and rivers, he finally admits that humans are destroying the forest. The fairies mount an attempt to defend their homes, but knowing their fight is hopeless, Zak convinces Batty to aid him in stopping the machine before it destroys them. When Zak makes his presence known to Tony and Ralph, Hexxus takes over the machine and begins to wildly destroy the forest.

Magi sacrifices herself to give the fairies a chance, and she tells Crysta to remember everything she's learned. Zak manages to stop the machine, depriving Hexxus the source of his power, but he manifests himself within the oil in the machine and begins to ignite the forest ablaze. Crysta seemingly sacrifices herself by allowing herself to be devoured by Hexxus and all seems lost until he begins to sprout limbs and leaves like a tree. Pips and the rest of the fairies rally to the powers they have been given, which causes the seed that Crysta fed him to start growing wildly. Hexxus and the machine are both simultaneously imprisoned by the newly grown tree at the very border of FernGully which bursts into bloom. Crysta appears after the fight, having survived her ordeal and successfully succeeded Magi as a magical fairy. She gives Zak a seed, begging him to remember everything that has transpired and she sadly restores him to his human size. Remembering the seed in his hand, Zak promises to remember his adventure, and buries the seed in the soil before telling Tony and Ralph that things need to change as they leave the forest behind. The seed sprouts new growth for FernGully, as Crysta follows Pips with Batty behind her.

---

When it was done we cheered wildly.

Me: That is so awesome!

Laney: It sure is! I love FernGully. It's so beautiful that everything returns back to normal in the end.

Me: But it's pure evil that Hexxus wants to destroy all life in FernGully and destroy everything.

Laney: And I should know because I'm the one that destroyed Hexxus and imprisoned him for all time.

Crysta: That's right. I remember that.

Me: And Laney did that all by herself. Really amazing how she was able to destroy Hexxus for good.

Kwame: And lets not forget that she did the same thing with Captain Pollution.

Me: Yeah and he's now in that tree in our backyard for all eternity.

Qin: Wow! But who is Hexxus?

Me: He's the embodiment of all things that destroy. He's pure evil. Pure unrestrained evil.

I pulled up his history.

---

Hexxus is the main antagonist in 20th Century Fox's 1992 animated feature film FernGully: The Last Rainforest. He is the dark and evil spirit of destruction and pollution with the sole desire to destroy FernGully and spread absolute destruction across the world, and kill anyone and anything that gets in his way.

He was voiced by Tim Curry, who also played Frank-N-Furter in The Rocky Horror Picture Show, Pennywise in IT, Ben Ravencroft in Scooby-Doo and the Witch's Ghost, Maestro Forte in Beauty and the Beast: The Enchanted Christmas, Billy Flynn in Criminal Minds, Lord of Darkness in Legend, Big Bayou in Courage the Cowardly Dog, Cardinal Richelieu in The Three Musketeers, Kilokahn in Super Human Samurai Syber-Squad, Drake in The Pebble and the Penguin, Big Brother in Johnny Bravo, Long John Silver in Muppet Treasure Island, Dr. Slicer in Recess, Belial in The Legend of Atlantis, Farley Claymore in The Shadow, Thaddeus E. Klang in TaleSpin, General Von Talon in Valiant, Professor Calamitous in The Adventures of Jimmy Neutron: Boy Genius, Taurus Bulba in Darkwing Duck, Wadsworth in Clue, Darth Sidious in Star Wars: The Clone Wars, Mouse King in Barbie in the Nutcracker, Slagar the Cruel in Redwall, Anatoly Cherdenko in Command & Conquer: Red Alert 3, and El Malefico in Mucha Lucha!: The Return of El Malefico.

Hexxus is the evil spirit of destruction who embodies everything that is toxic to nature. As such, his only goal in existence is to cause destruction, decay and death in any way he can. It can be inferred that Hexxus' ultimate goal is to inevitably kill off all of the Earth's living creatures by transforming the world into an uninhabitable toxic wasteland after he has taken complete power and control over it as the primordial embodiment of destruction and pollution. He will also stop at nothing to exact his revenge on the fairies of FernGully for his imprisonment by means of manipulating humans to help him in his evil plan.

Origin

Hexxus first appeared on Earth in ancient times when the balance of nature shifted. He caused a nearby mountain known as Mt. Warning to erupt like a volcano, and from there, rose out of the Earth and rained down his poison, destroying much in his wake and killing countless living creatures everywhere in FernGully, including humans, who fled in fear, never to return. He was finally defeated by the elderly and wise fairy priestess named Magi Lune, and was imprisoned inside an enchanted baobab tree, which he remained trapped in for hundreds, if not thousands or possibly even millions of years.

FernGully: The Last Rainforest

While painting red "X" marks on trees, marking them for cutting, the movie's male protagonist named Zak comes across the tree that Hexxus was imprisoned in, he finds it creepy, much like the entity it contains. While he is looking at the tree, Zak is bugged by a fly, and he ends up marking the tree while he was trying to hit it with his aerosol can. That evening, the mobile lumbermill known as "The Leveler", driven by Zak's two superiors named Tony and Ralph, cuts down the tree.

As the cutting begins, the Leveler shakes violently, likely due to Hexxus' supernatural presence, but the lumberjacks ignore the signs and cut it down anyway. The tree is processed and reduced to sheets of wood by the Leveler, releasing Hexxus in a slimy form. Chuckling maliciously, he almost immediately begins absorbing energy from the Leveler. And by the next day, he has regained enough strength to quickly move around and coherently speak. While wondering how he escaped, Hexxus quickly realizes that it is the work of humans. Determined to get revenge upon the fairies of FernGully for imprisoning him and seeing the most useful potential of the human machine, Hexxus initially decides to take control of it and use it to exact his sinister plan.

Under the outspoken and vocal guise of their boss, Hexxus occasionally manipulates the lumberjacks into tearing down the rainforest in the direction of FernGully by the next morning, thereby destroying the very fabric of their world. He then assumes his ghostly main form, singing the song "Toxic Love", before going to the Leveler's roof to oversee progress as he laughs maniacally. Sometime later, upon reaching FernGully after having successfully destroyed much of the rainforest, Hexxus reveals himself.

With Magi Lune gone (having sacrificed herself to give her power to all of the other fairies), it is up to Crysta and the other fairies to defeat him once and for all. He and the Leveler then chase the fairies and drive them into their home tree, despite Crysta's efforts to stop his advance. Zak (knowing the fairies cannot stop the Leveler) has Batty take him to the machine's cab, from which he can stop it. However, Batty gets carried away and flies right up to Hexxus, who laughs and violently swipes at them, sending debris raining down onto Batty, who drops Zak onto the windshield as a result.

As Zak frantically tries to get the lumberjacks' attention, Hexxus immediately scares them off and takes control of the machine himself. As he proceeds to the fairies' home tree, he closes off the Leveler's cab to keep out intruders, but Zak still manages to get inside with Pips' help. Just as Hexxus is about to kill off all of the fairies, Zak turns off the Leveler, causing Hexxus to lose the energy that he was gaining from it and disappear. However, he once again emerges moments later, this time in the form of a giant, demonic, fire-breathing skeletal beast made of oil.

Crysta remembers a bit of advice that Magi gave her before her death, so she takes a seed and flies up to Hexxus. Unfortunately, he devours her as he laughs evilly, to everyone's horror. However, as he prepares to destroy FernGully for good, he begins sprouting branches like a tree. Annoyed, he rips off the sprouts, but the emerging new tree continues to grow. Pips (realizing what is happening) leads the fairies into helping the new tree grow, within moments, Hexxus and the Leveler itself are overrun. Hexxus can only watch in terror as he is sealed within the closing roots, imprisoning him presumably once and for all, so that he may never harm FernGully again.

In the end after his defeat, Crysta and Batty are now revealed to be alive, while Zak (knowing human development can still threaten FernGully) returns home with Tony and Ralph with a new environmentalist mindset.

---

We all gasped in sheer horror.

Qin: Hexxus is ultimate evil!

Me: He represents everything that we do that destroys nature.

Crysta: That's right.

Me: Yeah. But we have a new respect for all things in nature.

Laney: Maybe I shouldn't have helped imprisoned Hexxus in that tree.

Me: I agree. He should be in the River of Fire. But we can still correct that. Lets head to the Simulator.

We cheered.

We went to the simulator.

---

In the Simulator we got ready. We were gonna go to the famous FernGully and save it from destruction.

The Simulator activated and we found ourselves in a beautiful Tropical Rainforest.

Laney: Here we are guys. Welcome to FernGully.

It was a beautiful and extremely magnificent forest located in the middle of Australia. It was a beautiful and magical forest loaded with life.

Maria: So, this is FernGully?

Me: It sure is. Wow. It's so beautiful.

Nico: It sure is. It's magnificent.

May: Extremely beautiful.

Syd Chang: It sure is.

We walked around the forest and we saw a bunch of green lights coming and we saw that they were fairies. One landed on my hand and it was Crysta's friend Pipps.

Pipps: Hey there.

Crysta: Pipps!

Pipps: Crysta, welcome back!

Crysta: Thanks Pipps. I've missed all of you.

Me: It's nice to finally meet you Pipps. I am J.D. Knudson, leader of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Crysta: It's true Pipps. J.D. is the leader of the team I am now part of.

Pipps: Wow! That's amazing.

Me: It's a big responsibility Pipps. But we'll gladly protect you all.

Pipps: Thanks J.D.

Crysta: I've learned so much from J.D. and all of his team. It's amazing at what they can do.

Crysta's father: I can tell. You all have been through so much.

Nico: We defend all things great and small across the stars and the cosmos.

Crysta's Father: That's amazing.

Me: Laney since you know this world better than we do, you lead.

Laney: Okay.

We went flew above the Canopy of the rainforest and saw a magnificent marvel. The forest went on for miles and we all saw smoke near a mountain.

Laney: I know that mountain. That's Mount Warning. FernGully is located in Australia.

Crysta: That's what I remember.

Laney: Yep. But that smoke is not supposed to be there.

Crysta: I know.

Me: I wonder what could be causing it.

Pipps: Whatever it is it can't be good.

Me: I know.

Riley: But that smoke is not a good sign.

Laney: Yeah. We might as well check out where that smoke is coming from.

Crysta: Yeah.

Me: Good idea.

Pipps: Yeah.

We all then flew to the outskirts of the forest and into a grassland. We saw the smoke up ahead and it was a scary sight. We went into a grove of trees and they had red X's on them.

Me: These trees are dead.

Lana: Why are there red X's on them.

Laney swiped one of them with her finger.

Laney: It's red paint.

Pipps: What's paint?

Laney: It's what we use to make good pictures.

We all saw red X's on most of the trees and knew what was going on.

Laney: Oh no.

Pipps: What is it?

Laney: This is a clear cutting zone.

Me: Clear cutting. Bad news.

Pipps: What's clear cutting?

Laney: It's where we cut down an entire area of trees.

Pipps: That's terrible.

Laney: Yeah. It's one of the biggest ecological disasters on the planet.

Lola: Really bad.

Nico: This isn't Looten Plunder's work. He's dead.

Crysta: What can we do?

Laney: These trees have been here for a while.

Me: These trees look like they've been like this for years.

Laney and Joey puts their hand on a tree and they glowed neon red.

Joey: Wow. They are hurting.

Laney: They're all in a lot of pain. Not just from pollution but from the dust of time.

Me: Laney can grow new trees in their place now.

Lola: That's right. We saw her and Riley do that many times before.

?: Hey what are you all doing here?

Laney saw a tall man with blond hair, blue shirt and blue jeans.

Crysta hid in Laney's scarf and Pipps hid in my vest pocket and Crysta's father hid in Nico's shirt pocket.

Laney: Oh I'm sorry. We saw smoke coming from here and we thought there was a fire burning.

Zak: No there's no fire here. My name is Zak by the way. Whoa! You're all Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Me: That's right. It's a pleasure to meet you Zak. What are you guys cutting down all these trees for?

Zak: It's just for a logging company. But I protested against it all. Thanks to everything I learned from Crysta and the fairies of FernGully, I've become an environmental conservationist.

Me: That's a big job.

Crysta: I'm so happy for you Zak.

Zak: Crysta. It's great to see you again.

Crysta: Same to you Zak.

Zak: Pipp's you're looking good.

Pipps: Thanks man.

We walked around the forest area that was about to be clear cutted and we saw that almost every tree was dead and they had red X's on them.

Me: Boy all these trees are dead. Weren't they just fine a while back?

Zak: Yeah but we don't know what's causing it.

Lola: I think some kind of evil force is causing this.

Zak: You don't think it's Hexxus do you think?

Me: Well that's the reason why we're here. We're here to kill Hexxus.

Zak: But Hexxus was imprisoned wasn't he?

Lola: In that tree right there.

We saw the tree that Hexxus was imprisoned in.

Me: Whoa! That tree looks scary.

Lana: Looks like it. But there's a red X on it.

Me: That's the tree holding Hexxus all right. And it looks like the Leveler is gonna come for it. We had better get back to FernGully and devise a plan.

Nico: Right.

Laney: Lets go.

Laney then saw a tree about to fall on top of Zak.

Laney: Zak, look out!

Me: Whoa! Heads up!

Crysta had to act fast and she shrank Zak to her size and we all jumped out of the way and Laney grabbed Zak and Crysta and we flew back to FernGully.

Laney: Crysta, are you alright?

Crysta: Yes.

Me: That was a close one.

Nico: No kidding.

They arrive back in FernGully and Zak wakes up.

Zak: What happened?

Laney: Zak, Crysta here unintentionally shrank you.

Zak: Shrank? I'm little again.

He looked at Laney and saw that she was right.

Me: Yeah you are. But Crysta did it to save you again.

Laney: This was totally unintentional. But a tree was about to crush you and she had to think fast.

Zak: I see. Thank you both for saving me again.

Laney: You're welcome.

Crysta: Yes. But Magi Lune will fix you.

Laney: Good idea.

Me: Lets find her.

We all went to find Magi. But she was away from her tree and we had to wait. What we didn't know however is that the machine that cut down the tree, The Leveler, cut down the tree that imprisoned Hexxus, the Spirit of Pollution and Destruction and released him. Just like we had planned, Hexxus took control of the Leveler and is now on his way to FernGully.

The next day, Laney felt a major disturbance.

Laney: Crysta, Zak, I sense an evil force heading our way.

Crysta: What is it?

Laney: I don't know.

Me: It's Hexxus. He's coming.

Zak saw a tree losing leaves and the water was turning brown.

Laney saw this too.

Laney: Oil. The Leveler is coming.

Zak: Oh no.

Laney: I can feel it. We got to warn everyone and prepare for battle.

We all went to the center of FernGully and told everyone what's happening.

Magi then appeared.

Magi: The humans have released Hexxus.

Laney: Oh no. Magi, Let us all help you all out.

Magi: Of course. Gather everyone in the circle.

We all went to Magi's tree and the Fairies all followed.

Magi: Everyone, sit in the center of the tree and meditate.

Laney: Okay.

Me: Right.

We all did so and Magi made a speech.

Magi: Since the beginning of time, we have been the guardians and the healers of the forest. We have too long forgotten the Magic Powers of Nature. The time has come to call on them again.

Magi picks up a seed from a fig pod.

Magi: Remember: All the magic of creation exists within a single tiny seed.

The seed glowed and a choir singing and the rumble of thunder was heard. All the trees started glowing and green energy from all of the forest was pouring into the tree and flowing into Magi and the tree twisted around and closed.

We all were in a state of total concentration as we meditated and all of Natures Life Energy flowed into Magi.

Crysta flew to Magi.

Magi: Look for the hero inside yourself Crysta. Look to the good and loving heart in you and all others. For just as every seed holds the power and magic of creation, so to do you and every other creature in this world. Laney, Team Loud Phoenix Storm, Protect Crysta and all my family with your lives.

Crysta: Magi don't leave me.

Magi: I love you. [Echoing] I'll always be with you.

Magi turned into blue energy sparkles.

Magi: We all have a power and it grows when it is shared. Remember what you've learned Crysta.

Magi dispersed and all her power touched everyone. A Blue Sparkle landed on all of our foreheads and a green leaf appeared in the middle. We were all given all of Magi's powers and we were stronger and more one with nature.

Laney: I… I understand Magi and I will protect everyone.

Me: As will all of us Magi.

This was how Zak realized that life is far too precious to everything plant, animal or human and he was on the path to stop destroying the environment and help protect, conserve and make it grow and last forever.

The tree unwound.

Crysta: Oh Magi.

We all got up.

Me: How do you all feel?

Nico: Amazing.

Lincoln: Yeah. It's amazing that we have all of Magi's powers.

Lana: Yeah.

Machinery Whirring was heard.

Laney: It's here!

Me: Lets prepare for battle!

Crysta: We won't let Magi's sacrifice be in vain!

Me: That's right!

We all saw on top of the Leveler a ghostly smoke creature. It was HEXXUS!

Hexxus: [Evil Laugh] I'm back!

Crysta: Hexxus!

Pipps: Hexxus!

Me: Oh crud!

We all stood in front of the Leveler.

Man 1: Hey Tone. What are those guys all doing?

Man 2: I don't know.

We all put our hands on the ground and a huge tree lifted the Leveler off the ground and made it immobile.

Me: We all have plant powers now and we have stronger power.

The two men didn't know that they weren't moving.

Hexxus talked to them through the windshield and they got out of the Leveler and vines formed and got them down to the ground safely.

Air Man just shot an air blast at Hexxus, knocking him down.

Air Man: This is almost too easy!

Hexxus: (smugly) Oh, trust me. It isn't!

Me: It's gonna take more than just a blast of air to get rid of him.

Laney flew up to the Leveler door and opened it and went for the ignition key.

Laney: Sorry Hexxus. But your spree of destruction is over.

Laney turns off the Leveler and leaves.

Hexxus was getting weaker and weaker by the second.

Hexxus: What happened to the energy?

Me: We cut you off!

Hexxus disintegrated as Laney got back onto the ground.

Then there was an earthquake and the Leveler roof was on fire and out of the roof arose Hexxus in his true form. He was a giant demonic fire-breathing skeleton creature made of sludge and oil and burning with fire. Pollution was making him stronger.

Me: Whoa! So this is his true form!

Qin: Scary!

Laney: Hexxus just doesn't know how to quit.

Me: No he doesn't. Lets power up and get him!

We powered up to full power and I was now in my Super Angel-Ebonwu 100,000 Elemental Moonlight Phoenix form.

Me: (Divine Voice) Your spree of destruction is over Hexxus!

Troy: Time to clear the air!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: R.P.M.!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the R.P.M. Rangers!

Vypra and Vexen then appeared.

Luan: Vypra!

Lana: Vexen!

Vypra: That's right. We came to face you guys on this Earth Day adventure.

Luan: (to Vypra) You're not bothered by the weather right now?

Vypra: Luan, when the Lightspeed Rescue Rangers first started out, I lived in the Skull Cavern as a base. I'm used to inhospitable conditions.

Luan: So I see.

Then I saw my mark glow.

Me: Uh oh. Dark Signer.

?: (South American Accent) That would be me.

A figure came out of an Indigo Whale mark and it was GREIGER - DARK SIGNER OF THE KILLER WHALE!

---

Greiger, known as Bommer in the Japanese version, was initially one of Goodwin's 5 Dueling Assassins that was placed in the Fortune Cup with the intent of exposing the Signers, as well as a member of Iliaster. Later, he became a member of the Dark Signers, bearing the dark mark of the killer whale and having his "Earthbound Immortal Chacu Challhua" (however, in Z-one's time-line he was not a Dark Signer). An honorable Duelist, Greiger was prideful, yet stoic. Likely of South American origin, he came from a destitute village and Dueled to provide financial aid to it. Once he was transformed into one of the Dark Signers, Greiger obtained the Killer Whale Dark Mark when Roman killed him by hanging him over the Negative Ener-D. He was then brought back to life after Goodwin's defeat. However, after he became one of the Dark Signers, Greiger came to learn the truth. The Dark Signers were responsible for the destruction of his village. When his "Earthbound Immortal Chacu Challhua" was Summoned, it held the souls of his siblings and other children from his village.

History

Greiger grew up in a poor village near the Nazca Lines.

It was thought that Iliaster had used Greiger's village as the site of an "experiment" to summon the Crimson Dragon, which completely destroyed the village and killed his entire family. With such information that Iliaster didn't want anyone to know, Greiger then became involved in some sort of compromise with Rex Goodwin, and agreed that KaibaCorp would provide aid for the reconstruction of the village in exchange for exposing the Signers during the Fortune Cup.

Fortune Cup

His first match was against Luna, but as her brother was substituting for her, he ended up Dueling a disguised Leo instead. Though Leo put up a valiant fight, Greiger won easily, and was never even intimidated. During the break between his match and the next match between Akiza Izinski and Gill Randsborg, Greiger was stopped in the hall by Lazar, and after he said that Greiger did well in his Duel, Greiger pointed out that no matter how they looked at it, the person he just fought was clearly a boy, to which Lazar showed him a paper which showed that Leo and Luna were in fact twins.

As Akiza faced off against Gill Randsborg and was left with only 50 Life Points, Greiger thought that the match would be over, but Yusei thought otherwise. When it was the real Luna's turn to Duel, Greiger told Yusei that the imposter had showed him some fine Dueling and then wondered how the genuine article would fare.

Greiger's opponent in the semifinals was Yusei. It was revealed during the match, that Grieger had learned of his sibling's deaths (In the dub, death was still strongly implied during the match). Greiger gained an advantage over Yusei by summoning his trump card, "Flying Fortress SKY FIRE", within the second turn of the Duel. Yusei was able to destroy it, but not before being left with only 300

Life Points after taking massive damage from both its massive attack power and destructive burn effect. Despite losing his key card, Greiger, however kept Yusei at bay with his "Chariot Pile" trap until he Summoned "Dark Strike Fighter", but Yusei was able to defeat Greiger before he could use its burn effect to end the match. Having lost the match and enraged at no longer being able to help his younger brother and sister, Greiger not only revealed the truth about his village to the audience, he then decided to take revenge on Goodwin for his village's destruction. Greiger used his Duel Runner to rocket towards the box room, and intended to kill Goodwin. Yusei attempted to stop him, but one of the spikes on Greiger's Duel Runner broke and flew off and crashed into Goodwin's control room. Goodwin caught it with his prosthetic hand. When both riders crash landed, an enraged Greiger grabbed Yusei and asked him why he stopped him. Yusei told him that if he went through with it, then he would have been no better than Goodwin.

Greiger was arrested by Sector Security after his assault on Goodwin. He left a message to Yusei and told him to carry out his own mission.

Dark Signers

Greiger was being transported in a Security vehicle at the time the abilities of the Dark Signers Misty Tredwell and Carly Carmine awoke. The city was shaken as the Lizard and Hummingbird Nazca lines appeared in New Domino City. The vehicle transporting Greiger was within the borders of the flaming lines. When Misty Summoned "Earthbound Immortal Ccarayhua" the guards transporting Greiger as well as everyone else within the Nazca border were absorbed by it to fulfill its summoning requirements. Greiger was then freed from their custody by Devack, who seemed to know him somehow. Devack invited Greiger by saying that if the flames of vengeance still burned within him to join them.

After Devack's defeat and the destruction of "Cusillu", Roman Goodwin proved to have a contingency plan. After he brought Greiger to the doors of the Underworld, Roman said that he was going to gain newfound power as a Dark Signer. Greiger agreed to stop Yusei in order to get vengeance on Goodwin. Greiger was then transformed into a Dark Signer after Roman killed him by hanging him (In the dub, he was dropped into the Netherworld via a trapdoor, and the thread hanging was removed) and obtained an Earthbound Immortal; known as "Chacu Challhua". Greiger attempted to catch up with Yusei only to be cut off by Crow Hogan who challenged him to a Shadow Turbo Duel.

During the Duel, it was revealed like Crow, he too had looked after a group of orphaned children along with his younger siblings, Annie and Max. It was also revealed that it was the Earthbound Immortals, mainly Greiger's, that had caused their disappearance as evident by their souls trapped within "Chacu Challhua". Upon this revelation, Greiger attempted to back down, however at that time, the Earthbound God telepathically requested him to not only to continue, but to also to kill every Signer (In the English Dub it was Roman). As Greiger refused, in the end, he was taken over and attacked Crow unwillingly.

The Duel ended with Crow as the victor, and the souls of everyone the Immortal had absorbed were released, including everyone from Greiger's village. Greiger, having to pay the price as a Dark Signer, crumbled to dust, but not before apologizing to both Crow and Yusei. He died happy knowing what finally happened to his village and that they were all free. A shooting star was seen over his village later. His brother and sister wondered if Greiger was also watching it.

When Rex was defeated in the final battle, and the King of the Netherworld was destroyed, Greiger was restored to life, along with the other Dark Signers except for Roman and Goodwin himself.

World Racing Grand Prix

Greiger returned home to his family and decided to travel to Nazca where they enshrined the Nazca Gods. After the Diablo attack on New Domino City, and Yusei obtained his Accel Synchro Monster, Greiger had a dream. The dream was about Jack Atlas being destroyed by his own Signer Dragon, "Red Dragon Archfiend". He then sent a letter to Jack and stating that "Jack Atlas would destroy himself with his own power if he didn't find a new way of fighting." Jack and Yusei end up going to Nazca to see what exactly was meant by the letter. Later the same day, Greiger had Jack Duel his younger sibling Max to see Jack's power. After Max's Duel, Jack left Greiger and Yusei on his Duel Runner.

Eventually, Greiger figured out that his dream was just a set up in order to get Jack to come to Nazca due to the will of the Crimson Devil. Having learned that Jack had made his way into the shrine, Greiger and Yusei, along with Max, witnessed Jack make a contract to a spirit that served the Crimson Devil, The Familiar of Red Nova. The deal was that if Jack won, he would be granted power. However, if Jack lost, then the Crimson Devil would take his body and use it for his own agenda. Greiger also revealed the battle between the Crimson Devil and Crimson Dragon, and how the Crimson Dragon fought it to exhaustion (Greiger stated that even the Dark Signers could not control the Crimson Devil). He explained how the "Legendary Signer" defeated the Crimson Devil with Burning Soul.

Ark Cradle

During Yusei's Duel against Z-ONE Greiger was seen cheering on Yusei.

Greiger later appeared in episode 152 where he was seen briefly being defeated in a duel by Jack, who was self-training himself to once again regain his crown as the King of Riding Duels. He commented on how Jack's skills had improved once more.

---

Jack Atlas: Greiger!

Greiger: Its been a while Jack.

Me: You know him?

Jack Atlas: I sure do. He was one of the Duel Assassins sent to find the Signers. But he became a Dark Signer after he dueled Rex Goodwin's brother Roman and he was hung over the power Reactor.

We gasped in shock.

Me: Whoa! Wait a minute. I remember seeing you when we were down in Peru on our worldwide adventure. We saw you in a small village in the Nazca Desert.

Greiger: That's right. I have seen you there J.D. It was interesting having you all in South America.

Me: And we just destroyed Tony Montana and Alejandro Sosa yesterday.

Greiger: It's good you did. They were really dangerous men.

Me: Yep. That mark you have is the Killer Whale Nazca Line.

Greiger: That's right. I am the Dark Signer of the Earthbound Immortal Chacu Challhua.

Me: That name is Quechua for anchoveta. It's a type of Peruvian Fish.

Greiger: That's right. I'm impressed that you know so much about the worlds history and how the cards of Duel Monsters are based off of.

Me: Got to have the knowledge of different events and all things on Earth if you want to learn stuff.

Greiger: True.

?: Lets see if you know me.

A figure came out and it was LAUNCH OCTOPUS!

Nico: Whoa! Who are you?

Launch Octopus: You can call me… Launch Octopus! ( shoots two homing fish-shaped missiles at Dive Man from his tentacles)

Dive Man fired his torpedoes and they hit the Homing Fish and exploded.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!

Me: All right lets go at them. Who wants who?

Luan: I'll take Vypra as usual.

Lana: I'll take Vexen.

Lily: Me and Nico will face Launch Octopus.

Jack Atlas: I'll face Greiger.

Lola: And me, Shanan and Liberty will help you Jack.

Jack Atlas: Thanks girls.

Me: And the rest of us will face Hexxus. Lets get them!

We went at them.

---

Battle 1: Luan VS Vypra

---

Luan was facing Vypra.

Luan: You have doing really well Vypra. Sorry Leni smashed Webstor and his Pokemon.

Vypra: It's all right but Leni needs to get over her fear of Spiders.

Luan: Knowing Leni that probably will never happen. We tried several times and they all failed. She has a Phobia with 8-Legs. (Laughs) Get it?

Vypra: (Laughs) I do. Good one. I have new pokemon.

She called out her pokemon and they were Gliscor and a Murkrow.

Luan: Cool! You have a Gliscor and a Murkrow.

Vypra: Yep.

Luan: Lets dance shall we?

Vypra unsheathed her sword and so did Luan.

Vypra: Lets.

They went at each other and clashed their swords and sparks and lightning flew all over the place.

They clashed violently and Luan fired blasts of rainbow light at Vypra and she dodged the blasts and they hit the ground and exploded.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

Vypra fired blasts of darkness and Luan deflected the blasts back and they hit the ground behind Vypra and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

The explosions sent Vypra flying and knocked her down.

Vypra's Gliscor and Murkrow fired blasts of fire and dark energy and Luan fired blasts of light and they hit both Pokemon and knocked them down.

Luan: That certainly Lights you up. (Laughs)

---

Battle 2: Lana VS Vexen

---

Lana was facing Vexen.

Vexen: You look like you're doing really well Lana.

Lana: Same to you Vexen.

Vexen: I also have new Pokemon for you to see.

Out came a Cryogonal and a Beartic!

Lana: Cool! You have a Cryogonal and a Beartic.

Vexen: That's right. Nico and Ash and his friends taught you all about Pokemon haven't they?

Lana: With over 807+ Species of Pokemon out there, we have to get as many of them as we can and we have to make sure that villain teams use them for evil.

Vexen: Very good and just cause.

Lana: Thanks. J.D. caught a new pokemon called an Eternitus. Really unusual and really cool Pokemon.

Vexen: That's one of the legendary Galar Region Pokemon.

Lana: Galar?

Vexen: That's the new region they are from. There's over 200 new Pokemon in that area.

Lana: Wow! Do you know where it's at?

Vexen: I certainly do. It's located in England, Ireland, Wales, Scotland, and Northern Ireland.

Lana: Whoa! That's amazing! Thank you.

Vexen: You're welcome Lana. Shall we fight?

Lana: Lets shall.

Lana and Vexen went at each other and Lana punched him in the chest and fired a blast of ice lightning and it hit Vexen and froze him solid and she fired Ice Lightning blasts and froze Cryogonal and Beartic in blocks of ice.

Battle 3: Launch Octopus

Lily and Nico were facing Launch Octopus and the Megaforce Rangers were helping him.

Nico: Lets dance you 8-Armed tin can.

Lily: Yeah!

Troy Burrows: Lets do it!

They went at Launch Octopus and blasted him with energy blasts and lasers and they blasted him all over until he was scrap metal. We all also got Launch Octopus Weapons as a result.

Nico: Launch Octopus, you have failed this world.

Battle 4: Greiger

It was Greiger's turn.

Shanan: You know your teammate Kalin was bent on killing J.D.

Greiger: I can see that. He and J.D. put up one amazing fight.

Lola: He sure did.

Liberty: Yeah it was also really cool seeing them fight on the Giant Nazca Line in the sky.

Jack Atlas: A really good show.

Greiger: Indeed. Lets get this fight on the road. I summon

EARTHBOUND IMMORTAL CHACU CHALLHUA!

He summoned the terrifying Orca Earthbound Immortal Chacu Challhua! It looked like a scary whale with Indigo markings and it was terrifying.

Shanan: Whoa! So that's Chacu Challhua. Really cool!

Lola: Amazing!

Liberty: Wow!

Jack Atlas: It sure is. I summon RED NOVA DRAGON!

Jack summoned an upgraded version of Red Dragon Archfiend and it was his strongest and most powerful dragon. It was RED NOVA DRAGON! He was a Level 12 Dragon Monster with 3500 ATK and 3000 DEF.

Shanan: Whoa! That dragon is cool!

Lola: It sure is. It looks like an upgraded version of your Red Dragon Archfiend.

Jack Atlas: Yes. It's the Avatar of the Earthbound Immortals.

Jack told them that he achieved this new power for Red Dragon Archfiend when he defeated the Lord of The Earthbound Immortals of the Snake Nazca Line, RED NOVA - THE ULTIMATE ENEMY OF THE CRIMSON DRAGON!

Jack went over Red Nova's history.

---

Red Nova, known as Scar-Red Nova (sometimes translated as Scarlet Nova) in the Japanese version, is the Crimson Devil and the strongest of the Earthbound Immortals. It is known to be a mercilessly brutal demon, to the extent that even the Dark Signers did not dare attempt to harness its power.

In its true form, it single-handedly fought against the Crimson

Dragon 5,000 years before the other Earthbound Immortals and lost.

The Crimson Devil has a fire demon servant, the Familiar of Red Nova, who planned to offer the body of Jack Atlas as a vessel, to awaken the Crimson Devil from its 10,000-year slumber. It is said to be associated with the serpent Nazca Line.

10,000 years ago, Red Nova drove the Crimson Dragon to its limits and was only stopped by a legendary Signer who possessed a Blazing Soul.

Towards the end of the ritual Duel between the Demon's servant and Jack Atlas, Red Nova was summoned by his servant to take Jack. However, the Crimson Dragon appeared, helping Jack acquire the necessary power through Blazing Soul to capture Red Nova and seal it into "Red Dragon Archfiend", giving it the ability to evolve into "Red Nova Dragon".

---

They gasped and even Greiger was shocked!

Shanan: Unbelievable!

Lola: That's incredible! You defeated the strongest ever of the Earthbound Immortals!

Liberty: That's amazing! You did what many over the eons could not!

Greiger: Incredible! You achieved what the Dark Signers could not. That is incredibly amazing.

Jack Atlas: Indeed.

Shanan: Lets dance shall we?

Greiger: Lets.

They went at Greiger and Shanan kicked him in the chest and Lola punched him in the face and Liberty fired a blast of wind and blew him around.

Liberty: Try this one. ALIEN STYLE NINJA ART: MARCH OF THE GROVEBACKS!

Liberty fired a blast of energy and it turned into a heard of huge creatures called Grovebacks! They were big creatures from Darwin IV!

---

Grovebacks are one of the largest indigenous species native to Darwin IV. They spend the greater portion of their lives dormant, buried under the loamy soil and often only appearing as strangely regular hummocks surmounted by small strands of shallow-rooted Darwinian trees. They rise only sparingly to wander ponderously from one breeding ground to the next. Once mobile, they balance upon two thick legs and a single rudder-like limb used to balance them that is dragged along behind them, leaving a deep groove in their wake.

Biology

Grovebacks possess a 13 meter wide semi-circular head and two enormous nostrils, with several more nostril-like openings covering the tops of their heads. While it is very likely that they have amazingly thick skin due to their enormous girth, they are still susceptible to attacks by fields of Beach Quills, which can bring them crashing down to their deaths. While surfaced, they, like many of the huge "animals" on the planet, depend upon the protein-rich and abundant food stock that is the tiny aerophytes - microflyers that sometimes darken the skies with their uncountable numbers. These aerophytes infrequently will perform periodic expansions of their swarms, which the Groveback's rare emergences coincide with, as it is only during these times that they can easily support such beasts. When the microflyers dissipate, the Grovebacks will rebury themselves for another period of dormancy. Recent studies have suggested that they may in fact switch dietary habits during this time, transforming into lithovores who feed upon the nutrients in the soil through the skin of their underbody, and potentially through the many nostril-like orifices adorning their dorsal sides. Young Grovebacks have three legs, which, like other Darwinian creatures, will be replaced by the rear skid.

Fully matured members of this species are large enough to support entire stands of Darwinian trees, which grow along their backs during their long periods of burial. These saplings form a commensal symbiotic relationship with the Grovebacks, injecting them with sugars while the Grovebacks trade them water in return. This symbiosis is so perfect that advanced scouting drones have been unable to detect the Groveback beneath the ground. The groveback might be a distant cousin to the Keeled Slider since both species of creature walks on two front limbs and balances using a single rutter-like limb.

---

The Grovebacks stomped on Chacu Challhua and even stomped on Greiger.

Shanan: Whoa! Those were Grovebacks from the planet Darwin IV!

Jack Atlas: Incredible! I've never seen creatures like that before.

Lola: Me neither. Those were awesome!

Liberty: Watch this one. ALIEN STYLE NINJA ART: GYROSPRINTER STAMPEDE!

Liberty fired a wave of energy and it turned into a massive stampede of the bipedal sprinters of Darwin IV - The Gyrosprinter!

---

Gyrosprinters are the fastest ground-dwelling organisms on Darwin IV, and can easily outrun many of their predators, such as the Arrowtongues and Pronghead. Evolved from quadrupedal fauna, their legs have become fused at the forelimbs over the course of millions of years, leaving them with literally "one foot in front of the other". To counteract this, they have developed a set of hyper-developed halteres in order to keep in balance, which allows them to continue careening across their home biomes despite what would otherwise be considered an unfortunate deformity.

Gyrosprinters are also extremely flexible and maneuverable, and can turn on a dime to elude most predators with ease. The have a relatively small, bony, almost skull-like cephalon (or "head") at the end of their strong neck, which serves two functions: it not only houses the primary sensory organs of the beast, but also provides a sheath-like tip for its 2 meter long tongue, which, like the Arrowtongue, is used for eating. To aid in a lifestyle of such energetic activity, they have two hearts and nostrils which have been relocated to their shoulders in order to provide a more steady stream of oxygen. Bioluminescent patches dot their back.

---

The Gyrosprinters rammed Greiger down and trampled him.

Shanan: Whoa! Those were Darwin IV Gyrosprinters!

Lola: They sure were fast.

Jack Atlas: Indeed.

Liberty: But now we need to weaken Chacu Challhua. ALIEN STYLE NINJA ART: POISON BOMBARDMENT OF BEACH QUILLS!

Liberty fired a massive wave of energy and it turned into hundreds of Darwin IV Beach Quills.

---

Beach Quills are spike-like, ambush predators with a short ranged attack, indigenous to the planet Darwin IV. They are also some of the smallest creatures to be found on the planet. They live in huge colonies within the littoral zone which can be up to a million strong, where they lie in wait for an organism to step near.

Once one inevitably does, they will launch themselves into the hide of their prey by the hundreds, propelling themselves with enormous velocity over short distances by means of a folded, muscular 'foot' which snaps the animal through the concealing undergrowth their colonies camouflage themselves in. At this point, they will inject their prey with neurotoxins, stunning the victim so that the Quills may burrow into its flesh, only to later emerge and rebury itself. Their colonies are so potent that despite being so small in comparison to other species on the world, they can bring down even the greatest beings, such as the Groveback, often causing them to suffer a slow and painful death.

They hit Chacu Challhua by the hundreds and they were poisoning him and he was screaming and roaring in excruciating pain.

Shanan: Whoa! Those were Darwin IV Beach Quills!

Lola: That is intense! Are they poisoning him?

Shanan: That's right. Each of them carry a lethal Neurotoxin Poison that is strong enough to kill 100 people.

They gasped.

Jack Atlas: That is lethal!

Shanan: I would call that overkill.

Lola: Just what I was thinking.

Jack Atlas and Red Nova Dragon fired a massive blast of fire and it slammed into Chacu Challhua and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Chacu Challhua was destroyed.

Shanan: Yeah!

Battle 5: Hexxus!

We regrouped and we were facing Hexxus!

Me: You are going down Hexxus!

We went at him and I fired a powerful blast of fire and it hit Hexxus and his oil was ignited and he was on fire.

Lola and Lana fired a massive blasts of ice and fire and they hit Hexxus and exploded.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

Laney fired waves of fire and Riley fired leaves and they hit Hexxus and burned him all over.

Liberty: Try this! ALIEN ATYLE NINJA ART: WAVE OF THE AMOEBIC SEA!

Liberty fired a wave of gel and it was that of the Darwin IV Amoebic Sea!

---

The Amoebic Sea is a vast, gelatinous superorganism blanketing about 5% of the surface of planet Darwin IV. With an overall profundity of ten meters, the Amoebic Sea is the largest single colony organism known.

Located mainly on the northern hemisphere, the "sea" is composed of billions of single-celled organisms. Although the sea matrix is eaten by many kinds of faunal organisms (living both on the sea and the coast), the Amoebic Sea is also a predator itself, being able to extend long tentacles out of its surface and capture small flying organisms to eat. It is also assumed that when a creature dies in the sea, it soon becomes food to the superorganism.

The planet of Darwin IV once had grand oceans, but its water slowly evaporated over the eons, leading to the evolution of the Amoebic Sea, which is able to retain water within itself. All the water absorbed by the "sea" is sealed within the gelatinous matrix in order to prevent evaporation. Nowadays, Darwin IV has no large body of water, and most of the planet's water is found in the atmosphere, in the polar caps, underground aquifers (please take note that's how forests can only exist in small pockets), or in the bodies of living creatures.

The "sea" is also home to a variety of organisms, the most famous of which is the gargantuan biped known as the Emperor Sea Strider.

This 180 meter tall creature has two mouths, one on each foot. As the Sea Strider walks slowly on the surface of the Amoebic Sea; at the same time it feeds upon the gel. It is thanks to the shock absorbing, weight distributing, jelly-like substance, that the beast is able to grow to such a huge size. Among the other, much smaller inhabitants of the "sea" are flying creatures like the Diskflyers, the Stripewings, and the Sea Strider's nymphs. There is also a large number of poorly known, symbiotic organisms living beneath the surface, within the gel.

---

The Amoebic Sea wave hit Hexxus and he was being eaten all over.

Me: Whoa! That's wicked!

Shanan: That was the Amoebic Sea! It is a sea of Amoeba Cells that covers 5% of the surface of Darwin IV. It is what's left of the water that used to cover Darwin IV when all of its oceans evaporated.

Lincoln: That is so cool!

Lola: I didn't know that. How big is the Amoebic Sea?

Shanan: It covers an area about the size of Texas.

Lisa Loud: That's 268,597 mi$^2$.

Shanan: Exactly.

Lola: Wow!

Lori: That's literally amazing!

Shanan: It sure is.

Liberty: Lets see how Hexxus likes this. ALIEN STYLE NINJA ART: STOMP OF THE EMPEROR SEA STRIDER!

Liberty formed a wave of energy and it turned into a huge Emperor Sea Strider from Darwin IV!

---

Emperor Sea Striders are the best known and the largest organisms living on Darwin IV. They spend their lives within the confines of the Amoebic Sea, as it is the only source of energy on the planet to support such massive creatures. The species goes through an amazing metamorphosis at some point in its life: when they are born, they are known as nymphs and somewhat resemble more compacted versions of the adults, but differ in that they are capable of powered flight, however, this ability is lost as they mature and develop a bipedal gait, and begin feeding off of the amoebic sea. Their name comes from their ability to walk across the surface of the organic sea's yielding surface, which, despite their large stature, is accomplished quite easily through the utilization of a framework which places their center of mass around their mouths/feet and lower leg portions, with the lightest part being the top of the body. This allows them to maintain a mass light enough to not rupture the membrane of the amoebic sea, and yet retain enough mass to not topple over in the storms that are commonplace in the regions to which they are indigenous.

An enigmatic function of their physiology is their highly unusual feeding system. They possess two mouths, with each being located on their feet, effectively allowing them to eat anything they step on. With these, they shave off great chunks of the sea-matrix for consumption. Identifying traits of the species are the mouthless crested head, flanked on each side by huge orange-glowing bioluminescent cavities, smaller blue-glowing bioluminescent lights accenting their crest and multiple tentacles on their front (likely for communication), and two "tails" - one which is an actual tail and the smaller is a phallus.

The orange cavities in the sides of their head also attract the young Strider nymphs, which orbit around the adult Striders, likely for protection. Interestingly Strider nymphs are in fact prey to the Amoebic Sea itself, which extend in tentacle-like columns to catch them in mid-air.

---

The massive creature sent Strider Flyers and they hit Hexxus all over and pulverized him.

Me: Whoa!

Shanan: That's the largest creature on Darwin IV, the Emperor Sea Strider. It's over 670 feet tall and it feeds on the Amoebic Sea.

Nico: Whoa! That is wicked.

Lori: This is gonna be a good one. WIND STYLE NINJA ART: THE ETHIOPIAN EMPIRE!

Lori fired a massive blast of wind and it turned into the armies of Ethiopian Empire from 1270 to 1974 and they slashed and blasted Hexxus all over and fanned his flames and burned him all over.

Me: Whoa! That was the Ethiopian Army.

Jessie K.: Yep that was the Ethiopian Empire Army from over the course of 704 years from 1270 to 1974. They were disbanded in 1974 when a pro-Soviet Marxist-Leninist military junta, the "Derg", led by Mengistu Haile Mariam, deposed Haile Selassie and established a socialist republic. Haile Selassie was imprisoned and died in unclear circumstances, a rumor being that he was suffocated with an ether-soaked pillow.

Lana: Wow! That's big.

Laney: Lets see how Hexxus likes this. CELTIC STYLE NINJA ART: FAIRIES OF IRELAND!

Laney fired a wave of green energy and it formed into a bunch of Fairies from Celtic Myth and they blasted Hexxus all over with magic and energy.

Ronnie Anne: Top this one Lame-o. LUNAR STYLE NINJA ART: LONG DUAL MOONLIGHT LIGHTWHIPS!

Ronnie Anne formed whips of moonlight and she lashed Hexxus all over.

Me: Nice one!

Ben: Lets see how Hexxus likes this predator!

Ben turned into a new Predator. It was called RAGEIATION! It looked a lot like a giant red dragon.

Ben: RAGEIATION!

Me: Whoa! That looks like a really scary dragon!

Shanan: Whoa! That's a Nucleonian Dragon! They are the natural predators of the Uranonians, Atomix's Species.

Laney: Whoa!

Riley: I didn't think that the species of Atomix had predators like that because they are radioactive.

Julie Yamamoto: Yeah.

Nico: Really cool!

Rageiation: Watch this.

He fired a blast of Nuclear Fire from his mouth and it slammed into Hexxus and exploded.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

See you all on Friday

An Alien Pokemon

At the estate we were watching some videos about the humiliations we did to Peter Griffin and Bad Lois.

We were laughing our heads off.

Me: (Laughs) Oh man this was so funny!

Nico: I forgot how much fun we had.

Lincoln: I know.

We were laughing a lot at the pranks we did and they were so funny!

Qin: Oh that is so funny how you all made Peter a drunk fool!

Lois Griffin: (Laughs) That is so funny!

Meg Griffin: He deserved it for being a really bad father!

Brian Griffin: I agree.

Stewie: The fat man had it coming.

We saw Peter and bad Lois getting humiliated to such a degree and more and we were laughing really hard.

Lea: What do you mean you don't want a Miraculous?!

Gabriel: I'm sorry. But I'm just not ready for one.

Maria: Gabriel, you've more than proven yourself worthy. I mean, why wouldn't you be?

Gabriel: (sarcastically) Well, let's see. The last time I had a Miraculous, I became a supervillain who would do anything to get my wife back. Several time, I used my Akumas to turn people into villains against their own will. Then I used them to create havoc so many times. And I also employed a lying Italian girl, who made Marinette's life a living hell and who also injured Sabine Cheng and Mayor Bourgeois. Have I left anything out?!

Stork: Well, you did unintentionally inspirate Vypra and Dark Spicer to restore King Hiss and Webstor into the Masters of Evil.

Gabriel: (sarcastically) Thank you! Thank you very much.

Me: Boy Deja vu. Milo Thatch said something just like that.

Beast Boy: (to Gabriel) Look, if you won't want a Miraculous, that's fine. We won't force you. But you know where to find us if you change your mind.

Gabriel: Where are you all going?

Me: We're heading to a really cool futuristic city located near Galveston, Texas. It's called LaRousse City. It's said to be a really amazing futuristic city said to be from the year 4,000.

Ash: I remember that city. It's really something!

May: That's where we encountered Deoxys and Rayquaza fighting.

Nico: Whoa! That sounds really cool.

Ash: It is. It's really something and our friend Tory lives there.

Me: Well lets head over there.

We were off to LaRousse City.

---

LAROUSSE CITY, TEXAS

---

We arrived in LaRousse City.

---

LaRousse City (Japanese: ラルース LaRousse) is an anime-exclusive location in the Hoenn region. It is the setting of Destiny Deoxys. According to promotional maps, LaRousse City is located near Lilycove City.

It is a technologically advanced city with moving walkways and an enormous presence of Block Bots. All LaRousse residents and visitors receive a special passport, which acts as ID and enables them to shop. The city's main power source seems to be its wind turbines. The most famous attraction is the Battle Tower.

The city is located at the confluence of two rivers in northern Hoenn. The city mainly lies on an island, including the huge park, the Battle Tower, and most of the business districts. On the shores of the river, presumably mainland Hoenn, lies more areas of the city, and presumably other cities such as South City. Access to the island is via monorail, which wraps around the island, and a bridge over the northern part of the island.

In Destiny Deoxys, a Deoxys awakened after four years and made its way to LaRousse to rescue its friend, who had been taken by Professor Lund for research.

Deoxys unleashed a powerful electromagnetic force field over LaRousse City to stop its search from being disrupted. The electromagnetic power also affected the city's Block Bots and electricity system, leaving many unable to leave. While Officer Jenny and Professor Lund coordinated a rescue mission, Deoxys was seemingly kidnapping everyone in sight with its army of clones. Among the trapped, Ash, his friends, Rafe, Rebecca, Sid, Audrey and Kathryn, Tory and Yuko realized Deoxys's intentions and worked together to restore the green Deoxys core.

However the situation became complicated with the arrival of Rayquaza, who was determined to fight the Deoxys to protect its territory. The Deoxys later befriended Rayquaza after rescuing it from the rogue Block Bots, and they soon left LaRousse City to return to their respective homes.

LaRousse City made a cameo in Lucario and the Mystery of Mew.

Places of Interest

Battle Tower

The Battle Tower is LaRousse City's most famous attractions. Ash and his friends traveled to LaRousse just so Ash could compete against some tough opponents. He met his match against Sid and Rafe, though the loss was somewhat his impromptu battle partner Tory's hesitance to battle that cost Ash the match.

Monorail

The monorail is the main entry into LaRousse City. The train station is a large building which also includes a shopping mall.

Parkland

LaRousse City has a large array of parks and public facilities on offer. Tory particularly likes hanging out in the city's greenhouse, which houses some rare plants and where he originally met a Deoxys who only appeared to him as a sprite.

Pokémon Center

Main article: Pokémon Center

Ash, his friends, Rafe, Rebecca, Sid, Audrey and Kathryn all stayed at the local Pokémon Center while in LaRousse City.

Professor Lund's laboratory

Professor Lund and his research assistant Yuko operate a laboratory, where they studied a green core Deoxys over four years. They experimented with different frequencies and lasers in an attempt to regenerate Deoxys. In Destiny Deoxys, Yuko succeeded and the revitalized Deoxys reunited with its friend.

---

Me: WHOA! So this is LaRousse City. It's incredible!

Nico: It sure is. I can't believe that it's this advanced!

May: It's just as beautiful as I remember.

Serena: It sure is.

Mellow: Wow! It's incredible!

Kiawe: Beautiful.

Sophecles: Breathtaking and beautiful.

Varie: It sure is. It says that it's all powered by wind and water and the sun.

Me: It's a totally green city.

Leni: Green? It's all grey and silver.

Lisa Loud: No Leni. That means that it's safe for the environment.

Leni: Oh right.

Demolishor: I can't believe Gabriel doesn't want to use a Miraculous.

William: Can you blame him? He's afraid that he might misuse its' power like he did before. And there's also the possibility that he's afraid of what Lynn, Lori, and Lola might do to him.

Me: That is true.

Stewie: Now who are we going to give this Miraculous to?

Blur: There's always Ivan Bruel. He doesn't have one yet. But let's save it for later in the week.

Me: Okay.

We went into the city and we saw that the floor was all conveyor belts. It was so advanced.

Hay Lin: Wow! Look at this city!

Me: I know. It's like something out of the year 4,000.

Wes Collins: It feels like we're back home in the year 3,000.

Jen Scotts: It sure does feel like it.

Marinette: This is so amazing. It's like we went forward in time to the future.

Me: It sure does feel that way.

Laney: I wouldn't mind coming here for a vacation one of these days.

Lincoln: Me neither.

Linka: This is so amazing.

Lily: It sure is.

?: Hey guys!

We saw a boy with light blue hair and on his shoulders were a Plusle and a Minum. It was Tory Lund.

Ash: Tory!

Tory: Ash it's great to see you again.

Ash: Same to you Tory.

Pikachu: Pika!

Plusle: Plusle!

Minum: Minum!

Tory: Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Me: It's a pleasure to meet you Tory.

Tory: It's an honor to meet you all as well. I've heard so many awesome good things about you.

Me: Well we don't like to brag.

?: Hey guys!

We saw Tory's friends as well. We saw a girl with lavender purple hair and glasses named Rebecca, and the twin trainers Audrey and Kathryn. Audrey had Gold color clothes and Kathryn had Pink clothes.

Ash: Rebecca, Audrey, Kathryn!

Audrey & Kathryn: (In Unison) It's great to see you again.

Rebecca: Same here Ash. Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm is with you as well.

Me: It's a pleasure to meet you all.

Rebecca: Same here. We heard so much about all your adventures.

Me: Not to brag but they were awesome.

Lily: Wow! Rebecca I love your hair.

Rebecca: Thanks Lily.

Lana: Wow! You two are twins like me and Lola.

Lola: Love your outfits.

Audrey & Kathryn: Thank you both.

Tory: Let me show you guys something really cool.

We went into an awesome building and we saw a really cool lab. There we met Professor Lund and his assistant Yuko.

Professor Lund: Team Loud Phoenix Storm! It's such an honor to have you here.

Me: It's a pleasure to be here Professor Lund. Tory told us that you all met the legendary extraterrestrial Pokemon called Deoxys - the DNA Pokemon.

Yuko: That's right. We first encountered it up in the Arctic. It's a pokemon from Outer Space.

Nico: How is that possible? I thought all Pokemon came from Earth.

Vince: That's what really stumps me.

Hunter: (German Accent) Ja. Und I always thought that all Pokemon were from Earth too.

Me: Yeah.

Professor Lund: It's a big mystery. We don't know where Deoxys came from. But he is now in a terrible fight with Rayquaza.

Me: The Legendary Sky High Pokemon.

Professor Lund: That's right. But we found out from Tory that all Deoxys wanted was to find his friend that crash landed here too.

Me: And did he succeed?

Professor Lund: Yes he did.

Yuko: But the two Deoxys are still fighting Rayquaza even as we speak.

Me: We had better do something to calm them down and show that Deoxys is not a threat.

Tory: That's right.

?: Let us help out too.

We saw a boy dressed in blue with brown hair named Rafe and with him was a chubby boy in black with black hair and with a red headband. It was Sid.

Ash: Rafe, Sid!

Rafe: Ash it's great to see you again.

Sid: Same here Ash. Welcome back.

Ash: Thanks guys.

Rafe: And wow you are all now members of Team Loud Phoenix Storm!? That's incredible.

Sid: It sure is. Way to go Ash.

Ash: Thanks guys.

Me: It's a pleasure to meet you both.

Rafe: Same to you J.D. We have heard so many awesome things about you all.

Sid: We love all of your adventures.

Me: We don't like to brag but we have to do what is needed to keep everyone safe.

Nico: That's right.

Then we sensed a huge energy spike and saw a stream of purple and green aurora appear from out of nowhere.

Me: Whoa!

Tory: It's Deoxys! They're both here.

And sure enough we saw both of them flying over the city.

Me: Whoa! There they are!

Nico: Wow! The legendary DNA Pokemon.

Suddenly we heard a roar and we saw the 2 Deoxys fighting Rayquaza!

Spicer: Great! We have fun for 6 hours and things go to shit!

Me: Lets go guys!

We went out and flew up to them and on Rayquaza's back we saw Vanitas and Lord Drakkon!

Me: Vanitas and Lord Drakkon!

Tori Hansen: Did you two have anything to do with this?

Vanitas: Nope. We're just here to fight you guys. But you're gonna have to find out which of these Pokemon is the bad guy here.

Me: We already know who it is. It's Rayquaza because he thinks that the Deoxys pose a threat to the world.

Lord Drakkon: Indeed.

The 2 Deoxys formed clones and they were ready.

Then I saw my Signer mark glow.

Me: Uh oh. Dark Signer presence.

?: From me.

On Rayquaza's back was another member of the Dark Signers. It was DEVACK - DARK SIGNER OF THE MONKEY!

---

Devack, known as Demak in the Japanese version, is Roman Goodwin's right-hand man and a member of the Dark Signers. He freed Greiger from his prison transport, and offered him the chance to fulfill his desire for vengeance. He was also responsible for the Minus Curse that infected the Spirit World with the help of his subordinate, Zeman The Ape King.

It is unknown how Devack became a Dark Signer. At some point upon his rebirth, he met Roman and the other Dark Signers, and pledged his loyalty to Roman. At some point, he was given Ancient Fairy Dragon by Roman to set up his eventual confrontation with Luna. He appeared out of the original Ener-D Reactor by arriving by helicopter in order to free Greiger from custody with an "Axe of Despair" card, as his transport guard's souls had been absorbed by the "Earthbound Immortal Ccaryahua". Devack then invited him to join them and get revenge on Rex Goodwin for the destruction of his hometown. They later picked up Misty Tredwell and Carly Carmine from the destroyed Arcadia Movement building and returned to the Ener-D reactor.

He finally showed himself to his rivals, the Signers, after Roman's Shadow Duel against Yusei concluded. Before their departure, he showed Luna that he possessed the "Ancient Fairy Dragon" card, and so in order to get it back, she must fight him. Later on, as each one of the Signers was set on defeating their respective opponent, they split up to each of the four control units of the Original Ener-D reactor. As Luna and Leo were taken by Trudge to where Devack was, she instead went into the Duel Monsters Spirit World in order to free Ancient Fairy Dragon from her imprisonment with the the help of her servant, Regulus. However, when Leo found the control unit, Devack approached him while the Monkey geoglyph materialized. Leo then bravely challenged him, and stating that if he defeated the Dark Signer then Luna wouldn't have to Duel him.

Despite Devack's warning that Leo wouldn't be able to save himself and his sister, as he was not a Signer, the Duel was still on. Devack was quickly able to inflict damage to his opponent at the start, but Leo counterattacked with "Power Tool Dragon", his ace card. Devack then Summoned the Dark Synchro Monster, "Zeman the Ape King". Eventually, Leo was able to destroy his Dark Synchro Monster, at the exact same time that Regulus destroyed Zeman in the Spirit World, by utilizing his "Power Tool Dragon". However Devack Summoned his true ace card, "Earthbound Immortal Cusillu". He attacked directly, but Leo prevented himself from being defeated. Then, Luna arrived, and took Leo's Duel Disk and the twins Dueled together.

However, Devack Summoned "Ancient Fairy Dragon", and later sacrificed her to prevent the destruction of "Cusillu". This ultimately backfired for him, as Luna used Leo's "Respect Synchron" to Summon "Ancient Fairy" to her side and used its effect to destroy "Closed Forest" thus negating all the effects of "Cusillu" and rendering it useless. Then Luna assaulted it with "Power Tool Dragon", weakening it and then destroyed it with "Ancient Fairy Dragon". The Duel ended with Devack's defeat.

Regretting his defeat, Devack turned into dust while asking Roman for forgiveness for failing the Dark Signers (In the dub, he tried to drag Leo and Luna with him to the Netherworld, but failed when Yusei came in and saved them).

When Rex was defeated in the final battle and the King of the Netherworld was destroyed, Devack was restored to life, along with the other Dark Signers except for Roman and Rex himself. It is unknown if he kept the memories of his time as a Dark Signer.

---

Luna (5D's): Devack!

Devack: Its been a while Luna.

Me: You know him Luna?

Luna (5D's): I sure do. He is the one that took Ancient Fairy Dragon from me.

Me: Whoa!

I saw the Monkey Nazca Line on his arm.

Me: That's the Monkey Nazca Line on your arm.

Devack: That's right. You know all about the Earthbound Immortals and the Nazca Lines, I take it.

Me: We sure do. We saw the Nazca Lines over in Peru and it was a huge mystery that has baffled us for centuries.

Devack: It sure has. I am the Dark Signer of the Earthbound Immortal Cusillu.

Me: That is Quechua for Monkey. But how did you die if I may ask?

Devack: I was shot and killed by Luna & Leo's father and I wanted to get revenge on him.

Me: But I don't think their father is alive anymore.

Yusei: No he's not J.D.

Me: Oh no.

Devack: Then I will take my revenge on Luna still.

Nico: Not if I can help it!

?: Let me help out too.

A figure came out and it was MANHOLE BOT from episode 20 of R.P.M.!

---

When the City Hall area came under attack, this monster managed to corner Colonel Truman, a little Girl, and two city Defense Soldiers in an ally way. They were blocked in by the Bot and a team of Grinders. Just as the Bot was about to fire, the Gold Ranger jumped in and deflected the blasts with his Cloud Hatchet.

While the Red Ranger battled the Grinders, the Gold Ranger fought off this Attack Bot. With his Cloud Hatchet, the Gold Ranger was successful in destroying the Attack Bot.

---

Gem: Manhole Bot!

Manhole Bot: Its been a while Rangers.

Me: I remember this guy! He attacked the City Hall area and you destroyed him.

Gem: That's right.

Manhole Bot: You saw us on TV haven't you?

Me: We never missed an episode.

The Manhole Bot shot manholes at us but we avoided them.

Ziggy: Ha! You missed!

Manhole Bot: Actually, you weren't my target.

We saw that the manholes cut apart several of the Deoxys clones only for the parts to regenerate into more clones.

Me: Nice. Lets power up and take them down! KIBAL! Lets Howl!

I turned into Wolf Moon!

Marinette: TIKKI! SPOTS ON! HA!

Marinette turned into Ladybug!

Adrien: PLAGG! CLAWS OUT!

Adrien turned into Cat Noir!

Me: I'll face Lord Drakkon like always.

Nico: I'll face Devack.

Spiderman: I'll face Vanitas.

Gem: Me, The Megaforce Rangers and the R.P.M. rangers will face Manhole Bot.

Qin: I'll help out as well.

Troy: Guys, we need to make sure the Manhole Bot doesn't end up creating more Deoxys clones!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Star Earth Five!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Fiveman rangers.

Scott Truman: Lets do it guys!

R.P.M. Rangers: R.P.M.! GET IN GEAR!

The R.P.M. Rangers transformed and they were ready.

Russ Cargill then appeared.

Russ Cargill: I have a score to settle with you Girl Jordan.

Girl Jordan: Bring it on Cargill!

Me: Lets get them.

Nico: Shall we do this on our Duel Runner arena Devack?

Devack: Lets.

Nico summoned the Duel Runner Arena and Devack formed the track from the Monkey Nazca Line and they were on it.

We went at them.

Emile and Gabriel watched from the Estate as we took down several Deoxys clones.

Gabriel: Adrien's really grown into a fine hero, hasn't he, Emile?

Emile: Of course. But he and the others really coudl use your help.

Gabriel: Emile, you know I can't use a Mriaculous again. If I do, I'll end up becoming misusing its power. Just like when I was Hawk Moth!

Emile: No, you won't. And even if you do, J.D. and the others will make sure that you stay on the right path.

Gabriel: (sighs) I guess you have a point. But I still won't catch up to them in time.

Emile: You will if you take one of the Stunticons with you.

Motormaster: I can drive you to the others, Gabriel. Just say the word.

Gabriel: Take me to them.

Gabriel was off inside Motormaster.

Me: A Flygon, Salamence and Charizard. Good Pokemon for you.

Lord Drakkon: Thanks. Lets dance.

I went at him and we clashed violently. I punched him in the face and slashed him with my scythe. He had a nasty tear in his suit in the dragon symbol. Charizard, Flygon and Salamence fired blasts of fire at me and I absorbed the blasts and fired blades of blue fire at them and knocked them down. I then fired blasts of blue fire at Lord Drakkon in the chest and exploded.

The explosion sent Devack flying all the way across the horizon.

Nico: Nice try Devack.

Battle 6: Deoxys and Rayquaza

We regrouped and we were facing Deoxys and Rayquaza.

Me: Lets dance.

We went at them and I punched the Deoxys in the face and he fired an energy ball at me and I deflected it back at him and it hit him and exploded.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!

Liberty: Try this one! ALIEN STYLE NINJA ART: UNTH HERD STAMPEDE!

Liberty fired a wave of energy and it turned into a herd of Unth's from Darwin IV.

Unths are tundra creatures with long, asymmetrical tusks, the right being longer than the left. They are named for the sound they make when they take a step. These animals are social creatures, travelling across the vast tundra in large herds. Although they only have one gender, Unths still fight each other for the right to mate. After the duel, both creatures release pheromones that initiate the reproductive process. It is assumed they communicate via echolocation like most creatures on Darwin IV.

Although never confirmed, in Alien Planet it is speculated that these creatures might have two genders.

They smashed into the Rayquaza with incredible force and it really hurt.

Shanan: Whoa! Those were Unth's from Darwin IV!

Laney: What are they called?

Shanan: They are called Unths. They are called that because of the sound they make when they snort. It's how they got their name.

Laney: Oh I get it. That's really cool!

Liberty: How about this one. ALIEN STYLE NINJA ART: BLADDERHORN RAMMING SPEED!

Liberty fired a blast of energy and it formed into Darwin IV Bladderhorns.

---

Bladderhorns are life forms that live high on Darwin IV's mountain ranges. Solitary and aggressive creatures, they wander the mountain passes and high plains, where they feed upon the sub-surface bulbs of alpine flora. They are highly territorial, and if one encounters another, they will perform an elaborate, ritualistic duel, which involves ramming heads and showing off their bioluminescent patches. These duels are sometimes considered somewhat comical.

During mating season, the chilly air is rent with the sounds of their bellowing - an eerie, almost haunting bellowing call which is created by the inflation and subsequent deflation of their antler-bladders' air sacs, for which they are named. Their species is oddly a bright blue color, giving them a rather comical appearance. Their antler-bladders are often inflated to make themselves appear to be larger than they actually are, which can be used to frighten away predators or rival Bladderhorns.

They have very compact bodies, with a large hump on their back. Their antlers are connected to the sides of their head, while their mouths are asymmetric. On the right side is a tentacle-like appendage, presumably lifting food to the long, thin mouth on the left side. Bladderhorns to not have tails, merely a short spike jutting out in the place where their tail would be. A short, thin phallus hangs below their tail-spike.

---

The Bladderhorn rammed into Rayquaza with devastating force and knocked him around like a ram.

Shanan: Whoa! That was a Bladderhorn from Darwin IV!

Lana: Why is it called a Bladderhorn?

Shanan: It has pouches on the sides of its head that inflate and it's a form of communication.

Lana: Wow! That's cool!

Lola: Really strange. But now my curiosity in learning about Darwin IV is peaked.

Liberty: Watch this one. ALIEN STYLE NINJA ART: SPEARS OF THE EOSAPIENS!

Liberty fired 5 waves of energy and they formed into squid-like creatures called Eosapiens and they looked very much human like.

---

Eosapiens are the most advanced life form on Darwin IV with the intelligence of early Humans such as Homo habilis.

They float in mid-air by using two bags filled with methane gas. Eosapiens have fingers that they use to manipulate objects such as spears and create formations on the ground. They live in small tribes and hunt the other creatures on the planet.

They hunt, and are hunted by, Skewers.

Appearences

In Expedition, Barlowe encounters a killing pen with an Arrowtongue head near the Flipsticks, then he sees them in the Amoebic Sea harvesting floating balls of gel during the storm where he encounters the Sea Striders. In the book, they hunt by dropping their huge flechettes from the sky to cage a prey item. Then they twist its limbs off and proceed to devour it. In the documentary, they kill their prey with spears.

Alien Planet

A group of Eosapiens begin to spy on probes Leo and Ike from the very moment their shuttles land on Darwin IV. They follow both probes while at the same time hiding from them whenever they turn their backs.

Along the way, the various fauna of Darwin IV encountered by the probes are spooked by the hiding Eosapiens. The Unths and Bladderhorns Leo observes flee in terror when the Eosapien's call is heard, and even the Emperor Sea Striders turn, stop, and look around before moving away. They kill a Skewer who is mid-hunt and that tries to attack Ike later, before dragging the carcass over the hill and out of sight. The Eosapiens destroyed Leo when he launched a camera disk, which they considered a threat. When he did this again to find his location, the Eosapiens shut him down completely. On Ike's mission to find Leo, the Eosapiens were watching him constantly too.

When Ike found them and showed them the Earth communication hologram they responded correctly and the Eosapiens looked at Earth. Ike launched a camera disk to record the moment, but the Eosapiens destroyed both the disk and Ike. The main difference between Alien Planet and the book is the size of the Eosapiens and the fact that they can apparently see in Alien Planet. In the book they are 20 meters (66 feet) in height and are blind, like all of the life forms on the planet. In Alien Planet they are roughly 9 meters (30 feet) in height and have weak eyes. Also, in Alien Planet the other animals are much more terrified of the Eosapiens.

Intelligence

Their intelligence is quite simple, and they rely on crudely made weapons similar to ancient Humans. Though they speak with short gasps of air and clickings from the appendages on the sides of their heads. This is pretty advanced for such a species.

Possibly in the next 200,000 years they can form civilizations close to that of 21st century Humans. Curiously they lack any form of fire, probably because temperature is relatively constant on Darwin IV, eliminating the need for heat, most species on the planet use sound to perceive the world around them, eliminating the need for light, and finally the atmosphere is very dense with oxygen, thus making the possibility of fire on Darwin IV impossible anyway, and, should the oxygen not be the problem, the lack of resources would be. As Darwin IV contains pocket forests, which, not only are small and rare, but would be quite a distance from wherever a group of Eosapiens may be living at the time.

The creatures threw spears at a bunch of Deoxys clones and skewered them and destroyed them.

Shanan: Whoa! Those are Eosapiens from Darwin IV.

Laney: They look so much human like.

Lana: No kidding. They look like prehistoric cavemen.

Lola: Yeah. They also act in ways very much like like us.

Shanan: They sure do. They could very well be a creature very identical to us.

Laney: That's really something.

Akiza: I never knew creatures like those even existed.

Shanan: There are countless species of creatures all over the universe that no human has ever seen.

Carol: But watch this one. ATOMIC STYLE NINJA ART: A LIFETIME OF WAR!

Carol fired a ray of atomic energy and it turned into the soldiers from the 30 Years War that lasted from 1618 to 1648. They slashed and blasted many clones of Deoxys.

Lily: Whoa! That was intense!

Jessie K.: It sure was. That was the 1962 Mexico City Radiation Incident. In 1962 in Mexico City, a 10-year-old kid brought home an unprotected artificial radioactive isotope called Cobalt-60. It killed the boys entire family over the course of 5 months except for the boys father. 10 people died as a result of exposure.

They gasped.

Lana: That's really dangerous!

Lola: No kidding!

Lily: Yeah!

Axel Adell: (Swedish Accent) He was a kid and didn't have any idea what he was doing.

An Interstellar Board Game

In Paris, France we were there to find Marinette's friend Ivan Bruel. He was formerly the rock Akuma, Stoneheart. He was a tough one and it was cool.

Me: I wonder how Ivan has been doing ever since our battle.

Nico: We'll find out when we see him.

Marinette: I know.

Marinette looked at the church of Notre Dame, the song Joan by Heather Dale played in the background. She had a photo necklace of Joan of Arc around her neck and she looked at it. She took a deep breath and ever since she battled against a wax dummy of Napoleon, Bonaparte, one of France's most evil figures in history during the Napoleonic Wars, she had a massively stronger sense of courage and a massive determination to protect everyone she cares about.

Marinette: I am Judgement and Heaven is Nigh.

Adrien put his hand on her shoulder and she looked at him and smiled. Chloe and all of the Miraculous Celestial Union did the same.

Marinette was stronger than ever before and she was a true hero in the eyes of everyone in Paris.

We continued on and we found Ivan at the gym.

Ivan: Hey guys!

Me: Hey Ivan.

Me: Very busy.

Mayor Bourgeois: I'm glad and Chloe, I am so proud of you. You have already become a magnificent woman.

Chloe Bourgeois: Thank you daddy.

We got to talking about what went down during everything that happened. It was a great conversation.

Back at the estate, we were watching one of my favorite movies from my childhood: 2005's Zathura. It was a movie that was a space version of the movie Jumanji. It was based on the 2002 children's book by Chris Van Allsburg.

---

Walter and his younger brother Danny do not get along with each other or with their cantankerous older sister, Lisa. While their divorced father is away at work and Lisa, whom he left in charge, is napping, Danny discovers an old space-themed board game called Zathura in the basement. He convinces Walter to play the game with him, the goal of which is to become the first player to reach the final space on the board. Each turn, a player turns a key and presses a button, causing the board to move the player's piece a random number of spaces and spit out an event card. When Danny's first turn causes a meteor shower inside the living room, Walter and Danny realize playing the game has altered reality.

The boys discover their father's house is floating in space. Lisa, unaware of the situation, wakes up and begins preparing for her date that evening, but is frozen stiff when another card turns the bathroom into a cryonic chamber. Walter concludes the only way to end the game and return everything to normal is to win the game. As they continue to play, Walter and Danny must overcome the dangers presented by the game cards, including the appearance of a defective robot, passing too close to Tsouris-3 and an attack on the house by a race of reptilian aliens called Zorgons. Another of Danny's turns produces an astronaut, who methodically eliminates the house's heat sources. He tells Walter to blow out the pilot light on the furnace, but Walter does not blow it out, out of fear of getting attacked by the robot. The astronaut lures the Zorgons' ship away by ejecting the boys' father's couch after setting it on fire.

Walter asks the astronaut to leave, but Danny chooses to let him stay. Growing increasingly agitated, Walter accuses Danny of cheating by supposedly moving his piece prematurely; when Walter tries to move the piece back and takes his next turn, the game reacts as if Walter was cheating and ejects him from the house into the vacuum of space, but the astronaut retrieves him. On Walter's next turn, he receives a card that allows him to make a wish resulting in another falling out between the boys. The astronaut warns Walter not to make a wish out of anger. Fearing the worst, he is relieved to discover that Walter wished merely for an autographed football. He explains that he and his brother had played the game fifteen years before, and he wished his brother had never existed, causing him to be stuck in the game without a second player.

Lisa awakens from her stasis, and still oblivious to the situation, turns up the heat. This causes the Zorgons to return and anchor their ships to the house. Lisa finally discovers their predicament, and the four hide upstairs, but realize they left the game behind. The astronaut uses the house's dumbwaiter to lower Danny to retrieve the game. Danny finds the game aboard one of the Zorgon ships, but is seen by the Zorgons. Walter uses a "Reprogram" card he drew earlier to fix the malfunctioning robot, who attacks the Zorgons instead, and the aliens retreat.

Walter receives another wish card; he uses it to bring back the astronaut's brother in gratitude of his help and support, causing a doppelgänger of Danny to appear. The astronaut reveals he is actually Walter, and commends his younger self for making a better choice than he did fifteen years ago of his timeline, and the astronaut and the alternate Danny merge with their counterparts as the future changes.

The Zorgons return to the house with a large fleet, intent on destroying it. Danny makes a final move, landing on Zathura, and wins, creating a black hole that sucks up the Zorgon fleet and the house. The siblings awaken in the house as it was before the brothers started the game, just as their father arrives home. Their bond renewed, they promise to each other to not tell anyone about the game and their adventure. After they leave with their mother, Danny's bicycle, which had been orbiting their house, falls from the sky.

It was awesome and when it was done, we cheered wildly.

Lola: That was so awesome!

Me: It sure was. I loved how they were floating in space and that must've been really scary for them.

Nico: No kidding. And we have been into space many times before.

Akiza: That is really something.

Me: It sure is. Space is the ultimate exploration area. We went to numerous places and many worlds.

Lincoln: It sure is.

Qin: It is so amazing that Space is that big and vast.

Laney: It sure is. One of the biggest mysteries of all.

Homer: It sure is.

Bart: Almost as big as mom's ugly head of hair.

Marge: I heard that!

We laughed.

Then the alarm went off.

Me: Uh oh.

We went to the computer and we saw that the space scanners have found a house from the neighborhood floating in the endless void of space in the system of the star Tsouris-3!

Me: The star Tsouris-3 is real!?

Laney: Whoa! Someone is playing Zathura.

Lincoln: Just what I was thinking!

Lana: looks like we got another mission.

Me: Yep. Yusei, Jack, Signers, you all get to see what it's like when we go into space. We're going on a space rescue mission. Lisa, deploy the U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix!

Lisa Loud: Affirmative!

We deployed the ship and we were on our way to the Tsouris-3 System.

---

The U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix ship is flying through space.

Me: Captain's Log, Stardate 2819.3: We are on our way to the Tsouris-3 System located 66,230 light-years away from Earth. Our space scanners found out that a neighborhood house was teleported into the endless void of space in that system thanks to a magical board game called Zathura. Our mission is to help Walter and his family get back home.

Yusei: This is amazing! I've never even knew that space was this big.

Akiza: Me neither.

Jack Atlas: (Australian Accent) It's really amazing. I didn't know space went on this far.

Me: It's an infinite area. Space goes on for countless miles.

Lana: It sure is amazing huh?

Lisa: J.D. we have arrived at our destination.

Me: On screen.

We saw that we were at the Tsouris-3 System and we arrived in front of a huge Saturn-like planet.

Crow Hogan: Wow! We're in front of another planet.

Luna (5D's): Amazing!

Laney: It sure is amazing. We've been to several planets that are just like this.

Me: And we have only begun to scratch the surface of the fabric of the cosmos.

Laney: J.D., sensors show a small object in orbit around the planet at 28 mark 12˚.

Me: On screen and magnify.

The screen showed it and it was a house that was on a rock orbiting the planet.

Me: That's the house. Lets get along side it and get on board.

Laney: Okay.

We got alongside the house and formed a docking tube and it encased the house in a bubble.

Me: Lets go.

We went through the tube and went into the house.

Me: Wow. Nice place.

Toph: Are we really in a floating house out in space?

Me: We sure are.

?: There's someone here.

Me: It's all right. We mean you all no harm. We're Team Loud Phoenix Storm and we came to help you all get back to Earth.

2 kids came and they were Walter and his little brother Danny Budwing.

Walter: Whoa! Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Danny (Zathura): It's so awesome to meet you all!

Me: Pleasure to meet you all too.

Nico: How did you guys get all the way out here in the Tsouris-3 System?

Laney: Yeah it's over 66,000 light-years away from home.

Danny (Zathura): Whoa! Is that how far away we are?

Me: It's on the opposite side of the galaxy.

Walter: Danny found this game called Zathura and the only way to get back home is to finish the game.

Me: It's just like the movie.

Lori: Where's your sister Lisa?

Walter: She's up in her room. But what you'll see will be shocking.

We went up to Lisa Budwing's room and we saw that she was frozen solid in ice!

We gasped.

Lola: Whoa! What happened?

Danny (Zathura): I froze her by accident with the game.

Me: Lets see if I can thaw her out. Stand back everyone.

They did so.

I fired a blast of fire and heated up the room and the ice melted and thawed Lisa Bullwing out.

Lisa Bullwing: (Shivering) What? W-w-w-what happened?

Me: You were frozen in ice all over.

Lisa Bullwing: T-t-team Loud Phoenix S-s-torm? Wow!

Lori put a blanket on her.

Walter: By the way J.D. how did you guys find us?

Me: Our computers found you guys. We have to finish the game. It's the only way to get you guys back home.

Walter: And the Zorgons are gonna be coming after us.

Varie: We know. The Zorgons are ugly creatures.

Shanan: They come from the destroyed planet Zorgos and it was destroyed when a massive meteor hit it.

Shanan went over the history of the Zorgons.

---

The Zorgons are the main antagonists in the book and 2005 film Zathura: A Space Adventure. They are an alien race of reptilian creatures that originated from the mysterious board game "Zathura".

They were all portrayed by Derek Mears, Douglas Tait, Joe Bucaro, and Jeff Wolfe. Whereas their vocal sound effects were provided by Frank Welker.

History

They were summoned by the game by Walter and Danny while continuing the game. The first Zorgon spaceship first found the boys before the others and using energy cannons to attack the house while tracking them with a heat source, but the stranded astronaut, whom summoned later, removed and replaced the source and left them off course.

However, much later, Lisa turns back the water heater, returning them back to the house just a few moments before the boys and the astronaut attempted to lure the aliens with their own schemes (by burning flammable objects they can find), which also panics her in the process. As a result, instead of one ship, three Zorgon ships approach the house and invade it. The protagonists then schemed the way to deal the threat, but realizing that the game board have been thrown into the basement out of the boys' bickering, forcing Danny to sneak into that place.

As Danny retrieved the game, the Zorgons noticed him and give chase. He was saved by Walter at the last moments, only for confronting the defected robot they knocked earlier and have repaired itself. Using the reprogram card, Walter fixed the robot's programming, turned it to their side and attacked the Zorgons back to their ships, crashing them onto space in the process. They later returned to destroy the house with a large fleet, but Danny rolled onto Zathura and the fleet and the house were sucked into a black hole returning the house to earth.

Personality

Although once having a home planet of their own, they are now entirely nomadic race. Their ships are surprisingly small (about the size of a typical house). They are bent on finding materials to burn in order to fuel their ships, an action which led to the destruction of their home planet. Their names, if they have any, are never revealed. Usually stooping over, it is very difficult to determine their true heights. They also possess very ravenous hunger and are on the constant hunt for meats.

---

We gasped.

Me: The Zorgons are pure evil.

Lincoln: They sure are.

Me: It's gonna be dangerous but if it's a fight they want, we'll give them one.

Walter: Look, J.D. I know you guys being reckless works most of the time. But in this situation, we'll need you be smart and play this game with us if we're ever going to stand a chance against the Zorgons.

Danny (Zathura): Please? We even have an extra piece for you.

Me: I'll do it. Since this is a life or death situation, and we're in your house floating in the endless void of space, we'll be careful.

Walter: Awesome.

Nico: I'll make sure Shoe is near you guys while you play. With his horns up, you'll be able to get good cards. And he'll make sure you don't act recklessly like throw the game out in space out of frustration.

Me: Don't worry I'm not gonna do that. Leni and Lynn might do that like they did that one time when we had game night but not me.

Lynn: He's right.

Leni: Yeah.

Me: But don't worry, we'll help you all get through this.

Shoe came.

Lisa Bullwing: (Squeals) (Hugs Shoe) You are so cute!

Shoe cooed with happiness and his horns went up and good luck happened.

5 $1000.00 bills appeared and slapped Lisa Bullwing in the face.

Lisa Bullwing: Hey. Wow! $5,000.00! Now I can buy awesome new shoes in the mall.

Me: We can do that later. Right now getting you guys home is our top priority. Lets get playing.

I sat on the floor and got to playing the board game.

Walter: (to Harley) It's amazing how much you, Ivy, and Clayface have changed, Harley.

Harley: Thanks!

Danny (Zathura): Any chance you could have King Shark, Dr. Psycho, and Sy Borgman join the Redemption Squad as well?

Poison Ivy: (in disbelief) You're kidding, right?

Me: Nanaue the King Shark, Edgar Cizko A.K.A. Dr. Psycho and Sy Borgman A.K.A. Syborg? We haven't encountered them yet.

Harley Quinn: That's true.

Danny (Zathura): Ivy, I think you and Kite Man could make a great couple.

Poison Ivy: Okay, first, you suggested that King Shark, Dr. Psycho, and Sy Borgman join the Redemption Squad. Then, you suggest that Kite Man should be my boyfriend?!

Clayface: Where are you two even getting these ideas anyway?

Walter: Um… that Harley Quinn cartoon that's airing right now?

Me: The 2019 Harley Quinn? You watch that?

Lisa Bullwing: It was my idea. Harley you are one of my favorite villains and one of my favorite characters.

Harley: Oh I'm honored that I have a fan.

Me: And Charles Brown A.K.A. Kite Man? He's another one we haven't encountered yet.

Laney: That's right.

Suddenly a huge explosion blasted a hole through the kitchen and in came THE ZORGON'S!

Me: The Zorgons!

We saw that they looked a lot like dinosaur aliens.

Nico: So those are the Zorgons.

Shanan: That's them.

Me: I'll keep playing, you guys hold them off.

Nico: Okay.

Bane and Zs'Skayr then appeared.

Laney: Bane and Zs'Skayr?

Bane: (Spanish Accent) That's right.

Danny (Zathura): Wow! It's Bane! You're one of my favorite super villains.

Bane: I'm glad I have some fans.

Danny (Zathura): (Pulls out a notepad) Can I have your autograph?

Bane: (Laughs) Anything for a fan.

He wrote his name in the notepad.

Bane: (sees me) A board game? Really?

Lincoln: Look, it might sound ridculous. But J.D. playing the game is needed.

Me: That's right. It's the only way to help the Bullwing siblings get back home.

?: Let me help out Bane.

We saw a figure come out and it looked like a robotic armadillo!

Armored Armadillo: You guys can call me… Armored Armadillo! (curls into a ball and rolls at Stone Man)

Stone Man grabbed him and rolled him into the Zorgon's and crashed into them.

BOWLING PIN CRASH!

Nico: Nice one.

My Signer mark then started glowing.

Me: Uh oh. Dark Signer trouble.

?: From me.

We turned and we saw the leader of the Dark Signers, ROMAN GOODWIN - DARK SIGNER OF THE SPIDER!

---

Roman Goodwin, known as Rudger Goodwin in the Japanese version, and sometimes romanized as Rudger Godwin, was the primary antagonist of the Dark Signers arc (until his death after losing his second duel with Yusei Fudo). He was the elder brother of Rex Goodwin. He was the leader of the Dark Signers as well as the Signer who originally possessed the Dragon Head birthmark. Roman was the man who was responsible for betraying Yusei's father, Professor Fudo, the sabotaging of the original Ener-D Reactor, and Zero Reverse, which separated the Satellite Sector from New Domino City.

Roman Goodwin was the older brother of Rex Goodwin. Just like his brother, Roman served as an assistant to Professor Fudo, while working in R.R.D..

Dr. Fudo was bent on canceling the Ener-D project due to the natural disasters occurring in Domino City as a result of using the system. But wanting to continue the research, Roman researched occurrences similar to what was happening in Domino City. He then came across the Nazca Lines. Once at the site of the Nazca Lines, a mysterious man who belonged to the Iliaster group spoke to him. The man told Roman that he was destined to activate the Ener-D Reactor and told him to look into the light of the Ener-D Reactor. After returning to the facility, Roman looked into the light of the Ener-D Reactor. He saw the battle between the Crimson Dragon and the Earthbound Immortals. The Spider's dark mark appeared on Roman's arm, where it struggled with the Dragon Head birthmark for control of his body.

Under the influence of the Spider Mark, Roman ousted Dr. Fudo as head of the Ener-D project, having claimed "Stardust Dragon", "Red Dragon Archfiend", "Black Rose Dragon" and the "Ancient Fairy Dragon" cards, which were the keys to activate the Ener-D Reactor's control units. Dr. Fudo managed to take three of the cards and fled, and left behind "Ancient Fairy Dragon" when he was wounded by Roman's henchmen.

When he nearly succumbed to the power of the Dark Signers, Roman decided to leave his Mark of the Dragon to destiny by tearing his left arm off and placed it in a preservation canister (which was removed from the dub, and Roman still had his hand without being ripped off completely). He gave Rex the canister and told him to gather the Signers and someday defeat him. After that, he activated and overloaded the Ener-D Reactor which ultimately lead to the Zero Reverse, and killed himself and subsequently allowed the first Earthbound Immortal released, Uru, to revive him as a Dark Signer. Sometime after his revival, he set up a base in the old Reactor and eventually met and teamed up with 3 other Dark Signers, who served him as his subordinates. One of them, Misty was still in the city disguised as a human while Roman and the others were in Satellite, it was likely that Roman had sent her there to find the 5th Dark Signer.

Dark Signers

After the Fortune Cup ended, Roman possessed Grady and Trudge, in order to test the Signers, Yusei Fudo and Jack Atlas. When the Signers along with Mina, Leo and Trudge venture to Satellite and are meet-up with Martha, Roman appeared and imposed a Duel. Jack wanted to, but was stopped by Yusei, who told him that it was too dangerous to Duel here, especially if a geoglyph appeared. Jack was instructed to take Martha and the kids somewhere safe, while Yusei, accompanied by Akiza, faced Roman in a Shadow Duel in another location.

However, three of the children decided to watch the Duel. As the Duel unfolded, Yusei and Akiza noticed two kids near the flames that were caused by the geoglyph and wondered how they got in when they were not Signers. As Roman prepared to Summon his "Earthbound Immortal", "Uru", Yusei and Akiza feared that once it was Summoned, it could have used the kids' souls as sacrifices.

Luckily, Jack appeared and uses his birthmark to stop the kids from being sacrificed. Yusei eventually managed to gain the upper hand in the Duel. As a final insult to Yusei, Roman used evil magic to flee and forced Rally to take his place. Rally managed to destroy "Uru", but doing so apparently cost him his life.

Roman, along with the other Dark Signers, later appeared before their rivals, the Signers, to begin their final battle. Each of Roman's comrades were waiting at each of the control units of the original Ener-D Reactor with the purpose of Dueling against their correspondent Signer rival. As for Roman, he awaited within the place where the system itself resided. After Devack's defeat at the hands of Luna and Leo, he killed Greiger in order to remake him into a Dark Signer by hanging him over the Original Ener-D Reactor.

After Kalin's defeat, Roman's mark seemed to cause him anguish as it escalated up his arm. But then he was confronted by Rex Goodwin, who Dueled him. Rex lost on purpose in order to be reborn as a Dark Signer like his brother.

Yusei and his friends entered the crater in the B.A.D., where they confronted Roman. Although Yusei won, Roman proceeded to tell Yusei that things were not finished yet, as the King of the Netherworld would soon be born. Before Roman dissolved, he detonated a bomb in his left arm, and blew up the bridge and sent Yusei falling into the depths of the Ener-D Reactor (In the dub he didn't do this, he just warned Yusei about the King of the Netherworld's arrival while Uru's destruction caused the bridge to blow up).

When Rex was finally defeated and the King of the Netherworld was destroyed, Roman and Rex were the only Dark Signers to not return to life.

---

Yusei: Roman Goodwin!

Roman: It's good to see you again Yusei.

Me: So you are one of the Goodwin Brothers. I've heard so much about you. You helped Yusei's Father years ago.

Roman: That's right. I was trying to help Neo Domino City by proving that Ener-D is the safest path to clean dependable energy. But Dr. Fudo wanted to stop me from ruining the city.

Me: Maybe it was for a good reason. Because of the dangerous repercussions it had on the city.

I saw that he had the Spider Nazca Line on his right arm.

Me: That's the Spider Nazca Line on your arm.

Roman: That's right. And I am the Dark Signer of the Spider Earthbound Immortal Uru.

Leni: (Freaks out) SPIDER!

Ed grabbed Leni.

Leni: Keep him away from me!

Ed: Leni calm down!

Me: Uru. That is Quechua for Spider. We saw the Spider Nazca Line when we were flying over them in Peru. Leni freaked out when she saw it.

Roman: That's right. I heard from Carly and everyone else that you are quite amazing at knowing all about the history of the ancient Mayan, Incan and Aztec civilizations.

Me: It's Jessie that knows all about all that. She's the history master of the team.

Jessie K.: That's right.

Roman: I can see that. You all have amazing talent.

Jessie K.: I appreciate all that.

Lana: This is amazing though.

Me: Lets get to work.

Nico: We'll hold them off.

Me: Okay.

Danny (Zathura): I'll help you J.D.

Me: Thanks Danny.

Walter: (to Roman) You know we just have to play a card on the game in order to seriously damage you, right?

Roman: I know.

Brittney: Me and the Goths of Darkness will face him.

Troy: Don't let them attack the board game!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Nova Flashteam!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Flashman Rangers from 1987.

Everyone else went at their targets.

---

Battle 1: Laney VS Bane

---

Laney was facing Bane.

Laney: We're in a house floating in the endless void of space so we have to be careful.

Bane: I know that. I also have 3 Pokemon for you that you might know.

Out came a Primeape, Machamp and a Hitmonchan.

Laney: A Machamp, Primeape and a Hitmonchan.

Bane: That's right. It's gonna be a really good fight.

Laney: Lets dance.

Bane pressed his device and pumped the Venom drug in him and he buffed up.

Laney: Lets dance.

Laney went at them and punched Machamp all over and kicked Hitmonchan and punched Primeape all over and then she punched Bane in the face with devastating force and sent him crashing into many Zorgon's.

Laney: Good fight.

---

Battle 2: Iron Boy VS Zs'Skayr

---

Iron Boy was facing Zs'Skayr.

Edd: It's really cool that you all have Pokemon now.

Zs'Skayr: Indeed. Here are my Pokemon.

Out came a Chandelure, a Litwick and a Mismagius!

Edd: A Chandelure, a Litwick and a Mismagius. Intriguing selection.

Zs'Skayr: Thank you. Shall we fight?

Edd: Lets.

Iron Boy fired repulsor blasts and knocked down the Pokemon and Zs'Skayr in one fell swoop.

---

Battle 3: Armored Armadillo

The Megaforce Rangers were facing Armored Armadillo.

Troy Burrows: Lets get him!

They fired energy blasts and they all hit the Armored Armadillo and blew holes in him all over the place. Then Armored Armadillo exploded.

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!

We got all of Armored Armadillo's weapons and abilities.

Noah Carver: In the words of Nico Chan "Armored Armadillo, you have failed this world."

Battle 4: Roman Goodwin.

Brittney Knudson and the Goths of Darkness were facing Roman Goodwin. They were facing him in the Duel Runner arena on the Spider Nazca Line in the void of space.

Brittney: I may be a goth but even spiders are a good part of life.

Roman: Indeed. I find it interesting fighting in the endless void of space.

Haiku: Same here.

Persephone: Indeed.

Roman: Yes. Shall we fight?

Brittney: Lets shall. I have a demons from Hell deck. I summon GAAP THE DIVINE SOLDIER, ARCHFIEND OF GILFER, BELIAL - MARQUIS OF DARKNESS, BERFOMET, MARIE THE FALLEN ONE, RED-EYES ZOMBIE DRAGON and NIGHTMARE HORSE!

Alicia Chan: My deck is an Elemental Charmer Deck. I summon

Maggie (Loud House): Mine is a mummy deck. I summon WANDERING MUMMY, POISON MUMMY, DES LACOODA, and FUSHIOH RICHIE!

They summoned said monsters and Brittney got on Nightmare Horse.

Roman: Very impressive selection.

Brittney: Thank you.

Roman: Here's my monster. I summon EARTHBOUND IMMORTAL URU!

He summoned Earthbound Immortal Uru! He was a terrifying spider with red lines on him!

Lucy Loud: Gasp! So that's Uru.

Maggie (Loud House): Wow! He's wicked awesome.

Brittney: He's amazing and terrifying. If Leni saw this she would have a heart attack.

Roman: I bet she would.

Brittney: Lets dance!

They went at Roman and Uru and fired energy and elemental energy blasts and they hit them all over and exploded all over and they destroyed Uru and hurt Roman all over.

Brittney: All we have left to face is Rex Goodwin and we'll officially cover all seven Dark Signers.

Lucy Loud: Yeah.

Battle 5: The Zorgon's

The Zorgon's were getting pulverized all over the place.

I turned the key on the board game.

Me: Here we go.

I pressed the button and the rocket on the game moved forward 6 spaces and a card came out. I read it.

Me: "You are promoted to Fleet Admiral"

It moved ahead 4 spaces.

Danny (Zathura): Awesome!

Dana: ICE STYLE NINJA ART: POLAR BEAR VIKINGS!

Dana fired a wave of ice and it formed into a bunch of vikings on Polar Bears and they slashed and cut up many Zorgon's and froze them solid.

Ben: Try this new predator.

Ben turned into a new predator called DASHSLICER! He was black predator with deadly claws and red eyes.

Ben: DASHSLICER!

Nico: Wicked and deadly.

Shanan: That's a Cheeteleran. They are the natural predators of the Kinecelerans, XLR8's species.

Riley: Boy that is a deadly one.

Laney: It sure is.

Dashslicer: Watch this.

He went at 1,000 miles per hour and slashed apart the Zorgon's all over.

Danny (Zathura): My turn.

Danny turned the key and pressed the button and his rocket moved 4 spaces and a card came out.

Danny (Zathura): Can you read this for me J.D.?

Me: Sure.

I read the card.

Me: "Rescue Stranded Astronaut."

Then in came an astronaut.

Me: Whoa! Who are you?

He took off his helmet and we saw that it was WALTER BULLWING from 20 years into the future!

Me: (Gasp) Whoa!

Older Walter: I'm glad I got here. Thank you all for saving me.

Me: Thank Danny.

Older Walter: Wow! You're J.D. Knudson of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: That's me.

Older Walter: This may be a shock to you J.D.

Me: Don't tell me. You are Walter Bullwing from the future.

Older Walter: That's right.

Younger Walter gasped.

Walter: You're me from the future?

Older Walter: That's right. I'm you from 20 years into the future.

Me: That's the year 2040.

Older Walter: That's right.

Me: Trust me we are no strangers to time travel. I take it you came to help us.

Older Walter: I sure did.

Me: Awesome. We're only 4 more spaces away.

Danny (Zathura): You can do it J.D.!

Me: Go help everyone else Danny. I can finish it.

Danny (Zathura): Okay.

He went to help the rest.

Nico: Lets do some combos.

Arcee: Right! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into his back and enhanced his speed 100-fold.

Toph: This is gonna hurt. EARTHBENDER CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earthbender Cyber Planet Key went into her right arm device and enhanced her Earthbending 100-fold.

Arcee and Toph: SPEEDING ROCKET BOULDERSLAM!

Arcee went at incredible speed and Toph fired a huge rock and they slammed into many Zorgon's and knocked them down and smashed them.

Nightbird: Try this! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into his back and enhanced his speed 100-fold.

James (Pokemon): Lets do it Cacnea! POKEMON CYBER KEY POWER!

The Pokemon Cyber Planet Key went into his right arm device and enhanced his Cacnea's abilities 100-fold.

James: Cacnea use Pin Missile!

Nightbird and James' Cacnea: PIN MISSILE SHURIKEN STORM!

Nightbird and Cacnea fired shuriken and pin needles and they slammed into a bunch of Zorgon's and killed them.

Bowser Jr.: This is gonna hurt.

Guts Man: Yeah!

Bowser Jr. And Guts Man: FIRESTORM SMASH FIST PUNCH!

Bowser Jr. fired a blast of fire and it merged into Gut Man's fists and he punched a bunch of Zorgon's and destroyed them.

Luna (5D's): Lets do it.

Ancient Fairy Dragon: I'm ready Luna.

Lincoln: Lets do it.

Luna and Ancient Fairy Dragon fired a blast of light and energy and Lincoln fired a blast of lightning.

Luna with Ancient Fairy Dragon and Lincoln: LIGHTNING FAIRY

KALEIDOSCOPE!

The blasts combined and turned into a lightning fairy group and it slammed into a bunch of Zorgon's and electrocuted them all over.

But then everyone saw Bane and Zs'Skayr turn on the Zorgons by punching and slashing and blasting them.

Zs'Skayr (to the Zorgons): Did you really think me and Bane were on your side?

Laney: That was unexpected.

I turned the key and pressed the button and the rocket was moving.

Me: Almost there.

Nico: Final smash time! Lets have you all hit them all at once!

Laney: Right!

Lisa Bullwing: Lets do it.

Walter: Right with you!

Danny (Zathura): Yeah!

Nicole: Lets do it.

2 spaces were left.

Me: Come on come on!

Nicole, Ivan, Laney, Walter, Dan, Lisa Bullwing, and Older Walter: INTERSTELLAR STAR SHOWER BARRAGE!

They all fired a bunch of blasts of star showers and they slammed into a bunch of Zorgon's and destroyed them all.

Maria: So you two were only pretending to help the Zorgons?

Zs'Skayr: Of course. On Anur Phaetos, I've seen how dangerous the Zorgons really are.

Bane: Anyway, best of luck trying to get off of this house. (he and Zs'Skayr teleport out)

Lynn: Not that we'll need it but thanks.

My rocket got to the end and it caused an orb to open and spin and sparks came out and a card came out.

Me: "Game Over. Thank you for playing."

Suddenly we all were back home on Earth and the house was fixed as if nothing ever happened.

Me: Yes!

Nico: Way to go J.D.!

Vince: Awesome job Partner!

Me: Thanks guys.

Me: Boy that was really clever. But great job guys.

Nico: Thanks to you J.D. You are a great board game player.

Me: Had a lot of experiences.

Walter: J.D. thank you for helping us get back home.

Me: Anytime Walter.

Lincoln: It was really cool playing Zathura.

Laney: It sure was.

Me: Yeah.

Walter: (To the viewers) Board Games are really fun but be careful what you play. Especially if the game is magical and takes you to space.

Me: That's right.

We went back home and got the ship back in the garage. Older Walter decided to live with his past self and help him out.

THE END

Another Awesome movie fanfic complete!

Zathura from 2005 was awesome! I loved how it was like the Jumanji of space. Too bad it was a box office bomb. The reason for that is because it couldn't compete with the 4th Harry Potter movie: The Goblet of Fire. Darn shame. But it was still a great movie. NicoChan11 and ArchangelOfJustice12 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is a chapter for the SpongeBob Squarepants episode The Nitwitting and we're gonna go into war with the dumbest club in all of Bikini Bottom: The Empty Head Society and we're going to make those brainless numbskulls wish they were never born.

See you all tomorrow.

The Nitwitting

Natilee was in the Simulator doing an exercise. She was doing an exercise where she faces Nehelenia at her most vulnerable.

She was flying over the Pacific Ocean and she saw the Sun totally blocked out and the entire city of Tokyo was shrouded in darkness.

Natilee: Nehelenia you will pay for this. I've already killed you once and this time I will make sure you are gone for good.

She then saw a massive rock rise out of the ground.

Natilee: Whoa! This is gonna be big.

She saw that it was rising towards the Dark Moon.

At about 75,000 feet she saw a figure fall from the rock. It was Sailor Mini-Moon!

Natilee: Oh no!

She flared up her aura and flew at her and caught her.

On the rock Nehelenia was laughing.

Nehelenia: (Laughing) How does it feel losing someone you love? Losing your happy future. Now you know the despair I've felt.

(Goku's Spirit Bomb theme at 2:04 plays)

A massive glow of rainbow and green light shines in front of the rock and green lightning flashed and flickered all over the place as Natilee appeared and she had her wings spread and her eyes were glowing red and burning with fire from righteous fury. She had Sailor Mini-Moon in her hands.

Nehelenia: YOU!

Natilee: Yes me.

Natilee landed onto the rock.

Natilee: Nehelenia you have absolutely no love for anyone but yourself. This time you die.

Nehelenia: (Gasp) NO! You can't kill me!

Natilee: I'm not just gonna kill you. I'm going to erase you from existence forever.

Natilee gave Mini-Moon back to Sailor Moon and then she walked up to Nehelenia. Nehelenia went and attacked Natilee. But she was too weak and she grabbed her arm.

Natilee: You and your followers have tormented the world of dreams and Earth for the last time.

Natilee held up her hand to Nehelenia's face.

Natilee: HAKAI!

Nehelenia glowed purple and she screamed in excruciating agony as she was being completely obliterated. She was erased from existence for all eternity as if she was never born at all. Then the Dark Moon started to crack apart and it suddenly exploded.

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion caused the sun to be free to shine again!

The tents of the Dark Moon all were obliterated as well as if they too never existed and all the dreams were returned back their original hosts.

Natilee grabbed Sailor Moon and Mini-Moon and they landed on the ground.

Natilee: That was a close one.

Sailor Moon: Thank you so much for saving us.

Natilee: Anytime Serenity. Just doing what I do best and that is saving the world.

Natilee left the simulator and we cheered wildly.

Me: Way to go Natilee!

Nico: That witch has failed this universe.

Vince: She sure has.

The doorbell then rang.

William: I'll get that.

William went to get the door and he answered it and to our surprise it was Vypra.

William: Vypra? What are you doing here?

Vypra: Dark Spicer has been missing for several hours. Know something about it?

Nico: Of course not. We've been here all morning watching Natilee's simulator fight.

Me: What's going on here?

Vypra: Dark Spicer has been missing for several hours and we don't know where he went.

Number 7: Yeah he just somehow vanished.

Laney: That's unusual.

In an underground bunker, Dark Spicer was tied to a table and his captor was none other than MASTER FROWN!

Dark Spicer: What the Hell do you want from me, Frown?

Frown: Well, I've heard that your Celestialsapian form can do anything, right?

Dark Spicer: Of course. I've used said form to restore several villains for Vypra's secret project.

Frown: If it can do that, it can also kill J.D. Knudson. So, I'm gonna tear that Antitrix off you so I can gain access to that form.

Dark Spicer: You're not getting away with this!

Frown: (laughs) I already have!

We also saw that Vypra has revived Rico the Robot from episode 16 of Megaforce!

---

R1C0 was Alice's second robotic creation, the first being Rotox. He is manufactured after Vrak demands results, being hard-pressed by the limited time he has to take over Warstar before Admiral Malkor re-emerges from his cocoon, which he entered as Metal Alice was completed and perfected.

After the Power Rangers scuffle with Metal Alice and her army of Loogies, Alice introduces her new robot to the Rangers and orders him to attack but he remains motionless.

The Megaforce Blaster is fired towards Alice but she uses her creation to shield herself from the attack and retreats, marking her fallen robot as a complete failure.

Emma eventually sees the potential of good R1C0 has to offer and stops her comrades from damaging it any further. They take the custody of the robot, now renamed Rico, and teach him the value of friendship, camaraderie and fun.

However, the other Rangers as well as Robo Knight remain skeptical in Emma's beliefs of converting a machine into a friend, despite having done so with Robo Knight himself before (and the fact that Ranger teams have a robotic assistant whom they treat more as a friend, such as Alpha 5 and Alpha 6 as well as their own comrades Tensou and Gosei).

And their suspicions are confirmed when a tracking device is found on Rico's chest in the form of a gem, one that allows Alice to control him at will, and they quickly consider it a setup. Overhearing the conversation, Rico leaves the Command Center.

Emma follows suit and convinces him to give the Rangers a chance to free him. However, as they are about to do so, Alice shows up and reveals her plan before activating her override system and forcefully converts Rico into a more aggressive and warrior-like version of his former self, forcing the Mega Rangers to battle him.

They eventually manage to hold him still long enough for Emma to destroy the controlling device and free him. Infuriated by this, Metal Alice calls upon the Zombolts and enlarges him and the Rangers call out the Gosei Great Megazord to destroy him.

This time, however, Rico resists and Metal Alice attempts to destroy him through self-destruction, only to be stopped by Robo Knight.

Taking the opportunity, Emma calls upon the Command Ship and takes Rico away from Earth. They say their goodbyes and part on good terms, prompting Alice to bid a hasty retreat. What happens to him thereafter is unknown though it's possible he found a life of freedom.

Personality

Rico's persona is very similar to that of a child as he learns quickly and takes to the side whom treats him more in accord to his liking. It is the bond of friendship of the Mega Rangers, especially that extended by Emma, that allows him to override the control Alice has upon him and allow himself to become truly free.

---

Emma: You restored Rico as well?

Vypra: Of course I did. I figured he'd be useful here.

Me: I remember Rico. He was a really cool robot.

Vypra: He sure is. We have his Houndoom and he can help us.

Ash: Awesome.

Me: Can you help us find Dark Spicer, Houndoom.

Houndoom agreed and he sniffed around for the sent and he barked and went off to find him.

Ash: Follow that Houndoom!

We followed the Houndoom and he lead us to an abandoned warehouse in the middle of the city. It was an abandoned Fertilizer and Manure storage warehouse that was shut down ages ago.

Me: The old Fertilizer warehouse. It was shut down ages ago.

We went in and saw that it was empty.

Me: Wow. This place hasn't been really used in a long time.

Houndoom sniffed around and he found Dark Spicer's scene coming from a hidden trap door underneath a bunch of boxes.

Me: He's in there.

Vypra: A trap door.

Me: Shh. Listen.

Master Frown: (From under the trap door) After I cut your arm off, I will get the Antitrix off of you and kill J.D. with your Celestialsapien powers and then I will destroy the entire universe and remake it in my own image! (LAUGHS MALEVOLENTLY)

Me: (Gasp) Lets go!

In the lair Master Frown had a saw ready to cut off Dark Spicer's arm! Then a massive explosion blasted in and a phoenix cry was heard and we came in.

Me: NOT SO FAST MASTER FROWN!

I punched him in the face and knocked him down!

Eddy and me got Dark Spicer free.

Dark Spicer: Thanks for getting me free!

Eddy: No problem. Now, you should probably use Omegawolf to help Rico and your Houndoom send Frown packing.

Dark Spicer: With pleasure!

Dark Spicer turned into Omegawolf!

He, Rico the Robot and Houndoom pulverized the living crap out of Master Frown.

Later we had Master Frown on the outside of town.

Vypra: No one kidnaps one of our members and gets away with it and for that you must face the consequences.

Vypra fired a blast of energy and it hit Master Frown in the back and formed into a cobra on his back.

Master Frown: A tattoo?

Me: That's not just an ordinary tattoo. I know that mark all too well.

Ryan Mitchell: Yeah so do I.

Me and Ryan: It's the CURSE OF THE COBRA!

Vypra: That's right. (To Master Frown) In 2 years from this point on, every 2 months, the Cobra will move up your body closer and closer until it reaches your neck and kills you.

Me: You have 730 days to live.

I pressed the timer on my device and typed in the time.

Me: Starting now.

I pressed a button and it started counting down from 730 days today and in 2022 on April 26th, Master Frown will die. And it also showed me the Cobra and what it will be at every two months.

Master Frown: You will pay for this!

Master Frown went on the run.

Dark Spicer: Since I just got out of getting my hand cut off, can I give you guys the day off for today?

Eddy: Sure.

Vypra: And Emma? You can have Rico. I know how much he means to you.

Emma: Thanks Vypra.

Me: Also since we saved you and you helped clear my name. Lets call ourselves even.

Dark Spicer: Thanks J.D.

Me: We are still frenemies.

Dark Spicer: Yep.

The Masters of Evil teleported out.

Over in Bikini Bottom, things have gotten better ever since Squidward was run out of town. But for SpongeBob and Patrick, they have gotten fun.

Over at the Barg'N Mart, Customers are minding their business doing their shopping.

Barg'N Mart P.A.: Attention, shoppers: We've got a SpongeBob on Aisle 6.

[SpongeBob comes out of Aisle 6 with Patrick on his head while riding his unicycle and scaring the customers. But SpongeBob couldn't see where he was going due to having a blindfold on his face.]

Patrick: Make a sharp left!

[SpongeBob and Patrick ride down the hallway where it leads to the locking dock. They bash through the door and crash land in a junkyard of boxes outside.]

Patrick: We're here!

SpongeBob: [takes off his blindfold and pulls himself together] I still don't understand why you had me wear a blindfold.

Patrick: Oh, um, I didn't want you to get anything in your eyes. [widens his eyes] See? [his eyeballs are covered in dead flies, hair and a string tangled on his left; he pulls the string out, which grosses SpongeBob out a little; Patrick and SpongeBob then walk over to a box with a picture of a door drawn on it] Okay, thanks, buddy. I'm going to my club meeting now.

SpongeBob: What's your club, hmm? [giggles]

Patrick: Uh, it's the Empty Head Society. Eh, it's a place where guys like me can give their [reads card] "powerful intellects" a much-needed rest.

SpongeBob: Whoa! I'd love to rest my intellect. Can I join?

Patrick: Sure! Anyone can join. It's exclusive. [SpongeBob giggles and attempts to go into the box by pushing it, but nothing happens] Oh, that's not how you open it. [pulls out a stick and draws a square in the sand] You have to step on the automatic doormat. [SpongeBob steps in the dirt square] Ding! [Patrick lifts the box up and they both climb inside]

[Inside the box, there is a bunch of people, who appear as club members, acting in a goofy and idiotic manner similar to Patrick. One is eating a hot dog while being hung on a pole. The other is dancing on a blobfish member's fez. Two fish are playing with a lighting upside-down on the box's ceiling. One is dancing to the music with a chicken on the record player.]

SpongeBob: Wow. They do seem blissfully brainless. [prepares to walk over and join]

Patrick: Oh, oh, hold it! [grabs SpongeBob] You have to check your smart thingy at the door.

[Howard Blandy is in line at the check-in station, texting on his phone. He checks in by opening his head and give his brain to a lobster club member, who then gives him a fez. SpongeBob gets his turn. He reaches into his head and pulls out his brain, leaving his brain stems sparking. He gives his brain to the lobster club member, who also gives him a fez.]

But what he didn't know was that SpongeBob is part of a club called F.E.M.A. It means F ix the E mptyhead's M ess A gain. It's a special club that fixes the mess of the Empty Head Society and restore the destruction they cause. SpongeBob was planted as a spy by F.E.M.A. to gain their trust so that he and the Neptune Crusaders can stop them and their stupidity.

[Patrick gets his turn as well. He pulls out his eye and pushes out his brain, which is quite tiny compared to the others. The lobster club member gives Patrick a fez. One club member approaches SpongeBob and Patrick.]

Sheldon: Hello, numbskull.

Patrick: Hiya, dodo!

Sheldon: Shall we do the Empty Head handshake?

Patrick: Okay!

[Patrick and club member dig into each other's mouths and give their handshakes with their tongues. One club member looks at the clock drawing next to him. He lifts a cinderblock and crushes his feet with it, screaming his head off in pain.]

SpongeBob: [gets startled by the screaming and hops in Patrick's arms] What was that?

Patrick: The signal for the meeting to start. Come on.

Ice Cream King: Good, I see everyone's in their assigned places. The secretary will now read the minutes. [lifts his belly and pulls out his secretary]

Ice Cream King's secretary: [reads off the back of the Kelpo cereal box] These are the minutes. One minute, twelve minutes, wait a minute, give me a minute.

Ice Cream King: Hike! [kicks his secretary off the stage] Are there any new initiates here tonight?

Patrick: [whispers] SpongeBob, go up. You always wanted to join the club. [launches SpongeBob up to the stage by bashing his fist on one club member's buttocks]

Ice Cream King: [looks suspiciously at SpongeBob as he giggled nervously] Hmm, are you sure you're, uh, brainless enough? [SpongeBob looks around and kicks the plank below him, which hits him in the face] Perfect! You've earned your first badge. [gives him a bacon strip as a badge; SpongeBob giggles weakly and gives Patrick a thumb's up] It's time to pass the jar.

SpongeBob: Hmm?

[One club member opens an empty jar and drools saliva into it. She passes it to a blobfish club member and he wrings saliva from his tongue into the jar. He passes the jar to an eel club member and he turns his fez like a faucet and pours saliva into the jar. He passes the jar over to SpongeBob.]

SpongeBob: Hmm? Uh… [spits a drop of his saliva into the jar]

Empty Head Society club members: Drink! Drink! Drink!

[SpongeBob groans in disgust and tries to hesitate in drinking the jar full of saliva.]

Empty Head Society club members: Drink! Drink! Drink!

[SpongeBob gives in and drinks all of the saliva from the jar. He gags himself as he tries not to throw up and burps out a saliva bubble from his mouth.]

Empty Head Society club members: [shocked and grossed out] Ugh!

SpongeBob: What? You said drink!

Ice Cream King: [taps SpongeBob's shoulder] Ahem. [points to the lemonade stand next to him] Lemonade?

SpongeBob: Huh?

Ice Cream King: [takes the empty jar and puts it on the shelf where he keeps the other jars of saliva] We just save and date the drool. But that was so dopey you earned another badge! [pulls out used chewing gum from his mouth and puts it with SpongeBob's bacon badge] There! It's now time to go out in the community and help the citizens… [flings his toilet paper microphone at an unseen character, screaming "ow!"] of Bikini Bottom by doing our civic duty. Whatever that means.

SpongeBob: Uh, we're gonna do some civic duty?

Patrick: We call it the "Nitwitting." [jumps on the stage and joins in the Ice Cream King and the entire club to sing their oath]

Patrick, Ice Cream King, and the Empty Head Society club members: We're all unfit. We must admit we're dumb as a box of rocks. [two club members bash each other's heads] But time permitting, we'll be nitwitting. Has anyone seen my socks?

Ice Cream King: To the mini boats!

Two Empty Head Society club members: To the mini boats!

[SpongeBob, Patrick, the Ice Cream King, and the Empty Head Society club members exit their clubhouse box and begin riding in mini boats.]

SpongeBob: Patrick, why are we doing this, again?

Patrick: I have no idea. [honks the horn]

[SpongeBob, Patrick, the Ice Cream King, and the Empty Head Society club members ride down the road in their mini boats. The townspeople scream and run away in fear. Lou hops onto his hot dog stand and rides away in it like a horse. An old lady hides into her house and zips her door shut just as the Empty Head Society ride pass. The scene changes to the bowling alley. A bowler goes to make a strike with his bowling ball.]

Trenchbilly Empty Head Society club member: Hey, mister. You dropped your ball. [swings his hockey stick and hits the ball like a puck, crashing it into the bowler's face]

SMASH!

[The Empty Head Society club members create havoc in the bowling ally by flinging bowling balls at the bowlers. The scene cuts to Larry doing his workout on the treadmill at his gym.]

Blobfish Empty Head Society club member: Keep running. I'll pace you.

[Larry tries to run away, but the treadmill was moving too fast. He then gets crushed by the blobfish club member's mini boat. The scene changes to one of the club members painting happy faces on the traffic light.]

Shark Empty Head Society club member: These lights could use a smile.

[This action causes a major pile-up in the middle of the intersection and all the drivers complain. One Empty Head Society club member plows through the sidewalk with a lawnmower. The Crab Net was being ransacked and torn apart by the Empty Head Society and so was Tentacle Acres and they were really tearing everything apart.]

The Neptune Crusaders were walking around the city and they saw the destruction being caused by the Empty Head Society. The whole city was a complete mess. Cars were smashed and totaled, buildings were knocked down and hundreds of people were hurt. Sidewalks were shredded up and completely ripped apart and Parking Meters were smashed off and replaced with bowls of soup, garbage cans were knocked over and their contents were splattered all over the city, smiley faces were painted onto traffic lights and more.

They gasped.

Varie: Oh man!

Maria: Oh God! I didn't think those idiots would cause this much destruction! We've gotta stop them!

Bai Tza: Agreed. But they are just really stupid idiots.

Tori Hansen: I can't believe that the Empty Head Society is that stupid.

Troy: (to his team) Guys, let's each split up to cover a section of Bikini Bottom. We'll cover more ground that way.

Varie: Good idea Troy. Lets go!

The Neptune Crusaders split up and went to the places that were affected most.

[The scene changes back to the bowling alley. A bowler goes to make a strike with his bowling ball.]

Trenchbilly Empty Head Society club member: Hey, mister. You dropped your ball. [swings his hockey stick and hits the ball like a puck.]

Troy: Sorry. But I'm counting those as gutter balls!

Bai Tza and Troy kicked and batted the Bowling balls into the pins and smashed them into the Empty Head members and smashed their heads in and also smashed them into the pins and had them get strikes.

Bai Tza: You brainless idiots are as stupid as traffic cones.

Lana: They sure are.

Lana fired blasts of ice lightning and froze the Empty Heads in blocks of ice.

[The scene cuts to Larry doing his workout on the treadmill at his gym.]

Blobfish Empty Head Society club member: Keep running. I'll pace you.

[Larry tries to run away, but the treadmill was moving too fast. Girl Jordan and Emma grabbed Larry and saved him and Luna smashed the Blobfish Empty Head in the head with her axe and knocked him out.]

Luna: You Empty Head Dudes are brainless idiots.

Larry: Thanks guys.

Girl Jordan: No problem Larry.

In the streets of the city, The H2O mermaids and Gia were smashing a bunch of Empty Head's and cleaning up a lot of garbage. Cleo froze them in blasts of ice.

Gia: Don't you guys know that there are laws against littering? No? Then stick around until you do!

Cleo: That's right!

Rikki: Yeah!

Mindy took care of Patrick.

Emma and Lily Loud were smashing a bunch of Empty Head's that were messing up the highways. Jake and Varie and Qin were over at the Crab Net smashing a bunch of Empty Heads and they really pulverized them.

Gali, Orion, and Nokama smashed a bunch of Empty Head's brains in as they were smashing up Tentacle Acres and they smashed them all over.

Gali: You guys are in a lot of trouble.

Empty Head Member: (Stupidly) Duh what's trouble?

Orion: If we ever catch Squidward, we should put him here. He'd fit right in.

Nokama: Good idea Orion.

They later regrouped and tied up the Empty Head Society. The Empty Heads were badly pulverized into pulp and they looked worse than the time Squidward pulverized SpongeBob and Patrick with bad sports.

Emma: Tell me that's all of them!

Lana: That's all of them.

Varie: Yep.

Luna: These dudes are in a lot of trouble.

Varie: Their stupidity caused millions of dollars in property damages.

Noah: What do we do with these guys?

Varie: I think I have an idea.

They loaded the Empty Head Society into a paddy wagon for a special institution called THE MENTAL INSTITUTION FOR THE STUPID AND BRAINLESS.

SpongeBob: You guys may be doing good but you need to have your brains all fixed. I know you guys mean well but you all have caused so much destruction to the city because of it.

Ice Cream King: Nah it's what we do.

Varie: Is it my imagination or does your voice sound so much like Uncle Grandpa's?

Ice Cream King: Who?

We laughed.

The van carrying them left.

Varie: Another victory for the Neptune Crusaders.

Squilliam: Indeed. I heard you all saw Tentacle Acres.

Varie: We sure did. It was beautiful.

Lana: It was a place for Squids and I think it would be a perfect place for Squidward.

Squilliam: I most certainly agree with you Lana. We'll arrange to have him found and brought to a permanent home there.

Nokama: Good.

Patrick: I'm sorry guys. I thought I was doing good by joining a club.

SpongeBob: Oh it's all right buddy.

Mindy (SpongeBob): Besides, you are as perfect doing good as you are.

Varie: That's right. (To the viewers) Never join a cult or a club without knowing what it is for first. Better to be safe than sorry.

Lana: Yep.

The Neptune Crusaders helped clean up the rest of the town.

THE END

Another SpongeBob chapter done.

The Nitwitting is one of my favorite episodes from season 12. It aired on January 13th, 2019 and it was really funny! NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks man. Next up is a chapter for 2017's awesome movie Coco! Get ready to see how the world of the Mexican Underworld goes down as we help Miguel take down the evil Ernesto de la Cruz.

See you all tomorrow.

Miguel of The Underworld

At the skate park, we were there to do some awesome and radical moves.

I was going on the halfpipe doing a trick called the 360˚ hand spin.

Stacy Bolton: Radical!

Akiza: He sure has some awesome moves.

Lincoln pulled off the 720˚ backscratching rocket spin.

Bobby Bolton: Gnarly move Lincoln!

Bobby shredded on the rails with a rail slide.

Stacy went down the rails with an awesome hand flip.

Syd Chang: These guys have awesome moves!

I came down and everyone cheered.

Me: Whew! That was awesome shredding.

Ronnie Anne: It sure was.

Nico: You got some awesome moves J.D.

Me: Tubular dude.

?: I agree.

We saw two figures come out dressed in trench coats. We saw that they were gene-slammers. Both half human, half Orca Whale.

Clint: Jet?

Moby Lick: That's right Clint. Wow. You're back to normal? But how?

Me: Thanks to me.

Moby Lick: Wow! J.D. Knudson. It's an honor to meet you man. I'm Jet Taylor, but everyone calls me Moby Lick.

Me: You too Jet. John and his siblings couldn't stop talking about you.

Moby Lick: I bet.

Acid Man: (to Moby Lick) Nice to meet you, Moby. Sorry it took us this long to find you.

Moby Lick: No worries.

Hoot Loop: (to Moby Drool) Are you Moby Lick's female counterpart?

Moby Drool: I sure am. My name is Jetta Taylor. But now I'm called Moby Drool. I'm called that because I can't stop drooling.

Me: I can see that.

Jaime: Wow. You are looking great Jetta.

Moby Drool: Same here.

John Bolton: It's great to see you again Jet.

Moby Lick: Same here John.

Astrotrain: (to Moby Lick and Moby Drool) What have you two been up to while we've been dealing with the Paradigm Brothers?

Moby Lick: Trying to find you guys and shredding at skate parks.

Moby Drool: We heard that you guys killed Dr. Paradigm.

Me: We sure did. Dr. Luther Paradigm and his brother Dr. Roland Paradigm are both dead. Courtesy of us. Their gene-slamming days are over. But we still have to worry about the remain brother Dr. Arthur Paradigm. You see, they all specialized in slamming with animals of the 3 great powers of the animal kingdom: Dr. Luther Paradigm specialized in sea animals, Roland Paradigm specialized in land animals and Arthur specialized in Air animals.

Moby Lick: I see.

Moby Drool: You guys have been very busy.

Me: We killed two of them after bringing them to justice. We had them executed by firing squad in front of the whole country. And the Bolton Siblings and you two are not the only ones whose lives were messed up by the fucked up good doctors.

Dayna: That's right. My name is Dayna.

Olga: I'm Olga

Yuna: And I'm Yuna.

Dayna: Dr. Paradigm slammed me with an Octopus.

Olga: I got slammed with a Sea Wasp.

Yuna: I got slammed with a Viperfish.

Trudy: I'm Trudy Bolton. Stacy Adopted me. I was slammed with a Flying Fish.

Me: Lots of people got slammed by the Paradigm brothers.

Moby Lick: Whoa! Hardcore!

Me: Yeah.

Dr. Robert Bolton: Luther Paradigm was messing around with the laws of nature for a long time. I got slammed with a Blue Whale when I tried to stop him.

Me: Yeah.

Moby Lick: Dr. Bolton! You're okay.

Dr. Robert Bolton: I sure am.

Moby Lick: Thank goodness.

Me: Yeah. How would you two like to have your humanity back. I have the power to change you guys back.

Jaime: Same with me.

Moby Lick: We would like that.

Moby Drool: Yeah.

Me: Okay. But just so you know this is gonna hurt real bad.

Moby Lick: Okay.

Moby Drool: Right.

Jaime: Okay.

Me: Yeah. Boys cover your eyes.

We did so.

Me: Here we go

We both snapped our fingers and the two Orca Gene-Slammers were groaning in excruciating pain! Their bodies shrank, their skin reverted back, their heads regrew their hair, their heads turned back, their fins went back into their backs and their teeth went back to human. When it was done they were back to normal.

Jets and Jetta just finished reverting back to human.

Springer: (to Jet and Jetta) You two ok?

Maria and Teresa came and put robes and towels on them.

Jet: That really hurt.

Me: But see for your yourselves.

I formed mirrors and they saw that it worked!

Jetta: I'm human again!

Jet: All right!

John Bolton: Glad you guys are back.

Clint: Same here.

Jet: It's great to be back.

Me: I also gave you guys the ability to transform at will.

Jetta: Awesome!

Me: Lets get you back to the estate and get you guys new clothes.

Jet: Good idea.

We went back to the estate.

Back at the estate and Leni, Maria and Teresa made them awesome new clothes. Jet's clothes were a black shirt with an orca whale on it, white leather pants, black combat pants, and an awesome orca pattern sleeveless trench coat. He had the kanji for Jet Taylor, Orca Whale of Black and White Justice on the back. ジェットテイラー、黒と白の正義のオルカクジラ. Jetta's clothes were the same but inverted. And she had the kanji for Jetta Taylor, Orca Whale of Black and White Virtue on the back. ジェッタテイラー、黒と白の美徳のシャチのシャチ

Jet: Wow! I look awesome!

Jetta: Same here.

Jet: Thanks Leni.

Leni: You're both totes welcome.

Maria: We made all kinds of great clothes for everyone that got slammed by the Paradigm brothers and they look awesome.

Teresa: It's also the fashion we have here in Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Jet: I like it.

Later we were watching the 2017 movie Coco. It was a really great movie from Disney and Pixar.

---

The Rivera family history is told, explaining that its matriarch Imelda was the wife of a musician who left her and her daughter Coco to pursue a career in music. To support both of them, she turned to shoemaking which became the family business, and began a tradition which to this day bans music in the Riveras. Her great-great-grandson, 12-year-old Miguel, lives with his elderly great-grandmother, Coco and the rest of her descendants in the small, fictional Mexican village of Santa Cecilia. He secretly dreams of becoming a musician like his idol, the late Ernesto de la Cruz, a popular singer and film star who died in a performance when a stage worker accidentally drops a giant bell on him. Miguel keeps a secret hideout with many memorabilia from de la Cruz and he is everyday discouraged by his family about becoming a musician. When Miguel tries to enter a talent show for the Day of the Dead, his Abuelita destroys his guitar when he tried to convince her to see him play. Miguel then discovers something hidden in the photo of Imelda - taken with her husband and an infant Coco - at the center of the family ofrenda: her husband (whose face is ripped out) was holding the guitar famously used by Ernesto.

Concluding that he is Ernesto's great-great-grandson, Miguel is emboldened to steal the musician's guitar from his mausoleum to use in the show, but in doing so, he played a magic chord and finds that he is no longer visible or tangible to living people (only to Dante, a street dog he has befriended). Instead, he can see his skeletal dead relatives, who are visiting the Land of the Living on this holiday, and they can see him. They believe this is related to Imelda's inability to cross the bridge to the world of the living, and take Miguel to Land of the Dead to solve the puzzle.

They learn that Imelda cannot cross because Miguel removed her portrait from the ofrenda. Furthermore, Miguel has to be restored to the Land of the Living before sunrise or he will become one of the dead. The curse from the Riveras which sent him to this plane of existence can be undone by the blessing of a family member such as Imelda; she gave Miguel her blessing with the condition of abandon his musical ambitions. Just as he received the blessing, Miguel disobeyed the condition and was sent back with Imelda which demands him to accept her conditions but Miguel refuses and escapes to search for Ernesto, figuring he can get a blessing from that ancestor with no such conditions.

Miguel encounters Héctor, a down-on-his-luck skeleton who says he once played with Ernesto and died eating a chorizo (Mexican-style sausage), and offers to take Miguel to him, in exchange for a favor of putting his picture on an ofrenda so he can cross the flower bridge to see his daughter which he agrees. To make the plan work, Héctor paints Miguel's face to disguise as a skeleton and goes for a guitar from his friend Chicharrón who is fading because he has no remaining living relatives to remember him. Chicharrón disappears from the Land of the Dead soon after, and Miguel realizes Héctor is in danger of being forgotten by the living, and he wants Miguel to take his photo back to his world so Héctor can use it to visit his daughter one last time before she forgets him.

Imelda and the dead Riveras are determined to find Miguel so she sends her winged jaguar alebrije Pepita to find him. Miguel and Héctor manage to meet Frida Kahlo, who tells them they can get to meet Ernesto if they win a talent show to be his opening act. At first Miguel was nervous but he managed to win the contest, but then Pepita and the Riveras find him and he has to escape, as well that Héctor is now angry that Miguel lied to him that Ernesto was his only relative and he could have put his photo earlier. Just as Miguel was cornered by Imelda and Pepita, he argues that he won't accept her blessing if she won't let him do something he loves deeply and she wouldn't understand how being a musician is, but she proves him wrong with singing a rachero ballad.

Although it turns out that Héctor is actually no longer on speaking terms with Ernesto, Miguel manages to get into the singer's lavish party with his help. Miguel introduces himself to Ernesto, who cheerfully welcomes him as his great-great-grandson, the two bond at the party and playing together, but just as Ernesto was about to give him his blessing, Héctor gets into the party and confronts Miguel, feeling betrayed that the boy has reneged on their deal. In the confrontation, Miguel points out a detail that prompts Héctor to realize that his death had not been accidental, with a scene of one of Ernesto's movies. Miguel figures out that Ernesto and Héctor used to be partners in the music industry but Héctor wanted to go back to his family so Ernesto poisoned his tequila. After Héctor's death, Ernesto used his songs - and his guitar - to become famous. Taking Héctor's portrait, Ernesto betrays Héctor and Miguel and puts them in a cenote pit.

In the cenote, Miguel told Héctor he was right and Miguel was worried that he should've listened to his family and that he couldn't trust Ernesto, but Héctor started to fade, who tells Miguel that Coco is starting to forget him. Miguel shows the picture he took from the ofrenda, and the two realize that Miguel's great-great-grandfather is Héctor. Upon knowing that Coco is dying, Héctor will fade if she dies, as she is the only living relative that still remembers him, as he also told Miguel that he wrote the song Remember Me not for the world, but for Coco. With the help of Pepita and Dante, who turns out to be a spirit guide, Imelda and the other dead Riveras find them. Although Miguel explains the circumstances of Héctor's death, Imelda still won't forgive him but agrees to help save Héctor. To retrieve Héctor's portrait from Ernesto, they infiltrate his sunrise concert with the aid of Frida. The plan fails when Ernesto recognizes them and tries to steal the picture while he sings "La Llorona" with Imelda, but Ernesto is exposed to his fans as a fraud, thief, traitor, and murderer, when the family secretly broadcasts his true colors to the audience, and is knocked into the air by Pepita, and gets crushed by the same bell that killed him, echoing his first death.

As the sun rises, Héctor begins to disappear. To save him, Imelda blesses Miguel without conditions, and he rushes to Coco's side. Using Héctor's old guitar, Miguel sings "Remember Me", a song that Héctor used to sing to Coco during her childhood, which sparks her memory and revitalizes her. She retrieves from a bundle of mementos the missing part of the photo from the ofrenda, with Héctor's face. With Coco's support, Miguel's family reconciles with him and accept music into their household.

One year later, Miguel proudly presents the family ofrenda - which now features Héctor and a photo of the recently-deceased Coco - to his new baby sister. Miguel's revelations about Ernesto have left him to be condemned by the world of the living, who now honor Héctor in his place as well his legacy. In the Land of the Dead, Héctor and Imelda reunite with Coco, then cross the bridge to see their living family, including Miguel, who sings and plays the guitar for the living and deceased Riveras.

---

We were amazed that Miguel did all that to have music in his family and we were also very proud of him as well. When the movie was done we cheered wildly.

Me: That was awesome!

Rosa: (Spanish Accent) Indeed it was. It was a very amazing and most cultural treasure of our heritage.

Me: Coco has been a huge favorite around the people of Mexico and it says that Coco has won a lot of awards in all of the major international film companies.

I pulled up its info. It showed that it had won 68 out of 91 nominations.

Laney: Whoa! 68 out of 91 nominations!?

Lisa Loud: A most impressive accomplishment in film and animation.

Lincoln: That's a lot of awards ever for one movie.

Hector: (Spanish Accent) It sure is amigos. I think a movie like this is well rewarded for it's respect in the Mexican culture.

Carlota: What movies have the most awards out of them all?

Me: Lets see. One movie that my dad knows all too well from his past is Ben-Hur from 1959. That movie won 11 Academy Awards and the 1998 movie Titanic and 2003's Lord of The Rings: The Return of The King both tied winning 11.

Nico: Wow! That's incredible.

Laney: It's amazing how far filming and entertainment has come.

Lana: I'll say.

Lola: How many awards did Coco win?

Me: Only two Academy Awards. But it won a bunch of other awards that got it a lot of notoriety.

Lincoln: It sure did.

Linka: What about Avatar? How many awards did that one get?

Me: Lets see.

I pulled up the info for Avatar from 2009.

Me: It says that it got 3 Academy Awards and 11 Saturn Awards and a bunch of others.

Lily: Wow! That would make it the best Science-Fiction film ever.

Varie: It sure would. It's also the 2nd biggest movie of all time. Number 1 is Avengers Infinity War: Endgame.

Lori: Wow! That's literally incredible.

Bobby: It sure is babe.

Dallas: I'm amazed that all those movies were such a huge success.

Carlota: Me too.

Me: I know.

C.J.: It's amazing that movies are so much fun. Just like pirates.

Me: But that Ernesto de la Cruz was one bad guy. Lets see what it says about him.

I pulled up his info.

Ernesto de la Cruz (or rather, his soul) is the main antagonist of Pixar's 19th full-length animated feature film Coco. He is Héctor Rivera's former childhood best friend and music partner, Miguel's former idol, the former two's arch-nemesis, and a famous singer, musician, and actor (but fake songwriter) who had dazzled the audience with his good looks and his charm, and was a source of Mexican pride due to his handsome looks, supposedly strong morals, and his standing up for his fellow Mexicans. He died when he was crushed by a giant bell mid-performance and resides as a soul in the Land of the Dead. However, it was revealed that Ernesto murdered Héctor, who actually wrote all his songs, for betrayal and stole all of his songs and compositions to gain fame and fortune, thus making him indirectly responsible for the Riveras hating music and Héctor in the first place (except for Miguel, who loves music).

In the English version, he was voiced by Benjamin Bratt, who also played El Macho in Despicable Me 2, Antonio Pope in Ride Along 2, and El Topo in Snitch. In the Spanish dubbed version, he was voiced by Marco Antonio Solís (also known as "El Buki") in his first villainous role.

Ernesto was born in 1896. He started out as a childhood friend and business partner of Héctor Rivera, as they both entered the music industry in 1921, wooing the people of Mexico for months. However, they broke into an argument when Héctor decided to return to his wife Imelda and daughter Coco. Though Héctor assured Ernesto that the latter can manage on his own, Ernesto desperately claimed that he can't do so without Hector's songs and begged Hector to reconsider. However, Hector remained firm in his decision to go back to his family as Ernesto was angered by this refusal. Pretending to support Héctor's decision of returning to his family by making a toast and saying that he would move "heaven and earth" for him, Ernesto secretly spiked Héctor's drink with poison, which took effect as they walked down the street towards the train station. Watching Héctor succumb to his death by the poison, Ernesto took the opportunity to steal Héctor's guitar and songbook and pass off them as his own, gaining a reputation in the music industry and becoming one of Mexico's most acclaimed musicians, as well as a film star and writer. It's unknown why he did this; however, one could say that like all murders who desire attention, he did it so he can keep the guitar as a trophy.

Ernesto kept his murder secret by claiming that Héctor died from to food poisoning and never informed the his family about his death, causing Héctor's wife Imelda, unaware of Héctor's desire to come home, to assume he had abandoned their family and thus instigated a ban on music for the Rivera family while taking a hobby of making shoes as the main family business. Ernesto even went as far as to brag about his death by making a film where he's the one getting betrayed.

Eventually, during one of Ernesto's concerts while singing Héctor's famous song "Remember Me" in 1942, he was killed in an unnoticed act of karma when a backstage hand accidentally leaned on a lever that caused a church bell to drop onto him. Despite his own death, Ernesto's legacy lived on, which was honored by a large statue. He also maintained his reputation as he continued to perform to the citizens of the Land of the Dead, supplied with his own mansion and a crew of security guards at his disposal. Said security guards are apparently responsible for protecting him from rapid fans, and (possibly), get rid of anyone that might have found out about his past.

The Day of the Dead

It began with Miguel living in the ville "Santa Cecilia" with his family, including a very old Coco who is suffering from Alzheimer's. Unlike the rest of the Riveras, Miguel loves music and, in secret, hopes to one day be as famous as Ernesto, whom he considered to be his hero and idol.

Upon learning about a talent show during the Day of the Dead, Miguel discovers from Imelda's portrait that his great-great grandfather has a guitar similar to the one that Ernesto is holding in a photo. Believing that Ernesto is his great-great grandfather, Miguel tries to explain his discovery to his family, but they refuse to believe this, with Miguel's grandmother Elena destroying Miguel's guitar to prevent him from following the path of his ancestor. Fed up with his family's views on music, Miguel angrily runs away, deciding to perform himself.

However, Miguel can't enter without an instrument and decides to take Ernesto's guitar from inside his mausoleum to use it in the concert. In the moment Miguel struck the strings, he becomes a type of ghost, being unable to be seen or heard by the living except for a street dog named Dante, who is actually a disguised spirit animal. In the cemetery, Miguel meets his deceased relatives, who are shocked to discover Miguel has entered into the Land of the Dead.

Land of the Dead

When Miguel is taken to the Land of the Dead, he meets Imelda, who is unable to cross to the world of the living because Miguel took her portrait from the ofrenda. They discover from an officer what can help Miguel return to the world of the living before he turns into a skeleton at sunrise.

By recieving a relative's "blessing" with a glowing petal of Aztec marigold, Imelda agrees to let Miguel back home, but with the condition that he gives up his musical desires. Outraged with this, Miguel angrily refuses and runs away before allying with Héctor, who is currently a lonely and forgotten trickster trying to visit his family to no avail and being unaware of the true causes of his death. Forming a deal, Héctor offers to take Miguel to Ernesto in exchange of delivering Héctor's picture to his family's ofrenda in order to save him from being forgotten by the living world. During their journey to Ernesto's mansion, Héctor, Miguel and Dante are being tracked down by Imelda's spiritual guide (an alebrije called Pepita).

After participating on a contest to receive an entrance to the mansion, an argument breaks between Miguel and Héctor after the latter discovers that the former could have returned to his home all the time (as Miguel had previously lied to Héctor by claiming that Ernesto was his only family around). In response, an angry Miguel leaves Hector and dismisses Dante, determined more than ever to get to Ernesto's mansion on his own. He even accuses a pursuing Imelda of ruining his life by taking what brings him joy, music, away, an accusation that leaves Imelda guilt-ridden and heartbroken once she realizes how much her bias against music has hurt her family.

Meeting Miguel

Miguel manages to enter the mansion with the help of a band (who were the winning participants of the contest) and looks for Ernesto while Héctor followed him disguised as the famed painter Frida Kahlo.

During the party inside the mansion, Miguel gets Ernesto's attention by singing one of his favorite songs that he sung on television, "The World es mi Familia", though he ends up falling into the swimming pool by accident. Ernesto dives in and saves Miguel, who is revealed to be a living boy and explains about his discoveries of his ancestry to Ernesto. Despite being aware that he had no known living relatives, Ernesto exploited the opportunity by taking it as a sign of joy and spending a quality time with Miguel to gain more support from the guests.

After the party is over, Ernesto stated that he had to make a decision in leaving everything behind to pursue his own dreams of becoming a musician and advises Miguel to do the same if he wishes. As Miguel explains his situation to Ernesto, the latter agrees to give him his blessing to send him back.

True Colors

Just as Ernesto is about to give Miguel a petal of Aztec marigold to send him home, however, they were interrupted by an arriving Héctor, who confronts Miguel for leaving him behind and Ernesto for taking his songs while leaving him to be forgotten by the living world. A nervous Ernesto admits Héctor did write the songs, but claimed that he only sang them to keep Hector's memory alive ever since his death, though Héctor is not convinced by this. Nevertheless, Héctor pleads with Ernesto to let Miguel take his photo, reminding him of the time Ernesto said that he would move "heaven and earth" in the name of their friendship.

Upon hearing this, Miguel points out the similarities between Hector and Ernesto's toast with a scene in one of Ernesto's films where the villain attempts to murder him with a poisoned drink (in which Ernesto, who had written the film script, had used the moment of murdering Hector as inspiration to make the script). Catching on to the similarities after watching the film, Héctor recollects the events before his death and finally realizes in horror that Ernesto had deliberately poisoned him in order to steal his songs and take the fame for himself.

Furious at this revelation, Héctor tackles Ernesto in a scuffle for the way he ruined his attempt to go back home, but the latter fearfully calls in his security guards to detain him. Finally being aware of Héctor's former occupation as Ernesto's partner in the music industry, Miguel wonders if all of it was true or not, though he denies this to Ernesto. However, being unwilling to trust Miguel as he has learned too much, Ernesto reveals his true colors by crumbling the petal and pocketing away Héctor's photo while ordering his guards to imprison Miguel, admitting that he had to murder Héctor to seize his moment in becoming a famous musician. This made a horrified Miguel realize the murderous fraud that Ernesto really is.

In a cenote pit, Héctor begins to fade as his daughter Coco is starting to forget him due to her deteriorating mental state, which makes Miguel realize that Héctor is really his great-great grandfather, not Ernesto. Eventually, they are rescued by Imelda and Pepita, who were guided by Dante to them. Reconciling, Miguel then explains the events to his deceased relatives and that Ernesto was responsible for Héctor not returning home in the first place. With this shocking revelation, Imelda and the others agree to help Héctor and Miguel recover the stolen photo. That said Imelda still cannot bring herself to forgive him since he still left her before his death.

Final Showdown

During Ernesto's sunrise show at a stadium, Miguel and his deceased relatives sneak in (with the help of the real Frida Kahlo) to recover Héctor's photo from Ernesto before Coco forgets him. They run into Ernesto by convenience, where Imelda angrily slaps Ernesto twice for being the cause of her family's grief. He is shocked that Miguel and Héctor are related, just as the deceased Rivera relatives chase him down the stadium. Ernesto calls his security staff to detain them, forcing the relatives to fight back while Imelda accidentally ends up on stage after recovering Héctor's photo from Ernesto. Spotting Imelda on stage, Ernesto angrily orders his guards to stop her and steal back the photo.

At first, Imelda is reluctant to perform, but Miguel encourages her to sing as Héctor plays the guitar. Imelda starts singing "La Llorona" while evading the security guards, which surprises her dead relatives and woos the entire audience, much to Ernesto's anger. Deciding to handle things in person, Ernesto comes in stage singing and tries to take the photo while trying to make everything seem as part of the show, though Imelda frees herself from Ernesto by stepping on his foot and gives Miguel the photo and her blessing.

However, just as Miguel can touch the petal, Ernesto angrily grabs him and shoves an interfering Imelda to the floor, ranting out that he will not allow him go back with the photo because it would ruin his legacy as a great musician. Miguel angrily refutes this by stating that Ernesto is a fraud who murdered Héctor (the real musician) and stole his songs leaving him forgotten, but Ernesto does not care by saying that he will do whatever it takes to seize his moment. Without hesitation, Ernesto throws Miguel over the edge, much to the horror of the Riveras. Ernesto then leaves for the stage while taunting his weakened old friend with a cruel and sarcastic apology, telling him that the show must go on.

Defeat

Though it would have seemed that Ernesto had won, as he returns to continue his performance for the concert attendees, he is unaware that Miguel's great-aunts, Rosita and Victoria, secretly used a video camera to broadcast his confession and throwing Miguel over the edge to the audience. This makes the outraged audience realize his true colors and eventually turn against him with catcalls and jeers as they condemn him for his vile actions on the Riveras. He tries to get the orchestra to start playing, but they refuse to do anything other than glare at him with contempt, disgusted with their boss for everything he's done. Even the orchestra's conductor silently splits his baton in two without a second thought.

Just as the confused Ernesto is being pelted with produce by the angry audience when he tries to win them over with "Remember Me", he witnesses Pepita has saved Miguel on the monitors, making him realize that he just exposed his crimes to the entire Land of the Dead. Pepita then comes forth on stage to punish Ernesto for all that the Rivera family had endured when he murdered Héctor by lifting him up before throwing him from the stadium. Ernesto then falls onto a bell tower and watches helplessly as the bell falls and crushes him once again after he smashed into it (mimicking his original death), much to the audience's delight.

After receiving a family blessing from his great-great-grandparents and returning home, Miguel uses Héctor's guitar to help Coco remember him by singing "Remember Me". Coco also reveals that she kept her father's old letters detailing his song lyrics and the ripped portion of the portrait detailing his face, allowing the Rivera family to finally learn the truth about what happened to him all those years ago. Realizing their wrong opinion of their ancestor, the Rivera family allowed music back into their lives and proceeded to expose Ernesto as the fraud he was by using the photo and the letters as evidence of their findings. By the following year, Héctor has replaced Ernesto as the village's new musical figure. Ernesto's shrine is abandoned with the sole addition being a sign that says "FORGET YOU" ("OLVIDADO" in Spanish) that was put on Ernesto's old tomb as the villagers now consider him a disgrace for his heinous actions on the Rivera family, therefore leaving the tomb to decay in a permanent state.

Even though Ernesto still exists in the Land of the Dead even after he was crushed by the giant bell since he was already dead and will still be remembered in the Land of the Living, his crimes would forever leave him rejected by both the living and the dead, remembered as a murderer, thief and fraud; therefore ensuring that he gets his wish of getting fame, but in the worst way imaginable now being infamous rather than famous. He will remain in this state until no one remembers him, a fate Miguel and the others think he more than deserves given his crimes.

We gasped in shock and horror!

Me: I think we found our next villain of Disney we need to take down.

Nico: We sure have. But instead of being forgotten, he should be sent into the River of Fire.

Nicole: Or the Book of Vile Darkness.

Me: Sora, have you ever been to the world of Coco?

Sora: No I have not. It's a completely different world for me.

Me: It was made in 2017 so it's still fairly new.

Varie: That's right.

Sora: That's all right. But it looks like we're gonna get our chance to visit the world of Coco.

Me: We sure are. Lets head to the Simulator.

We cheered.

Jet: This is gonna be awesome!

Jetta: Yeah!

We went to the simulator.

---

We went into the Simulator and we were ready. The Simulator activated and we found ourselves in THE LAND OF THE DEAD!

---

The Land of the Dead is a realm in the Pixar film Coco, and also the main setting in the movie. It is an underworld known in Mexican folklore as the final destination for spirits of the deceased.

The Land of the Dead is a realm with complex dimensions occupying deep space. In its heart is a large city full of bright lights and colors, while bridges covered with marigold petals branch from the city for the dead to venture across. The structures in the city are actually buildings upon buildings of previous homes, as the world is constantly expanding to accommodate the new souls that enter. The only beings that inhabit this world are human and animal spirits of the deceased (who have the appearance of "living" skeletons) and the animal-like alebrije. The alebrije not only coexist with the humans of the afterlife, but also act as a guide for the ones who need them.

Reflecting Mexican folklore, the souls of those departed come to the land when they die. Although, in death, the spirit will appear as the age when they died. They also retain the status they had in life, thus there are spirits that are considered celebrities, while other spirits continue their former occupation. The spirit will reunite with their loved ones in the afterlife, but on Día de Los Muertos, those souls can cross over the bridges and return to the Land of the Living to see their living relatives once again. As long as these souls have a picture of who they were in life on their family's ofrenda (altar), they can cross the bridge successfully. In order to get back into the Land of the Dead however, spirits must present ethereal copies of the offerings from their family's ofrenda. For obvious reasons, restrooms do not exist in the Land of the Dead.

If a human enters the Land of the Dead by disturbing or stealing something belonging to a deceased person during Día de Los Muertos, they gradually turn into a spirit and remain trapped in the realm if they can't leave by sunrise. They will need the spirit of a family member (or at least, a spirit the person thinks of as family) to bless a marigold petal to return them to the Land of the Living. However, the spirit can add any conditions they desire to the blessing; if the human breaks them after accepting the blessing, they instantly return to the Land of the Dead.

Despite their nigh-eternal existence in the Land of the Dead, the spirits depend on the memories of the living to continue to exist. In fact, the realm works around three types of "deaths" that each spirit goes through: The first is the last breath the spirit takes when they were human; the second is their own burial; and the third is when the last person who remembers them dies. The third type is considered a "final death" for the spirit, for when they are no longer remembered, they fade into oblivion through disappearing into light and dust. But if a person passes down stories of who the spirit was to other people, and the people wish to remember the spirit, the spirit can continue to exist.

Places of Interest

Marigold Bridge - Colossal bridges made from marigold petals, they connect the land to the cemeteries in the Land of the Living. Multiple bridges are connected to the city and each appears to lead to a single location. The bridges themselves are sentient: they can sense whether or not one is allowed to cross them depending on if their picture is displayed on the family ofrenda. If they are not, the bridges make the soul sink into the petals and unable to cross. Once the sun rises after Dia de los Muertos every year, these bridges evaporate into thin air as seen in the deleted scene "To the Bridge". As it was dangerous for any soul to cross them during that period, crossing them would get any soul to be given a premature 'Final Death'.

Marigold Grand Central Station - A large complex that is the realm's main transport system.

Department of Family Reunions - A resources department responsible for directing new arrivals to their respective family clans. They use ofrendas from the Land of the Living to locate and direct the spirits.

Arts District - A section of deceased artists, the dead here are found doing what they loved when they were alive.

Ernesto's Tower - The residence of Ernesto de la Cruz in the Land of the Dead. Ernesto's lavish mansion is located at the top of a tall tower. A funicular running on the outside of the tower allows access to and from Ernesto's mansion. It is unknown what happened to the mansion, after Ernesto's villainy was exposed.

Plaza de la Cruz - A plaza dedicated to Ernesto de la Cruz. It features a statue of the musician in the center, just like its counterpart in Santa Cecilia, the Mariachi Plaza. This was presumably altered in accordance with the real one after Ernesto's duplicity was discovered.

Me: WHOA!

Lana: Wow!

Maria: I can't believe we're actually in the Land of the Dead!

Me: It's beautiful. So this is what the Land of the Dead is. It's breathtaking.

Rosa: Ay caramba! It's amazing being here!

Hector: Everything I was told about it by my family is all real!

Carlota: Amazing!

Carlitos: Wow! It's so amazing!

Syd Chang: I can't believe it! It's amazing!

Adelaide: It sure is Syd. Maybe we'll get to see Froggy here.

Me: Maybe.

We were on a bridge made entirely out of marigold petals.

Me: The bridges are made of Marigold petals.

I picked up some and smelled them.

Me: (Sniffs) Mmm. Very fragrant.

Carl: It sure is fragrant.

We walked along the Marigold Bridge that lead into the Land of the Dead and it was a beautiful place full of beauty and more.

Akiza: This is amazing!

Jaden: It sure is. I've never seen a place as beautiful as this.

Me: It sure is amazing. We celebrated Day of The Dead last year and I've always wondered what this place would be like.

Syd Chang: That was a really cool day.

Adelaide: It sure was. It's just amazing that everyone comes here.

Me: Not everyone. Those that are evil are put into a more terrifying place and that is the Mexican version of Hell: Xibalba.

Ronnie Anne: That's right.

Lily: What does Xibalba mean?

Me: That's ancient Mayan for Place of Fear. I read about it in books and saw it in documentaries.

Ronnie Anne: It's a really terrifying place. It's like the worlds of Hell that we went to but just as worse.

Me: Yep. And there are versions of Hell just as terrifying. Lets go check this out.

We went into the city of the Land of the Dead and it was beautiful and amazing. We saw some of Mexico's most famous figures in the city.

Me: Wow. Some of these figures I've read about. There's General Santa Ana, Juan Álvarez, Mariano Paredes y Arrillaga, Guillen Genevevo Rivas, Maria Callas, Montserrat Caballé, many more.

Laney: Wow! Some of these figures are amazing.

Jessie K.: They sure are. General Santa Ana lead the attack on the Alamo in San Antonio, Texas in 1836.

Me: Boy I remember reading about that. That was one of the most famous events in Texas.

Lily: It sure was.

Hunter: (German Accent) Ja. I remember reading about that. Und it was a very famous event not just in America but also in Europe as well.

Edwayl: (Breton Accent) That's right lad. It was awful.

Nemo: It was.

Fletcher: (Scottish Accent) Aye. It was a terrible event lads.

Dana: No kidding.

?: (Spanish Accent) Rosa!?

We turned and we saw a man. It was Rosa's father Lazaro.

Rosa: Padre?

Me: Your father?

Ronnie Anne: Bisabuelo?

Lazaro: Rosa and Ronnie Anne!

They went over and hugged him for the first time. A long time for Rosa and the first time for Ronnie Anne.

Lazaro: It's a huge surprise to see you here.

Rosa: Oh Padre I miss you so much!

Ronnie Anne: It's so cool to meet you Bisabuelo!

Lazaro: Same here. Rosa you are doing well.

Me: Señor Lazaro, (Speaking Spanish) Es un placer conocerte. La señorita Rosa me habló mucho de ti. (It's a pleasure to meet you. Miss Rosa told me so much about you.)

Lazaro: It's an honor to meet you too Señor J.D. Everyone loves everything you do in Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: We don't like to brag. But I can tell that Rosa missed you.

We heard a frog croak and a frog came and it was Adelaide's frog FROGGY!

Adelaide: FROGGY!

He hopped into her arms and she laughed joyously!

Syd Chang: Awesome!

Lori: Is that Adelaide's pet frog?

Syd Chang: It sure is Lori. She lost him a while back and was devastated.

Lori: Oh no.

Lana: I'm sorry Adelaide.

Adelaide: But it's great to see him again.

Lazaro: I take it you all are here to stop Ernesto de la Cruz.

Me: That's right.

Lazaro: I'm glad. I don't trust that man. I think he's hiding something.

Me: I agree.

?: (Spanish Accent) I agree with you too.

We saw a little boy and it was Miguel Rivera.

Me: Miguel Rivera.

Miguel Rivera: It's an honor to meet you all J.D. I've heard so many awesome things about you all.

Me: We get that all the time. We don't like to brag.

Miguel Rivera: I know. But I have a strong suspicion that Ernesto is stealing the songs of my hero and father Héctor Rivera.

Me: Okay. We'll gladly help you out. We also came here to help destroy him after we expose him.

William: Okay. Before we expose Ernesto, we need to find physical evidence that he stole Hector's songs.

Miguel Rivera: Agreed.

Me: Lets go.

We went to Ernesto's mansion.

We arrived at his house and it looked like a mansion that belonged to one of the Mexican Drug Lords.

Me: Wow. Ernesto sure know how's to live. But it looks a lot like a Mexican Drug Cartel mansion.

Miguel Rivera: It sure does.

Me: Lets go. But we have to go undercover.

Nico: Right.

We got into our disguises. We were going as Music Inspectors.

We went up to the door and rung the doorbell and answering it was none other than ERNESTO DE LA CRUZ himself.

Ernesto: (Spanish Accent) Yes?

Me: (Spanish Accent) Inspector Clarinet, head of the Land of the Dead Music Inspection Agency. These are all my team.

Nico: We're investigating suspicions of old music that was stolen long ago.

May: Ernesto, is it ok if we take a look around?

For a moment, it looked like Ernesto wouldn't buy the lie.

Ernesto: (Smiles) Go right ahead!

Nico: Thanks!

Me: Muchas garcias señor.

We went inside his mansion and we looked around. We found stolen music and we also got a taped confession out of him as he was adjusting his tie in the mirror.

BINGO!

We had enough evidence to bust him.

After that we went to confront him!

Me: Hold it right there Cruz!

Ernesto: The Music Inspectors?

Me: Wrong.

We revealed ourselves.

Ernesto: Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Me: That's right. We have enough evidence to show that you are a murderer and a thief. You killed Miguel's father in cold blood and you took all the credit for the songs that Hector wrote.

Miguel: Papá Ernesto, is this really true?

Ernesto: (chuckles) Well, looks like the secret's out.

Miguel: But Hector was your best friend!

Ernesto: Of course he was. [smiling cruelly] Success doesn't come for free, Miguel. You have to be willing to do whatever it takes to… seize your moment. [Miguel gasps] I know you'll understand.

Captain America: If you think we're gonna let you get away with this-

Ernesto: What could you and your friends possibly do to me, Captain? We're in the Land of the Dead. The Book of Vile Darkness and the River of Fire probably won't work here. The only thing that could do me in could be the Hakai technique and to avoid that, I just have to stay far away from you all as possible. (to his security guards, Waffle Woman, and King Hiss) Deal with them.

King Hiss: With pleasure.

With that, Ernesto leaves the room, leaving us to deal with the two Masters of Evil members and the security guards.

Me: I figured you two would be here.

Waffle Woman: We have this habit.

King Hiss: Yes.

We saw security guards coming.

King Hiss and Waffle Woman just destroyed the security guards, much to our shock.

Miguel: Why did you two just do that?

Waffle Woman: Because even we're digusted that Hector plans to have you forgotten by having you stay here.

Ben: But I'm guessing you two can't let him know about your real thoughts on his plan.

Waffle Woman: Exactly. We'll meet you all onstage for our usual fights. (she and King Hiss leave the room)

Me: Okay.

We went backstage and while the show was in intermission and we confronted Ernesto.

Ernesto: What!?

Me: It's over Ernesto!

Héctor: How could you do this to me!? I was your friend and all you are is a monster!

Ernesto went at Miguel.

Héctor: Leave the boy alone!

Ernesto: I worked too hard, Héctor… too hard to let him destroy everything!

Héctor: He's a living child, Ernesto!

A skeleton pressed a button and he was on camera.

Ernesto: He's a THREAT! You think I'd let him go back to the Land of the Living with your photo?! To keep your memory alive?! No!

Miguel: You're a coward!

Me: And a monster!

Ernesto: I am Ernesto de la Cruz, the greatest musician of all time!

Miguel: Héctor's the real musician! You're just the guy who murdered him and stole his songs!

Everyone gasped.

Ernesto: I am the one who's willing to do what it takes to sieze my moment… whatever it takes.

Me: Not for long!

I played the tape recording.

Ernesto: (On the tape recorder) My friend… you're… being forgotten.

Héctor: And whose fault is that?!

Ernesto: Héctor, please!

Héctor: Those were MY songs you took! My songs that made you famous! And you killed me for them by poisoning me! If I'm being forgotten, it's because YOU never told anyone that I wrote them!

Ernesto: Héctor, I never meant to take credit. We made a great team, but you died. And I… I only sang your songs because… I wanted to keep a part of you alive.

Héctor: Oh, how generous! You… poisoned me.

Ernesto: You're confusing movies with reality, Héctor.

Héctor: YOU TOOK EVERYTHING AWAY FROM ME, YOU RAT!

Ernesto: And I will do it again to get what I want!

Everyone in the audience gasped!

The recording ended.

Ronnie Anne: Hey, Ernesto. Smile! You're on TV!

Ernesto saw that the camera was on and everyone booed the living hell out of him!

Ernesto: What have you done!?

Me: Restored Héctor's reputation and gave him his rightful recognition that you have stolen from him.

Audience Member man: MURDERER!

Audience Member woman: GET OFF THE STAGE!

Me: It's over Ernesto. You're finished.

Ernesto: Not quite! Waffle Woman and King Hiss kill them!

Waffle Woman looked like she was about to shoot syrup at Miguel. But at the last second, she purposely shot at the spot near Miguel.

Ernesto: What?! You missed!

Waffle Woman (lying): Guess that was a bad shot.

Me: You are through Cruz.

My Signer Mark then started glowing.

Me: Uh oh. Dark Signer.

Out came a figure and it was REX GOODWIN - THE DARK SIGNER OF THE CONDOR!

---

Rex Goodwin, sometimes romanized as Rex Godwin, was a major character in Yu-Gi-Oh! 5D's. Goodwin was a former developer from R.R.D., head of Sector Security, and the man from the Daedalus Bridge legend. He is the only Dark Signer to not wear a cloak and the only Dark Signer to not have his dark mark on his right arm (instead, he had it on his back). He bears the dark mark of the Condor and his Earthbound Immortal is Wiraqocha Rasca.

Just before Roman became a Dark Signer, he entrusted Rex with the mission to gather the Signers together to someday stop him and save the world. For the next 17 years, he would go to great lengths to accomplish this.

But after many failed attempts trying to help, Goodwin lost faith in "people sharing bonds" (as stated in 'Signs of Doom Part 3'), developing the idea of turning into a Dark Signer with the powers of a Signer (by using Roman's birthmark). Believing only in the power of his two marks, he'd stop the cycle of conflicts every 5,000 years (however, in Z-one's time-line he was not a Dark Signer).

Rex and his brother Roman, were scientists who became Dr. Fudo's assistants for the development of Ener-D technology. The three of them worked on the project and making steady progress but at some point the Ener-D started behaving strangely and causing abnormal weather every time they tested it. Dr. Fudo wanted cancel the project before something bad happened, much to Rex's dismay.

Roman was made lead developer after Dr. Fudo's request to abort was rejected. Dr. Fudo managed to pass on three of the four control units; the cards "Red Dragon Archfiend", "Stardust Dragon" and "Black Rose Dragon", to Rex after being shot at for taking them. He begged Rex to stop the Ener-D project.

Rex went to find Roman and found him in a lab, having just amputated his arm. Roman handed Rex a container with the arm and told Rex to do what it took to defeat him after the Signers appeared. He ordered Rex to leave and hit a self destruct button, which resulted in Zero Reverse, so that he was reborn as a Dark Signer.

Rex survived the catastrophe but was left stranded in the Satellite area, which was now a recluded island. Rex constructed a Duel

Runner and moved to a coastal part of Satellite. Nobody knew or found out who he was at the time because he never took off his helmet. Every day he used to stare across the waters dividing Satellite and New Domino City. One day, he began constructing a bridge to the city hoping to find Roman.

Initially, people thought he was crazy, but came to help him after a while, after seeing his progress and determination. Some people frowned at the idea and forced construction to halt. Rex became wanted by Sector Security and his helpers abandoned the project. Rex ended up cornered by Security one day. Rather than be caught and spend the rest of his life in jail, he rode his Duel Runner along the bridge and flew off to the other end of the sea. No one who saw him jump could figure out if he survived or not, nor what his real identity was, thus they regarded him as a legend and the incomplete bridge was later named Daedalus Bridge.

Goodwin managed to survive the jump off the bridge and made his way to the city, but lost his left arm in the process. Eventually Goodwin replaced his arm with a mechanical one. Goodwin managed to make his way to becoming Director of New Domino City and Sector Security, as well as leader of a cell within the secret organization known as Iliaster, with Lazar as his all-purpose assistant. In order to make sure that the Dragon cards fell into the possession of their corresponding Signers, Goodwin released them to the public.

Since the original Ener-D Reactor, located in Satellite, was the gateway to the Underworld, Satellite was to become the battlefield. Goodwin, aware of this, made it illegal for residents of Satellite to migrate to the city and refused to complete the Daedalus Bridge, as doing so would have dragged the people of New Domino City into the situation. Goodwin masqueraded his beliefs of class and plutocracy with utilitarianism, and said that everyone must work together to maintain the delicate balance between Satellite and New Domino City. Goodwin continued Ener-D research in New Domino and used it to power the city. Zigzix led the project, but operated under Goodwin's strict vigilance to ensure the new Ener-D doesn't overload again.

Using his influence within the city, Goodwin began to locate the Signers. He found the Satellite resident, Jack Atlas, who had a Mark of the Dragon, and identified him as a Signer. Goodwin organized an escape plan for Jack, and promised him that he would live as a Duel King in New Domino. Jack complied, although it meant turning his back on and stealing from his friends. Jack apparently became Goodwin's protegé, but was really used for publicity and a tool in Goodwin's plans.

Fortune Cup

After witnessing the appearance of the Crimson Dragon during Yusei's and Jack's Turbo Duel, he revealed his status to Jack as the 360th Star Guardian and informed Jack that he was a prophetical savior called a "Signer". However, Goodwin concealed the whole truth from Jack. Goodwin believed that the truth would spark Jack's fire.

Goodwin later arranged the Fortune Cup, in the hopes of finding Signers by inviting participants randomly and inserting his own Dueling assassins who would expose a Signer upon Dueling one. Goodwin was shown to have control of nearly every aspect of the tournament either directly or through Zigzix and Lazar. He also had a large string of backup plans should things not go his way: for example, upon discovering that Leo had substituted for his Signer sister in the tournament, he arranged a "consolation Duel" to in order to expose Luna.

Greiger, whose hometown had been destroyed, had been promised reconstruction aid to his hometown depending on how well he preformed in the Fortune Cup. Greiger got misinformed that Goodwin was responsible for the village's destruction and after he lost to Yusei, he tried to attack Goodwin, which resulted in a spike from his Duel Runner flying off and Goodwin catching it, stunning Lazar. The spinning spike shreds Goodwin's glove and part of his suit revealing he had a mechanical left arm. Goodwin manages to calm down the audience while hiding the mechanical arm, then tells Jack that he had lost his arm in an accident years ago.

During the Fortune Cup Final, while the other four Signers were in the premises, he used Roman's old arm with the 5th Mark of the Dragon to Summon the Crimson Dragon. (In the dub, he referred to himself as the Fifth Signer). He was unconcerned when Jack lost to Yusei in the final round. Due to the appearance of the Crimson Dragon during the Duel, the public and media couldn't see how the Duel had ended. When the media questioned him about it, and stated that the public wasn't satisfied by the outcome of the Duel, he was able to avoid telling them the truth by claiming there was a malfunction with the Solid Vision.

Dark Signers

Goodwin appeared at the premiere of the film Atlas Rising. After assisting at opening event and talking to the people, he tried to leave but was stopped by Angela Raines, who publicly questioned him about Jack being from Satellite.

Goodwin and Lazar met Yusei on a bridge to in order to tell the boy "the truth". Goodwin told Yusei about the 5,000 year old battle between the Signers and Dark Signers, how the Earthbound Immortals got sealed in the Nazca Lines and how the Crimson Dragon divided itself into 5 parts, each sealed in a Mark of the Dragon. When Yusei asked him why the battle had begun again, Rex told him about Zero Reverse and how it unleashed negative energy, which was also emitted from the Nazca Lines and now the Dark Signers plan to use the same Ener-D reactor from the Zero Reverse incident to open the door to the Underworld. In order to stop this, the Signers must defeat the Dark Signers.

Yusei insisted on evacuating Satellite before this happened. Goodwin refused as the people in New Domino would become victims instead. Yusei angrily figured out that this was why Goodwin isolated Satellite. Goodwin told Yusei he must combine his powers with the other Signers in order to stop the Dark Signers. After Yusei asked who the Fifth Signer was, Goodwin says that he was destined to appear eventually. Goodwin arranged for Yusei to be airdropped into Satellite.

After Carly Carmine became a Dark Signer, Lazar and Goodwin became aware of her presence and watched her Duel Sayer on a screen, in which they saw the Hummingbird geoglyph appear in the city. They also saw Misty Tredwell Duel around the same time and observe her Lizard geoglyph appear there as well.

Rex later invited the Signers to his house to give them more information that concerned the Signers and Dark Signers. He told the Signers how they have been brought together by fate, more about the Dark Signer's powers and their use of the "Earthbound Immortals". Reluctantly, he told them that a Dark Signer cannot return to their normal self as they were no longer of this world.

After the Black fog incident in Satellite, Goodwin arranged for the Signers to return to Satellite to fulfill their mission. Before the Signers left, Yusei asked Goodwin to promise to finish the Daedalus Bridge, once the Dark Signers threat had been eliminated, which Goodwin accepted.

Rex met up with Roman and engaged in a Duel, and used his Duel Disk, which folded out of his mechanical arm. Rex lost on purpose, so that he was reborn as a Dark Signer. Rex told his brother that he knew he (Roman) couldn't defeat Yusei and if the Dark Signers lost the battle, then another battle would occur in the next 5,000 years. In his dying words, he told his brother that he intended to stop the chain of fate by taking on both the marks of a Signer and Dark Signer and create a new victor in the battle between good and evil. After a while, Crow Hogan found him in an old room. Rex informed Crow a little about the past before cutting him off by turning toward a sliding door. Later Rex returned back to New Domino City and back to the Sky Temple to collect Roman's arm.

Later, after Akiza failed to seal the Lizard control tower before sundown, the Condor Geoglyph appeared in the sky. Then, the Crimson Dragon appeared once again and guided the Signers to Goodwin. He revealed to them that he had acquired the powers of both a Signer and a Dark Signer, as Goodwin intended to become the Ultimate God and lay waste to the entire world using the King of the Netherworld's power. Then, by using the Crimson Dragon's power, he would remake the entire world in his image and under his rule. As the Condor mark on his back showed itself, he then removed Roman's preserved arm from the canister and attached it to himself and then declared that a Shadow Turbo Duel would be held within Condor Geoglyph as a ritual to welcome the King of the Netherworld.

Yusei, Jack, and Crow accepted the Duel in order to stop the resurrection of the Underworld Ruler. During the Duel, he revealed to them about how and why he became a Dark Signer. Shortly after the Duel began, Goodwin Summoned forth all the birthmarks together to form the Mark of the Dragon on his chest. He revealed the strongest of the Earthbound Immortals, "Wiraqocha Rasca". He also revealed that he was the stranger from the Daedalus Bridge legend.

Ultimately, Rex lost to Yusei when his Earthbound Immortal was destroyed by "Majestic Star Dragon" and the King of the Netherworld was destroyed by the Crimson Dragon. With their defeat, the Dark Signers were revived as their old selves, but Rex and Roman remained absent.

Legacy

Even after Goodwin's defeat, his presence was still felt throughout certain parts of the series. It was shown that Goodwin had paid off strong Duelists to lose to Jack when Jack was King, with Dragan having been shown to be one of them. Primo compared the plan of the Three Pure Nobles to be similar to Goodwin's own, but without harnessing the power of the Crimson Dragon. When Yusei prepared to travel to the Ark Cradle, he prayed that Goodwin would guide him through this trial, and reflected that like Goodwin, he would ride over the unfinished Daedaelus Bridge in the hope of changing the future.

---

Yusei: Rex Goodwin!?

Ernesto (to Rex Goodwin): What took you so long to show up, Goodwin?

Rex Goodwin: Got here just in time didn't I?

Me: I've heard all about you. You were the head of the Sector Security in Neo Domino City and the former developer of the R.R.D.

Rex Goodwin: That's right and now I have come here to kill all of you!

Me: I think not. But aren't you also the last member of the Dark

Signers we have yet to face after your brother Roman?

Rex Goodwin: I sure am. I'm the Dark Signer of the Condor Earthbound Immortal Wiraqocha Rasca.

Me: That name is based off of Viracocha the God of the Sun in Incan Myth and the creator of the Incan Civilization.

Rex Goodwin: That's right.

Me: And the Andean Condor is one of the most sacred birds in the Incan Religion as well as the National bird of Peru and it's also Ecuador's most venerated and national animal.

Rex Goodwin: Very good. You do know all about the history of the Mayan's, Incan's and Aztecs.

Me: You don't have to be a Spanish Conquistador to know what happened to them centuries ago.

Rex Goodwin: True.

Me: But where's your Dark Signer Mark? I don't see it on your arm.

Rex Goodwin: It's right here.

He turned and we saw that he had the Condor Nazca Line glowing on his back!

Me: It's on your back and that's the Condor Nazca Line.

Rex Goodwin: That's right.

?: Let me face them too.

We saw a figure come out and it was CRYSTAL SNAIL! The first Robot boss of Mega Man X2.

Crystal Snail: Call me… Crystal Snail. (uses shell to try and ram Guts Man)

Nicole grabbed him and threw him into the wall!

Nicole: Looks like we got robots from Mega Man X2 now.

Me: Yep. Yusei, You and the Signers and Ronnie Anne, her family and Syd will come with me to fight Goodwin. The rest of you will help face Ernesto, Crystal Snail and the Masters of Evil.

Nico: Got it.

Hunter: Lets do it!

I deployed the Duel Runner Arena and we went up to it and we were riding along the Condor Nazca Line! Everyone else was facing the rest.

I turned into Wolf Moon and flared up my Dark Blue Aura.

Me: I will never forgive you for your crimes Rex! But before we fight I have to know. How did you die?

Rex Goodwin: I dueled my brother and lost and he killed me and I came back as a Dark Signer.

Me: One of the biggest betrayals is having a family member kill you in cold blood.

Yusei: It sure is.

Me: And just so you know, we're going to kill you and end you for good.

Rex Goodwin: Come and try it. I summon EARTHBOUND IMMORTAL WIRAQOCHA RASCA!

The explosion was so powerful, so massive and so devastating that it shook the very foundation of the entire universe to the core! The explosion sent Rex flying all the way back to the Masters of Evil headquarters all brutally mangled up.

Jack Atlas: That was unbelievable!

Akiza: It sure was. That was intense!

Fidelis tibi maneo,

Bella priorum cara patria,

Nunc et semper florens gloria,

Pulchras terrae patriae!

Fortes terrae pro homines,Romae noster aeterne,

Vis cavire domum navium,

Frusta ipsa impetur,

Sunt sine spe!

Domus dulces portula,

Fraudi ob sat,

Tubae militaris vox,

Me: Whoa! That was awesome!

Jessie K.: Wow! That was the Roman Empire Army.

Nico: It sure was.

Liberty: This will leave him in pieces. ALIEN STYLE NINJA ART: FLIGHT OF THE DAGGERWRIST!

Liberty fired a wave of energy and it turned into the Daggerwrist from the planet Darwin IV.

---

Daggerwrists are aggressive, human-sized, arboreal liquivorous carnivores. They utilize patagia - thin membranes of skin - to allow them to glide between trees, which is stretched between their front and back legs. Spines along their back aid in this gliding by providing them with extra agility, but they also serve the function of a rearward defense. They also use powerful muscles in their legs to allow them to make great leaps to maximize the distance they can cross on each glide. Like many other species on Darwin IV, they utilize bioluminescent lights.

Their species are quite clever in the catching of their prey. Their forelimbs are shaped like pitons or scythes, and are used not only for climbing, hanging and swinging on branches while up high, they are also used to make kills. Their main prey are the Trunk-Suckers, which are attracted to the large holes in the Darwinian trees that they create due to the strength and sharpness of the Daggerwrist's forelimbs. The Trunk-Suckers come for the bleeding sap, which is exactly what the Daggerwrists want them to take. Once their prey has consumed enough sap, they descend upon it. Unlike most of Darwin IV's predatory creatures, Daggerwrists have what appear to be a lower jaw, although it is in fact a portion of the skull which detaches from the rest of the face to stab its victim and inject the necessary digestive enzymes. Daggerwrists prefer Trunk-Suckers in order to consume the sap that their prey had fed on only moments earlier, making them in effect omnivorous.

If there was any Darwinian organism other than the floating Eosapiens to exhibit a well-developed social behavior, it is the Daggerwrists. Found exclusively confined to the dwindling pocket-forests dotting the planetary surface, they will travel in small bands, communicating to one another through bursts of sonar pings while following the movements of their small, quick aerial prey. However, despite this social structure, they are not above cannibalistic behavior.

---

The Daggerwrist slashed Ernesto all over and knocked him to the ground.

Me: Whoa! That was a deadly creature.

Shanan: That was the Daggerwrist from Darwin IV.

Laney: Are they predatory?

Shanan: Yes but they are what's called Liquivores. They eat the predigested sap from plaque-bark trees in other creatures.

Lily: Wicked.

Lucy Loud: Very wicked.

Ben: Lets see how he likes this predator.

Ben turned into a new predator. It was called GRINDATTER! It was a strange creature with 1 eye and it had a big grin of razor sharp teeth and webbed hands and it had spikes all along its back and it had a grabber tail.

Ben: GRINDATTER!

Me: Whoa! That's a new predator.

Shanan: Wow! That's a Diablokuranne from the planet Aul-Turrhen. They are the natural predators of the Planchaküle, Juryrigg's species.

Laney: Whoa! He sure is scary.

Riley: No kidding. But he is really cool.

Julie Yamamoto: Yeah. Really something.

Grindatter: Watch this.

He fired a wave of acid and it hit Ernesto's bones and turned some of them into rubber in a short amount of time.

Me: Nice! Lets show this bastard some teamwork!

Springer: Roger that! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into his back and enhanced his Wind Laser Gun 100-fold.

Hoot-Loop: Lets ruffle some feathers! SKYLANDS CYBER KEY POWER!

The Skylands Cyber Planet Key went into his right arm device and enhanced his powers 100-fold.

Springer and Hoot Loop: CYCLONIC HOOP WINDBLAST!

Hoot Loop formed a teleporting loop and Springer fired a blast of wind through it and it fired from another hoop behind Ernesto and blew him back.

Acid Man: This experiment is gonna be a success! EARTH CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into his right arm and enhanced his acid 100-fold.

Astrotrain: Lets do it! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into his back and enhanced his Ionic Displacer rifle 100-fold.

Acid Man and Astrotrain: ACIDIC IRON BURST!

Acid Man fired globs of acid and Astrotrain fired blasts of ion energy and they hit Ernesto and exploded.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Rhino: Lets do it!

Splash Woman: Ready when you are.

Rhino charged and Splash Woman fired her Laser Trident.

Rhino and Splash Woman: CHARGING LASER BURST!

Splash Woman's laser trident blasts hit Ernesto and electrocuted him and Rhino smashed into him and shattered him into a million pieces. All that was left was his head.

Zarya: Lets destroy his bones.

Carlitos: Right!

Zarya fired energy arrow and Carlitos fired blasts of fire.

Zarya and Carlitos: WOLF FIRE FIRESTORM!

The blasts combined and incinerated some of the bones.

Aerrow: This is gonna hurt him.

Rosa: I agree.

Aerrow fired a wave of energy and Rosa fired a blast of fire.

Aerrow and Rosa: CALIENTE FIRESTORM STRIKE!

The blasts combined and they hit some of the bones and exploded.

Vert: This guy is gonna be roadkill.

Lana: Yeah!

Vert fired a wave of energy and Lana fired a blast of Ice Lightning.

Vert and Lana: ROADKILL ICE BUZZSAW!

Vert fired a wave of energy and it formed into a disk and the ice Lightning merged with it and formed it into a sawblade of ice and it slashed apart some of the bones into pieces.

I went over and picked up his skull.

Me: You will be forgotten for your crimes Ernesto.

I threw the skull into the air.

Ronnie Anne: Lets do it!

Miguel: Yeah!

Ronnie Anne: FIREWORKS MEGABLAST DRAGON!

Ronnie Anne fired a huge blast of fireworks and it turned into a dragon of fireworks and it slammed into Ernesto and exploded.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Miguel: This is for my father! MEXICO FIRESTORM MEGABLAST!

Miguel fired a blast of Green, White and Red fire and it formed into the eagle of the flag and it slammed into Ernesto's skull and exploded. Completely vaporizing it into nothing. Ernesto's evil spirit then appeared.

Me: You are never welcome in the afterlife ever.

I opened a portal and it lead into the River of Fire and it sucked in Ernesto and he screamed.

Ernesto: YOU MONSTERS! CURSE YOU TEAM LOUD PHOENIX STORM!

He was gone forever.

Me: Good riddance.

Waffle Woman and King Hiss came.

Tara: It's a good thing that Ernesto didn't find out about you two double crossing him.

King Hiss: Of course it is.

Waffle Woman: Well, we hope you guys enjoy the rest of your stay here. (she and King Hiss teleport out)

Me: Thanks.

Miguel: Thank you all so much for helping me.

Me: Denada Miguel. We were just doing our job.

Ronnie Anne: (To the viewers) It was cool going into the world of Coco and we got to meet my great-grandfather and it was so awesome.

Me: It sure was.

Later we went to Miguel's home town and we saw the statue of Ernesto and I fired an energy blast at the statue and destroyed it. Miguel revealed the truth shortly after and Ernesto is now the most hated man in all of his town and he never will be remembered again. To ensure that, I erased his memory from all of the town except for Miguel.

Grown Up Rugrats in Paris

It was a big day over at the Estate. We were getting Jack Atlas ready for a big date with Carly Carmine. It was the first time ever that we had a hero from Team Loud Phoenix Storm date a villain from the Masters of Evil. But there have been other incidents where Heroes and Villains have dated and married. Bruce Wayne and Catwoman did so.

We were getting Jack Atlas ready. We had him dressed in a nice red Hawaiian shirt and brown khakis and he had nice dress shoes on.

Me: Looking good Jack.

Jack Atlas: (Australian Accent) Thanks J.D. It's gonna be a really good date. I'm just really nervous.

Me: Don't be. I was nervous when I had my first date. It's gonna be fine. Besides, Carly is one of your biggest supporters. She supported you throughout your entire journey as a Signer.

Jack Atlas: That's true. She did.

Lincoln: And it's gonna be fun for you. I already had a bunch of dates with Ronnie Anne, Paige, Ariel's sisters, Lilly and all my fiancés.

Jack Atlas: True.

---

At the Masters of Evil Headquarters in an unknown location, Vypra, Waffle Woman and Misty Tredwell were getting Carly Carmine ready for her date.

Vypra: This is the first ever date with one of our frenemies.

Carly Carmine: It sure is. I have known Jack for a long time and I helped him on his journey as a Signer more than anyone.

Waffle Woman: I've heard about that.

Vypra: Jack is a lucky guy. I'm happy that he has a huge supporter.

Carly Carmine: Me too.

Carly had her Dark Signer clones on and her eyes were back to their normal brown. The cool part is she can now see without her glasses.

---

We later walked into the city and we were accompanying Jack and he was ready.

We then saw our Signer Marks glow.

Me: She's here.

Lincoln: That is so cool that your marks glow like that.

Me: It sure is.

Carly Carmine appeared in an Orange Hummingbird mark.

Carly Carmine: Hey guys.

Me: Hey Carly.

Dark Spicer: Hope you guys don't mind me, Electro, and Firefly accompanying Carly on her date.

Me: Not at all Dark Spicer. I know it's not your turn yet but we're just tagging along.

Amorpho: As long as you three don't cause a scene.

Firefly: Okay.

We walked into the city.

Goofy: Where are we going for your date, Jack?

Jack Atlas: It's a really great restaurant.

We arrived at an awesome restaurant called the Platinum Coq Au Vin. It was a really awesome 5 Star restaurant and it was really luxurious. The waiting list is really long and you have to get seats 3 months in advance. But when you're on Team Loud Phoenix Storm you can get in right away.

Bart: Whoa! The Platinum Coq Au Vin!?

Lincoln: That's the most luxurious restaurant in all of Gotham Royal York!

Lisa Simpson: I heard that getting seats for this restaurant is impossible.

Me: It is impossible. It's that luxurious. It's rated 5 Stars and it's widely revered by many famous celebrities. But the food is magnificent.

Nico: It sure is.

Bart: It reminds me of the restaurant called the Pimento Grove. Really good restaurant in Springfield before it was destroyed.

Me: But it's a really great restaurant.

Homer: It sure is.

We went in and we were greeted by the man.

Man: (French Accent) Ah Team Loud Phoenix Storm welcome to ze Platinum Coq Au Vin.

Me: Bonjour my good man. We have reservations and a special table for the dating couple.

Jack Atlas: That's me and Carly here.

Man: Ah well you are gonna be treated like royalty. Right this way.

We went to our tables and we saw the inside of the restaurant. There were lots of pictures of famous celebrities from over the years and on top of the wall above the viewing window of the kitchen was a picture of all of us on Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Jack Atlas: Wow. I didn't know you guys were well known here.

Lincoln: It's a great restaurant. We come here all the time whenever we get the chance.

Me: Yep.

We got to our tables and we had our menus and they had all kinds of awesome food. But the prices were nuts. For a Coq Au Vin entree it was $75.00, Ratatouille was priced at $35.00, the prices for each entree ranged from $25.00 to $2,500.00.

Nico: Boy everything looks awesome. But these prices are nuts.

Laney: They are but the food is incredible.

Bart: It's true.

Nico: It's my first time here.

Me: Trust me man, you will love it.

We ordered our food and we got it minutes later and it was really delicious.

Me: (Eating Coq Au Vin) Mmm. Delicious.

My meal cost $100.00.

Nico was having Lobster Trap Truffle Mac & Cheese. It had a whole lobster on top of macaroni and cheese and it had black truffles. His meal cost $175.00.

Nico: Boy this is really delicious. I didn't know that black truffles would be so tasty.

May: But they are really expensive.

May was having a Goat Cheese Shiitake Souffle with croissant mousse with minced scallions.

May: (Eating) Mmm. So delicious.

Riley: You said it May.

Riley was having Minced Crabmeat Risotto with Manilla Clam Brûlée.

May: (Eating) Mmm. Really delicious.

Jared and Lisa Simpson were having really good salads. They had all kinds of exotic fruits and vegetables. Electro was having a really good steak. It was a 65 ounce steak of Kobe Beef.

Electro: Really good steak.

Dark Spicer was having a really good pasta with black truffles and lobster cream sauce.

Dark Spicer: So delicious. J.D. you weren't kidding when you said that this place was this posh.

Me: It's a really good restaurant.

Jack Atlas and Carly were having a $1,000.00 Luxury Pizza. It's that expensive because it has Lobster tail on it. It was a really good pizza.

Carly Carmine: This is so delicious.

Jack Atlas: It sure is.

Cybertron Sideways: You guys enjoying the date so far?

Carly Carmine: We sure are.

Jack Atlas: Awesome.

Me: We're glad.

Later we were ordering dessert and Jack Atlas and Carly ordered the most beautiful sundae on the menu. It was the most beautiful and most extravagant sundae in the world: The Golden Opulence Sundae. Golden Opulence Sundae is made using three scoops of rich Tahitian vanilla bean ice cream infused with Madagascar vanilla and covered in 23k edible gold leaf. The chocolate syrup used is from melted Amedei Porcelana, one of the world's most expensive chocolates; and covered with chunks of rare Chuao chocolate, which is from cocoa beans harvested by the Caribbean Sea on Venezuela's coast. The sundae is then adorned with "exotic candied fruits from Paris, gold covered almonds/dragets, chocolate truffles and marzipan cherries." Added to the dessert is a tiny glass bowl of Grand Passion Caviar, an exclusive dessert caviar, made of salt-free American Golden caviar, known for its sparkling golden color. It's sweetened and infused with fresh passion fruit, orange and Armagnac. Edible gold leaf is made from pure gold that is compressed or rolled into very thin sheets that are only a few micrometers thick and contain no other metals or impurities. It is finally topped off with a gilded sugar flower and sprinkled with small flakes of more edible gold. The sundae comes in a $350 Baccarat Harcourt crystal goblet which the buyer gets to keep.

It was a really beautiful sundae with a hefty price tag at $1,000.00. making it one of the most expensive sundaes ever known.

Me: (Whistles) That is a beautiful sundae.

Marinette: Wow! Really breathtaking.

Adrien: I've heard about this kind of sundae. It's not only beautiful but it's also very expensive.

Nico: It's amazing and exquisite.

Laney: It looks so delicious.

They got to eating it and it was really tasty. We later got the bill and it was a whopping $75,000.00! But we all pitched in and paid it. We left the restaurant.

Eliza: That was so delicious.

Me: Boy it sure was.

Carly Carmine: That was a great meal.

Jack Atlas: It was delicious.

Me: I know what would top off this whole date. A trip to the great City of Lights.

Laney: Paris, France.

Jack Atlas: That's perfect.

Carly Carmine: That's a great idea.

Eliza: I know just the people that can come with us.

Dark Spicer: You guys better have Carly back to us before midnight tonight.

G1 Wheelie: Don't worry. We won't keep her overnight.

Dark Spicer: Good.

Electro: Have fun Carly.

Carly Carmine: I will.

Eliza: Follow me guys.

We teleported to the south side of Los Angeles, California.

Me: Wow. Los Angeles, California.

Sam Simpson: We're back in our old home.

Clover: Yep.

Eliza: I know this neighborhood. This is the neighborhood of Tommy and his friends.

Me: Cool.

?: Hey guys!

We turned and we saw Tommy Pickles, his brother Dill, his best friend Chuckie Finster, Chuckie's stepsister Kimi, the twins Phil & Lil

Deville, Tommy's cousin Angelica and her best friend Susie Carmichael.

Eliza: Hey Tommy!

Tommy Pickles: Eliza! Good to see you again!

They hugged.

Eliza: Same to you. Last time I saw you all was back when you all were babies.

Tommy Pickles: Feels like forever ago. Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm! It's such an honor to meet you guys.

Dill: Yeah we heard so many awesome things about you all.

Me: We don't like to brag but Eliza told us so much about you all.

Chuckie: It's true.

Phil: It's awesome how you all kick bad guys butts.

Lily: It's what we do to keep the world safe.

Nico: That's right.

Dil: Aren't you one of those Dark Signers?

Carly Carmine: (chuckles sheepishly) Guilty as charged.

Chuckie: You know we have to call the cops on you now, right?

Lil: You better give us one good reason for us not to have you thrown in jail right now!

Me: A jail would not hold Carly. She's with us temporarily.

Nico: It's her day off and she's using it to spend time with Jack Atlas here.

Tommy Pickles: Okay.

Maria: How would you guys like to go with us to EuroReptarland?

Phil: But that's all the way in Paris.

Kimi: And I'm really not up to eating plane food right now.

Me: Don't worry. I can teleport us there. It'll be good for you guys to not have to deal with the stress of plane travel.

Chuckie: Awesome.

Kimi: I can't wait to see EuroReptarland again. It's been so long since I was there.

Tommy Pickles: Its been a long time for all of us actually.

Carly Carmine: What's that like?

Me: You will love it Carly. It's a huge Japanese Theme Park right in the middle of Paris.

Marinette: We never saw that place before when we were in Paris.

Adrien: No we didn't.

Chuckie: It's where we met my stepmom and Kimi. It was awesome.

Me: Wow.

Jack Atlas: That's amazing.

Carly Carmine: It sure is.

Me: All right lets go.

Everyone gathered around me and I snapped my fingers and we teleported to Paris.

PARIS, FRANCE

We arrived in Paris, France.

Me: Paris, France.

Carly Carmine: It's a beautiful city.

Jack Atlas: It sure is.

Me: They don't call it the Romance Capital of the World for nothing.

Jessie K.: And it has a lot of history that dates back to the 2nd Century B.C.

Marinette: It sure does. But the biggest event here in France's history was the Hundred Years War.

Me: That was a terrible war back in the 14th and 15th Centuries. Lasted 116 years.

Carly Carmine: Whoa.

We went to the awesome EuroReptarland and it was a beautiful and amazing theme park. The hotel was a beautiful tidal wave.

Angelica: EuroReptarland. Just like I remember it.

Susie: Which ride should we try out first?

Me: Lets have fun at all of them.

We cheered.

We went on all the rides. We went to Ooey Gooey World, Robot Land, The Martian Adventure and so many more rides. We also saw the parade and we had a lot of fun and so much more. We had fun at the arcades and won all kinds of prizes and we also had a lot of fun. But little did we know that there was one person that was watching and she was not having fun at all and that was disgraced, humiliated and homeless former manager of EuroReptarland, Coco LaBouche.

---

Coco LaBouche is the main antagonist of Nickelodeon's 5th animated feature film Rugrats in Paris: The Movie. She is the child-hating, vituperative and opprobrious head of EuroReptarland who wishes to be head of the company, but must learn to love children first, to which she lies by saying that she was engaged. She tries to get Chaz Finster to love and marry her just so she can get promoted, which in turn leads her to become the arch-nemesis of Chad's son, Chuckie.

She was voiced by Susan Sarandon, who also played Queen Narissa in Disney's Enchanted.

Coco LaBouche runs the amusement park EuroReptarland, a Japanese theme park located in Paris, France. Coco is first seen ordering her assistant Kira Watanabe to fly the designer of their massive robotic Reptar out to Paris, so it can be repaired immediately after it breaks down during a play rehearsal.

Not long after the arrival of Stu, the designer, with his family and friends, Coco has a video call with Mr. Yamaguchi, her boss, who plans to step down as President of Yamaguchi Industries. Believing that she has been chosen as his successor, Coco immediately accepts. However, Yamaguchi tells her that she is one of the many people being considered for the job and that his successor has to love children, as children are the main audience for the Reptar franchise. Coco lies to him by claiming to be engaged to a man with a child of his own, but rather than name Coco as his successor immediately, Mr. Yamaguchi tells her that they will talk about the promotion after the wedding occurs. Coco and her other assistant, Jean-Claude, try to quickly figure out how and where they are going to find a single man with a child.

However, they discover Angelica hiding in her office instead. Angelica, wanting to avoid Coco's fury, tells her about Chaz and his son, Chuckie, since Chaz is looking to finally date someone seriously. Coco uses the opportunity to pretend to fall in love with Chaz, while continuously impressing Chaz as much as possible.

In order to pull it off, she forces Kira, who likes Chaz, to help her (although she is unaware of Coco's real motives). Coco learns from Angelica that, although Chaz is a little smitten with her, Chuckie doesn't like her at all, and wishes for his new mommy to be the princess character who befriends Reptar. Coco resolves this by performing the role of the princess when Chaz and Chuckie attend the show. Although Chuckie is dismayed that Coco is the princess, Chaz decides on the spot he wishes to marry Coco, much to everyone's shock.

Days later on the morning of the wedding, Coco forcefully yanks Chuckie's Teddy bear Wawa out of his hands. She then orders Jean-Claude to lock the babies, even betrays Angelica, in the warehouse with the robotic Reptar, despite their being part of the wedding, as she doesn't want them there to ruin it. She then orders Kira to throw out Wawa, revealing her true colors to the horrified Kira, who dawns on the truth. On their way to the cathedral, Kira confronts Coco about deceiving Chaz and about to tell him about it. Coco fires her on the spot and kicks her out of the limo, going to Notre Dame alone.

During the wedding, Chuckie has enough time to arrive because Chaz spends a long time reciting what he believes to be their favorite poem. The wedding itself proves to be quite unpleasant and dreadful, as Coco loses patience and forces the ceremony forward, and rushing the Archbishop until she completely loses her temper and tosses the Bible at him. However, Chuckie barges in through the door, halting the ceremony (in the process, yelling "NO!" as his first word).

Coco pretends to be happy to see Chuckie and tried to hug him, but he refuses and embraced on Chaz instead. A moment later, Jean-Claude bursts in and accidentally reveals that she had locked the babies up to prevent them from coming. Coco tries to tell Chaz to ignore him. However, Chaz angrily calls the wedding off while finally seeing the evil liar that Coco truly is. Then, Angelica and the rest arrive and attempt to tell the grown-ups about Coco's plan, who promptly hushes Angelica.

However, Mr. Yamaguchi suddenly appears, revealing he had decided to come to Coco's wedding himself and asks Angelica to tell them what Coco was trying to do. Angelica then reveals Coco's wicked scheme was to marry Chaz and then convince Yamaguchi to make her his successor. Yamaguchi, enraged by Coco's deceit and treachery, immediately dismisses her before leaving the church. Coco attempts to storm out of Notre Dame, but she realizes that the babies are standing on her dress.

Furious, Coco knocked them downward in front of everybody, to their shock. An outraged Angelica declares that only she is allowed to pick on the babies. Before Coco is about to leave Notre Dame in a huff, Angelica stomps on Coco's wedding dress, causing it to rip, revealing her lingerie in front of everyone, including some tourists with cameras, much to her anger and humiliation. Coco runs away sobbing, never to bother the Rugrats or anyone else ever again. It is unknown what happens to Coco at the end of the movie after she got flashed by cameras during her defeat. For some reason, she and Jean-Claude didn't get arrested and go to jail for their crimes, as they should have.

Either she worked at Ooey Gooey World in EuroReptarland or worked at the Perfume P.U (Parfum de P.U) where she would test deodorizers on people with smelly feet and armpits.

---

After Coco was fired from her job 9 years ago, she was forever blackballed from all other jobs and never allowed to get a job again because of her temper. She lost everything: all of her money, her home, her power and her mind. She went completely insane after losing everything and she knew only a bunch of people were responsible for her downfall: The Rugrats kids. She swore to get revenge on them no matter what and she was gonna kill them.

Coco: (French Accent) I will never forgive those rotten kids for ruining me! I will find them and kill them!

But then she saw the Rugrats kids.

Coco: It's them! Now I will get my revenge!

But then she saw us with them.

Coco: Team Loud Phoenix Storm!? Not them! If I face them they will kill me! Oh hell with it!

She got up and went at us.

Me: This is the most fun I've ever had.

Nico: You said it!

Coco: (Offscreen) And it will be your last!

We saw Coco LaBouche and she was really messed up with tattered clothes and all that.

Lincoln: Whoa! Who are you?

Chuckie: Coco LaBouche!?

Kimi: I remember you! You tried to force your way into our dad's life to become president of Yamaguchi Industries!

Me: Wait a second. I remember reading about you. You are the disgraced manager of EuroReptarland.

Angelica: She is. But she lost everything after we were here all those years ago.

Coco: And I will never forgive you for everything you did to me!

Me: By all accounts you deserved it! I can't believe that you weren't thrown in jail for all of your crimes.

Nico: Yeah!

Professor Calamitous, Shiv and Misty Tredwell came out.

Me: Professor Calamitous, Shiv and Misty.

Professor Calamitous: Indeed.

Misty Tredwell: Hello, Carly. Are you enjoying your day off?

Carly Carmine: Having a wonderful time. We had a very extravagant dinner.

Misty Tredwell: I see.

Coco: Carly, be a dear and help us kill these fools, will you?

Professor Calamitous: Now, Coco. Dark Spicer gave Carly a day off. You'd be wise not to interrupt it.

?: I agree.

We saw 5 figures come out and it was CRASH AND THE CREEPS from episode 36 of Turbo!

---

Crash and the Creeps are Power Ranger-like musical monsters who initially took a human form and brainwashed people with their hit song "Confusion".

In their first fight as monsters, they ran. They had tool like weapons. Crash while in human form, got into trouble with Divatox on the Space Base.

This is also when they receive a team blaster powered by a jewel on a chain. It was called the Ranger Scrambler. They also got Power Weapons, similar to the Rangers, but that was off scene.

They then setup for a concert with help of the Piranhatrons. The band was in human form, confusing the rangers.

Crash then sheds his human form, revealing his true monster form. The Band starts playing their song, It disabled both the Rangers and even the Piranhatrons. The rangers then find that if they destroy the Instruments, the Song's spell effects faded. The Creeps then transform off screen and teleport to the beach.

The Creeps used their new Ranger-like weapons to damage, and gather the enemies together so they could use the Ranger Scrambler.

The first shot did massive damage, but while they were reloading, the Rangers called on Turbo R.A.M. in Blaster Mode.

It over powered the Ranger Scrambler, and in the blast the Creeps were destroyed. Crash grew, but was defeated by Turbo Megazord's Spin-out.

---

Crash: It's been a while rangers.

The Megasquad Rangers turned into the Goggle V rangers from 1983.

Mr. Burns then came.

Qin: Mr. Burns.

Mr. Burns: Yes and now I'm going to enjoy killing all of you.

Qin: Not if I have anything to say about it.

Me: Lets get them guys!

I snapped my fingers and we were on the planet Glaren!

Me: Didn't want to damage the city of Paris while we fight.

Nico: Good thinking.

Me: Lets get them!

We went at them!

---

The eagle is the chief over all the winged creatures. Eagle conveys the powers and messages of the spirit; it is man's connection to the divine because it flies higher than any other bird. The eagle brings the message of renewed life because it is associated with the east winds - the direction of spring, dawn and rebirth.

If an individual has been going through a hard time, eagle not only signals a new beginning, but provides that person with the stamina and resilience to endure the difficulties. If eagle has appeared, it bestows freedom and courage to look ahead. The eagle is symbolic of the importance of honesty and truthful principles. Summon the eagle when you are about to embark on a challenge, a massive life change or a creative endeavor.

Eagle people are seen as visionaries, those who are seekers and who are willing to push the limits of self-discovery and personal freedom. The eagle person is a born leader and may become impatient with those who cannot fly as high or as fast. Despite the fact that eagle with hold aloof or retreat to the skies, people will naturally gravitate to them.

Ben turned into a new predator and it was called Eelshock! He was what's called a BLACK BOLT COBRA!

---

The Black Bolt Cobra (Torpedo electricus) is a giant river eel hunting the rivers and lakes of Eldeen. They use a combination of poison and electricity to kill their prey. His long teeth can puncture nearly every shell and injects a poison that can electrocute the veins of the unlucky victim. Their eyes are adapted to the greenish water of the river and they can attack land preys who are drinking by the river with a huge accurary. Since the harsh life circumstances, only the strongest and most adapted Black Bolt Cobra's survive. This means that if you are attacked by such creature, your chances of survival are quite low.

---

Ben: EELSHOCK!

Me: Whoa! That's a wicked one!

Shanan: (Gasp) That's another one of the deadliest predators! It's called a Black Bolt Cobra. They come from the Planet Eldeen and they are considered to be one of the most poisonous animals in the universe.

Me: That's a new one.

Shanan: That's a Simiastora from the planet Akatoria. They are the natural predators of the Akatorians, Kickin Hawk's species.

Lana: Wow! That is so cool!

Riley: That is really cool.

Qin: Neat.

Knock Yeknom: Yeah. Watch this.

He slashed Coco all over the place with his claws.

Me: Time for some teamwork!

Carly Carmine: Don't worry. I do.

With that, Shiv and Calamitous teleport out.

Misty Tredwell: But have a good rest of your day Carly.

Carly Carmine: See you Misty.

Misty teleported back.

Me: Well lets head back.

We went back home and we talked it over with the kids parents and they agreed to move to Gotham Royal York. Coco LaBouche was found guilty of extortion, conspiracy, 1st degree kidnapping, child abuse and and abuse of power. She was sentenced to 2,384 years in the Neptune Prison without parole and was ordered to pay the families of the Rugrats kids $297,836,866,876,832,926.00 in restitution.

We then were back home and Carly was saying goodbye to Jack.

Carly Carmine: I had a wonderful time with you Jack.

Jack Atlas: I'm glad you did Carly. It was really fun for both of us.

Carly Carmine: It sure is.

Jack and Carly kissed and it was beautiful. Carly then teleported back to the Masters of Evil headquarters.

Me: It was a really fun date for you Jack.

Jack Atlas: Thank you so much for helping me out J.D.

Me: You're welcome Jack. Glad you had fun.

Marinette: (To the viewers) We had a really interesting day and it was cool going to EuroReptarland and bringing down the woman that caused so much trouble to Chuckie's family and more. But never usurp power for your own selfish gains or there will be big trouble.

Me: You said it.

Darwin IV Exploration

In the dead of knight in Bikini Bottom, everyone was fast asleep. But little did they know that a figure snuck into the city. He was making suction cup noises and this was a telltale sign that Squidward was back. He was dressed in a black sweater and he had a black ski mask on and he went to a wall and pulled out a can of red spray paint.

He wrote on the wall "Spongebob was here ya morons"

He did his trademark laugh and ran off. But little did he know that someone was watching him from the shadows.

Later that morning SpongeBob was walking to the Krusty Krab when suddenly he was confronted by an angry mob!

Fish 1: THERE HE IS!

Squidward: Officers, I'd like you to arrest one Spongebob Squarepants for vandalism using graffiti.

SpongeBob: WHAT!?

Officer Nancy: (sighs) I guess we have no choice. Spongebob, I'm afraid we're gonna have to arrest you for vandalism.

They put the cuffs on him but the Neptune Crusaders weren't fooled. After they took him away the Neptune Crusaders looked at Squidward!

Maria: (growls at Squidward) You may have everyone else fooled, Squidward. But I know you're behind this somehow. So, mark my words. You're not getting away with this!

Squidward: O contrar. I have won and that moron will be the one sitting in a cell and I will get off scott-free.

Vypra: I don't think so! SpongeBob is innocent!

Me: Do you have any proof Vypra?

Vypra: I sure do.

She handed me a photo and it showed a figure with a big nose that looked like Squidward and it showed him vandalizing the building.

Me: That's Squidward all right.

Nico: You're kidding me! You're saying that Squidward sprayed the graffiti? And then he framed Spongebob for it?!

Ebon: That's right.

Squidward: Who are you going to believe? Those criminals? Or an honest citizen like me?

Lana reached into his pocket and pulled out a can of red spray paint.

Lana: Red spray-paint! And it also says "Property of Squidward Tentacles" on it.

Me: We got you now.

We handcuffed him and went to the police station and told them everything about what Squidward did.

Me: And there you have it officers.

Officer Nancy: My goodness we made a big mistake. Sorry SpongeBob.

SpongeBob: It's all right. I knew I didn't right that and only one person says morons and that's Squidward.

Me: Yep.

Rikki: Sorry we're late getting you out, Spongebob. But we had to find evidence to clear your name.

SpongeBob: That's all right but I owe you guys one. Thank you all.

Me: Anytime SpongeBob.

Lily: No one incriminates our friends on our watch.

Nico: Yep.

We went back to the where we handcuffed Squidward. But all we found were the handcuffs on the ground.

Vypra: Dammit! Squidward must've escaped while we were getting Spongebob out of jail. And I was planning on giving him the Curse of the Cobra too!

Me: Ah let him go Vypra. He's good comic relief.

Vypra: Hm true.

Lily: Lets go get some Krabby Patties.

Ebon: Good idea.

Vypra: I heard they are really good.

Me: When Lily makes them they are just as good as Spongebob's.

Vypra: I see.

Lily got to making some Krabby Patties and they were given to us on a platter and we got to eating and they were delicious.

Vypra: (Eating) Mmm. Really good.

Me: They are delicious.

Nico: Yep.

We were having a great lunch.

* * *

Later the U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix was flying through space.

Me: Captain's Log, Stardate 2822.4: The U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix is currently en route to a new planet located 6 1/2 light-years away from Earth. It's a planet that I remember seeing on a Documentary but I'm having a hard time remember. We're going on an exploration mission and we're going to see the planet.

Nico: What do you think this planet will be like?

Naruto: We'll find out when we get there.

Lincoln: It's gonna be really cool.

Laney: It sure will be. We've been to so many planets all over the universe and it's amazing.

Lana: It sure is.

Lisa Loud: J.D. we have arrived at our destination.

Me: Oh screen.

We arrived at a really cool planet and it was in a binary star system and it had a small blue sea and a beautiful landscape. It was called Darwin IV.

---

Darwin IV is a small desertic rocky planet, the fourth planet in the Darwin Binary System formed by 6 planets, is 6.5 light years away from Earth's Solar System. With a very dense atmosphere and little gravity, it is home to a large number of complex organisms characterized by lack of eyes and rely mainly on echolocation and infrared vision, with different and aberrant forms and sizes. In both the book Expedition and the documentary Alien Planet, Darwin IV is the first planet with complex life explored by humanity and where most of the events in both media happen.

Compared to Earth, the planet has far less surface water being only 5% covering the surface, which is mostly locked by the Amoebic matrix, and the rest of the water is found in the atmosphere, as well as in the polar caps and subterranean aquifers that protrude across the planet as small puddles.

The planet has lower gravity in addition to its atmosphere, allowing for organisms to get much larger than what is possible on Earth.

Probably due to its small size (it is only a few hundred kilometers smaller in diameter than Mars), it has lost most of its major oceans over the eons. The terrain around the tropics and poles in both hemispheres is predominantly a plain with some geographic features probably caused by the now extinct oceans or by the now scarce rivers and lakes, while at the equator exist a series of mountain ranges which form a mountainous belt around the planet.

Environments

Due to the lack of large water bodies, its environment is predominantly arid, dominated by vast deserts, grasslands and with huge mountain ranges and long tundra around the poles. However, it still has small patches of forests, aquifers, as strange environments as the amobeic sea, and even by the density of the atmosphere the sky makes this its own environment.

The events of the planet exploration occur during the middle of the XXIV century, in a future where humanity destroyed the ecology of the earth and that the race Yma has taken care in the repair of the planet. Thanks to observations of the benevolent aliens by the use of "Faster than light" satellites, the binary Darwin system as well the planets around wwere discovered and after sending a probe to that system, a expedition began to be prepared around the year 2355 and being fully equipped a year later. This Expedition being a bi-species participation, is formed by a team of scientists, technicians and surveyors human individuals including the author and wildlife illustrator of the book, Barlowe, alongside with some Yma individuals. The 3 earth years long exploration was done through 3 vessels called "Orbitstars" in a travel of two years, arriving on the planet on January 6 of 2358. It is implied in the book that this mission is not only for exploration, but as an opportunity for humanity to re-educate itself after the mistakes made by it in the destruction of the native biosphere of the earth, as well, is being clarified by the Yma that this would be a mission of observation, without interaction or physical contact with the native life. Throughout these three years of exploration, Barlowe along with several other members explored and observed most of the fauna and flora of the planet gathering data and recording what they could find, with an eventuality that ended with the death of two Yma members in the mountainous areas, however, this had no major impact on the mission. After their supplues depleted, the mission ended and the exploration team left Darwin IV on March 24, 2361.

Alien planet

In this timeline the exploration of Darwin IV occurs in the "near future" where instead of humans, a series of probes with advanced artificial intelligence is sent in a trip of several decades as the ship they travel at 20% of the speed of light across 6 light years. After the journey of decades, the Von Braun probe is deployed, and after collecting atmospheric data by the use of a small observation satellite, it sends the Probes nicknamed Balboa, Ike and Leo, of which the first has a flaw in its capsule and explodes upon entering the atmosphere, however, the other two manage to land in a plain region.

Orbital Position: 4

Moons: 2

Class: Terrestrial

Gravity: 0.6 g

Atmosphere: Oxygen-rich (too much for human breathing)

Climate: Semi-arid

Diameter: 6,563 km

Primary Terrain: Deserts and mountains, with a few areas of vegetation

Surface water: Small water bodies, the largest body of water is covered by a major superorganism

Rotation period: 26.7 Earth hours

Orbital Period: 728 Earth days

Me: Whoa!

William: What's this planet called?

Me: I know this planet. It's called Darwin IV.

Laney: Like in that documentary Alien Planet.

Lisa Loud: And in that really amazing book by Wayne Barlowe called Expedition.

Liberty: I've read that book. It's really amazing and it's how I got the ideas for those techniques I used.

Me: Cool. This is gonna be awesome exploring all of Darwin IV.

Nico: It sure is.

We landed and we were on the planet Darwin IV. The Temperature was 70˚ Fahrenheit and it was a beautiful and strange.

We went out onto the surface and it was amazing. We breathed in the air and it was really rich in oxygen.

Me: (Inhales) Whoa! It's really rich in oxygen here.

Lisa looked up the oxygen levels and atmospheric composition of Darwin IV.

Lisa Loud: It shows that the oxygen levels on the planet are at 73.293%. The Atmospheric composition is composed of Oxygen-Rich water vapor, nitrogen, argon and a fraction of carbon dioxide.

Me: The oxygen levels are so high because of the evaporation of all of the oceans on this planet.

Lana: It's amazing. And the view of the 2 suns is amazing.

Will Vandom: This planet is amazing!

Me: It sure is.

Teresa: Think we'll find any Pokemon here?

Me: We're 6 and a half light-years away from Earth and there couldn't possibly be any Pokemon here.

Teresa: Hm.

Me: Lets look around.

We started exploring the planet Darwin IV. We then came across huge planets that looked like giant gourds on stilts and they were huge! They were 15 stories tall and they were called Gourd Trees.

---

Gourd Trees are plants native to Darwin IV. They are 150 ft. tall plants supported by stilt roots. Gourd trees are either hollow or spongy inside. They have to be for the stilt roots to support them. In Alien Planet they're encountered by the probes Leo and Ike comprised their landing site. In the book Expedition they are called Steeple Gourds.

---

Me: Wow! These plants are huge!

Nicole: Incredible!

Shanan: These are Darwin IV Gourd Trees.

Laney: They are huge! They're as tall as Sequoia Trees of Earth.

Lana: They sure are tall.

Lily: No kidding. They're massive.

Akiza: It's amazing that these trees look so huge.

Yusei: No kidding.

Me: Lets keep going.

Horsea: Are there any bodies of water I can swim in?

Me: We'll find out. But because most of the water evaporated millions of years ago it's gonna be hard to find.

Maria: Okay.

We walked on and came across a puddle of water.

Me: There's a puddle of water here.

Horsea: Yay!

Lisa Loud: This puddle is guaranteed to house a wide variety of single-celled and multi-celled organisms.

Lisa pulled out a special magnifying glass that increases magnification up to 1,000 times. She looked into the puddle and found all kinds of amazing microscopic organisms.

Lincoln: What do you see Lisa?

Lisa Loud: A massive plethora of amazing microorganisms.

Lincoln: Wow.

Me: That's not the only thing here. Look!

We saw a huge creature and it was an ARROWTONGUE!

---

Arrowtongues are one of Darwin IV's most ubiquitous apex predators. They are solitary hunters, roaming the plains in search of their next meal, usually a Thornback, Gyrosprinter, Littoralope, which they kill after an almost always fatal, short and furious pursuit. Most often, they can be spotted concealing themselves amongst beds of Electrophytes, where they take advantage of this colonial fauna's electrical discharges to discourage herds from getting too close to them. To aid in their camouflage, they have adapted an organic sonar system which emits ranging pings in concert with these discharges to obscure its point of origin from its intended prey; however, this sonar also has a use in attack, allowing them to terrify their intended targets to likely cloud their judgment and give the Arrowtongue the advantage.

They stand and walk about on a single pair of large, muscular, two-toed legs. They also have two muscular limbs coming out of their sides and facing backwards. These limbs can be pulled forward to make the Arrowtongue look bigger, whether to scare away a possible threat, or as a courtship display. It has a thin phallus in comparison with it's polar cousin, the Bolt-tongue.

For personal defense outside of hiding amongst Electrophyte colonies, they have developed a symbiotic relationship with some unspecified microscopic organism, allowing them to utilize bioluminescence. These bioluminescent patches are aligned on their backs, and are used when attempting to frighten away intruders.

The Arrowtongue gets its name from a retractable appendage on its mouth that it uses to attack and subdue prey, which pierces the victim's skin and injects digestive juices into the body. As with other liquivorous species, the victim's insides liquefy, at which point the Arrowtongue uses its 8m (26ft) long appendage to suck out this for sustenance.

---

Laney: Whoa!

It sent out a wave of Sonar at us and it was a huge creature.

Shanan: Whoa! That's an Arrowtongue!

Liberty: Wow! Amazing.

Lola: Why is it called an Arrowtongue?

Shanan: Because of its tongue that's in the shape of an arrowhead.

Laney: Really amazing.

Lana: Cool.

Lily: That's amazing.

It emitted a wave of sonar.

Lily: What's that noise?

Me: It's sounded like a wave of sonar.

Shanan: It is a wave of sonar. They hunt via echoes of sonar.

Lucy Loud: Like how bats do it.

Nico: Very similar.

Lucy Heartfilia: Really something.

It looked at us with a growl and saw that we pose no threat.

Shanan: It's a dangerous predator too.

Me: Yep watch over there. (Points to something)

We saw a two-legged vegetarian called the Gyrosprinter.

* * *

Gyrosprinters are the fastest ground-dwelling organisms on Darwin IV, and can easily outrun many of their predators, such as the Arrowtongues and Prongheads. Evolved from quadrupedal fauna, their legs have become fused at the forelimbs over the course of millions of years, leaving them with literally "one foot in front of the other". To counteract this, they have developed a set of hyper-developed halteres in order to keep in balance, which allows them to continue careening across their home biomes despite what would otherwise be considered an unfortunate deformity.

Gyrosprinters are also extremely flexible and maneuverable, and can turn on a dime to elude most predators with ease. The have a relatively small, bony, almost skull-like cephalon (or "head") at the end of their strong neck, which serves two functions: it not only houses the primary sensory organs of the beast, but also provides a sheath-like tip for its 2 meter long tongue, which, like the Arrowtongue, is used for eating. To aid in a lifestyle of such energetic activity, they have two hearts and nostrils which have been relocated to their shoulders in order to provide a more steady stream of oxygen. Bioluminescent patches dot their back.

Shanan: Wow! That's a Gyrosprinter.

Lori: It's only got two legs.

Lincoln: Cool.

The Arrowtongue chased the creature all over. But the Gyrosprinter was really fast and it outran the Arrowtongue.

Me: Whoa! That is fast. Lets continue on.

We continued exploring and we came across a pocket forest.

Me: Wow.

Laney: There are still forests here. It's amazing that there are still forests even though there hardly is any water.

Lana: Yeah.

Lola: It's really cool.

We then saw something new. We saw a bunch of bird-like creatures flying to the trees. They got onto them and they started sucking tree sap out of the trees. They were creatures called Trunk-Suckers.

---

The Trunksucker is a small ray-like creature that glides through Darwin IV's forests and clings to Plaque-bark Trees, sucking their nutrient-rich sap. "Similar to Earth's woodpeckers they fly, they land on the trunk of a tree, prop themselves up with their tails and take fluid from the tree".

---

Lincoln: Are these birds?

Shanan: No these are called Trunk-Suckers. They act like birds and they feed on the sap from these trees.

Olga: Really amazing.

Edwayl: (Breton Accent) Amazing creatures lads.

Hunter: (German Accent) Ja. Und it's amazing that they can do that.

Lana: Look at that up there in the tree.

We saw a new creature in the trees and it was a predator called the DAGGERWRIST!

---

Daggerwrists are aggressive, human-sized, arboreal liquivorous carnivores. They utilize patagia - thin membranes of skin - to allow them to glide between trees, which is stretched between their front and back legs. Spines along their back aid in this gliding by providing them with extra agility, but they also serve the function of a rearward defense. They also use powerful muscles in their legs to allow them to make great leaps to maximize the distance they can cross on each glide. Like many other species on Darwin IV, they utilize bioluminescent lights.

Their species are quite clever in the catching of their prey. Their forelimbs are shaped like pitons or scythes, and are used not only for climbing, hanging and swinging on branches while up high, they are also used to make kills. Their main prey are the Trunk-Suckers, which are attracted to the large holes in the Darwinian trees that they create due to the strength and sharpness of the Daggerwrist's forelimbs. The Trunk-Suckers come for the bleeding sap, which is exactly what the Daggerwrists want them to take. Once their prey has consumed enough sap, they descend upon it. Unlike most of Darwin IV's predatory creatures, Daggerwrists have what appear to be a lower jaw, although it is in fact a portion of the skull which detaches from the rest of the face to stab its victim and inject the necessary digestive enzymes. Daggerwrists prefer Trunk-Suckers in order to consume the sap that their prey had fed on only moments earlier, making them in effect omnivorous.

If there was any Darwinian organism other than the floating Eosapiens to exhibit a well-developed social behavior, it is the Daggerwrists. Found exclusively confined to the dwindling pocket-forests dotting the planetary surface, they will travel in small bands, communicating to one another through bursts of sonar pings while following the movements of their small, quick aerial prey. However, despite this social structure, they are not above cannibalistic behavior.

---

Me: Whoa what is that!?

Shanan: Whoa that is the Daggerwrist. It's a carnivore of the pocket forest.

Lana: It sure looks terrifying.

Lola: Yeah.

Me: It's amazing. Lets keep going.

We went into a meadow and we saw a herd of Littoralopes.

---

Littoralopes are a species of 11 foot long, numerous aliens that live throughout Darwin IV. In Expedition, Barlowe encounters a small herd taking shelter in the decaying skull of a Sea Strider, and noticed that their entire bodies glowed green in the darkness. He then witnesses the entire herd feed on the Amoebic Sea before leaving them.

Littoralopes played little significance in Alien Planet. They took a role of running away, or prey for Skewers. Their only real defense is to scatter in all directions, forcing predators to target one individual.

Biology

One of the littoralope's main traits are the deceptive tail that's shaped like its head, this is used to further confuse predators as it keeps the attacker(s) guessing which direction the littoralope will escape to.

Laney: Wow. What are these creatures?

Shanan: These are Littoralopes. They act just like horses and deer. They are really cool creatures.

Lincoln: They sure are amazing.

But then we felt something and we saw a bunch of saplings move and out of the ground arose a huge creature! It had the saplings on its back and out came the GROVEBACK!

---

Grovebacks are one of the largest indigenous species native to Darwin IV. They spend the greater portion of their lives dormant, buried under the loamy soil and often only appearing as strangely regular hummocks surmounted by small strands of shallow-rooted Darwinian trees. They rise only sparingly to wander ponderously from one breeding ground to the next. Once mobile, they balance upon two thick legs and a single rudder-like limb used to balance them that is dragged along behind them, leaving a deep groove in their wake.

Biology

Grovebacks possess a 13 meter wide semi-circular head and two enormous nostrils, with several more nostril-like openings covering the tops of their heads. While it is very likely that they have amazingly thick skin due to their enormous girth, they are still susceptible to attacks by fields of Beach Quills, which can bring them crashing down to their deaths. While surfaced, they, like many of the huge "animals" on the planet, depend upon the protein-rich and abundant food stock that is the tiny aerophytes - microflyers that sometimes darken the skies with their uncountable numbers. These aerophytes infrequently will perform periodic expansions of their swarms, which the Groveback's rare emergences coincide with, as it is only during these times that they can easily support such beasts. When the microflyers dissipate, the Grovebacks will rebury themselves for another period of dormancy. Recent studies have suggested that they may in fact switch dietary habits during this time, transforming into lithovores who feed upon the nutrients in the soil through the skin of their underbody, and potentially through the many nostril-like orifices adorning their dorsal sides. Young Grovebacks have three legs, which, like other Darwinian creatures, will be replaced by the rear skid.

Fully matured members of this species are large enough to support entire stands of Darwinian trees, which grow along their backs during their long periods of burial. These saplings form a commensal symbiotic relationship with the Grovebacks, injecting them with sugars while the Grovebacks trade them water in return. This symbiosis is so perfect that advanced scouting drones have been unable to detect the Groveback beneath the ground. The groveback might be a distant cousin to the Keeled Slider since both species of creature walks on two front limbs and balances using a single rutter-like limb.

* * *

Me: Whoa!

Lincoln: Those creatures are huge!

Shanan: Those are the Grovebacks. They are huge creatures that are 5 stories tall.

Kira Ford: Unbelievable.

Girl Jordan: Amazing!

Nico: Really cool. That is amazing that they have trees on their backs.

Ben: Like Wildvine but cooler.

Me: Yeah. Lets keep exploring.

We later went into a meadow and saw water rivers coming from underground aquifers and it was amazing. Then we heard a ping of sonar and we saw two huge flying predators! It was the SKEWERS!

* * *

Skewers are monstrous flying animals, possessing a wingspan of approximately 15 meters (49 feet) and when combined with their sleek body structure and wide range of habitat, prove them to have no rivals more potent than they. They are the largest aerial predators on all of Darwin IV, and are both prey and predator to the planet's near-sapient species, the Eosapiens. Even Arrowtongues are not beyond vulnerability to their swooping attacks. Their species generally travel in mated pairs, but can be found less frequently in small, flying pods, using the planet's strong air currents to help migrate them from pole to pole.

Skewers are reminiscently jet-like in shape, and like presumably all other predators on their world, hunt by sonar. They hunt in small packs, and use a huge, curved hollow nasal-lance protruding from their heads, which they use to impale and disembowel their prey. Once prey has been impaled, they go into a steep climb to offset the shift in their center of gravity caused by the impaled prey. They then proceed to inject their sometimes still-living prey with digestive enzymes as any other liquivore would do, and soon begin sucking the corpse's fluids out of its now-lifeless body. Each Skewer will alternate between feeding, and dropping their prey, letting other members of their pod to feed as well. This performance appears to be almost playful, and does not stop until the prey is finally completely drained of all its fluids. Skewers have been known to kill for sport, and even for fun. The shriveled husks of such victims can be found virtually everywhere upon Darwin IV's surface.

Their species maneuver through the air by propelling themselves through the use of internally created methane gas, which is then combusted within the four jet-pods located on its wings, in a way again reminiscent of modern-day jet propelled aircraft of Earth. This is coupled with the movements of their wings. They do not flap but squeeze (similar to accordions), shifting their shape in order to shift flight patterns. With these two adaptations, they are capable of traveling at speeds of up to 322 kilometers per hour (200 miles per hour), making them likely the fastest species on Darwin IV as well as the largest aerial predator.

---

They flew at 200 miles per hour and we saw them kill a Littoralope in pairs. It was terrifying.

Me: Whoa! That was terrifying!

Lucy Loud: Wicked.

Shanan: Those predators were the flying Skewers. They are the deadliest predators of Darwin IV and they are amazing.

Lana: Wicked cool.

Carmen: Amazing.

Liam: (Southern Accent) Woo howdy. They sure are well feared here.

Nico: No kidding.

Emerald: I think we have dangerous predators back in Drake City.

Me: I remember that.

It dropped the carcass and we saw scavengers called Jetdarters.

---

The Jetdarter is one of Darwin IV's most bizarre aerial lifeforms. They are small, iridescent scavengers, feeding on the unfinished remains of any creature killed by another predator (such as by a Skewer), and have evolved a compact body that assumes a dart-like shape.

Surprisingly for an aerial species, they have no wings whatsoever to aid them in flight. Instead, they possess a biological version of a ramjet engine - complete with a turbine of bone and gristle - which is capable of launching them up to speeds of 64 kilometers per hour (40 miles per hour). When at rest, they use three legs in a tripod arrangement, which otherwise fold up during flight. They have an internal phallus in between their two rear 'legs'.

Jetdarters live in polyhedral nests in the pocket-forests and fear many predators, such as Electrophyte flora and Finned Snappers.

They travel in schools, constantly changing their colors in relation to the direction of light.

---

Lincoln: Look at those little creatures.

Shanan: Those are called Jetdarters. They are scavengers and they are fast ones as well.

Me: Wow.

Liberty: Really cool.

Me: Lets continue on.

We went on and we arrived in another forest and we saw huge mushrooms and they were surging with electricity. They were called Electrophytes.

---

Electrophytes are a species of fungoid, sessile organisms indigenous to Darwin IV which share a more than passing resemblance to many species of mushrooms on the planet Earth. However, the similarities stop here. Electrophytes are predatory heterotrophs, and use what is assumed to be electroplaques throughout its body to send surges of electrical discharges outwards; it is with this that it stuns its prey, the Jetdarters (and maybe other creatures too). Once one has been incapacitated, the Electrophyte will proceed to begin consumption, while the poor prey item is still alive. Electrophytes might be considered the bane of a Jetdarter's existence, although they certainly are not its only predator.

---

Me: Whoa!

Lincoln: Mushrooms that emit deadly lightning!? That is lethal.

Laney: No kidding. I've never seen mushrooms that produce electricity before.

Shanan: These mushrooms are called Electrophytes and they use powerful electrical discharges to stun Jetdarters.

Lincoln: Wicked cool.

Shanan: They are predatory heterotrophs and they are dangerous.

We heard a stomp and we saw a stomp and we saw a Groveback. We saw it and we saw it get bombarded with a massive assault of BEACH QUILLS!

---

Beach Quills are spike-like, ambush predators with a short ranged attack, indigenous to the planet Darwin IV. They are also some of the smallest creatures to be found on the planet. They live in huge colonies within the littoral zone which can be up to a million strong, where they lie in wait for an organism to step near.

Once one inevitably does, they will launch themselves into the hide of their prey by the hundreds, propelling themselves with enormous velocity over short distances by means of a folded, muscular 'foot' which snaps the animal through the concealing undergrowth their colonies camouflage themselves in. At this point, they will inject their prey with neurotoxins, stunning the victim so that the Quills may burrow into its flesh, only to later emerge and rebury itself. Their colonies are so potent that despite being so small in comparison to other species on the world, they can bring down even the greatest beings, such as the Groveback, often causing them to suffer a slow and painful death.

---

The Beach Quills went into the Groveback from all over and it roared in pain and died in an instant.

Me: Geez!

Lincoln: That is rough.

Shanan: Those were Beach Quills. They are spike-like ambush predators. They poison it with a lethal dose of neurotoxins.

Laney: Deadly.

We continued on exploring and we arrived in a small area of ancient lava fields. They were formed from lava fields that have hardened millions of years ago.

Me: Wow. Ancient Lava Fields. They sure look old.

Nicole: No kidding.

Lori: Literally amazing.

We then heard another ping of sonar and we saw another new creature. It was a pack of PRONGHEADS!

Prongheads are a Darwinian species of agile, well-muscled pack hunters filling a similar niche as the Wolf from Earth. They are named for the three hollow prongs which protrude from their face, acting as tubes to siphon liquids from their prey. Digestive fluids are pumped into their victims through a pair of tubes on the sides of their foot spurs. A larger central tube is used to ingest this, now liqueous, food. They exhibit highly developed social behavior, working as a team, stalking their prey from all directions in an attempt to surround it.

Me: Whoa! These are weird creatures.

Shanan: Those are Prongheads. They are pack hunters. Just like wolves on Earth.

Laney: Amazing.

We saw the Prongheads go after another Gyrosprinter and they know how to do interception and they couldn't catch the Gyrosprinter.

Me: Wow.

We continued to explore some more and we saw a huge area with giant spires of salt! They were massive spires of salt that were over a mile high and it was incredible.

Me: Whoa! Look at all this.

Nico: Wow! What are these massive spires?

Me: These aren't rock formations. These are the accumulated remains of billions of tons of salts and minerals from the oceans when they evaporated millions of years ago.

Lisa Loud: Very amazing discovery.

Laney: Really amazing. It's amazing that an ocean can have this much salt.

Aqua: It sure is. It's hard to imagine.

Kairi: Yeah.

We got out of the spires and we saw a huge sea! But there was something strange about it. It looked a massive sea of jello. This was a most unusual sea. It was called the AMOEBIC SEA!

---

The Amoebic Sea is a vast, gelatinous superorganism blanketing about 5% of the surface of planet Darwin IV. With an overall profundity of ten meters, the Amoebic Sea is the largest single colony organism known.

Located mainly on the northern hemisphere, the "sea" is composed of billions of single-celled organisms. Although the sea matrix is eaten by many kinds of faunal organisms (living both on the sea and the coast), the Amoebic Sea is also a predator itself, being able to extend long tentacles out of its surface and capture small flying organisms to eat. It is also assumed that when a creature dies in the sea, it soon becomes food to the superorganism.

The planet of Darwin IV once had grand oceans, but its water slowly evaporated over the eons, leading to the evolution of the Amoebic Sea, which is able to retain water within itself. All the water absorbed by the "sea" is sealed within the gelatinous matrix in order to prevent evaporation. Nowadays, Darwin IV has no large body of water, and most of the planet's water is found in the atmosphere, in the polar caps, underground aquifers (please take note that's how forests can only exist in small pockets), or in the bodies of living creatures.

The "sea" is also home to a variety of organisms, the most famous of which is the gargantuan biped known as the Emperor Sea Strider. This 180 meter tall creature has two mouths, one on each foot. As the Sea Strider walks slowly on the surface of the Amoebic Sea; at the same time it feeds upon the gel. It is thanks to the shock absorbing, weight distributing, jelly-like substance, that the beast is able to grow to such a huge size. Among the other, much smaller inhabitants of the "sea" are flying creatures like the Diskflyers, the Stripewings, and the Sea Strider's nymphs. There is also a large number of poorly known, symbiotic organisms living beneath the surface, within the gel.

---

Me: What the? This is not water.

Laney: It's not water at all.

Laney touched it and it felt like a giant lake of jelly.

Laney: It feels like gelatin.

Bart: It's really squishy.

Shanan: It's called the Amoebic Sea. This is the leftover water that was once covering the planet and it turned into this huge sea that covers 5% of the planet.

Nico: Whoa! That is amazing.

Naruto: It sure is.

Nicole: It's amazing that the water can turn into this.

Me: Lets cross the sea.

We did so and we felt like we were walking on a huge plate of jello.

Me: It sure feels weird.

Varie: It's like we're walking on a huge plate of jello.

Lana: No kidding. But it's really cool.

Lola: It's squishy.

Lily: It's really something.

But then we saw a huge creature that was over 180 meters tall! It was a massive creature! It was THE EMPEROR SEA STRIDER!

---

Emperor Sea Striders are the best known and the largest organisms living on Darwin IV. They spend their lives within the confines of the Amoebic Sea, as it is the only source of energy on the planet to support such massive creatures. The species goes through an amazing metamorphosis at some point in its life: when they are born, they are known as nymphs and somewhat resemble more compacted versions of the adults, but differ in that they are capable of powered flight, however, this ability is lost as they mature and develop a bipedal gait, and begin feeding off of the amoebic sea. Their name comes from their ability to walk across the surface of the organic sea's yielding surface, which, despite their large stature, is accomplished quite easily through the utilization of a framework which places their center of mass around their mouths/feet and lower leg portions, with the lightest part being the top of the body. This allows them to maintain a mass light enough to not rupture the membrane of the amoebic sea, and yet retain enough mass to not topple over in the storms that are commonplace in the regions to which they are indigenous.

An enigmatic function of their physiology is their highly unusual feeding system. They possess two mouths, with each being located on their feet, effectively allowing them to eat anything they step on. With these, they shave off great chunks of the sea-matrix for consumption. Identifying traits of the species are the mouthless crested head, flanked on each side by huge orange-glowing bioluminescent cavities, smaller blue-glowing bioluminescent lights accenting their crest and multiple tentacles on their front (likely for communication), and two "tails" - one which is an actual tail and the smaller is a phallus.

The orange cavities in the sides of their head also attract the young Strider nymphs, which orbit around the adult Striders, likely for protection. Interestingly Strider nymphs are in fact prey to the Amoebic Sea itself, which extend in tentacle-like columns to catch them in mid-air.

---

Me: WHOA! Look at the size of that creature!

Shanan: It's the Emperor Sea Strider. It's the largest creature in all of Darwin IV. It eats parts of the Amoebic Sea through mouths on its feet.

Nico: Amazing! How big are those creatures?

Shanan: 180 meters or 590.551 feet.

Me: Whoa!

Lily: That's incredible!

Lana: It's huge!

Varie: No kidding.

Aylene C.: Amazing! And I thought the dinosaurs were the largest creatures on Earth. These creatures are the largest here on Darwin IV.

We then went across the Amoebic Sea and we went into the mountains of the planet and we got to a river and we saw a herd of new creatures. It was a bunch of creatures called Unths.

---

Unths are tundra creatures with long, asymmetrical tusks, the right being longer than the left. They are named for the sound they make when they take a step. These animals are social creatures, travelling across the vast tundra in large herds. Although they only have one gender, Unths still fight each other for the right to mate. After the duel, both creatures release pheromones that initiate the reproductive process. It is assumed they communicate via echolocation like most creatures on Darwin IV.

Although never confirmed, in Alien Planet it is speculated that these creatures might have two genders.

---

Me: Wow! I remember seeing these.

Shanan: Yep. These are Unths. They are called that because of the snorting sound they make that sounds like their name. It's how they got their name.

Brittney: Amazing.

Haiku: Really something.

We saw them fight like rams and deer do on Earth.

Me: They fight just like deer and rams do on Earth.

Nico: Really cool.

Vince: It sure is.

Carol: That is really neat.

We continued into the mountains and we heard a really shrill sound.

Lori: What is that noise?

Leni: It's coming from over there.

Luna Loud: It's really shrill dudes.

Me: Lets go see.

We went and checked it out and we saw a pair of Bladderhorns.

Bladderhorns are life forms that live high on Darwin IV's mountain ranges. Solitary and aggressive creatures, they wander the mountain passes and high plains, where they feed upon the sub-surface bulbs of alpine flora. They are highly territorial, and if one encounters another, they will perform an elaborate, ritualistic duel, which involves ramming heads and showing off their bioluminescent patches. These duels are sometimes considered somewhat comical.

During mating season, the chilly air is rent with the sounds of their bellowing - an eerie, almost haunting bellowing call which is created by the inflation and subsequent deflation of their antler-bladders' air sacs, for which they are named. Their species is oddly a bright blue color, giving them a rather comical appearance. Their antler-bladders are often inflated to make themselves appear to be larger than they actually are, which can be used to frighten away predators or rival Bladderhorns.

They have very compact bodies, with a large hump on their back. Their antlers are connected to the sides of their head, while their mouths are asymmetric. On the right side is a tentacle-like appendage, presumably lifting food to the long, thin mouth on the left side. Bladderhorns to not have tails, merely a short spike jutting out in the place where their tail would be. A short, thin phallus hangs below their tail-spike.

Me: Whoa they sure look aggressive.

Shanan: They are dad. Those are called Bladderhorns. They are very territorial.

Nico: Wicked.

We went up to one and it gave us a bellowing loud call that was really eerie.

Me: Geez!

Nico: Powerful and loud.

Vince: No kidding.

Sora: Really loud.

We then heard a sonar ping and it scared away the Bladderhorn and we followed the sonar ping and we came across something rather interesting. It looked like a caveman circle and inside it was some sort of disk.

Me: Hmm. It looks like a caveman circle.

Nicole: This is not like any kind of caveman circle that I have seen.

Nico: Very unusual.

Me: But this disk is not like anything I've seen.

I picked it up and put it in my bag.

We continued following the sonar pings and we got to the mountain top and it's there that we saw an unusual sight. We saw two robots, one yellow and one blue and they were robots unlike anything we've ever seen before. But they are not functioning.

Me: Robots are here.

Nico: Where do you think they came from?

Me: Lets find out.

We went over to them and we saw that they were robots from Earth.

Nico: These robots are from Earth. But they are far more advanced than anything we know.

---

This information has the three probes dispatched to Darwin IV for exploration of life. They have many pieces of equipment such as Spider Drones and Scout Disks.

Probe Features and Equipment

Sensor crammed "bird like" head mounted on moving arm.

flexible arms extending from a box attached to wing.

Wings to help adjust navigation of the probes.

Thrusters as primary form of movement.

Communication and radio to Orbiting satellite, Von Braun .

Sample collection containers.

Magnification lenses.

Hydrogen air bag for flight.

Computer brain with the knowledge of a toddler.

Tail for adjustments.

Space transport

The Three probes each had a Space vehicle to protect them on entry, but they are not flawless as seen when Balboa's craft is exploded on entry. The other two landed safely but, very conventional and with no landing gear. The Space transport vehicles look much like today's space shuttles.

Space

The Space transport vehicle in the sensors of Leo.

The Probes

There are three probes in total, two survived the entry, none survived the mission though.

Probe Davinci | Status: destroyed | Color: blue | Function: Animal life | Cause of destruction: Eosapians

Probe Newton | Status: destroyed | Color: yellow | Function: Plant life | Cause of destruction: Eosapians

Probe Balboa | Status: destroyed | Color: red | Function: Unknown | Cause of destruction: Entry Explosion

Note: Balboa could have been back up for the other probes, was nicknamed Leo and Probe Newton was nicknamed Ike.

---

Me: Fascinating.

Lisa Loud: Very fascinating.

Nico: Yeah.

Then we heard a sonar ping and we saw a huge creature arrive. It was a strange floating creature called an EOSAPIEN!

---

Eosapiens are the most advanced life form on Darwin IV with the intelligence of early Humans such as Homo habilis.

They float in mid-air by using two bags filled with methane gas. Eosapiens have fingers that they use to manipulate objects such as spears and create formations on the ground. They live in small tribes and hunt the other creatures on the planet.

They hunt, and are hunted by, Skewers.

Appearances

In Expedition, Barlowe encounters a killing pen with an Arrowtongue head near the Flipsticks, then he sees them in the Amoebic Sea harvesting floating balls of gel during the storm where he encounters the Sea Striders. In the book, they hunt by dropping their huge flechettes from the sky to cage a prey item. Then they twist its limbs off and proceed to devour it. In the documentary, they kill their prey with spears.

Alien Planet

A group of Eosapiens begin to spy on probes Leo and Ike from the very moment their shuttles land on Darwin IV. They follow both probes while at the same time hiding from them whenever they turn their backs.

Along the way, the various fauna of Darwin IV encountered by the probes are spooked by the hiding Eosapiens. The Unths and Bladderhorns Leo observes flee in terror when the Eosapien's call is heard, and even the Emperor Sea Striders turn, stop, and look around before moving away. They kill a Skewer who is mid-hunt and that tries to attack Ike later, before dragging the carcass over the hill and out of sight. The Eosapiens destroyed Leo when he launched a camera disk, which they considered a threat. When he did this again to find his location, the Eosapiens shut him down completely. On Ike's mission to find Leo, the Eosapiens were watching him constantly too.

When Ike found them and showed them the Earth communication hologram they responded correctly and the Eosapiens looked at Earth. Ike launched a camera disk to record the moment, but the Eosapiens destroyed both the disk and Ike. The main difference between Alien Planet and the book is the size of the Eosapiens and the fact that they can apparently see in Alien Planet. In the book they are 20 meters (66 feet) in height and are blind, like all of the life forms on the planet. In Alien Planet they are roughly 9 meters (30 feet) in height and have weak eyes. Also, in Alien Planet the other animals are much more terrified of the Eosapiens.

Intelligence

Their intelligence is quite simple, and they rely on crudely made weapons similar to ancient Humans. Though they speak with short gasps of air and clickings from the appendages on the sides of their heads. This is pretty advanced for such a species.

Possibly in the next 200,000 years they can form civilizations close to that of 21st century Humans. Curiously they lack any form of fire, probably because temperature is relatively constant on Darwin IV, eliminating the need for heat, most species on the planet use sound to perceive the world around them, eliminating the need for light, and finally the atmosphere is very dense with oxygen, thus making the possibility of fire on Darwin IV impossible anyway, and, should the oxygen not be the problem, the lack of resources would be. As Darwin IV contains pocket forests, which, not only are small and rare, but would be quite a distance from wherever a group of Eosapiens may be living at the time.

---

Me: Whoa! What is that?

Shanan: Whoa! That's an Eosapien.

Varie: Wow. It looks human-like.

Nico: Wow. It could very well be human like.

Me: Let me try and communicate with it.

I went up to it.

Me: I am J.D. Knudson, Leader of Team Loud Phoenix Storm. We came here from the planet Earth. We mean you all no harm.

Eosapien: (Telepathically to me) It's an honor to meet you J.D. Knudson. You have quite a love for exploration. You have come far to explore our world.

Me: We came here from 6 and a half light-years away from Earth. We wanted to see if this world is real like we have seen on Earth.

Eosapien: I see. I take it these creatures belong to you that sent these disk things?

Me: We have no idea who sent them but we speculate that they come from the future on Earth.

Eosapien: I can see that. You can take them back.

Me: Thank you.

We took the robots back to the ship and repaired them. Our mission of exploration was done. We got the logs from both the robots and fixed them and we got to see what they have discovered and more and it was amazing! We saw the entirety of Darwin IV down to the last detail and more. We also found the wreckage of a destroyed robot that got destroyed when it was entering the planets atmosphere and Lana and Lisa got to fixing it.

Laney: This was so awesome!

Me: It was one of the coolest journey's we've ever seen and more.

Nico: It sure was.

Laney: (To the viewers) It's cool seeing alien planets and you never know what kind of life could be out there waiting for us to see.

Me: It sure is.

We got the ship that the robots came from, the Von Braun, and the Darwin Reconnaissance Orbiter onto our ship and it we went back to Earth. It was a really educational adventure.

THE END

---

Another awesome chapter done.

Alien Planet from 2005 was a really cool show that gave us a really awesome hypothetical view into the world of an awesome alien landscape and an alien world. Darwin IV was a really cool planet and it was really cool that it had all kinds of amazing creatures. It's all based on a book made by Wayne Barlowe called Expedition. NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks man. Next up is another awesome mystery with Mystery Inc and we're also going to meet the band Kiss and solve a really big mystery with them.

See you all tomorrow.

ROCK ON KISS MYSTERY!

In the Jupiter Prison, we were there for another rant session with the most hated babysitter ever known in the history of mankind: ICKY VICKY! We haven't had a rant session with her in a while.

Zarya: So this is the Jupiter Prison.

Me: Yep. We come here for a rant fest with the most hated Babysitter in all of the world. Her name is Icky Vicky.

Emerald: Who is Icky Vicky?

Nico: Oh that's right you guys don't know who she is. Icky Vicky is the most evil babysitter ever known.

Nico went over her history and how evil she is.

---

Vicky is the central antagonist of The Fairly OddParents. She is one of Timmy Turner's most personal enemies and his remorseless, arrogant and cruel babysitter. She was the main antagonist of the first six seasons and the special "Channel Chasers".

She was voiced by Grey DeLisle in the cartoon series, who also voiced Azula in Avatar: The Last Airbender, Asajj Ventress in Star Wars: Clone Wars, Mandy in both Grim & Evil and The Grim Adventures of Billy & Mandy, Vexus in Crossy Road: The Series, Wubbzy in Wow Wow Wubbzy, the High Priestess in Samurai Jack, Major Doctor Ghastly in Evil Con Crane, and Pixie Dusters in Onward. While in A Fairly Odd Movie: Grow Up, Timmy Turner!, she was portrayed by Devon Weigel.

Background

As revealed in Abra-Catastrophe!, Vicky first started babysitting Timmy Turner when he was eight and she was fourteen. Timmy had found a flier advertising Vicky's babysitting service, and panicked and called this number when his parents tricked him into thinking he was being left alone. When Vicky arrived, she convinced Timmy's parents that they could use a babysitter so that they would have time for each other to go out and do adult things. From that point on, Vicky tormented Timmy whenever she babysat him, and his parents would continue to spend time away, leaving him under Vicky's cruel care. Timmy became so miserable that he needed fairy godparents. With them, he was able to use magic to get even with Vicky. Even with his fairies, Timmy is still challenged by Vicky over the course of the show. She has also worked other non-babysitting jobs, usually if they involve hurting others or holding sharp objects. In most of her early appearances, the simple act of saying her name would cause thunder and lightning to flash in the sky.

Early life

Vicky appears to have started babysitting at age fourteen or possibly earlier. When she first met Timmy when he was eight, she was just as mean as she is now. It is never explained why Vicky is the way that she is, although several conflicting plots have been put forth. In the episode "Snow Bound", she reveals that she had a rough childhood. In "Tiny Timmy", it is said that her niceness never showed up to work inside her brain. In "Vicky Loses Her Icky", the cause of her evilness is attributed to an evil bug that crawled up her butt (although it is equally likely that the bug was a pure concentration of her evil personality). In the episode "The Switch Glitch", after Timmy wished for Vicky to turn into a five-year-old, she was actually nice but turned bad when she wanted revenge on Timmy for being a mean babysitter. It has also been suggested in fanon that her sister Tootie being born was the cause of her disliking younger kids, and although this has never been explicitly stated, in the episode "The Masked Magician", Vicky lists Tootie first as she went through various enemies she had made in her life, as well as her own parents. Hanging in her house is a picture of an infant-aged Vicky that is shown with the same evil scowl she has in her later life, so it's possible she was born this way.

Future

After Timmy Turner successfully defeated Vicky in the past and changed the bad future into a good one, twenty years passed by and Timmy is revealed to have two children, a son and a daughter. The children bear a resemblance to Vicky's little sister Tootie among other characters, meaning that these children would be Vicky's nephew and niece if Tootie married Timmy. Some fans even believe that Vicky herself could have been the mother, and even if so, it's possible that her children could have inherited genes from their grandmother. The two children are babysat by a robot that looks and acts like Vicky, so it is likely that Timmy has some connection with her in the future, or has at the very least reconciled with her. It is also possible, even implied in some of Adult Timmy's dialogue, that because he forgot about his fairies in his later life, Timmy eventually assumed that it was his parents, and by extension Vicky, who helped shape him into becoming a responsible adult instead of his fairies, and therefore he believes that hiring a babysitter that resembles Vicky will help shape his own children into responsible adults too. Vicky's exact connection with the robot is unknown, but if she makes and designs these robots, she is likely very rich and successful like she always wanted to be.

Alternate reality

In the episode "Vicky Gets Fired", Timmy's parents attend a cinema and leave Timmy alone with Vicky, but this time, Timmy, determined to prove Vicky is evil, shows his parents a video in which she tapes over their extremely important videotape, causing her to be fired. Vicky then attempts to seek a new line of employment, although she only succeeds in torturing others, resulting in her getting fired by all her bosses, both literally and figuratively. Eventually, she goes to the mayor and reveals to Chompy the Goat that the mayor indulges himself in eating goat meat, causing the goat to chase him out of his office. Vicky then names herself the new mayor and takes over Dimmsdale, renames it "Vickyland" and attacks it with her newly established ape army. Timmy, who is enjoying the time of his life with his god-family, soon discovers that getting Vicky out of his life causes her to ruin everyone else's. Wanda proposes that they take fire-breathing battle-rhinos and a lion-cloth warrior to Vicky to depose her; however, they lose badly, and Timmy tries wishing that Vicky wasn't the mayor. Unfortunately, Vicky, not being mayor, becomes president of the U.S.A. instead and attacks the country with another armored ape army. Timmy tries unwishing that Vicky dominated reality again, only for Vicky to become the "Dark Empress of Everything that Breathes", and began attacking Earth with her Star-Destroyer-like warship. To save the Earth, Timmy reluctantly wishes that Vicky was his babysitter again in order to maintain peace.

Leadership

Vicky was formerly a member of B.R.A.T. (Babysitters Raging Against Twerps) until she was rescued by Timmy Turner and felt grateful. Vicky tried to make a new life being Timmy's friend but he rejected her favors and Vicky returned to her organization more abusive than ever, so much so that their companions named her their new leader. On another occasion, she joined and subsequently lead L.O.S.E.R.S. (composed of Crocker, Dark Laser and Foop) and advised them on how to destroy Timmy once and for all, but after Timmy wished that these four enemies wanted to be him, all members (including her) ended up destroying each other. Vicky subsequently left the team after their initial failure and ends up being replaced by Timmy's dad (who thought he was joining a sewing club).

Plots

In the 2003 video game "Breakin' Da Rules", Vicky served as the main villain. After picking up Cosmo and Wanda's copy of Da Rules, Vicky received their wishing power and spent the game accidentally wishing Timmy into strange situations such as turning him into a dog or sending him into the past.

The 2004 movie Channel Chasers also featured Vicky as the main antagonist. After taking the Magic Remote away from Timmy and sabotaging the Turner house to frame Timmy for its destruction, Vicky discovered its power and planned on using it to get to the Biographical Channel and make herself a dictator. The film includes a look into the future where Vicky is victorious and leads an army of masked soldiers. A visit from the future Timmy to his young self assures Vicky's defeat in this plan and she ends up not remembering the events. In the end following her defeat, Timmy's parents fire Vicky for lying to them and being a mean and nasty babysitter to Timmy. This was Vicky's only significant movie role, and she served as the main antagonist for most of the movie.

In the 2009 three-part movie Wishology, Vicky joins forces with Timmy in exchange for twenty dollars. When Timmy "sacrifices" himself to The Darkness, she even shows a moment of remorse for Timmy. However, by the end of the movie, and definitely after Jorgen's memory wipe, she has reverted to her old self.

The Mysticons were horrified!

Zarya: That girl is a monster!

Laney: Worse than that. She hates all kids and she wants nothing more than to see the entire planet burn.

Lola: Yeah if we had her for our babysitter we would kill her.

Lana: Yep.

Piper (Mysticons): I don't blame you. I'm glad you all put her here in prison.

Arpeggio: (to the Mysticons) (British Accent) Which one of you girls wants to rant at Icky Vicky first?

Piper: I'm gonna do pranks on Icky Vicky.

Me: That's cool.

Skunk: (Skunk Fu) How about I make Icky Vicky stink with my stench?

Lana: Nice!

Lana and Skunk high-five.

Nico: She'll be soaking in Tomato Juice for weeks.

We arrived at Icky Vicky's cell.

Me: Here we are girls.

We saw Icky Vicky.

Icky Vicky: Well well if it isn't the loser patrol!

Nico: Oh shut your trap Vicky.

Icky Vicky: Make me!

Man Boy: Hey guys.

Me: Hey Man Boy.

Arkayna: Who is he?

Me: This is one of our frenemies. His name is Man Boy. He looks like a boy but he has the strength and power of a man.

Man Boy: That's right.

Perceptor: (to Man Boy) I'm surprised Dark Spicer hasn't used Meet Alien Ξ to get you out.

Man Boy: Well, I actually like it in here because of its benefits. I've gotten the admiration of most of the other prisoners due to me helping you all to stop Thanos, I get to eat good food, my manly self doesn't get damaged, and I get to watch you guys rant at Icky Vicky. So, if you see Dark Spicer again, tell him that he can get me out when I feel like getting out.

Me: I'm glad. Will do.

Nico: Shall we all get started?

Emerald: Lets do it!

Nico: Lets get ready to (ECHOING) (FIRE HAIR FLARES UP) RUMBLE!

Arkayna: I'll go first.

Me: Show no mercy Arkayna.

Arkayna walked up to Icky Vicky's cell.

Arkayna: So you are Icky Vicky. Do you want to know what I think of you? [screams] Arrgh! Regga flebba breeka brecka smullen-ellen FUCKY VICKY! Yegga hegga mergin BABYSITTING! Dimmy middy FUCKING LOSER! Rivy flivy diva shiva FUCKY VICKY BABYSITTING!

We cheered wildly for her.

Lana: That's telling her Arkayna!

Man Boy: Awesome job!

Nico: Yeah!

Lily: (Laughs) SpongeBob said something similar to that to Mr. Krabs a long time ago.

Me: Deja Vu.

Zarya: My turn.

Zarya went up to Icky Vicky's cell and she was growling ferociously.

Me: Whoa. When Zarya growls like that it means she is infuriated.

Nico: Yep.

Zarya: YOU ARE THE MEANEST, MOST DISGUSTING, MOST PATHETIC BABYSITTER TO EVER WALK THE FACE OF THE PLANET! YOU FUCKED UP BITCH! WE WILL NEVER WANT TO SEE YOU AGAIN! WE'RE GLAD YOU ARE OUT OF TOWN AND ALL OF YOUR FUCKING FRIENDS ARE DEAD!

Icky Vicky then roared in fury and Zarya punched her in the face all over and kicked her in the stomach.

We cheered wildly.

Me: Whoa! That was awesome!

Nico: Nice job Zarya.

Bombshell: (to the Mysticons) You girls enjoying the rants so far?

Emerald: We sure are.

Me: Great!

Emerald: My turn! I learned this from Bart. Vicky hates cute songs.

Emerald went up to Icky Vicky's cell and she began to sing the song Teddy Bear Picnic from Season 3 episode 10.

If you go down in the woods today

You're sure of a big surprise

If you go down in the woods today

You'd better go in disguise!

For every bear that ever there was

Will gather there for certain

Because today's the day the

Teddy Bears have their picnic

Picnic time for Teddy Bears

The little Teddy Bears are having

A lovely time today

Watch them, catch them unawares

And see them picnic on their holiday

See them gaily gad about

They love to play and shout

They never have any cares

At six o'clock their Mommies and Daddies

Will take them home to bed

Because they're tired little Teddy Bears

Every Teddy Bear who's been good

Is sure of a treat today

There's lots of marvelous things to eat

And wonderful games to play

Beneath the trees where nobody sees

They'll hide and seek as long as they please

'Cause that's the way the

Teddy Bears have their picnic

Picnic time for Teddy Bears

The little Teddy Bears are having

A lovely time today

Watch them, catch them unawares

And see them picnic on their holiday

See them gaily gad about

They love to play and shout

They never have any cares

At six o'clock their Mommies and Daddies

Will take them home to bed

Because they're tired little Teddy Bears

Because they're tired little Teddy Bears

Icky Vicky was screaming and roaring in pain as if the song was a kind of form of torture!

Icky Vicky: MAKE IT STOP! MAKE IT STOP! MAKE IT STOP!

Emerald was also dancing around in a silly fashion and the song and dancing was really painful to Icky Vicky!

When it was done we cheered for her.

Bart: Way to go Emerald!

Nico: Awesome!

Me: Great job!

Piper (Mysticons): My turn.

Piper went up to her cell and she gave Icky Vicky a can of soda.

Piper (Mysticons): Want a drink?

Icky Vicky: Sure.

She took the can of soda and opened it and suddenly…

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMM!

The soda exploded all over her and covered her in strawberry soda foam. And the foam turned everything in her cell red with soda.

We laughed hysterically.

Nico: WHOA! That was awesome!

Bart: Hey J.D. I have one.

He beckoned me and whispered into my ears.

Me: Ooh good one Bart.

Bart went to behind the wall and pulled out his cell phone and dialed a number.

Icky Vicky: (Spits) Yuck! I hate strawberry soda!

Her phone in her cell rang.

Icky Vicky: Hello?

Bart: (On Phone) Uh yeah I'm looking for a Mrs. O Problem. First name Bea.

Icky Vicky: Lets me see. Bea O Problem? Bea O Problem!? Guys do I have a B.O. Problem here!?

Man Boy: Ya sure do!

We laughed hysterically!

Me: (LAUGHS HYSTERICALLY!)

Icky Vicky: (GROWLS FEROCIOUSLY!)

FFFFAAAAAAAAAAARRRRRTTTTTTTTT!

Skunk then sprayed Icky Vicky with his stink and she smelled really horrible!

(FOGHORN)

We laughed hysterically.

---

Later back at the estate, we were watching TV and playing card games.

Me: Sure is quiet.

Nico: Yep.

Sam and Luna came down howling in Rock N' Roll style!

Me: What's got you girls all excited?

Sam S.L.: We just found out that the band Kiss is coming to Kiss

World here in Gotham Royal York dudes!

Luna: It's gonna be rockin dudes!

Lori: Kiss!? (Squeals)

Luan: They are KISSING AWESOME! (Laughs) Get it? But seriously that is awesome!

Nico: Kiss rocks! It'll be an awesome honor to meet the awesome band group.

Lincoln: It's really rockin!

Clyde and everyone came in.

Clyde: Hey guys did you hear the news!?

Liam: (Southern Accent) Kiss is coming to the city!

Rusty: This is gonna be awesome!

Stella (Loud House): Yeah! I love Kiss!

Zach: They are awesome!

Me: Who doesn't love Kiss? They are so awesome!

Lynn Sr.: Did I hear that Kiss is coming!?

Me: You heard right Mr. Lynn. They are coming to Kiss World in Gotham Royal York and it's gonna be crazy!

Rita: I love Kiss!

Kira Ford: They are so awesome!

Casey Rhodes: Love them!

Me: And I heard that Mystery Inc is gonna be there for it. Lets head over there.

We cheered.

We were off to Kiss World!

---

We arrived at Kiss World! We saw that it was an amazing Amusement Park completely dedicated to Kiss!

Me: Awesome!

Varie: This is gonna be awesome.

Laney: Kiss is an amazing band group. They are very well known.

Lucy Loud: And they are known as the craziest band ever.

Me: Yep.

We saw the Mystery Inc. crew there.

Me: Looks like I was right. Hey guys!

They saw us.

Fred: Hey guys! Good to see you all here.

Daphne Blake: It's great to see you all here.

Shaggy: Like yeah. What brings you all here?

Me: To enjoy a concert with Kiss baby.

Delilah: I'm afraid you can't go in. The place is being haunted.

Velma: Haunted by what?

Delilah: They call her the Crimson Witch.

Delilah went over what she is.

---

The Crimson Witch was the disguise of Delilah Domino, which in KISSteria's past was a witch who tried to unlock an immensely powerful creature from their volcano.

Physical appearance

Both witches looked outwardly identical. The only difference was the face underneath the mask. The original had a gray wizened face, Delilah Domino looked like herself under the mask.

Personality

Although they had different motives, both users of the identity were cunning and ruthless.

Powers and abilities

There were apparently two witches, one with genuine powers, and the other was a disguise worn by Delilah Domino.

Flight

Energy blasts

Energy weapons: She used weapons made from energy constructs such as a scythe.

The Scythe she used to cut a hole in the fabric of space and take the gem to the place where the Destroyer was imprisoned.

Red mist: She created the red mist and could use it to hide her location and maybe teleport.

She could bring inanimate objects to life by infusing them with the red mist.

She also seemed to have the ability to stretch her arms.

Delilah Domino

These abilities were created by the use of various gadgets she concealed as part of her costume. The gadgets were apparently stolen from Quest Research Laboratories.

Flight: Due to the cables in the amusement park, it allowed her to fly in the air.

Red mist: This was an eerie smoke screen she used. It was said to have hallucinogenic properties.

History

Early life

The original was the creator of the Destroyer. Apparently she was unable to simply make another when it was imprisoned. Thus she had to find the Rock of KISSteria in order to release it. Her place of origin is unknown. But it apparently was not Earth or KISSteria.

Delilah Domino was fired from Quest Research Laboratories, then got a job with a "defense contractor" who paid her to steal the "Detroit Rock" from KISS.

Scooby-Doo! and KISS: Rock and Roll Mystery

The original was a being dedicated to the destruction of KISSteria. She wanted the Rock of KISSteria so that she could free the Destroyer. When the gang used the rock to lure her into a trap, they caught the real witch who opened stole the rock and escaped to KISSteria. She was about to use the rock to release the Destroyer when Starchild engaged her in an aerial fight, the witch proved to be too strong for him to overcome and successfully free's her creation. She than leaves to watch it destroy Earth, leaving her ultimate fate unknown.

Delilah Domino assumed her likeness as part of trying to steal the gem so that could sell it to a competing defense company, in revenge for being fired from the other. But thanks to the gang and KISS, her plan was foiled and she was taken to prison.

---

We gasped.

Me: Where did this witch come from?

Delilah: No one knows. But she's said to be from another universe.

Maria: The Crimson Witch is from an alternate universe? Didn't that plot get used by a Marvel movie before?

Me: It sure was.

Spiderman: I remember that.

?: Sounds like you guys are helping out too.

We saw the Hex Girls.

Me: Hey The Hex Girls. Its been a while since the Vampire Festival.

Thorn: It sure has J.D.

Luna (Hex Girls): Yeah.

Dusk: What brings you all here?

Me: There's a mystery going on here at Kiss World.

Nico: We came to help solve it.

Thorn: At least it didn't take over a year for us to meet again this time.

Nico: It sure didn't. I'd like you girls to meet our new friends: Arkayna, Dante, Aerrow, Vert, Zick, and Yusei.

Arkayna: Pleasure.

Dante Vale: Same here.

Aerrow: It's a pleasure.

Vert: Same here.

Zick: Yep.

Yusei: An honor.

Dusk: Same here.

Me: Lets head in and stop the Crimson Witch.

We went in and explained everything.

Dusk: You're kidding me! Vypra and Dark Spicer restored several of your enemies into the Masters of Evil?!

Spidey: Yep. But don't worry. They didn't bring back Doc Ock, Scorpion, or Hobgoblin. And Mysterio's still in Arkham.

Me: Yep.

We continued on and we saw a strange red fog come in and we saw THE CRIMSON WITCH! She was using Fog to make an illusion.

Iron Man: Using fog to make illusions? That's something Mysterio did in the past.

Maria: Yep. Called it. This mystery is definitely similar to a Marvel movie.

Me: No kidding. But really ingenious.

Leonard and Ebon came out.

Leonard: Indeed.

Me: Leonard and Ebon. Surprising to see you here.

Thorn: (to Ebon and Leonard) I'm guessing you two are some of the villains Vypra and Dark Spicer restored?

Leonard: We sure are. And we've got Dark Spicer's Alien Ξ to thank for it.

Thorn: Wow.

Lily: Ebon is my Archnemesis.

Lori: And Leonard is my Archnemesis.

Dusk: Whoa! That is heavy dude.

I then saw my Signer Mark glow.

Me: Uh oh. Dark Signer incoming.

We saw Carly arrive.

Carly Carmine: Hey guys.

Jack Atlas: (Australian Accent) Hello Carly.

Me: Hey Carly.

Lola: Hey Carly. I hope you enjoyed that day off the other day.

Carly Carmine: I had an awesome time and it was the best day I've ever had.

Varie: Glad you had fun.

We then saw Comic Book Guy appear.

Comic Book Guy: Hello Dingus's.

Whitney: Comic Book Guy. You are such a big fat loser.

Comic Book Guy: Worst Insult Ever.

Whitney: I have more where that came from.

?: Don't forget about me.

We saw a figure come out and it was Magna Centipede!

Thorn: Whoa! Who are you!?

Magna Centipede: (to the Hex Girls) Allow me to introduce myself. I'm Magna Centipede!

Magna Centipede's tail splits in parts before moving near Bomb Man, about to crush him.

Nico blocked his attack and sent it back at him.

Troy: Time to Rock and Roll!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Operation Overdrive!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Operation Overdrive Rangers.

Heidi: I'll face Carly this time.

Whitney: I'll face Comic Book Guy.

Me: Lets do it! FOR THE AWESOME ROCK AND ROLL OF KISS! YAAAAAAAAAAHHHH!

We powered up and went at them!

---

Battle 1: Ebon

---

Lily was facing Ebon!

Lily: You look like you're doing well Ebon.

Ebon: I sure have. And I have 3 friends for you to play with.

Lily: A Gastly, Haunter and a Gengar.

Ebon: That's right.

Lily: These three Pokemon are perfect for you.

Ebon: Thank you.

Lily: Lets dance!

Lily went at Ebon and punched him in the face and she fired a powerful blast of water and Ebon fired a powerful blast of dark energy and the blasts collided and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Lily fired many blasts of water and they hit Ebon all over the place and drenched him all over and she then punched him and the Ghost Pokemon in their faces and knocked out Ebon. The Ghost Pokemon fired blasts of shadow energy and Lily fired blasts of water and the blasts collided and exploded.

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion knocked them out.

Lily: Super effective.

---

Battle 2: Leonard

---

Lori was facing Leonard.

Lori: Bring it on pig face.

Leonard: I have many more friends than just my pig minions this time.

Out came an Emboar and a Mamoswine.

Lori: An Emboar and Mamoswine. Good choices for you.

Leonard: Why thank you.

Lori: Lets literally dance.

Lori spread her wings and went at Leonard and punched him in the face and she teleported and kicked him in the back and fired a powerful blast of wind that sent him flying into the air and she teleported and dealt him a spinning axe kick and sent him crashing into the ground.

KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Lori fired a wave of wind and blew Emboar and Mamoswine in a huge tornado and blew them around like mad. She also fired a wave of wind and shredded the minion pigs all over into pork cuts. Lana flew all over and gathered more pork for dinner and the poor.

Lori: Nice job little sis.

Lana: Thanks big sis. The homeless aren't going hungry again for a while.

The tornado made the Emboar and the Mamoswine really dizzy.

Whitney spread her wings of flowers and formed a sword of flower petals.

Whitney: Lets dance doughboy.

Whitney went at him and kneed him in the face and slashed him in the chest and kicked him in the stomach and punched him in the back of the head and kicked him in the face!

Comic Book Guy: You are a worthless little bitch.

Whitney: I know you are but what am I?

Whitney leg-swept him and kicked him into the air and she flew up to him and deadly spinning axe kick to him and sent him plowing into the ground!

KRABLLLLAAAAAAAAAAMMMMM!

Whitney: Take that you jerk.

---

Battle 4: Carly Carmine

---

Heidi was facing Carly Carmine on the Duel Runner Arena and they were going along the Hummingbird Nazca Line.

Heidi: It's gonna be cool facing you Carly.

Carly Carmine: Thanks Heidi. I heard that you were the one that killed the evil Dartz.

Heidi: That's right. That was one of my most incredible battles. I had all the souls that Dartz capture with the Seal of Orichalcos merge with me and thanks to our combined power and with that of the Egyptian God Cards, we destroyed the Great Leviathan and killed Dartz.

Carly Carmine: Wow! That's unbelievable! You saved the entire world from total destruction.

Heidi: Not to brag but yes. My father and grandpa were really proud of me. It took all of my energy and power to beat Dartz.

Carly Carmine: Wow.

Heidi: Yep. Lets get the fight on shall we?

Carly Carmine: Lets shall. I summon EARTHBOUND IMMORTAL ASLLA PISCU, and Fortune Ladies Earth, Fire, Dark, Light, Water and Wind!

Heidi: Thanks. My monsters are part of my Arctic Ocean Deck.

Carly Carmine: Good theme. Now lets dance.

Heidi: With pleasure.

Heidi flared up her power and unleashed her full power! She was ready.

Heidi: Lets dance.

They went at each other and viciously punched and kicked each other at an incredible level! Heidi was dodging all of Carly's punches and kicks and they were really going at each other! Carly kicked at Heidi and she dodged her strike and blocked Heidi her kick. Heidi ducked under a punch and a kick from Carly and kicked her in the face and she got up and went back at Heidi.

Heidi: I hope Jack doesn't kill me for hurting you.

Carly punched at Heidi and she dodged her punch.

Carly Carmine: He won't. Besides, Dark Spicer can heal me afterwords.

Heidi: That's a relief.

Heidi kicked her in the stomach and punched her in the face.

Carly went at Heidi and they unleashed a massive barrage of punches and kicks at each other.

Heidi's monsters blasted and destroyed all of Carly's monsters and they all exploded.

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOMMMM! KRABBBOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOMMMM!

Lynn: Lets see how she likes this one! EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: SWARM OF DRIVER ANTS!

Lynn fired a wave of earth and it turned into a deadly swarm of Driver Ants and they bit the Crimson Witch all over and she screamed in pain.

Laney: That must've hurt!

Lana: But those were Driver Ants. Really dangerous ants.

Lynn: They are. But how about this one. EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: FIRST BLOOD FOR THE TERMITES!

Lynn fired a wave of earth and it turned into an army of termites. They ate a wooden pole and it fell on top of the Crimson Witch.

CRASH!

Me: Nice!

Vince: Ouch that must've hurt.

Lincoln: It sure did.

Lynn: How about this one? EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: ANT NESTING BEETLE!

Lynn fired a wave of earth and it turned into an Ant Nesting Beetle. It grabbed the Crimson Witch and sent her into the air and sent her crashing into a wooden pole.

CRASH!

Lincoln: Nice one Lynn! How about this one? EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: ANTS OF THEM!

Lincoln fired a wave of earth and it turned into the giant ants from the 1954 movie Them! and they grabbed the Crimson Witch with their jaws and threw her into a stand and destroyed it.

Nicole: Wow! That was clever! Using the giant ants from the movie Them was awesome.

Lincoln: Thanks Nicole. Watch this. LIGHTNING STYLE NINJA ART: SWARM OF SAWFLIES!

Lincoln fired a massive blast of lightning and it turned into a huge swarm of Sawflies and they bit the Crimson Witch all over the place.

Laney: Whoa those flies were awesome.

Lisa Loud: Indeed. Those were the Sirex Noctillo ; Street name: Sirex Woodwasp.

Nico: Never saw bugs like those before.

Lily: Me neither.

Syd Chang: Same here.

Lincoln: Watch this one. LIGHTNING STYLE NINJA ART: SWARM OF YELLOW JACKETS!

Lincoln fired a wave of lightning and it turned into a lethal swarm of Yellow Jackets and they stung the Crimson Witch all over.

Me: Whoa! Yellow Jackets. Very dangerous bees.

Lily: How about this one. OCEAN STYLE NINJA ART: PHRONIMA!

Lily fired a wave of water and it turned into a massive group of Phronima shrimp and they drenched and bit the Crimson Witch all over.

Heidi: Wow! That was awesome! Those were shrimp called Phronima Sedentaria and they are a type of shrimp that eat plankton.

Syd Chang: I never saw shrimp like those before.

Me: Me neither. Well done Lily.

Lily: Thanks. Watch this one. OCEAN STYLE NINJA ART: ARMY OF SPIDER CRABS!

Lily fired a wave of water and it turned into a huge group of spider crabs and they pinched the Crimson Witch all over and it really hurt.

Me: Whoa that was cool!

Heidi: Those were called the Macrocheira kaempferi , also known as the Japanese Spider Crab. They are the largest of all of the spider crabs.

Nico: Whoa! I remember seeing one of those. The largest of those crabs was over 12 feet and that is a huge crab!

Me: No kidding.

Lily: Watch this one. OCEAN STYLE NINJA ART: PRAWNFISH SWARM!

Lily fired a huge wave of water and it turned into a swarm of Prawn Shrimp and they bit the Crimson Witch all over.

Me: Whoa! Those were Prawn Shrimp.

Lily: Yep. Really tasty fish.

Nico: No kidding.

Liberty: Watch this one. You guys might know this one. ALIEN STYLE NINJA ART: XENOMORPHS!

Liberty fired a wave of energy and it formed into a Rhino Xenomorph and it charged and knocked down the Crimson Witch.

Me: Whoa! That was a Rhinoceros Xenomorph.

Shanan: I'll never forget seeing how dangerous and bloodthirsty the Xenomorphs were.

Qin: I heard about them and remember watching them from the Aliens VS Predator series. Awesome.

Liberty: Thanks. Watch this one. ALIEN STYLE NINJA ART: SWARM OF KILLER CAPED STALKERS!

Liberty fired a wave of energy and it formed into a massive swarm of Caped Stalkers from the Blue Moon.

The Caped Stalker is a social predator native to Blue Moon.

Biology

They live in large colonies, similar to bees, of 300 Stalkers and catch their prey while flying. The scouts mark their prey with a scent that the workers can track. Their favourite prey is the Sky Whale.

Similar to crocodilians, Stalkers have rough skin that, at first glance, would prevent them from moving through the air (in the case of crocodilians it is water). In fact their rough skin grips the air around them and helps them move through the air undetected, just like what the dimples on a golf ball are used for.

They bit the Crimson Witch all over with incredible savagery and really hurt her.

Me: Whoa! Those were really voracious creatures.

Shanan: Those were Caped Stalkers from the Blue Moon.

Lana: I thought that planet was hypothetical.

Shanan: It looks like it's real.

Liberty: Watch this one. ALIEN STYLE NINJA ART: ATTACK OF THE RACHNI!

Liberty fired a wave of energy and it turned into a bunch of Rachni from the planet Suen.

---

The rachni are an extinct insect-like species from the planet Suen that threatened Citadel space roughly two thousand years ago during the Rachni Wars. Intelligent and highly aggressive, the spacefaring rachni were driven to expand and defend their territory. They were eventually defeated and completely eradicated by the krogan, who had been uplifted by the salarians for their combat prowess and physical resilience to directly confront the rachni in the harsh environments of the rachni worlds. The accidental discovery of the rachni led to the Citadel races curbing their rapid expansion, in fear of being plunged into another galactic war.

Subtypes

Rachni Worker - Workers are the smallest type of rachni. They appear as small green enemies and their main attack is a suicide explosion that releases toxic damage over a wide radius.

Rachni Soldier - Soldiers are slower, but much larger creatures than Rachni Workers, with thin tentacles ending in little pods. Soldiers are the main defenders of rachni held areas and can cause toxic damage with their spit.

Rachni Brood Warrior - Brood Warriors are rachni who are much larger and stronger than normal Rachni Soldiers. They are male gendered rachni and they have some biotic ability.

Rachni Queen - Queens are the largest and most intelligent of the rachni. Queens lead the rachni and provide guidance for the rest of their species.

Origins

The rachni, a species of spacefaring insects guided by a hive-mind intelligence, evolved on Suen, a planet tidally-locked to its red dwarf star. Life developed in a habitable terminator zone between hemispheres that were constantly scorched or perpetually frozen. The harsh conditions of Suen's surface forced the rachni to forage underground amid sprawling subterranean river systems.

Sometime at the height of the Prothean Empire, the Protheans discovered the rachni and bred them as weapons of war, selecting for the most cunning and warlike queens and unleashing rachni swarms on their enemies. Eventually, the rachni became too difficult to control and turned on their Prothean masters. The Protheans attempted to eradicate the rachni and destroyed as many as 200 worlds before they were satisfied the rachni were extinct, but enough survived on Suen to replenish their population.

As the rachni developed civilization, they established surface cities on Suen. Wrestling with the engineering problems of Suen's extreme surface environment may have given the rachni their first insights into how to build interstellar spacecraft. After achieving spaceflight, the rachni first traveled to the neighboring planet of Kashshaptu and discovered a crater there known as "the howling gulf", which featured an abundance of element zero. The rachni obtained samples of the eezo and studiously researched its properties, but would not develop FTL technology until centuries later.

The Rachni Wars

Around 1 CE, salarian explorers opened a mass relay to a previously-unknown system and encountered the rachni, who promptly captured them. The rachni used their extensive research on element zero to reverse-engineer the FTL drives of the explorers' starships. They proceeded to construct FTL vessels of their own and rapidly expanded into the galaxy, ushering in the Rachni Wars.

Attempts by the Citadel races to negotiate were futile, as it was impossible to make contact with the hive queens that guided the race from beneath the inhospitable surface of their homeworld. It was assumed that the rachni were irredeemably hostile and could only be stopped through warfare, but the rachni had the upper hand and overwhelmed defenses with their sheer numbers.

The emergence of the krogan in 80 CE turned the war against the rachni. Able to survive the harshest environments, the krogan were able to strike at the queens in their lairs and reclaim conquered Council worlds. When krogan fleets pushed them back to Suen, the rachni refused to surrender. The krogan response was swift and brutal: they bombarded Suen's cities and detonated powerful bombs in the rachni's underground nests, creating massive sinkholes on the planet's surface. The rachni were declared extinct in 300 CE, although in caution the Citadel Council left a listening post in the system to monitor for any survivors.

Mass Effect

The rachni aren't as extinct as the galaxy had been led to believe. At the remote Peak 15 facility on Noveria, Commander Shepard encounters rachni workers and soldiers that have escaped from the labs. The company renting Peak 15, Binary Helix, had found a rachni ship adrift in space carrying eggs in cryogenic suspension. One of the eggs was recovered and brought to Noveria for study. Binary Helix planned to clone the rachni inside and create an army, but when the egg was hatched the researchers realized this was no ordinary egg, but the egg of a rachni queen. Matriarch Benezia used the genetic memory of the queen to find the location of the Mu Relay on the orders of Saren Arterius.

After the queen had reached maturity, she began laying eggs but, the newborn rachni were removed from her presence by Binary Helix once hatched, in an attempt to control them. This same queen later explains to Shepard that rachni elders speak to their children by 'singing', this song soothes and comforts them. It is apparent that without a song from their elders, rachni workers and soldiers are driven insane by the silence and will attack anything on sight out of fear. The queen believes they are beyond help and asks Shepard to euthanise them.

The queen then asks what Shepard intends to do with her: either use the acid tanks in the lab to kill her, or let her go. She says she knows nothing about what happened in the war: "we were only an egg, hearing mother cry in our dreams". The queen promises that if she is released, she will not attack other races again but find somewhere to live in peace, and teach her children about Shepard's forgiveness. Liara T'Soni and Tali'Zorah nar Rayya favor releasing the rachni, claiming the krogan went too far while Garrus Vakarian advocates alerting the Council and is against committing wholesale genocide, and Kaidan Alenko favors releasing the rachni only because he thinks killing a whole race is counterproductive to humans staying out of old galactic grudges. However, both Urdnot Wrex and Ashley Williams are angry at the prospect of releasing the queen, if they are present alongside a more compassionate squadmate - Wrex isn't impressed by bugs "writing songs" about Shepard and Ashley wants to protect her sisters from horrors like the rachni, not release more of them - but the final decision is up to the Commander.

Rachni EggCerberus created cloned rachni on Binthu as part of their super-soldier research. More rachni are encountered at Alliance listening posts on Nepmos and Altahe. After clearing the rachni out, Shepard discovers they were specimens shipped from Noveria by Cerberus, and tracks them back to a depot in the Gorgon system. The depot is overrun with rachni and there are no survivors. After killing the rachni, Shepard finds the logs of the station's commanding officer named Flores who was involved in the project. She angrily claims they treated the rachni like animals when they should have treated them like POWs and leaves a recommendation that Cerberus pursue other projects; the rachni are too smart.

Mass Effect 2

If the Rachni Queen was spared, Shepard will encounter an asari on Illium who is in contact with the rachni. The asari tells Shepard that the Queen believes Shepard is fighting the enemy who "soured the song" of the rachni. She also states that the queen is building an army to fight them when they arrive in force, based on an otherwise unexplored planet. Shepard concludes that the enemy the message refers to is the Reapers. Additionally, a news report reveals several mysterious ships have been sighted that match rachni designs; the Citadel Council has pledged to investigate these sightings. This appears to indicate that the rachni have progressed extensively in the two years since Shepard freed the Queen. The asari on Illium confirms that they have at least advanced sufficiently to be capable of repairing a damaged starship.

If the Rachni Queen was destroyed, the rachni are effectively extinct again. A news report explains that a rachni cloning facility was discovered on Noveria, but no samples of the rachni have been found and the attempt to clone the rachni appears to have been unsuccessful.

The Reaper War

During the Reaper invasion, a rachni hive is encountered on Utukku by the krogan Aralakh Company, led by Grunt, if he survived the Suicide Mission, or Urdnot Dagg. It is revealed that the Reapers found the Rachni Queen and indoctrinated most of her children, though not the queen herself. The indoctrinated rachni were converted into Ravagers, walking organic artillery, through a process of implantation and genetic modification. Ravagers also bear egg sacs that spawn mutated Rachni Workers known as Swarmers.

The fate of the rachni is once again in Shepard's hands if the Commander chooses to deal with the Utukku hive. Shepard has a choice to either save the queen or let her die. If she is saved, rachni workers are sent to work on the Crucible project, where they are prized assets for their engineering capabilities, industrious nature, and good teamwork. If she is left to die, the queen accepts her fate, claiming she will 'embrace the silence' and the rachni are once more extinct.

Rachni - destroy + cure sabotaged. If Shepard did not spare the Rachni queen on Noveria, the Reapers will artificially construct a Queen thrall in order to control a rachni army. Shepard can choose to spare this artificial queen even if the Commander killed the real queen. This queen will eventually turn against Shepard, unleashing her workers against the Alliance's engineers working on the Crucible. This betrayal is dealt with swiftly: all the rachni are killed but at cost to Alliance manpower.

Even after the situation on Utukku is resolved and the Reapers can no longer use the Rachni Queen to generate more rachni for conversion, the numerous Ravagers created beforehand continue to appear on battlefields across the galaxy.

If Shepard chooses to activate the Crucible, the real Queen was spared twice, and the krogan were denied the real cure for their genophage, the rachni will be seen settling their spindly limbs on the ruins of a desolate Tuchanka.

Leviathan

While searching for the mythical Leviathan, one of Dr. Garret Bryson's ideas to track the creature is to use galactic activity patterns of the ancient rachni at the time of the Rachni Wars. Bryson theorized that Leviathan may have been responsible for provoking the rachni in a bid to create an army to face the Reapers in the next harvest, and so rachni activity would correlate to Leviathan activity. The theory turns out to be irrelevant in the search for possible Leviathan sites, however, and whether Bryson surmised correctly that Leviathan caused the Rachni Wars is unknown.

Culture

The rachni are a territorial race, determined to remain isolated from the rest of the galaxy. They normally inhabit extremely hazardous worlds, able to survive environments that would kill most sentient species. Should their territory be invaded on purpose or even by accident, they respond with swift and brutal force.

However, many make the mistake of underestimating the rachni as mindless animals when in fact the rachni are an extremely intelligent sentient species. The rachni achieved space flight and a form of cryogenic suspension, developed weapons and carved out a huge swathe of galactic territory. Far from being treated as disposable resources of the hive, rachni soldiers are carefully nurtured as part of the group.

The queens are the leaders of the rachni hive mind. Their ways of perception, thinking and communications seem to be different from that of other races, and based upon a synesthetic perception of sound as both sound and color. According to Dr. Ann Bryson, rachni communication is geared towards pheromones, and, as further proof of their intelligence, an organic quantum entanglement communicator - not, as so many believed, telepathy.

Rachni regard speech and thought as forms of music, as shown by the strange metaphors used when attempting to communicate, for example, "songs the color of oily shadow". The speech patterns used by them in such occasions are also unusual; "When we speak, one moves all". They refer to their manner of communication as "singing", which soothes and nurtures their young, and this appears to colour their entire psychology - for example, the rachni speak of death as "the great silence", and refer to their homeworld as the "singing planet". The rachni ability to genetically share knowledge across generations makes queens a vast repository of information.

Xindi-Insectoids were members of the multi-species Xindi race.

Physiology

The Insectoids, like all Xindi species, had distinctive ridges on their cheeks. They were, as their name suggests, insect-like in appearance. Their average life expectancy was estimated to be twelve years. It was easy to find, on their ships, individuals about ten years old, who were probably considered "elders."

They were genderless and reproduced asexually. Also, because of their insectoid nature and the shortness of their life span, they were strongly concerned over the survival of their offspring. They protected their young by making a hatchery attached to their ships and shielded it in case of danger, even at the expense of the ship's life support system. Each individual was able to produce large clusters of eggs.

The eggs could not survive out of the ship and were equipped with a gland capable of producing a powerful and subtle neurotoxin. If an unexpected presence was detected in the vicinity of the eggs, the clusters would spray the substance on the intruder, causing (in the latter) an instinctive, obsessive interest in protecting and nurturing the hatchling. (ENT: "Hatchery")

In the development of "Hatchery", portraying Insectoid youths and associated paraphernalia formed the genesis of the episode. Brannon Braga remarked, "We always liked the idea of an insect hatchery and baby insects and eggs." (Star Trek: Communicator issue 151, p. 32)

Language

The Xindi-Insectoid language was a clicking dialogue that was the most unusual and complex of all Xindi languages, save that of the Aquatics. In fact, there were sixty-seven dialects of the Insectoid language. Insectoid had names that grew longer and more difficult to pronounce as they grew older. (ENT: "The Xindi", "The Council")

In the final draft scripts of "The Xindi" and "Rajiin", a scene description stated, "The Insectoids speak in manic, high-pitched clicks and chirps, which are subtitled."

Philosophy and external affairs

Insectoids interpreted raised voices as a sign of hostility. They were quick to make decisions and were often in alliance with the Xindi-Reptilians. Both species used to trade their technology between each other and usually agreed on all decisions. Like the Reptilians, the Insectoids were mostly determined to do the bidding of the Sphere-Builders and exterminate Humanity. (ENT: "The Council")

History

At the conclusion of the Xindi Civil War on their geologically unstable homeworld of Xindus, the Insectoids, together with the Reptilians, committed an act of desperation by detonating gigantic explosions under the eight largest seismic fissures. Thus, the Insectoids contributed to Xindus' destruction and the extinction of the Xindi-Avians, though some Insectoids managed to escape. (ENT: "The Shipment")

Two Insectoid ambassadors sat on the Xindi Council. These were an Insectoid councilor and its aide. (ENT: "The Xindi", "Rajiin")

Very soon after Enterprise NX-01 entered the Delphic Expanse and visited the ruined remains of Xindus, numerous Xindi-Insectoid vessels were either sent or at least intended to be sent to destroy Enterprise. The deploment of these ships was planned by the Xindi-Insectoid councilor, who voiced frustration with the rate at which the Xindi Council was proceeding. (ENT: "The Xindi")

Aboard Enterprise, there were multiple instances when Xindi-Insectoids were hallucinated. On one such occasion, the starship's tactical officer, Lieutenant Malcolm Reed, thought one was hiding in the shadows of his quarters. (ENT: "Exile") Also, two imaginary Insectoids were among numerous hallucinations that Doctor Phlox believed he actually saw while he alone was conscious aboard Enterprise. (ENT: "Doctor's Orders")

The Xindi-Insectoids allied themselves with Commander Dolim in a plan to steal the Xindi weapon and destroy Earth against the will of the Xindi Council. But when the other species tried to stop them and the Sphere-Builders intervened with the help of a nearby Sphere, the Insectoid councilor began to doubt and started to suspect there was truth in what Captain Archer told the Council. (ENT: "Countdown")

Uniforms and equipment

Insectoid ambassadors who were included in the Xindi Council wore long robes. (ENT: "The Xindi", "Rajiin") For battle, Insectoids also had black body armor available. (ENT: "Rajiin")

The Xindi-Insectoids utilized a diversity of spacecraft. Members of the species most commonly used Xindi-Insectoid starships. (ENT: "Twilight", et al.) Other Insectoid vessels included patrol ships, scout ships, and shuttlecraft. (ENT: "Stratagem", "Hatchery", "Azati Prime") Insectoid technology additionally included a type of rifle. (ENT: "Rajiin")

Physical design

Creating and depicting the Xindi-Insectoids required the input of multiple contributors. (Star Trek: The Official Starships Collection issue 24, pp. 14 & 16) The Insectoids were also extremely expensive to represent. (In a Time of War, Part Three: Final Conflict, ENT Season 3 Blu-ray special features)

The notion of there being an insect-like race of Xindi was devised by Executive Producers Rick Berman and Brannon Braga, who also decided that the Insectoids, in common with the Xindi-Aquatics, would be created with CGI. (Star Trek: Communicator issue 149, p. 50) The fact the Insectoids were to be "computer-generated characters" was noted in the final draft scripts of ENT Season 3 episodes "The Xindi" and "Rajiin". This choice having been made, the process of designing the Insectoids was about to proceed with sketches done by Visual Effects Producer Dan Curry. ("Visual Effects Magic", ENT Season 4 DVD special features; (X)) The brief for the Insectoids was that they should be generally humanoid, rather than creatures which crawled around on the ground. "We wanted a creature that was about the size of a Human being so people could look into its face," said Curry. "I looked at macro shots of various insects and then did kind of an amalgam of a fly and an ant." Curry initiated the design as a concept sketch, dated 30 June 2003. (Star Trek: The Official Starships Collection issue 24, p. 15)

A particular consideration was exactly how many arms and legs the Insectoids were going to have. Dan Curry revealed, "My first thoughts were they would have six appendages like insects on Earth, but Rick [Berman] felt that they evolved to a higher life-form. So the middle two became vestigial and actually went away." (Star Trek: Communicator issue 149, p. 51) The thinking behind this was that, as the Insectoids had become bipedal, they had no longer needed their third pair of appendages. In practical terms, omitting them also minimized the time it would take to animate the creatures. (Star Trek: The Official Starships Collection issue 24, p. 15)

One requirement was that the Xindi-Insectoid seem visually compatible with the other Xindi, so the design for the Xindi-Reptilians proved to be a significant influence. Noted Curry, "The scaling pattern on the head of the insectoid is not dissimilar." (Star Trek: Communicator issue 149, p. 51)

While crafting the design of the Insectoids, Dan Curry paid much attention to working out precisely how the Insectoids functioned. He decided their method of speaking was by making a series of clicking noises with their mandibles, rather than using a conventional voice box powered by air from their lungs. (Star Trek: The Official Starships Collection issue 24, p. 15) Despite designing the Insectoids to have only four appendages, Curry still kept them obviously based on real-life insects. He recalled, "I kept a lot of insect attributes like the compound eyes and breathing tubes through the side. So the creature we have now is basically inspired by a variety of different insect species that I put together - the head's kind of fly-like, with a little ant-ness." (Star Trek: Communicator issue 149, p. 51) Wanting to make the Insectoids look intelligent, though, Curry made the foreheads slightly larger than normal. (Star Trek: The Official Starships Collection issue 24, p. 15)

In the script for "Hatchery", fetal Insectoids were referred to as "spider-like". For that project, Dan Curry returned to his original design concept for the Insectoids and sketched a young-looking member of the species. He later described this as a "Bambi-fied" version of the Insectoids. (Star Trek: The Official Starships Collection issue 24, p. 17)

Creating CGI

Dan Curry's concept artwork was provided to Eden FX, who were tasked with building the CGI model for the Insectoids. Recalling the illustrations, one of Eden's CG artists, Digital Effects Supervisor John Teska, stated, "That was a sketch of the character, and a couple of revisions for the head close-up and things like that. I had a pretty good idea of what they looked like before we started building." ("Visual Effects Magic", ENT Season 4 DVD special features) Because designs for Insectoid chairs and clothing were also produced, Teska was impressed by how much thought the design team were spending on the Insectoids. He related, "When I got that, I realized, 'OK, they are taking these guys seriously! They've got wardrobe, they've got chairs!'" (Star Trek: Communicator issue 149, p. 51)

John Teska created the digital model for the Insectoids. ("Visual Effects Magic", ENT Season 4 DVD special features; (X)) It was built as a full 3D model. In early renders of at least an Insectoid head (if not also a full Insectoid body), Teska arranged the basic textures in place. (Star Trek: The Official Starships Collection issue 24, pp. 15 & 14) He recalled, "I dug out all my insect reference - great books with scanning electron micro-photography - where I got a lot of the ideas for the smaller details, like little hairs around the eyes, the things that didn't show up in the pencil sketches." (Star Trek: Communicator issue 149, p. 50) Teska elaborated, "It was several weeks of first working up the geometry, building this basic polygonal, you know, polygon cage, sort of like low [resolution] at first, just to work out proportions and what they looked like. Then, building this elaborate skeleton that would basically allow us to move them like a character, like a puppet on the screen." ("Visual Effects Magic", ENT Season 4 DVD special features) John Teska not only digitally built the Insectoids but also determined how they would move. In addition, he created a CG version of the baby Insectoid, working out how it would move. The final step in the creation of these infants was to create a fully rendered version of them, which could be shown moving. (Star Trek: The Official Starships Collection issue 24, pp. 16 & 17)

For the adult Insectoids, however, having a CG model was merely the beginning of the process. Dan Curry pointed out, "The Insectoids had to convey emotion, they had to give a performance, they had to have body language." (Star Trek: The Official Starships Collection issue 24, p. 16)

Capturing performances

Unlike with the Xindi-Aquatics, stand-ins were used for the Xindi-Insectoids, to give the directors and animators references for CGI placement. 3 The decision to use this procedure was inspired by the success of the CG character Gollum from The Lord of the Rings films, he having commonly been "played" by actor Andy Serkis. "I decided, I want to go into this with the same idea," explained Visual Effects Supervisor Ronald B. Moore.

The stand-ins wore special suits, which helped to track their movements for such episodes as "The Xindi" - the only episode wherein Moore used motion-control because the production staffers wanted to digitally replicate even the minutest actions of the performers. "So, Dan [Curry] came up [… ] as only Dan can do, with roles of tape and started putting grids all over these guys," Moore continued. "We got black suits made for them. And put the grids on, so we could follow them [… ] [We] didn't exactly know what we were up against, with these guys." As it turned out, the animators did so well at replacing the stand-ins with the CGI that it was evident motion-control was not required. ("Visual Effects Magic", ENT Season 4 DVD special features)

Whenever the Insectoids were to appear on screen, the creation of the footage began with one or more of the stand-ins on stage, each dressed in one of the grid-covered suits which gave the artists at Eden FX reference for all the different movements.(Star Trek: The Official Starships Collection issue 24, p. 16) Each set of clothing primarily consisted of a form-fitting pair of cotton trousers, a long-sleeved shirt with a hood that had an eye opening, a pair of gloves and a pair of black Reebok shoes. The grids were white and stitched into all the clothing apart from the shoes. Except for the grids, each entire outfit was black. Both pairs of shoes were inscribed "D. Madalone". Similarly, even during (and after) being used for the Insectoid stand-in work, one of the shirts was branded with a Star Trek: Voyager tag inscribed "Ethan Phillips", a name tag which had been written over. The fingers in the gloves were taped together, which gave each hand a three-fingered alien appearance. Each partitioning of the fingers was attached to a thin replication claw. The claws were made out of foam core by Dan Curry, who crafted them with the intention of providing the stand-ins the feeling of having insectoid claws. (Star Trek: The Official Starships Collection issue 24, p. 17) "The stand-ins [were] just on regular boxes, though; they don't have a butt like that [of the Insectoids]!" exclaimed Curry. (Star Trek: Communicator issue 149, p. 51)

The stand-ins who "played" the role of the Insectoids were Evan English and Tarik Ergin. ("Visual Effects Magic", ENT Season 4 DVD special features) It was Ergin's clothing which featured the written-over "Ethan Phillips" name tag, although Ergin's clothing also featured multiple other sewn-in tags showing his own first name. Dan Curry remembered, "Ron Moore [… ] was very strong in using the stand-ins for performance; that way they could read dialogue and participate in the scene, so the other actors knew where to look." (Star Trek: Communicator issue 149, p. 51) Regarding how much enthusiasm the stand-ins put into their portrayals, Curry offered, "[They] were really into playing the Insectoids. They really gave a performance and didn't just walk through it." (Star Trek: The Official Starships Collection issue 24, p. 17)

Typically, after footage of one of the stand-ins was recorded, the process continued with him stepping out of the frame, followed by the action being re-staged and re-filmed without him in shot. The absence of the actor allowed space for the animators to digitally add the Insectoid, later. (Star Trek: The Official Starships Collection issue 24, p. 17)

Executing animation

Adding the Insectoids into pre-filmed footage was far from easy. Even though the shot of the actor gave the animators a reference for positioning the Insectoid's head and arms, the CG creature still had to be blended seamlessly into the background, which meant the animators needed to recreate 3D space. Where he could, Dan Curry used a considerably low-tech technique to provide them with some useful reference. "A lot of times I would use a little bounding box I made out of chopsticks hotglued together," he remembered. "By looking at that the animators could see the changes in perspective as the camera moved around." Animating each Insectoid was done by moving a wireframe skeleton under the CG flesh. Thereafter, basic animation of the CG Insectoid was created to match the movements of the stand-ins, visually replacing them in the pre-recorded footage. The final step of the process was to create the creature in full resolution, carefully matching the CG lighting with the lighting on the set. (Star Trek: The Official Starships Collection issue 24, pp. 17 & 16) Thus, the live-action footage gave the CG animators reference of not only what the stand-ins' performances were like but also how light had affected those performers. (Star Trek: Communicator issue 149, p. 51) It was somewhat difficult for the animators to match the on-set lighting, as the sets were dark, with many different sources of light. (Star Trek: The Official Starships Collection issue 24, p. 17) The editors nonetheless tried to ensure the CGI Insectoids fit convincingly into the appropriate shots. (Star Trek: Communicator issue 149, p. 51)

John Teska regularly animated the Insectoids. Robert Bonchune, effects supervisor at Eden FX, commented, "The Xindi insects are kind of his baby, so when they come along we usually give them to him, 90 per cent of the time, at least on the shows I supervise." (Star Trek Magazine issue 118, p. 30)

Reception

Ultimately, Ron Moore was impressed with the use of stand-ins. Although aware that the actors were intentionally playing different characters, he believed viewers can also see behavioral differences in the roles. ("Visual Effects Magic", ENT Season 4 DVD special features) Dan Curry was also pleased with how life-like the Insectoids ultimately became, pointing out, "The Insectoids are effectively there, they interact." (Star Trek: Communicator issue 149, p. 50) He also approved of how the animators matched the CG lighting with the real on-stage lighting, remarking, "They were really great at matching that." He was keen to acknowledge the collaborative means in which the Insectoids were brought to life, saying, "The success of the Insectoids is really a testament to the artistry of our team." (Star Trek: The Official Starships Collection issue 24, p. 17) Consulting Producer David A. Goodman and Director David Livingston concurred that the Insectoids (in common with the Aquatics) were "great" though "kinda weird." ("Impulse" audio commentary, ENT Season 3 Blu-ray special features) André Bormanis remarked that the Insectoids "came off really well." Making a statement Bormanis agreed with and found funny, Co-Executive Producer Chris Black jokingly observed, "It would've been so easy if only we'd known, you only ever saw them on screens, that they were actually only like three inches tall and all you had to do was step on them." ("Countdown" audio commentary, ENT Season 3 Blu-ray special features) Phlox actor John Billingsley was extremely critical of the Insectoids, which he described as "clicking little centipedes," and didn't believe they looked frightening enough, due to the series' limited budgets. (In a Time of War, Part Three: Final Conflict, ENT Season 3 Blu-ray special features)

Props and costumes

Having designed the Xindi-Insectoids to be incapable of sitting on a regular chair, Dan Curry designed a special type of chair for the ambassadors of the species, and their "Insectoid butts." (Star Trek: Communicator issue 149, p. 51; Star Trek: The Official Starships Collection issue 24, p. 16) John Teska digitally modeled a version of the Insectoid chair. "We got a sample from the real chair," he reflected, "and I matched the wood grain, and everything; we actually had the prop chair here for a day." (Star Trek: Communicator issue 149, p. 51)

Although Insectoid armor appears only in the episode "Rajiin", an image in Star Trek Magazine issue 118, p. 33 of two wireframe Insectoids showed them wearing armor. In the final draft script of "Rajiin", this clothing was described as "shining, beetle-like armor."

Dan Curry additionally designed the Insectoid armor. (Star Trek:

Communicator issue 149, p. 50) He invested thorough thinking in the Insectoid clothing. Bearing in mind that insects breath through tubes in their sides, he made sure the sides of their clothing were open. "It looks like the kind of thing Medieval knights would drape over their coats of mail," Curry observed. (Star Trek: The Official Starships Collection issue 24, pp. 15-16) On the other hand, the medieval robes worn by the Insectoid ambassadors were designed by Bob Blackman, who usually designed costumes for live-action usage. "Since he designed all the other Xindi garments," said Curry, "I felt it was best if Bob gave us some direction." (Star Trek: Communicator issue 149, p. 51)

The Insectoid costumes were very popular with the creative team. Production illustrator John Eaves exclaimed, "I so loved the costumes that Bob Blackman came up with for these nasty space demons!" Of course, the designs for the Insectoid chair and clothing likewise impressed John Teska. (Star Trek: Communicator issue 149, p. 51)

The suits used by Tarik Ergin and Evan English as stand-ins for the CGI Insectoids were sold off on the It's A Wrap! sale and auction.

Apocrypha

In the novelization of "The Expanse" and "The Xindi" (entitled The Expanse), the Insectoids are described as having "darkly gossamer wings" and "slender, fine-haired limbs" as well as a "glistening black carapace," under which was a thorax. The novelization specifies the Insectoids lacked a protective internal skeleton and "the teeth, tongue, and palate necessary to articulate primate speech."

The book also details how Insectoid behavior, seemingly manic by the standards of any other Xindi species, came about; their shorter lifespans and absence of an internal skeleton resulted in the Insectoids developing mannerisms based on a sense of urgency. By rubbing its wings together, an Insectoid could create "a shrill blast," which they did when requesting attention. The Insectoids are described as "notoriously skeptical" as well as typically agitated and, according to a frequently stated Xindi-Primate belief, Insectoids obviously didn't think at all.

Following the announcement to the Xindi population that the Xindi Council were planning to destroy Earth, the Insectoids not only rallied to support the anti-Earth efforts but also presented lavish donations to a group of Reptilian children, who had been orphaned by the warrior who had piloted the Xindi probe which had attacked Earth.

They blasted and thrashed the Crimson Witch all over the place.

Me: Whoa! Those were the Xindi-Insectoids from Star Trek!

Shanan: They sure were. They are dangerous creatures.

Lori: I would not want to meet them.

Angelica: Watch this one. CRYSTAL STYLE NINJA ART: GOLDEN ORB WEAVER SILK TRAP!

Angelica fired a thread of crystal and it entrapped the Crimson Witch in a cocoon of crystal

Susie Carmichael: And this one will hurt. WATER STYLE NINJA ART: SWIM OF THE DIVE BELL SPIDER!

Susie fired a wave of water and it formed into a Dive Bell Spider and it hit the Crimson Witch all over and hurt her.

Ben: Time for some Predator Power!

Ben turned into a new predator and it was the scariest one yet. It was called a Derogia! It was an ugly and scary one! It looked like a giant monster made of Coral.

Ben: CORALZILLA!

Me: Whoa! That has to be the scariest one of them all!

Shanan: (GASPS) That is one of the deadliest legendary predators! It's called a Derogia and they come from the planet Cronz. They are one of the most dangerous creatures in the universe and they are creatures of legend. They have incredibly destructive power!

Me: Whoa!

Lincoln: That is amazing.

Nico: Unbelievable!

The Crimson Witch then summoned many minions.

Coralzilla: Watch this.

He fired a massive blast of energy from his mouth and it hit all of the minions and completely obliterated them all in one fell swoop.

Me: Whoa! What power!

Nico: That was intense!

Ben then turned into another new predator. It was called DIVEDROP and it looked like a dragon without wings or arms.

Ben: DIVEDROP!

Me: Whoa! That's a new one.

Shanan: That's a Dracomermini. They are the natural predators of the Merlinisapiens, ChamAlien's species.

Nico: Whoa! That is neat!

Julie Yamamoto: I didn't think that Merlinisapiens had predators.

Shanan: They have very powerful vision that can allow them to see in Infrared and X-Ray vision that can flush them out and that's what makes them crafty predators.

Riley: Really awesome!

The Crimson Witch growled and went invisible. Ben turned his vision into Infrared and he saw her trying to make a break for it.

Divedrop: Oh no you don't!

He flew after her and grabbed her and threw her back to us.

Me: Nice try. Lets show some teamwork!

Perceptor: Lets do it! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Earth Cyber Planet Key went into his back and enhanced his light cannon 100-fold.

Skunk (Skunk Fu: This is gonna hurt bad. VALLEY CYBER KEY POWER!

The Valley Cyber Planet Key went into his right arm device and enhanced his stink power 100-fold.

Perceptor and Skunk (Skunk Fu): STINKY LIGHT MEGABLAST!

Perceptor and Skunk fired blasts of light and stink and the blasts combined and they hit the Crimson Witch and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

Bombshell: Lets get her! CYBER KEY POWER!

The Animatron Cyber Planet Key went into his back and enhanced his Explosive Mortar 100-fold.

Arpeggio: Lets do it! ANIMATRON CYBER KEY POWER!

The Animatron Cyber Planet Key went into his right arm device and enhanced his powers 100-fold.

Bombshell and Arpeggio: EXPLOSIVE FEATHER STORM!

Bombshell fired an Explosive Mortal shell and Arpeggio fired a barrage of laser feathers and the blasts hit the Crimson Witch and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: Guys hit her with all your combos at once.

Stewie: Right!

Bounce Man: You got it!

Stewie fired a ray gun blast and Bounce Man fired a bunch of bouncy balls.

Stewie and Bounce Man: BOUNCING RAY BURST!

Nico fired a powerful blast of fire and Fletcher fired a blast of the Scotland Flag colors.

Nico and Fletcher: NUOVA SCOTLAND BURST!

The combo blasts combined and they hit the Crimson Witch and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: Time for some Final Smash power!

Scrappy: Oh boy! Time to splat her! DADADA DA DA DA! PUPPY POWER!

Scrappy went at the Crimson Witch and punched her all over her face with incredible force.

Shaggy: Time for some hamburger power! BURGER BOMB MAYHEM!

Shaggy fired a barrage of hamburger bombs and they hit the Crimson Witch and exploded.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!

Scooby Doo fired a barrage of french fries and they hit the Crimson Witch and cut her up.

Lola: Time for some burning pain! FIRESTORM BURN STORM!

Lola fired a blast of fire and it hit the Crimson Witch and burned her and knocked her down.

Laney tied her up.

Me: Now lets see who the Crimson Witch really is.

We took off her mask and it was really DELILAH MONROE!

Mystery Inc.: DELILAH MONROE!?

Me: Just as I suspected.

Daphne Blake: But why?

Me: I know why.

I reached into her cape and pulled out a huge black diamond.

Me: She was after this.

Nico: (Whistles) The Detroit Rock Black Diamond. The largest black diamond in the world.

Me: Yep. She was after revenge on the former defense company she worked for.

?: I knew that woman couldn't be trusted.

We saw KISS!

Me: Whoa! There they are!

Luna Loud: Kiss! Wow! It's rockin to meet you all!

Starchild: Same here.

Woman: How did you all know?

Velma: When Delilah mentioned that she worked at government defense company, we did some research during the fighting. Turns out they specialized in lasers.

Lola: Really?

Fred: Lasers that use black diamonds.

Daphne Blake: She was hoping to steal it from here and sell it to a competing defense company since she was fired from the last one.

Fred: She was also the one stealing your chemicals so she could make her witch gas.

Me: And this belt she used was a magnetic field belt and it gave her the ability to fly.

I pulled off the belt and it was from Quest Industries.

Me: Quest Industries huh?

Nico: Delilah Monroe, you have failed this city.

Me: You'll be spending 25 to 50 years in prison for your crimes.

Scrappy: (to Delilah) Did you rip your scheme off of Mysterio or something?

Delilah: I did! My plan was perfect! And I would've gotten away with it too if it hadn't been for you meddling Kiss! Er.. Kids! You meddling kids!

Me: Tell it to the judge Monroe.

The Demon: Thanks for helping us J.D.

Me: It was our pleasure Demon.

Ebon, Leonard and Carly appeared.

William: (to Ebon) FYI, Man Boy said he doesn't want to leave the Jupiter Prison yet due to its benefits.

Ebon: (chuckles) I think I know what those benefits are.

Leonard: Well, you all have fun with the concert.

Carly Carmine: And great battle Heidi.

Heidi: Thanks Carly. Sorry I roughed you up so bad.

Carly Carmine: No worries. Bye Jack. See you next time.

Jack Atlas: Count on it babe.

With that, Carly, Ebon and Leonard teleport out.

We stayed and watched their awesome concert and we had on their make up and everything and it was awesome and a rockin good time! YEAH!

Later we went back home.

Lola: (To the viewers) This was a rockin' good time! Long live the love of Kiss! Have fun watching them Kiss fans!

Scrappy: (To the viewers) That's right Kiss Fans. ROCK ON!

THE END

Scooby Doo and Kiss from 2015 was awesome! It's amazing that we got to meet the legendary Kiss. It was awesome helping out one of the greatest music heroes of all time. NicoChan11 and ArchangelOfJustice12 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. The next Scooby Doo movie is Curse of the Speed Demon and we're going to race and solve a mystery. Awesome! Next up is the Goosebumps book Ghost Next Door. Get ready to talk to a ghost neighbor from beyond the grave.

See you all tomorrow.

The Ghost Neighbor Next Door

At Lynn's Table, we were having an awesome lunch. We were having Ravioli and Po-Boy sandwiches. With us was Principal Skinner on his lunch break.

Me: (Eating) Mmm. Delicious.

Nico: You said it.

Principal Skinner: Really good food. Thanks for treating me to lunch.

Me: Anytime Principal Skinner. But I think it's time that I tell you the reason why we brought you here.

Principal Skinner: Okay.

Me: Well you remember that time when you expelled Bart for that pie full of rats?

Principal Skinner: I sure do. Bart unleashed a pie full of rats during the Medieval Festival we had.

Me: But Bart didn't unleash those rats in that pie. It was Groundskeeper Willie that made that pie full of rats.

Principal Willie: Groundskeeper Willie? Are you sure?

Me: I have known about it for years because of watching TV.

Nico: J.D. is right. We watched all of the Simpsons from over the course of 32+ years and we saw everything that everyone did on the show throughout that whole timespan.

Me: We watched it all on TV and on the Internet. Watch this.

I formed a hologram in my hand that showed an episode of the Simpsons. It was from Season 16 Episode 21.

Me: Now watch.

It showed Willie stuffing a huge pie full of rats and it showed him pushing in the pie.

Me: See.

Principal Skinner: Oh dear god! What have I done!? I expelled Bart all for nothing.

Me: Because you made Willie look like a fool.

Principal Skinner: Oh man. Bart I am so sorry I falsely accused you of that pie. I didn't know it was Willie.

Bart: I told you I didn't do it.

Homer: So it was Groundskeeper Willie that planted those rats in that pie.

Lisa Simpson: Wow! I didn't know that.

Me: I've always known that Groundskeeper Willie had a bunch of problems but apparently he has a lot of anger management problems as well as mental defects.

Lisa Loud: That is the correct terms for it.

Lincoln: He was really insane.

Fletcher: (Scottish Accent) Aye. He gave all people in Scotland a really bad name lad.

Laney: What a jerk.

Edna Krabappel: Ha! He sure was a jerk wasn't he?

Me: He sure was.

Edwayl: (Breton Accent) Terrible lads.

Me: Yeah.

Girl Jordan: Hey guys! Something is going on across the street.

We saw a bunch of people dressed in Cow Costumes throwing bricks and rocks at Ophelia and calling her a planet murderer.

Lola: Whoa! Protesters are on top of the Pasta Bowl!

Me: Whoa we better go check this out.

We walked over and saw what was happening. We went over to the Pasta Bowl.

Ace: Did this restaurant get its name because of the pasta?

Me: Yes but the pasta is made out of chum. YUCK!

Laney: Yeah the food is so terrible that it makes your stomach turn inside out.

Lana: I like it.

Lola: Only you would Lana.

Lily: Yeah that's Lana for you.

We saw the protestors throwing everything but the kitchen sink at Ophelia.

Poison Ivy: Was I always like this?

Thunderblast: Well, you weren't this bad like these guys.

Poison Ivy: True.

We arrived.

Nightcrawler: (to the Eco Terrorists) Do you mind? We're trying to eat here.

Wreck Gar: You assholes have till the count of three to run before we waste ya!

Me: Wreck Gar let us talk to them first. Now what's going on here?

A kid took off a cow mask and it was someone that Lisa Simpson knows. It was Radical Environmentalist Extremist Jesse Grass.

Lisa Simpson: Jesse Grass!

Jesse Grass: Long time no see Lisa.

Me: You know him Lisa?

Lisa Simpson: I sure do. He's the leader of the Environmentalist Group called Dirt First. It's a non-profit environmentalist extremist group that is out to destroy all the things that hurt the Earth.

Me: Wow! It's a pleasure to meet you.

Jesse Grass: It's an honor to meet you J.D. You all did a really good job helping the entire planet back in 2019.

Me: That was one of our most incredibly charitable weeks.

Nico: It sure was.

Jesse Grass: I heard and saw. Very well done.

Me and Nico flew up to the roof.

Me: I know how you all feel about the planet. But why are you all throwing all that stuff at Ophelia? She's just a little girl.

Jesse Grass: I know it's wrong but she was using chum and that is animal murder.

Me: I don't blame you.

Nico: I don't like Chum at all. It's disgusting.

Me: Yeah. But I know how you all feel.

I pulled out my wallet and showed them a Greenpeace Membership Card.

Me: I am a member of Greenpeace. We are also a Radical Environmentalist Extremist group and we do whatever it takes to stop all kinds of atrocities being committed to the planet. Our goal in Greenpeace states that it us to "ensure the ability of the Earth to nurture life in all its diversity" and focuses its campaigning on worldwide issues such as climate change, deforestation, overfishing, commercial whaling, genetic engineering, and anti-nuclear issues. It uses direct action, lobbying, research, and ecotage to achieve its goals.

Nico: I've heard about Greenpeace. They are really charitable and really giving to what they do around the planet.

Me: Yep.

Jesse Grass: Wow. It's good that you have a great cause for Earth. The planet needs to have all of the friends it can get.

Me: Agreed. And we killed a bunch of the most dangerous eco-villains out to destroy the Earth.

Nico: That's right.

Jesse Grass: Wow! You mean the villains that the Planeteers all faced?

Me: Bingo. We killed them all.

Jesse Grass: Wow! That's good you destroyed them all.

Me: And we made them pay for their crimes against the planet. April 15th through 22nd, 2019 was a very charitable week for us. It was also a school project and we went above and beyond the call of duty to save the entire planet.

Jesse Grass: Wow! That's amazing and that makes you true heroes of Mother Earth.

Me: I take it you heard about the destruction of Springfield, Oregon?

Jesse Grass: I sure did. You destroyed that horrible atrocity of a town because of all the corruption and all the terrible atrocities it has done to the environment.

Me: Yep. Springfield, Oregon was a doomed town from the start.

Nico: Yep.

Jesse Grass: Good riddance. If you see the Rich Texan, give him a slug in the mouth for me.

Me: With pleasure.

We later went back home.

---

At the estate we were watching TV and reading books. I was out meditating in front of the Willow Tree. Nico was looking through all his Goosebumps Books and he was looking for the next target for the Goosebumps Monster Busters.

Nico: Hmm. Which one sounds like a good target?

May: Tough choices huh?

Nico: Yeah. Hmm.

He looked through his Goosebumps books and tried to find the next target. Until he found the perfect choice.

Nico: This one is good. The Ghost Next Door.

May: That's a good one. I read that one and it was really sad that Hannah Fairchild was a ghost and I felt really sad for her.

Qin: I read that one too. It was awful that Hannah was dead in that one.

Laney: It sure was. But I also read that there was a Shadow Danny in that one that caused a lot of problems for him.

Danny Phantom: No kidding. That one sounds really scary.

Nico: It does. But either way we have found our next target.

Carly Beth Caldwell: Can't wait.

Sabrina Mason: This is gonna be awesome.

I came back in.

Me: Hey guys.

Nico: Have a nice meditation session?

Me: I sure did.

Nico: We found our next target. Shadow Danny from the Goosebumps book The Ghost Next Door.

Me: Whoa! I know that one. This is gonna be interesting. We're going after some ghosts.

Nico: (to Shaggy and Scooby) I know you guys are afraid of spooky stuff. But surely, you two can make an exception for friendly ghosts. Besides, if you come with us, I'll give you two mint chocolate chip Scooby Snacks.

Shaggy: Like, yeah you're right Nico. We've had a couple of encounters with friendly ghosts before. One time when we were kids and we solved the mystery of Captain Boobeard.

Me: I remember that one.

Qin: What was the story behind that one?

Me: That was a Halloween I will never forget. We met a really nice ghost named Bartholomew Byford Boo. But he likes to go by Mr. Boo. He hired us to help us figure out why the Ghost of Captain Boobeard was terrorizing the Johnson's. We found out that it was because of their handyman Jack. Jack dressed up as Boobeard to scare the Johnson's away. The land they were on was worth millions and he wanted to get the land all for himself so that he can build an office building there. Jack got 30 to 60 years in prison for his crimes.

Qin: And he got life in Federal Prison right?

Me: Bingo.

Nico: Good riddance.

Me: Yep. But Nico can I try one of those Scooby Snax?

Nico: Sure man.

Shaggy: Me and Scooby can have one too.

Nico: Okay. Here you go guys.

He threw us 6 Scooby Snaxs. 2 each into our mouths.

Me, Shaggy and Scooby: MMM! MMM! MMMMMMMMM!

We spun around and turned into rockets and flew into the air and created a dazzling display of fireworks and the fragrant smell of mint was in the air and we landed in Nico's arms.

Me: Whoa! Very minty and delicious.

Scooby Doo: You said it.

Shaggy: Like, its been a long time since you had a Scooby Snack, J.D.

Me: Boy it sure has been a while. But awesome!

Nico: Glad you guys liked it. Shall we head out.

Me: Lets shall.

We were off to the town of Greenwood Falls in New Hampshire.

---

GREENWOOD FALLS, NEW HAMPSHIRE

---

We arrived in the beautiful town of Greenwood Falls, New Hampshire.

Me: Here we are guys. Greenwood Falls, New Hampshire.

Lincoln: It's beautiful here.

Lana: Whoa! So this is New Hampshire.

Me: It's beautiful here. But you all should see what it looks like here during the Fall Turn. The colors both here and in Connecticut are amazing.

Nico: They sure are. The trees along the east coast turn the most prettiest of colors in the country.

Lincoln: That's what I heard.

Lori: Literally amazing.

Leni: It's totes beautiful here.

Luna: It's rockin dudes.

Luan: It paints a tree a different Color. (Laughs) Get it?

Most of us laughed while everyone else groaned.

Me: (Laughs) Good one Luan.

Eddy: (Laughs) That was a good one!

Lori: Okay that one was pretty funny.

Qin: I get it.

Me: Lets look around the town.

We walked around the town and we looked around the place. We then saw a dark sight. We saw a house totally burned down.

Me: This house looks like it was torched.

Nico: Wonder what happened.

Me: Lets find out.

We looked around the house and we sniffed around.

Me: Hmm. (Sniffs the burnt wood) I don't smell any accelerants.

Laney: Looks like a gas line bursted.

Me: Maybe.

Nico: From what I remember it was a Stinkbomb that backfired in one of the houses and started a fire.

Me: And in Hannah's house, her campfire destroyed her house and killed her and her family.

Lana: That's awful. I think this is Mr. Chesney's house.

Me: It sure is. Lets head to Hannah's house.

We did so.

We arrived at her house and it was rebuilt.

Me: Her house is rebuilt and vacant.

We went in.

Me: Hello?

Varie: Is anyone home?

We went inside the house and in the living room.

Lincoln: This house is empty.

Lana: Hard to imagine that Hannah and her family died in it.

Lincoln: No kidding.

Lucy Loud: Let me see if I can work my magic.

Me: Okay Lucy.

Lucy placed the candles and did a seance and she contacted the ghost of Hannah. She appeared.

Lincoln and Danny had a ghost sense and out came Hannah Fairchild.

Me: Hannah Fairchild.

Hannah: Wow. You're all Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Me: That's right.

Nico: We heard about what happened to you and how you died in a tragic fire.

Ember McLain: You aren't the only one that lost their life in a fire.

Hannah: I'm not?

Ember McLain: Nope. Over 40 years ago in the 1970's, I was killed in a tragic fire that killed me. I am Ember McLain.

Hannah: The famous singer!? Whoa!

Me: That's her.

Ember McLain: And thanks to J.D. I was brought back to life and given a second chance at life.

Hannah: Whoa!

Me: We should also explain why we are here. We're here to kill the shadow self of your friend Danny.

Hannah: I see. I wish I could help you all but I'm a ghost and I'm dead.

Maria: Hannah, how would you like to be restored to life?

Nico: In the Goosebumps movie, you were alive in the end. The same can apply here as well.

Hannah: You can do that?

Me: I can resurrect you and bring you back to life.

Hannah: I would like that.

Me: Okay.

I snapped my fingers and Hannah was brought back to life.

Hannah: Did it work?

Lana touched her and her hand didn't go through her.

Lana: It worked!

Lola: You aren't a ghost anymore!

Laney: It sure did work.

Hannah: I am back!

Me: Welcome back to the living Hannah.

Hannah: Thank you so much.

Me: Lets go find Danny.

We went to Danny's house.

We arrived at Danny's house and it was a beautiful house.

Me: Danny's house is amazing.

Nico: It sure is.

Hannah went and knocked on the door and Danny answered.

Danny Anderson: Yes?

Hannah: Hey Danny?

Danny Anderson: Hannah? What are you doing back in the world?

Hannah: I'm alive again Danny.

Danny Anderson: That's impossible.

Hannah: Not if you have these guys.

Me: Hey there Danny.

Danny Anderson: Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm! It's such an honor to meet you guys.

Me: Same here Danny.

Hannah then grabbed Danny's hands and put them on her face.

Hannah: It's true Danny. I'm back and I'm alive thanks to J.D. He resurrected me.

Danny Anderson: Hannah you're back!

They hugged!

Lincoln: Aww.

Earth: So cute.

Me: Yep.

Nico: Danny, we should also explain why we are here.

Me: We came to kill that Shadow version of yourself.

Danny Anderson: I'm glad. He won't stop pestering me. It's getting on my nerves.

We then heard a dark voice.

Me: Uh oh. Stay sharp.

Lincoln and Danny Phantom had a ghost sense.

Lincoln: (Points somewhere) There!

We saw a blob of darkness come out and it was SHADOW DANNY!

---

He started following Hannah Fairchild around, whispering her name and pointing at her. He would often vanish when Danny Anderson appeared, making her believe that Danny was a ghost. He would also warn her to stay away.

Eventually, he revealed to Hannah that he is actually the ghost of Danny. Danny had gotten trapped in Mr. Chesney's house by a fire he helped start and Danny was destined to die in the fire, with Danny taking Shadow Danny's place in the Shadow Realm. When Hannah rescued Danny from the fire, he vanished forever.

In the TV episode, he has a more active role, teaching Hannah how to be a ghost. He also actively attempts to kill Danny, as he can't wait for him to die naturally.

Personality

In the episode, he is very manipulative as he teaches Hannah to be a ghost to distract her from saving Danny. He also lies to her by saying that Danny is destined to die, while he merely wants to replace him.

Physical appearance

As a shadow, he is in all black with red eyes, and arms that are described as being as bony as twigs. When he reveals himself to be Danny's ghost, he has the same face, but with glowing red eyes his shadow self has.

---

Me: Whoa!

Shadow Danny: You fools have ruined everything!

Me: And we show no remorse for doing so you freak of darkness.

Shadow Danny: I don't care. Danny was destined to die.

Me: No you were destined to die. By our hands.

Nico: That's right. We won't let you hurt anyone else again!

Zs'Skayr and Firefly appeared.

Me: Zs'Skayr and Firefly.

Ben: I'm actually not surprised that you would show up here with Shadow Danny.

Zs'Skayr: What can I say? Us ghosts have to stick together.

Me: That's true.

Danny Phantom: You know the funny thing, you and I have the same name.

Shadow Danny: That's true.

My Signer Mark then started glowing.

Me: Uh oh. Dark Signers incoming.

An indigo flash of light came and it was GREIGER!

Me: Greiger. Nice to see you again.

Greiger: Same here.

Danny Anderson: Is that one of the Dark Signers?

Me: Yep. He's the Whale Dark Signer of Earthbound Immortal Chacu Challhua. That's the Orca Whale Earthbound Immortal.

Jared: I'll face him this time dad.

Me: Go get him son.

?: I'll destroy you all at last.

A figure came out and it was MIG from episodes 13 and 14 of Operation Overdrive!

---

Mig was a snow leopard-themed monster and was one of the Fearcats, he was the leader of the Fearcats, making him the most powerful, and the most evil among them. He, alongside Benglo, was one of two quinary antagonists of Power Rangers Operation Overdrive.

Many years ago Mig was the leader of Fearcats and they were sworn enemies of Tyzonn and his team and they also kidnapped Vella. The leading Fearcat along with Cheetar attacked an archeological squad in Brazil in search of the Corona Aurora. After Benglo was released and Cheetar was destroyed, Mig and Benglo escaped and later attack a market place to attract attention. After being defeated by the Rangers, they were revived by Flurious, who used his powerful Gyros to turn him into a cyborg. Now, he has much more power and blaster/sword weapons. Man of Mercury

He is relentless and has no problem betraying the other villains to get the Corona Aurora. Following the defeat of their homunculus monster Agrios, he engaged Tyzonn in single combat and was destroyed by him. Mig is destroyed once and for all by power slash strikes from the Drive Detector.

Personality

Mig is an arrogant hothead with no respect for any form of life other than that of his fellow Fearcats. He is very sadistic, enjoying the pain and destruction he causes. But he was also shown to be good friends with other Fearcats.

Powers And Abilities

Mig, even compare to previous villains, is extremely powerful, he is powerful enough to best nearly everyone he battles agents and can easily over power all five Rangers at once, making him the second strongest and most powerful villain in Power Rangers Operation Overdrive, beating by a tie between Flurious and Moltor.

Original Form

Super Strength: Out of all the Fearcats, Mig was the strongest, being able to outmatch Kamdor with ease. When fighting Kamdor, when combining his strength with Cheetar, he was able to shove the villain into a tree with incredible ease and a single kick made the villain stumble away and cringe. A kick from both Cheetar and Mig simaltaniously sent Kamdor flying into the ground, Durability-Although not as durable as his cyborg form, Mig was able to take a purple energy slash from his own staff and withstand it. This same attack reduced Tyzonn to a puddle of murcury.

Hand to Hand Combat-Cheetar is an extraordinary hand to hand combatant, easily overpowering Kamdor with help from Mig.

Self Growth-Like all other Fearcats, Mig can make himself grow by ripping open his body and unleashing his giant form which is apparently his true forn.

Super Speed: Mig can run in high speeds.

Extraordinarily Leaper: Mig can leap at an incredible distance.

Extraordinarily Jumper: Mig can jump at incredible highest.

Eye Blast: Mig can fire a green colored energy blast from his eyes. This caused a massive orange fireball during the search during the archelogical battle.

Arsenal

Claws: Mig posses clawed hands for combat.

Energy Empowerment: Mig can charge up his claws with green energy for an increase in strength. This really hurt Kamdor and force him to roll away and knocked Miratrix flat on her back.

Bazooka: When Mig first appeared, he uses a bazooka that can launch green colored energy lasers. A single blast was powerful enough to knock down both Kamdor and Miratrix and hurt them enough to retreat.

Staff: After fighting the Rangers for the first time, he used a bladed staff which he said was more powerful.

Energy Eagle Wave: Mig can fire a light green colored eagle-shaped energy wave from his staff, one blast is strong enough to take out Tyzonn in just one hit.

Cyborg Form

Super Strength: Mig posses far greater strength in his cyborg form.

Extraordinarily Leaper: Mig can leap at an incredible distance like before.

Extraordinarily Jumper: Mig can jump at incredible highest like he also did previous.

Super Speeds: Mig can run in super fast speeds.

Arsenal

Twin Sword Blasters: After becoming a cyborg, he fought using two blasters that can fire yellow colored energy lasers and could turn into two short swords for combat.

* * *

Tyzonn: Mig!

Mig: It's been a long time Mercurian.

Mack Hartford: (to Mig) You don't have your Fearcat buddies to help you this time!

Mig: I don't need them to take you Rangers out!

Me: I remember you! You are one of the Fearcats and you have a really merciless vendetta against Tyzonn and all of his people!

Mig: That's right. I can tell you watched us on TV.

Me: Never missed an episode.

Orion: Time to put you to rest!

Me: For all eternity in the fire of Hell!

Danny Phantom: Or send him into the Ghost Zone.

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Race Force!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Japanese version of the Turbo Power Rangers.

Mack Hartford: Lets help them guys!

Lola went at him and kicked him in the face. Firefly called out his Typhlosion and he and Typhlosion fired massive blasts of fire and Lola absorbed all the fire and her aura flared up exponentially to an incredible level. She continued absorbing all the fire from them like it was a soda and it made her stronger and stronger at an accelerated rate. When they stopped 20 minutes later Lola had a massive aura of pure fire all around her and she also had her wings spread and they were surging with pure fire as strong and powerful as 100 quadrillion suns.

Lola: My turn. I learned this one from J.D.

Nico: He has taken over Mig.

Shadow Danny and Mig have become SHADOW MIG!

Tyzonn: (to Shadow Mig) If part of you really is Mig, then you know I still owe you payback for killing my fellow Mercurians!

Hannah: And I still have a score to settle with Shadow Danny for what he tried to do to me!

Me: Now it's time for us to get serious!

Hannah: I've had it with you! You killed my family and now I will kill you! I summon URIA, LORD OF SEARING FLAMES, HAMON, LORD OF STRIKING THUNDER and RAVIEL, LORD OF PHANTASMS!

In a powerful vortex of fire arose the massive fire sacred beast URIA, LORD OF SEARING FLAMES! In a storm from the sky and with powerful lightning descended HAMON, LORD OF STRIKING THUNDER! And in a massive wave of darkness arose RAVIEL, LORD OF PHANTASMS! Hannah had summoned the evil versions of the legendary Egyptian God Cards: THE THREE SACRED BEASTS!

The "Sacred Beasts", known in Japan as the Three Phantasms (三幻魔 Sangenma), also romanized as "Three Phantom Demons", are a series of three powerful monsters, with the first three being released in Shadow of Infinity. They are "Uria, Lord of Searing Flames", "Hamon, Lord of Striking Thunder" and "Raviel, Lord of Phantasms", as well as "Phantasm Emperor Trilojig". They are used by Kagemaru and Yubel in the Yu-Gi-Oh! GX anime, with the latter, also using their fused form, "Armityle the Chaos Phantom". Eve from the Yu-Gi-Oh! ARC-V manga also utilises these cards.

Each monster resembles one of the Egyptian Gods because they are dark counterparts to them, in a similar vein to the Wicked Gods (though unlike the Wicked Gods, they are never stated in-series to have any relation to the Egyptian Gods). In terms of gameplay, they also have similarities to the Egyptian Gods - they must be summoned by sacrificing three cards of a certain type. However, the Sacred Beasts are not limited to using monsters, and they are substantially easier to summon than the Egyptian Gods, which comes at the cost of being generally weaker.

These series are closely related to the "Phantasm" archetype: the three Sacred Beasts can be used to Fusion Summon either "Phatasm Emperor Trilojig" or "Armityle the Chaos Phantom".

In Yu-Gi-Oh! GX, the Sacred Beasts are legendary creatures whose cards were sealed by Kagemaru underneath Duel Academy behind the Spirit Gates. The gates require seven Spirit Keys to open, as Kagemaru could not unlock their power at the time. Should they ever be set free from their stronghold, chaos and darkness will envelop the world, destroying everything.

The Shadow Riders sought to acquire the Spirit Keys and revive the Sacred Beasts. In order to open the gate, a strong Dueling presence is required; if the keys are stolen and placed in the gate (as attempted by Don Zaloog), nothing will occur. To meet the challenge of the Shadow Riders, seven of Duel Academy's finest Duelists were selected: Jaden Yuki, Zane Truesdale, Chazz Princeton, Alexis Rhodes, Bastion Misawa, Lyman Banner (the only Shadow Rider to get his key by default, due to the fact his true identity was unknown at the time) and Vellian Crowler. Although the Shadow Riders were defeated, Kagemaru managed to awaken the Sacred Beasts due to the Dueling energy released from the Duels. In exchange for freeing them, the Sacred Beasts slowly returned Kagemaru to a youthful state, empowering him with the energy sapped from Duel Monster spirits. But Jaden's interference resulted in the man's downfall as such the Sacred Beasts were locked away once more.

In the third season, after Duel Academy gets transported to an alternate dimension, a Yubel-possessed Marcel Bonaparte retrieves the Sacred Beasts and builds a Deck around them, which boosts the Summoning speed of the Sacred Beasts and also supports the Summoning of their combined form, "Chaos Phantasm Armityle". When Jesse Anderson reappears after Yubel possessed him, he uses them in a Deck based around quickly Summoning the Beasts and "Armityle" for his Duel against Adrian Gecko. Although Yubel didn't use them in her final Duel with Jaden, "Raviel" was shown to be in her Deck. After Yubel merged with Jaden, they are safely returned to their resting place.

Lori: WHOA! So those monsters are literally the 3 Sacred Beast Cards.

Luna Loud: Unbelievable dudes!

Jaden: Hannah are you crazy!? The Three Sacred Beasts are too dangerous and they will destroy the world!

Hannah: Don't worry Jaden. Me and the Three Sacred Beasts have come to an agreement and they won't destroy the world as long as I have them work for me.

Me: Whoa! You did the impossible! You have the powerful Three Sacred Beast cards now working for you.

Hannah: Yep. Now this is for all the pain and suffering you have caused to me and my family! Lets do it! SACRED FIRE ECLIPSE KAMEHAMEHA!

Hannah fired a powerful Kamehameha Wave blast and Uria fired a powerful blast of fire, Hamon fired a massive blast of lightning and Raviel fired a massive wave of darkness and the blasts combined and they slammed into Shadow Danny and sent him into the River of Fire and the blast exploded as the portal closed. Shadow Danny was gone forever.

We cheered wildly and powered down. We went back to Earth.

Me: Good riddance.

Zs'Skayr and Firefly appeared and so did Greiger.

Greiger: Your son is an incredible fighter J.D.

Me: Thanks Greiger.

Zs'Skayr: (to Hannah) You really should check out the universe of that Goosebumps movie in the future. After all, that version of you is basically the same as you.

Hannah: I'll keep that in mind.

Firefly: Glad to hear it. Now, you should probably check on your mom. I think she missses you very much. (he, Greiger and Zs'Skayr teleport out)

Muscle Man: Hey, Hannah. You know who else is glad you're alive again? My mom!

Benson: Muscle Man not now. Look.

Hannah had a look of sadness on her face and then she came up to me and she looked at me and then broke down crying and she hugged me as she cried hard into my chest.

Me: It's okay Hannah. It's okay.

Nico: (To the viewers) Ghosts everywhere better beware because we're coming for you.

Laney: Yep.

We later went back home and Hannah was still crying and I was comforting her still. She was so upset over the loss of her family as well as all the pain and suffering Shadow Danny caused.

Goosebumps The Ghost Next Door was an awesome story. Never read it but it was awesome! NicoChan11 and ArchangelOfJustice12 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is the Are You Afraid of The Dark? Villain Ian Kezek and we're going to make that murderer pay dearly with his life 100 fold.

See you all tomorrow.

A Ruthless Serial Killer

We were down the street at the house that was next door to Nico's house. But this was not just any house. It was an old haunted house. It was a creepy and scary house that looked like something out of a horror movie.

Me: Whoa! This is one scary house.

Blackfire: There was a haunted house near Nico's place the entire time?

Me: Yep. We saw it as we saw Nico moving in. It was really creepy.

Nico: To be honest, I didn't even know I had a haunted house right next door to mine.

Alicia Chan: Me neither.

Lincoln: It sure is creepy.

Lucy Loud: If it's really spooky I don't mind.

Zach: I heard that this house was home to a ruthless mad scientist that did crazy cross-breeding experiments.

Jimmy screams.

Rusty: I heard that this house was home to a crazy deranged serial killer that kept his victims skulls as trophies.

Jimmy screams again.

Liam: (Southern Accent) I heard that it was home to a mad farmer cannibal that ate his victims organs in that there house for dinner.

Jimmy screams yet again.

Clyde: I heard that it was home a master jewel thief that hid a massive amount of loot full of jewels and gold that he stole from the toughest jewel stores in the world.

Sly Cooper: If it is a jewel thief I'm there.

Me: Lets head in.

We went up to the door and knocked on it and it opened all on it's own. We went inside and it was really creepy. It was old and scary. All the furniture was covered in tarps and there were old pictures and more.

Me: Whoa! Looks like no one has been in here for years.

Nico: No kidding.

Laney: It's like we're in one of the Mystery Inc gang's mysteries.

Qin: It sure does feel like it.

Nico: Yeah.

Ed: This house looks like the house from "I Was a Cotton Swab in Madam Tongue-itch's Earwax Museum" the Miniseries.

Eddy: [in a spooky voice from behind a row of candles] "Double D! Let me poke your brain!" [He laughs evilly, and Edd faints.]

Ed: "You scared Double D, Eddy."

Eddy: "I did."

Luan: (Laughs) Good one Eddy!

Me: That was so funny!

Lucy Loud: That was a good one Eddy.

Jean Grey: I sense a strong presence in this house.

Me: I feel it too.

Lincoln: Same here.

Ed: It's the Earwax!

Me: Lets look around.

We did so. We found that the house was so old and dilapidated. We stuck together as we looked around.

Carlota was shaking in fear.

Carlota: Guys I'm really scared.

Shaggy: Like me too.

Lincoln: Look at this painting.

We looked at the painting and we saw that it was a painting of a man with dark skin, black hair and green eyes and he had a lab coat on.

Me: He must've been the owner of this house.

I saw a name under the picture.

Me: Dr. Landon Helmandollar. PhD.

Dana: Whoa I've heard of him. He was a very renowned scientist that did all kinds of crazy experiments. But after they pulled the plug on his experiments, he gave up on science and turned to a life of crime. He was a very notorious jewel thief that stole trillions of dollars in jewels, gold and jewelry back over 95 years ago.

Lisa Loud: Gadzooks! Darcy I think that's your great-great-grandfather.

Darcy: Whoa! That's amazing!

Nico: Incredible.

Dana: It is. They caught him and sent him to Alcatraz. But all of the loot and jewelry he took over the years was never recovered.

Nico: Whoa! So he must've hidden all of his loot in this old house.

Nicole: It's gonna be like a treasure hunt.

Me: And all those jewels rightfully belong to Darcy. Lets start searching.

We got to searching for the mysterious treasure of Dr. Landon Helmandollar.

We searched the rooms and found nothing.

Me: Nothing. But wait, I remember that there are secret passages in houses like this. Lets start looking.

Nico: And a good place to start is at the bookcase.

Laney: There's an old bookcase in the study.

We went and checked it out. We got there and looked at each book.

Laney: Dr. Helmandollar has quite an interesting selection.

Lola: He sure does.

Me: Lets see.

I felted around for anything unusual.

Me: Hmm.

I then felt a book that was unusual.

Me: Hmm.

I pulled it and the bookcase lifted up and revealed a huge set of stairs.

Me: That did it.

Dexter: Ingenius. Just like the bookcase that leads into my lab.

Lisa Loud: Very genius.

We went down the stairs.

Lana: It sure is creepy here.

Lola: I know.

We then came across a big door. It was a vault door.

Me: Looks like we found it.

Sly Cooper: Let me open it.

Me: Go for it Sly.

Sly worked his magic and opened the vault easily and the door opened and it showed a massive fortune in gold, jewels and money!

Me: The loot of Dr. Landon Helmandollar!

Nico: Whoa! What a fortune!

Lisa Loud: Amazing!

Me: Yeah.

Jean Grey: The presence is here.

Cybertron Menasor: (Irish Accent) Whoever's there better come out right now!

A shadowy figure came out and we had our weapons and powers pointed at him.

Ultra Magnus: Give us one good reason not to kill you right now!

The figure came out and it was Shauna Chalmers, Daughter of Superintendent Chalmers.

Bart: Shauna Chalmers?

Shauna: Hey guys.

Me: What are you doing here?

Jimbo Jones then came out.

Sam S.L.: Jimbo!

Bart: Oh great!

Jimbo Jones: We were making out in here.

Me: How did you guys get in here without going through the vault door?

Shauna: We went through the air vents duh.

Jimbo: And we decided to keep this treasure all for ourselves.

Nico held a dagger to his throat.

Nico: Like hell you will. This treasure belongs to Darcy. Her great grandfather collected it over the years almost 100 years ago and it rightfully belongs to her.

Darcy: Yeah!

Sam S.L.: So back off!

Jenny: Or we'll make you!

Darcy (The Simpsons): Yeah!

Jimbo: (Shaking in fear) Okay okay okay!

Shauna: Lets go somewhere else to make out.

Me: Good.

They left.

Me: Lets get this treasure over to Darcy's house.

We gathered all the treasure and put it in a scroll and left the haunted house. We brought the treasure over to Darcy's mom and her sister Teri and they were overjoyed to have all that treasure. The reason is because they live in a small house and were having some financial problems and the treasure made them filthy rich beyond their wildest dreams and they decided to move to the Haunted house and fix it up. It didn't take long but it was awesome and fully fixed.

Back at the estate, Hannah Fairchild was still crying after everything that happened to her and Qin was comforting her.

Qin: Hannah you got to stop crying. It's only gonna make you feel worse.

Hannah: (Crying) I can't! It hurts so much!

Qin: I know Hannah. But you aren't the only one that knows what it's like to lose someone close to you.

Hannah: (Sniffles) I'm not?

Qin: No Hannah. I know how you feel. I lost my entire family too.

Hannah: Really?

Qin: Yeah. I was a happy girl with a bright future ahead of me that came from a very wealthy family. Until THEY came. My mom and dad were killed by the entire Russian Mafia and they burned my entire mansion to the ground. I lost everything. But I never gave up my hope and my courage. J.D. caught the entire Russian Mafia and brought them to justice. They all were executed for their crimes and I will always be indebted to him for it.

Hannah: Wow.

Qin: Yeah. Dr. Roland Paradigm also slammed me with Komodo Dragon DNA and turned me into Scalebreath.

Hannah: Whoa! He must've been one dangerous guy.

Qin: He was. But we killed him and made sure that he never splices another innocent soul again. The Paradigm Brothers destroyed numerous lives and robbed them of their humanity.

Hannah: That's terrible. You went through so much.

Qin: Not just me. I met a bunch of others that went through what I went through at the hands of the Paradigm Brothers and it wasn't pretty. But thanks to J.D. and all of Team Loud Phoenix Storm, we got our humanity back and we got the ability to transform into our gene-slammed forms at well.

Hannah: Wow! That's amazing.

Qin: I met my parents for the last time when we encountered the Pastmaster and he gave me the opportunity to reunite with them. But I turned down the offer at the last possible second and told him that what's done in the past should stay in the past. I got closure for myself that day. I also went to the graveyard earlier on the day when we met Richie Rich. It was the cemetery that my parents were buried in and met them for the last time as their spirits. I know that they are always gonna be with me no matter what.

Hannah: Wow. You're right Qin. I shouldn't be sad. I should do what's right and keep my parents close to my heart.

Qin: That a girl!

The alarm then went off.

Qin: Uh oh.

Hannah: What's that?

Qin: That's our crime alarm. It goes off to let us know when evil activity has reared its ugly head.

Hannah: Wow! We better check it out.

They went down to the computer.

At the computer we were looking up what was happening. We found out that a Serial Killer was on the loose.

Me: Uh oh. We got a code dark red. Serial killer on the loose.

Nico: Whoa! How many people has he killed?

Me: Unknown.

Maria: Where are we going to find this serial killer?

Me: It says in the Samuel R. McKelvie National Forest.

Varie: That's a really small patch of forest.

Vince: It sure is.

Me: Lets get over there and find him.

We were off to the Samuel R. McKelvie National Forest.

---

SAMUEL R. MCKELVIE NATIONAL FOREST, NEBRASKA

---

We arrived in the forest and we were hiding and waiting. With us was Julie and she has a strong suspicion that she knows this serial killer. We were hiding in the bushes as the serial killer walked past us.

William: He doesn't see us yet. Good.

Me: When he drops his guard, we'll jump him. We're gonna ambush him.

Nico: Awesome idea.

We saw him drop his guard.

Me: NOW!

We jumped out and jumped onto him and dogpiled on him. We turned him over and I recognized him! It was notorious mass murderer IAN KAZEX!

---

Not a lot is known about Ian Kazex's past, but since he's gravestone said "May he be forgiven!" it can be assumed he was a ruthless murderer. Also, since he seemed to be pretty young when he was reanimated, it can be asssumed he was either put to death through means of justifiable homicide or execution (possibly hanging since he couldn't talk).

In the wintertime of the year 2000, a scientist named Mr. Doyle had been hard at work inventing a DNA revitalizing serum. Mr. Doyle's teenage employee Julie was worried, he would use it to bring his wife back from the dead.

Emma's older brother Peter, thought she was playing an April Fools' joke, Therefore he wanted proof, so he picked a random gravestone and spilled serum all over it. Ian's grave just happened to be the one that was picked.

Soon enough, Ian Kazex partially came back to life as a reanimated zombie. He couldn't talk he would just grunt, scream and shout. He then went a vicious rampage, and followed Emma, Peter and their friend Jake all the way home.

He did this because wanted the rest of the serum, because it was the only thing keeping him alive. Therefore he got more of it, he may have came back to life completely and go onto another killing spree. Without the serum, slowly his system was expelling the serum from his body as gooey dripping slime all over his skin. Therefore slowly he would die again without receiving more of it.

He kept encountering Emma, Peter and Jake, viciously screaming at them and trying to grab them. Soon Emma thought that if they sprayed him with cold water, it would deplete the effects of the serum. Then he was lowered all the way, outside of Mr. Doyle's laboratory, where they lured him into an icy puddle and then sprayed him with a garden house.

Ian at first, passed out after being drenched with the freezing water. But very soon he got back and was still the same. He was then lowered right into the basement laboratory, where the three teenagers realized they needed hot water and heat to defeat him.

Peter, taunted him, by waving the vial of serum in front of him, and he was lowered into the hot box heated room. When he was locked inside, the room was so hot, he instantaneously begun to wither and dry up and chock back to death. Soon nothing was left of him but his rotted corpse, he was soon likely reburied.

---

Me: Ian Kazex!

Julie (AYAOTD): I knew it was him.

Ian Kazex: (Laughs Insanely) Now I will kill you all! (Laughs Maniacally!)

Me: You are seriously fucked up!

Nico: Sounds like you have a really bad history with this guy.

Me: I sure do. I've been after this guy for a long time. He broke out of a maximum security prison 8 years ago and he has eluded me for all this time. He is responsible for the murders of 526 people over the course of 17 years. He was scheduled to be executed over in the Nebraska state prison later today. But somehow he escaped.

We gasped.

Lincoln: This guy is a monster!

Laney: He's a true homicidal maniac!

Lana: What a true devil!

Me: Now we can kill him ourselves!

Julie (AYAOTD): You're done killing people!

Lincoln: We're sending you straight to hell!

Nico: Ian Kazex you have failed this universe!

Lord Drakkon and Vexen came out.

Me: Drakkon and Vexen.

Lana: We got other people to worry about than you guys.

Laney: Yeah we're facing the most dangerous and most prolific serial killer ever known in our history.

Lord Drakkon: What!? How many people has he killed?

Me: 526 people and I'm the one that busted him.

Vexen: Whoa! That's terrible!

Lord Drakkon: 526 people!? That's insane!

Me: I know. He was scheduled to be executed later today. But somehow he escaped from Nebraska's death row.

Ian Kazex: (Laughs) Now I will kill you both!

He swung a knife at Lord Drakkon and slashed him in the back!

Me: YOU BASTARD!

I punched Ian Kazex in the face and kicked him in the stomach and sent him crashing into a tree.

Me: Drakkon are you all right?

Lord Drakkon: Yeah.

My Signer Mark started glowing.

Me: Oh no.

Out came Kalin Kessler!

Me: Kalin.

Kalin: Now I will kill you once and for all J.D.!

Yusei: Not if I can help it!

Me: Yusei, Nico, you face Kalin. I'll face Drakkon and Lana, you face Vexen.

Lana: Right.

Nico: Lets do it.

?: Don't forget about me.

A figure came out and it was OVERDRIVE OSTRICH!

Turbo Man: Who are you?

Overdrive Ostrich: You can call me… Overdrive Ostrich! (jumps up and shoots a Sonic Slicer downwards at Turbo Man)

Linka used her lightsaber and sent the slicer back at him.

Jake: Time to go Wild on these guys!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Wild Force!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Wild Force Rangers!

Me: Lets get them!

I snapped my fingers and we were on the planet Glaren yet again and we went at them.

Battle 1: Lord Drakkon

I was facing Lord Drakkon.

Me: He slashed you pretty good.

Lord Drakkon: He sure did.

Me: Will you be all right?

Lord Drakkon: Yeah. Before we fight, I think it's time I match up with that form of yours. (to his Salamence and Charizard) Salamence! Charizard! Time to Mega Evolve!

He had his Pokemon minus Flygon evolve into mega forms! Charizard turned into MEGA CHARIZARD and his Salamence turned into MEGA SALAMENCE!

Me: Whoa! They turned into a Mega Charizard and a Mega Salamence! Their power increased 100-fold!

Lord Drakkon: That's right. To Mega Evolve certain Pokemon you need special minerals that allow them to do so. I use Charizardite and Salamencite.

He showed me said minerals. The Charizardite looked like a blue cats-eye marble and the Salamencite looked like a clear marble with red and blue in it.

Me: Whoa! So those are the minerals you mentioned. They look like Cats-Eye Marbles.

Lord Drakkon: They do don't they? But these are the minerals that are needed to Mega Evolve certain Pokemon.

Me: That's cool! Ash told me all about that and I didn't know about the minerals needed for it.

Lord Drakkon: That's all right. But ready to fight.

I transformed into my Super Angel 100,000 Elemental Moonlight Phoenix form!

Me: (Divine Voice) Lets dance.

I fired a powerful blast of fire and Mega Charizard fired a massive blast of blue fire and the blasts collided and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Most of the entire desert area was really on fire and engulfed in flames.

Lord Drakkon: Impressive. You turned the whole desert into a sea of fire.

Me: Just getting started.

Mega Salamence then went me with incredible speed and his head glowed and it was his Zen Headbutt.

Me: Uh oh.

I stopped his attack by blocking it with my hands and his strength was so strong that it was enough to push me back and skid on the ground. I then threw Mega Salamence into the air. Then he charged up a Hyper Beam.

Me: Oh no you don't.

I fired a Kamehameha Wave at the Hyper Beam Blast and the blasts collided and resulted in an incredible explosion of incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Mega Salamence was sent flying and he crashed into the ground by Lord Drakkon.

Me: That was a good warmup.

Lord Drakkon: It was.

Lord Drakkon and me went at each other and I punched him in the face and knocked his helmet off and kicked him in the stomach and punched him in the face and fired energy blasts at him and Lord Drakkon fired powerful energy blasts at me and the blasts all collided and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOMMM!

The explosions knocked him down.

Battle 2: Vexen

---

Lana was facing Vexen.

Vexen: You're doing well Lana.

Lana: Same to you Vexen. Lets see how this will turn out.

Lana then went Super Angel 20,000 Subzero Ice Owl!

Lana: (Older Voice) Lets dance.

Lana flew at Vexen and kicked him in the face and fired a powerful blast of ice lightning at him and it hit his arm and froze it and Lana kicked him in the face again and kicked him in the stomach and punched him in the back of the head and knocked him down.

---

Battle 3: Overdrive Ostrich

The Megaforce Rangers were facing Overdrive Ostrich.

Noah Carver: Right!

They blasts and slashed him all over the place with their weapons and blasted him apart. He exploded into a million pieces.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Troy Burrows: Megaforce Rangers, that's a Mega Win!

Emma Goodall: Yeah!

---

Battle 4: Kalin

---

Nico and Yusei were facing Kalin on the Duel Runner Arena as it was racing across the Giant Nazca Line and they were really going at him.

Yusei punched Kalin in the face and Kalin punched at Nico and he dodged it and kicked Kalin in the back. Kalin did a flip into the air and fired two powerful blasts of dark energy and Nico fired two powerful blasts of fire energy and the blasts collided with each other and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM
KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Kalin flew into the air and followed Nico as he flew and fired a massive barrage of energy blasts and Nico dodged them all as they hit the ground and exploded in a massive wave of fire that turned the whole desert area into a sea of fire and it was massive. Kalin laughed maniacally and Nico punched him in the face and kicked him in the stomach and punched him in the back of the head and teleported and kicked him in the stomach with devastating force. Kalin belched up a huge amount of blood. Nico then kicked him in the mouth and knocked out some of his teeth and kicked him in the stomach and fired powerful energy blasts at him and they hit him all over and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMM!

Nico: You will never kill J.D. as long as I'm here! STARDUST DIVINER!

Nico formed a rainbow energy ball and threw it at Kalin and it hit him and exploded as he screamed in excruciating pain and it exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Yusei flew up to Kalin and kicked him in the face and kicked him in the stomach and he and Stardust Dragon fired blasts of cosmic fire and it slammed into Kalin and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Kalin was knocked down and he crashed into the arena and was knocked out.

---

Battle 5: Ian Kazex

---

We regrouped and we were facing Ian Kazex!

Me: I will never forgive you for your crimes Kazex!

Ian Kazex: (Laughs Insanely) YOU WILL NEVER STOP MY KILLING!

Me: FUCK YOURSELF!

We went at him and I kicked him in the face and kicked him in the stomach and Lincoln fired a powerful blast of lightning and electrocuted him all over and Linka and Laney fired blasts of lightning and fire and electrocuted and burned him and Lola fired a powerful blast of fire and burned him all over. Ian Kazex laughed like a homicidally crazed maniac and he took the blast head on and it burned him all over and he came out of the blast of fire and Lori fired a blast of wind that lifted him into the sky and Nico and Vince punched and kicked him all over with incredible teamwork and really socked it to him. Lily and Luna fired blasts of water and Lana fired blasts of ice lightning and froze him in a block of ice and Lucy fired a blast of black lightning and Leni and Luan fired blasts of gravity lightning and light and the blasts hit him and burned and knocked him around and exploded all over him. Liberty, Lisa and Sam S.L. fired blasts of lightning, fire and tech energy and the blasts hit him all over and exploded and more. Ian Kazex fell to the ground and he was badly burned from our relentless attack and more.

Lincoln: Lets show him our new jutsu guys! Lets combine them all at once.

Me: Go for it guys.

They combined all their techniques together and they formed into the massive armies of the Great Long War of Warhammer 40K.

---

The Long War is a term used by the Chaos Space Marines of the Traitor Legions and Renegade Space Marine warbands that refers to their fight to overthrow the Emperor of Mankind and seize control of the Imperium of Man for themselves and for the Chaos Gods.

They intend to achieve the final victory that was denied the Warmaster Horus over ten thousand standard years ago at the end of the Horus Heresy. The events of the Heresy are nothing more than myths and legends to the people of the Imperium in the late 41st Millennium, but for many of the Chaos Space Marines who dwell within the Eye of Terror where the flow of time moves far slower, the terrible passions of that era are still very much alive.

The Heretic Astartes are merciless and brutal warriors - accursed by man and god alike. Twisted beyond recognition by the fell powers they serve, their hatred of all they once held dear is writ large, corrupting their bodies just as it does their souls. In a galaxy full of horrors, the taint of Chaos is the most insidious threat of all. It can infect even the strongest mind and blacken the most innocent soul.

The Space Marines are no exception to its lure, and those who are seduced by it fall often further than mortal men. Scarred beyond redemption by the terrors of constant war, they devolve into bitter, selfish Champions of the Chaos Gods. They have become mockeries of their former glory, the ultimate foils to the Adeptus Astartes, who they once called brothers.

For ten thousand Terran years, Traitor Legions and Renegade Chapters have ransacked and razed the worlds of the Emperor. The scale of their slaughter and conquest is a well-guarded secret of the Inquisition, lest awareness of the Heretics' existence tempt others to the service of Chaos.

For ten millennia, the Long War has raged unseen and unheard by the vast majority of the Imperium's people, fought on countless battlefields where Loyalists and rebels wage war for the future of humanity itself. Across hundreds of worlds the banners of Traitors are held aloft and the galaxy burns in their wake. A single cry of defiance echoes across the Imperium: "Death to the False Emperor!"

The Primarch ProjectEdit

The Imperium of Man is mighty and its reach is long, but the infinite Realm of Chaos is greater still. Even in the material universe the Emperor's followers only control islands of light in a sea of darkness. There are many who do not want the protection of the Imperium, who defy its laws and seek to undermine its works. Even inside the Imperium itself, rebels and secessionists struggle constantly to throw off the chains of oppression, particularly among the lowliest underclasses created by the Priesthood of Terra.

These people have not forgotten the taste of freedom; they would rather give their fealty to the uncaring Ruinous Powers than grovel before the Corpse-God of distant Terra. Some seek to escape from bondage and go to any lengths to secure their release; others resist the power of the Imperium without truly knowing why they do so, motivated simply by a conviction that they must fight against the tyranny it represents. All of these are the servants of Chaos and knowingly or unknowingly they continue to fight in the Long War begun by the Archtraitor Horus ten millennia past.

Following the end of the Age of Strife, the powerful Perpetual known only as the Emperor created the Primarchs - twenty genetically-superior transhuman beings created from His own rich genetic code with the strength of a dozen men and intelligence almost equal to that of the Emperor Himself. These gods-amongst-men were masterpieces of arcane science, destined to reunite the scattered realms of Mankind across the fractured galaxy.

But at the Emperor's moment of triumph, disaster struck: A mysterious Warp vortex opened beneath the Himalazian (Himalayan) Mountains on Terra where the Emperor's secret gene-labs were located and swept up the infant Primarchs while they were still in their gestation tanks. They were flung through the Immaterium far from Terra, and were eventually deposited upon distant, human-settled worlds.

Perhaps it was during this cosmic voyage that Chaos first touched the Primarchs, whispering in their dreams and sowing the seeds of future tyrannies as they slept. But not all was lost for the Emperor's ambitions with the disappearance of the Primarchs. He had gleaned much invaluable knowledge and data from the experiment. Using the engineered genetic structure of the Primarchs, or "gene-seed" as it would come to be known, the Master of Mankind created the first Space Marines.

The Space Marine Legions

The Emperor formed twenty Space Marine Legions, each using the gene-seed of one of the Primarchs. Numbering hundreds of thousands of genetically-enhanced warriors and boasting fearsome weapons and starships that could carry them to battle, each Space Marine Legion was powerful enough to conquer whole worlds. First, the proto-Astartes known as the Thunder Warriors conquered Mankind's birthworld of Terra during the War of Unification; then, with the death of the proto-Astartes and the Legions of newly created Astartes under His command, the Emperor stepped out into the turbulent galaxy and set about claiming it once more for Mankind.

It was the beginning of the campaign known as the Great Crusade. World after world was brought into the Imperial fold, some rejoicing at being found by the warriors of Terra, others not so willing to bow down before the might of the Emperor. It mattered not, for there was no force capable of resisting the Space Marine Legions for long. As the Great Crusade spread out from Terra, the Space Marines rediscovered the first of the lost Primarchs, and as the Legions reclaimed ever more worlds, eventually all of the Primarchs were found. Reunited with the Emperor, the Primarchs became Mankind's paramount warriors and generals.

Each Primarch was given an Astartes Legion to command, one created from his own genetic material. With joyous vigour and unequalled martial prowess, the Primarchs and their Legions pushed back the boundaries of the wild galaxy, claiming many thousands of worlds in the Emperor's name and reconnecting the distant reaches of space in an ever-expanding empire. The deeds of each Legion are uncountable, as are those of the Primarchs themselves, but suffice to say, this was a golden time for the armies and servants of the Emperor of Mankind.

Yet even at the pinnacle of the Emperor's might, there arose an enemy that would almost destroy His growing Imperium. Although none of the many alien foes of the Great Crusade could match the power of the Space Marine Legions, the insidious Forces of Chaos had already set into motion the events of their near-destruction many solar decades earlier. The most dire threat to the Imperium was not to come from the xenos filth that infested the galaxy, but from amongst the ranks of the Space Marines themselves. The leader of this rebellion, after whom the first great heresy is named, was none other than the most praised and respected of all the Primarchs - Horus.

The Horus Heresy

When the rebellion against the Emperor came, its leader was the Primarch least suspected of any treachery: the great and noble Warmaster, Horus. Horus had always loved and respected the Emperor as a young man looks up to a strong father, and had faithfully remained at the Emperor's side throughout the Great Crusade.

After Horus' stunning victories against the Orks during the Ullanor Crusade, the Emperor announced that He was returning to Terra, elevating Horus to the ultimate rank of Imperial Warmaster in his stead and giving him free rein to prosecute the Great Crusade as he saw fit, as he now possessed supreme command over all of his brother Primarchs' Space Marine Legions.

The Emperor renamed Horus' XVI Legion, the Luna Wolves, as the Sons of Horus in honour of their mighty Primarch. Yet the announcement bred jealousy and confusion in many of the Primarchs. Did their father really intend to abandon them at this most critical time? Without explanation, the Emperor left for Terra in order to further His mysterious agenda, leaving Horus to deal with the Crusade in His wake.

Horus strove to carry out the Emperor's will to the best of his ability, and, either by chance or fate or sinister design, came to lead the Sons of Horus to the haunted swamps of Davin's moon, hoping to bring the Emperor's light to that benighted orb. There, beset on all sides by the servants of the Plague God Nurgle, Horus fell to a grievous blow from an eldritch sword, the Anathame. The tainted wound festered, plunging Horus into a fugue state from which he could not be awoken. The Sons of Horus were desolate at the loss of their founding father.

Under the advice of Erebus, a well-respected Chaplain of the Word Bearers Legion, the most senior members of the XVI Legion took their Primarch to the temple of one of the infamous Warrior Lodges of Davin, the Temple of the Serpent Lodge, for healing. Unbeknownst to the Space Marines, the Ruinous Powers restored Horus to his full strength, while cementing their grip upon the Warmaster's soul in the process by exploiting the small shard of jealousy and envy that Horus had always felt for his father the Emperor.

Awed by the "miracle" worked by the Davinite priests, the Warmaster spread the new-found cult and the Chaotic practices of its Warrior Lodges throughout the Sons of Horus and beyond, infesting the Legions with heretical notions disguised as beneficence.

Initially, even the mighty Primarchs had little idea that they had fallen to the service of Chaos. When they rebelled, their initial good intentions and just causes began to fall away as their souls became saturated with the malign energies of the Warp. The Space Marine Legions that they led inevitably followed the fall of their commanders, blind to the faults of their genetic fathers and hungry for more conquest.

The corrupting force of Chaos spread into the Imperial Army and the Mechanicum, and soon enough, the rot had seeped through to the core of the Emperor's new domain. As a new Age of Darkness fell across the galaxy with the onset of the Horus Heresy, hundreds of worlds burned in the name of the Dark Gods, and a terror unlike any seen before was unleashed across the galaxy during the seven dark standard years that the Heresy raged.

Much of the truth of these times has been lost, obscured by the mists of time or embellished to the point where giants bestrode worlds with thunderous steps and the planets themselves cracked and split at their tread. The Traitor forces of Horus drove all before them, until those Astartes Legions still loyal to the Master of Mankind stood at bay upon the fortified walls of the Imperial Palace during the climactic Battle of Terra.

The forces of darkness pressed in around the guttering flame of humanity, but desperate times called for desperate solutions. Sanguinius of the Blood Angels and Rogal Dorn of the Imperial Fists, together with their bravest warriors, would accompany the Emperor and take the fight to Horus upon his Battle-Barge the Vengeful Spirit, a mighty warship in orbit above Terra.

The Emperor and His warriors teleported onto Horus' Battle Barge but found themselves separated and scattered throughout the corrupt vessel by means of the Warmaster's dark sorcery. The Emperor fought His way to the Warmaster but was too late to save Sanguinius, who Horus slew when the angelic Primarch refused to turn to Chaos. Yet, some maintain that Sanguinius inflicted a wound, however small, upon his erstwhile brother.

Horus and the Emperor clashed in a battle of both flesh and spirit. Horus was filled with the power of the combined Ruinous Powers and dealt the Emperor a mortal blow, but in the end, the Emperor's will was the greater, and Horus was struck down with the last ounce of the Emperor's strength. The Traitor was destroyed utterly, in body and soul and, with his death, the power of the Traitor Legions was broken.

When Dorn and his warriors finally fought their way into the rebel Warmaster's sanctum, they found the Emperor's broken and ruined body, and it is said that their cries of woe were heard far below on Terra itself. Rogal Dorn, most determined and unbending of the Primarchs, bore his master's body back to Terra and, under the direction of the crippled Emperor, bound Him within the strange psychic augmentation device known as the Golden Throne to sustain His existence for all eternity with constant human sacrifice and baroque machineries.

The followers of the Ruinous Powers were defeated, but it was victory won at a terrible cost. The brotherhood of the Primarchs was sundered, and the Emperor's vision for the Imperium and all of Mankind lay in ruins - the last, best hope of its fulfillment lost forever.

The Great Scouring

In the wake of the Horus Heresy, the Imperium was a dismal, shattered thing. As the beauty and grandeur of the Imperial Palace had been burned black in the flames of betrayal, so great swathes of the Emperor's star-spanning realm had suffered a similar fate. The Master of Mankind was a broken husk, and His dream of unity erased forever - yet for all this, the Imperium retained might enough to exact a bloody revenge upon its foes.

There could be no forgiveness for the crimes of the Traitor Legions - those who now ruled in the Emperor's name had neither the ability nor the desire to prevent a war of reciprocity. So began the time known in the histories of the Imperium as the Great Scouring. Before actually being confined for all time within the life support mechanisms of the Golden Throne, the Emperor had pronounced judgement on the Traitors: He declared them Excommunicate Traitoris, and determined that they were to be driven into the hellish region of the Warp rift called the Eye of Terror, which would hold them for all eternity.

All records and memory of the Traitor Legions were to be expunged from the Imperial archives. The Traitor Legions' associated troops from the Dark Mechanicus, the Titan Legions or the regiments and starships of the Imperial Army that had turned to Chaos were to be destroyed or driven into the Eye. It would be as if the Traitor Legions had never existed to sully the Imperium with their betrayal.

This was a period of monumental violence, of confusion and darkness. Though the newly founded Imperium fought to root out corruption and expose wrong-doers to the cold light of Imperial justice, the galaxy's scope and dark, shadowed reaches worked against its defenders. With new betrayals and cries for vengeance emerging daily, a great many bloody-handed deeds went unseen.

The ravaged Space Marine Legions were no exception to this, with many striving to cover up their own misdemeanours or exact their pound of flesh from those who wronged them. The Dark Angels, the Space Wolves, Iron Hands and even the Ultramarines, all followed their own agendas as the wars of the Great Scouring gathered pace. Fighting continued for another seven standard years after the Heresy had ended with Horus' death on the bridge of his great flagship, the Vengeful Spirit, before the Traitor forces were wholly destroyed or exiled into the Eye of Terror.

Many Chaos-corrupted star systems were cleansed and placed under the watch of the newborn Inquisition. Horus' death had not ended the fighting, but it had renewed the resolve of the Loyalists to destroy the Traitors. Many Imperial worlds during the Heresy had refused to commit their forces to either side, or seceded entirely from the Imperium to regain their independence.

Such indecision was punished by Loyalist and Traitor forces alike. These forces were often bled white attacking the rebel strongholds of worlds that only wanted to be free of the Imperium entirely, whether it swore allegiance to the Emperor or to the Dark Gods.

Within the Eye, the Traitor Primarchs and their Legions found sanctuary amongst the nightmarish Daemon Worlds. They warred amongst themselves for dominance and territory, while factions split from the Traitor Legions to found other warbands and armies, but they have never stopped fighting against the Emperor. This struggle has lasted for ten thousand solar years and even now besets the Imperium. The Horus Heresy is a distant memory, little more than a legend, but the taint of Chaos still threatens to corrupt - the Long War continues.

Post-Heresy

The centuries after the end of the Heresy have seen the Traitor Legions tear themselves apart in the fractious in-fighting that is so common amongst the servants of Chaos as their masters pursue the Great Game. Others have become factional warlords, murder-obsessed berserkers, pleasure-seeking hedonists, Daemonhosts or potent servants of the Dark Gods who are more devoted to achieving ascendance in the Great Game played between the major Chaos Gods in the Realm of Chaos than the struggle against the Corpse Emperor. This is most true of the fallen Primarchs of the Traitor Legions who survived the Heresy, many of whom have become Daemon Princes and given up day-to-day control over their former Legions.

That minority of Chaos Space Marines, including individuals like Abaddon the Despoiler, who have managed to retain their full faculties and kept the corrupting influences of the Warp to a minimum, have done so only by maintaining a sense of purpose dedicated to the final overthrow of the Emperor. In truth, the Long War is the only activity that is capable of reuniting all of the now-disparate warbands of Heretic Astartes into a fighting force capable of taking on the forces of the Imperium.

It is Abaddon, Horus' successor as the Warmaster of Chaos Undivided, who is most capable of forging this unity, usually so that the Forces of Chaos may unleash yet another one of their Black Crusades out of the Eye of Terror into Imperial space. It should be noted that the Long War is now closer to its end than ever before since the end of the Horus Heresy, due to the success of Abaddon's 13th Black Crusade in 999.M41, which for the first time won control of Imperial space outside of the Eye of Terror when his forces finally laid low the defenders of the Fortress World of Cadia.

It should be noted that many of those Chaos Space Marines who have managed to remain relatively free of Chaotic corruption consider that their surviving Primarchs have essentially chosen to forget about the goals of the Long War, preferring instead to pursue the more inscrutable goals of the Great Game. For these Traitor Marines, it is Abaddon, rather than their Daemon Primarchs, who are truly worthy of their loyalty, for in ten thousand years, he has never wavered in his determination to achieve the final victory that eluded Horus.

Chaos Gods and the Long War

Khorne

None of the gods of Chaos benefit as much from the continued conflict generated by the Long War as Khorne does. Many of his Champions were forged in the flames of the battles of the Horus Heresy, and while some have been elevated to the ranks of Daemon Princes, and others have fallen in battle, many of those Champions live and fight to this day.

They remember with furious anger the great betrayal by the "Corpse God" and His followers. This anger still smoulders in their hearts, ready at any time to fully reignite and burst through the plates of their Chaos-corrupted Power Armour, consuming their one-time brothers in flames of undying hatred.

These are veterans of hundreds, even thousands, of campaigns. Their bases on Daemon Worlds deep within Warp Storms, such as the Screaming Vortex, exist outside of the normal strictures of space-time. The disparity between what might be thought of as real time and subjective time as they experience it within the Immaterium allows them to wage endless wars and accumulate the experiences of many lifetimes, giving them an enormous advantage over their weaker Loyalist brothers.

It also gives them a perspective unique among Khorne's Champions and other minions. Because they begin as mortals but taste immortality, they develop what vaguely resembles patience.

Khorne may not have patience of his own, but he knows the value of it in these Champions. He allows them to bide their time and hone their skills on the battlefields of the Daemon Worlds, waiting for opportunities to unleash them upon the Imperial weaklings who refused to embrace Khorne's blessings.

When these crusades are launched, the inhabitants of the galaxy are almost never prepared. There is no warning. No scouts or Astropaths are able to adequately pierce the veil that obscures the activities of these forsaken domains and, even if they could, the distortion of time and the vagaries of the Warp would make any knowledge gained nearly useless. Reports of assaults being launched could easily be delayed by hundreds of standard years, reaching panicked ears after they have already been in the grave for generations.

Thus the continuance of the Long War gives the Blood God an unmatched and incredibly useful capability. Sitting upon the Throne of Skulls, Khorne can see new worlds ready to burn, civilisations ripe for conquest, populations ready to be bled into his rivers, or warzones where fighting is abating.

In his Chaos Space Marines, he has warriors ready to eagerly serve him and feed the flames of conflict. With hearts full of hate, they strike without warning to unleash devastation upon the enemies of Khorne. The galaxy is but a parched, sun-baked field to them, and they, the Flamer ready to ignite it all. All the Blood God has to do is pull the trigger and let the galaxy burn.

Nurgle

"The Imperium drew its last breath long ago. We are merely awaiting its death rattle, and then entropy shall claim its long-awaited victory. We are patient. We have waited ten thousand years. We will wait ten thousand more, if necessary. But I do not think it will be."

For a Plague Marine or other Chaos Space Marine in the service of Nurgle, the timeless nature of existence within the Warp is a gift beyond measure. Many of the lessons and experiences that lesser mortals are unable to fully appreciate, let alone comprehend in any significant way, are theirs to explore.

It gives these warriors an eternity to ponder the grandeur of their master's plan for ultimate corruption. The many diseases they have within them are given time to percolate and properly evolve into ever more deadly forms. Perhaps best of all, it may allow them to live long enough to see rot claim the body and soul of the False Emperor as He withers away to nothing on His Golden Throne.

While the unfocused followers of Tzeentch waste time in futile attempts to find new ways to breach the Imperial Palace, the patient Chaos Space Marines of Nurgle know that inevitability is their ally. They have but to wait for the great victory, for nothing is eternal - not even the Emperor and His domain. For these enlightened and blighted warriors, the Long War does not seem as long as it does to others.

This is not to say they do not harbour the same righteous hatred for their former brothers that all Traitor Legions share. While they know they could simply wait for victory to come to them, they choose to follow the example of Nurgle himself and take a more active role in the downfall and renewal of the galaxy.

Eternity offers them many ways to revel in the joy of living and to gain satisfaction from the death they can bring to their enemies. There are a thousand worlds ripe for virus bombing. Billions of souls wait to be tormented by plagues of the spirit. The flesh and bones of entire Space Marine Chapters are there to be harvested and used as experimental subjects for Nurgle's constantly mutating catalogue of diseases. It is the duty and privilege of the veterans of the Long War to see to it that no opportunity to further the great cycle through acts of vengeance upon the Emperor's lapdogs passes by.

The betrayals committed against the Legions in the days of Horus' war against the bonds of undeserved servitude to the False Emperor are fresh in the minds of all who fought in those days. Let Khorne's brainless savages mutilate the warriors of the Adeptus Astartes. Such violence has a place.

If the appetites of Slaanesh's brain-addled devotees get lost in the pleasures of the kill, so be it. Even the erratic, misguided actions of Tzeentch's minions can, at times, create diversions that force the enemies of the Ruinous Powers to weaken.

None of this can compare to the all-encompassing totality of the Plaguelord's grand design. As empires crumble, stars collapse upon themselves and each and every pathetic Space Marine Chapter fades from memory, Grandfather Nurgle and his chosen servants will have the last laugh. The galaxy will die, and from its death throes a new existence shall come into being, with Nurgle ruling as lord over it all. Not a single one of the Emperor's loyal, wretched offspring shall persist to sully it.

Noise Marine battle

A Noise Marine of the Emperor's Children in battle

Perfection is normally an impossible goal to achieve. Life is finite, and there is only so much that can be done through its course. Time pushes ever onward, stealing opportunities and exchanging them for failures and regrets. This is the truth of existence for all creatures in the mortal realm.

There are, however, places where the rules that govern reality are suspended, where time can be slowed, stopped, or even reversed. Warp rifts such as the Eye of Terror and the Screaming Vortex are such places. Within these treacherous domains, the ancient veterans of the Long War experience time differently than those who fear to enter.

Time is theirs to do with as they please. They can spend it honing their skills, plotting vengeance, and practicing their deadly arts - and as it is said, practice makes perfect. The Emperor's Children and other Space Marines whom the Dark Prince released from the shackles of Imperial dogma have had thousands of standard years to revel in their freedom.

Like all the warriors who fought the Emperor's tyranny, these Chaos Space Marines have a burning hatred of the Emperor and His simple minions smouldering within them. Unlike those others, they have found pleasure in the intensity of this hatred, and this has shown them the value of an existence in the borders between realspace and the Realm of Chaos.

There they are free to linger over an emotion, to savour the sensations of the passions they feel. They can expose themselves to delightful torments, immerse themselves in debauched distractions, and experiment with new and gratifying ways to pursue their desire for revenge.

Let Khorne be content with simply killing, or Tzeentch with his black schemes. A warrior of Slaanesh has much more interesting things to do to his enemies than merely ending their lives, and within the timeless realms he and his subjects can experience and experiment with them all.

Tzeentch

Tzeentch has long been associated with the struggle against the hated Imperium. Some dare whisper that it was his schemes that led to the Heresy itself, with his invisible tendrils guiding such small events as the discovery of a blade able to mortally wound even a Primarch, the rivalries that led Legion to fight Legion, or the hubris that led a Primarch to disobey his father and His edicts.

Such suppositions must remain merely that, for it is also possible they are all mere rumours designed to ensnare the weak-minded with further evidence of the power of Tzeentch. It is clear, though, that the Changer of Ways has been an active force in the Long War for untold ages. It may be that he required the Emperor to be brought low, lest Mankind perhaps escape his grasp - or that he cares not which faction emerges the victor and views the endless conspiracies and plots as part of an amusing game.

Such motivations would be far removed from rational thought, but the ways of Tzeentch are beyond mere sanity and no mortal mind can possibly encompass even a fraction of his roiling will. Like the Great Ocean of psychic energy he was created from, Tzeentch is perhaps more a force that must be respected and endured than controlled and harnessed. The Impossible Realm is littered with the gibbering, drooling Chaos Spawn that had thought themselves ready to bind or comprehend the smallest shard of the Changer of Ways, but there are always more who will join them in time.

In the end, all who serve the Dark Gods must remember that Tzeentch is the Father of Lies and Deceit. As such, some Heretics may choose to accept the accounts they have read or experienced at face value or assume that, when it comes to Tzeentch, there is no true dogma.

All is Change, even what most would consider to be incontrovertible facts that establish empires. Anything xenos species or human followers of the "Corpse God" believe and perpetuate regarding the Great Conspirator may have also been influenced by his distortions. For those who would follow the Changer of Ways, manipulating fact and affirming myth are but a small part of the Great Game.

Notable Events of the Long War

The Long War has raged for ten thousand standard years. The bitterness and spite of the Chaos Space Marines has spread throughout the galaxy, spilling from the Warp and bleeding back again for time immemorial. Though the Inquisition takes great pains to quell reports of Chaos incursions in order to spare the common populace of the Imperium from confronting unconventional thought, the legends and records of Chaos' Long War persist across the galaxy, handed down through the generations by the foolish and the brave:

The Long War Begins (ca. 014.M31) - Following the death of the Arch-Traitor Horus, and the retreat of the Traitor Legions into the great Warp Rift known as the Eye of Terror, the surviving Chaos Space Marines, thirsty for revenge, strike out against the Imperium from the depths of the Eye. The Adepts of the Administratum are horrified to find that the number of their invasions consistently increases with every passing solar decade.

1st Black Crusade (781.M31) - Abaddon the Despoiler made many blood pacts with the Dark Gods in the wake of Horus' defeat during the Horus Heresy. In 781.M31, Abaddon made his first attempt to launch a new offensive against the Imperium of Man following the Horus Heresy and initiated the 1st Black Crusade, also known as the First Battle of Cadia. The 1st Black Crusade marked the first assault by the Forces of Chaos upon that Fortress World in the Cadian Gate. Following the relative success of this deadly incursion across the Segmentum Obscurus, the Ruinous Powers grant Abaddon the means to further increase his already formidable power. On the world of Uralan, by the will of the Dark Gods, Abaddon recovered the Daemonsword Drach'nyen after battling his way through a haunted labyrinth to the great inner chamber where the blade had languished in stasis for millennia. The howling sword contained the bound essence of a dangerous Warp entity who had the power to rend reality apart wherever the weapon strikes. After the recovery of the malefic sword, Abaddon's power swelled to inhuman proportions and he was recognised as Horus Lupercal's true successor amongst the Traitor Legions, the new Warmaster of Chaos.

Perturabo's Plague (ca. 400.M32) - The Daemon Primarch Perturabo perverts the eight rituals of possession, turning them against his enemies. Invoking Nurgle, Perturabo imbues his curse with extreme contagion and releases it into the mechanical systems of Toil, a vassal Forge World. The raw Chaos spreads through the machines, and the hidden manufactoria begin to change. On the eighth solar day, giant cables burst from the earth, daemonic machines hunt the living, and many-legged cathedrals of industry prowl the wastes. The planet is ultimately scoured of all native flesh.

2nd Black Crusade (597.M32) - Abaddon places a terrible curse upon the worlds of the Belis Corona Sector, infusing them with the touch of the Warp. Meanwhile, his fleet attacks the sector's orbital Imperial shipyards, destroying dozens of Imperial Cruisers being constructed or repaired. Before the Imperium can muster its strength to fight back, the Despoiler retreats into the Eye of Terror, his works complete.

The Feral War (ca. 112.M33) - Whilst mining the Feral World of Aggaros, the Adeptus Mechanicus engage in what at first seems like an embarrassingly one-sided battle - that is until the primitives bring their flame-tongued shamans into the fray. The armies of the Adeptus Mechanicus find themselves burnt from the inside or crushed flat by invisible forces. The retreating Tech-priests call in an old debt from the Relictors Chapter in order to renew the attack. Four solar days later, the Relictors' 3rd Company fights its way through psychic pyrotechnics of bewildering force to reach the hidden city of the primitive tribes. Lining every road are dust-caked statues of the Thousand Sons, each facing a colossal effigy of Ahriman atop a pyramid of obsidian. Captain Excorius orders the statue of Ahriman torn down. As it topples, every one of the Thousand Sons comes to life, shrugging off the dust of centuries and opening fire on the Relictors with a hail of coruscating bolts. Not one of the Adeptus Mechanicus, nor their Relictors allies, survive.

3rd Black Crusade (909.M32) - The Despoiler sends the Daemon

Prince Tallomin against the Cadian Gate in a reckless and bloody frontal assault. The daemonic horde that follows in Tallomin's wake accounts for the destruction of millions of lives and draws in Astra Militarum regiments and Space Marine Chapters from across the Segmentum Obscurus. Eventually, warriors of the Space Wolves manage to send Tallomin howling back into the Warp. Under the cover of the attack, Abaddon leads a dedicated strike force to desecrate the Shrine World of Gerstahl, breaking the ancient seal on the Imperial Saint's tomb and utterly destroying his remains whilst the Imperium's attention is elsewhere. This was done to prevent the saint from returning as a Living Saint who would interfere with the Despoiler's plans as had been foretold by prophecy.

4th Black Crusade (001.M34) - Also known as the El'Phanor War, during this Black Crusade the Black Legion besieges the great Citadel of Kromarch. Abaddon leads the charge against the adamantium gates of the famously unbreachable citadel upon the world of El'Phanor. Only one in ten of Abaddon's spearhead reach the gates before they are trapped by Heavy Bolter fire. Utilising his Daemon Sword Drach'nyen, the gates of the citadel prove harder than diamond, but they split apart like cordwood before Abaddon's dolorous blow. In an orgy of violence, the Traitor Legions and their daemonic allies fall upon Kromarch and his kin, extinguishing their ancient line forever.

The Shattering (764.M34) - The Eldar Craftworld Lugganath comes under vicious attack from a psychically-shielded fleet of Emperor's Children. The Eldar vessels destroy the first wave of fighters, but the sheer number of Chaos Space Marine dropships forces a breach in the Craftworld's defences. After a bitterly fought boarding action, a teleport relay is established in the Plaza of Reflection and the Emperor's Children begin to deploy en masse. The Eldar seal off the breach with surgical precision, but they realise their foe's true intent too late. At the heart of the plaza, several hundred Noise Marines combine their Sonic Weapons into a psychic explosion that thrums louder and louder throughout Lugganath's psychoplastic architecture until the air fills with screams. Cracks appear across the Craftworld's sweeping arches, and the thin spires crumble down onto the raging battle below. Seeing the terrible devastation, the Autarchs of Lugganath authorised the use of Hemlock Wraithfighters, eventually causing the Emperor's Children to retreat. During their withdrawal, they were pursued every step by vengeful Harlequins.

The Red Dawn of Iriad IV (437.M35) - Iriad IV, a fortified Industrial World on the cusp of the Eye of Terror, is invaded by a tide of World Eaters. Captain Revellion, of the Ebon Knights Chapter, leads his men against his Traitor cousins in a bitterly fought war that sees the corpse count rise spectacularly quickly. The battle tears across the planet until less than a company of warriors remains on either side. Whilst the World Eaters do not care that so many of their number have fallen, Captain Revellion is driven to desperation by the loss of so many of his men and mutters a prayer into the night. Solar hours later, covered head to toe in blood, Revellion stalks out from the shadows with a dripping Chainsword in either hand. His men shout in fierce joy as the last of the World Eaters falls, though their victory soon turns to ashes. Unstoppable, Captain Revellion hacks a swathe through the remaining Ebon Knights. He does not stop there. The rampaging Captain attacks anything that moves, including his own reflection. District after district is depopulated as Revellion's pact with Khorne bears slow but terrible fruit. Iriad IV's remaining population is evacuated and the planet is declared Perditas.

The Green Death (437.M36) - The infected Ork warbands invading the Ecclesiarchy world of Sanctia evince a terrible new barbarism. They fall upon the planet's defenders and consume them bodily, devouring the living and the dead alike, as if compelled by a daemonic hunger. Bloating and swelling, the Orks become obese monstrosities that can move only at a snail's pace. Puzzled by this strange reprieve, the Adepta Sororitas systematically purge the Orks with flame and Bolter. It is then that Mortarion and his Death Guard make planetfall. The skeletally thin Daemon Primarch looms over the bodies of the Orks as he stalks to the front lines. At his passing, each Ork bursts apart in a shower of foul fluids, and dozens of Nurglings spill out from their remains to follow their master. Sanctia falls to the Green Death within twenty solar hours of Mortarion's arrival, and the plague spreads across the Ecclesiarchy-held star system at an unstoppable pace.

5th Black Crusade (723.M36) - Abaddon scours the Elysia Sector, raiding hundreds of worlds and causing untold death and destruction. On the world of Tarinth, the Despoiler lures the Warhawks and Venerators Chapters into the ruins of Kasyr Lutein where he traps them between the daemonic hordes of Khorne and the forces of the Black Legion. In a bitter last stand, both Loyalist Chapters are utterly destroyed, their skulls taken by the ancient Daemon Prince Doombreed, whose existence precedes that of the Imperium itself, to be mounted upon the mighty throne of Khorne.

The Great Degeneration (836.M36) - After the unremitting violence of the xenocidal Quietus Campaign, the Annihilators Chapter finally succumbs to blood psychosis. Those of the Chapter still able to act rationally gather at their fortress-monastery in the hope of finding absolution. Instead of redeeming their sins, however, their corrupted Chaplains lead them in an ancient ritual, leaving their souls wide open to daemonic influence. Every member of the Chapter is possessed over the course of a single moonlit night, shifting form and devolving into armoured half-daemon monstrosities. Calling themselves the Beasts of Annihilation, the brethren go to war again, though this time it is the Imperium that feels their wrath.

6th Black Crusade (901.M36) - The Sons of the Eye were a splinter warband of the Black Legion, founded and commanded by the infamous Chaos Lord Drecarth the Sightless, the Blind Butcher of Irridous VII. Drecarth was a former Battle-Brother of the Sons of Horus who had fought alongside Abaddon during the Great Crusade and the Horus Heresy that followed. Always jealous of the Primarch Horus' favour for the Despoiler, the Sons of the Eye considered Abaddon a usurper. During the 6th Black Crusade launched in 901.M36, Abaddon visited his wrath upon Drecarth the Sightless and his treacherous warband. Abaddon aided the Sons of the Eye in an assault on the Forge World of Arkreach, fighting side-by-side with them until the Adeptus Mechanicus defenders were finally crushed. The triumphant Abaddon then slowly killed Drecarth, impaling him with the Talon of Horus, even as the Despoiler made him watch every member of the Sons of the Eye bow before their new master.

The Abyssal Crusade (321.M37-112.M38) - Warp Storm Dionys ripples across the galaxy, its ghastly energies polluting a wide swathe of star systems. In addition to billions of Imperial citizens, no less than thirty Space Marine Chapters are judged by the charismatic Saint Basillius to be tainted. The Ecclesiarchal lord gives a choice to those so judged - seek redemption in the Eye of Terror or be exterminated. Without exception, the Judged Chapters choose to embark upon a redemptive Imperial Crusade aimed at purging the Daemon Worlds of the Eye of Terror. Within that great Warp rift, some of the Chapters are lost forever or destroyed, and a few turn Renegade in order to survive. The most resolute return to the Imperium nearly 800 standard years later, having discovered that their accuser, Saint Basillius himself, is a servant of Chaos. The corrupted saint's demise is swift and bloody.

Molochai's Folly (772.M37) - Lured by promises of power, Sevastos Molochai, the power-hungry Planetary Governor of Urskas Sol Tetra, makes long-range contact with a coven of Word Bearers Chaos Space Marines. Within eight solar weeks, his planet is turned from a thriving Industrial World into a daemon-infested nightmare.

7th Black Crusade (ca. 811.M37) - During the course of the Ghost War, the Blood Angels join in battle against Abaddon's horde upon the world of Mackan. The Despoiler mercilessly singles out the Sons of Sanguinius, personally leading a band of Khorne Berzerkers in a gore-spattered assault against the Blood Angels' Devastator positions. Though only a handful of the Traitors survive the teeth of the Loyalists' guns, the Blood Angels' Assault Marines are unable to reclaim the bodies of their fallen brothers, which are desecrated by the Despoiler's frenzied warband.

8th Black Crusade (999.M37) - Abaddon the Despoiler completes a complex ritual of death in the name of Tzeentch, the Changer of Ways. On worlds throughout the Segmentum Obscurus, Imperial citizens are slaughtered in precise numbers and esoteric rituals. Only when the Inquisition finally breaks the code of damnation is the Imperium able to bring an end to the Black Legion's rampage across the Segmentum in time with these mysterious attacks, but not before countless worlds have been saturated in death.

9th Black Crusade (537.M38) - The 9th Black Crusade was a campaign led by the infamous Chaos Lord Abaddon the Despoiler and his Black Legion, launched out of the Eye of Terror in 537.M38. Intending to bring about the demise of the naval fortress of Cancephalus, Abaddon lead his forces against the heaving populations of the nearby world of Antecanis. Monarchhive, the hive city that served as the seat of Antecanis' Imperial Commander, was besieged by Abaddon's vanguard. The Black Legionaries burned and butchered their way through the lower levels, whilst Abaddon himself stormed its inner sanctums. The hive populations were slowly destroyed by the slaughter. By the time the forces of the Astra Militarum arrived from Cancephalus to reinforce the desperate survivors, Abaddon and his favoured Legionaries had already left orbit, dropping a dozen Cyclonic Warheads onto the ruins of Monarchhive in a last gesture of contempt. The seventeen-year-long war that ensued robbed both Antecanis and Cancephalus of their most precious resource - manpower. Without the fleets of Cancephalus to stop him, Abaddon is able to ravage the rest of the sector at will. During this time, the Lamenters Chapter is recalled along with a number of other Crusading Chapters by the High Lords of Terra to help deal with the rising threat of incursions from the Eye of Terror. But the Lamenters' fell reputation for suffering bitter reversals and dark turns of fate worked against them during their defence of the Hive World of Corillia from a Chaotic attack. The superstition-bound Mortifactors Chapter refused to fight alongside the Lamenters, abandoning the planet rather than serve besides fellow Astartes they consider cursed. Unwilling to desert the Hive World's population, the Lamenters held out alone against the Black Legion's onslaught for six solar weeks, suffering horrendous losses until the Ultramarines and White Scars led a battle group that broke though the Chaos warfleet to relieve Corillia. Reduced to barely 200 surviving Battle-Brothers by their sacrifice, the Lamenters were deemed lost when their fleet disappeared into a Warp Storm soon afterwards, only to reappear more than a standard century later on the edge of the Segmentum Solar, having slowly battled their way back from the outer void.

10th Black Crusade (001.M39) - This Black Crusade is also known as the Conflict of Helica, and was a joint campaign carried out by Abaddon and the Daemon Primarch Perturabo. Both the Black Legion and the Iron Warriors struck against the worlds of the Scarus Sector's Helican Sub-sector. While the Black Legion attacked the capital world of the sub-sector, the Hive World of Thracian Primaris, the Iron Warriors focused their own assault against the Iron Hands Chapter to fulfil an old blood debt. In a series of bitter sieges, the Iron Warriors burned the Medusa System's outlying worlds and pushed the Iron Hands to the brink of destruction. Only when the Loyalist Chapter receives heavy Imperial reinforcements did Abaddon and the Iron Warriors retreat back to the Eye of Terror, taking with them valuable information about Medusa's defences for use at a later date.

11th Black Crusade (301.M39) - In 301.M39, Abaddon the Despoiler launched his 11th Black Crusade out of the Eye of Terror. In an attempt to break through the cordon of Warp Storms surrounding the Eye into Imperial space, he employed a captured daemon to navigate. The effort proved fruitless, and instead the daemon warped the Black Fleet directly into the path of the Orks of WAAAGH! Murgor. In the ruins of the Cardinal World of Relorria, the Black Legion brought the Orks to battle, Bolter rounds and Chainswords tearing into the green-skinned xenos. After months of bloody warfare, Abaddon decided to leave Relorria to its fate and the Black Legion returned to the nightmare realm of the Eye of Terror - but not before the Warmaster of Chaos filled the holds of his Black Fleet with a multitude of captured Orkoid specimens for later experimentation.

Double-Edge Swords (198-485.M40) - For more than a dozen generations, agents of the Alpha Legion infiltrate the hive slums of Ghorstangrad, homeworld of the Emperor's Swords. Through subtle manipulation of the dominant sects and gangs, the Alpha Legion seed potential future Space Marines with all manner of deviant philosophies and subconscious triggers. Though many of these brainwashed youths are rejected by Librarians and Chaplains, some are recruited into the Chapter nonetheless - a lurking threat unknown even to the recruits themselves. Almost three standard centuries later, the Alpha Legion mounts a full-scale invasion of Ghorstangrad. They are met in open battle by the Emperor's Swords. The Alpha Legion employ hypnotic and disorienting psychic attacks, releasing the nascent personalities of their unknowing infiltrators amongst the defending Battle-Brothers. Within solar hours, the Chapter disintegrates into a morass of battling factions, some of which join forces with the invaders. The Loyalist Emperor's Swords are entirely destroyed, Ghorstangrad is razed and the gene-seed stores of the Chapter are stolen. The Alpha Legion withdraws to the Eastern Fringe, its numbers swollen with new Renegades still covered in the blood of their brethren.

12th Black Crusade (139.M41) - Better known as the Gothic War, this Black Crusade was fought for control of the Gothic Sector in the Segmentum Obscurus between the Chaotic forces of Abaddon the Despoiler and the defenders of the Imperium. Abaddon lead his great fleet into the Gothic Sector, capturing two of the prehistoric xenos-built star forts known as the Blackstone Fortresses. Under Abaddon's control, the might of the Blackstone Fortresses is used to destroy entire worlds in the Gothic Sector during this campaign. The Despoiler's fleet is driven back at great cost, though Abaddon escapes with the Blackstone Fortresses into the Eye of Terror. The vast engines of destruction emerge once more into the material universe during Abaddon's 13th Black Crusade over eight hundred standard years later.

The First War for Armageddon (444.M41) - Imperial forces upon the strategically vital world of Armageddon struggle to contain an armed rebellion that spontaneously breaks out across both the sub-continents of Armageddon Prime and Armageddon Secundus. At the height of the civil war, a Space Hulk enters the system and disgorges a horde from the Daemon Worlds of the Eye of Terror, led by Angron and accompanied by massed warbands of World Eaters. Angron and his daemon armies carry a red path across Armageddon Prime and the conquest of the planet appears inevitable until the Daemon Primarch is delayed drawing Chaos energy to the planet. During the reprieve, the Imperial forces are reinforced not only by Space Wolves from nearby Fenris, but also by a company of one hundred Grey Knights Terminators. Though it cost the lives of all but a handful of the Grey Knights, Angron and his daemonic honour guard of Blood Thirsters are finally driven back into the Warp.

The Constantinus Iconoclasm (746.M41) - The Sons of Guilliman free Nova Terra from a Tyranid attack. Afterwards, Squad Constantinus hunts down remnants of the Hive Fleet, finding Genestealer Cults within the noble families of the capital. The entire ruling class is executed. The outraged population rises up against their Space Marine liberators. His patience gone, Sergeant

Constantinus blames the Imperium for making him a monstrous killer and denounces the Emperor. He swears to lead the populace to a better future, and his conviction is infectious. The old order is thrown down and statues of Constantinus the Liberator are raised in their place. Other servants of the Ruinous Powers soon arrive, drawn by the anarchy and bloodshed. The rebel Sergeant's megalomania escalates until it plunges the whole sector into open war. The mass rebellion ends only when Constantinus is killed by the Officio Assassinorum.

The Plague that Walks (757.M41) - The first outbreak of the Zombie Plague occurs on Hydra Minoris after Typhus and his Death Guard foot soldiers penetrate to the heart of its capital hive. As the living begin to fall prey to the painful disease, its true horror is revealed; the dead victims begin to rise up and attack the living. The resultant Imperial quarantine traps 23 billion uninfected citizens alongside a rising tide of the undead.

The Badab War (901-912.M41) - Lugft Huron, Chapter Master of the Astral Claws, declares himself the Tyrant of Badab and secedes from the Imperium. Eleven standard years of inter-system war follows, embroiling more than a dozen Chapters of the Adeptus Astartes in the first true internecine conflict since the Horus Heresy. Huron's reign is eventually brought to an end, but despite suffering grievous wounds, he escapes into the Warp rift known as the Maelstrom, vowing revenge. he is soon known as the Chaos Lord Huron Blackheart.

The Blood Tithe (920.M41) - The Tau Empire expands into uncharted territory, hoping to bring new populations into their fold. The Tau diplomats forge an uneasy peace upon the planet of Ur-Clemait, a world that has been consumed with civil war for centuries, simply by supplying one side of the warring factions with high-technology Pulse Weapons. Though most of the remaining population seems content with the Tau's enforced pacification, the elders and priests of the Old Faith are distraught, insisting that the Blood Tithe must continue to be met. While most of the wizened priests refuse to incite rebellion against the xenos, several attack the Tau directly, clawing feebly at their Battlesuits or even taking their own lives in messy displays of martyrdom. The puzzled Tau continue their mission of absorption and assimilation, but before the year is out, the Word Bearers arrive to enforce the neglected Blood Tithe. They attack the newly prosperous world of Ur-Ciemait in terrible force, chanting prayers of appeasement to the Dark Gods as they mow down human and xenos alike. The Tau Fire Caste meet the invasion head-on, and the world is plunged into an ongoing war far more terrible than the ritual struggles of old that had once provided payment.

The Vaxhallian Genocides (926.M41) - The vile Chaos Renegades known as The Purge seek to vent their hatred of all living things, and choose the verdant Imperial world of Vaxhallia as their victim. The planet's surface is soon riddled the consumptive disease and crippling famine. Over the course of a single solar month, The Purge engineer the destruction of no fewer than fourteen billion Imperial citizens.

The Wolf at Bay (937.M41) - Mustering five companies of Space Wolves, as well as the Cadian 30lst and the Tallarn 14th, the decorated Inquisitor Pranix attempts to reclaim the nine Hollow Worlds of Lastrati from the traitorous Red Corsairs, the Renegade survivors of the Astral Claws. The Drop Pods of the Space Wolves crash straight through the Hollow Worlds' algae-encrusted surface, and war soon rages throughout the catacombs beneath. Huron Blackheart collapses pre-selected portions of his tunnel networks with cold precision and timing, isolating and destroying much of the Imperial army sent against him. The invading forces are forced to withdraw.

The Terminus Est (969.M41) - The plagueship Terminus Est is sighted in the Cando System. It disappears soon after, but it is already too late. The Zombie Plague ravages all of the planets in the system over the following months, exposing the worst in human nature as brother turns against brother in their desperation to survive.

Skulls of the Skull Throne (992.M41) - Having long ago amassed more human skulls than he knew what to do with, Roghrax Bloodhand, of the World Eaters, swears to collect a skull from every warrior species in the galaxy and offer them up for the throne of his master, Khorne. Bloodhand's masterwork takes a dramatic new turn with the coming of the Tyranid fleets into the galaxy. Making havoc for the Eastern Fringe, the maniacal trophy collector leads his fleet directly into the path of Hive Fleet Kraken. Delighted at the prospect of collecting such large and impressive skulls, he reaps a grisly bounty from the Tyranids, which become more varied after every battle.

The Night of the Steel Daemon (995.M41) - Unbeknownst to the settlers that make their home upon its crust, the dormant volcanic planet of Abheilüng is honeycombed with subterranean forge-vaults where the Dark Mechanicum lurk. As protein farms and hab-blocks are established high above, the Warpsmiths below use the livid heat of the planet's core to bind daemons unto their allies' strange machines. The surface settlers continue to expand, until one night, all the volcanoes across Abheilüng erupt spectacularly, incinerating millions in an immense pyroclastic cloud. Out from the molten depths climb great hosts of Daemon Engines, magma-clad horrors that spill like insects from each volcano's caldera. The mechanical horde depopulates Abheilüng in less than a solar month.

The Tyrant and the Wolf (995.M41) - Huron Blackheart stages a counterassault upon Parenxes, a world defended by the Death Hawks and Space Wolves. During the engagement, a series of Red Corsairs strike forces manage to board, disable and capture the Space Wolf Strike Cruiser, the Wolf of Fenris.

The Sons of the Maelstrom (980.999.M41) - A massive Chaos Space Marine fleet emerges from the Maelstrom with three dozen daemon-infested Space Hulks. The massed fleet brings the Chogoris, Kaelas and Sessec Systems to their knees, establishing a stranglehold over their space lanes.

The Great Awakening (982.999.M41) - A ripple of psychic activity passes through the Imperium awakening the dormant powers of latent psykers across the galaxy. The resultant backlash creates innumerable Warp rifts, and countless worlds are lost to daemonic incursions. The Thousand Sons are seen in unprecedented numbers as the psychic apocalypse runs its course.

The Night of a Thousand Rebellions (992.999.M41) - Carefully seeded rebellions sown across Segmentum Pacificus all bear their bloody fruit upon the same night. Uprisings and discord strike at the heart of hundreds of worlds, including the supposedly secure Imperial strongholds of Enceladus, Darkhold and Minisotira. Contact is lost with large swathes of the Segmentum as the Chaos Space Marines move in, revealing themselves as the orchestrators of the insurrection.

The Fall of Villamus (994.999.M41) - After a series of daring raids leaves the titanic fortress-monastery of the Marines Errant garrisoned only by a single company of Space Marines, Huron Blackheart sends his Night Lords allies to infiltrate the fastness and bring down its power shields and Defence Lasers. Teleporting in from low orbit, Chaos Terminators launch a sledgehammer assault upon the fortress' Apothecarion as Huron Blackheart simultaneously moves in to steal the Chapter's relics. Caught in the horns of a dilemma, the outnumbered and outmanoeuvred Space Marines fail to repel the invasion. The Red Corsairs withdraw with nearly all of the Chapter's gene-seed, dooming the Marines Errant to a slow demise.

13th Black Crusade (995.999.M41) - The greatest of the Champions of Chaos, Abaddon the Despoiler, launches an all-out attack by the Forces of Chaos upon the Fortress World of Cadia and the strategic Cadian Gate, the route by which the servants of the Ruinous Powers may once more strike towards sacred Terra. The Traitor Legions pour forth from the Eye of Terror, emptying a hundred Daemon Worlds and bursting into realspace in hitherto unforeseen numbers. Rumours persist that the Daemon Primarchs ride at the head of the armies, returned to the mortal realm to usher in the End Times. Imperial forces counterattack, but there is no end to the forces of the Dark Gods. The Forces of Chaos succeed in destroying the defenders of Cadia and the Fortress World is finally claimed by the Warp as the Eye of Terror gives birth to the Great Rift that cuts the galaxy in half. Many fear that with all the threats the Imperium is facing simultaneously, the End Times have indeed arrived for Mankind. The Noctis Aeterna shrouds the galaxy as the power of Chaos waxes as never before.

THE END

Another awesome Are You Afraid of The Dark chapter done.

Ian Kazex was one of the worst villains of Are You Afraid of The Dark that I have seen in the series. NicoChan11 and ArchangelOfJustice12 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is an a chapter where we explore the Earth-like planet in orbit around a Gas Giant Planet called The Blue Moon and that's gonna be a really educational experience for us. It's a non-combat chapter and it will show you how the Blue Moon looks from Space and from its surface.

See you all tomorrow.

Exploring the Extraterrestrial Blue Moon

In the middle of the city, we were walking to the Gotham Royal York Mall.

Me: So far things have been very quiet.

Nico: Yep.

Lincoln: It's great that we're going to the mall for some activity time.

Laney: Yep. We haven't gone shopping in a while.

Lana: I know. We've been so busy that we haven't done anything fun.

We just entered the mall to see Snake Jailbird at the entrance.

Snake: (smiling) Hey there, dudes!

Fiona: (confused) Snake? Why are you here? Are you helping out the Kobra terrorists?

Snake: Nope! Speaking of said terrorists, you're gonna love what we have set up right now.

Me: Okay.

We followed Snake to the Food Court and we saw the Masters of Evil there. But we also saw a bunch of Kobra Terrorists tied up and dangling over a huge tank full of sulfuric acid and the rope is linked to a winch operated by Dark Spicer. We saw that everyone was there to watch the Kobra terrorists die.

Me: Whoa what's all this?

Vypra: You should know J.D. We are gonna kill the terrorists that nearly drove you all to quit and give them a funeral to remember in Hell.

Electro: You know what's great about you, boss? You really put the "fun" in "funeral".

Lincoln: What are you talking about? No one died today, right?

Bane: (Spanish Accent) No. But you, J.D., and the other Loud Kids did nearly quit because of these fools.

Me: I see.

Dark Spicer: Dear friends… Today is the day that the Masters of Evil cried. And we cry not for the passing of one person, but for the near death of a dream. I'm talking about the time J.D. and the Loud Kids nearly quit the hero business. Despite them being our rivals, we don't want them to quit. Or go to jail. Because they're too nice for that. No. We prefer the good relationship between us where we fight one another. Like Hydro Man spraying Luna with water.

Hydro Man: (laughs) Got that right!

Luna laughed

Dark Spicer: Or Bane punching Laney in the face.

Bane: (chuckles) That is correct!

Laney: (Offended) HEY!

Dark Spicer: (glares at the Kobra terrorists) But those dreams were nearly dashed by the weaselly little douchebags sitting there in our midst. The cowardly insignificant assholes who probably got lucky when they got that hostage hurt and caused J.D. and the Loud's to nearly throw in the towel! Those mounds of diseased hyena filth who aren't even fit to spit-shine my boots!

Vypra: (kisses Dark Spicer on the cheek) Calm down, Dark. The time for sorrow has passed. It's time to look ahead to a future filled with smiles.

Dark Spicer: (smiles) You're right. And we'll be smiling again shortly. (gestures to the Kobra terrorists) Just as soon as we take those men there. (gestures to some boxes) And slap them in those boxes there.

(gestures to vat of acid) And roll them into that vat of acid there!

Everyone roared in agreement.

Man 1: NO ONE MAKES OUR HEROES QUIT!

Man 2: YEAH! KILL THEM ALL!

Man 3: SEND THEM OFF TO HELL!

Vypra: FYI, Dark Spicer made that vat of acid with Slimepuss.

Me: Whoa. This is gonna be good.

Harley Quinn: This is just like the funeral Mr. J did for Sid the Squid.

Batman: I remember that.

Vypra: Kill them.

Dark Spicer pressed a button and lowered the Kobra Terrorists slowly. They struggled a lot as they were lowered down to the acid.

William: How are you feeling, Drakkon?

Drakkon: Well, I have recovered from the slash that Kazex gave me. We were going to recruit him but after that attempt on our lives, we changed our minds.

Me: Good.

We saw the Kobra Terrorists get dunked into the acid and they screamed in excruciating pain as they were being dissolved and we cringed and winced as they were eaten up by the acid.

Me: YICHIHUAHUAS! That's gonna sting.

Nico: But those terrorists have failed this universe.

Vince: Good riddance to bad rubbish.

Shiv did a mock version of Taps.

Maria: So you guys tried to Mega Evolve your Pokemon?

Vypra: We wanted to see if all our Pokemon could Mega Evolve in order to better combat yur powered up forms.

Dark Spicer: Unfortunately, some of our Pokemon ended up Mega Evolving.

Me: That's because you need to have special minerals that correspond to that kind of Pokemon. (Holds a book up) Misty gave me this book about the kinds of stones needed for each Pokemon that can Mega Evolve.

Vypra: I see.

Me: It's really something. Lord Drakkon showed me his Mega Charizard and Mega Salamence. He used Charizardite and Salamencite for them.

Vypra: Wow.

Me: But finding minerals that Mega Evolve Pokemon is really hard. They can only be found in certain places that are very hard to get to.

Vypra: That's interesting.

Me: It sure is. I also found out that there are a bunch of Pokemon Mega Evolution Forms never before accessed. Watch this one. Xerneas, you ready?

Xerneas: You bet.

Xerneas turned back into her Pokemon form.

Vypra: Wow! You have the legendary Pokemon of life as one of your fiancés!?

Me: Yep. She's an incredible Pokemon and amazing woman. Watch.

I reached into my pocket and pulled out a blue mineral and it had a rainbow cats-eye in it.

Me: This mineral is called Xerneasite. Watch this. Xerneas Mega Evolve!

The gem glowed and went into Xerneas and she glowed and turned into MEGA XERNEAS! Her antlers glowed with the colors of the rainbow and she had broader shoulder spikes and there were butterflies coming out of her. She was taller and bigger than before and her power increased 100-fold.

Me: Meet Mega Xerneas!

Nico: Whoa! Xerneas is even more beautiful than ever!

Lincoln: Incredible!

Laney: Wow! This is incredible!

Lana: That is cool!

Lily: Amazing!

Vypra: Most impressive.

Lord Drakkon: The fight with me had you learn something.

Me: It sure did. And it got me into the Mega Pokemon theme.

Lord Drakkon: It sure did.

Misty Tredwell: Someday we'll have Pokemon too.

Me: Maybe. But It'll be cool if you all have Pokemon that correspond with each of the Earthbound Immortals. But something stumps me.

Roman: What's that J.D.?

Me: We already saw the Condor, Whale, Lizard, Monkey, Hummingbird, and Spider Earthbound Immortals. How come we haven't seen Earthbound Immortals that correspond to the rest of the Nazca Lines?

Roman: That's a very good question.

Me: Thanks. And just a couple of years ago a sandstorm unearthed the Snake Nazca Line. The Satellites showed us.

Roman: I see.

Varie: Yeah. Hey where's Carly?

Devack: Oh she's with Jack at that table over there.

We saw them having an awesome ice cream milkshake.

Me: Aww.

Nico: So romantic.

May: It sure is.

We laughed.

Later we were in the U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix flying through the endless void of space.

Me: Captain's Log, Stardate 2825.7: The U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix is currently en route to a new planet located 50 light-years away from Earth. It is a planet that I remember seeing in a documentary that I know all too well. We're going on an awesome exploration there to see it.

Poliwag: What planet are we visiting this time?

Me: It's a really cool one that I remember seeing in a documentary.

Nico: If it's from a documentary it must be really cool.

Me: It sure is.

Laney: This is gonna be amazing.

Lisa Loud: J.D. we have arrived at our location.

Me: On screen.

We arrived at a strange Twin Star Solar System and we were in front of a huge Gas Giant Planet. It was 60 times larger than Jupiter and it was a massive planet.

Me: Whoa! That is a tremendous Gas Giant Planet.

Eddy: Talk about Gassy! (Rimshot)

We laughed at Eddy's Joke.

Luan: (Laughs) Good one Eddy.

Me: That was funny. And we arrived at our destination. Welcome to the Blue Moon.

We saw a beautiful Earth-Like Planet in orbit right around the Gas Giant planet. It was the same size as Earth and it was right next to the Gas Giant Planet.

Double D: So this is a Blue Moon.

Me: It's not A Blue Moon. It's called the Blue Moon. It's an Earth Planet in orbit around a huge Gas Giant Planet.

Varie: Wow! That is so cool.

Ben: Does anyone live here?

Me: No. The Atmosphere is so dense that humans wouldn't live here.

Nico: Wow.

We stationed the ship about the planet.

Me: Wow. It looks so much like an ocean planet.

Lily: It sure does.

Me: Lets go check out the planet.

We got off the ship and flew down to the surface of the planet.

We sniffed in the air.

Me: (Sniffs) Whoa! The air is really dense.

Lisa Loud: Scans show that the oxygen levels are at 30%.

Laney: Wow! It's really thick here.

Nicole: It's like how the Earth was during the Carboniferous Period back 350 million years ago.

Hunter: (German Accent) Ja. Really something.

We breached the clouds and we saw that the surface was covered by a massive ocean of trees and they all had pools of water all on top of them.

Me: Whoa! Look at that!

Laney: It's a massive ocean of trees.

Lola: And they all have pools of water on top.

Lori: Incredible! What looks like water from space is literally a massive ocean of trees.

Nico: This is unbelievable. I've never seen something like this before.

Lincoln: This is incredible.

Me: Lets get closer.

We went down and saw that the forests had huge pools of water and they were really cool. It was called The Pagoda Forest!

---

The Pagoda trees of Blue Moon are much bigger than Earth's trees. They grow to a size of 210 metres (688.968 feet), creating giant forests matching their limbs. Rain water collects in large pools on their leafs. The pagoda trees absorb as much water as they need, but there is still enough water for several lifeforms living inside the pools. The kite fishes these lifeforms.

---

Me: Wow. These trees are huge!

Nico: They must be 700 feet tall.

Lisa Loud: Actually from the looks of things it's 688.968 feet tall.

Lucy Loud: It sure is a tall forest.

Luan: Really something.

Nico: These trees cover the whole planet. It's amazing.

Lola and Lana climbed into one of the pools in the trees.

Lana: Wow! the water is really warm and perfect in here.

Lola: It's like a swimming pool.

I touched the water and it was as warm as a swimming pool's water.

Me: It is perfect.

Laney: It's just like a swimming pool.

Lori: Peaceful.

Then we saw a bunch of strange bugs. They were Helibugs.

---

Helibugs are small flyers of the Blue Moon . They have a trilateral symmetry, having three wings and three legs. Their young appear as large pink larva that rest in the Pagoda's sky ponds. Little else is known about them.

Some helibugs are seen having their entire bodies glowing yellowish when flying at the pagoda forests floor.

---

Me: Whoa! Those are Helibugs.

Lana: Wow. They look really cool.

Laney: So cool.

We looked up at the sky and we saw the view of the Gas Giant Planet and the two suns was amazing.

Me: Wow. The view of the Gas Giant Planet and the Twin Suns is amazing.

Lincoln: It sure is. It's incredible. The planet is like a giant moon.

Then we heard thunder.

Me: Thunder.

We saw a ferocious storm coming towards us.

(THUNDERCLAP!)

Me: That's right guys I forgot to mention. This is a very volatile world. Forest fires are constantly ignited by lightning and fueled by the high oxygen levels here. Because of the High Oxygen levels here, wildfires burn far more ferociously.

Lola: Geez!

Lily: That is scary!

Edwayl: (Breton Accent) Terrifying lads.

Then we saw a huge tentacle dangle down into the Pagoda Forest pools and we saw that it was coming from a huge floating creature that looked like a huge parasail. It was called a Giant Kite!

---

The Kite is a large flying life form native to Blue Moon. It looks like a kite because it is anchored to a tree with one of its tentacles and sailing in the wind, using their tethers to help control their flosting and properly position themselves to feed. The other tentacles are hung down to Helibug larvae in the pools of the pagoda trees, which are known as skyponds. On the bottom of the kite there are multiple mouths to eat their prey.

Me: Whoa! Look at that!

Nico: That creature looks like a giant Parasail.

Me: It's a giant Kite. They look like giant Parasails huh?

Laney: It sure does. And they use their tentacles to eat the Helibugs.

Lana: Wow. Amazing.

We then heard what sounded like a whale song and we flew over the cliff and we saw the biggest creatures on the Blue Moon. It was the Skywhales!

The Sky Whales are the biggest flying life forms of Blue Moon, reaching 5.25 meters in body length and supported by a 10 meters wingspan. Although they weigh up to 800 kg, they're able to float through the sky because the atmosphere of Blue Moon is much thicker than Earth's atmosphere. These grazers spend their entire life on the wing eating small algae living in the sky of the planet. Their only predator are swarms of Caped Stalkers who are able to kill them because of their majority. They can evade their predators by flying upwards in a spiral pattern, then by diving to be carried by Blue Moon's strong thermal currents.

According to concept art, the sacs on the back of the Sky Whale's head are vocal organs located above the animal's lungs. They inflate slightly as slits behind them open which then emits a sound. Additionally, they depend on echolocation and acute hearing to detect their surroundings as they are blind. The bone structure of their wings have a hexagonal structure which provides great durability.

Me: Whoa! Look at those!

Laney: They look like Whales with wings.

Lana: Amazing!

Me: Those are Skywhales. They are the biggest creatures here.

Nico: Wow! Amazing!

Luna Loud: What are they feeding on?

Lincoln: Look at those strange green clouds. They're feeding on them.

Me: Those are plankton. They are vegetarians. They are filter-feeders.

Vince: Incredible.

Luan: It's amazing.

Carol: It sure is.

Carla: Wow! Mommy this is amazing!

Lori: Wow!

Leni: These creatures are totes amazing!

Me: They sure are.

I heard a squawk sound and we saw a strange blue eagle-like creature. It was a predatory creature called a CAPED STALKER!

---

The Caped Stalker is a social predator native to Blue Moon.

Biology

They live in large colonies, similar to bees, of 300 Stalkers and catch their prey while flying. The scouts mark their prey with a scent that the workers can track. Their favourite prey is the Sky Whale.

Similar to crocodilians, Stalkers have rough skin that, at first glance, would prevent them from moving through the air (in the case of crocodilians it is water). In fact their rough skin grips the air around them and helps them move through the air undetected, just like what the dimples on a golf ball are used for.

---

Me: Whoa! Watch out guys!

We dodged them as they flew by us.

Me: Those are Caped Stalkers. They are very powerful predators here that go after Skywhales. Also they live in a huge colony like the social insects. What we saw was the scouts. They are waiting for one of the Skywhales to drop its guard to single it out for attack from the workers.

Laney: Wow! How many Stalkers are there in each Colony?

Me: Over 300.

Laney: Amazing!

Liberty: Yeah.

Teresa: Really cool.

Me: Lets get down into the Understory of the forest.

We went down into the Understory of the Pagoda Forest and we flew by a bunch of plants that looked like a bunch of Hot Air Balloons. They were called Balloon Plants.

---

The Balloon Plants are huge, balloon-like plants which inhabit Blue Moon. They grow in forests to a height of over 80 metres. If there is a forest fire, the hydrogen-filled balloons explode and the spores are distributed over the surface. The Balloon Plants use photosynthesis like Earth's plants to survive.

---

Laney: Wow! Look at these plants. They look like a bunch of Hot Air Balloons.

Me: These are Balloon Plants. They are plants that look like Hot Air Balloons and they are filled with hydrogen. They use photosynthesis like with Earth's Plants to survive.

Lisa Loud: Very fascinating specimens.

Me: Yep.

We saw a Caped Stalker Scout and we followed it and we saw it get caught in a bunch of sticky tentacles. We saw a tentacle come down and it was a tentacle of a plant predator called a GHOST TRAP!

---

The Ghost Trap is a predator native to Blue Moon. It has got a radial symmetric body with several tentacles to catch Caped Stalkers and take them to the stomach. Along with 5(?) muscly tentacles, they have many more thin, glowing tentacles that its prey get tangled in. After taken to the trap's stomach its prey faces a slow, painful death; dissolving in a bath of acid.

The ghost trap's gushing, red 'mouth' can be covered by an opposable 'lid'.

To avoid the forest fires ignited by lightning, Ghost Traps possibly leap between branches with their tentacles, like monkeys.

---

Me: It's a Ghost Trap.

We saw the plant grab the Caped Stalker and put the Caped Stalker in its mouth and swallowed it.

Me: Yuck.

Lori: Literally.

Nico: But that was cool. It was dinner for a Ghost Trap.

Lincoln: It sure was.

Shanan: Really cool though.

Riley: It's like Carnivorous Plants on Earth.

Me: Yep.

We then flew up and saw the storm and Lightning struck a tree and the forest was lit on fire!

Me: Uh oh! We have ignition!

Within seconds we saw the fires spread very fast.

Me: Whoa!

Nico: Whoa! You weren't kidding. Due to the high oxygen levels, fires are deadlier here.

Me: Yep. Lets head home.

We went back to the ship and headed home.

Back at the Estate, Sailor Moon was telling me about her terrible time with the most dangerous enemies she had ever encountered: THE NEGAMOON FAMILY!

---

The Black Moon Clan (in Japanese: ブラックムーン一族, Burakku Mūn Ichizoku, lit. "Black Moon Family"), also known as the Negamoon Family, is an evil organization existing in the 30th century in the Sailor Moon metaseries.

The Black Moon clan was originally an extremist group who believe that the world order brought about by Neo Queen Serenity is subjugation and that the Legendary Silver Crystal extending the life of every human was against the natural order. The group attracted the attention of Wiseman who guided them to Planet Nemesis where they acquire the Malefic Black Crystal and powers to enact their desire to purge Earth of the White Moon's "poisoned influence". The transition resulted in its members gaining black, upside-down crescent markings on their foreheads (the inverse of the marking of the Silver Millennium), with most wearing earrings made from the Black Crystal.

The group's initial plan was using the time traveling abilities of the Malefic Black Crystal to travel to 20th century Tokyo and alter history to their ideals. But their leader Prince Demand caused the chain of events that led to also hunting down Chibiusa when she escaped into the past with the Silver Crystal of her time. Eventually, the members all die with Demand the last member as he learns that Wiseman used them all for his own agenda. In the 90s Anime, the Specter Sisters survived and reformed.

Negamoon Sisters: Composed of Prizma, Calaveras, Bertie, and Catzi.

---

We gasped in shock.

Nico: They come from the 30th Century?

Leni: What year is that?

Me: That's the year 2900 to the year 3000.

Laney: Wow.

Me: So the Negamoon Clan wants to kill you and the Sailor Scouts and rule the future uncontested.

Sailor Moon: Yes.

Nico: What planet do they come from?

Sailor Moon: They were exiled to the planet Nemesis. It's the 10th Planet from the sun.

I looked it up on the space scanners and saw that the Planet Nemesis was a huge ball of black crystal located on the very distant edge of the Solar System located 35 billion miles away from the Sun.

Me: So that's nemesis. It looks evil.

Sailor Moon: That's right. They will not stop until they kill us.

Me: If it's war they want, it's war they'll get and we'll unleash Armageddon on them. I'm going to send the Negamoon a threatening message.

Nico: If you want to send that threatening message to the Negamoon Clan, go ahead. But before you do that, could you turn around?

Me: (shrugs) Well, alright.

I turned around only for Nico to hit me on the back of the head with my club.

SMASH!

I had stars and planets orbiting around my head.

Me: (Stupidly) But mom, I don't want to go to school. (falls unconscious)

FWOMP!

May: Nico are you nuts!?

Nico: I'm just doing what J.D. told me to do as chief enforcer.

Lincoln: Oh.

I was taken to the infirmary.

THE END

Another exploration fanfic done.

The Blue Moon from 2005's Extraterrestrial was awesome! It was one of my favorite documentaries and it took place on the Hypothetical planet called The Blue Moon. It was so cool and it gave us a prime theory about what life could be life on planets beyond our solar system. NicoChan11 gave me the ideas for this. Thanks man. Next up is a journey through all 9 Star Wars movies for May 4th and it's gonna be an awesome adventure as we take on the greatest battles in all of Star Wars for Star Wars Day 2020!

See you all tomorrow and May the Fourth Be With You.

The Great Star Wars Adventure!

HAPPY STAR WARS DAY 2020! May the Force Be With you.

At the estate, we were getting ready to head out to a great place for a double date with Manaphy, Poromon, Poliwag and Horsea.

Alexis Rhodes: What place do you two have in mind for your dates?

Poromon: J.D. picked a good place for us. It's gonna be awesome.

Poliwag: Yep.

Me: It's gonna be awesome.

I had bandages on my head thanks to Nico.

Me: Shall we head out?

Laney: Lets do it.

We were off.

Out in the meadow of Ohio, I was riding on my Rapidash with everyone following. We were heading to an amazing and unique place that Ash, Misty and Brock went to before. It was called Stone Town and it was at the foot of a famous mountain called Evolution Mountain.

---

In the anime, Stone Town is located in between the Safari Zone and Cinnabar Island, at the foot of Evolution Mountain. It appeared in The Battling Eevee Brothers.

The one part of Stone Town that sets it apart from other places is the fact that it is a popular place to evolve Pokémon with stones. When Ash and his friends arrived in Stone Town, they came across a party where Trainers from all around were evolving their Pokémon. The party was actually meant for Mikey, the youngest of the Eevee brothers, who had yet to evolve his Eevee. In the end, he decided to keep it the way it was, and the brothers eventually decided it was okay for him to do that.

Mikey's older brothers also tried to convince Brock and Ash to evolve their Vulpix and Pikachu, respectively. Both declined, saying they couldn't force their Pokémon to evolve.

---

Me: There it is. Stone Town.

Jessie (Pokemon): I remember this place. We were there to get some Evolution Stones.

Nico: Amazing.

Vince: It sure is.

We arrived at the home of the Eevee Brothers and just our luck, they were having a garden party.

Me: Wow. Here we are guys.

Ash: I remember this house. It's where we met Mikey and his brothers.

We went into the party and we were greeted by Rainer, Sparky and Pyro.

Pyro (Pokemon): Team Loud Phoenix Storm. Welcome.

Me: It's a pleasure to be here.

Ash: Long time no see guys.

Rainer: Its been a while Ash.

Sparky: How have you been?

Ash: Really good.

Rainer: It's an honor to have you all here.

Dawn (Pokemon): It's a pleasure to be here.

Me: Ash and company have a lot of teammates now. He went to a lot of neat places.

Sparky: I can see that.

Mikey: Hey guys!

We saw Mikey.

Misty: Mikey!

Mikey: It's been a while Misty. You're looking good.

Misty: Thank you.

Me: (To Rainer, Sparky and Pyro) I love your matching hair colors and styles. They go perfectly with your Vaporeon, Jolteon and Flareon.

Pyro: Thanks J.D.

Sparky: It's what we like.

Nico: I can see that.

Rainer: Yeah.

Sparky: Why is Team Rocket with you guys?

Me: Well Jessie, James and Meowth aren't with Team Rocket anymore. They got fired before we killed all of Team Rocket.

Pyro: Wow. So they joined you guys now.

Nico: That's right.

Laney: It was a great adventure.

Poromon, Poliwag, Manaphy and Horsea went on their dates at a table and they were enjoying some great food and Skullcruncher was watching.

Skullcruncher: (to Poromon, Poliwag, Manaphy, and Horsea) Do any of you guys want to open with a conversation?

Manaphy: Sure.

They got to talking about all kinds of various things like how they are doing and more.

Me: It's a good date so far.

Rainer: So do you have any Eevee, J.D.?

Me: I sure do.

I pulled out 9 Pokeballs and out came my Eevee, Vaporeon, Jolteon, Flareon, Leafeon, Glacion, Umbreon, Sylveon and Espeon.

Me: Ta-dah!

Sparky: Wow! You have all 9 of Eevee and its evolutions.

Me: Yep. We all met and caught all kinds of pokemon on our journeys all over the world and the universe. We caught over 807 species Pokemon. And there are still a bunch of Pokemon out there waiting to be discovered.

Pyro: Incredible!

Sparky: That is amazing that there are so many Pokemon out there.

Me: Yep.

Xerneas: It's really something. I'm also a pokemon myself.

Pyro: (Skeptical) You're a Pokemon, Xenia?

Xerneas turned into her Pokemon form.

Rainer: Whoa!

Mikey: Wow! Which Pokemon is Xenia?

Me: She's the legendary Xerneas, the Pokemon of Life.

Shanan: Yep and she's a legendary Pokemon from the Kalos Region.

Me: Yep. Every region has a bunch of legendary Pokemon.

Pyro: That's true.

Ash: That's right. We saw all kinds of Legendary Pokemon.

Me: It's hard to imagine but it's all true.

Varie: It's true.

Lucy (Pokemon): We have our own style in knowing all about Pokemon and it's really something.

Sparky: That's true.

Rainer: By the way Brock, I thought you were with professor…

I covered Rainer's mouth with my hand.

Me: Shh. (Whispering) Rainer don't talk about Professor Ivy. She and Brock had a terrible falling out a while back and it forever scarred him for life. Whenever he hears that name, it sends him into a depressed state.

Rainer: (Whispering) Oh gosh. Sorry.

Me: (Whispering) It's okay.

I let go.

We continued to talk and we had an awesome time. We later went back home.

Warpath: So? Did you guys enjoy your date?

Manaphy: We sure did.

Horsea: It was awesome!

Poromon: We had so much fun.

Poliwag: Yeah.

Me: Great.

---

At the estate we were getting ready for a special day. It was May 4th, 2020 and it was also known as Star Wars day! It was the day we go crazy over Star Wars. We started it by watching the movies of Star Wars. We started with Star Wars: Episode I - The Phantom Menace from 1999.

---

Thirty-two years before the events of Star Wars: Episode IV A New Hope, there is trade dispute between the Trade Federation and the outlying systems of the Galactic Republic, which has led to a blockade of the small planet of Naboo. Supreme Chancellor Finis Valorum, leader of the Galactic Senate, has secretly dispatched two Jedi, Master Qui-Gon Jinn and his Padawan, Obi-Wan Kenobi, to serve as "the ambassadors" to the Federation flagship, in order to meet with Viceroy Nute Gunray and resolve the dispute. Unknown to them, the Trade Federation is in league with the mysterious Darth Sidious, Dark Lord of the Sith, who secretly orders Gunray to invade Naboo and kill the two Jedi upon their arrival. When Gunray asked if it was illegal, Sidious implied that he would ensure that the invasion was made legal.

Using poison gas, the Viceroy attempts to poison the two Jedi Knights, but fails. After having to battle through squads of battle droids, Jinn and Kenobi make their way to the command deck where Gunray is located, shielding himself behind blast doors. The Jedi are forced to flee upon the arrival of two Destroyer Droids, but with their ship, Radiant VII, now destroyed, the two Jedi stow themselves aboard two separate Federation landing craft leaving for the surface of Naboo to begin the invasion.

Queen Amidala then contacts Gunray expressing her disapproval of their blockade of Naboo, with Gunray explaining that they wouldn't have done it without the approval of the senate. After questioning Gunray regarding the arrival of ambassadors sent by the Chancellor, Gunray claims that they have been greeted by no such ambassadors, leaving Amidala startled. Gunray, after ending communications with her, informs his aide that they should disable all communications on the planet in case she suspected an invasion.

Meanwhile, Amidala is conversing with Senator Sheev Palpatine regarding the recent attempt at negotiations and how Gunray claimed that they did not receive any ambassadors. Surprised, Palpatine states that he had assurances from the Chancellor that his ambassadors did arrive. However, Palpatine is unable to finish his sentence and his hologram begins to short out. Naboo Governor, Sio Bibble, suspects that the shorting out of communications is a sign that an invasion from the Trade Federation is imminent.

On the planet's surface, Qui-Gon saves local native outcast Jar Jar Binks from being crushed by an MTT. Later, STAPs attack but are destroyed by Qui-Gon. Jar Jar Binks shows the two Jedi the way to an underwater Gungan settlement, Otoh Gunga, escaping the Trade Federation army. Meanwhile, the Trade Federation invades Naboo and captures Queen Amidala. The Jedi meet the Gungan leader, Boss Nass, and ask him to help the people of Naboo, but Nass refuses and sends them off in a bongo submarine. They are attacked by an opee sea killer and a colo claw fish but both fish are eaten by a sando aqua monster. The Jedi, with Binks in tow, reach Theed, the capital city of Naboo, and rescue Queen Amidala from the Trade Defense Force. They depart for Coruscant, the Galactic Republic's capital planet, to ask for help from the Senate. An astromech droid named R2-D2 manages to repair the Queen's starship and they narrowly escape an attack from Federation battleships.

Due to the damage the ship's hyperdrive sustained in the attack, the Jedi decide to land on the nearby planet Tatooine instead of Coruscant. While searching for a new hyperdrive generator, they befriend young Anakin Skywalker, a slave boy, whose master is Watto, a Toydarian junk dealer. Watto has the required parts in stock, but Qui-Gon is unable to purchase them, as Republic credits are worthless on Tatooine.

Anakin is gifted with piloting and mechanical abilities, and has built an almost-complete droid named C-3PO. Qui-Gon senses a strong presence of the Force in Anakin, and feels that he may be the Chosen One - the one who will fulfill a prophecy by bringing balance to the Force. By entering Anakin into a podrace, Qui-Gon orchestrates a gamble in which the boy (alone, since Qui-Gon was unable to include the youth's mother in the bargain) will be released from slavery while also acquiring the parts needed for their ship. The night before the race, Qui-Gon does a blood test on Anakin and discovers that the boy's midi-chlorian reading is off the chart.

Anakin wins the race and joins the team as they head for Coruscant, where Qui-Gon plans to seek permission from the Jedi High Council to train Anakin to be a Jedi. Meanwhile, Darth Sidious sends his apprentice, Darth Maul, to kill the two Jedi and capture the Queen. Maul appears just as the group is leaving the planet, and duels with Qui-Gon. The fight is cut short when Qui-Gon manages to escape his black-robed assailant by jumping onboard the Naboo Royal Starship as it takes off.

On Coruscant, Qui-Gon informs the Jedi Council of the mysterious attacker he encountered on Tatooine. Because of that being's obvious mastery of the Jedi arts, the Council becomes concerned that this development may indicate the reappearance of the Sith, a religious order who were followers of the dark side of the force and thought to be long gone. Qui-Gon also informs the Council about Anakin, hoping that he can be trained as a Jedi. After testing the boy and deliberating with one another, the Council refuses, deeming him too old for training according to the Jedi Code. They are also concerned due to their sensing of a seemingly clouded future and a strong presence of fear in the boy.

Meanwhile, Senator Palpatine, warning of the corruption in the Senate, advises Queen Amidala to call for a Vote of No Confidence in Supreme Chancellor Finis Valorum. Seeing no alternative, the Queen takes this advice when she addresses the Senate. Palpatine is among the candidates to become the new Supreme Chancellor. The Queen later announces to Palpatine that she will return to their home planet to repel the invasion of her people by herself. She is frustrated by the Senate's deliberation and lack of action, and feels that even if Palpatine is elected Chancellor, it will be too late. The Jedi Council sends the two Jedi to accompany the Queen back to Naboo, hoping to shed light on any Sith involvement.

Amidala, back on Naboo, attempts to locate the Gungans at Otoh Gunga, but Jar-Jar, after searching Otoh Gunga, informs them that it was abandoned. He then leads them to a sacred area which he was certain they were at. Upon arriving at the Gungan Sacred Place, Amidala negotiates with Boss Nass to form an alliance and unite in battle against the Trade Federation. Captain Panaka and several other security forces were also dispatched to rescue anyone imprisoned in the Trade Federation's prison camps, although they were only able to successfully extract a handful.

Next, Amidala informs Qui-Gon and Nass of her battle strategy: with the Grand Gungan Army acting as a distraction to the bulk of the main Trade Federation forces, the Naboo resistance led by Amidala, Qui-Gon and Obi-Wan will infiltrate Theed via a secret entrance located inside one of the waterfalls. Nute Gunray, taking the bait regarding the Gungan Army, informs Darth Sidious about the Grand Army, the latter then promptly ordering Gunray to wipe out the Gungans and the Naboo as the Trade Federation prepares for battle.

Captain Roos Tarpals orders the Gungan Grand Army to start up their shield, to protect them from ranged attack. OOM-9 has his tanks fire first, but seeing them fail to penetrate the powerful shield, orders them to cease fire. Daultay Dofine gives the command to activate the battle droids. These droids march through the shield, and destroy its generator. After much fighting against the Federation's droid army, defeat for the alliance seems imminent.

However, victory comes when young Anakin Skywalker accidentally takes control of a starfighter and goes on to destroy the Federation's Droid Control Ship from the inside, killing Daultay Dofine and rendering the droid army useless. Meanwhile, Amidala and her force fight their way back into the royal palace and capture Nute Gunray.

At the same time, in a Theed hangar bay, Darth Maul engages in combat with the two Jedi, using his double-bladed lightsaber. The battle moves from the hangar, across a series of catwalks, to the Theed Generator Complex. During the fight, Obi-Wan is separated from his master by being kicked off of a catwalk. He grabs the edge of another catwalk below and jumps back up to where Qui-Gon and Maul continue to fight. By this time, Qui-Gon and Maul have become separated by a force field in the entrance to the Generator Room. Obi-Wan catches up to them, but is divided from his master by four force fields. When the force fields deactivates, Jinn and Maul continue their battle while Kenobi remains divided from the battle by one force field when they all reactivate.

After a lengthy duel, Maul suddenly hits Qui-Gon on the chin with his lightsaber handle, stunning him, then rams his lightsaber straight into Qui-Gon's chest, mortally wounding him. Devastated, Obi-Wan redoubles his assault upon Maul and chops the Sith's lightsaber in half, but Maul eventually overpowers and nearly kills Kenobi by Force pushing him over the edge of a seemingly endless reactor shaft. Obi-Wan saves himself from falling when he manages to grab onto a pipe protruding from the wall of the shaft. Maul then kicks the Jedi's lightsaber into the pit and prepares to finish him off. After Obi-Wan calms himself, he uses the Force to jump out of the shaft and summons his fallen master's lightsaber to his hand. Within an instant, he lands behind the surprised Maul and cuts him in half; Maul's upper and lower body falls into the shaft.

Obi-Wan reaches Qui-Gon moments before he dies, as Qui-Gon instructs Obi-Wan to train Anakin to become a Jedi, reiterating that Anakin is the Chosen One. Obi-Wan gives his word that he will. The newly-elected Chancellor Palpatine arrives to congratulate Queen Amidala on her victory, as Nute Gunray is sent to stand trial for his crimes.

Back on Coruscant, the Jedi Council names Obi-Wan a Jedi Knight. Kenobi conveys his master's wish regarding Anakin Skywalker to Yoda, who reluctantly allows him to become Obi-Wan's apprentice. Qui-Gon's body is cremated, and Mace Windu and Yoda agree that the Sith are definitely to blame for the tragedy. Being that there are only ever two Sith at any given time (a Master and an apprentice), both Masters believe that one must still remain.

The Naboo and Gungans organize a great victory celebration on the streets of Theed, in front on the palace. Obi-Wan and Anakin are present, the younger now wearing formal Jedi attire, and in his hair is a special braid: the mark of a Jedi Padawan. Queen Amidala presents a gift of appreciation and friendship to Boss Nass and the Gungan people.

A decade after the events of The Phantom Menace, the Galactic Republic is in crisis. A Separatist movement led by former Jedi Master Count Dooku, alias the Sith Lord Darth Tyranus, is threatening the peace, causing the Galactic Senate to debate a Military Creation Act to form a standing army for the Republic's protection. Senator Padmé Amidala, former Queen of Naboo, returns to Coruscant to vote against the Act, even though there are no longer enough Jedi to maintain peace and justice in the galaxy.

Upon her arrival on Coruscant, she narrowly escapes an assassination attempt that claims the life of her decoy, Cordé. As a result, Supreme Chancellor Sheev Palpatine requests that Jedi Knight Obi-Wan Kenobi and his apprentice, Anakin Skywalker, protect her.

That night, the assassin Zam Wesell makes another attempt on Amidala's life, though the Jedi are able to foil her plot. They pursue her through Galactic City, eventually disarming her in the Outlander Club. Upon being questioned by Obi-Wan and Anakin outside the bar, she is killed by a saberdart, fired by a mysterious man, before the Jedi can learn the name of her employer. Returning to the Jedi Temple, Obi-Wan is assigned by the council to track down the assassin's killer. Meanwhile, Anakin continues his task of protecting the Senator, and is asked to escort her back to her home planet of Naboo. Anakin welcomes the opportunity, as he often becomes angry and frustrated by Obi-Wan's criticism, and is glad to have an opportunity to be on his own. Further, he has become infatuated with Padmé, and relishes the chance to spend time with her. Junior Representative Jar Jar Binks assumes the Senator's duties in her absence.

During the investigation, Obi-Wan is led to a mysterious planet called Kamino-missing from the Jedi Archives-where he discovers a secret clone army being developed for the Republic. He is told by Prime Minister Lama Su that the army was ordered some ten years ago by Jedi Master Sifo-Dyas-although Obi-Wan was "under the impression" that Sifo-Dyas was killed before that time. A bounty hunter named Jango Fett was hired as the template for the clones. Obi-Wan meets Jango on Kamino, and believes him to be the killer he has been tracking. He tries to capture Jango, which leads to a titanic one-on-one fight between them. Jango makes use of his blasters and missile equipment, managing to defeat Obi-Wan by sending him plummeting into the raging sea below. Thinking he is dead, Jango departs Kamino with his son Boba. Unable to capture Jango, Obi-Wan places a homing beacon on his ship, Slave I, and follows him to the planet of Geonosis.

Meanwhile, Anakin and Padmé have been spending much time together on Naboo, enjoying each other's company and playfully frolicking in the fields. Eventually, Anakin reveals his deep love for her, vowing to do whatever she requests. However, Padmé resists, explaining that it would be impossible for the two of them to be together, since she is a Senator and he is a Jedi. Anakin is angered by this, and experiences inner conflict between his strong desires for her and his duties as a Jedi.

Anakin is also troubled by a newfound sense that his mother is in grave danger, and he beckons for Padmé to accompany him to his home planet of Tatooine-in the process disobeying Obi-Wan's orders to remain on Naboo. Upon arriving, Anakin tracks down his former owner Watto, from whom he learns that his mother has married a moisture farmer named Cliegg Lars, and travels to the Lars moisture farm. There, Anakin and Padmé find C-3PO, and the droid introduces Anakin to his step-brother Owen. Cliegg tells Anakin the horrible truth, that his mother was kidnapped a month ago by a pack of Tusken Raiders. Anakin travels through the night, and finds her tied and beaten in a Tusken camp. Within moments, she dies in his arms. Enraged and heartbroken, he slaughters the entire Tusken community: men, women and even children. Back at Coruscant, Yoda senses a terrible darkness in the Force as the slaughter continues (Qui-Gon Jinn's voice can also be heard shouting "Anakin, Anakin, no!" during this scene). Anakin then brings his mother's body back to the homestead, where her funeral is held.

On Geonosis, Obi-Wan overhears a meeting between Count Dooku and the leaders of the commerce guilds, and learns that they are behind the separatist movement and have built up a new droid army. He also learns that it was Nute Gunray who ordered the assassination of Amidala, as revenge for the defeat of the Trade Federation at the Battle of Naboo. Obi-Wan transmits his findings to the Council, relayed by way of Anakin and Padmé's ship, though he is surrounded by droidekas and captured before he can finish his report.

Now that the Jedi council knows of Dooku's army, Jedi Master Mace Windu leads a team to Geonosis. Unbeknownst to them, Anakin and Padmé also make their way there to rescue Obi-Wan. Meanwhile, Representative Binks calls for Chancellor Palpatine to be given emergency powers, with which he can call the recently discovered clone army into battle.

Back on Geonosis, Count Dooku tries to persuade Obi-Wan to join him, warning him that Darth Sidious is now in control of the Senate. Obi-Wan refuses to believe him, saying that the Jedi would have known if that was the case. Anakin and Padmé arrive on the planet, but are quickly captured by Jango Fett and sentenced to death, joining Obi-Wan in the Geonosis arena, where they are to be executed. In the high stands, Count Dooku, Nute Gunray, Rune Haako, Poggle the Lesser, Jango Fett and Boba Fett watch the start of the planned execution. The trio are forced to battle a reek, a nexu and an acklay. During their struggle, Mace Windu arrives with his Jedi strike team, and they battle Dooku's droid army in the arena. Upon seeing so many Jedi in one place, Jango Fett jetpacks down to the arena floor, and engages Windu. After a short struggle, Windu manages to kill Jango due to his jetpack malfunctioning, but defeat for the Jedi still seems imminent. Yoda unexpectedly arrives with the Republic's new clone army, but only a handful of Jedi had survived. Those killed include Sta-Den Eekin, Sephjet Josall, Sar Labooda, Khaat Qiyn, Que-Mars Redath-Gom, Fi-Ek Sirch, Galdos Stouff, Nicanas Tassu, Coleman Trebor, and about 160 other Jedi.

An even larger battle erupts outside the arena between the Republic's clone army and the Droid Army of the Confederacy of Independent Systems. Nute Gunray and Rune Haako subsequently retreat in Gunray's ship. Poggle the Lesser entrusts Count Dooku with the early plans for the Death Star. Dooku attempts to escape, but Obi-Wan and Anakin track him to a secret hangar, where they engage him in combat. Unfortunately, they are no match for Dooku's now-revealed mastery of the dark side and the lightsaber combat style that he employs. He fires Force lightning at Anakin, injures Obi-Wan and cuts off Anakin's right arm. Yoda appears just as Dooku is about to escape, and the two masters of the Force go head-to-head in a fierce duel. Dooku, realizing he can't defeat Yoda, attempts to topple a large pillar on Obi-Wan and Anakin as a distraction. While Yoda uses the Force to divert the pillar, Dooku flees in his solar sailer. Flying to an industrial sector of Coruscant, he meets up with his master, Darth Sidious, who is pleased that the war has begun as planned.

In the Jedi Temple, Obi-Wan, Mace and Yoda ponder Dooku's warning that Darth Sidious is controlling the Senate. Yoda is hesitant to believe this, stating that the dark side is capable of creating fear and mistrust. He and Windu agree that they should nevertheless closely monitor the Senate. Meanwhile, Chancellor Palpatine and a number of senators, including Bail Organa, oversee the launching of massive clone trooper forces.

Back at Naboo, Anakin, with a new mechanical arm, and Padmé hold a secret wedding, with C-3PO and R2-D2 as the only witnesses.

Next from 2005 we watched Star Wars: Episode III - Revenge of The Sith.

---

It has been three years since the events of Attack of the Clones. The Galactic Republic is in the midst of the epic war with the Confederacy of Independent Systems under the leadership of Count Dooku, who is also the Sith Lord, Darth Tyranus. The Confederacy's cyborg military leader, General Grievous of the Separatist Droid Army, has infiltrated Coruscant and captured Supreme Chancellor Sheev Palpatine, leader of the Galactic Senate.

As the Separatist Droid Army attempts to escape the Galactic capital, a massive space battle erupts, into which race Jedi Master Obi-Wan Kenobi and his former padawan, now Jedi Knight Anakin Skywalker, leading a mission to rescue the Chancellor. The Jedi fight through the Separatist armada. In the process, Obi-Wan's interceptor is damaged by buzz droids and his astromech, R4-P17, is destroyed. Anakin attempts to shoot the droids off, though succeeds only in blasting apart the wing of his former Master's vessel. Obi-Wan tells Anakin to hold his fire as he's not helping. Anakin agrees it was a bad idea. Obi-Wan tells Anakin to go on and rescue the Chancellor, but Anakin says he won't leave without Obi-Wan. Anakin uses one of his fighter wings to knock some of the buzz droids off Obi-Wan's fighter, but one manages to crawl onto Anakin's ship although it is quickly disabled by R2-D2. As they approach Grievous's flagship, Obi-Wan reminds Anakin their shields are still up, so Anakin breaks formation and attacks a shield generator, knocking out the shields on the docking bay of the ship. The two Jedi crash-land.

Anakin and Obi-Wan make their way through the flagship, fighting through an army of droids. Meanwhile, R2-D2 aids them from the hangar bay while simultaneously incinerating a pair of super battle droids, using fuel and his thrusters.

Rescuing the chancellor

The Jedi reach the top, finding the captive Chancellor Palpatine. They are confronted by Count Dooku himself, and an intense lightsaber duel ensues. The Jedi throw the Count off guard, by converting from basic attacks to more skilled tactics. During the battle, Obi-Wan is rendered unconscious when Dooku uses the Force to hold him in mid-air by the throat before hurling him against a railing.

Anakin continues the battle and is repeatedly taunted by Dooku. Using his anger, Anakin taps into the dark side of the Force and gets the better of the duel. He severs both of Dooku's hands, rendering him incapable of defending himself, and then holds him at blade point with both his own lightsaber and Dooku's weapon. Palpatine encourages Anakin to kill Dooku. At first, Anakin hesitates but Palpatine firmly insists; completely unaware of Palpatine's true intentions, Anakin brutally decapitates the helpless Dooku.

An explosion occurs deep in the ship, brought on by the attack of the Jedi Star cruiser, causing the Invisible Hand to begin an uncontrolled descent into Coruscant. Despite Palpatine's persuasions that he should leave the unconscious Obi-Wan, Anakin carries him on his back, and maneuvers through the ship with the Chancellor. Obi-Wan later regains consciousness.

Confronting Grievous

After Grievous has the bridge crew regain control of his flagship by firing the emergency booster engines, he makes certain the two Jedi and their ward are captured. Having fallen foul of a ray shield trap, the three are brought to the bridge under custody, but R2 successfully creates a distraction, allowing the Jedi to retrieve their lightsabers and break free.

Grievous then sends a pair of his powerful IG-100 MagnaGuard droids after the Jedi. Obi-Wan quickly beheads the first MagnaGuard with his blade, but the droid continues the fight, forcing Obi-Wan to slice the droid warrior apart before it deactivates. Anakin finishes off the second MagnaGuard and destroys the battle droids attempting to drag Palpatine from the bridge. The Jedi close in on Grievous, though the wily General smashes a window with his fallen guard's electrostaff, and is swept outside. Using a tow cable, Grievous latches himself to the ship and heads for the escape pods. Launching all other escape capsules, Grievous speeds for the safety of a Trade Federation Lucrehulk-class battleship. Once again, the flagship begins to descend in free fall into Coruscant, but Anakin takes the controls and pilots the ship into a hard landing, aided by emergency firespeeders, on one of Coruscant's industrial landing platforms.

Happy reunions

On Coruscant, Anakin is praised for his heroics. He meets secretly with Padmé Amidala, and they share a kiss in the shadows of the Senate office building, keeping their love secret. She reveals to him that she is pregnant with their child.

Elsewhere, Grievous, now both the political and military leader of the Separatists, arrives on Utapau, where Trade Federation Viceroy Nute Gunray, Geonosian Archduke Poggle the Lesser, Techno Union head of state and Foreman Wat Tambor and others on the Separatist Council remain in hiding. The General is contacted by Darth Sidious, who gives him instructions to move the Separatist leaders to a volcanic planet, Mustafar. He also explains that the war is almost over. Grievous is uncertain about this, given Count Dooku's death. Sidious assures him that Darth Tyranus's death and loss was necessary, for he would soon have a new apprentice: one far younger and more powerful.

Later, on Coruscant, Anakin awakens in a panic, covered in sweat. He reveals to Padmé that he has been dreaming about her dying in childbirth, and believing that he can't live without her, vows not to let this dream come true.

Chancellor Palpatine requests Anakin's presence, and they meet in the Chancellor's office. The Senate has granted the Chancellor further emergency powers, giving him direct control of the Jedi Council. Palpatine confides in Anakin his fear, distrust, and contempt of the Masters. He appoints Anakin to be his personal representative on the Council.

The High Council begrudgingly accepts Anakin's appointment but does not grant him the rank of Master. Anakin reacts angrily at this perceived slight. Ignoring his outburst, the Council goes on to discuss matters concerning the war. It is decided that Anakin will be assigned to protect the Chancellor, and Yoda will take a battalion of clones to reinforce the Wookiees on Kashyyyk. Anakin is angry and disappointed.

Obi-Wan later tells Anakin that the Council wants Anakin to report on all the Chancellor's dealings, essentially spying on him. Anakin is confused and upset, feeling torn between two friends and loyalties. Obi-Wan himself is unhappy with the situation.

The tragedy of Darth Plagueis

At the Galaxies Opera House in the Uscru District, Anakin joins Palpatine in watching the Mon Calamari Aquatic Ballet performing Squid Lake. Palpatine tells Anakin Clone Intelligence has located General Grievous hiding in the Utapau system. Anakin is delighted by this news, as Grievous's capture will accelerate the war's end. Palpatine remarks that he'd question the competence of the Jedi Council if Anakin was not sent on the mission. Inviting Anakin to join him, Palpatine dismisses his aides: once they are gone, Palpatine seduces Anakin to the dark side. He also tells Anakin that the Jedi Order wishes to overthrow the Republic and that if he has suspected it, Anakin must surely have sensed it. Anakin confirms that the Jedi don't trust him, a fact that Palpatine expands to include the Senate, the Republic, and democracy as a whole. Anakin tells Palpatine that his trust in the Jedi has been shaken and Palpatine deduces Anakin's distaste for the Council's mission to spy on the Chancellor. Palpatine takes Anakin back to some of the early political lessons Palpatine tried to teach him, about how all those who gain power are afraid to lose it and that includes the Jedi. Anakin tries to defend the Jedi by saying they use their powers for good, but Palpatine argues good is only a point of view, noting that in almost every conceivable manner, including a quest for greater power, the Sith and the Jedi are exactly alike. Anakin disagrees, remarking that the Sith depend on passion for strength, thinking only of themselves, whereas the Jedi are selfless, thinking only of others.

After a brief pause in their conversation, Palpatine makes a remark about the tragedy of Darth Plagueis The Wise. Palpatine describes Darth Plagueis as a Dark Lord of the Sith so powerful and wise that he could use the Force to influence the midi-chlorians to create life. Not only this, but having such power and knowledge of the dark side, Plagueis could use this ability to save people he cared about from death, a statement which gets Anakin's attention (which was Palpatine's desire) and Palpatine describes the dark side of the Force as a pathway to many abilities considered by some to be unnatural. When Anakin asks what happened to Darth Plagueis, Palpatine concludes that Plagueis became so powerful that all he feared was losing his power, which he eventually did. Unfortunately for Plagueis, he taught his apprentice, who happened to be Darth Sidious, all he knew: after he had, his apprentice killed him in his sleep. (The Sith apprentice in the story, as implied by the film and explicitly stated in various Star Wars Legends sources, is Palpatine himself.) Palpatine notes the irony of how Plagueis could keep others from dying, but not himself. When Anakin asks if it is possible to learn the power to stop death, Palpatine simply replies, "Not from a Jedi," further alienating Anakin from the Jedi Order.

On Kashyyyk, Yoda, Luminara Unduli, and Gree, along with Tarfful and Chewbacca defend the planet against the Corporate Alliance Tanks, Dwarf Spider droids, Droid Gunships, and legions of battle droids

Later, in a meeting with the Jedi Council, Anakin relays the information about Grievous, explaining that a partial message was intercepted in a diplomatic packet from the Chairman of Utapau. Yoda says they should act quickly and decisively on this information. When Anakin expresses his interest in going at Palpatine's request, Mace Windu harshly tells him that the Council will decide who goes and not the Chancellor. Yoda believes that a Master with more experience is needed to confront, and defeat, Grievous. Ki-Adi-Mundi agrees and nominates Obi-Wan to go. With the nomination agreed on, the Council adjourns and Obi-Wan prepares to go to Utapau.

Obi-Wan vs. Grievous

Anakin walks Obi-Wan to his Star Destroyer before he leaves. Anakin still believes he'd be needed on Utapau, and while Obi-Wan agrees, he also notes it might just be a wild Bantha chase. Anakin stops Obi-Wan and tells him that he knows he's disappointed Obi-Wan and that he's not been acting very grateful for the training he received. Anakin tells him he's just been so frustrated with the Council lately, but that he does apologize. Obi-Wan calls Anakin strong and wise and tells Anakin he's very proud of him and while Obi-Wan trained him since Anakin was a boy, he calls Anakin a far greater Jedi than Obi-Wan could hope to be. But Obi-Wan encourages Anakin to be patient and that it won't be long before the Council makes Anakin a Jedi Master. The two bid each other farewell and Obi-Wan leaves for Utapau. Little do they know that this is the last time they will see or speak to each other as fellow Jedi and friends.

Obi-Wan arrives in Pau City on Utapau, and begins his search for General Grievous, riding a varactyl named Boga. He finds Grievous on the Tenth Level. After Obi-Wan dispatches the droids around Grievous, the two engage in single combat. Grievous's arms split in half, allowing him to use four lightsabers at once. Obi-Wan quickly cuts off the lower halves of the General's hands, helping to even out the odds a little. During the battle, the Third Systems Army arrives under the command of CC-2224 (Cody). Obi-Wan manages to catch Grievous off guard and uses the Force to push the fiendish droid general into the ceiling. Grievous drops his remaining two lightsabers and attempts to flee on his wheel bike, while Obi-Wan pursues on Boga. During the chase, Obi-Wan drops his lightsaber, which Commander Cody happens to find during the massive battle against the droids.

On Coruscant, Anakin tells Palpatine that General Grievous has been found on Utapau. Anakin insists he should be on Utapau as well. Their conversation shifts to Palpatine's knowledge of the Force, and Palpatine reveals that he is Darth Sidious. Anakin ignites his lightsaber and threatens to kill Palpatine, but then decides to expose him to the Jedi Council. He is still concerned with saving his wife, and believes only Palpatine's knowledge, learned from the late Darth Plagueis, will ensure this.

Obi-Wan continues to chase General Grievous on Utapau. He catches up with the General and jumps onto his wheel bike. Using Grievous's electrostaff, he manages to destabilize the speeder, and it goes into a spin. Both Obi-Wan and Grievous are thrown off as the speeder topples over the edge of Grievous's secret landing platform. Grievous then draws his blaster, though it is knocked from his hand by Obi-Wan, now wielding the electrostaff. He knocks Grievous down, and a brawl ensues, during which Kenobi tears open the General's chest plates, revealing his living organs. Enraged, Grievous repeatedly hits Obi-Wan and then picks up the helpless Jedi and throws him over the edge. Obi-Wan barely manages to hang on and momentarily dangles for dear life. As Grievous moves in for the kill, Obi-Wan uses the Force to retrieve the General's blaster and fires at Grievous's exposed organs. He hits, and they burst into flames. With his eyes flaming, Grievous falls to the floor, dead.

Sidious revealed

Anakin returns to the Jedi Temple and approaches Windu who tells Anakin that they have just been informed that Obi-Wan has destroyed General Grievous and so they are going to go to the Senate to ensure that Chancellor Palpatine gives back his emergency powers. However, Anakin reveals that Palpatine is a Sith Lord and is not likely to give up his powers, a statement which shocks Windu and stops him dead in his tracks. Anakin confirms what he just said and says he believes Palpatine is the one they have been looking for. When Windu asks how Anakin knows this, he tells Windu that Palpatine knows the ways of the Force and has been trained to use the dark side and that he is absolutely sure. Windu says their worst fears have now been realized and that if the Jedi Order is to survive, they must move quickly. Anakin warns Windu that Palpatine is very powerful and they'll need his help to arrest Palpatine, but Windu urges him to stay out of it as he senses much fear in Anakin and it could cloud his judgment. Windu also adds that if what Anakin says is true then Anakin will have gained his trust but for now, he wants Anakin to wait in the Council Chambers until he returns. Masters Windu, Kit Fisto, Agen Kolar and Saesee Tiin board a gunship and head to Palpatine's office.

Sitting in the Council Chambers, remembering Palpatine's promise of stopping death and the dreams of Padmé dying in childbirth, Anakin ruminates over his decision: in his mind, he hears Palpatine's voice saying that if the Jedi kill him, any chance of saving Padmé will be lost. Finally, he leaves and rushes after the four Jedi.

Windu and the three other Jedi Masters arrive at Chancellor Palpatine's office. Windu declares Palpatine is under arrest and the Masters ignite their lightsabers. Sidious pulls a lightsaber from his sleeve and hurls himself at the Jedi with a screeching war cry. Kolar and Tiin are first to die, run through the chest and as Kolar's life is ending due to the chest wound, Sidious turns and slices Tiin's torso and a few seconds later with more effort from Sidious, Fisto is slain, killed by a slash across the gut. Only Windu remains, alone against the Dark Lord.

Rise of Lord Vader

Sidious and Windu continue the fight, dueling fiercely. At first, Sidious appears to have the upper hand, but Windu gradually gains ground, slowly driving the Sith Lord out of the Chancellor's antechamber and into the office proper. Anakin arrives at the scene just as Windu disarms Sidious, both combatants balancing on the edge of the large window shattered during the duel. As Windu holds Sidious at blade point, the Sith Lord unleashes a torrent of Force lightning. However, Windu deflects it with his blade, casting much of the energy back into Sidious's body. Sidious becomes hideously deformed; his face becomes unusually pale and sagged, his teeth become yellow and rotten, his fingernails become long and dirty, and his eyes turn burning yellow with blood-red rims. He then ends his assault, claiming he is too weak to fight on. As Windu is deciding to kill Sidious, Anakin approaches and claims Palpatine must stand trial: Windu disregards this, stating Sidious is too dangerous to be left alive. Anakin is finally forced to choose between the Jedi Order or Padmé. As Windu is about to deliver the killing blow, Anakin makes his choice, intervenes and cuts off Windu's sword arm. Sidious, cackling with glee, tortures and blasts the shocked Windu out of the window, sending him plunging to his death hundreds of stories below.

Anakin is horrified by his actions, yet he knows now there is no turning back. He pledges allegiance to Sidious, in return for the Dark Lord's power to stop death, in the hope of saving his beloved wife. Sidious takes Anakin as his Sith apprentice, bestowing upon him the Sith name Darth Vader. Sidious then gives Vader his first assignment: to launch a Siege of the Jedi Temple, ensuring the so-called Jedi Rebellion is crushed.

Vader leads the 501st Legion to the Temple. He and the clones rampage through the Temple, cutting down every Jedi that crosses his path, including swordsmaster Cin Drallig and even the younglings hiding out in the Council Chamber.

Order 66

Meanwhile, from his office, Sidious broadcasts a command to the many clone trooper commanders spread throughout the galaxy: to execute Order 66, an action that is effectively set into motion.

Across the galaxy, clone troopers turn against their Jedi Generals. As this happens, Yoda feels everyone who is dying. On Utapau, Kenobi is flung off a cliff by a blast from an All Terrain Tactical Enforcer, but he and Boga survive the drop, and Obi-Wan flees on Grievous's hidden starfighter; on Mygeeto, Jedi Master Ki-Adi-Mundi is gunned down by CC-1138 and the 21st Nova Corps; on the lush, tropical planet of Felucia, Jedi Knight Aayla Secura is murdered by CC-5052 and his 327th Star Corps; on Cato Neimoidia, Plo Koon's Jedi starfighter is shot down by Aggressive ReConnaissance-170 starfighters, sending it smashing into a clone staging area; and on Saleucami, Stass Allie's 74-Z speeder bike is destroyed by CC-8826 and his wingman, riding BARC speeders. On Kashyyyk, Yoda is overlooking the ongoing battle as Commander Gree receives the order. He and his lieutenant attempt to sneak up to Yoda, but the aged Master senses their intent and beheads both clones with a slash of his lightsaber. Tarfful and Chewbacca help Yoda escape the planet.

Senator Bail Organa arrives at the flaming Temple to witness the slaughter of a young Padawan named Zett Jukassa by a squad of troopers led by Commander Appo. Organa, horrified, flees the scene and departs Coruscant in the Tantive III, in an attempt to make contact with any surviving Jedi.

Both Obi-Wan and Yoda survive Order 66 and are picked up by Senator Organa, having evaded pursuit. The Jedi decide to return to Coruscant to recalibrate the Jedi beacon calling for all Jedi to return to Coruscant, knowing that it's really a trap set by Darth Sidious. Kenobi hopes to instead warn any surviving Jedi to stay away from the Temple.

Following the attack on the Jedi Temple, Vader returns to Padmé at the Senate Apartment Complex, from where the smoke rising from the wrecked Temple can be seen. He tells her the Jedi have tried to take over the Republic, and there are traitors in the Senate. He asks for her loyalty to the Chancellor, then tells her that he will go to the Mustafar system, where the remaining Separatists have gathered, to end the war.

Birth of the Empire

On Mustafar, Vader is greeted by Viceroy Gunray but quickly traps the Separatist Council in the bunker. He slaughters Poggle the Lesser, Rune Haako, Po Nudo and Wat Tambor among others. He leaves Gunray until last, slicing the Neimoidian across the chest even as he pleads for his life. It is at this point that the first physical manifestation of the dark side in Vader begins to show itself, as his irises turn a pallid yellow, the rest of his eye taking on a bright crimson hue.

The Senate holds a special session where Palpatine tells them of the "plot of the Jedi to overthrow the Senate," but that it was foiled. Amidst thunderous applause, he informs the Senate that the surviving Jedi will be hunted down and defeated. He then states that "in order to insure the security and continued stability, the Republic will be reorganized into the first Galactic Empire," which Palpatine describes as creating a safe and secure society. As the majority of the Senate screams their approval, Padmé Amidala and Bail Organa, who are shocked at the result, simply look around and Padmé can only remark "So this is how liberty dies, with thunderous applause."

In the meantime, Obi-Wan and Yoda go to the Jedi Temple, slaying clone troopers and walking in disbelief through the carnage. Yoda notices that several of their fellow Jedi were cut down by a foe wielding a lightsaber. They recalibrate the Temple's signal to warn all surviving Jedi to keep away from the Temple, but then Obi-Wan, wanting to know the truth, checks the security hologram recordings. To his horror, one recording shows Vader slaughtering a class of Jedi younglings and then kneeling before Sidious. Yoda says they must destroy the Sith, but Obi-Wan is reluctant to kill Vader and wants to go after the Emperor instead. Yoda, however, states that Obi-Wan is not strong enough to face Sidious and that Anakin is gone, "consumed" by Vader. Yoda sets out to confront Sidious, telling Obi-Wan to "use his feelings" to find Vader.

Following Yoda's advice, Obi-Wan visits Padmé and tells her that Anakin has turned to the dark side and killed the younglings in the Jedi Temple. Despite her anguish, Padmé refuses to reveal where her husband has gone. Obi-Wan deduces that Padmé is carrying Anakin's child and apologizes to her before leaving. On Mustafar, Vader surveys the violent landscape around him and smiles wickedly.

Later, Padmé leaves Coruscant in her star skiff, departing for Mustafar to find her husband and the truth. Unknown to her, Obi-Wan secretly stows away aboard the ship just before it takes off.

Battle of the heroes

The star skiff lands on Mustafar, and Padmé is greeted by a smiling Vader. Padmé reveals her conversation with Obi-Wan; he tells her it is only lies but does not deny the accusations. Padmé begs him to run away with her to raise their child in peace. Vader, mad with power, claims that they no longer have to run away and he can overthrow Palpatine so that the two of them can rule the galaxy together. Padmé, realizing how much her husband has changed, backs away in horror and tearfully begs him to stop, insisting she still loves him.

As she pleads, Obi-Wan steps out onto the star skiff's boarding ramp. Upon seeing him, Vader becomes enraged and accuses Padmé of lying about her love for him and betraying him to Obi-Wan. Without even allowing her a chance to explain herself, he begins Force-choking her. Obi-Wan intervenes and orders Vader to release Padmé, but Vader still knocks her unconscious. Turning his anger on Obi-Wan, Vader accuses him of turning his wife against him, but Obi-Wan retorts that Vader has done that himself and let himself be twisted by Sidious into the Sith he was meant to destroy. Vader refuses to listen and rants that he has brought order to his "new empire." Obi-Wan, unable to believe what he is hearing, prepares to fight. Vader fumes that those who are against him are his enemies and engages Obi-Wan in a ferocious duel of Student vs. Master.

In the Chancellor's office within the Senate Building, Yoda confronts Darth Sidious. They engage in an intense battle using their lightsabers and Force abilities. The duel brings them to the Galactic Senate Chamber, the heart of the Senate. Sidious hurls Senate pods at Yoda, and the effort to avoid them exhausts the Jedi Master. Sidious then blasts Yoda with Force Lightning, but with the last of his strength, the Jedi master repels it enough to send both himself and Sidious over the pod's edge. Sidious is able to hold on to a senate pod, while Yoda falls to the senate floor leaving his cloak behind. With Bail Organa's help, Yoda flees the Senate Building, intending to go into exile.

On Mustafar, the duel between Obi-Wan and Vader continues, with Obi-Wan on the defensive. A missed slash from Vader's lightsaber damages a computer console, deactivating the facility's shields. As deadly lava falls all around them, they ride a collection arm severed from the main structure down the molten river below, which falls over a waterfall of lava. Abandoning the arm, Obi-Wan leaps onto a hovering mining platform below, with Vader pursuing him back up the lava river atop a collection droid. Obi-Wan appeals to his old friend one last time, but Vader still refuses to see reason, forcing Obi-Wan to accept that his student, friend, and brother is corrupted beyond redemption.

After fending off another attack from Vader, Obi-Wan disengages as the platform nears the shore of the lava river, leaping up onto the black sand bank. Obi-Wan warns Vader that he now holds an unassailable position, but Vader, enraged and bloodthirsty, yells "You underestimate my power!" and foolishly leaps up to kill his old Master. With a swift sweep of his blade, Obi-Wan slices off Vader's left arm and legs. Vader tumbles down the embankment and rolls to a stop at the edge of the river of lava.

As Obi-Wan watches, Vader, helpless and now fully consumed by the dark side, tries in vain to pull his crippled, smoking body up the embankment with his one remaining mechanical arm. Obi-Wan is overcome with disgust and sadness at the pitiful fate of "The Chosen One," and is reduced nearly to tears. He angrily shouts that Vader has failed in his life and destiny, and has hurt all those who loved him, including Obi-Wan himself. All Vader can do is scream in pain and powerless rage, cursing his former friend and Master. The lava below Vader then catches his leg, setting him on fire, horribly burning and disfiguring him, with Obi-Wan unable to help him or kill him. After briefly staring at the charred, mutilated figure that was once Anakin Skywalker, Obi-Wan turns and walks away, taking Anakin's dropped lightsaber with him. He returns to the star skiff and leaves the planet with the unconscious Padmé and her droids.

Birth and rebirth

The Emperor arrives on Mustafar with a group of shock troopers led by Commander Thire. They rescue Darth Vader from the edge of death using a stasis pod and Sith medicines held in the Emperor's shuttle.

On the isolated asteroid Polis Massa, Yoda meditates and hears the spirit voice of Qui-Gon Jinn. The voice tells him that there is a way to merge with the Force and retain consciousness after death. In order to learn this power, Yoda declares himself an apprentice to the spirit of Qui-Gon Jinn.

Obi-Wan arrives at Polis Massa with Padmé, who is given emergency medical treatment by the facility's droids. She is dying, having lost the will to live. The medical droids work to save her babies-she has twins, much to the surprise of Bail Organa, Obi-Wan, and Yoda. A boy and a girl are born. In her last few dying breaths, Padmé gives them the names "Luke" and "Leia."

As his children are born, Vader is being rebuilt at the Grand Republic Medical Facility on Coruscant. Vader is given new legs, a new arm, mechanized lungs, and other "replacement parts." He is dressed in black armor, a face mask is sealed tightly, and his helmet is fitted. Darth Vader begins to breathe through his mask. Most, if not the entire surgery is carried out in true dark-side form, with Vader wide awake and apparently unanesthetized, leaving him moaning, screaming, and writhing in excruciating agony.

With Padmé's final breath, she maintains that there is still good in Anakin. She dies still believing in the man she loved, before his violent acts against the Jedi Order and the Separatist Council.

Vader is raised to a standing position, his surgery complete. Vader begins to speak through his vocabulator to the Emperor, asking about Padmé. The Emperor, seeking to cut Vader's last tie to his old life and permanently cement the dark side in his heart, lies to Vader, telling him that he accidentally killed his wife while Force-choking her. His last shred of hope and love now gone and his mind broken by the realization he himself killed the person he wanted to save, Vader rips himself free of the operating table and unleashes a powerful scream of rage, shame, and grief through the Force, shattering the droids and equipment. Vader howls "Nooo!" in anger and despair, while the Emperor looks on with an evil grin.

A new hope

On board the Tantive III, docked at Naboo, Obi-Wan, Yoda, and Bail Organa sit at a conference table. They agree to keep Padmé appearing pregnant, thus faking the children's deaths. For their own safety, Luke and Leia will be split up in hopes that the Sith will not sense their presence. Leia will be adopted by Bail Organa, and Luke would be sent to his father's step family on Tatooine. Obi-Wan and Yoda will watch and wait until the time is ready for the Skywalker children to do their part. Yoda tells Obi-Wan to study the technique Qui-Gon learned to achieve immortality.

On Naboo, Padmé's funeral takes place in a solemn ceremony in Theed. Her hands clasp the japor snippet given to her by Anakin following his departure from Tatooine some thirteen years ago. To protect her children, her body appears to still be pregnant.

In a deleted scene, Yoda heads to Dagobah to begin his self-imposed exile, which he partly owes as penance for his failure to defeat Sidious.

On the bridge of a gray-hulled Venator-class Star Destroyer, Vader, the Emperor, and Governor Wilhuff Tarkin oversee the construction of a moon-sized battle station.

On Alderaan, the infant Leia is brought by Bail Organa to his wife, Queen Breha.

On Tatooine, Obi-Wan brings Luke Skywalker to his new family: his uncle, Owen, and his aunt, Beru. Obi-Wan leaves on an eopie, heading to his exile in the Jundland Wastes. Owen and Beru, holding the infant Luke, look out to the horizon and watch the setting of Tatooine's twin suns.

Next from 1977 we were watching the first ever Star Wars movie. Star Wars: Episode IV - A New Hope.

---

Approximately nineteen years after the formation of the Galactic Empire, the galaxy is in a state of civil war. The Rebel Alliance has won their first major victory by stealing plans to the Galactic Empire's secret weapon, the Death Star. Hoping that the stolen plans can save her people and restore freedom to the galaxy, Princess Leia Organa, who is in custody of the stolen plans attempts to race home aboard the Tantive IV. However, her ship is intercepted by the Imperial I-class Star Destroyer Devastator over the desert planet of Tatooine.

Imperial stormtroopers manage to board the ship, and after defeating the small number of guards defending the ship, the Sith Lord Darth Vader arrives to assess the damage. Vader is outraged and questions Captain Antilles, whom he eventually strangles and kills. Hiding on the ship, Princess Leia is spotted by stormtroopers. They shoot her with a stun blast and bring her before Vader. However, before being detained, Leia was able to record a holographic message with the help of R2-D2, and assigned the droid the responsibility of taking the message to a Jedi-in-hiding on Tatooine. Vader orders a message be sent to the Imperial Senate, informing them that the ship was destroyed, with everyone on board killed. R2-D2 and C-3PO use an escape pod in order to escape the ship and reach the planet of Tatooine below.

Luke's destiny

The droids are bought by moisture farmer Owen Lars and his nephew, Luke Skywalker. R2-D2 escapes from the Lars' homestead in search of an Obi-Wan Kenobi, whom the droid claims to be the property of. Luke and C-3PO find R2 the next day just before they are attacked by Sand people. Luke and his droids are rescued by Obi-Wan Kenobi or, as Luke knows him, Ben Kenobi. Obi-Wan takes Luke to his home.

Luke receives his father's lightsaber, as Obi-Wan recalls his own friendship with Luke's father. Luke is told that a Jedi named Darth Vader betrayed and murdered his father. After discovering Princess Leia's message carried by R2-D2, Obi-Wan attempts to persuade Luke to accompany him to Alderaan. Luke refuses to go until he discovers that his aunt and uncle were brutally murdered by stormtroopers searching for the droids. Luke, Obi-Wan, and the two droids travel to Mos Eisley to find passage to Alderaan, Princess Leia's home planet.

For 17,000 credits, 2,000 in advance and 15,000 upon arrival, smuggler Han Solo and his First Mate, a Wookiee named Chewbacca, agree to take the four of them to Alderaan aboard their ship, the Millennium Falcon. After brief scuffles with the Empire and henchmen sent by Jabba the Hutt, the Falcon escapes the Imperial Blockade at Mos Eisley and Han sets a course for Alderaan, unaware that the planet was about to be mercilessly destroyed by the Empire.

Rescue of the princess

In Alderaan's place, they find what seems to be an asteroid field. The planet was destroyed by the dreaded Death Star, on the orders of Grand Moff Tarkin, to set an example of the power of the Empire. The Millennium Falcon is pulled aboard the Death Star by its powerful tractor beam.

From hidden smuggling compartments, Solo ambushes two stormtroopers of the Imperial scanning crew. With Han and Luke now disguised as the two stormtroopers, the group begins to figure out how to escape. Obi-Wan separates from the group to disable the tractor beam, leaving the others alone. While connected to the Imperial Network, R2-D2 discovers Princess Leia is aboard the station. Luke convinces Han and Chewbacca to rescue her with the vague promise of a grand reward. Han and Chewbacca reluctantly agree. Luke plans to march into Detention Block AA-23, claiming that Chewbacca is part of a prisoner transfer. C-3PO and R2-D2 are instructed to remain behind, and the trio sets off on their rescue attempt. Luke's plan works flawlessly in that they are quick to subdue the officers and guards in the princess's cell block. Unfortunately, no one thought to plan for their escape, and Leia takes charge, blasting a hole in a nearby grate and jumping through while Han and Luke hold off a squad of stormtroopers. Chewbacca, Luke and Han all dive after the princess into the unknown.

Unfortunately, the grate covers a chute that leads to a garbage compactor that is also home to a resident dianoga. Soon after landing, the creature pulls Luke under the surface, but releases him and is scared away when the Imperials realize where the heroes escaped to and activate the compactor. As the walls close in on the foursome, Luke desperately calls to C-3PO over his comlink asking for the compactor to be shut down. R2-D2 manages to shut down the compactor just in time, although, amidst the muffled cries of joy over the comlink, C-3PO is briefly convinced that his master and friends have been crushed.

After escaping from the trash compactor, the group hurries back to the Millennium Falcon, hoping that Obi-Wan has successfully shut down the tractor beam. They encounter stormtroopers on their way to the ship, evading and blasting their way past them.

Sacrifice and victory

Obi-Wan, on the other hand, was destined to meet with Darth Vader. After a short duel with his former Padawan, Obi-Wan sacrifices himself, thus becoming one with the Force and allowing Luke and the others to escape. Horrified and angered having witnessed Obi-Wan's demise at the hands of Vader, Luke takes his final blasts at the stormtroopers and dashes onto the Millennium Falcon.

After fighting a squadron of TIE fighters, the Millennium Falcon meets the Rebel Alliance on Yavin 4, and the information in R2-D2 is turned over. General Dodonna plans the attack on the Death Star, an attack so audacious as to receive an unenthusiastic reaction from the pilots. To add to Luke's dismay, Han leaves after receiving his reward.

The Rebel strike force begins its attack on the Death Star, as the space station approaches the Rebel base on Yavin 4. A group of starfighters assaults a trench on the Death Star's surface to hit the station's vulnerable spot before it can destroy the Alliance's base. During this, most of the Rebel craft, including Luke's friend Biggs Darklighter, are picked off by Imperial fighters led by Darth Vader. Just as Vader opens fire on Luke from his personal TIE Advanced fighter, Han returns in the Millennium Falcon and attacks the Imperials, resulting in Vader's ship getting knocked out of the trench. Luke, aided by the voice of Kenobi and guided by the Force, accurately fires two proton torpedoes into a small exhaust port leading to the Death Star's reactor, and the battle station explodes.

The few remaining ships (those of Wedge Antilles, Luke, Han, and a Y-wing Pilot) return to Yavin 4 and a victory celebration commences, complete with medals for the heroes, Han Solo and Luke Skywalker, presented by Princess Leia.

Next from 1980 we were watching Star Wars: Episode V, The Empire Strikes Back.

It is now three years after the events of A New Hope. The Rebel Alliance has been forced to flee its base on Yavin 4 and establish a new one on the ice planet of Hoth.

An Imperial Star Destroyer, dispatched by the Sith Lord Darth Vader, continuing his quest for Luke Skywalker, launches thousands of probe droids across the galaxy, one of which lands on Hoth and begins its survey of the planet. Luke Skywalker, on patrol astride his tauntaun, discovers the probe, which he mistakes for a meteorite. After reporting to comrade Han Solo that he'll investigate the site, Luke is knocked unconscious by a deadly wampa.

When Luke fails to report in at Echo Base, Han Solo goes out on his tauntaun to search for him in an encroaching storm. Upon waking up, Luke finds himself hanging upside down in a cave; his eyes opening to the sight of a wampa eating his tauntaun. Using the power of the Force, Luke is able to pull his lightsaber out of the snow and towards himself. After he ignites it, he cuts himself free and cuts off the attacking wampa's arm just in time, running out of the cave and escaping into the cold night of Hoth.

Luke tries to make his way to Echo Base on foot, but he finds himself lost in the blizzard and collapses in the snow. Suddenly, he sees the Force spirit of Obi-Wan Kenobi appear before him. Ben tells Luke to go to Dagobah to undergo training under Yoda, a Jedi Grand Master. After the spirit disappears, Han arrives to find an almost unconscious Luke, who is mumbling indistinctly about Ben, Yoda and Dagobah. At this point, the tauntaun that Han was riding on collapses in the extreme cold. To keep Luke from freezing to death during the blizzard, Han uses Luke's lightsaber to cut open the dead tauntaun and places Luke in it. Han then sets about erecting a shelter that he and Luke will stay in during the night. They are forced to stay out during the night as the aircraft (snowspeeders) that the Rebels use for atmospheric flight had not yet been adapted for the extremely low temperatures of the Hoth night and are therefore unable to mount a rescue operation to retrieve Han and Luke.

The next morning, Rebel Pilots flying the snowspeeders set out from Echo Base to search for the missing men. Zev Senesca, one of the pilots in Rogue Group, makes contact with Han over comlink and the pair are rescued. When they are taken back to base, Luke is put in a bacta tank for healing under the care of medical droid, 2-1B.

Princess Leia Organa tries to urge Han to stay with the rebels, and when Han assumes it is because she has feelings for him, Leia loses her temper and calls him a "stuck-up, half-witted, scruffy-looking nerf herder."

Meanwhile, the probe droid has spotted signs that indicate Hoth is occupied and sends a signal to the Imperial fleet, shortly before being destroyed by Han Solo and Chewbacca. Aboard the Executor, Admiral Kendal Ozzel dismisses the information as evidence of smugglers, nothing more. However, Darth Vader knows better and orders the fleet to Hoth. General Rieekan, realizing the Empire is probably aware of their location, orders the evacuation of Echo Base to begin.

The Battle of Hoth

Darth Vader and the Imperial forces set course for the Hoth system to set up the attack. The rebels load whatever equipment they can onto transports and plan a rear-guard action to secure their escape. Luke, now fully recovered from the Wampa attack and subsequent exposure, says farewell to Chewbacca and Solo, who have decided to leave the Alliance to resolve their debt to Jabba the Hutt. As the Imperial forces enter the Hoth system, General Rieekan orders full power to the energy shield that is protecting the base from orbital bombardment.

Aboard the Executor, General Maximillian Veers notifies Vader that Admiral Ozzel has emerged from lightspeed too close to Hoth. Ozzel intended to catch the Rebels unaware before they could set up their defenses. However, Vader realizes that the Rebels have been alerted to the fleet's arrival. Via video communication, Vader Force chokes Ozzel to death for his incompetence, then appoints Captain Firmus Piett the new Admiral on the spot. As Vader previously ordered, the Imperial ground forces, commanded by General Veers, land outside the Rebels' shield and march overland to destroy the power generator.

Princess Leia gives the Rebel fighters instructions on the evacuation to leave Hoth two to three ships at a time past the energy shield to a rendezvous point, which is beyond the outer rim. Rieekan lowers the shields to fire the Ion cannon at one of the Imperial Star Destroyers allowing the first transports to escape. The Rebel pilots assigned to hold off the Imperial ground assault depart the Hoth base for the oncoming battle against heavily equipped Imperial forces, who are armed with agile AT-STs (All Terrain Scout Transports) and monstrous AT-AT (All Terrain Armored Transport) walkers, led by General Veers.

The Rogue Squadron snowspeeder group led by Luke commences the attack. Luke quickly realizes the AT-AT's armor is far too strong for blasters and decides to use attached harpoons and tow cables to tangle the walker's legs. Luke's gunner Dak Ralter is hit and killed during the first approach. This leaves Wedge Antilles and his gunner Wes Janson to make the first pass. They manage to topple one of the AT-ATs, which is destroyed as Rebel troops storm it. The main AT-AT, commanded by General Veers, prepares to take their aim at the Rebel base's main power generator. Suddenly, Luke's speeder is shot down by the Imperials, and crash-lands in the snow. Luke escapes before an AT-AT can step on and crush his ship.

The Rebel base is now under direct attack and Imperial snowtroopers have entered the base, forcing Han, Leia, Chewbacca, and C-3PO to escape. Leia gives the evacuation command for the base as they leave.

Luke, meanwhile, manages to destroy another AT-AT by using his hoist cable and lightsaber to get into the belly of the transport, tossing in a thermal detonator, and then detaching himself from the cable as a series of explosions neutralize the AT-AT. The Rebels suffer major casualties as the result of the battle. The main AT-AT, being driven by General Veers, gets within firing range of the power generator, then successfully blasts and destroys it.

Han, Leia, and company, now realizing they are being followed by Vader (who has arrived personally on Hoth), make their way to the Millennium Falcon in time to escape. As the Falcon flies off, Luke reaches R2-D2 and his X-wing starfighter and finally departs Hoth. Changing course from the rendezvous point, he sets his coordinates for Dagobah.

Han and company are pursued by Imperial TIE fighters. Flipping the switch to take them to lightspeed, Han realizes (with reluctant help from 3PO) that the hyperdrive has been damaged. While trying to fix the hyperdrive system, Han enters an asteroid field to hamper pursuit. He manages to land his ship inside a cavern on one of the larger asteroids to rest and find a way to fix the ship.

The destiny of a Jedi

Luke lands on the marshy planet Dagobah, swamping his X-wing in the process. There, he discovers a diminutive and eccentric figure who fiddles around with Luke's gear. After Luke tells him that he is looking for a Jedi Master, the being offers to take Luke to Yoda.

Back on the Falcon, while Leia tries to make repairs, Han makes his move on the Princess, drawing himself closer to her before both end up in a passionate kiss. When Threepio arrives, Leia withdraws and walks away.

Vader orders the entirety of Death Squadron to begin sweeping the asteroid field to find the Millennium Falcon As the search continues, the dangers of the field begin to take their toll: an asteroid smashes into the bridge tower of a Star Destroyer, presumably killing all aboard. On the Executor, Vader communicates with the captains of the other ships (the captain of the demolished star destroyer throws his arms up in horror, and the transmission fades). One officer, Captain Lorth Needa, tells Vader that they should consider their damage. Vader firmly replies that they will continue the search. Shortly afterward, Admiral Piett informs Vader that Emperor Sheev Palpatine commands he make contact immediately. Vader orders his ship out of the asteroid field for a clear transmission.

In his private quarters, Vader receives a holographic message from Palpatine, alias Darth Sidious, who alerts the Dark Lord to a "new enemy who could destroy" the Empire - Luke Skywalker. Vader suggests that if Luke could be turned, he would be a "powerful ally". Lord Sidious agrees, saying that Luke would be a "great asset" and asks his apprentice if it could be done. Vader declares Luke will join the Empire "or die".

Instead of going straight to Yoda, Luke is brought to the creature's hut. Luke insists on going to find Yoda immediately, but the small creature only responds with "Not far. Yoda not far." The diminutive figure then declares the boy lacks patience, but the voice of Kenobi tells the figure that the boy will learn patience if he is to be trained. Only then does Luke realize that the small green figure is Yoda. Yoda asks Kenobi if he will finish whatever training he begins, then suspects that Luke will someday succumb to fear.

The next day, while cleaning parasitic creatures called Mynocks off the Falcon, Solo and his companions are forced to escape what turns out to be a titanic space slug (which resided in the asteroid the Falcon landed on). Meanwhile, Luke begins a rigorous training regime from Yoda which includes moral lessons about the dangers of the dark side of the Force. That particular lesson is driven home when he is told to enter a cave that is strong with the Dark Side's power. Ignoring Yoda's counsel to leave his weapons, Luke enters the cavern armed. Once inside, he has a vision of himself angrily confronting Darth Vader and beheading him. However, the severed head's mask bursts apart and reveals Luke's face underneath; it is a warning that if Luke battles Vader with no emotional control, he will become Vader himself, seduced by the Dark Side.

Back on the Star Destroyer, Vader enlists the bounty hunters, Boba Fett, Dengar, IG-88, Bossk, 4-LOM and Zuckuss to find the Millennium Falcon for a "substantial reward". One of the Imperial commanders finally spots the Falcon, leading to another pursuit which results in the Falcon eluding the Empire by making the insanely counter intuitive move of attacking the lead Star Destroyer. However, at the last moment, the ship veers off and secretly attaches itself to the rear of the cruiser's command tower, which is not extensively covered by sensors, making it appear to have vanished from the Destroyer's point of view.

Days later, while training, Luke becomes distracted when he finds that his X-wing fighter has almost completely submerged into the swamp. Luke declares he will never be able to get the ship out, seeing that it is too big for him to extract from the water. Yoda says it is "no different, only different in your mind." Luke says he'll "try" to lift the ship, but Yoda says "No! Do or do not, there is no try." Luke tries to use the Force, but to no avail. Yoda reminds him that "size matters not" and gives him wisdom about the Force. Luke denies all of this, then Yoda decides to use the Force to lift the ship out himself. Luke is dumbfounded and incredulous. Yoda senses the youngster's failures within his mind.

When the fleet disperses to search for the Falcon, the Rebels wait for the ship to do its standard dump of refuse before jumping, then detach to float away with it. The Falcon's hyperdrive needs repairs, so Han decides to make their way to Cloud City, a gas-mining colony run by his "old friend" Lando Calrissian. Unfortunately, the bounty hunter Boba Fett had deduced the Falcon's escape method and had his ship jettisoned with the waste to stealthily follow the fugitives.

The next day, Yoda reminds Luke of the things the young Jedi will see in his mind, the future, the past, and of friends he recognizes. Luke loses concentration again and has a vision of his friends in danger. He wants to leave Dagobah to rescue them, but Yoda reminds him that if he leaves now, everything his friends fought and suffered for will be destroyed.

The city in the clouds

Upon arrival at Cloud City, Han's party is welcomed by an old friend of his who goes by the name Lando Calrissian. However, there are numerous elements that make the Rebels suspicious, not the least of which being C-3PO being found deactivated, dismembered, and almost recycled.

That evening, Luke and R2-D2 prepare themselves to leave Dagobah, but are warned by both Yoda and the spirit form of Kenobi not to end training so soon for a fight Luke is not ready for. Ben declares that should Luke decide to face Vader, he will have to face him alone without interference. Luke understands this, and his ship takes off from Dagobah. Yoda is disappointed, declaring Luke is reckless. Ben tells Yoda "That boy is our last hope", however, Yoda answers back, "No… there is another…"

A day later, Han and company find themselves betrayed by Calrissian who was approached by the Empire just before the Rebels' arrival and threatened him and the city unless he cooperated. They became the captives of Darth Vader, who proceeds to torture Han and Leia to create a disturbance in the Force for Luke to detect.

That afternoon, Vader enters a carbon-freezing chamber intending to freeze Luke Skywalker once he arrives. The Dark Lord uses the opportunity for Boba Fett to deliver Solo to Jabba the Hutt (to whom Han owed a debt) by testing the device on Solo himself. Han and company enter the chamber for the experiment. At first, Chewbacca resists the stormtroopers, but Han restrains him, saving his strength for another time. Han says goodbye to Leia with a passionate kiss before he is escalated into the carbon freezing chamber. When he is successfully entombed in carbonite in a state of suspended animation, Vader hands over Han to bounty hunter Boba Fett for transportation to Tatooine to receive a bounty from Jabba. One of the Imperial commanders informs Vader that Luke's starfighter has arrived on Bespin. The Dark Lord orders Lando to take Leia, Chewbacca, and C-3PO to his Star Destroyer, reneging on a deal he made with Calrissian. However, the Cloud City administrator has other plans.

Duel with the Dark Lord and escape from the Cloud City

Luke makes his way to Bespin safely. He quietly walks down the corridors of Cloud City. He spots Boba Fett who is taking the now-frozen Solo back to his ship. He attempts to follow but is thwarted when the bounty hunter notices and opens fire. Luke narrowly escapes and runs down farther into the corridor. He finally meets up with Leia, Chewie, and Lando, who have been captured by stormtroopers. Luke tries to ambush the group of Imperials, but is unsuccessful. Leia yells at him and tells him that "it's a trap!" Luke runs after his captured friends, hoping to save them, but wanders into the carbon-freezing chamber. There, he meets with Vader and the two fight in an epic lightsaber duel, where Luke's undeveloped Jedi skills are no match for Vader's experience.

The Imperials (escorting the Rebel prisoners out of Bespin) are overpowered by Cloud City security, setting Lando and company free. Chewbacca turns against Lando for betraying Han and chokes him, but he manages to tell the Wookiee there's still a chance to rescue Han at the East Platform. C-3PO is reunited with his companion R2-D2. Lando and company arrive too late as Fett's ship takes off, then engage in a fierce battle with stormtroopers.

Luke and Vader continue the duel in the darkened rooms of the Cloud City. Luke didn't follow Han's sad fate when he fell into the freezing mine, but he manages to jump out of it with the help of the Force a moment before Vader activates the freezing system. The fight continues. Vader uses the Dark Side of the Force, hurling everything that comes to hand at Luke: equipment, construction elements and furniture. One of the items breaks the window, creating a vacuum. Luke is quickly pulled out and the fight moves to the emergency platform.

As the gunfight continues, Lando orders an evacuation of Cloud City before the arrival of the main forces of the Empire, then the rebel company manages to find their last hope of escape… the Millennium Falcon.

On the emergency platform of the Cloud City, Luke and Vader continue the duel. Vader knocks Luke off his feet and invites him to surrender so that he won't let himself be killed, like Obi-Wan. However, the young man is not yet defeated and continues to fight. During the duel over the abyss, Luke beats Vader with his saber in his right shoulder, slightly damaging his dark armor. Vader is furious and cuts Luke's right hand holding a lightsaber (the hand and the saber fall into the abyss). Then he reveals to Luke the fatal truth about his father:

Luke does not want to believe what he heard, and accuses Vader of lying, but he advises the young man to listen to his own heart, and thus understand that this is pure truth. Shocked and frightened by the cruel truth, Luke falls into despair, still not wanting to believe what he heard. Vader invites the young man to reunite with him in order to destroy the Emperor together and rule the galaxy as a father and son. However, Luke chooses suicide over being corrupted and throws himself down a deep shaft.

Luke is sucked into an air vent, exits the underbelly of the city and catches an antenna beneath Cloud City. Facing clear death, Luke calls out to Ben Kenobi in vain (Kenobi had warned Luke that he would not be able to help Luke once he faced Vader). Then, he calls out to the only other one who could help… Leia.

Leia mysteriously senses Luke's telepathic distress signal. The Falcon turns around and comes back to Cloud City. Using an escape hatch, Lando manages to catch Luke and rescue him before the wounded Jedi falls helplessly to the planet as TIE Fighters race toward them. The Falcon finally leaves Bespin's gravitational field and is about to escape into hyperspace when the hyperdrive system again fails (as it turns out - this is the work of the imperial specialists, as reported by the city computer R2-D2). Vader asks for confirmation that the Millennium Falcon's hyperdrive system was deactivated to prevent their escape, then orders weapons be set to stun.

As the Imperials pursue the Falcon, the injured Luke telepathically hears the voice of Vader calling to him. He answers, "Father…", while Vader telepathically calls, "Son, come with me". Luke senses it is Vader, then cries, "Ben, why didn't you tell me?"

C-3PO commands that R2-D2 finish reconstructing him after his ordeal in Cloud City. However, with quick ingenuity, R2 manages to re-activate the Falcon's hyperdrive system just in time for the ship to flee to hyperspace. Vader is disappointed and retreats to his secret quarters in his Star Destroyer, ignoring Piett's failure.

The film ends on a EF76 Nebulon-B escort frigate at the Rebel fleet's rendezvous point, where Luke under the care of 2-1B again which includes the implantation of a prosthetic hand. Lando and Chewbacca begin their parts of a most dangerous mission… rescuing Han. Lando promises to Leia they'll bring her back the man she loves. Luke, Leia, and the droids look on as the Falcon departs for unknown territories.

Six months after the Battle of Hoth, Darth Vader lands in the docking bay of the incomplete second Death Star, which the Empire designed to be more powerful than the first. He is greeted by Moff Tiaan Jerjerrod, but demands construction be put back on schedule in order to complete the Death Star on time. Jerjerrod argues that they need more men, but quickly agrees to double their efforts when he learns that the Emperor is coming.

Arriving at Jabba's Palace

Meanwhile, Luke Skywalker and company have arrived on Tatooine in an attempt to rescue Han Solo from Jabba the Hutt's desert palace.

First the droids, R2-D2 and C-3PO, arrive with a holographic message from Skywalker asking Jabba to release Solo. In exchange the two droids are presented as gifts to the crime lord; Luke promises that both are hardworking and that they will serve him well, which Jabba agrees to silently. However, when the message finishes he states that there will be no bargain and that he won't give up his "favorite decoration." The two droids are then sent to their quarters, where EV-9D9 harshly barks at the two when they explain what they can do. Threepio is ordered to be Jabba's interpreter, while Artoo is tasked with working on the Khetanna.

That evening, the Max Rebo Band (led by Sy Snootles) entertains the Hutt's guests. Jabba, engaged by the graceful gyrations of his collared slave girl Oola, starts tugging on her chain and commanding her to come to him on his throne. Oola fearfully resists him, and in annoyance, Jabba pushes a button on his throne, and Oola is dropped through a hidden trapdoor at the foot of his throne, into the pit of the Rancor monster, which immediately devours her.

Saving Han Solo

Later, Princess Leia Organa (in the guise of bounty hunter Boushh) arrives with Chewbacca as her "prisoner" to collect part of the bounty Jabba sought years earlier when he put a price on Solo's head. After much bargaining (including Leia threatening Jabba with a thermal detonator), Jabba settles on a deal, and has Chewbacca imprisoned.

That night, Leia releases Han Solo from his carbonite coffin, and after revealing her identity to him, she kisses him. As they prepare to escape, they are caught by Jabba and his minions. Ignoring Han's pleas, Jabba has the captain thrown in prison with Chewbacca. Although Lando Calrissian (disguised as one of Jabba's prison guards) tries to sneak off with Leia, Jabba stops them and orders a Gamorrean guard to bring Leia to him. Leia is forced to become Jabba's newest slave girl, and chained to the dais as a trophy.

Luke Skywalker arrives at the palace

Later, Luke arrives at the palace. Jabba and most of his minions are asleep, but are awoken by Bib Fortuna (who, in trying to impede the Jedi's entrance, is Force-tricked into welcoming him). Leia remains silent beside the Hutt, despite her rising hope at seeing Luke. Luke demands that Jabba release Han and his other friends, but Jabba refuses the young Jedi's offer. Luke uses the Force to pull a nearby blaster and attempts to shoot Jabba, but the Hutt activates the trapdoor to protect himself, dropping the Jedi and an unfortunate guard into the Rancor pit.

After a battle with the Rancor (which devours the fallen guard), Luke ultimately kills the monster by crushing it under the gate of its compound, piercing its neck with the spikes at the bottom of the gate. He is then recaptured and brought up by Jabba's minions. Jabba, furious, chokes Leia until she falls back on his belly, and orders the prisoners to be brought before him. Luke, Han, and Chewbacca are brought before Jabba, exchanging relief at each other's safety as Leia struggles with Jabba to sit upright before him.

Using C-3PO as a translator, Jabba sentences Luke and his friends to be taken to the Dune Sea for termination (over a course of a thousand years) by the man-eating Sarlacc at the Great Pit of Carkoon. Luke warns Jabba that he's made his last mistake, at which the Hutt laughs in amusement.

Skirmish at the Great Pit of Carkoon

En route, R2-D2 is tasked with serving drinks to Jabba's guests, and the Max Rebo band plays music in the background. Jabba allows Leia to climb off his throne and watch her friends from a window; after a while, he gives a tug on her chain, playfully commanding her to come to him. Leia glares back at him, but as the chain is slack, she returns to watching, and Jabba chuckles. Bib Fortuna, seeing this, joins him on his throne.

Outside, Luke and his companions (with Lando, still in disguise) are being taken to the Pit of Carkoon on one of the land skiffs accompanying the Sail Barge. Han, still half-blinded from the side-effects of carbonization, is sure that they are all going to die, and Luke tries to reassure him of their ultimate safety, but Han is not easily convinced. Elsewhere in the Sail Barge, C-3PO literally runs into R2-D2 and knocks over the shorter droid's drink tray. C-3PO laments their friends' imminent deaths, but R2-D2 shows a kind of confidence, which C-3PO doesn't see any reason for.

When the vehicles ultimately reach the Pit, Jabba has C-3PO announce the group's deaths, but that he is willing to now listen to their pleas. Han calls Jabba names and tells him that he'll not get any pleasure from their pleading, much to the Hutt's amusement, and Luke offers a final chance for Jabba to free him and his friends or die. Jabba and his guests laugh off this last threat and order the execution to commence. Luke gets ushered off of a plank and into the Sarlacc, only to Force-flip up through the air and onto the skiff. Meanwhile, R2-D2 launches Luke's recently built lightsaber from a hidden panel in his housing, and Luke catches it and begins to kill his captors. As Jabba furiously orders his bustling guards and minions to intervene, C-3PO gets knocked over. Leia looks around, ready to use her false submission to the Hutt to her advantage.

Boba Fett uses his jetpack to fly off of the Barge and land on the skiff as Luke is in the act of freeing Han and Chewbacca. Luke uses his lightsaber to cut Fett's blaster in half, and Chewbacca pushes the bounty hunter onto the deck. Luke then jumps onto another of the accompanying skiffs to fight off the guards and minions there.

While fighting a guard, Lando accidentally falls off the side of the skiff, and although he manages to hold onto a wire, one of the Sarlacc's tentacles begins to pull him to his death, and Han and Chewbacca have to carefully rescue him. Han accidentally activates Fett's backpack when he turns around and smashes the butt of an axe against it. Fett subsequently flies out of control from the skiff, crashing against the hull of the Barge before falling into the Sarlacc's open mouth, making it belch.

Aboard the Sail Barge, Leia smashes the controls for the Sail Barge's interior lights, throwing it into darkness, and proceeds to strangle Jabba with her chain, killing him, Leia jumps off of the throne and has R2-D2 help break her chain, then heads for the stairs to the top surface of the Sail Barge. Meanwhile, Salacious B. Crumb attacks the fallen C-3PO, and R2-D2 uses the same device he'd freed Leia with to chase the lizard-monkey away. Reaching the surface, the droids jump off the edge of the Sail Barge and land in the Tatooinian sand.

Luke and Leia defeat the remaining guards on the Sail Barge, then Luke has Leia point the guns toward the heart of the vehicle. They prepare to swing from a loose cable on the Barge's sails, and Luke discharges the guns, beginning to destroy the Barge. They swing to their rescue on the land skiff with Han, Lando, and Chewbacca, then use magnets to pick up the two droids from the sand. They all drive off just as the Sail Barge explodes.

Later, all of the crew (except for Luke and R2-D2) depart Tatooine for the rendezvous point near Sullust (mentioned in The Empire Strikes Back) where the Rebel Alliance is assembling, while Luke and R2-D2 (in their X-wing) head for Dagobah to fulfill a promise to Yoda made some time earlier.

The Emperor arrives

On the Death Star, Emperor Palpatine arrives and praises Lord Vader on his efforts in the construction of the Death Star. He also senses that Vader craves the continuation of his search for his son, Luke. The old Sith Lord assures his apprentice that Luke will seek Vader out, that only together would the Sith be able to turn Luke to the dark side of the Force, and that everything was proceeding as Palpatine has foreseen.

Returning to Dagobah

Luke and R2-D2 arrive on Dagobah to find a terminally ill Yoda. Luke has returned to complete his Jedi training, but Yoda declares no further training is required. All that remains for Luke is to confront Vader. Yoda then reveals that Vader is indeed his father. The 900-year-old Jedi Master gives one last mention of wisdom to the young Jedi before he dies (and disappears in the way Ben Kenobi did in A New Hope, thereby becoming one with the Force).

As Luke approaches his X-wing, the spirit form of Obi-Wan confirms that Vader was once Anakin Skywalker, a former Jedi Knight who turned to the dark side of the Force. Kenobi also reveals that Luke has a twin sister, hidden from Luke at birth as protection from the Emperor. Luke senses that his sister is Leia. Kenobi warns Luke to bury his feelings, for they could in time "serve the Emperor."

The mission begins

At the rendezvous point near Sullust, the Rebel Alliance gathers to reveal plans to attack the Death Star. As part of the plans, Luke, Leia, Solo, Chewbacca, C-3PO, R2-D2, and a strike team must penetrate the deflector shield generator on the forest moon of Endor in order to deactivate the shield if the Rebel fleet is to attack the Death Star. However, Vader knows this because he could sense that his son was with them and allows them to land on the planet. Luke senses his father as well and begins to believe that he would endanger the mission by coming.

The strike team lands on Endor only to be discovered by Imperial scout troopers. A speeder bike chase ensues, only for Leia to be thrown off her speeder and knocked unconscious. Luke and Han discover Leia's helmet, then they, with Chewbacca and the droids, try to find her. Leia is awakened by one of Endor's forest creatures, an Ewok named Wicket W. Warrick. Suddenly, another scout trooper discovers Leia, but Wicket does away with the trooper before rescuing Leia.

Luke, Han, Chewbacca, and the droids, meanwhile, fall into a booby trap set by the Ewoks. R2-D2 cuts open the net setting them free, but the Ewok tribe discovers C-3PO and proclaims him to be their god. The droid's Human and Wookiee friends are taken prisoner, and the Ewoks proclaim Han to be the main course in a banquet in C-3PO's honor. Discovered by Leia, Luke then uses the Force to levitate C-3PO to show off his "great magic." Convinced of the Rebels' good intentions, the Ewoks set them free and later that evening make them "part of the tribe," thereby agreeing to join the fight against the Empire. But Luke decides the time has come to leave Endor and face Darth Vader. Leia follows Luke out of the tribal gathering, whereupon he tells her that Vader is his father and she is his sister. Leia is utterly speechless and shocked, but accepts the truth. She is comforted by Han Solo.

Meeting the Emperor

Vader arrives in his shuttle on a docking bay, and Luke, having already surrendered to the Empire, talks with Vader in an attempt to bring the Sith Lord out of the dark side of the Force, but to no avail. The Empire takes Luke into custody for transportation to the Death Star. The next day, the Rebels attempt to locate the shield generator, and the Rebel fleet enters hyperspace from Sullust to prepare for the final attack. Luke and Vader finally enter the Death Star and confront the Emperor, who looks forward to completing Luke's training and believes that while Vader would never turn from the dark side, neither would Luke. He also reveals that it was he who coordinated the Rebels finding the secret plans and locating the shield generator so that the Alliance can fall into a trap of Palpatine's devising.

The Battle of Endor begins

The Rebels enter the heart of the shield generator, only to be taken prisoner by the Imperial forces. The fleet emerges from hyperspace for the battle, but discovers the shield is still up. As they contemplate their options, the Imperial fleet, which they were led to believe was away, appears and an intense battle begins. Han and the strike team are led out of the bunker by the stormtroopers, but the droids and the Ewoks have already orchestrated the attack on the Empire, and another intense battle commences with the Rebels and Ewoks on one side, the Empire on another. The Emperor shows Luke the full power of the Death Star as the station, now fully operational, destroys one of the Alliance's ships. Meanwhile, on Endor, the battle continues, with casualties (Rebel, stormtrooper, and Ewok) already mounting. Eventually, Han, Leia, and Chewbacca gain access to the bunker.

Duel between father and son

Back on the Death Star, Luke, with the encouragement of Darth Sidious, lashes out at him with his lightsaber, only to be deflected by Vader, and the final duel between father and son begins. As Luke climbs onto a balcony, Vader throws his lightsaber at his son. It misses Luke and knocks the balcony down, taking Luke with it. Vader stalks for a hidden Luke to let down his guard, while quietly sensing within his son's mind that Luke has a sister. Vader threatens to turn her to the dark side if Luke will not, but Luke responds viciously in intense saber fighting, up to the point where Luke strikes off Vader's right mechanical hand. Sidious encourages Luke to kill his father so the young Jedi can take Vader's place at his side. But Luke controls his anger and throws his lightsaber aside. He declares himself to be a Jedi Knight as his father Anakin was before he turned over to the dark side and turned into Darth Vader.

Vader's choice

Han, Leia, and Chewbacca escape from the bunker, just in time for its destruction, thus bringing down the shield. The Alliance is now free to attack the half-completed Death Star. On the Death Star, the enraged Emperor declares that if Luke will not turn to the dark side, he will be destroyed, and uses Force lightning against the young Jedi. He slowly increases the intensity of the lightning, torturing Luke. He then calls out to his father to help him. But as the Emperor prepares to deliver the killing bolts, Vader must make a choice, he looks at Luke and then the Emperor, conflicted whether to save his son or to continue serving his master.

Moved by his son's cries for help, Vader lifts the Emperor into the air, carries him over and throws him into the Death Star's reactor shaft. As he does this, the Emperor continues to shoot force lightning, which enters Vader's organic remains, striking Vader's life support system and his respirator, mortally wounding him. The Millennium Falcon and its remaining Rebel fighters enter the bowels of the Death Star, and some fighters engage in a point-blank attack on the Super Star Destroyer, causing the Imperial flagship's destruction.

Death of Anakin Skywalker

On the Death Star, in the middle of an evacuation, Luke has carried his father's ravaged body to the foot of an Imperial shuttle's ramp. Vader stops Luke and asks him to remove his mask so that he can look upon the face of his son, just for once, with his "own eyes."

Luke removes the mask and sees the face of his father, Anakin Skywalker. Anakin's face is revealed to have turned pale white from not seeing natural sunlight in 23 years, and his head retains some scars after 23 years from his first duel with Obi-Wan Kenobi (as depicted in Star Wars: Episode III Revenge of the Sith).

Anakin tells Luke that his son was right-he did have good left in him, and asks him to tell his sister the same. With that, Anakin Skywalker, the redeemed Jedi Knight, smiles at his son and dies peacefully. Luke bows his head in sadness.

Knocking out the main reactor

The Millennium Falcon and its strike force (in the last Rebel fighter inside) reach the Death Star's main reactor and fire concussion missiles and proton torpedoes at it, causing it to collapse. Luke escapes the Death Star with his father's body and flies out through the flames, and so do Wedge Antilles and the Millennium Falcon before the Death Star explodes.

Seeing the destruction from above, Han senses Leia's love for Luke. He offers to step aside when Luke arrives, but she tells Han that Luke is her brother. After a moment of shock and/or surprise, Han and Leia engage in a passionate kiss.

The galaxy celebrates

That evening, Luke sets a funeral pyre ablaze to burn the body of his father, still encased in the armor of Darth Vader. His father's organic body had become one with the Force. Through the midst of the rising flames and fireworks, Rebel fighters streak across the sky in celebration of one of the greatest Rebel victories in the Galactic Civil War. The planets Bespin, Tatooine,

Naboo, and Coruscant also celebrate. Luke is reunited with his companions Han, Lando, the droids, Chewbacca, the surviving Rebel fleet, the Ewoks, and his sister Leia. Luke then catches sight of the spirit figures of Obi-Wan Kenobi, Yoda, and a redeemed Anakin Skywalker. Luke is pleased: not only is he now a Jedi, but his father is once again on the light side of the Force. Leia takes Luke by the hand, and they rejoin their friends and colleagues as the spirits of Obi-Wan, Yoda, and Anakin continue to look on with pride.

We saw Emperor Palpatine fall into the Power Reactor of the Death Star 2 and we thought that would be the end of it. But we were dead wrong. We continued watching and we were watching Star Wars: Episode VII - The Force Awakens from 2015.

---

Approximately thirty years after the destruction of the second Death Star, Luke Skywalker, the last known surviving Jedi Master, has disappeared. Both the First Order, a successor to the fallen Galactic Empire, and the Resistance, a military force backed by the New Republic and led by Luke's twin sister, General Leia Organa, scour the galaxy in an attempt to find him.

Leia sends Resistance pilot Poe Dameron on a secret mission to the village of Tuanul on the desert planet Jakku, to meet with village elder Lor San Tekka, who has obtained a map to Luke Skywalker's location. During the meeting, First Order stormtroopers under the command of Kylo Ren and Captain Phasma attack the village. Poe and his astromech droid BB-8 attempt to flee in their X-wing starfighter, but a pair of stormtroopers disable the engines with their blasters. With no alternative, Poe gives the map to BB-8 and orders the BB unit to flee. Poe remains behind to cover BB-8's escape.

After stormtrooper FN-2187 is deployed, FN-2003 is hit with blaster fire by Poe. FN-2187 goes to help his squadmate, but FN-2003's wound proves fatal, and in his final moments, FN-2003 smears his blood on FN-2187's helmet before dying, deeply affecting FN-2187. After securing the area, the remaining villagers are herded into the town square. Tekka is captured and brought before Kylo Ren, who demands to know where the map leading to Luke is. Tekka responds that he knows who Ren used to be, and chides Ren that he cannot escape his real identity. Growing impatient, Ren kills Tekka by striking him down with his lightsaber.

Poe takes a shot at Ren from cover, but Ren casually stops the blaster bolt in mid-air with the Force. Poe is captured, and Ren decides to interrogate him further back on their ship. Before leaving, Phasma asks what to do with the crowd of captive villagers, and Ren orders them all slaughtered. Stormtrooper FN-2187 is horrified as the massacre plays out in front of him, remaining motionless and not firing his weapon.

Return to the Finalizer

Returning to the Resurgent-class Star Destroyer Finalizer, FN-2187 is overwhelmed with emotions because of the death of his squadmate and the massacre of the villagers. He ducks inside an empty shuttle to take his helmet off, breathing heavily, but Phasma notices him and tells him to submit his blaster for inspection, having earlier noticed that he did not fire a shot. Knowing he would be punished and re-evaluated for not firing on the villagers, and with his faith in the First Order severely shaken, he decides to desert. Meanwhile, after failed attempts of torturing Poe for vital information about the map of Luke Skywalker's location, Ren uses his mind probe Force power to pry the information from Poe's mind. Ren learns that the map is located within a BB series droid that fled the village, and informs General Armitage Hux of the new information.

Encounter with the scavenger

Elsewhere on Jakku, a scavenger named Rey traverses the corridors of a downed Star Destroyer at the Graveyard of Giants. Scavenging through the Star Destroyer, she finds a valuable piece of salvage and drops it in her satchel. Rey heads to Niima Outpost, and hauls the sack of salvage throughout the town. She then goes to Unkar Plutt to exchange her scraps for foodstuff, and he offers her a quarter portion for her salvage. After taking the foodstuff, Rey heads to her home, a downed AT-AT, and prepares a meal for herself. After finishing her meal, she watches a starship depart from the planet and then notices a distant sound. She immediately runs off with her quarterstaff to investigate.

There, she encounters BB-8 struggling against being captured by a green-skinned humanoid scavenger named Teedo. She frees the droid and gives it directions to Niima Outpost and sends it on its way, but BB-8 insists on traveling with her. Rey goes to Unkar Plutt to again exchange her salvage for foodstuff, and the Crolute offers to buy BB-8 for sixty food portions; while tempted, Rey declines the offer. Plutt then sends two thugs to steal BB-8.

Escape from the Finalizer

Needing a pilot to escape, FN-2187 frees the captured Poe Dameron from his cell, and the two steal a Special Forces TIE fighter. FN-2187 mans the guns, killing several of his former comrades in the hangar, and then disables the Finalizer's turbolasers on the outside of the vessel. During the escape, Dameron asks the stormtrooper his name, to which he explains that he has been raised from birth to be a stormtrooper, and the serial number "FN-2187" is the only designation he has ever had. Not content with calling a man a number, Dameron names the trooper "Finn", from the FN in his name. Finn likes the name, and goes on to use it. Dameron also tells him that the map vital to the Resistance was located within his astromech droid. Before they can continue their conversation and escape, the TIE is hit by a missile fired from the Finalizer, sending it spiraling towards the planet below.

Phasma reveals to Hux that this was FN-2187's first offense of non-conformity. A technician then informs Hux that the TIE fighter was projected to crash on Goazon Badlands, a canyon zone on Jakku. Realizing that Poe and Finn were going after BB-8, Hux sends out a squadron of search teams to the area.

Escape from Jakku

Finn and Dameron eject from the TIE shortly before it crashes, each landing separately some distance from the wreckage. Making his way to the crash, Finn finds Poe's jacket, but no other sign of the man, and the fighter sinks into the sand. Believing Dameron to be dead, Finn begins wandering through the desert, discarding his stormtrooper armor along the way and eventually arriving at the nearest settlement, thirsting for water.

While Finn staggers to an animal trough to desperately slake his thirst, he notices thugs attempting to steal a BB unit droid, which Finn recognizes as BB-8, from a woman, Rey, but she fends them off with her staff. BB-8 notices Finn, wearing his master Dameron's jacket, prompting Rey to chase after him. Rey attacks Finn, believing him to be a thief. Finn explains that he had met and helped Poe escape the Finalizer, but that Dameron had apparently perished during their crash. The First Order tracks Finn to the settlement, and launches an airstrike in attempt to search for BB-8 and the map. Rey, Finn, and BB-8 attempt to flee towards a Quadjumper but TIEs destroy it. With only one option left, the trio manages to escape in the Millennium Falcon. Rey flies it through the Graveyard of Giants, while Finn fires on and destroys the pursuing TIE fighters. With the TIE fighters destroyed, they escape into space.

Back aboard the Finalizer, Lieutenant Dopheld Mitaka informs Kylo Ren that the droid escaped on a stolen freighter and that it was aided by the deserter FN-2187. Ren activates his lightsaber and lashes out in a rage-fueled tantrum, slashing at an instrument panel uncontrollably. Mitaka tells Ren that they also appear to have been helped by a local scavenger girl. Kylo grows even more livid, using the Force to pull the officer by his throat across the room in order to choke him with his bare hands, and asking him what girl it was.

Reunited with the Falcon

While Finn and Rey celebrate their escape from Jakku, the Millennium Falcon breaks down. The ship is in major need of repairs, so Finn, Rey and BB-8 begin working to fix it. While they are working on repairs, the ship is caught in a tractor beam by a freighter. Although they initially believe themselves to be captured by the First Order, they soon meet their real captors: Han Solo and Chewbacca, the former owners of the ship. Upon boarding their old vessel, Han and Chewie go about inspecting their ship and find the two stowaways, Rey and Finn, who he assumes were the thieves that had stolen the Falcon. When Rey and Finn explain that they were going to take a droid named BB-8 to the Resistance because it has a map that would reveal Luke's location, Han and Chewie agree to help them.

Skirmish aboard the Eravana

Unfortunately, Han's freighter, the Eravana, is boarded by two notorious criminal factions, the Guavian Death Gang and Kanjiklub, both of whom want their money back from Solo. Not wanting Rey and Finn to be involved, Han hides both of them in the lower corridors of the freighter while he and Chewie go meet with the criminals, with BB-8 accompanying them. Han tries but fails to convince both parties that he would fix things eventually, with the Guavian Death Gang negotiator, Bala-Tik, recognizing the BB-8 astromech droid from a First Order bounty placed on it. They demand that Han hand over the droid and any stowaways he might have on board. As the scuffle continues, Rey accidentally releases three rathtars. The rathtars provide a distraction for Han and Chewie to escape, but one catches Finn and drags him around the freighter. Rey finds a control panel and shuts a blast door on the rathtar, freeing Finn. The two join Han and Chewie and successfully jump to hyperspace in the Falcon. Bala-Tik then orders his men to inform the First Order that Han Solo and the BB unit are aboard the ship.

Meeting with the Supreme Leader

At Starkiller Base, a planet converted into a superweapon, powered by draining the energy of a star, and capable of destroying star systems, Kylo Ren and General Hux are summoned by Supreme Leader Snoke, who appears as a large remote hologram projection. Hux suggests using Starkiller Base to destroy the government of the New Republic and the Resistance, and Snoke grants him the permission to do so. Snoke reveals to Ren that the astromech droid containing the map now resides in the Millennium Falcon - along with his father, Han Solo. Ren insists that his father means nothing to him, and with Snoke's training, he would not be seduced to the light side of the Force.

Journey to Takodana

During the travel in hyperspace, the Falcon experiences a problem with its hyperdrive, but Rey demonstrates her knowledge of ships by bypassing the compressor and fixing the issue. Meanwhile, Finn attempts to bandage Chewie's arm, which was wounded while fighting on the Eravana. After fixing the ship, Han questions Finn and Rey, wondering why they are fugitives. Rey explains that the First Order is after the map located within BB-8 and that Finn is with the Resistance.

After BB-8 displays a projection of the map, Han explains that after Luke disappeared, there were many parties that went searching for him. Luke had tried to rebuild the Jedi Order, but an apprentice of his turned to the dark side, destroying all that Luke had built and killing the other padawans that Luke had trained. Feeling responsible and blaming himself for the failure, Luke went into exile. Han also explains that he heard rumors that Luke went searching for the first Jedi Temple.

Solo explains that he was able to find the Millennium Falcon soon after it entered space because he and Chewbacca were scanning for its signature. This was also why the criminal gangs were able to track it down so quickly, and meant the First Order could track it as well. In order to bring BB-8 to the Resistance, they needed to switch to a clean ship, which Han says he can obtain from an old friend.

Solo takes Rey, Finn, and BB-8 to the planet Takodana to meet with Maz Kanata at her castle. Han says that she has maintained her castle for over a thousand years, where she runs a bustling cantina. Unbeknownst to all, spies from different sides take notice of the group. GA-97 alerts the Resistance that the BB unit has been located, while Bazine Netal informs the First Order of the same.

The conflict within

Attempting to seek guidance from his grandfather, Darth Vader, Kylo Ren sits quietly in his meditation chamber. In front of him is the burned helmet of Vader, recovered from the funeral pyre on Endor. With the re-emergence of his father and Snoke's orders to kill him, Kylo feels an internal struggle within himself. He reveals to Vader's burned helmet that the light is pulling him in again and that even Snoke could sense it. He then asks his grandfather to show him the power of the darkness again, to pull him back to the dark side of the Force and help him overcome his future trials.

A call from the Force

While Han and Chewie speak with Maz, Finn heads out to make a deal of his own. Finn hires Sidon Ithano and his first mate Quiggold to take him away to the Outer Rim for work. Rey implores Finn not to leave, but to help her find the Resistance instead. Finn, however, insists on leaving, believing there is no way to defeat the First Order. He also admits that he lied about being in the Resistance and was really a stormtrooper in the First Order, deserting after his first battle because he didn't want to kill for the First Order. After Finn leaves, Rey hears the screaming of a young girl and finds herself wandering deeper into the castle to find the source. She descends to a sub-chamber that is filled with relics of the past. There she is called by the Force to Maz's curio box, an ancient Wroshyr wood chest. Inside, she finds the lightsaber that had previously belonged to Anakin Skywalker and his son Luke.

Upon touching the lightsaber, she receives a series of visions. Suddenly, she finds herself in Cloud City where Luke battled Darth Vader. As quick as she saw that vision, it goes away, and she now sees Luke placing his metallic hand on top of R2-D2 near a fire, at a site presumed to be Luke's burning Jedi temple. Next, she finds herself lying in the rain at night to see the Knights of Ren surrounded by slaughtered victims, fearing for her life as Ren notices her. Before he reaches her, she sees herself as a child on Jakku watching the departure of her parents, yelling out to them to come back, and being told to quiet herself from Unkar Plutt. Looking to the future, Rey then finds herself being chased by Kylo Ren in a snowy forest. Rey pulls herself out of the vision in terror. After the vision, she finds Kanata standing outside the room. Kanata explains to her the lightsaber's history and that it was calling to her. Kanata then reveals that she herself is Force-sensitive; although she was never a Jedi, she can simply close her eyes and feel the light of the Force within herself, and recognizes that Rey can do this too. Frightened by her vision, Rey refuses to keep the lightsaber, running off into the woods with BB-8.

Hosnian Cataclysm

After gaining Supreme Leader Snoke's permission to fire the Starkiller superweapon, Hux chooses the Hosnian system, which hosts the capital of the New Republic, Hosnian Prime, as well as the New Republic Defense Fleet, in order to demonstrate the power of the First Order in an attempt to wipe out the "illegitimate" government of the New Republic in one fell swoop. The test is a success and Hosnian Prime, the current elected home of the Galactic Senate, all other astronomical bodies in the system, and an unknown percentage of the New Republic fleet are annihilated by the First Order's superweapon. The destruction of the Hosnian system is visible from the surface of Takodana. Shaken by the destruction, Finn re-evaluates his choice to leave.

Battle of Takodana

The First Order, tipped off to BB-8's presence, arrives and attacks Maz Kanata's castle. Flying in with TIE fighters and Atmospheric Assault Landers, the First Order swiftly assaults the castle and levels it, killing many of its inhabitants. Maz gives Luke's old lightsaber to Finn for safekeeping, telling Han she doesn't have time to tell him how she retrieved it. BB-8 follows Rey into the forests surrounding the castle, and the First Order is unable to locate the droid until a stormtrooper officer reports to Kylo Ren that the astromech had been sighted in the company of a girl.

During the fighting at the castle, Finn wields the lightsaber to kill one stormtrooper before he is overpowered by FN-2199, a former squadmate of Finn's. His life is narrowly saved by Han, who uses Chewbacca's bowcaster to blast FN-2199 at the last second. Han and Chewbacca also kill multiple stormtroopers, but are captured along with Finn by the First Order. However, Resistance T-70 X-wing starfighters led by Poe Dameron, who is now revealed to still be alive, arrive to fight the First Order. A fierce dogfight ensues and results in the destruction of many First Order TIEs and the deaths of many stormtroopers from X-wing strafing runs.

Rey encounters Kylo Ren at the woods, and fires at him with her blaster pistol, but Kylo restrains her using the Force. Probing her mind, he discovers that she has seen the map he's been looking for all this time, and orders the First Order to pull out, saying they had what they came for and no longer need BB-8. As the battle rages on above the castle, the remaining First Order troops board their ships and retreat, and Han witnesses his son carrying an unconscious Rey away. The Resistance is victorious, freeing Finn, Han, and Chewbacca. Han and Leia are reunited, and Han reveals to Leia that he saw their son.

Reunited at the Resistance Base

Han, Chewbacca, and Finn are brought to the Resistance base on D'Qar. BB-8 encounters the astromech droid R2-D2, who, as C-3PO explains, has been dormant since Luke's disappearance. With the recovered map from BB-8 displayed on hologram, 3PO reveals that it is only partially complete, and that the map matches no charted system on record. It is revealed that Han and Leia are aware that their son is Kylo Ren, and that their son's fall to the dark side, despite Luke's efforts to guide him, caused them to separate, with Han returning to his smuggling business and Leia spearheading the activities of the Resistance.

Upon finding the location of the Resistance base, Starkiller Base begins draining the power of the sun to destroy D'Qar. Meanwhile, the Resistance plans an attack of their own. Finn gives them the base's blueprints, which reveal that the base drains the energy of a star in order to charge its superweapon, and that it requires a thermal oscillator, which sustains the energy on the planet, in order to function. If the thermal oscillator was destroyed, it would destabilize the planet's core and implode the base. However, they would need to do it before the base charges its weapon and destroys D'Qar. Finn, Han, and Chewie volunteer to disable the base's defensive shield from the inside. Before departing to Starkiller Base, Han and Leia embrace, and Leia pleads Han to bring their son home.

Rey's capture

Rey is brought to Starkiller Base and interrogated by Kylo Ren, who wants information on the map to Luke Skywalker. Ren takes off his helmet and shows her his face. Initially, Ren is able to see into Rey's mind, mentioning an island surrounded by water. However, the dark warrior has a difficult time probing her mind, and Rey is even able to push back into Ren's mind. After a mental struggle, Rey announces that she can sense fear in him - fear that he will never be as powerful as Darth Vader. Humiliated, Kylo storms out of the room to seek audience with Snoke.

Left alone and aware of what just happened, Rey realizes it is as Kanata told her: she truly is Force-sensitive. She attempts to use a Jedi mind trick on her stormtrooper guard, to make him release her and leave the door open. It doesn't work, but Rey tries again: this time he walks over and tells her he will tighten her restraints instead of undoing them. Concentrating, Rey tries one last time, and the stormtrooper listens to her demands. She quickly also remembers to have him drop his blaster as he leaves so she can arm herself. Rey then makes her way through Starkiller Base, honing her Force abilities while using stealth. She also draws on her experience climbing through wrecked Imperial starships to make her way through the bowels of the installation's machinery. Meanwhile, Kylo reveals to Snoke that Rey is strong with the Force but untrained, and Snoke commands Kylo to bring Rey to him. When Kylo discovers that Rey escaped, he throws another fit of rage, slashing at her empty restraint chair.

Battle of Starkiller Base

Han Solo pilots the Millennium Falcon to Starkiller Base accompanied by Chewbacca and Finn. Finn's main objective is to rescue Rey from captivity. Since the Starkiller's shields have a fractional refresh rate, Han pilots through the shields at lightspeed, and the Falcon makes a rough landing at the edge of a cliff. Han, Chewbacca, and Finn sneak into the main base and capture Captain Phasma, whom they force to disable the shields before disposing of her in a garbage chute. They reunite with Rey, who had already escaped on her own. With the shields down, Blue Squadron and Red Squadron led by Black Leader Poe Dameron commence their assault. They fire on the base's hexagonal oscillator structure, but fail to destroy it as the First Order sends TIE fighters to stage a counterattack and throw the Resistance into chaos.

Seeing this, Han, Chewbacca, Finn, and Rey try to create an opening by planting thermal detonators inside the base. Sensing his father's presence, Kylo goes to meet Han. Han then confronts his son, Kylo Ren, calling to him by his birth name, "Ben". They approach each other on a bridge over a large pit, and Han pleads with his son to reject Snoke and return to the light side of the Force. Ben, removing his mask and seeming regretful and scared, holds out his lightsaber to Solo, asking for his father's help. Han replies that he would do anything for him, but when he tries to retract the lightsaber from Ben's hand, he resists. Ben then twists the angle of the hilt and ignites the weapon through Han's torso. Witnessed by Rey, Finn, and Chewbacca, Han strokes his son's face for the last time, before falling to his death. Enraged, Chewbacca, Rey, and Finn start firing at Ren and the stormtroopers. As the firefight rages, back on D'Qar Leia has to sit down when she feels Han die through the Force, squeezing her eyes shut against the tears. Chewbacca injures Ren with his bowcaster, but Ren chases them out of the base and catches up to Finn and Rey in the forest.

Rey calls Ren a monster and then proceeds to shoot him with her blaster, but Ren knocks Rey out by Force pushing her into a tree. A desperate and terrified Finn comes to her aid immediately. Ren angrily accuses Finn of being a traitor, and Finn pulls out Luke's old lightsaber and attacks him in a rage. Ren is already badly injured, bleeding out of his abdomen from the bowcaster wound, but even so is too much for Finn. Finn manages to deal him a glancing wound, but nonetheless Ren quickly overpowers the former stormtrooper and deals him a grievous injury to his back. Ren tries to use telekinesis to pick up the lightsaber his grandfather built, but it resists his pull and instead flies to Rey, who has awakened from her stupor.

During this time, Chewie detonates the thermal detonators in the base, allowing Poe to lead a squadron of X-wings into the trenches of Starkiller Base. Poe finds an opening in the thermal oscillator and enters, while a following TIE crashes, unable to execute the same flight maneuver. Inside, Poe fires volley after volley of torpedoes into the oscillator, destroying the base's thermal oscillator thirty seconds before it finishes draining the sun to completely charge the superweapon. This causes a chain reaction to go off, which destroys the base and levels the entire planet's terrain - without the weapon to dissipate it, the stored solar energy begins tearing the planet apart from the inside.

Rey and Ren continue fighting: Ren has taken even more wounds, from Chewbacca, Finn, and Rey, but even so initially holds the advantage, drawing on his rage to ignore the pain. Ren becomes so impressed with Rey that he tries to tempt her, complimenting her strength with the Force and offering to complete her training if she joins him. This backfires, however, as it only serves to reassure Rey of her own power, she begins to draw on the Force to hone her attacks, and the tide of the duel shifts. Ultimately, Rey is able to overpower Ren and deal him a severe wound to his face while severing his lightsaber in two. By this point, Kylo has taken too many wounds to continue standing, but he still struggles in vain to rise again. Before Rey can move in to finish him off, a large trench forms between them as the base begins to fall apart.

Rey returns to Finn, despairing that Finn is not waking up and that they are trapped on the rupturing planet. However, Chewbacca arrives with the Millennium Falcon to rescue them. Inside the main base, chaos reigns as General Hux has already fled, and the other officers rush to abandon the installation as well. Hux, meanwhile, reports to Snoke, who orders him to rescue Ren and flee the base, so Ren can finish his training. The Millennium Falcon and the remainder of the Resistance fleet manage to escape Starkiller Base as it erupts into a ball of fire. They then enter hyperspace to return to D'Qar.

Locating Luke Skywalker

The Resistance celebrates their victory while Leia, Chewbacca, and Rey mourn Han's death. R2-D2 suddenly awakens and reveals that he holds the map to Luke's location, with the only piece of the map missing being the one BB-8 was given by Poe. Together they complete the map and reveal the location of Ahch-To, the planet on which Luke Skywalker sought out the first Jedi Temple. As the unconscious Finn recovers in the medical unit, Rey kisses him on the head and thanks him for everything.

With R2-D2 and Chewbacca in tow, Rey leaves on the Millennium Falcon and follows the map to the distant planet, a water world dotted with islands, which she had previously seen in her visions. Rey pilots the starship to a particular island with a large, ancient stone village on it. She climbs the rock-carved steps to the top of the island, where she finds Luke Skywalker. Without exchanging any words, Rey presents him with his father's lightsaber.

Next from 2017 we were watching Star Wars: Episode VIII, The Last Jedi.

---

Following their successful operation to destroy Starkiller Base, Resistance fighters evacuate their main base on the planet D'Qar onto their fleet. Before they can complete their evacuation, First Order starships under General Armitage Hux arrive. Seeking to destroy the Resistance, Hux orders Captain Moden Canady to destroy the Resistance fleet and base with his Dreadnought Fulminatrix.

After the Fulminatrix exits hyperspace, one of General Hux's officers reports that a single fighter is flying to confront them. Together with his BB-series astromech droid, BB-8, Poe Dameron confronts the Fulminatrix in his X-wing Black One. General Leia Organa, now widowed by the murder of Han Solo at the hands of their own son Ben, alias Kylo Ren, cautiously approves Poe's reckless plan. Over the intercom, Poe taunts Hux and pretends to ignore his threat to wipe out the Resistance. However, this verbal exchange turns out to be a ruse for Poe to power up his X-wing's cannons for an assault on the Dreadnought.

Poe's X-wing quickly takes out the Dreadnought's point-defense cannons. When General Hux demands to know why Captain Canady is not shooting down the enemy fighter, Canady replies that the ship is too small and at too close range. He bellows orders to scramble the fighters, realizing that Poe wants to take out his cannons. Despite being attacked by TIE fighters, Poe calls upon BB-8 to fix the ship's cannons so they can take out the Dreadnought's last cannon.

Canady's dreadnought manages to destroy the Resistance base from orbit but not before the last transport led by Lieutenant Kaydel Ko Connix escapes into space. With the evacuation complete, General Organa wants to evacuate the Resistance forces but Poe wants to take out the Dreadnought. Disobeying General Organa's orders to disengage, Poe continues with the assault. BB-8 completes the repairs and takes out the last cannon before shooting down two pursuing TIEs.

Bomber run

With the Dreadnought's cannon's knocked out, Resistance bombers advanced on the Fulminatrix. Despite having starfighter escorts led by Blue Leader Tallissan Lintra, several of the slow moving bombers are destroyed by TIE fighters. Captain Canady orders that the Dreadnought's auto cannon be recharged so that they can target the Resistance cruisers. Several Resistance bombers are destroyed by a colliding TIE, leaving Paige Tico's Cobalt Hammer as the last remaining bomber.

As the auto cannon recharges, Canady orders his TIEs to destroy the last bomber. Poe contacts Paige who heads down to her bomber's bay only to find the bombardier Nix Jerd knocked unconscious. After a colliding TIE kills the pilot Finch Dallow, Paige manually releases the bomb load just as the Dreadnought's auto-cannon finishes recharging. The Fulminatrix and the Cobalt Hammer are destroyed in the ensuing explosions.

Despite the elimination of the Dreadnought, General Organa is dismayed by the high casualties including the loss of all of the Resistance's bombers. The Resistance vessels escape by jumping to hyperspace.

Shortly later, Supreme Leader Snoke confronts Hux via hologram transmission for his failure to block the evacuation and the loss of a Dreadnought. He publicly humiliates Hux by using the Force to spin him on the floor. Despite Snoke's disappointment, Hux insists the Resistance cannot escape for long because they have them "tied on the end of a string."

Aboard the Resistance flagship, the Raddus, Finn, comatose after losing a fight with Ren on Starkiller Base, awakens and immediately starts looking for his friend, Rey. Poe welcomes Finn back upon his return, telling him Rey has already left.

Finding Skywalker

Having arrived on the water world of Ahch-To with the Wookiee Chewbacca and astromech droid R2-D2 aboard the Millennium Falcon, the Force-sensitive Rey meets Jedi Master Luke Skywalker. She hands him Skywalker's lightsaber but he tosses it over his shoulder and walks away. A puzzled Rey follows Luke into his hut in the nearby Jedi village.

Outside his door, Rey tells him that he needs his help. She returns to retrieve Skywalker's lightsaber and spots Skywalker's T-65B X-wing starfighter submerged beneath the sea. Later, Rey has Chewbacca break down Skywalker's door. Skywalker recognizes Chewbacca and Rey tells them that they came on the Falcon. Skywalker asks where is Han Solo.

Snoke's lair

Kylo Ren exits a turbolift and enter Supreme Leader Snoke's throne room aboard the Mega-class Star Destroyer Supremacy. Snoke commends Hux for his plan and sends him to the bridge to oversee the pursuit of the Resistance. After Hux leaves, Snoke recalls seeing in Ren the potential to become a new Darth Vader, but now doubts his apprentice's resolve to fully embrace the dark side of the Force.

He orders Ren to remove his helmet, and upon seeing his scarred face-the result of his loss to Rey on Starkiller Base-he states that Ren has too much of Han's heart in him. Ren protests, claiming he embraced the dark side by killing Han, but Snoke furiously retorts that Ren instead psychologically weakened himself in committing the murder, causing him to be defeated by Rey, a junk scavenger who had previously never even wielded a lightsaber.

Ren reacts angrily to the insult, but Snoke repulses him with Force lightning and dismisses him as just "a child in a mask." Enraged, Ren destroys his helmet by violently smashing it to pieces against the walls of an elevator, before setting out in his personal TIE silencer to attack the Resistance fleet.

The elusive teacher

Back on Ahch-To, Rey updates him about the First Order's the invasion of the galaxy. She tells him that they need his help and that they need Luke Skywalker. Skywalker refuses to help because he believes he stands little chance against the First Order and walks away. Rey insists that she is not leaving and follows him through the Temple island.

She finds Skywalker milking a Thala-siren but he avoids her. Skywalker uses a long pole to reach the other side of the cliff and catch a large fish. Rey follows him through the rain back to his quarters, fingering her cloaked binary beacon. While following Skywalker up a mountain in the mist, she senses a voice calling to her from the Tree library. Inside, she finds the Sacred Jedi texts.

Skywalker follows her and explains that the three library was built a thousand generations ago to keep the sacred Jedi texts. Rey says that she saw this place in a dream. When Rey tells Skywalker that the Resistance sent her, he asks about her identity, homeworld, and motivations for coming here. Rey tells him that Resistance needs his help because of the First Order. When Skywalker asks what she is doing here, she tells him that she needs his help to master the Force. Skywalker refuses to teach her, believing that it is time for the Jedi to end. Rey says his sister Leia sent him and that they deserve to know why.

Pursuing the Resistance fleet

While the Raddus travels through hyperspace, General Organa griefs over the loss of Han. After the fleet exits hyperspace, Leia angrily reprimands and demotes Poe to Captain for disobeying orders and leading Cobalt Squadron to their deaths. Poe protests but Leia tells him that there are things that he cannot solve by getting into an X-wing and blowing things up. Poe says that the fallen were heroes but Leia responds that they need living fighters and not dead heroes.

When Finn asks General Organa how Rey is going to find them, she shows him her cloaked binary beacon. Leia tells hers subordinates that their priorities now is to find a new Resistance base. They are soon followed by a First Order fleet led by Snoke's personal command ship, the Mega-class Star Destroyer Supremacy, which has somehow tracked them through space. Poe thinks they should do another hyperspace jump but Leia realizes that the First Order has tracked them through lightspeed. Poe gets General Organa's permission to lead a starfighter defense.

Kylo Ren flies his TIE Silencer, accompanied by two TIE fighters, which inflict significant damage on the Resistance fleet. Before Poe and BB-8 can board their X-wing starfighter, Kylo Ren fires a torpedo into the hangar which destroys several parked fighters and kills several pilots including Lintra. Poe and a damaged BB-8 survive the explosion. Meanwhile, General Organa and Admiral Ackbar order the remaining Resistance ships to move out of range of the First Order Star Destroyers.

ining up for a bombing run on the Raddus's bridge, Ren hesitates to fire after sensing his mother's presence on board. However, his TIE fighter escorts take the shot, destroying the primary bridge and killing most of the Resistance's high command, including Admiral Ackbar. Ren then retreats to the Supremacy after General Hux warns that the fleet cannot protect him and his escort TIE fighters. A long pursuit begins, with the Resistance relying on their spaceships' mobility and deflector shields to stay out of effective weapons range while their fuel supplies dwindle.

Leia survives exposure to space by using the Force to fly back to the door of the Raddus's bridge. Leia is rescued by her Resistance comrades but is rendered comatose by the ordeal. As she is being transported to the sick bay, the binary beacon falls out of her hand. Finn picks it up.

A change of heart

While Rey sleeps in her heart, Chewbacca roasts a porg over the fire. While settling to his meal, he is confronted by the porg's kin. Chewbacca tries to shoo them away but is struck by the sight of a sad-faced porg.

Meanwhile, Luke Skywalker visits the Falcon where he finds Han Solo's dice, a memento to his fallen friend. Skywalker also has a brief reunion with R2-D2. Skywalker refuses to come back but R2-D2 plays back a hologram message from his sister Leia calling Obi-Wan Kenobi for help. Leia's message causes Luke to reconsider his decision. He visits Rey and agrees to give her three lessons, beginning tomorrow morning. Skywalker promises to teach her the ways of the Jedi.

A new commander

Back aboard the Raddus, Commander Larma D'Acy informs the assembled Resistance that General Organa is stable but in a coma. She regrets to inform them that Admiral Ackbar and the Resistance High Command perished aboard the bridge of the Raddus. D'Acy tells them that if Leia were here, she would tell them to save their sorrow till after the fight. The chain of command falls to Vice Admiral Holdo of the cruiser Ninka. Holdo gives a brief rousing speech before dismissing them to their posts.

Poe warns Vice-Admiral Holdo that they will eventually run out of fuel. When he asks her what is their plan, Holdo reminds Poe of his demotion and dismisses him as a "hot-head" pilot whose recklessness she deems a liability. Holdo orders him to stick to his post and follow her orders. Holdo's actions grate Poe, who doesn't trust his new commander.

Finn, fearing for Rey's safety if she eventually returns to the fleet, decides to go looking for her and heads for the escape pod bay.

There, he finds a young Resistance mechanic, Rose Tico, mourning her older sister Paige, who perished during the bombing run Poe led over D'Qar. Rose mistakes Finn for a deserter. Before he can explain himself, she stuns him.

After awakening on a gurney, Finn tries to tell Rose about his plan to find Rey. Rose thinks that Finn is being selfish. He manages to gain her trust by convincing her that he can help take out the First Order's hyperspace tracker, which he is privy to due to his time with the First Order. The two come up with a plan to infiltrate the First Order flagship and take out the hyperspace tracker.

Finn and Rose share their plan with Poe and C-3PO in Leia's medbay room. Not trusting Vice-Admiral Holdo's leadership, Poe agrees to the plan, believing that it can save the Resistance and Rey. C-3PO says that Holdo will not agree to their plan but Poe is determined to proceed. Since they can't get through the First Order security, they contact Maz Kanata, who is embroiled in a union dispute. While exchanging fire, Maz tells them to seek out the Master Codebreaker in the casino city Canto Bight. Before leaving to seek out the Master Codebreaker, Finn passes Leia's binary beacon to Poe.

Rey's first lesson

Meanwhile on Ahch-To, Rey and Kylo Ren begin communicating with each other through involuntary shared visions. Rey is hostile to Kylo due to their last encounter. Startled by Ren, Rey shoots a hole through the roof of a hut, which annoys the native Lanai caretakers, who have maintained the Jedi structures since they were built.

Later that morning, Luke leads Rey through a cave into the First Jedi Temple. Skywalker quizzes Rey about her knowledge of the Force, telling her that the Force is not simply a power but is the energy that binds all things. For her first lesson, he tells her to close her eyes, breathe and reach out. Luke tickles her with a leaf.

During the lesson, Skywalker tells her to breathe and reach out with her feelings while touching rocks. Through the Force, Rey sees the island, the cycle of life and death, warmth, cold, peace, and violence. When prompted, she tells Luke that she sense the Force inside. Skywalker explains that the Force does not belong to the Jedi, urging her to reject her simplistic view of the Force as cleanly defined between the light and the dark sides of the Force.

Rey senses a place beneath that is strong in the dark side beneath the island. Rey senses it calling out to her as the stones beneath her float. This summons a geyser of water. Rey says that it was trying to show her something Luke is alarmed that Rey showed little inclination to resist the dark side. Not being able to sense Skywalker in the Force, Rey realizes that Skywalker has cut himself off from the Force. Skywalker says he has seen this raw strength before in Ben Solo and that he regrets not taking action back then.

Later, Chewbacca has befriended several porgs, who have made their home aboard the Falcon. Rey asks Chewbacca if they have heard anything from the Resistance to which he replies in Shyriiwook that he hasn't. Rey and Ren continue to experience shared visions, and Rey excoriates him for murdering Han Solo, while Ren mocks her need to find replacement parental figures, first in Han and now Luke. Kylo Ren asks Rey if Skywalker told him what happened at his Jedi Temple.

Misadventures on Canto Bight

With the help of Poe, Finn, Rose, and BB-8 slip out of the Resistance fleet in a Resistance transport pod. Poe warns them that their mission is urgent because they only have 18 hours of fuel left. The travel to Canto Bight on the planet Cantonica in the Corporate Sector. The three Resistance operatives park their transport on a public beach, antagonizing the Abednedo businessman Slowen Lo, who alerts the Canto Bight Police Department and tells them that the offworlders went to the Canto Casino.

While Finn is mesmerized by the wealth and opulence of the Canto Bight, Rose tells him that the city is built on exploitation. While watching a fathier race at the Canto Bight racetrack, she explains that she came from a mining system that was exploited by the First Order, who later tested their weapons on them. The two witness a child racer being beaten by the overseer Bargwill Tomder. Finn realizes that Canto Bight is the haunt of wealthy war profiteers who sell weapons to both the First Order and the Resistance.

BB-8 spots the Master Codebreaker dancing with "Lovey" and alerts Finn and Rose. However, they are spotted by Slowen Lo. Finn and Rose are stunned by the Canto Bight police officers, who have them arrested for committing parking violation 27B/6. Lovey notices the commotion but the Master Codebreaker is engrossed with a game of poker. BB-8 is thrown out of the casino by the police.

Rey's second lesson

After parrying with her staff, Rey practices with Skywalker's lightsaber while Luke watches. She uses her lightsaber to cut through a pillar of rock, which smashes a wagon belonging to two Lanai caretakers. Later that evening, Skywalker explains that now that the Jedi are extinct, they are deified and romanticized. He believes that the legacy of the Jedi is failure, arrogance and hubris because they failed to prevent the rise of Darth Sidious and his Galactic Empire.

Skywalker reminds Rey that it was a Jedi Master who was responsible for training Darth Vader. Rey reminds Skywalker about the redemption of his father. However, Luke is still tormented by the guilt of his failure to keep Ben Solo from falling to the dark side, believing that he failed his sister and Han. Luke explains that he he sensed the darkness growing in Ren. When he went to confront him, Skywalker claims that Solo turned on him. When he awoke, Skywalker found his temple in flames and that Ben had taken some of his students and slaughtered the rest. Leia blamed Snoke but Luke blamed himself. Rey reassures Luke that the galaxy made him a legend and that she needs his help to find her place in this.

DJ in Jail

In space, General Hux orders the destruction of the Resistance medical frigate Anodyne. However, the captain has already evacuated the ship and stays behind as it is engulfed. Vice-Admiral Holdo watches in horror. When Lieutenant Connix reminds her that they only have six hours of fuel left, she orders the emergency bridge crew to remain on their current cause. Poe worries about Finn and Rose's mission and sends a message that they are running on fumes.

At the Canto Bight police headquarters, Finn and Rose encounter the slicer DJ, who offers to help them disable the First Order's hyperspace tracker in return for freedom. With the help of BB-8, the Resistance operatives and DJ escape the police headquarters through the sewers. Pursued by the police, they head to the fathier stables, where Rose convinces the stable children to help them escape, leaving one of them, Temiri Blagg, a Resistance ring.

Temiri releases the fathiers, creating a stampede that allows Finn and Rose to escape through the streets of Canto Bight. Riding on a fathier, the two flee to the beach in an attempt to reach their transport pod. However, it is destroyed by pursuing Canto Bight Mounted Police's speeders. Their fathier carries them up a hill to the outskirts of the city where they narrowly avoid falling off a cliff. Rose frees their fathier. Before the Mounted Police can catch up with them, they are picked up by DJ and BB-8, who have stolen the luxury yacht Libertine.

The cave

Back on Ahch-To, Luke revisits the cliff-side outcrop where he first began training Rey and attempts to re-open his connection to the Force, succeeding when he makes mental contact with an unconscious Leia. Meanwhile, Rey continues her conversation with Kylo Ren and demands to know why he hated his father Han. Noticing he is bare-chested, she asks if Kylo has something he can put on. Kylo Ren claims that his father treated him like garbage and that he was taken advantage of by Luke and his parents.

Recounting his version of his falling out with Skywalker. Ren claims to Rey that Luke grew afraid of Ren's growing power and tried to murder him while he was asleep and defenseless. He tells Rey to let the past die and to kill it if she has to, adding that it is the only way to realize her potential. Sensing the call of the dark side, Rey travels to a cavern beneath the island where the dark side is powerful and experiences a vision while touching a reflective rock wall, asking to see her parents but seeing only her own reflection.

Revelations

Unable to find answers about her origins and family, she resolves to abandon her Jedi training and leave Ahch-To. Rey returns to her hut where she communes with Kylo Ren. Finding a kindred spirit in Ren, she reaches out through the Force connection to hold his hand. They are soon discovered by Luke, by now reconnected to the Force. Luke angrily destroys Rey's hut with the Force and demands that she leave Ahch-To immediately, but Rey attacks him in her rage.

Luke fends off Rey's attacks and disarms her, but submits when she threatens him with his own lightsaber. He confessed that he contemplated killing a sleeping Ben Solo upon discovering his corruption by Snoke but instantly relented when he realized that it was a passing moment. Ben, however, awoke to see Luke standing over him with an ignited lightsaber and immediately counterattacked, destroying Luke's new Jedi Temple and disappearing to become Kylo Ren.

Rey believes that Kylo Ren can still be saved from the dark side. Skywalker warns her that it is not going to end the way that she thinks. Rey is adamant despite Skywalker's warnings. She tries to return his lightsaber to him but he lets her keep it. Rey believes that Kylo Ren is their last hope. Unable to convince Luke to join the Resistance, Rey leaves Ahch-To without him to confront Ren, hoping to turn him to the light side, succeeding where Luke failed.

An unexpected reunion

Following Rey's departure aboard the Falcon, Luke returns to the Tree library with a torch, intending to destroy the ancient Jedi texts. However, he is interrupted by the ghost of Yoda. As Luke hesitates at the task, Yoda himself summons a thunderbolt to destroy the library. Skywalker tries to enter the tree but is driven back by the flames.

Yoda remarks that he has missed Skywalker. Seeing the tree burning, Skywalker believes that it is time for the Jedi to end. Yoda counters that it is time to look past "old books." When Skywalker reminds him about the sacred Jedi texts, Yoda responds they were not "page-turners" which contained wisdom but that wisdom already exist. He tells Skywalker not to focus too much on the horizon but to pay attention to his immediate needs.

Skywalker blames himself for the loss of Ben Solo. Skywalker is not confident teaching Rey but Yoda encourages him to passed on what he has learnt. Yoda counsels Skywalker that failure can be the greatest teacher. As he and Skywalker watch the burning tree, he reminds Luke to reflect on what they go beyond.

The hyperspace tracker attempt

While traveling through hyperspace aboard the Libertine, Rose asks DJ if he can disable help them to infiltrate the Supremacy and disable the hyperspace tracker. When DJ asks for a price, Rose and Finn promise that the Resistance can pay him later. DJ agrees to help in return for receiving Rose's gold pendant as upfront payment for his services. Finn, knowing how much the pendant means to her, orders DJ to return it, to which the criminal tells him his philosophy: "don't join." Finn also discovers that DJ and BB-8 stole the yacht from an arms dealer selling weapons to both the First Order and Resistance.

Proceeding with their plan, Finn, Rose, DJ, and BB-8 infiltrate the massive Supremacy. After DJ slices through the First Order's sensor systems, he flies the Libertine inside the massive warship. They steal First Order officer uniforms from an automated launderette and make their way to a hyperspace tracker. BB-8 is hidden under a trash container. However, the intruders are spotted by the First Order astromech droid BB-9E.

While DJ is tinkering with the tracker's systems, Finn tells Poe to be ready to jump into lightspeed at his signal. DJ managed to unlock the inner chamber of the hyperspace tracker. However, Finn and his team are soon apprehended by First Order stormtroopers led by First Order Security Bureau Colonel Ansiv Garmuth and Captain Phasma, who gloatingly welcomes Finn home. BB-8, still disguised, is able to evade capture.

Poe's mutiny

By now, the Resistance fleet is down to the Raddus and General Hux is confident of victory. Aboard the Raddus, Poe angrily confronts Vice-Admiral Holdo for being secretive about her plans. He is anxious that the Resistance is down to one ship and asks what hope they have. Holdo responds that hope is a fleeting faith.

Starring at a computer screen, Poe realizes that Holdo has ordered the refueling of all the Resistance transports. He is outraged that Holdo is abandoning the Raddus and denounces her as both a coward and a traitor. Holdo orders the guards to remove Poe from the bridge. Poe also contacts Finn, who tells him that they managed to find a code-breaker and convinces Poe to buy them more time.

Back on the Raddus, Poe tells Holdo about his unsanctioned plan to send Finn and Rose to disable the First Order's hyperspace tracker. Believing that Poe has placed the Resistance in even more danger, she orders that the transports be prepared for departure.

In response, Poe instigates a mutiny, apprehending Holdo and her command staff. Poe and the mutineers including Lieutenant Connix take over the ship's emergency command bridge and try to restart the Raddus. However, Holdo snatches a blaster and frees herself. C-3PO refuses to take part in the mutiny and heads to the door, which is being disintegrated. When the door collapses, he is startled to encounter a recovered General Organa, who stuns him.

Connix and C-3PO also surrender, ending the mutiny and allowing the evacuation to begin. In the hangar, Leia remarks that Poe is a troublemaker while Holdo remarks that she likes him. Holdo volunteers to stay behind and pilot the cruiser. Leia is unwilling to risk anymore losses but Holdo tells Leia that she taught her how. The two friends part following a handshake.

Later, a dismayed Poe awakes to see the transports evacuating from the Raddus. Commander D'Acy tells Poe that they are evacuating to an old Rebel Alliance base on nearby Crait. Leia tells Poe that she approved of Holdo's evacuation plan, and that Holdo was more concerned with protecting the light than being a hero. Holdo wishes her comrades godspeed on the bridge of the Raddus.

Snoke's trap

As the Millennium Falcon travels through hyperspace, Rey tells Chewbacca to get to safety as soon as he gets her signal to rendezvous. Rey climbs into her escape pod which is jettisoned out the Falcon after exiting hyperspace. Rey flies the pod into the hangar where she is greeted by Kylo Ren and a pair of stormtroopers, who place her in binder cuffs.

As Kylo Ren takes Rey up the turbolift to Supreme Leader Snoke's throne room, she tells him that she feels the good in him and that she saw his future. She promises to help him. Kylo Ren responds that he foresaw that she will turn to him and claims to know who her parents are. Snoke is pleased with his apprentice for delivering Rey, telling him that his faith is restored.

Snoke bids Rey to come closer, admiring Rey's strength and remarking that lightness has emerged to meet the rising darkness. Snoke says that he warned Kylo Ren that as his powers grew stronger, so would his equal in the light. He then snatches Skywalker's lightsaber from Ren's hand with the Force. Snoke uses the Force to bring Rey closer to him.

Rey warns him that he underestimates Skywalker, Ben Solo, and her; and that it would be downfall. Snoke reveals that he was responsible for the mental connection between her and Ren as part of a plan to find and destroy Luke; exploiting their emotions and desires. Snoke demands that Rey reveal Skywalker's location but she remains defiant. Snoke uses the Force to levitate Rey and probes her mind for Skywalker's location.

Having proved Rey's mind and learned Skywalker's location, Snoke releases his Force grip on Rey and mocks Skywalker for his "wisdom." He vows to destroy Skywalker and the Jedi Order. Rey tries to seize Skywalker's lightsaber with the Force but Snoke uses the Force to hurl it at her. He then uses the Force to levitate her and force her to watch the destruction of the Resistance fleet through a viewport. Rey grabs Kylo Ren's lightsaber with the Force but the Elite Praetorian Guards flash their weapons. Rey charges at Snoke but he uses the Force to throw her to the ground. Kylo retrieves his lightsaber.

Resistance in peril

Meanwhile, in the Supremacy's hangar bay, Finn and Rose are brought out for a public execution in the presence of General Hux, Captain Phasma, and many First Order officers, soldiers, and pilots. Hux slaps Finn and thanks Phasma for her services. Finn and Rose learn that DJ has sold them out for his own freedom and financial gain.

Rose calls DJ a "lying snake" and struggles against her captors. DJ replies that they got caught and that the First Order was offering a better deal. DJ also reveals the Resistance's evacuation plan to the First Order, which is confirmed by the departure of 30 transports from the Raddus. General Hux orders the Supremacy to open fire on the Resistance transports, destroying several ships and inflicting heavy losses on the Resistance. Vice-Admiral Holdo orders the transports to continue their journey to Crait.

While Rey and Kylo fight the Praetorian guards, the Supremacy continues its bombardment of the Resistance transports. Finn denounces DJ for his treachery but the criminal is indifferent to their struggle, remarking that "they blow you up today and you blow them up tomorrow." DJ claims that it is just business but Finn disagrees. Believing Finn and Rose to be a waste of blaster bolts, Phasma orders First Order stormtrooper executioners to behead them with laser axes.

Killing Snoke.

Snoke orders Kylo Ren to kill Rey with his lightsaber. Believing he can read Ren's mind, Snoke is jubilant and mocks Rey. However, Kylo Ren uses the Force to activate Skywalker's lightsaber, which impales and cuts Snoke in half, killing the Supreme Leader. Ren uses the Force to pass Skywalker's lightsaber to Rey and the two join forces as the Praetorian guards converge upon them to avenge their fallen master. Kylo kills one with his lightsaber.

Rey manages to kill a Praetorian with her lightsaber but a second Praetorian wraps his electric nunchucks around her blade. Rey manages to break free by impaling the guard with her blade. A third guard divides his blade in half and charges at Rey. Ren is cornered by three guards but he breaks free and impales one, before throwing his body into a generator where he is disintegrated. As the three other guards converge on him, Kylo kills two but is grabbed by one who traps him in a headlock.

Rey is trapped by the other guard but manages to break free by dropping her blade and then slashing him. Rey helps Kylo to kill the last guard by handing him Skywalker's lightsaber, which he uses to impale the guard through the head, killing him. Rey implores Kylo Ren to order the First Order gunners to stop bombarding the Resistance fleet but Ren tells her to let the past die including the Jedi, Sith, Resistance and the First Order. He invites her to rule the galaxy by his side.

When Rey refuses, Kylo compels Rey to admit what she thinks she knew all along: that her parents were insignificant junkers who sold her for drinking money, and that they are dead and buried in the wastes of Jakku. He tells her that she comes from nothing and is nothing but not to him. Ren pleads with Rey to join him by his side.

Holdo's sacrifice

Seeing the Resistance fleet in peril, Holdo climbs into the helm of the Raddus. Not realizing Holdo's plans, Hux orders the Supremacy to continue firing. Using the Force, Rey and Kylo struggle for possession of Skywalker's lightsaber until it breaks into two, causing a large explosion.

Watching the Raddus powering away, Connix thinks she is running away but Poe disagrees. Holdo sacrifices herself to ram the Raddus into the Supremacy at lightspeed, cleaving it in two and destroying much of its escort fleet instantly. The resulting explosion sets the Supremacy's cargo hold aflame and interrupts Finn and Rose's execution.

Amidst the inferno, Rose helps Finn up and the two search for a shuttle. However, Finn and Rose are cornered by Phasma and several stormtroopers. Before she can eliminate them, BB-8 commandeers a docked AT-ST walker and intervenes, blasting the troopers. Finn and Phasma duel amidst the chaos. Phasma manages to knock Finn to the ground with her staff. Rose and Phasma exchange fire.

With Phasma distracted, Finn knocks her to the ground with his Z6 riot control baton. With her helmet shattered, Phasma denounces him as "scum" but Finn retorts that he is "rebel scum." Phasma falls to her death in a fiery chasm when the floor beneath her gives way. Finn, Rose, and BB-8 then flee the Supremacy, commandeering a Xi-class light shuttle.

In Snoke's chamber, Hux surveys the corpses of Snoke and his guards in disbelief. He sees the unconscious Ren and prepares to shoot him, but is forced to relent when Ren awakes. Learning that Rey has escape on Snoke's escape shuttle, Ren frames her for Snoke's death and orders Hux to prepare for a ground assault on Crait. This causes Hux to explode in fury at his rival's presumptuousness, but Ren angrily Force chokes him into submission, declaring himself the new Supreme Leader.

Battle of Crait

On Crait, the surviving Resistance fighters regroup at the abandoned rebel base, which was once a mine. General Organa orders her forces to shut the shield door. Pursued by TIE fighters, Finn, Rose, and BB-8 crash-land their stolen shuttle inside the base. Following a brief shootout, a brief reunion ensues with Poe hugging BB-8. Rose leads the search for weapons and finds rusted ammunition and several old ski speeders. Poe and Leia also send a distress signal to their allies in the Outer Rim Territories, seeking help.

Shortly later, they sense the earth shaking while the vulptexes scurry away. They realize that the First Order army has arrived with a phalanx of AT-AT, All Terrain MegaCaliber Six walkers and a Superlaser siege cannon. C-3P0 informs the others that BB-8 has done a schematics of the cave and found that there is only one entrance. Finn encourages the Resistance by reassuring them that allies will come and proposes that they take out the siege cannon.

While Resistance soldiers under General Caluan Ematt man the trenches and laser batteries, Poe, Finn, and Rose lead a charge with 13 old ski speeders to destroy the First Order assault force's massive siege cannon. Realizing that the Resistance is in the mine, Kylo Ren orders his forces to push them and dispatches TIE fighters. The speeders try to break off but several are destroyed by TIE fighters, which also strafe the trenches, killing many Resistance soldiers.

Rose is pursued by three TIE fighters but Rey and Chewbacca arrive in the Falcon, shooting them down. The Falcon also draws the TIE fighters away, shooting down several. Kylo Ren orders the First order to take that "piece of junk out of the skies." The Falcon leads the pursuing TIE fighters into a canyon. The ship's rear cannon is crushed against the rocks but several TIES also collide with the rocks. Chewbacca, with a porg watching, fly the Falcon into a canyon that leads to the surface.

Finn and Rose approach the superlaser siege cannon, which begins powering up. Supreme Leader Ren and General Hux order their walkers to concentrate fire on the speeders, destroying several. Poe thinks it is a suicide mission and orders Finn to retreat but Finn is determined to take out the cannon. He accelerates his speeder, igniting Rose's pleas.

Before Finn can complete his suicide mission, Rose prevents Finn from sacrificing himself to destroy the battering ram cannon, which then blasts a hole in the fortress. Poe and the surviving Abednedo pilot retreat into the trenches with the surviving soldiers. Finn climbs out of his wrecked speeder and rescues an injured Rose. When he asks why she stopped his mission, Rose replies that they survive by "saving what we love."

As the superlaser burns through the gate of the Crait base, Kylo Ren orders his forces to storm the base and show no quarter to the Resistance. Connix informs D'Acy that the Resistance broadcast has reached multiple points but that they have received no response. Leia laments that the galaxy has lost hope.

Light versus darkness

However, Luke suddenly arrives to comfort Leia. After exchanging pleasantries, Luke apologizes and tells Leia that he has come to confront Ren. Leia thinks her son is gone but Luke reassure her that nobody is gone. After handing Han's lucky dice to Leia, Luke walks out through the gate to confront Ren and the First Order while C-3PO and the rest of the Resistance look on.

Outside, Luke confronts Ren alone outside the breached door, giving the surviving Resistance fighters time to escape. Ren orders the First Order walkers to unleash a massive volley of turbolaser fire on Luke's position. Hux questions the amount of firepower but Luke emerges from the blast crater completely unscathed and mocks the First Order's firepower with a brush of his shoulder. Ren resolves to confront Skywalker despite Hux's objections, whom he shoves against the hull of the Upsilon-class command shuttle's cockpit.

Finn drags a wounded Rose on a makeshift stretcher into the Crait base while Ren lands his shuttle. Watching the battle, Finn wants to help but Poe realizes that Skywalker is buying them time to escape. Poe says that they are the "spark of resistance" that will burn the First Order down. After seeking C-3PO's advice, Poe decides to follow the Vulptexes, hoping they would lead them to a hole.

Meanwhile, Rey uses the beacon to track down her Resistance comrades' movements. She manages to track them down by following a group of . Finn and the Resistance encounter a pile of rocks which the Vulptexes are able to slip through but is too small for them. Outside, Rey discovers the pile of rocks and uses the Force to lift them. As the Resistance fighters stream out, Rey hugs Finn.

Outside, Kylo Ren confronts his uncle personally in a lightsaber duel on the salt plain outside the base, and asks Luke if he has come to forgive him or to save his soul. Luke replies no as the two draw their blades. Kylo charges at Luke but his uncle repeatedly evades Ren's attacks. Luke apologizes to Ren for failing him, but Ren angrily rejects his apology, declaring the Resistance is dead and the war over, and that with Luke's death shall come the ultimate death of the Jedi.

Luke counters by saying that both the Jedi and the Rebellion are born anew in Rey and the Resistance, and invites Ren to strike him down but tells he will always be with him just like Han. Ren tries, but is surprised to see Luke is still standing. He pokes his blade through Luke's torso, and to his horror it passes through him as if he were a ghost, revealing that Luke is physically still on Ahch-To and has been stalling for time via a non-corporeal Force projection of himself. Luke says goodbye to his fallen nephew before his projection fades away, leaving Ren furious.

The Rebellion is reborn

The effort to create the projection was too much for Luke, and he collapses from exhaustion. With the last of his strength, he climbs up to the cliff where he trained Rey and stares out towards Ahch-To's binary sunset, similar to the one he saw on Tatooine thirty-four years earlier, before he became a Jedi. Luke then dies, and his body vanishes as he becomes one with the Force.

On Crait, Leia and Rey sense Luke's death. The First Order storms the base, but are too late to prevent the remaining Resistance fighters from escaping aboard the Falcon, albeit not before Ren shares another force bond moment with Rey, who eventually shuts him out, much to his dismay.

After leaving Crait, Chewbacca hugs Leia. Finn opens a drawer on the Falcon to get a blanket for the gravely injured Rose, revealing briefly to the audience that Rey stole all of the books from the original Jedi library and Yoda did not destroy them after all. After being formally introduced to Poe, Rey laments Luke's death as she looks hopelessly at his broken lightsaber and the group's small numbers. Leia, however, notes that Luke is now at peace and that the Rebellion has all it needs to rise again.

Later, on Canto Bight, the stable children regale themselves with a story about Luke's adventures. They are interrupted by Bargwill Tomder who angrily orders the children to get back to work. Outside, Temiri Blagg, still wearing the Resistance Ring that Rose gave him, summons his broom with the Force and hopefully gazes up to the stars.

And lastly we watched 2019's movie Star Wars: Episode IX, The Rise of Skywalker.

---

A year after the battle of Crait, Supreme Leader Kylo Ren leads a vicious assault against Alazmec colonists on Mustafar, seeking a wayfinder owned by Ren's grandfather, Darth Vader; he requires the device as a guide in his hunt for the returned Emperor Palpatine, the public identity of the Sith Lord Darth Sidious, who he perceives as a threat to his power. The Leader slaughters many colonists alongside his stormtroopers before retrieving the device and slotting it into his ship, allowing its dark power to lead him through the crimson energy storms that surround the fabled Sith vastness of Exegol.

Landing at the foot of an enormous citadel, Ren ignites his blade and enters, eventually reaching a vast chamber lined with worn statues of Sith legends. As he descends into its depths, he hears Sidious mocking him; Ren's declaration that he had killed Snoke is dismissed: "I made Snoke."

Lightning dances around the young dark side adept as he listens to the taunting words, spoken in a voice transitioning from that of Sidious himself to that of Snoke and, finally, to that of Vader: "I have been every voice… you have ever heard… inside your head."

Ren, unshaken, proceeds further into the citadel, walking for some time among the towering effigies. His path lit by his blade, the young man eventually wanders into a maze of unfamiliar equipment tended by robed acolytes. Tall cylinders filled with a sickly golden liquid hold motionless, incomplete bodies with the mutilated visage of the dead Snoke; the Emperor's earlier words that he created the previous Supreme Leader are confirmed. Among these machines, bound by innumerable tubes and wires to machines of support and sustenance, is the emaciated and decaying figure of Sidious himself. Ren raises his blade, but Sidious speaks and stays his hand, explaining that the First Order was merely a harbinger of what he could bring about. A threat from the Supreme Leader seems to amuse Sidious, who assures the Supreme Leader that he has died before, and issues a familiar promise: the dark side is a pathway to many abilities some consider to be unnatural.

Ren asks what Sidious would give him; the Dark Lord replies simply: "Everything."

At the surface, the ice cracks and yields as innumerable Star Destroyers ascend from the frozen sea into the tempestuous sky.

With this, an ominously smiling Sidious offers the Final Order command in exchange of Ren killing Rey and so end the Jedi Order, in the act becoming what his legendary grandfather could not, and so that the younger man will take his place as Emperor when the Resistance ends. However, he also issues a warning: that Rey is not who he expects.

A vital mission

Meanwhile, on the Millennium Falcon, ex-stormtrooper Finn and Resistance pilot Poe Dameron engage the Wookiee Chewbacca in an intense game of dejarik. The Wookiee takes some time considering his next move, and his human opponents jokingly suggest that he may be cheating. The implication infuriates Chewbacca, forcing Finn and Poe to calm him. Before their game can resume, an alarm sounds from the cockpit. Passing Klaud, a Resistance technician, in the corridor, the trio arrive in their seats just as the Falcon exits hyperspace.

The Falcon arrives at the Sinta Glacier Colony to meet a Resistance informant, the Ovissian Boolio, who tells them about a spy and gives them a message in the form of a data encoder, ordering them to give it to Leia. Finn proceeds to insert the message into R2-D2.

Before more can be said, several squadrons of TIE fighters scream into the system, prepared to take down the Falcon. As Finn prepares for the action and heads to the gunner cockpit, Boolio tells him to win the war before heading off.

Forced to head into the depths of the colony by a wall of TIEs, the Falcon destroys a number of its pursuers before jumping to hyperspace through one of the colony's walls. The remaining fighters pursue them regardless, and Poe begins lightspeed skipping through a number of systems, whose dangers the First Order pilots are unable to evade. Poe is able to outmaneuver the enemy, though his reckless trick-flying heavily damages the Falcon.

A Jedi rises

On the jungle world of Ajan Kloss, which serves as the hidden base of the Resistance, Rey meditates solemnly, floating in the air alongside a number of rocks. She tries to maintain her composure and balance, but ultimately fails and, with a sigh, lowers herself to the ground. General Leia Organa, who had been watching nearby, comforts the discouraged acolyte, assuring her that nothing is impossible and that she will be able to commune with the Jedi who came before her, as she hopes to.

Reinvigorated, Rey accepts Anakin Skywalker's lightsaber and takes off running on another bout with her training course. She expertly runs and leaps through the obstacles, imbuing her actions with the Force. She blocks every bolt from her hovering training droid, but pauses and stares as it is revealed that Kylo Ren, to whom she is bound through the Force, is communing with his grandfather's helmet and speaking to her from his chambers far across the galaxy.

A vision, shared with Ren, terrifies the Jedi: the ascensions of the Sith Eternal fleet above Exegol; the face of her murdered mentor and Ren's father, Han Solo; the pained words of her master, Luke Skywalker, as she tapped into the dark side; her duel with and alongside Ren against the Praetorian Guards of Snoke; the departure of her parents from Jakku, leaving her behind in the grip of Unkar Plutt. Distracted by the vision, she ultimately batters the training remote with her staff, but damages BB-8 in the process. Rescuing the droid from beneath the tree that had collapsed on him, Rey returns to the base and concedes to Leia that she feels tired and unready to wield the saber of her master. BB-8 excitedly volunteers to take up the mantle, which Rey dismisses; smiling, Leia kindly reminds her never to underestimate a droid.

Some time later, in the midst of Rey's studies of the ancient texts she retrieved from the First Jedi Temple, the Falcon returns. It has been, however, severely damaged in the course of its escape from the First Order squadrons; Rey berates a fatigued Dameron for this, but he rebuffs her by noting that BB-8 is in similarly poor condition due to her earlier training accident. Rey dismisses the pilot, quipping that he's a difficult man, before hugging Finn, who jokingly joins her in condemning his companion. Although Rey is further angered by the revelation that Poe lightspeed skipped with the Falcon, a maneuver that the aging freighter cannot support, but the pilot admits the true cause of his concern: Rey is "the best fighter the Resistance has," but she has spent her time since Crait training and furthering her knowledge of the Force rather than participating in the war against the First Order. "We need you out there, not here," Dameron says before stalking off to begin briefing the Resistance on the information his group had obtained.

Poe cheerlessly informs those gathered that the message sent across the galaxy is confirmed: the Emperor has returned, heading an unprecedented fleet, with ambitions of vengeance and conquest. Rose Tico is dubious that the Emperor has truly risen again; Beaumont Kin raises the point of cloning and that the dark side held secrets only the Sith knew. Dameron further exposits that the designs of Darth Sidious have led to the creation of the Final Order, true successor to the Empire. In sixteen hours, the armada will embark from Exegol on a mission of galactic subjugation.

C-3PO chimes in, noting that Exegol is not on any star maps, and is described in lore as the Hidden World of the Sith. With this dismal news, the Resistance quietly debates their options until Rey, holding up one of her tomes, informs Leia that she needs to speak with the general privately. Showing her pages in the book, Rey explains that Luke had been searching for a wayfinder much the same way his former apprentice Ren had been doing, with a similar goal of reaching Exegol. However, his hunt had been left incomplete at its final step; if the Resistance could complete it, they could locate the wayfinder and use it to reach Exegol. Leia refuses to support this new mission, claiming that it is too dangerous, but the scavenger admits that she will go with or without the general's blessing, knowing that her newest mentor would do the same.

Accepting this, Leia dispatches her student to the desert of Pasaana, where a contact will be waiting. Though Rey plans to go alone, Poe, Chewie, and Finn tell her that they will accompany her. Though initially unwilling to accept the help and claiming she must accomplish the task alone, with a small speech from Finn, Rey accepts their aid. C-3PO also joins the group aboard the Falcon as it undergoes repairs, stating to R2-D2 before departure that, should he not survive, the astromech was the "best friend he ever had."

Finn briefly says farewell to Tico, confident that he will return, and Rey speaks once more with Leia, wishing that she could tell the princess of Alderaan everything she wanted to. Reassuring her student once again, Leia simply says: "tell me when you get back." The two hug, and Rey, emboldened, departs with her friends aboard the Falcon.

Rise of a dark warrior

A metalsmith, Symeong Sith alchemist Albrekh, stiches Ren's helmet back together as he looks on surrounded by his Knights of Ren. With that, the Supreme Leader convenes a meeting of the First Order Council aboard his Star Destroyer, including General Armitage Hux and Allegiant General Enric Pryde.

Ren, who has found and killed Boolio, slams Boolio's bloody, decapitated head on the table and informs them that they have a spy in their midst, but that it is irrelevant. A moment of tense silence leads him to ask if Hux, his rival in the First Order power structure, is troubled by his appearance; the general quietly dismisses this concern, while another officer says that she likes Ren's reassembled helmet.

Quinn speaks up, dismissing the Sith Eternal as "a cult, conjurers and soothsayers." Pryde refutes these concerns, stating that the resources of the First Order will be increased ten thousand fold by the incorporation of the Sith fleet into their own ranks. With a spiteful glance at a glowering Hux, Pryde notes that the influence of this ancient power will "correct the error of Starkiller Base." Unconvinced, Quinn wonders aloud if the ships are truly a gift, and what Palpatine might demand in return. In response, Ren brutally chokes the general through the Force and lifts his body to the ceiling without even looking at him.

The fallen Jedi then commands his officers to prepare to crush any worlds that will defy the Order, and that he and his acolytes will be hunting the scavenger.

Mission to Pasaana

The Falcon comes out of hyperspace over the desert planet of Pasaana. They land at Luke's coordinates and arrive at the Aki-Aki Festival of the Ancestors. Wandering among the crowd for a while, the group tries to keep a low profile. As Rey gazes at some Aki Aki youngsters, a child approaches her. Translated by 3PO, the child says she is named Nambi Ghima and offers a necklace to Rey, who smiles and accepts the kind gesture. When Ghima inquires as to the Jedi acolyte's family name, she replies that she doesn't have one.

At that moment, Kylo Ren establishes a connection with Rey through their bond. Speaking to her through this, Ren informs his quarry that Palpatine wants her dead. Rey comments that he is serving another master, but the fallen Jedi dismisses this, stating that he has plans of his own. After insisting that he will turn her to the dark side, Ren reaches out and grabs her necklace, pulling it through the Force into his own hands. Rey realizes the First Order will soon be coming and runs off to warn her friends.

As they reconvene and prepare to escape, a stormtrooper finds them but is quickly shot by a mysterious figure. This masked savior asks Rey and her team to follow him. Once they enter a transport, he reveals himself to be Lando Calrissian, the man who destroyed the second Death Star at the Battle of Endor many years prior. He shows them a hologram of a Sith wayfinder and explains that only two were ever created. He further reveals that he once accompanied Luke on a mission to track a man named Ochi, whom they believed held information key to locating one of the devices, but when they arrived, they found his ship abandoned. Lando apparently remained behind on Pasaana. The old hero of the Rebellion offers them directions to Ochi's ship, which remains in the desert where he left it.

Squadrons of TIEs and First Order dropships fly overhead as the crew hurries through the crowds to the fringes of the festival, eventually stealing a pair of skiff speeders. They are quickly spotted, however, and First Order treadspeeders begin a fierce pursuit, aided by jet troopers. They prove no match for the gang of heroes and are swiftly dispatched, though the chase drives the speeders into the Sinking Fields, where the damage done by the troopers fells them and sends the heroes into the quicksand.

They fall through it into a web of caves below the surface, quickly joining up as they use the glow of the Skywalker blade and Poe's diminutive flashlight to guide themselves through the confusing network of tunnels. The group eventually locates Ochi's remains, revealing that the Jedi hunter was swallowed by the sands and never escaped. Alongside his bones is a dagger that Rey senses has a dark past, while 3PO recognizes that it is inscribed with the ancient language of the Sith and is unable to translate due to restrictions on his programming. Dameron laments to the droid that this is "the one time we need you to talk, and you can't."

As they are about to depart and look for a way out, the team is cornered by an aggressive vexis. They prepare to fight the beast, but Rey notices that the serpent is injured. Using Force healing, Rey manages to appease the creature, which tunnels through the rock to create an escape for the team. At the same time, it is revealed that the Knights of Ren have arrived on Pasaana, and are hunting them.

The team hurries to Ochi's ship. As they near it, Rey pauses, the Force having informed her that Ren has arrived. She sends her friends ahead to the ship before running back into the desert to confront her nemesis. In the distance, Ren's new TIE fighter roars through the desert only meters above the sand. As it nears her, Rey runs into a leap and, as the ship flies beneath her, she severs a wing with her lightsaber and sends the ship into a tailspin. It crashes in a fireball some distance away.

During this time, however, Chewbacca and the dagger have been captured by the Knights and stormtroopers while the Wookiee was leaving to retrieve Rey. Finn observes the latter forcing the Wookiee onto a transport, and runs to Rey to inform her of this. Kylo Ren, having emerged from the wreckage of his ship, advances across the desert and engages in a duel of the Force with Rey, each of them pulling the First Order transport to their side. In this struggle, Rey accidentally releases a burst of Force lightning, destroying the vessel and seemingly killing Chewbacca. Ren allows the Jedi and her allies to escape in Ochi's vessel, as his own troops have captured the Falcon.

As the Jedi hunter's ship hurries away from Pasaana, Rey mourns that she has apparently killed Chewbacca. Finn attempts to reassure her, stating that he knows the good person he believes her to be, but she dismisses his words, claiming that no one knows the truth behind who she is. As the wookiee had the dagger, a further setback is revealed: they have no way to reach Exegol. C-3PO, however, reveals that he has retained the information from the dagger in his memory. A plan to hack the protocol droid's programming restrictions is formed, and following a tip from Poe, the heroes set course for Kijimi. During the trip, BB-8 finds and reactivates the droid D-O on Ochi's ship.

A new mission

The heroes of the Resistance make their way to the snow-dusted planet of Kijimi to execute their plan to discover what secrets the Dagger held. The Resistance team arrives on the planet and bump into Zorii Bliss and her crew. She reveals that Poe has a colorful past, once worked as a spice runner and still owes her money. A skirmish occurs before Rey gets the upper hand and Zorii agrees to bring them to Babu Frik to hack C-3PO's programming to read the Sith language on the Dagger. Unknown to them, the Knights of Ren have tracked them there.

Zorii Bliss brings them through a back alley and into a little bar in order to get to the droid ship. Frik tells everyone that he can unlock the message to be read, but in doing so C-3PO's memory will be wiped. Still reeling from the loss of Chewbacca, the heroes argue about finding another way to get the job done, but in an act of self-sacrifice C-3PO voluntarily consent to the modifications, knowing that he will be lost in the act. Frik completes the hack and 3PO is now able to read the message inscribed on the Dagger.

The translated text points them to the location of Emperor's wayfinder. Having served his purpose, 3PO's memory wipe begins and he shuts down. Once the memory wipe is complete, 3PO reboots with a completely empty memory.

Outside the bar, Zorii and Poe reminisce about old times. There is some lingering connection there even though they had some sort of falling out in the past. Poe tries to convince Zorii to join them. She turns him down, but she understands the good in what Poe is trying to do and gives him a First Order Captain's Medallion as a gesture of goodwill to help them get through First Order security. She had been saving to buy this medallion on the black market as her ticket off Kijimi and away from her spice running days, but she gives it to Poe.
